Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R

Synopsis: Investigation in the State of Washington fails to disclose LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK LEON RUBY have ever resided in the State of Washington. THOMAS VIRGIL LUCE, Ellensburg, Washington, admits opposing KENNEDY in heated political arguments with fellow employees, but denies being in sympathy with assassination by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Individuals claiming knowledge of assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and individuals claiming acquaintance with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK LEON RUBY contacted with negative results.

DETAILS:

Investigation is predicated upon receipt of information from the Bureau on November 22, 1963, to the effect that President JOHN F. KENNEDY had been assassinated in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mr. A. L. ROCKWELL - Complainant
Complaint re TOMMY VIRGIL LUCE - 11/26/63

Mr. A. L. ROCKWELL, electrician and crane operator at Wanapum Dam, Washington, telephonically contacted the Seattle Office and advised that some engineers at the site were offering $100.00 to anyone who would assassinate President KENNEDY. He stated that the car pool in which he rides to the site have all heard them say this, and the last time it was offered was two days before the President was shot in Dallas, Texas. ROCKWELL does not know the names of the engineers, but they are all employed by Kaiser Engineers of New York City. ROCKWELL stated that two others in the car pool who would know of this are _____ KETHCAM (phonetic) and BILL BUELER (phonetic).

ROCKWELL went on to say that when they heard (the inspectors) of KENNEDY's death, they said, "Well, we go rid of that Nigger lover," and then laughed. ROCKWELL was unable to furnish any more information. ROCKWELL lives at Moses Lake, Washington.

The following investigation was conducted by SA EUGENE P. CLARK and SA GEORGE J. FOSTER:

AT WANAPUM DAM, WASHINGTON

On November 27, 1963, Mr. A. L. ROCKWELL, Moses Lake, Washington, a crane operator, advised that he was told by L. G. KITCHEN, an electrician, that a PUD inspector had made a statement to the effect that he would offer $100.00 to anyone who would assassinate the President.

ROCKWELL stated he does not know the identity of the individual who made this statement, but that KITCHEN, who is in ROCKWELL's car pool, does.

On November 27, 1963, LAWRENCE G. KITCHEN, Post Office Box 83, Moses Lake, Washington, advised as follows:

He had been told of a statement that was made by one TOM LUCE who works for the Harza Engineering Company concerning offering of money to anyone who assassinated the President, and this statement was made by LUCE to PAUL JACKMAN, an electrician.

On November 27, 1963, PAUL JACKMAN, 123 "D" Southeast, Ephrata, Washington, an electrician at Wanapum Dam, advised as follows:

About two to three weeks ago he and TOM LUCE were in a heated political discussion, and it was quite evident that LUCE was anti-KENNEDY Administration. LUCE made a statement something to the effect that if someone started a movement to assassinate the President, he, LUCE, would donate $100.00 to the cause and give this person a medal. JACKMAN stated he does not believe that LUCE belongs to any association or group but purely made this statement because of his anti-KENNEDY Administration and because LUCE likes to consider himself somewhat of a bigshot and bragger.

JACKMAN stated that LUCE likes to give the impression that he is an important person and has stated to him that he was or had an important position in the Air National Guard in Spokane, Washington, when in fact, he, LUCE, was only an airman in the Air National Guard in Spokane. Also, LUCE, who is only an office clerk for Harza Engineering Company, has sent out mail and received it back under the title of Assistant Office Engineer, Harza Company, Wanapum Dam.

BILL BEUHLER, Route 2, Box 2254A, Wenatchee, Washington, advised that one HARLEY FABER, Inspector for PUD who lives in Ephrata, had made the statement after the assassination of the President that he was glad that they finally got the "nigger-loving SOB." Later on BEUHLER cornered FABER and asked him if he really meant that statement and FABER stated that he was sorry he had said it and that he felt as bad as anyone about the assassination of the President. Wash.

BEUHLER stated that he also contacted TOM LUCE to see if he was the person who had made this statement regarding $100.00 for anyone who would assassinate the President or words to that effect after the assassination. He talked to LUCE, November 26, 1963, about it, and LUCE did not deny making this statement. BEUHLER said to LUCE that he ought to send $99.00 to the widow of OSWALD and take the $1.00 and obtain a photograph of himself and send it to the widow of President KENNEDY, and LUCE thought that sounded like a good idea.

TOMMY VIRGIL LUCE has worked for Harza Engineering since approximately 1958. He works in the office, and he is somewhat of a braggart and egomaniac. He likes to impress people with what he is and always talks about the important position he has or how much money he has spent. He considers LUCE a "windbag, always trying to impress people." He does not believe that LUCE belongs to any leftist or rightist group or any movement but is a kind of guy who shoots his mouth off about everything and anything. He likes to build up his ego-and will talk about politics, religion, furniture, what he does, what he thinks, everything that he can think of to try to impress somebody.

GOULD stated that he feels LUCE would have made such a statement just in order to impress somebody and he felt that an interview by the FBI would only tend to build up LUCE's ego and impress people with the importance of LUCE.

GOULD stated that his records reflect LUCE was born November 26, 1935, he is 6 feet, 195 pounds, and one year at Whitworth College. He resides in Apartment C-1, Hillcrest Apartments, Ellensburg, Washington. He is married to JANICE CAROL LUCE and has Social Security Number 537-28-4493.

Mrs. Thomas Virgil Luce

Date January 13, 1964

Tom Tommy Virgil Luce

THOMAS VIRGIL LUCE, Apartment C-1, Hillcrest Apartments, corner of First and Walnut Streets, Ellensburg, Washington, was advised he was not required to make any statement, that any statement he made could be used against him in court, and that he had the right to consult with an attorney before making any statement. He then advised that he is presently employed as an assistant engineer by the Harza Engineering Co. at Wanapum Dam and paid through the Grant County Public Utilities District. He advised he has never been arrested for anything other than traffic citations and is presently a staff sergeant in the 141st Fighter Group of the Washington Air National Guard, based at Spokane, Washington. He is interested in and active in archery, flying, and automobile racing and does design work on race car engines.

When LUCE was confronted with the report that he was alleged to have made certain statements indicating he would be willing to contribute toward the welfare of anyone who would get rid of the President, he advised that he has no clear recollection of ever having made such a statement; and if he did make such a statement, he certainly did not mean the type of application that these mere words would imply. He stated he has disagreed politically with other workmen and with the policies and practices of the administration on many occasions, but he is a firm believer in changes in government by constitutional means, and not by force; and he deplored the very act of assassination because he recognized that by such means those same principles with which he did not agree would, because of the public's inclination to establish President KENNEDY as a martyr, also tend to automatically perpetuate those principles as now too sacred to disapprove. He also admitted that in his numerous discussions of political problems and principles with other men at the Dam, he may have made some remark which might be construed as sensational, however, he would have made it in the form of some outburst to overbalance some other man's argument or give impetus to some point in such discussions and then would have meant to infer only removal from office by legal means. He stated he believes, and has verified this by PAUL JACKSON, that the discussions took place some five or six weeks prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and in the presence of persons whom he cannot now recall. He recalled that following the death of the President, BILL BEUHLER openly called him a Communist and made some remark to the effect that he supposed LUCE would now want to send some money to OSWALD's widow. LUCE assumed that was merely a scornful remark, and he replied somewhat facetiously, "Oh, yeah, that would be a good thing," assuming BEUHLER would know he was just joking; however, when BEUHLER started to walk away, he tried to stop him, realizing that BEUHLER did not consider the matter in that light vein, however, BEUHLER left without having a chance to listen to his explanation at the time.

LUCE advised he had no intimation the assassination would occur, knew none of the participants, was emphatically opposed to such drastic action in any political atmosphere, and would strongly condemn such violence as opposed to the orderly and democratic processes of our government. He added that when he first heard news of the assassination, he thought someone was reporting it merely for a joke and for effect, and that actually there was no such assassination; however, when he realized the report was factual, the impact of it on him was one of shock. LUCE advised he had previously considered himself as a good Democrat and was a former member of the Committee on Political Education when he was employed at the Trentwood plant of the Kaiser Aluminum Co., but he has changed his views and now considers himself more of a Republican, however, he is certainly not a Communist, nor does he subscribe to Communist philosophy in any way. He probably has made statements to the effect that President KENNEDY should be removed from office, but anticipated this would be by the voters at the next election, and not by violent means. He recalled that he had mentioned the rumor regarding the statement or statements attributed to him with PAUL JACKMAN, as well as others, and JACKMAN told him that if he had made such a statement in apparent sincerity, he would have challenged him at once, but he considered he had not done so.

The following description of LUCE was obtained by observation and questioning:

Age:	28,
Born:	November 26, 1935, Spokane, Washington
Weight:	190

Hair:	Dark brown
Eyes:	Hazel, wears dark-rimmed glasses

Letter from JOHN H. LYNCH, 2732 - 10th Avenue South, received November 26, 1963

Seattle, Wash.

"Gentlemen:

"More than once in the past year I was on the verge of writing to you to tell about a neighbor of mine but I let it ride. However, this episode in connection with the news of President KENNEDY being shot was the straw that broke the camel's back.

"This neighbor of whom I speak is a tenant of one of the cabins that is close to my cabin. His name is HARRY STANTON HARRY, and his address is 2802½ - 10th Avenue South, Seattle. For about three years I have known him intimately. I have been in his cabin to watch television and have coffee innumerable times. I myself have a little sense, and do not make irresponsible remarks. So, what I have to say is the truth. Wash.

"He has an intense hatred of all things American. As long as I have known him he went out of his way to belittle

American accomplishments. Twice he told me he is a Socialist. He has all praise for the Russians, no matter what they do. He has all praise for CASTRO. During the Cuban crisis he said the Russians could chase the American forces out of there with ease. When WHITTAKER, the American, climed Mount Everest, he snarled at that, claiming other countries got there first. He won't allow a bit of credit to go to the American flag, no matter whether the subject is international sports, or history.

"Now, all of the above, although aggravating, would not be sufficient cause for me to write to you. My real reason takes on a more serious vein in the balance of this letter.

"This man claims he has a knowledge of electronics. For several months he has indicated to me that he is seeking to obtain employment somewhere that involves electronics and radar. He has mentioned the idea of working on the 'Dew Line' in Canada.

"I am positively certain that if he obtained a position involving classified information, or secrets, he would quickly contact the Russians to pass along secrets. His hatred is that great.

"I'll make a prediction. If he obtains a job involving classified secrets, he will make the headlines as a traitor, not a year later, but within thirty days.

"On the morning that the first news came over the radio about Mr. KENNEDY being shot, I shut off my radio and went out to tell him, on impulse. Somebody else told him first, and he was practically jumping for joy. Here is what he shouted at me:

"'I'm glad--I hope he's dead--I hope they got them all.'

"I said to myself, that does it. It is time for me to write that letter.

"Last Christmas, and the Christmas before, he worked temporarily for the Seattle post office, handling mail with his pick up truck. He is going to apply again this Christmas season. You will be able to get his pedigree at the Seattle post office.

"Sincerely,
"/s/ John H. Lynch"

Complaint from Mrs. ESTHER KELLER re DAN YARBOROUGH, received 11/26/63

TEXAS

On November 26, 1963, Mrs. ESTHER KELLER, 11085 Arroyo Beach Place Southwest, Seattle, Washington, CH 4-2035, telephonically furnished the following information concerning DAN YARBOROUGH, Houston, Texas:

Mrs. ESTHER KELLER, wife of local attorney, advised on November 16, 1963, she was in Houston, Texas, and desired some Mexican food. She and a friend, that she will not identify, went to the La Paloma. Shortly before or about noon, DAN YARBOROUGH came into the cafe with three men. He asked for a private room, but there was none. She said YARBOROUGH was first and the second man she described as: 50 some years of age, 6 feet, dark hair with receding hair line, swarthy complexion, dark eyes, 200 to 205 pounds, no glasses, no peculiarities, wore dark overcoat even though YARBOROUGH was in shirt sleeves. The third man was similar to the second man, but was shorter. The last man was in his early 30's, 6 feet, blondish hair, heavy build.

Mrs. KELLER said the second and third man looked like Chicago hoodlums, and she wondered what a man like YARBOROUGH would be doing with them. She said YARBOROUGH had been a candidate for governor and had run against Governor CONNALLY. She recalled the men ordered three beers and a glass of milk when they came in. She said she realized these men would not be meeting in public and in the daytime if there was anything seriously wrong with their meeting, but she felt she wanted us to know about it.

Letter from M. KIENHOLZ to editor of "Spokesman Review," Spokane, Washington - 11/25/63

On November 27, 1963, the Seattle FBI Office received a copy of the following letter:

"Dear Sir,

"The tragic assassination of President KENNEDY again highlights the lunacy of the 'peaceful coexistence' theory. As the FBI has revealed on its Warning Chart (a simplification of which Freedom Library has circulated widely), this is part of the current party line. Internation__ Communism is as bloody as ever.

"The State Department's complicity in the murder should not be overlooked. Without OSWALD's illegal re-entry to the U. S. from Russia, made possible by that agency, President KENNEDY would still be living. (Persons who renounce U. S. citizenship as OSWALD did are not eligible for re-entry.)

"Another factor of importance is that OSWALD was quickly killed after his admission of Communist Party and Fair Play for Cuba membership. This ties in with the fact that as soon as the 'blame-the-rightists' line was pronounced by Tass we, at the Freedom Library, received several anonymous calls charging us, as 'Birchers', with murder and stating a committee was being formed to destroy us. These calls stopped immediately upon the unexpected quick apprehension of OSWALD.

"Sincerely,

FREEDOM LIBRARY,

/s/ M. Kienholz, Manager"

Letter from LOIS D KITCHENER, 4311 - 12th Northeast, Seattle, Wash received 11/26/63

"Gentlemen:

"You are welcome, indeed, to the carbon and I am sorry to comment again so soon on another matter but I feel even a remote thought may be of value at this time.

"Although the papers say that it was 1962 when the man, OSWALD, charged with the murder of President KENNEDY, returned to this country, I wonder if it could have been in 1961. Which may not be important.

"But during the year of the World's Fair in Seattle, I went through the peculiar experience of having a great many people cough at me including two men who spat on my breakfast one morning at Leo's Coffee Shop here in University District. I cannot be positive, but after seeing his picture in tonight's Times, I am again quite sure, as I was last night, that he was one of the men. There were two, one very swarthy with glasses, one just medium. As I recall, the medium one was about half a head taller than his companion. They were casually dressed in work or sports-leisure type clothes with jackets. The man with glasses had a thinning spot on his head where his hair was not so thick.

"I recall this as happening when the Fair was still on, but I might be able to check the date for you, if you wish, by checking a doctor's appointment not long after the occurrence. It was very cleverly and skillfully done on their part, as if they had great practice in such an annoying habit. As I say, I am not positive but felt the resemblance might be of interest.

"Yours very sincerely,

/s/ Lois D. Kitchener"

HARRY GLASGOW - Complainant
Re DONALD J. TRAYNOR

On November 26, 1963, Mr. HARRY GLASGOW contacted the Seattle FBI Office and furnished the following information about a boarder in his rooming house:

HARRY GLASGOW telephonically contacted the Seattle Office in regard to what he considered the suspicious actions of a boarder at his rooming house.

Mr. GLASGOW stated on November 19, 1963, he received a call from a DON TRAYNOR who was inquiring about a room that Mr. GLASGOW had for rent. TRAYNOR took the room and was an average roomer until he heard of the death of President KENNEDY. At that time TRAYNOR "went to pieces," "just went crazy." He was extremely upset. When he heard that OSWALD had been killed, he stated that RUBY should get the Congressional Medal of Honor.

TRAYNOR is a retired Marine just out of the service. He was supposedly stationed at Camp Pendleton in California up until his discharge recently. When he heard of the President's death, he made a long distance call to Camp Pendleton to a Captain TOM BROWN. Mr. GLASGOW tried to get a hold of Captain BROWN later, but was told by the Base Locater at Pendleton that there wasn't a person by that name at Pendleton, nor was there a Master Sergeant by the name of DON TRAYNOR at the camp.

In addition, TRAYNOR was found to have moved to the Astor Hotel under the name of TRAYOR. TRAYNOR said, "I won't go back. I won't go back." It was thought that TRAYNOR had been in San Quentin as he said he had gone with a girl from San Quentin.

On November 29, 1963, at 3:15 p.m., Detective R. E. VARNEY, Seattle Police Department, advised the following:

Seattle, Wash.

On November 29, 1963, BONNIE GREEN and JEANNE BLIZZARD, 558 Highland Drive, AT 2-0913, advised Detective VARNEY that TRAYNOR moved in next ddor to them on November 19, 1963, claiming to be an ex-Marine officer from California. The girls did not believe this story as one of them is in some way connected with a Marine.

They further advised that on the day President KENNEDY was shot, they were with the TRAYNOR, and he, immediately on hearing the news, began to act in a very strange manner, said some things that lead the girls to believe that he had some prior information concerning the matter, and then immediately moved to the Astor Hotel. He left all of his belongings, which all appeared new, in the girls' apartment. When he called for these things, on November 24 or 25, 1963, he advised the girls that he was in the Astor under the name of TRAYER.

TRAYNOR is described as follows:

Height	6' 5".
Weight	165 pounds
Build	Very thin
Hair	Dyed slate gray (almost brown) Natural color is a yellow-gray Hair was dyed by one of the girls on his request.
Eyes	Blue-gray (TRAYNOR wears glasses with very dark rims)

On December 2, 1963, DONALD G. TRAYNOR, Astor Hotel, 726 Pine Street, advised that he was with the complaining parties on November 22, 1963, and November 24, 1963, and that he was very upset about the incidents.

He further advised that he did not know OSWALD nor RUBY and that he moved to the Astor to get away from BONNIE GREEN, one of the complainants.

Mr. TRAYNOR is in Seattle seeking employment and states that he is recently from San Francisco, California. He produced a payroll record from Re-development Construction Company, 5001 Diamond Heights Boulevard, San Francisco 31, California. He further advised that he was employed in San Francisco for about two years. He also produced an honorable discharge dated 1945.

Mr. TRAYNOR advised that he knows nothing of the incident and was very cooperative.

Mrs. KEN JOHNSON - Complainant
Re: Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT R. BROWN, 11/30/63

On November 30, 1963, Mrs. KEN JOHNSON, Third grade teacher, Ronald School, North 175th and Linden, Seattle, Wash. telephonically advised that one of her students, an 11-year old girl named DELMA BROWN, claims her father was acquainted with LEE OSWALD. She advised the child and her brother, ROBERT, age 9, brought a newspaper clipping to the school and told some of the teachers and students that their father knew LEE OSWALD. Approx. 1952-53 Approx. 1954-55 BROWN

Mrs. JOHNSON did not know the father's name but advised the BROWN family resides in the Garden Park Apartments, 17545 Aurora Avenue North, Seattle, and the father is supposed to work for the Ballard Plumbing Company.

On December 2, 1963, Mrs. ROBERT R. BROWN, 17545 Aurora Avenue North, Seattle, was contacted regarding complaint of Mrs. KEN JOHNSON, November 30, 1963. Mr. + Wash.

Mrs. BROWN advised that neighter she nor her husband knew OSWALD or RUBY and that their daughter, DELMA, had rectified the misunderstanding at her school. She believes her daughter overheard a conversation wherein she mentioned she had know some Dallas policemen.

Mrs. W. R. STEVENS - Complainant - 12/2/63

On December 2, 1963, Mrs. W. R. STEVENS, 16555 - 173rd Place Northeast, Woodinville, Washington, telephone HU 6-1703, contacted the Seattle Office. She is employed by McGinitie and McDonald, Colman Building, First and Madison, telephone MA 2-2730. She furnished the following information. Woodinville, Wash.

Shortly after the assassination of former President KENNEDY, her employer, ALLAN H. McDONALD, told her about a remark which was reportedly made at the Foreign Trade Zone operated by the Port of Seattle. As soon as the news of the shooting of KENNEDY was announced, the head of the Foreign Trade Zone, name unknown, reportedly laughed and called his wife on the telephone and said, "Well, they finally got him" or words to that effect. One man who reportedly heard the remark is a customs broker, name unknown, but he represents the J. T. Steeb Company, which is located in the Colman Building. Mrs. STEVENS does not know whether her employer, ALLAN H. McDONALD, heard the remark, however, he did say it should be reported to the FBI.

Mrs. STEVENS said she realizes this information is hearsay, and that it could have been distorted in passing from one person to another. Also, she requested that her employer not be interviewed if possible, but if necessary, that she not be identified as the source. She could not further identify the man who made the remark, but she believes that he is an employee of the Port of Seattle, and the official in charge of the operation of the Foreign Trade Zone. The Foreign Trade Zone is located on Pier 29. She believes the J. T. Steeb Company man who reportedly heard the remark can be identified easily because each company has only one representative at the Foreign Trade Zone. She had no further information.

Letter signed "IQ 185" received 12/3/63

"Dear Gentlemen:

"I am sorry now that I did not contact you sooner. I just spoke with Mr. BOEHMER, Intelligence Divison of the U. S. Treasury division, and told him my opinion of the recent events. He advised me to write to you.

"I think the martyred President's brother, Mr. KENNEDY is in grave danger!

"Why? Lets use a little logic!

"The shooting of our President was not inspired by Russia nor right-or left-wing people--BUT, by gangsters! It had all the earmarks of gangster type killings the well planned, 'waiting,' cool headed shooting. The shooting later of the culprit, to keep his 'mouth shut.' The one, RUBY who was evidently the go-between, and was so recognized by the killer when RUBY came into the basement of the Dallas jail. He, the killer never looked at anyone else all the time RUBY was advancing toward him & killed him. RUBY, according to my deduction was the man to do the 'pay-off' for gangland's organization. RUBY was owner of a night club in Dallas, and it certainly strained my credulity when they (Dallas Police) said they did not know who he, (RUBY) was when he came into the jail.

"RUBY thinks he will get Public sympathy & go free because he shot the killer of the president. I sincerely hope not, because he would just do the same thing again if oportunity offered.

"We all know that gangsters, the hired killers of gangsters are heartless killers. The payoff men are just as guilty.

"I felt from the beginning that it was a gangland killing & tried to get in touch with Mr. BOEHMER Saturday morning (early) & tell him I felt the killer's life was in danger--in order to shut him (OSWALD) up, but I could get no one on the phone because all government offices were closed.

"The gangsters did not anticipate such a quick arrest & they figured they would get OSWALD out of the country before they traced the gun. I am glad the public was as alert & reported the various incidents that led to OSWALD's arrest.

"The whole thing stems from the Government investigation of gangsters by the 'Singing' of the 'lifer' by the present administration. That is why I am writing to you to protect Mr. KENNEDY, the late President's brother, who was head of the investigation.

"If they had pumped OSWALD's stomach when they arrested him & found the chicken, It would have been positive proof that he was the man who ate chicken while waiting.

"Gentlemen, we will have to clean-up the organized gangs in this country--If the President is not safe no one else will be. They are getting bolder all the time. Dope, and white slavery are rampant. The profits are enormous, so they can offer vast sums of money for killers---'Shades' of---H.S. WELLS, book of prophesy The Shape of things to come.

"Kidnapings--three small girls in Washington State alone in recent years, go unsolved & unpunished--This encourages gangs.

"To begin a real clean-up--start with the various police departments--clean them up first. It is the connections that gangs have in our police departments that give them the power they have. (Dallas example)

"My own experience has been that anyone that even has been in the Sherrif's department & has friends in the department gets favors--even if someone has a legitimate case against a former law-enforcement officer.

"My advice, investigate RUBY's connections in Chicago.

"Sincerely,
/s/ I.Q 185"

Letter from ROBERT E. WARRICK
Re Mrs. CARL BERG - 12/5/63

"Mr. WHALEY,

"I am writing this short note to you for two reasons. First, I would like to thank you once again for the very interesting and timely talk given by you recently at the Bellevue Exchange Club. Your talk was appreciated by all present. Secondly, I am writing this note to pass on to you the name of an Issaquah woman that I feel reacted quite strangely to the shocking news of President KENNEDY's assassination. Perhaps in giving you the name of this woman, I am doing her an inustice, but due to the extreme nature of her reaction to the nes, I feel justified in writing this note. She is Mrs. CARL BERG, Mt. Gooden Trailer Park, Lot 72, Issaquah, Wash. Her telephone number is EX 2-5620.

"My first and only contact with Mrs. BERG was made while working with another telephone man (RONALD C. HOLMES) in the immediate proximity of her residence in Issaquah. That contact was the breaking of the news by Mrs. BERG to HOLMES and myself that the assassination had occured. She related the news in such a jubilant manner that the manner was startling in itself. Mrs. BERG was beside herself with joy and made a statement to the effect that LYNDON JOHNSON should be the next one to go. Not finding HOLMES and myself sympathetic to her exuberance, she went off down the road where she was equally jubilant to a neighbor working in his yard. I know this fact because of the neighbor commenting to us later about this woman's unbelievable reaction to such shocking news.

"WES, RON HOLMES and I talked to each other at considerable length about Mrs. BERG. We both feel that the least we could do would be to forward her name to you for whatever use it might be.

"Sincerely yours,
"/s/ Robert E. Warrick

CHARLES F. REIMERS, Jr. - Complainant
Re JOSEPH R. BURKE, 12/7/63

On December 7, 1963, CHARLES F. REIMERS, Jr., 1830 McGilver Boulevard, appeared at the Seattle FBI Office and furnished the following information concerning JOSEPH R. BURKE:

REIMERS and several other Seattle businessmen, Wash, including JOSEPH R. BURKE, had been partners in a real estate venture for the past two or three years. At various meetings of these individuals, REIMERS had obtained taped recordings of the proceedings and during the past two years has heard JOSEPH BURKE make statements reflecting an intense dislike for the late President KENNEDY. REIMERS related that this information has been obtained over a two year period and while he has not recently played these tapes, he recalled one occasion wherein BURKE made some statement to the effect that "President KENNEDY should be shot." REIMERS described as the owner of the Fremont Development Center and further pointed out that he is currently suing BURKE for $30,000.00, and these tape recordings are supposed to be introduced in court in connection with his suit against BURKE. REIMERS pointed out that when these tape recordings were obtained some of the members of this real estate venture were not aware of the recording, and he personally arranged for the recording to be made by an unnamed member of the Seattle Police Department.

When questioned as to why he did not report this information immediately after the President's assassination, Mr. REIMERS explained that he had other business matters to attend to and this was the first occasion he had ample opportunity to discuss it with authorities. Upon being questioned further, Mr. REIMERS admitted that in connection with his suit against BURKE, BURKE's attorneys were attempting to obtain these tape recordings by a court order and REIMERS had been called upon to produce these tapes on December 7, 1963. REIMERS was advised that under the circumstances, the tape recordings would not be accepted; but if later needed, the tapes could be obtained from the local courts in which the suit between REIMERS and BURKE was being contested.

On December 9, 1963, REIMERS telephonically contacted the Seattle FBI Office and advised he was attempting to locate the tape recordings, after which he would bring the tapes and the recorder to the Seattle FBI Office where BURKE's exact sentiments concerning the late President could be aired.

On December 20, 1963, REIMERS again telephonically contacted the Seattle FBI Office and advised that he was not successful in locating a recorder but expected to appear in the Seattle FBI Office on December 23, 1963, at which time he would have a recorder and BURKE's comments on the late President could then be aired.

ALVIN ZIONTZ - Complainant - 12/2/63 Wash.

ZIONTZ advised that he personally rejects the idea that the assassination of the President and the later murder of OSWALD by RUBY were two separate and unrelated incidents. He said it was a particular note that OSWALD, after his arrest remained unusually calm and cool, never made any admissions and, almost immediately, asked for an attorney. He said also there was too much planing to indicate that one person was involved in the assassination. He said that if OSWALD had not later been shot by RUBY, then ZIONTZ would have accepted the assassination as the work of OSWALD. However, he could not rationalize to the action of RUBY in killing OSWALD. Jack Texas Ill

ZIONTZ said that he himself (ZIONTZ) had lived in Chicago until about ten years ago when he came to Seattle and was well aware of the activities of the syndicate in the Chicago area, and their methods of operation. He noted too that RUBY also had been in Chicago and had a background of association with the same syndicates. ZIONTZ then asked, how could RUBY possibly have acted out of a sense of patriotism to his country or from indignation over the assassination of the President when actually his background with the syndicate would least fit him for this role.

ZIONTZ then continued that if one rejects the idea that these were two separate incidents, then he must go to a conspiracy. If a conspiracy is considered, then one must look for motivation where these two people would risk their lives. He said the only motivation for RUBY would have been "orders" along the lines which the syndicate directs from Chicago. ZIONTZ then conjectured that he feels the real target of this catastrophy was for the syndicate to get rid of BOBBY KENNEDY, the Attorney General, who has been the cause of great concern to the operations of the syndicate and to the hoodlums in general. He said he feels they would avoid any direct murder of KENNEDY as the syndicate or the under world element might then be too closely linked as suspect at least with such a situation. He felt that, by assassinating the President, KENNEDY would lose his strength as the Attorney General, which would be exactly what the syndicate wants.

ZIONTZ said these were merely his ideas which he formulated a day or two after OSWALD's shooting, and then said, "The events since then have tended to support, not disprove, this theory." He also pointed out that he has nothing but pure theory for the above thoughts.

JOHANNES MAK - Complainant - 12/11/63

On December 11, 1963, JOHANNES MAK, a salesman for the Americana Corporation, Bothell Way, Seattle, came to the Olympia Resident Agency of the FBI, with a current copy of the "Saturday Evening Post," dated December 14, 1963. He pointed out the top illustration on page 24 of this issue, which shows a photograph of the President's car seconds after the firing of the fatal shots. In the background is the building from which the shots were fired. MAK's purpose in the interview was to point out an individual in the doorway on the left side next to the post who closely resembles OSWALD. MAK further noted that on page 26 of the same magazine OSWALD is shown dressed in similar attire.

MAK is a native Hollander and desirous of becoming an American citizen. He stated that the photograph perplexed him and he wanted the FBI to have the information.

Constable BOB MILES, RCMP, 12/5/63

On December 5, 1963, Constable BOB MILES, RCMP, Vancouver, B. C. Canada, advised that they were interviewing RODERICK "ROD" HEINEKEY, Port Agent of the Seafarers International Union at Vancouver, B. C., on other matters on this date. He had just returned from New York where he attended the AFL-CIO Union meetings at which President KENNEDY spoke on the Friday before he was killed.

HEINEKEY advised them that after the shooting and while he was still in New York he heard from other Canadian Union people there that OSWALD had been in Montreal early in 1963 with HENESBY (phonetic) who he said was head of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee in Canada or Montreal. HEINEKEY further pointed out that when KENNEDY spoke at the Union meeting, HEINEKEY picked up a press button and sat down on the front row with the press and took pictures of KENNEDY with a small camera he had. He pointed out that KENNEDY could have been shot by any number of people attending that meeting although whoever would have done it would have never gotten away.

This is the extent of the information passed on by HEINEKEY and MILES thought that we may have a desire to have the benefit of it.

MILES stated that he has no way of knowing the veracity of this information and feels that HEINEKEY may have been inclined to exaggerate somewhat in this as he has in other things in the past.

Synopsis: WALLACE EUGENE BRANNER, who in May, 1963, had desired American Nazi Party be made beneficiary on life insurance policy, determined to be employed in Newport News, Virginia, on 11/22/63. On interview, BRANNER denied knowledge of assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. CLARENCE OTIS PENNINGTON, who in 1958 was interested in forming a "dynamite school," was observed Norfolk, Virginia, morning of 11/23/63. A source advised he had no reason to believe PENNINGTON involved in assassination or knew OSWALD. Another source advised he had no knowledge to indicate ELIZABETH PAUKOVITS HULL, inactive member State Committee of Communist Party of Virginia, was involved in assassination or knew OSWALD. Informants familiar with Nation of Islam (NOI) activities in Norfolk area, knew of nothing to indicate that either local or national NOI affiliates were involved in assassination. Informants familiar with criminal activities, including gambling matters, furnished no information pertinent to the assassination or concerning OSWALD.

telephonically contacted the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington, D. C., and furnished the following information:

He stated he was aged 34, and was a veteran of World War II. He claimed he was a "100 per cent American citizen and that the country was going to pot." He insisted he wanted to do something for his country and wanted permission from the FBI to investigate a person who he believed was a communist.

BRANNER stated that at one time he had been "quite a drinker," and that he had an extensive arrest record for drunk and disorderly conduct.

On June 11, 1961, a person identifying himself as WALLACE E. BRANNER, 65 Crestwood Drive, Newport News, Va., telephonically contacted the Norfolk Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He stated that his wife, DOTTY BRANNER, was a communist and desired his permission to join the Communist Party. He stated he was a Nazi and therefore would not give her permission to join.

On June 21, 1961, BRANNER again contacted the Norfolk Office, at which time he advised the information furnished by him was not true, that he had been drinking at the time, and only wanted to frighten his wife.

On February 13, 1963, NF T-1 advised that one W. BRANNER, not further identified, contributed $10 on April 21, 1961, to the American Nazi Party.

A characterization of the American Nazi Party is included in the appendixes of this report.

On April 15, 1963, WILLIAM JAMES LASSITER, Jr., staff manager, Prudential Insurance Company of America, 700 Newmarket Square South, Newport News, Virginia, advised that on March 28, 1963, he had received a telephone call from WALLACE E. BRANNER, 65 Crestwood Drive, Newport News, Virginia. BRANNER stated that he desired to change his beneficiary on his insurance policy to read "American Nazi Party." He wanted his contingent beneficiary to be GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL.

CLARENCE OTIS PENNINGTON N.C. Md.

On October 29, 1958, NF T-2 advised that on or about October 17, 1958, C. D. PENNINGTON, Route 1, Richlands, North Carolina, alternate address 1621 Rickenbacher Road, Baltimore, Maryland, visited at the home of Reverend JAMES N. COLE, former Imperial Wizard of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, also known as North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

PENNINGTON inquired as to whether COLE would be interested in furnishing about fifteen men for a proposed three-day "dynamite school" after which they would dynamite various targets simultaneously throughout the south.

PENNINGTON reportedly told COLE that the southerners were not handling the racial situation correctly and that there should have been "one big blow" all over the south in ten or fifteen locations.

Characterizations of the following are contained in the appendixes to this report:

United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (N.C.) (United Klans)

United Klans of America, Inc, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (United Klans).

On November 13, 1958, NF T-3, a resident of Richlands, North Carolina, advised that CLARENCE OTIS PENNINGTON married CARRIE LEE WILLIAMS, Route 1, Richlands, in 1943. PENNINGTON subsequently left the Richlands area and was reportedly living in the Baltimore, Maryland, area.

On September 12, 1961, Mrs. EDWARD L. SINER, Personnel Office, Norfolk Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, Norfolk, Virginia, advised that CLARENCE OTIS PENNINGTON, RFD 4, Box 123, Norfolk, Virginia, began employment as a pipefitter on September 8, 1961. He was born March 5, 1920, in West Virginia. His wife's name is CARRIE LEE WILLIAMS PENNINGTON. Mrs. Clarence Otis Pennington Va.

On May 23, 1963, Mr. C. W. BLEDSOE, resident manager, Foundation Park, Chesapeake, Virginia, advised that CLARENCE O. PENNINGTON and his wife CARRIE reside at 2867 Fireside Road, Chesapeake.

On July 23, 1963, NF T-4 advised that CLARENCE OTIS PENNINGTON owns a 1953 light green Cadillac, Virginia License 493-173.

On November 23, 1963, NF T-4 advised that PENNINGTON is still working through the Iron Workers Union, Norfolk. He stated that he has no reason to believe that PENNINGTON was involved in the assassination of President KENNEDY and that PENNINGTON did not know subject OSWALD.

A Special Agent of the Norfolk Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation, observed PENNINGTON at 11:45 a.m., November 23, 1963, driving on Indian River Road in Norfolk in his green Cadillac automobile, 1963 Virginia License 493-173.

On December 2, 1963, NF T-4 stated that on the morning of November 23, 1963, PENNINGTON remarked that he thought that a communist rather than a "segregationist" had assassinated the President.

ELIZABETH PAUKOVITS HULL

On July 18, 1963, NF T-5 advised that ELIZABETH PAUKOVITS HULL was an inactive member of the State Committee of the Communist Party of Virginia.

On August 8, 1963, NF T-6 advised that ELIZABETH PAUKOVITS HULL resided at 9313 Hickory Street, Norfolk, Virginia, and is a housewife.

On November 23 and November 25, 1963, NF T-6 advised that he knew of no information to indicate that Mrs. HULL was involved in the assassination of President KENNEDY or that she knew subject OSWALD. NF T-6 is familiar with Communist Party activities in Norfolk.

Sources on Racial Matters

On November 23, 1963, NF T-4 and on November 26, 1963, NF T-7 both of whom are familiar with racial matters in the Norfolk-Portsmouth, Virginia, area, advised they knew of no persons active in racial matters in this area who may have been involved in the assassination of President KENNEDY or who were acquainted with subject LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Contacts with Sources Aware of Criminal Activities, Including Gambling Matters in The Tidewater Area, Including Norfolk, Portsmouth, Newport News, and Hampton, Virginia

These sources were contacted during the period November 22 to November 25, 1963. They advised they were not acquainted with subject LEE HARVEY OSWALD and knew of no information bearing on his motivations for the assassination of the President, and they further stated they did not know any of OSWALD's affiliates.

Contacts with Sources Familiar with Activities of the Nation of Islam in the Tidewater Area

On November 23, 1963, confidential informants, who are familiar with Nation of Islam (NOI) activities in the Tidewater area, advised that no information had come to their attention to indicate that anyone in the NOI, on a local or national level, may have been involved in any way in the assassination of the President.

On November 24 and December 2, 1963, these informants were recontacted. They advised they knew of no information to indicate any involvement by NOI affiliates in the assassination and knew of no NOI affiliates who were acquainted with the subject. They stated to their knowledge, no local NOI members had left the Tidewater area around the time of the assassination.

Characterizations of the following are contained in the appendixes to this report:

Nation of Islam, National Norfolk, Virginia, Nation of Islam Group
Portsmouth, Virginia, Nation of Islam Group
Muhammad's Mosque Number 4.

Miscellaneous

At 3 p.m., November 22, 1963, Mrs. EDITH KILLMAN, 309 West 19th Street, Norfolk, Virginia, telephonically advised the Norfolk Division, FBI, that the previous night an unidentified person had called a librarian inquiring what would happen to a person who shot the President of the United States.

At 3:10 p.m., November 22, 1963, Mr. WILLIAM POLLARD, head of the library, Old Dominion College, Norfolk, telephonically advised the Norfolk Division, FBI, that the previous night a person contacted him inquiring what would happen to someone who shot the President of the United States. POLLARD stated that he would have to do research on the subject and would recontact the caller. POLLARD stated that he later ascertained that the Supreme Court would try any person who attempted to assassinate the President.

A check was promptly made with Miss PATRICIA GREEN, secretary, United States Secret Service, Norfolk, Virginia. She advised that the Agent in Charge, Secret Service, had also been contacted by Mrs. KILLMAN and Mr. POLLARD and was investigating the matter.

At 5 p.m., the same date, Mr. JAMES G. OTTER, Special Agent in Charge, United States Secret Service, Norfolk, advised that his investigation revealed that on November 21, 1963, a class at Granby High School had been given an assignment to determine which court would have jurisdiction in the event the President were shot; that LINDA GIUDICE, a student in the class had telephoned various libraries the night of November 21, 1963, to ascertain that information. Va.

On December 3, 1963, Special Agent L. M. FARMER, United States Secret Service, Norfolk, advised that both EDITH KILLMAN and WILLIAM POLLARD were interviewed by his office the afternoon of November 22, 1963. Mrs. KILLMAN stated that she had overheard an unidentified librarian remark that someone had telephoned inquiring as to who would have jurisdiction over someone who killed the President of the United States. Mr. WILLIAM POLLARD was also interviewed. He advised that he and Mrs. ELSIE H. BUTT, Assistant Reference Librarian, Old Dominion College, Norfolk, had received telephone calls from LINDA GIUDICE the night of November 21, 1963, making the same inquiries.

Mr. FARLIER stated that his office also contacted Mr. PASQUALE GIUDICE, father of LINDA GIUDICE. Mr. GIUDICE advised that LINDA, a student at Granby High School, had received an assignment during a class on November 21, 1963, to determine who would have jurisdiction in the event the President were shot; that LINDA had called various libraries during the evening of November 21 making inquiries. The teacher of the class, LEO SCHUTTE, 403 Warren Street, Norfolk, Va. also was contacted. He advised that during one of his classes the question arose as to who would have jurisdiction in the event the President were shot. He stated he would give extra credits to students who obtained the correct answer.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, ALSO KNOWN AS WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS

A source advised on February 27, 1959, that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL, of Arlington, Virginia, had held an organizational meeting of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (WUFENS) at his residence on February 26, 1959.

Six persons were present and they, according to the source, comprised the beginning of an officer corps of the organization. ROCKWELL told those present that the WUFENS would be an international movement, but that the section of the organization in the United States would be known as the American Party of the WUFENS.

ROCKWELL, on March 26, 1959, furnished to Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a copy of the program of the WUFENS stating that he expects to become President of the United States through the organization's platform. The main tenets of the WUFENS, as reflected in the program, call for the migration of Negroes to Africa and the trial and execution of all Jews guilty of communist and Zionist treason.

A second source advised on August 8, 1961, that the main activity of the organization, in furtherance of these objectives, has consisted of picketings with anti-Jewish and anti-Negro placards and talks by ROCKWELL attacking Jews as traitors to the United States. The headquarters of the American Nazi Party is located at 928 North Randolph Street, Arlington, Virginia.

APPENDIX

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC., KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (N. C.) (UNITED KLANS)

On May 16, 1962, a source advised that the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, have two klaverns, one at Salisbury, North Carolina, and one at Monroe, North Carolina, which became affiliated with the national organization of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, in the Spring of 1961. The organization in North Carolina has the same aims and objectives as the parent group; that is, advocacy of segregation of the races and white supremacy.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC., KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UNITED KLANS)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, show that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy and segregation of the races.

The first source and a second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, The Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The organization is directed by Robert Shelton, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South with units in several southern states.

On August 14, 1961, the second source advised that the organization formerly known as United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., would be known in the future as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The second source said the name was changed by a resolution adopted at the National Klonvocation held July 8, 1961, at Indian Springs, Georgia.

Second source advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, a majority of the Klaverns of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

APPENDIX

NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam".

On July 10, 1963, a second source advised Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam"

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils", in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On July 10, 1963, a third source advised Muhammad had early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

APPENDIX

Norfolk, Virginia Group of Nation of Islam

On May 21, 1963, a source advised that the Norfolk, Virginia group of the Nation of Islam (NOI) is publicly known as Muhammad's Mosque of Islam, but that it does not have a number assigned to it. He stated, however, that the Norfolk group actually continues to be an auxiliary of Muhammad's Mosque Number 4, Washington, D. C. According to the source, the Norfolk group has been in existence since about February, 1958, as a branch of the NOI, with national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois, and follows the teachings of Elijah Muhammad, national leader of the NOI.

Portsmouth, Virginia Group of Nation of Islam

On May 17, 1963, a source advised that the Portsmouth, Virginia Group of the Nation of Islam (NOI) is known as the Portsmouth, Virginia Auxiliary of Muhammad's Mosque Number 4, Washington, D. C. According to the source, the Portsmouth group has been in existence since August, 1960, as a branch of the NOI, with national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois, and follows the teachings of Elijah Muhammad, national leader of the NOI.

MUHAMMAD'S MOSQUE NUMBER FOUR OF THE NATION OF ISLAM, also known as MUHAMMAD'S TEMPLE OF ISLAM NUMBER FOUR

C

Harry Marvin Craighead, former minister of Muhammad's Mosque Number Four (MM#4), formerly known as Muhammad's Temple of Islam Number Four (MTI#4) of the Nation of Islam (NOI), advised that Elijah Muhammad personally founded this temple at Washington, D. C., during 1939 and served as its minister until 1942.

On January 20, 1958, Lucius X. Brown, self-identified as the Minister of MTI #4 of the NOI, advised that MTI #4 was under the leadership of Elijah Muhammad, the national leader of the NOI, and existed solely to serve his will and teachings. Brown stated that MTI #4 supported Elijah Muhammad both spiritually and financially.

On April 30, 1963, a source advised that MM#4 of the NOI continued to be in existence at 1519 Fourth Street, N.W., Washington, D. C.

The Nation of Islam is characterized separately in the Appendix.

156 Reserve Road, West Seneca, Buffalo 24, NY, was the Principal at the above school during the period subject was in attendance. He further stated that Mrs. THELMA HATCH, Hicksville, Long Island, was subject's sixth grade teacher. Inasmuch as subject attended the above school for a short period of time, from 9/8/52 to 9/26/52, it was felt that subject's former principal and teacher, referred to above, would not be in a position to furnish any pertinent background information regarding the subject, and, therefore, these individuals were not contacted by the NYO.

The publications referred to herein as received on 11/25/63 from Mr. IRVING FISHMAN, Assistant Deputy Commissioner of Customs, US Department of Treasury, NYC, are being forwarded to the Bureau by airtel, 12/3/63. DETAILS

On November 25, 1963, Mr. IRVING FISHMAN, Assistant Deputy Commissioner of Customs, United States Department of the Treasury, New York City, advised SAS E. MARK NISWANDER and JOHN A. ERWIN that his office had received three pieces of mail addressed to Mr. LEE H. OSWALD, Box 2915, Dallas, Texas, USA. These items were sent to OSWALD from the Soviet Union and consisted of the following:

1. Subscription copy of "Agitator" magazine, dated November, 1963.

2. Subscription copy of newspaper, "Soviet Beloroussiya", dated November 21, 1963.

3. Subscription copy of newspaper, "Soviet Beloroussiya", dated November 22, 1963.

In addition to the above, his office had also received a copy of a Post Office Department Form 2153-X executed by OSWALD, same address, which form is used by addressees of propaganda-type mail to instruct the Post Office Department as to the disposition of such mail. This form had been sent to OSWALD when the Post Office Department had previously received such mail for him and he had returned the form to the Post Office Department with the notation that the publications listed thereon and all publications of this type were "Always" to be delivered to him. Before signing the form, OSWALD made the entry, "I protest this intimidation".

FISHMAN stated that according to an amendment to the United States Postal Laws, Customs examines all printed matter from countries under the Soviet or Sino-Soviet bloc. If there is any Communist propaganda contained therein, the Customs Office notifies the Post Office Department, which then contacts the addressee as noted above. He made available the publications and a typewritten copy of the Post Office Department form 2153-X executed by OSWALD. FISHMAN advised that these items had been received in his office on November 25, 1963, from the Main United States Post Office, 33rd Street and Eighth Avenue, New York City. He added that the originals of the Post Office Department form 2153-X sent to OSWALD and returned by him are in the custody of the Post Office Inspector there.

On November 25, 1963, RALPH [illegible], Inspector in Charge, United States Post Office, 33rd Street and Eighth Avenue, New York City, advised that the originals of the above forms pertaining to OSWALD have been sent to the Office of the Chief Inspector, United States Post Office Department, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Gary Taylor

On November 30, 1963, ALEXANDRA TAYLOR, care of Yeno, Dover Plains, New York, employed as an attendant at Harlem Valley State Hospital, Wingdale, New York, advised SA LOWELL W. BARTON, as follows: B 12-25-63 Tex

In about September, 1962, her father, GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, who is of Russian origin, called her and asked if she and her husband could put up MARINA OSWALD for a short while. He told ALEXANDRA that MARINA and her husband, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, had just returned from Russia, were without funds, and that LEE OSWALD was seeking work in Dallas. At this time, ALEXANDRA was married to GARY TAYLOR and they were residing at 1512 Fairmont Street, Dallas, Tex. 1115 Falls Drive.

LEE OSWALD did not stay with the TAYLORS, but is believed to have had a room at the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA). MARINA was having work done on her teeth and had a small baby about the same age as the TAYLORS baby.

ALEXANDRA became friendly with MARINA, but because MARINA spoke no English, communication was difficult. ALEXANDRA believed MARINA had married OSWALD mainly to get out of Russia. LEE OSWALD occasionally came to the TAYLOR house, and although MARINA stayed there only about two weeks, he continued to visit on occasions from November, 1962, when ALEXANDRA left Dallas.

LEE OSWALD and the TAYLORS had frequent discussions mostly concerning politics, and GARY TAYLOR often engaged in heated political discussions with OSWALD, with whom he disagreed. In his discussions, OSWALD expressed dislike for the United States, but also was critical of Russia. He considered himself a Socialist, but in ALEXANDRA's opinion, disliked almost everything. He was widely read, reading books of a serious nature and with political implications. One book recalled by ALEXANDRA was "The Animal Farm". She was unable to recall any other titles.

LEE had never expressed any dislike for President KENNEDY, but had expressed a personal dislike for Governor CONNOLLY, although ALEXANDRA did not know of any reason. OSWALD claimed never to have renounced his American citizenship, but claimed Russia had tried to force him to take Russian citizenship in order to permit him to work. He claimed that after he had married MARINA, he had difficulty in returning to the United States, requiring eleven months of efforts on his part, and he claimed he was glad to get out of Russia.

OSWALD gave ALEXANDRA a pamphlet of about 30 pages he had prepared about Russia which dealt mainly with how the people lived and worked in Russia. She believed the pamphlet to be factual, not propaganda, being neither complimentary nor derogatory in nature. ALEXANDRA encouraged OSWALD to have the pamphlet published, but he declined. She claims she returned the pamphlet to OSWALD in November.

OSWALD was strongly anti-religious and seriously berated his wife for having their child baptized in the Russian Orthodox Church. MARINA was described as not being political minded, but very religious. She is believed to be a pharmacist by training.

OSWALD is described as being very sharp and bright and would argue logically and persuasively. He was positive in his ideas and strong in his convictions. ALEXANDRA believed he could not be bribed to change his ideas or to commit any deed not in keeping with his thinking. ALEXANDRA found it hard to believe his thinking was such that he would want to kill the President. ALEXANDRA stated OSWALD had a quick temper and allegedly beat his wife on occasion. He never thanked the TAYLORS for caring for his wife. ALEXANDRA did not know if the period of her association with OSWALD was prior to or after his stay in New Orleans. He never had mentioned New Orleans to her.

ALEXANDRA had no knowledge of any relationship between OSWALD and JACK RUBINSTEIN.

ALEXANDRA stated OSWALD liked to associate with the Russian speaking element in Dallas, and her father, GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, and his wife, JEANNE, would know OSWALD better than she. She believes her father and his wife presently are in Haiti where he is managing a plantation. He is a geologist and his address probably would be known to the Petroleum Club in Dallas. She believed her father previously had resided at Cooper Avenue in Dallas, specific address unknown. Her step-mother, JEANNE, had a daughter, CHRISTIANA BOGOVALLENSKIA-KIERNAN, whose husband is BAGNAR KIERNAN, who may or may not be with her father. ALEXANDRA has not communicated with her father since April of this year. The only employment ALEXANDRA recalled for OSWALD was in advertising processing in Oak Cliff, Dallas, name of which was unknown to her. OSWALD was known to a NATASHA and EVALENA, last names unknown to ALEXANDRA, but known to her father. She believes her ex-husband, GARY TAYLOR, would also know OSWALD better than she and know of his employment.

GARY presently resides at 4115 Falls Drive, Oak Cliff, Dallas.

ALEXANDRA TAYLOR is female, white, and hospital records indicate she was born December 23, 1943. She indicated attending Highland Park High School, Dallas, 1959 to 1961 and Lawson Business School, Tucson, Arizona, January to June, 1963.

On December 2, 1963, R. H. SHOWERS, Principal, Trinity M. Lutheran School, 2130 Watson Avenue, Bronx, New York, advised that the school did not commence to maintain any records until 1957 and, therefore, has no information concerning the subject, who reportedly attended the school from September 8 to September 26, 1952. SHOWERS stated that there is no one presently employed at the school who would have any personal knowledge concerning OSWALD or OSWALD's family. He advised that the principal of the school during the time that OSWALD was in attendance was HOWARD C. ROWSELL, 156 Reserve Road, West Seneca, Buffalo 24, New York. He also stated that the subject's sixth grade teacher would have been Mrs. THELMA HATCH, presently residing in Hicksville, Long Island, New York, exact address unknown. He stated that these two individuals would be the only ones connected with the above school who may possibly be able to furnish some information concerning OSWALD.

On December 2, 1963, Dr. STUART KOBLENZ, Assistant Hospital Administrator-Medical, Abraham Jacobi Hospital, Bronx, New York, advised that the above hospital was not opened until November, 1955, thereby precluding the possibility that subject received mental tests at this hospital. He commented, however, that a review of hospital files in the record room, Mental Hygiene Clinic, registration records, and Developmental Evaluation Clinic all failed to reflect any information pertaining to LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

In an effort to determine if subject was the recipient of any mental tests in 1953, in addition to the above mentioned hospital, the following individuals were contacted at their respective hospitals but were unable to furnish any information concerning subject:

Mrs. E. B. READER,
Secretary to the Deputy Medical Superintendent,
Morrisania Hospital,
Bronx, New York

Miss DOROTHY DE MARY,
Secretary,
Office of Deputy Medical Superintendent,
Lincoln Hospital,
Bronx, New York

On December 2, 1963, JOSEPH J. AVITABILE, an employee of the Publishers Bookbinding Company, 200 Varick Street, New York, New York, telephonically contacted the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He stated that VINCENT QUINN, an employee of the company, believes that LEE HARVEY OSWALD may be identical with an individual named JIM COHEN who was employed at the company during the summer of 1962. He said COHEN expressed pro-Communist ideas on several occasions.

JOSEPH J. AVITABILE was interviewed at the Publishers Bookbinding Company on December 2, 1963, by SAS ROGER H. LEE and JAMES O. INGRAM. He resides at 199 West 10th Street, and he is a Supervisor in the Shipping Department. He said he has been reading several articles concerning OSWALD and OSWALD's appearance is similar to a person named JIM COHEN who was employed at the company during the summer of 1962. He recalls COHEN went to work in June and was employed for approximately 3 months. He believes COHEN was a college student, and COHEN had indicated he had been in the United States Marines Corps. He did not know the residence or whereabouts of COHEN at the present time.

He went on to say that COHEN was known to VINCENT QUINN, an employee of the company, and he said his prospective son-in-law, NICHOLAS OTTAMANILLO, formerly worked with COHEN at the company and could probably furnish details concerning him. He could furnish no additional information concerning why he believes COHEN was identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

VINCENT P. QUINN, 9010 34th Avenue, Jackson Heights, New York, advised SAS LEE and INGRAM on December 2, 1963, that he recalls one JIM COHEN being employed around June, 1962, through August, 1962. He said COHEN's appearance was similar to OSWALD. He could not describe COHEN, but said he was of average height and weight. He believes COHEN was pro-Communist since he had read many books on Marxism. He said COHEN asked him on one occasion if he had ever been to Russia, and if he had ever read books by KARL MARX. He could furnish no additional information concerning COHEN's pro-Communist attitude or any additional information concerning why he believed OSWALD was identical with COHEN.

IRVING MACK, Manager, Publishers Bookbinding Company, advised SAS LEE and INGRAM on December 2, 1963 his records show JAMES COHEN, 175 West 93rd Street, New York 25, New York, telephone RI 9-7661, Social Security Number 059-34-8161, was hired by the company on June 19, 1961, and he left the company on August 25, 1961. He indicated his reason for leaving was "back to school." He has no additional information concerning COHEN, but said COHEN was not employed during 1962 He added their company hires about 3 college students during the summer, but he does not know COHEN, and he could not suggest anyone who would know him.

AVITABILE was recontacted on December 2, 1963, at which time he said COHEN could have worked during the summer of 1961, instead of 1962.

NICHOLAS COTTAMANILLO, 94 Charles Street, New York, New York, advised SAS LEE and INGRAM on December 2, 1963, that he was formerly employed by the Publishers Bookbinding Company in New York, New York in 1961, and he worked with one JAMES COHEN during the summer of 1961 He said COHEN was not employed at the company during 1962 and he is not identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Residence

325 East 92nd Street
New York, New York

N.Y.N.Y. JOHN BRENNAN, 2nd Floor West, 325 East 92nd Street, advised SAS LEE and INGRAM on December 2, 1963, he has resided in the neighborhood for over 20 years, and he does not recall a family named OSWALD. He said he was formerly superintendent of the building at 325 East 92nd Street, and he has resided in the building for the past 12 years, and if the OSWALD family resided in the building for any length of time, he would know this. He said the building has changed ownership several times over the years, and the only individuals who have resided in the building for the past 10 years are Mrs GUSZ and ROBERT NICHOLAS, who is the present superintendent of the building.

325 E. 92nd St. N.Y.N.Y.
ROBERT NICHOLAS advised he has been the superintendent of the building since February, 1955 and he does not know anyone named OSWALD and to his knowledge there has never been a family by the name of OSWALD residing in the building for the past 10 years. He could suggest no one who might recall the family.

THOMAS DRAGOSITZ, owner of Tom and Louis Bar, 323 East 92nd Street, advised SAS LEE and INGRAM on December 2, 1963, that he has resided in the neighborhood for over 25 years and to his knowledge an OSWALD family has never resided at 325 East 92nd Street, New York, New York, during this period.

N.Y.N.Y.

Mrs ALMA GUSZ, 5th Floor West, 325 East 92nd Street, advised SAS LEE and INGRAM on December 2, 1963, that she has resided at the above address for approximately 20 years. She advised that a woman named OSWALD and her son, whose name she could not recall, resided for approximately 3 or 4 days with a FERMAN family who resided on the 5th Floor East at 325 East 92nd Street around 1953 or 1954. She said the OSWALD boy at that time was approximately 12 or 13 years of age, but due to the fact she met the OSWALD woman only on one occasion, she knew very little about them. She said Mrs. OSWALD and her son moved out of the apartment since she received the impression they were staying with Mrs. FERMAN until they located an apartment in the City. She could furnish no additional information concerning Mrs. OSWALD and her son and stated she has received no information concerning the family since that time.

325 E. 92nd St. N.Y.N.Y. in 1953 or 1954

Mrs. GUSZ advised that Mrs. FERMAN moved to one of the western states around 1955, after her husband passed away. She said she could not recall Mr. or Mrs. FERMAN's first names and she does not know any of the FERMAN's associates, family or former employers. She could furnish no additional pertinent information.

It is to be noted that OSWALD's attendance record at Junior High School 44 in New York City indicated a card in OSWALD's file, date not indicated, reporting an address for OSWALD as 325 East 92nd Street, New York City.

Justice FLORENCE KELLY, Childrens Part, Family Court, New York City, made available for review the court record on LEE HARVEY OSWALD. This record was reviewed by Assistant Director in Charge, JOHN F. MALONE, New York Office, and the following was reflected:

The cover page of the report contained a letter from RICHARD KAIKA, District Secretary, Salvation Army, Bronx, New York, to the Probation Bureau of Domestic Relations Court, Bronx, New York, dated September 8, 1953, which reflected the following:

"Dear Mr. Carro:

"Mr. Wilcox is on vacation. We have looked over the referral material and we don't feel that we could offer any useful service for Lee Harvey Oswald.

"There is a space on the psychiatric report with which we fully agree, namely that the boy is very severely disturbed and would need direct psychiatric treatment in a child-guidance institution. This is a service we cannot offer.

"We are sorry we cannot be of any service in this case."

The file reflected an investigation report of the Probation Bureau, Childrens Part of Domestic Relations Court, Bronx, New York. It indicated that investigation be ordered on April 16, 1953. The cover page of this report reflected background data regarding OSWALD and his family. It was indicated that OSWALD was born October 19, 1939, New Orleans, Louisiana, and resided at 825 East 179th Street, Apartment 3C. OSWALD's father was listed as LEE, with notation, deceased 1939, and his mother was listed as MARGUERITE CLAVERIE, age 45, born New Orleans, Louisiana. It was noted that Mrs. OSWALD was in good health; was of the Lutheran faith and her occupation was sales lady with a salary of $45 per week plus two percent commission. Her marital status was indicated as widow with her date and place of marriage listed as 1929, New Orleans, Louisiana. Other members of OSWALD's family were listed as JOHN, age 21, United States Coast Guard, stationed in Staten Island, New York, and ROBERT, 19, United States Marines. One relative was listed as Mrs. LILLIAN SIGUORETTE, New Orleans, Louisiana. A notation appeared at the bottom of the cover page of this report stating that Truant Adjudication had been made on April 16, 1953 by Justice DELANEY.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

"CHILD'S NAME....OSWALD, Lee Harvey, born 10/19/39, New Orleans, La.

"NATURE OF PETITION: DELINQUENT CHILD

"Petitioner, James T. Brennan, Attendance Officer, D.C. 24, respectfully alleges that on March 11, 1953 and prior thereto while residing at 825 East 179th Street, the petitioner alleges that the respondent herein has been excessively absent from school as follows: 46 full days and 8 half days from October 1, 1952 to January 15, 1953; further that the said child has refused to register in P.S. #44, Bronx, since January 15th, 1953, when he moved into that school district and that he has not attended school since that time; further that he is beyond the control of his mother insofar as school attendance is concerned.

"Court Action: 3/12/53. JUSTICE DELANY PRESIDING. ATTENDANCE OFFICER, MOTHER BEFORE THE COURT. MRS. OSWALD REPORTED THAT THE BOY REFUSED TO ATTEND COURT. WARRANT WAS ISSUED TO BE EXECUTED ON 3/19/53.

"3/19/53. WARRANT TO BE EXECUTED.

"4/16/53. Court Action: JUSTICE DELANY PRESIDING. ATTENDANCE OFFICER, MR. BRENNAN OF D.C. #24, MRS. OSWALD ON LEAVE BEFORE THE COURT. THE HEARING WAS HELD. HIS HONOR MADE A FINDING OF SCHOOL TRUANT. LEE WAS REMANDED TO YOUTH HOUSE UNTIL 5/7/53. FOR PSYCHIATRIC STUDY.

"PREVIOUS COURT RECORD: None.

"FAMILY HISTORY: Family history was related to the P.O. by Mrs. Oswald who was interviewed in our office 4/21/53.

"Mother, Marguerite Oswald nee Claverie, a widow, was born and raised in New Orleans, La. where she obtained 2nd year high school education. Mrs. Oswald is at present 45 years of age. She is of the Lutheran faith. In 1945, the family went to Fort Worth, Texas to live, and subsequently came to N.Y.C. in August of 1952 where the family have resided since. Mrs. Oswald stated that she came to NY at the invitation of her oldest son, John, who is in the U.S. Coast Guard, stationed at S.I. NY. She and Lee lived with John and his wife in their Manhattan apartment for about a month, but moved out when some friction developed. At the present time, Mrs. Oswald is employed at Martin's Dept. Store, Bklyn, NY earning $45.per week. She works five days a week, being off on Weds and Sundays. The hours are from 9:45 A.M. to 6 P.M. Mrs. Oswald states she generally leaves home about 8:15 A.M. and returns at 7:15 PM.

"Father, Robert Lee Harvey, died in 1939 of a heart attack. Mr. Harvey was born and raised in New Orleans, where he attained a high school education. He died at "the age of 45. At the time Mr. Harvey was an insurance agent.

"The Oswalds were married on 7/19/28. Out of this union the first for each party, were born three children. They are as follows:

"John, 21 years of age, presently U.S. Coast Guard, stationed in S.I. John is married and has one child. Family reside here in N.Y.C.

"Robert, 19, presently in the U.S. Marine.
"Lee, 13, presently before the court.

"Mrs. Oswald described the relationship with her son, Lee, as being a good one. The boy is described as being no problem at home. According to the mother there has been no institutionalization in the family and ethical and moral standards in the home appear good. All members of the family are in good health.

"HOME AND NEIGHBORHOOD: Family reside in a residential area of the Bronx. The neighborhood is one of middle-income family, having adequate housing. Delinquency rate in this area is low. There are adequate recreational facilities nearby. Mrs. Oswald occupies a three room furnished apartment consisting of one bedroom, parlor and kitchen. Lee sleeps in the bedroom and Mrs. Oswald sleeps in a studio couch in the living room. PO was unable to visit the home due to the fact that Mrs. Oswald is employed and no arrangements could be made to visit the home. However, the A.O had previously visited the home and described it as being clean and nicely furnished home.

"SCHOOL RECORD: Lee is registered at P.S. #117, class 7-10. This is the school he last attended. Upon his arrival from Texas in Sept. the boy attended a Protestant Parochial School and then transferred to P.S. # 117, Px, At P.S. #47 the boy had an attendance of being absent 46 whole days and two half days, from Oct. 1, 1952 to Jan. 15, 1953. The boy as transferred at that time to P. S.#44 but he refused to attend. Lee has not attended school since that time.

"RELIGIOUS AFFILIATIONS: Lee is a Lutheran. He was baptized at the Trinity Lutheran Church at New Orleans, La., in Nov. 1939. They has not made his Communion nor Confirmation. Mrs. Oswald indicated that she and Lee do not go to Sunday Service, as they have been in N.Y. a short time and do not know any churches or congregations nearby.

"LEISURE TIME ACTIVITIES AND SPECIAL INTERESTS: Lee was interviewed by the PO 4/23/53. The boy indicated that he does not belong to any organized group or part taking in any organized activity. The boy states that he generally gets up at 9 A.M. and watches TV and reads magazines until 3-4 P.M. in the afternoon. He indicated that he did not know anybody and hence did not go out to play. The boy states that he seldom goes out and stays home most of the time. The only occasion for his going downstairs is when ge goes down on errands but not to play. He indicated that he formerly collected stamps. He was a football fan. The boy states he used to have a hobby of molding clay, collecting stamps but he does not do so anymore. He is a football fan, likes horseback riding. The boy states, "I like to be by myself and do things by myself."

"MENTAL AND PHYSICAL CONDITION : Lee is a boy of average height and weight. The boy had a normal birth and had the usual childhood illnesses which consisted of the measles, chicken pox, mumps and whooping cough. The boy impressed the PO of a boy of normal mental and physical development.

"PETITIONER'S STATEMENT: "See Nature of Petition."

"CHILD'S VERSION AND ATTITUDE: Lee, quiet boy was interviewed by the P.O. He is a boy of average height and weight. Lee was pleasant and friendly though withdrawn to himself. During the interview the boy's expression was one of "indifference. He had more or less of a blank expression registered little enthusiasm nor emotions. When questioned, he generally answers affirmatively by saying 'I guess so. He tried to evade an impression of unconcern as to what had taken place.

"The boy admitted the allegations of the petition. When questioned regarding his staying out of school, the boy states, "it takes up too much of my time. I could be doing other things, playing around and looking at magazines. He further indicated, 'I don't like school. It's too hard to do, I am not able to do the work.'

"Lee told the P.O. he did not like the teachers, the school nor the children in school. He stated, 'I like myself.' When PO inquired as to his relationship with his mother, the boy stated 'Well I've got to live with her. I guess I love her.'

"The boy told the PO that he had too much difficulty making friends and hence he likes to be to himself. He indicated that he had more fun being alone.

"The PO observe that the boy is somewhat shallow and seems to be immature to have little capacity for comprehension. Lee indicated that he would like to go into the service when he is 18. He told the P.O. that he has two brothers in the service, but he does not miss them. The boy states that he liked school in Texas but as he got older he found that he had other things he wanted to do. The boy would not enumerate other things he had to do except that he had a lot of things. Questioned as to his aim in life in what he wanted to do, the boy replied, 'I want to let me go home and be by myself. PO inquired of Lee as to whether he would return home, whether he would attend school. The boy replied, 'I have a choice between going to school here between going to school or in an institution. Does it matter? O.K. I go to school here. Lee stated that while he liked Youth House he miss the freedom of doing what he wanted. He indicated that he did not miss his mother.

"The PO discussed living in N.Y. with Lee. Lee indicated that he found N.Y. all right to live in. He indicated that it was immaterial to him as to where he live_.

"P.O. noticed that this boy seems to have no drive, no ambition, he seems to be content with merely just living. In our discussion with the boy, nothing seems to register with him.

"PARENTAL VERSION AND ATTITUDE: Mrs. Oswald was interviewed by the PO on this date. Mrs. Oswald impressed the PO as an intelligent, well-meaning middle-aged woman, good education and background.

"It is Mrs. Oswald's belief that the boy's difficulty stems from the fact that he has not been able to meet the change in his environment. She describes him as always being a 'loner'. He would generally play along and if boys joined him he would play with them. At school he was certain of the baseball team. In Texas, she states, the family had a home with a yard, a dog, and the boy would get along fine. Here in N.Y. family occupy an apartment and there is nothing for the boy to do. Mrs. Oswald described the boy as introvert, the boy who has difficulty in making friendships as he made no effort to initiate any. Generally Lee waited for the children to make overtures to him. Regarding the boy's school attendance, the mother states that he was always an average student in school. He likes school and seem to attend regularly. The mother feels that the boy moving to a different community and being placed in the midst of different nationalities and crowded apartment conditions, has had an adverse effect on the boy, that he has retreated into a shell. Mrs. Oswald indicated she recognizes the boy's problem but there's little she can do. She mentioned to the PO that the family formerly had their own car, their own home and that the boy had two brothers at home to play with. Mother indicated that she has a home in Texas, which she plans to sell. At present she is in no financial condition to return to Texas. The boy has no other family there to whom he can go.

"Mrs. Oswald believes the present attitude of indifference and lack of concern is one of defiance. She attributes his behavior to that of adolescent behavior or growing up pains. The mother points out that when the boy first came here, she lived on Grand Concourse and the boy had difficulty in getting along with other children because of his manner and custom, that his mode of dress was different and he had a different accent. The boy at the time dressed a great deal in 'jeans' levies whereas the other boys in the neighborhood seems to be more or less better dressed. This seem to have had some sort of affect upon the boy.

"Mrs. Oswald indicated that while she realizes that the boy had little family life at home, that she is unable to give him adequate supervision, she would not want the boy placed. She would prefer to have the child remain home. However, should the situation arise where she believes that placement seems absolutely necessary, she indicated that she would cooperate with any plan that the court may have.

"SOCIAL AGENCY RECORD: Oswald Marguerite (Claverie) & James-John Youth House, 4/21/53, Margarite&Lee (int. son Lee) Community Service Society, Family Div. #219065 1/16/53.

"EVALUATION AND RECOMMENDATION: Lee Oswald, 13 year old boy of the Lutheran faith, is before the court for the first time. The boy had admitted the allegations of the petition. According to the boy, he is not attending school as he feels that he has many more important things to do. Aside from this, he has indicated that he does not like his teachers, his classmates nor the school. The boy has expressed a desire to be left alone.

"The boy, the P.O.'s observed, is a friendly, likeable boy, who protrays very little emotions. Reaction to the present situation was one of indifference. The mother, while she seems a well meaning intelligent woman is unable to give Lee adequate supervision, due to her long working hours. Much of Lee's difficulty seems to stem from his inability to adapt himself to the change of enviornment and the change of the economical status of the family. The record reveals the family was of means, having their own home in Corning, Texas, seemingly a full family life thus Lee had had has two brothers living with them. Coming to N.Y.C., and moving into a crowded area, without his brothers, amongst varied groups, who dressed and spoke different from the boy Lee has been unable to find acceptance and has retreated into a shell wherein he prefers to confines of his apartment tc that of dealing with other children.

"The P.O. feels that this is a dangerous situation for the boy to isolate himself from other social contacts with children his age. The matter has been discussed with his mother. The possibility of returning to Texas or Louisiana was discussed with the mother, but she is unable to do so do to her present financial condition. While Mrs. Oswald is opposed to placement, she feels that she would go along with it, if it seems absolutely necessary.

"The P.O. feels that we are dealing with a boy who feels a great deal of insecurity and the need for acceptance. As it does not seem that this can be done with the boy remaining at home but it was felt that perhaps placement in an institution where these needs can be met would be beneficial at this time. However, recommendation is being held in abeyance pending the receipt of the psychiatric examination.

"SUMMARY FOR P.O.'S REPORT PSYCHIATRIC DONE ON 5/1/53.
'This 13 year old well built boy has superior mental recources and functions only slightly below his capacity level in spite of chronic truancy from school which brought him into Youth House. No finding of neurological impairment of psychotic mental changes could be made. Lee had to be diagnosed as 'personality pattern disturbance with schizoid features and passive-aggressive tendencies.' Lee has to be seen as an emotionally, quite disturbed youngster who suffers the impact of really existing emotional isolation and deprivation, lack of affection absence of family life and rejection by a self involved and conflicted mother. Although Lee denies that he is in need of any other form of help other than 'remedial' one, we gained the definite impression that Lee can be reached through contact with an understanding and very patient psychotherapist and if he could be drawn at the same time into group psychotherapy. We arrive therefore at the recommendation that he should be placed on probation under the condition that he seek help and guidance through contact with a child guidance clinic, where he should be treated preferably by a male psychiatrist who could substitute, to a certain degree at least, for the lack of a father figure. At the same time, his mother should be urged to seek psychotherapeutic guidance through contact with a family agency. If this plan does not work out favorably and Lee cannot cooperate in this treatment plan on an out-patient basis, removal from the home and placement could be resorted to at a later date, but it is our definite impression that treatment on probation should be tried out before the stricter and therefore possibly more harmful placement approach is applied to the case of this boy. The Big Brother Movement could undoubtedly be of tremendous value in this case and Lee should be urged to join the organized group activities of his community, such as provided by the PAL or YMCA of his neighborhood.'

" 5/7/53. COURT ACTION: Justice Mc Clancy presiding. Boy and his mother before the court. PO reported on the case. Justice Mc Clancy talked to the mother and boy at some length. After reviewing the record at some length and reading the Psychiatric report, Justice Mc Clancy continued the boy on parole to 9/24/53. His Honor advised the boy that he was to return to school as soon as possible to attend school regularly. Mr. Brennan the A. C. is to return the case to court should the boy fail to do so. Justice Mc Clancy requested that a referral be made Community Service Society for possible work at their therapeutic treatment for this boy.

"Lee was paroled to 9/24/53. Later the PO phoned the C.S.S. and spoke to Mrs. Olga Benjamin regarding the possibility of referring the boy to that agency. Mrs. Benjamin indicated she would discuss this matter with Mrs. Carver Hall who will contact the PO. In the meantime she suggested that we contact the Salvation Army to see whether they could possibly provide the facilities in the treatment that this boy needs.

"PO later interviewed the mother and boy and advised Mrs. Oswald that a referral would be made to a Family Agency and that she is to keep these appointments when she is notified. Both mother and boy promised to cooperate.

"J. Carro, PO (cms)

"5/7/53: P.O. contacted Mrs. Olga Benjamin, Social Worker of C.S.S., regarding possible referral of Lee to their agency. Mrs. Benjamin indicated that they have a long waiting list and that the situation requires a great deal of attention and skill. She indicated that Mrs. Oswald had been seen by them on 1/53 when the case was explored as it was referred to them by the Federation of Protestant Welfare agencies. An appointment was made for Mrs. Oswald for 1/30/53, which she did not keep. No further contacts have been had with this family. Mrs. Benjamin recommended that we contact the Salvation Army which she felt might be in a better position to meet this boy's needs at this time.

"J. Carro, P.O. (es)

"6/4/53: P.O. contacted Mr. Wilcox, Social Worker, Salvation Army, regarding possible acceptance of the case. Mr. Wilcox promised to call back.

"J. Carro, P.O. (es)

"9/8/53: Material returned from Salvation Army rejecting the boy as the Salvation Army feels that they cannot offer any useful service to the boy. Salvation Army indicates that the boy, as pointed out in the psychiatric report, is severely disturbed and would need direct psychiatric treatment in a Child Guidance Institution. This is a service they cannot offer.

"J. Carro, P.O. (ES)

"9/24/53: Mrs. Oswald telephoned on this date, to state that she would be unable to appear in court. She pointed out that she felt that there is no necessity for her to return to court as the boy has made a marvelous adjustment. Lee returned to school on May 7th and had a very good attendance record thereafter. At the present time he is in the 9th grade at P.S. 44 and recently had the honor of being elected class president. The P. O. spoke to her in terms of having the boy attend our Treatment Clinic, as Intake is now open and the P. O. felt that this boy could benefit from the group therapy that they would be able to offer. Mrs. Oswald appeared very resistant to this plan and her attitude was such that reflected another unwillingness to enter into any sort of arrangement at this time. She indicated that the boy seems to be doing well and would like to have him left alone as she feels that our stepping into the picture at this point would have a harmful effect. P.O. advised Mrs. Oswald that we would continue the boy under the supervision of the court for a period longer to see how he adjusts.

"10/21/53: Progress report which was requested on 10/16/53 from P. S. 44 received on this date. Boy indicates that since the term commenced he has been present in school 21 3/2 days and absent 1-3/2 days. His conduct is described as unsatisfactory. The school reports that the child has shown no improvement. Mrs. Oswald does not cooperate with the school authorities. She did not answer to a summons to come to school about her son's welfare. During the past two weeks practically every subject teacher has complained to me about the boy's behavior. He has consistently refused to salute the flag during early morning exercises. In many rooms he has refused to do any work whatsoever.

He spends most of his time sailing paper airplanes around the room. In several instances he has struck classmates. When I spoke to him last Thursday about his behavior, his attitude was belligerent. When I offered to help him, he brushed out with, 'I don't need anybody's help." (Signed) H. Rosen, Teacher)

"Judge Sicher talked to the mother and counsellor at some length and advised them that Lee was a child who was in need of treatment, as the reports of the examination made on the boy seemed to bear out; and hence, would not consider discharging the boy at that time. The mother was opposed to referral of the boy to any other agency.

"His Honor talked to the mother at some length and advised her that it would be for the best interests of Lee to have her cooperate with any plans that the court might have to offer at this time. Judge Sicher instructed PO to refer the boy to the court treatment clinic and to make a reference to the Protestant Big Brother. Case was paroled to 1/28/54 for a report on that date.

"1/5/54: Mrs. Oswald telephoned PC this date. Mr. J. Dunn, PO. talked to her in the absence of Mr. Carro, who was on vacation. She stated she wished to speak with PO concerning the fact that she had to leave the city. After a long discussion with her and not receiving definite information, PO advised her to be at court to see Mr. Carro 1/11/54 with Lee and if needed, the case could be passed on. Mrs. Oswald agreed to do so.

"In the afternoon, Mr. Groetz of the Protestant Big Brothers called at the office regarding the same matter. He indicated that he would telephone on the morning of 1/11. Mr. Groetz indicated that he believes the mother

The file also contained a report dated April 30, 1953, and signed by EVELYN STRICKLAN, which reflected the following:

"This is a seriously detached withdrawn youngster who has preserved some ability to relate but is very hard to reach. He is laconic and taciturn and while he answered questions he volunteered almost nothing about himself. Toward the end of the interview he occasionally would say something gratuitously without my asking him but on the whole everything had to be pulled from him. What is really surprising is that this boy has not lost entirely his ability to communicate with other people because he has been leading such a detached, solitary existence for most of his life.

"He told me that he was at Youth House for truancy and his truancy is caused because he feels that he would prefer to do other things which are more important. Questioning at first elicited 'Oh, just things' but what I finally learned from him is that he spends all of his time looking at television, leafing over various magazines or just sleeping. Apparently his truancy really became serious when he moved up here from Fort Worth with his mother about five or six months ago, but he never did like school and apparently never formed relationships with other people.

"The story that I got from him condensed is very much as follows: His father died he believed before he was born and he doesn't know a thing about him. He evinces absolutely no curiosity about him, says that he never missed having one and never thought to ask about him. His mother was left with three children, John who is 21 and in the Coast Guard and who has been stationed in New York for the last two years, Robert who is 18 and is a pilot in the Air Force Marines and Lee who is 13. The mother apparently supported these children by working as an Insurance Broker and she was on the go all day long. He does not remember anyone else ever having taken care of him and apparently when he was an infant she either left him in the care of his older brothers or he shifted for himself. She would leave early in the morning and come home around seven or eight at night after a hard day's work in which she was driving the car around all day trying to sell insurance. Ocassionally she took Lee with her on these trips but he wrinkled his nose and said it was very boring because she was always making stops, going into houses and trying to sell people things. Lee ate lunch in school and often made his own meals. It was interest"ing that occasionally when his mother did make meals he was dissatisfied with them and would complain to her because she had just thrown things together. Her answer always was that she was so tired after a hard day's work that she hadn't felt like fussing. Lee saw little of his brothers because of the age difference, partially, and also because John was working when they were living at Fort Worth. Robert was always going out with his own friends and neither of the older boys wanted Lee tagging after them. It was already during this period that he was experiencing difficulty in school, not he said because he couldn't do the work but because he just never really felt like it nor thought that it was very important. He learned to read very adequately and denied any feelings of inferiority in relation to other kids his own age in school but he said he used to have trouble with English Grammar and with Arithmetic. He spent very little time with the boys in his neighborhood preferring to be alone and when he came home from school would simply sit in the house, listen to the radio, looking at television or looking at different magazines.

"After both boys entered the service and John was stationed in New York, his mother decided to come to New York in order to be near John. They arrived here about five or six months ago and moved into John's apartment on East 92nd St., in Manhattan. In response to questioning Lee told me that while John seemed glad to see him, his sister in law, Margie, apparently was very unhappy at the fact that Lee and his mother shared the apartment for a while until they could find a place of their own. Lee said that she seemed like a rather cold person who wanted to be alone with John and did not make his mother and him feel welcome. Although there were five rooms in the apartment, Lee was given a place to sleep in the living room and admitted that this was very much in line with what he had always been led to expect from grown ups - nobody ever had any room for him. His face lighted up however from its usual impassive expression when he talked about the three months old baby and he admitted that he had found a good deal of enjoyment in playing with it.

"After they stayed with John for a couple of months, his mother finally found an apartment on the Grand Concourse in the Bronx. It is a small apartment with one large room and again of course Lee does not have his own room and sleeps in the living room. His mother had found work as an assistant manager in a woman's wear shop and she is away again all day. He mostly makes his own meals and spends his time alone in the apartment because he doesn't enjoy associating with the boys in the neighborhood.

"Questioning about Lee's mother elicited the response that in a way she was very much like him. She didn't talk to people at all very much and while she had a few friends who occasionally came to visit she was equally silent with them. When Lee and she are home alone together he is not uncomfortable with her but they never have anything to say to each other. She never punishes him because she is the kind of person who just lets things ride. For instance, he volunteered that when he started to play hookey she told him to go to school 'but she never did anything about it'. When I had wondered if he had wished that she had done something about it, he nodded and what finally emerged was that he just felt that his mother never gave a damn for him. He always felt like a burden that she simply just had to tolerate and while she took care of his material needs he never felt that she was involved with him in any way or cared very much what happened to him. It was hard for him to say whether she acted the same toward his brothers because he had never noticed but his general feeling was that adults were not to be trusted, that if they gave you anything they always seemed to want something in return and that you really couldn't look to adults for anything. He is much more prone to trust boys his own age but admits he is not successful in making relationships with them mostly because he doesn't want to. He really prefers to be alone. He doesn't really feel that anybody in this world cares for him and he doesn't really care about anybody else. Although his brothers were not as detached as his mother apparently he experienced some rejection from them too and that they always pushed him away when he tried to accompany them and they never could really meet any of his needs. He told me that he had to be his own father because there was just no one there for him. His money needs were met "by his mother who would give him an occasional quarter or something on a week end to go to a movie down at Fort Worth. As far as buying magazines and other stuff was concerned he said he never bought very much so she never gave him very much. She would buy his clothes without consulting him but he said that he didn't resent this because he usually liked what she brought home. She was apparently completely detached from him however and they had absolutely no communication with each other. She always left him to shift pretty much for himself and showed no concern about him whatsoever.

"As a result he withdrew completely into a detached and solitary existence where he could just do as he wanted to and didn't have to live by any rules and regulations nor come in contact with people. He would stay in bed till eleven or twelve o'clock, get up and make himself something to eat and then sit and look at a magazine or look at a television program. He slept a good deal if he were able to although he says that he never fell asleep in the day.

"When they first came to New York, his mother entered him in a private Lutheran school because she thought that he would like that but after two months he decided that he didn't want it anymore and started truanting because he just didn't seem to find it very interesting or important. He was then transferred to a public school in the Bronx and quit going altogether.

"Lee was able to respond to expressions of understanding and sympathy for his lonely situation which I offered, although he denied that he really ever felt lonely. Questioning revealed that he feels almost as if there is a veil between him and other people through which they cannot reach him but he prefers this veil to remain intact. When I questioned whether it were painful or disturbing for him to see me today since in a sense I was tearing away the veil he let me know that it was not as bad as he might have anticipated. He was not too comfortable in talking with me but he was not as disturbed in talking about his feelings as he thought he might be. This gave an opening for me to inquire into his fantasy life and what I got was a complete rejection of any probing and a reminder that 'this is my own business.' I let him know that I respected this but there were some "things I had to know. Supposed I asked him questions and if he wanted to he would answer. He agreed to this and actually answered every question that I asked. He acknowledged fantasies about being all powerful and being able to do anything that he wanted. When I asked if this ever involved hurting or killing people, he said that it did sometimes but refused to elucidate on it. None of these fantasies incidentally ever involved his mother. He also acknowledged dream material which he said was entirely pleasant in nature and which was usually a fulfillment of fantasies that he might have had when he was awake. He refused however to talk about these at all although he did mention that these dreams also sometimes contained violence. He denied any hallucinatory or delusional experiences whatsoever and denied any distorted body images. His developmental history was essentially negative except for a mastoid operation and a tonsilectomy when he was 7. He remembers being frightened but remembers nothing else about the experience.

"When we talked about future planning for him Lee said that he wanted to return home and he was adamant in his feeling that if he were placed in any kind of a boarding school he would run away. He regards this as a loss of his freedom and privacy and confided that the worse thing about Youth House was the fact that he had to be with other boys all the time, was disturbed about disrobing in front of them, taking showers with them etc. He has been away to Camp a couple of times in life when he was a kid and had enjoyed those experiences and mingled with other boys but it was different from the experience he had had here at Youth House. He doesn't fight with anyone here, he just detaches himself completely. He was willing to acknowledge with me that home offers him very little but he wants it this way. Actually if he could have his wish he would like to be out on his own and maybe join the service. He acknowledged the fact that in the service he would have to live very close to other people and obey orders and follow a routine which he finds extremely distastful but he said he would seal himself to that and make himself do it. In the meantime if he had his way he would prefer to be on his own and he said that if he were placed in a school and ran away he wouldn't go home again he would just start out for himself. We talked about these feelings at some "length in terms of the fact that no boy of 13 was ready to do this, plus the fact that these feelings that no one cared about him and that he was all alone in the world were really very painful and that maybe he needed the experience that these were grown ups who were interested in him and cared about what happened to him. He didn't care however and thought that he just preferred to be alone. I pointed that what happened to him eventually was really the court's decision but we discussed the alternatives on which the court might decide. Placement he rejected. When I broached the possibility of talking with a case worker if he were returned home, he wanted to know for how long and I told him it would be an indeterminate period. He finally decided that although he didn't really want this and would prefer to remain as solitary as he has always been if it came to a choice between placement and going to a case worker, he would chose going to a case worker. He also thought that if it were an alternative between placement and going back to school, he would make an effort to go back to school and to attend regularly.

"My own feeling is that it might be as difficult as at first it seemed to establish a relationship with the boy and that he might possibly be drawn into therapy. Just how successful such planning would be cannot be determined of course until I have had an opportunity to interview his mother. Interestingly enough when I asked questions about what they talked about when she came down here to visit him, he said that actually she didn't say very much. She just brought him some candy and asked how things were going and they sat pretty much in silence throughout the whole visiting period.

"Interview with Mother

"Mrs. O. is a smartly dressed, gray haired woman, very self possessed and alert and while making a superficial appearance of affability I felt that essentially she was defensive, rigid, selfish and very much of a snob.

"One of the first things she wanted to know was why Lee was at Youth House because she had no clear understanding of the purpose of the institution. Before I even had a chance to explain to her she went on to ask me if he had received a complete medical examination and in my answering in the affirmative, confided to me that she had noticed lately he had gotten very big 'down there' and that while of course he was getting a little too big for her to look at him, she had been worried lest something was the matter with his genitals. She went on to tell me that she had had him to a Doctor six months ago for a head to toe examination and the Doctor had examined the boy in her presence. He apparently did not examine the boy's genitals and Mrs. Oswald had insisted upon this so he asked her to step from the room. She said she wasn't gone but a few minutes when he called her back and said there was nothing the matter and she somehow felt very dissatisfied with the examination. She went on to explain to me that her excessive interest was caused by the fact that her middle son Robert, upon being examined for entry into the Marines was found to have a hydrocele and that she had wondered if perhaps this were the case with Lee too. When I indicated that we had found nothing the matter with his genitals she then looked at once relieved and I felt a little disappointed.

"Mrs. O gave her current 'analysis' of the reason's for Lee's truancy.--The upset in moving from Ft. Worth,--Texas. She went on to tell me that she herself had been very much discomforted by the change and in my expressing interest I learned from her that she had found it very difficult to adjust to New York and is sorry she came here. She indicated that she has always been a manager of shops of one kind or another and made it a point never to mix with her help. She said they were always respectful to her at home but that here in New York, employees talk back to her etc. and she finds it extremely difficult to take, complaining of their arrogance. Furthermore she feels that life moves at a much faster pace here living conditions are unsatisfactory, etc. Later on in the interview after I had gained her confidence much more she confided to me that she had come here from Ft. Worth because she thought that it might be better for Lee since he was suddenly left alone

"after Robert joined the Marines and she wants to be close to what family she had for his sake. With her eyes filled with tears at this point and she told me that she had come to New York to be close to her son, John. There had been an exchange of letters and long distance telephone calls and apparently John and his wife were very anxious for her to come, but she said that when she got here, she found an extremely cold reception. Her daughter-in-law is only 17 and apparently went out of her way to let Mrs. O. know that she could not settle with John and herself permanently. Mrs. O. said that she had had no such intention although she had rather expected her daughter in law to put her up until she could find a job and get an apartment. She said she was made so uncomfortable there however that she moved just as soon as she could to an extremely inadequate one room basement apartment. The living conditions were extremely miserable and she felt that Lee was becoming very depressed but she could not help herself. Just as soon as she was able and had found another job, she took a three room apartment in the Bronx and said that Lee seemed to perk up considerably after this.

"According to Mrs. O. she had never had any difficulty with Lee while they were living in Ft. Worth at all and disclaimed any knowledge of the fact that he had played hookey there. She felt that if he had said this it was really only to rationalize his playing hookey up here. She told me that he had always been an extremely quiet boy as was John and she felt both of these boys were like her. Even as a little kid Lee had never mixed freely with other children and she told me she felt this was in response to her teaching. She had always been a working woman who didn't have to worry about his wandering off or associating with other children in their houses so she instructed him to stay within the yard and he always did so. If other kids came to play in his place it was all right but he seemed never to go to other boys. She said that as a matter of fact when other boys did approach him to play he usually preferred to be by himself and she felt that this was in his nature and that one couldn't change people's natures very easily. She herself found nothing wrong with this and told me that Mr. Carro Lee's Probation Officer had "remarked to her that the boy seemed to be completely without feeling and that he withdrew from others. She herself did not see anything strange about this and told me that she herself was not a very gregarious person either and had never felt the need to make friends.

"In response to questioning I learned from her that she had lost her husband when she was seven months pregnant with Lee. He died suddenly one morning at 6 A.M. of a heart attack. Near the end of the interview she confided to me in a burst of confidence that she had had a rupture with her husband's family at this time since when he died at 6 A.M. she wanted him buried the same day. Her thought had been for herself and the baby she was carrying since she felt that she could do her husband no good by having a wake and a funeral and she thought it would be just decent to get him out of the way as quickly as possible. His family had been completely against, said that they never saw anything as cold in their whole life and had not spoken to her from that day to this. She had to rely upon her neighbors help when Lee was born and she has never had anything to do with her husband's family since that time. She justifies herself at great length to me said that she did not feel it was cold but only sensible and that her husband when he used to joke with her had always said 'Mag, if anything happens to me just throw some dirt in my face and forget about it' and she felt she had acted according to his instructions.

"When I offered that it must have been rather difficult for her to half to be both parents and bread earner at the same time, she told me very proudly that she had never found it so. She said she was always a very independent, self-reliant person who had never wanted any help from anyone, had always had 'high fulutent' ideas, which she felt to a large measure she had accomplished, and she always was able to pull herself up by her own bootstraps. When I asked if hers had been a good marriage, she said yes and went on as if I hadn't said anything but questioning revealed that she had come from a family where her mother had died when she was only two years old. The father raised six children with the help of housekeepers and she said she was brought up in an extremely poor neighborhood in New Orleans where she was forced to mix with Negroes and other people but even though she played with them and made friends with them she always had again 'high fulutent' ideas and managed to make something of herself.

"Mrs. O. said that after her husband died, she stayed at home for two years taking "care of Lee and the other two children and living on insurance he left. When this ran out and she found she had to get a job, she placed John and Robert in a Lutheran Home for about six years from what I could gather and she moved in with Lee into her sister's house. Her sister cared for Lee while Mrs. O. went to work but when the sister began to object she had a large number of children herself, Mrs. O. also placed Lee in a home until she felt that all the kids were old enough so that she could take them home and go to work too. I pressed for information at this point and from what I could gather Lee was not in the home for more than 3 or 4 months. Preceding his placement in the home however, there was a period when Mrs. O. had moved out of her sister's house and taken a furnished room because she said she needed a clear mind to go to business and couldn't be bothered with a child. Apparently she left Lee to her sister for about a year or more while she lived apart from him.

"When she finally reconstituted her family apparently she left the kids pretty much to their own devices since she was working all kinds of hours and often did not get home until late at night. She tells me that when she was working in the insurance business however, she only worked two or three hours a day and was able to spend a good deal of time at home. Questioning revealed however, that all of her kids were extremely quiet, rather withdrawn infants who never made much demands on her and always played quietly by themselves. Of this she was very proud. Lee was a full term normally delivered baby what was bottle fed and toilet trained about one year. He walked and talked normally, as she put it and she never had any difficulty in raising him but she said that he was always a very stoic child who for instance, when the dentist offered to fill one tooth would insist that he fill all four at once.

"She told me that the boy had once had a terrific infection on his ankle which he didn't know anything about until she started bathing him and which the doctor had been very concerned about but Lee who was about five at this time had not even complained. When he was five he also underwent a mastoid operation but she said he was completely happy-go-lucky about it and it didn't seem to affect him at all. Mrs. C. incidentally bathed all her children herself until the time they were 11 or 12 and then said in an embarrassed manner that at that age they got a little too old for her to look at.

"Mrs. C. railed and railed against NYC laws which she felt in a large measure were responsible for the way Lee acted. She said that when he first began to truant, the truant officer picked him up in a police car and took him back to school and thought that was just atrocious. She felt that the boy had been given a criminal record for no good reason at all and told me that she felt that she had been allowed to handle things in her own way she felt she could have gotten around it. She said she had had a problem in truancy with John too and to a lesser extent with Robert and had been able to handle it with both these boys.

"When John was 14 and began to truant Mrs. C. told him that if he wants to be a bum that was all right with her so he went out and got a job and held it for about six months. At the end of that time he told her that he was going back to school and continued there ever since. Robert only played hookey for about four times and she was able to handle this by talking to him. Mrs. C. was not aware of whether or not Texas had a law that kids under 16 had to be in school but apparently they didn't bother John during the period he was out. She said she felt Lee could be stubborn and defiant just as she would be if someone kept stressing with him the way the truant officer had with Lee that he had to go to school because the NYC law said so. She said she "was not aware at first the boy was truanting although he told her he didn't want to go to school, but he did used to go up every day and get dressed and get out and so she assumed he was there. After she found out he was truanting, she started to talk with him made several visits to the school etc., but apparently got no where. In the meantime he was truanting from November through March and she warned him that they could take him and put him away if he didn't go to school but Lee did not believe her. She felt however, that the biggest mistake had been the way they approached the boy and in a way she agreed it had now gone so far that she didn't know if she could handle it or not. When I wondered what it was that she wanted, she felt she wanted to be able to raise her own child the way she saw fit. She agreed that truancy if carried to a certain extent could be considered a problem. She was not so willing to consider it a problem that Lee did not make friends and associates but when I discussed with her a little the extent to which the boy had withdrawn and the fact he was really alone all day she agreed that there was something not quite right about this. She said she wouldn't be so concerned if he was in school all day and associated with other boys and then wanted to be alone but the fact that he was alone all day long and half the night too apparently since she didn't get home till late, didn't look so good to her.

"I now explained to her the purpose of Lee's being at Youth House in terms of a diagnostic study and the fact that while our psychiatrist here was free to make recommendations actually it was the court's decision. We now discussed together the two alternatives on which the Court might decide one being probation with psychotherapy and the other placement in a school. She listened extremely intentively and when I discussed school placement with her seemed not to avert to the fact that if Lee were sent off to a school, it might be good for him. The thing that made her exceedingly angry was that she felt if the boy were given another chance and sent home it should be what she called a real chance and should not involve having to report to a P.O. or 'talk to a stranger' which was the way she felt about his going to a social worker. She was adamant however, in her feeling that she really did want him to have one more chance with the knowledge that if he played hookey for even one day he would have to be put away in a home. I had the feeling that the "basis of this was a need to assert her own volition as it were against the authority represented by the court, rather than any real understanding of Lee's welfare or his needs.

"I honestly don't think that she sees him as a person at all but simply as an extension of herself. Interestingly enough by the way although Lee was a planned for baby because her husband, her self wanted a girl, I take it that she was rather disappointed at having a third boy.

"I discussed with her what actually would change for Lee if he went home again and the truancy started. To her way of thinking she could not see the truancy as symptomatic of anything and apparently thinks of it as an act of defiance which in a sense of course is really true but she doesn't mean this. I have some real question at this point about just how much Mrs. O. could offer Lee since I feel that her own attitude about social worker's probation, etc. would inevitably communicate itself to the boy and that if he started showing improvement in therapy I have the feeling she is one of these mother's who would have to break it up. On the other hand Lee himself is so averse to placement at this time that I have some question too as to what would be accomplished by sending him away. He has withdrawn completely here at Youth House. I have spent some time watching him with other boys and he doesn't participate or mingle in any way but keeps himself completely aloof.

The file contained the following:

"Youth House, Social Worker's Report, Bronx, 5/7/53, Case No. 26996, Date of Admission 4/16/53, Name OSWALD, LEE, born October 18, 1939, Address 825 East 179th Street, Bronx, N.Y., Father LEE (Dec), Social Worker EVELYN STRICKMAN, Mother Margarite.

"PSYCHIATRIC STUDY

"Lee Oswald is a seriously detached, withdrawn youngster of thirteen, remanded to Youth House for the first time on a charge of truancy. There is no previous court record.

"Laconic and taciturn, Lee answered questions, but volunteered almost nothing about himself spontaneously. Despite the fact that he is very hard to reach, Lee seems to have some ability to relate which in view of the solitary existence he has been leading, is somewhat surprising. There is a rather pleasant, appealing quality about this emotionally starved, affectionless youngster which grows as one speaks to him, and it seems fairly clear that he has detached himself from the world around him because no one in it ever met any of his needs for love.

"Lee said he was at Youth House for truancy and that his truancy was caused by his preference for other things, which he considered more important. Questioning as to what these things were elicited the answer 'Oh, just things' but it was was finally learned that Lee spent all of his time looking at television and reading various magazines. He said his truancy never became serious until he moved up here from Fort Worth, Texas, about five or six months ago. He never liked school, however, and never formed close relationships with other people.

"By persistent questioning, the information received from Lee was as follows: his father died before he was born and he doesn't know a thing about him. He has no curiosity about his father, says he never missed having one, and never thought to ask about him. His mother was left with three children, John, 21 in the Coast Guard and stationed in New York for the last two years; Robert, 18, a pilot in the Air Force Marines and Lee. Lee said his mother supported them by working as an insurance broker and she was on the go all day long. He doesn't remember anyone else taking care of him and he thinks she either left him in the care of his older brothers or else that he shifted for himself. She would leave early in the morning and come home around seven or eight at night after a hard day's work. Occasionally he went with her, but found her frequent stops to sell insurance boring, while he waited for her in the car.

"Lee ate lunch in school and often made his own meals at night. When his mother did make meals, he was often dissatisfied with them, and complained to her that she just threw things together. Her answer was that she was too tired after a hard day's work to feel like fussing.

"Lee saw little of his brothers, partially because of the difference in their ages and partially because the older boys were either working or going out with their own friends, so that they didn't want Lee tagging after them. Lee spent very little time with the boys in the neighborhood, and preferring to be alone, when he came in from school would watch television or read magazines. It was during this period that he was already experiencing difficulty in school. He said it wasn't because he couldn't do the work, but he never felt like it or thought it was very important. He learned to read adequately but felt he had trouble in English grammar and arithmetic. He denied any feelings of inferiority in relation to the other boys in his class.

"After Lee's brothers entered the service and John was stationed in New York, his mother decided to come here to be near John. They drove up five or six months ago, and moved into John's apartment in Manhattan. Questioning revealed that while Lee felt John was glad to see them, his sister-in-law, Marjorie, was unhappy about their sharing the apartment until they could find a place of their own and she made them feel unwelcome. Lee had to sleep in the living room during the period though there was five rooms in the apartment and he admitted that this made him feel as he always did feel with grownups - that there was no room for him. His face lost its usual impassive expression for a moment when he talked about John's baby, however and he said he had a good deal of fun playing with it.

"Lee's mother finally found an apartment of her own on the Grand Concourse in the Bronx and she also found a job as an assistant manager in a woman's clothing shop. This meant that she was away from home all day. Lee made his own meals and spent all his time alone because he didn't make friends with the boys in the neighborhood. He withdrew into a completely solitary and detached existence where he did as he wanted and he didn't have to live by any rules or come into contact with people. He stayed in bed until eleven or twelve, got up and made himself something to eat and then sat and looked at magazines. When they first came to New York, his mother enrolled him in a private Lutheran Academy because he thought he would like this. After two months he didit find school interesting or important so he started to truant. He was then transferred to a public school in the Bronx at which point he stopped going to school altogether.

"When questioned about his mother's reaction to this he said she told him to go to school 'but she never did anything about it.' When he was asked if he wished that she would do something he nodded and finally emerged with the fact that he just felt his mother 'never gave a damm' for him. He always felt like a burden that she had to "tolerate, and while she took care of his material needs, he never felt that she was involved with him in any way or cared very much what happened to him. When Lee and his mother are home together, he is not uncomfortable with her, but they never have anything to say to each other. She never punishes him because she is the kind of person who just lets things ride. It was hard for him to say whether she acted the same way towards his brothers, because he never noticed. Although his brothers were not as detached as his mother was, he experienced rejection from them, too, and they always pushed him away when he tried to accompany them. They never met any of his needs. He said he had to be 'my own father' because there was never anyone there for him. His mother bought his clothes without consulting him (which he didn't mind too much) and gave him an occasional quarter, but she was completely detached from him and they had little communication with each other. He felt that she was very much like him, in a way, because she didn't talk much. She has a few friends who visit occasionally, but she is equally silent with them. Lee feels that his mother has always left him to shift pretty much for himself and showed no concern about him whatsoever.

"Lee was able to respond to expressions of understanding for his lonely situation, but he denied that he really felt lonely. Questioning elicited the information that he feels almost as if there is a veil between him and other people through which they cannot reach him, but he prefers this veil to remain intact. He admitted, however, the tearing aside of the veil in talking to a social worker was not as painful as he would have anticipated. He was not comfortable in talking but he was not as disturbed in talking about his feelings as he thought he might be. When this was used as an opportunity to inquire into his fantasy life, he responded with a reminder that 'this is my own business'. He agreed to answer questions if he wanted to, rejecting those which upset him and acknowledged fantasies about being powerful, and sometimes hurting

"or killing people, but refused to elaborate on this. None of these fantasies involved his mother, incidentally. He also acknowledged dreaming but refused to talk about the dreams other than to admit that they sometimes contained violence, but he insisted that they were pleasant. Lee's developmental history was negative except for a mastoid operation and a tonsillectomy when he was about seven. He remembers that the operations frightened him, but nothing else about them.

"Talk about future planning produced the fact that Lee wanted to return home, and his assurance that he would run away if he were placed in a boarding school. Being away from home means a loss of his freedom and privacy to him, and he finds it disturbing living with other boys, having to take showers with them and never being alone. He was away to camp several times during his life and he enjoyed it, but it was very different than his present experiences. He was willing to acknowledge that home offered him very little but he said he wanted it this way. If he could have his own way, he would like to be on his own and join the Service. While he feels that living that close to other people and following a routine would be distasteful he would 'steel' himself to do it. Since he rejected placement, the possibility of a return home with casework help was breached. Lee finally decided that although he didn't really want help, and would prefer to remain as solitary as he has always been if it came to a choice between placement and going to a caseworker, he would chose the latter. He said, too, that if it were a choice between placement and going back to school, he would make an effort to return to school and go regularly.

"Observation of Lee's relationship with other boys during his stay at Youth House showed that he detached himself completely, and repulsed any efforts at friendship by others. Although he reacted favorably to supervision and did whatever was asked of him without comment when on his floor he sat by himself and read. At 8:15 every evening he asked to be excused so that he could go to bed. The other boys appeared to respect his seclusion and didn't force themselves on him. He did not encourage conversation with anyone, and when asked questions was very terse in his replies. He was very neat and clean and always finished his work before going out to the floor.

"In the recreation area he was usually quiet and withdrawn sitting by himself. If he did become involved in any minor altercation he was very hostile and belligerent and somewhat defiant of supervision. He seemed to be respected by group members who left him alone.

"This pattern of behavior was also noted in school, where he was quiet, cooperative and respectful of authority but avoided contact with members of his group. He seemed timid and fearful of physical contact.

"There was some very minimal movement in his relationship with his social worker, although it was so small as to be almost not noticeable. Ordinarily when approached he remained polite but uncommunicative but when he was shown some special attention and concern when he had an earache, he responded somewhat. He never sought his caseworker out, and asked for nothing, nor did he volunteer anything further about himself.

"Mrs. Oswald, Lee's mother was seen for an interview at Youth House. She is a smartly dressed, gray haired woman, very self-possessed and alert and superficially affable. Essentially, however, she was revealed as a defensive, rigid, self-involved person * in accepting and relating to people.

"One of the first things Mrs. Oswald demanded to know was why Lee was at Youth House but she gave no opportunity to explain the purpose of his stay here and instead wanted to know if he had received a complete physical examination. She had not been satisfied with a recent examination particularly with the genitalia. When she was told that our examination had reveals nothing unusual, she looked at once relieved and disappointed.

"Mrs. Oswald gave what she termed her 'analysis' of the situation as the move from Fort Worth to New York as being the reason for Lee's truancy. She herself had been very discomfited by the change, and said she was sorry she came, since she is finding it difficult to adjust to New York. At home where she was also a manager in women's shops, she had found her 'help' with whom she made it a point never to mix, very respectful but here she complained of their arrogance. Furthermore, she found living conditions difficult. After her confidence was gained somewhat Mrs. Oswald said that she had come from Fort Worth to be near John, because Lee was left so much alone after Robert joined the Service. Her eyes filled with tears as she said there had been an exchange of letters and telephone calls with John anxious for her to come, only to find out on arrival that her daughter-in-law was extremely cold. The daughter-in-law is only 17 and went out of her way to let Mrs. Oswald know she could not stay with them permanently. Mrs. Oswald said she had had no such intention, although she did expect her daughter-in-law to put her up until she could find an apartment and a job. She was so uncomfortable there, however, that she took Lee and moved into a very inadequate basement apartment, where Lee seemed to become very depressed. As soon as she could she found an apartment in the Bronx and he seemed to perk up considerably.

"According to Mrs. Oswald, she never had any difficulty with Lee in Fort Worth and she disclaimed any knowledge of his truanting there. She said he had always been a very "quiet boy, as was John and she felt they were like her, while Robert was like their father. Even when Lee was little, he never mixed freely with other children and she wanted it this way because she had always been a working woman who didn't want to have to worry about his wandering off or associating with other children. She instructed him to stay in the yard and he always did so. If other boys came to play with him that was all right, although when other boys did approach him to play, he usually preferred to be by himself. She thought this was in his nature and that one couldn't change a person's nature. She didn't see anything strange about his seclusiveness and said she was not a gregarious person herself and she had never felt the need to make friends.

"Questioning revealed that Mrs. Oswald had lost her husband when she was seven months pregnant with Lee. He died suddenly one morning of a heart attack and in a burst of confidence she confided that since then, she has not spoken to his family. He died at 6 A.M. and she wanted him buried the same day because her thought was for herself and the child she was carrying and she didn't think she could do her husband any good by an elaborate funeral or a wake. His family was horrified and said they never saw anything as cold as this. They have avoided her since and she had to rely on neighbor's help when Lee was born. She justified herself at great length as not cold but 'sensible.'

"When it was offered that it must have been difficult for her to be both parents as well as the breadwinner, proudly she said she had never found it so. She felt she was a very independent, self-reliant person, who never needed help from anyone, and who pulled herself up by her own bootstraps. Her mother died when she was only two, and her father raised six children with the help of housekeepers in a very poor section of New Orleans of mixed racial groups. She always had 'high-falutin' ideas and managed to make something of herself.

"After her husband died, Mrs. Oswald stayed at home for two years, taking care of the children and living on the insurance her husband left. When this ran out, she placed the two older boys in a Lutheran Home and moved in with her sister who took care of Lee while she worked. At one point, Mrs. Oswald moved out and took a furnished room because she felt she had to have a free mind to work, and couldn't be bothered with a child. When her sister began to complain, however, since she had a houseful of children of her own, Mrs. Oswald placed Lee in the Luthern Home for three or four months too and the brought all the children home again.

"After she reconstituted the family she left the boys pretty much to their own devices since she was working all kinds of hours and did not get home until late at night. All the boys were extremely quiet, rather withdrawn children who made little demands on her and played by themselves. Of this she was very proud. Lee had a completely uneventful development except for the mastoid operation when he was five, but he was a very stoical child who never complained of pain. Mrs. Oswald bathed all the children herself until they were all 11 or 12, when, she said in an embarrassed manner, they got a little too old for 'me to look at'.

"Her feeling was that New York City laws were in a large measure responsible for Lee's continued truancy and that if they had left things to her to handle, she could have managed him. John also had been a truant and she let him go out to work until he decidded that he wanted to go back to school. At first she had not been aware that Lee was truanting, since he dressed and left every morning, but when she found out, she talked to him and made several visits to the school, but got nowhere. She warned him that he could be put away, but Lee didn't believe her. She thought the biggest mistake was the way the Bureau of Attendance approached the boy, and said they were making a 'criminal out of him'. She wanted to be able to raiser her own child the way she saw fit. She agreed that if truancy were carried to a certain extent it could be a problem. She would not agree that Lee's seclusiveness was a problem, although she finally admitted that there was something not quite right about the fact that he was entirely alone. She wouldn't be worried if he saw boys in school during the day and then wanted to be alone, but if he was alone all day and half the night it didn't look so good. She listened attentively to the possible alternatives the court might order to solve the problem, but she was angry at the idea of probation saying that this wasn't a 'real chance'. She also felt that involvement with a social worker was 'talking to a stranger' and she didn't think this was a 'real chance' either. She thought that he ought to have a chance to see if he could go to school without any probation officer or social worker to interfere and then, if he played hookey for even one day, he ought to be put away in a home. Her plan seemed to be more of an expression of her need to assert her own volition against authority than any understanding of Lee. She didn't seem to see him as a person at all, but as an extension of herself.

"Lee Oswald is a seriously withdrawn, detached and emotionally isolated boy of 13, who is at Youth House for the first time on a charge of truancy. Lee came here from Ft. Worth, Texas with his mother about six months ago and he has been unable to make an adjustment in New York. The root of his difficulties which produced warning signals before he ever came here, seems to lie in his relationship with his mother. Lee feels that while she always cared for his material needs she was never really involved with him and didn't care very much what happened to him. There was no one in his family who could meet his needs for love and interest since his father died of a heart attack two months before he was born and two older brothers now 21 and 18 were involved with their own friends and activities and repulsed his advances. Lee became a seclusive child who was thrown upon himself and his own resources and he never made friends with other children. His mother who worked and who, when he was an infant, demonstrated her need to shift responsibility for him by leaving him with her sister and then placing him for awhile in a Home, appears to be a rigid, self-involved woman with strong ideas and she has little understanding of this boy's behavior nor of the protective shell he has drawn around himself in his effort to avoid contact with people which may result in hurt for him. It is possible that her own negative attitude about casework help and probation officers may communicate itself to Lee, interfering with his chances for help. On the other hand there would be little accomplished by placing him in the impersonal setting afforded by an institution without seeing, first, if he can be reached in therapy. Despite his withdrawal, he gives the impression that he is not so difficult to reach as he appears and patient, prolonged effort in a sustained relationship with one therapist might bring results. There are indications that he has suffered serious personality damage but if he can receive help quickly this might be repaired to some extent."

The file contained a Youth House Psychiatrist's Report of RENATUS HARTOGS, M.D., Ph. D., Senior Psychiatrist, dated 5/7/53, Bronx County, New York, concerning an examination on May 1, 1953, of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, age 13, Case No. 26996. This report stated as follows:

"This 13 year old, well built, well nourished boy was remanded to Youth House for the first time on charge of truancy from school and of being beyond the control of his mother as far as school attendance is concerned. This is his first contact with the law.

"He is tense, withdrawn and evasive boy who dislikes intensely talking about himself and his feelings. He likes the give the impression that he doesn't care about others and rather likes to keep to himself so that he is not bothered and does not have to make the effort of communicating. It was difficult to penetrate the emotional wall behind which this boy hides and he provided us with sufficient clues, permitting us to see intense anxiety, shyness, feelings of awkardness and insecurity as the main reasons for his withdrawal tendencies and solitary habits. Lee told us: 'I don't want a friend and I don't like to talk to people.' He describes himself as stubborn and according to his own saying likes to say 'no.' Strongly resistive and negativistic features were thus noticed but psychotic mental content was denied and no indication of psychotic mental changes was arrived at.

"Lee is a youngster with superior mental endowment functioning presently on the bright normal range of mental efficiency. His abstract thinking capacity and his vocabulary are well developed. No retardation in school subjects could be found in spite of his truancy from school. Lee limits his interests to reading magazines and looking at the television all day long. He dislikes to play with others or to face the learning situation in school. On the other hand he claims that he is 'very poor' in all school subjects and would need remedial "help. The discrepancy between these claims and his actual attainment level show the low degree of selfevaluation and selfesteem at which this boy has arrived presently, mainly due to feelings of general inadequacy and emotional discouragement.

"Lee is the product of a broken home as his father died before he was born. Two older brothers are presently in the United States Army while the mother supports herself and Lee as an insurance broker. This occupation makes it impossible for her to provide adequate supervision of Lee and to make him attend school regularly. Lee is intensely dissatisfied with his present way of living, but feels that the only way in which he can avoid feeling too unhappy is to deny to himself competition with other children or expressing his needs and wants. Lee claims that he can get very angry at his mother and occasionally has hit her, particularly when she returns home without having bought food for supper. On such occasions she leaves it to Lee to prepare some food with what he can find in the kitchen. He feels that his mother rejects him and really has never cared very much for him. He expressed the similar feeling with regard to his brothers who live pretty much on their own without showing any brotherly interest in him. Lee has a vivid fantasy life, turning around the topics of omnipotence and power, through which he tries to compensate for his present shortcomings and frustrations. He did not enjoy being together with other children and when we asked him whether he prefers the company of boys to the one of girls he answered 'I dislike everybody.' His occupational goal is to join the Army. His mother was interviewed by the Youth House social worker and is described by her as a 'defensive, rigid, self-involved and intellectually alert' woman who finds it exceedingly difficult to understand Lee's personality and his withdrawing behavior. She does not understand that Lee's withdrawal is a form of violent but silent protest against his neglect by her and represents his reaction to a complete absence of any real "family life. She seemed to be interested enough in the welfare of this boy to be willing to seek guidance and help as regards her own difficulties and her management of Lee.

"Neurological examination remained essentially negative with the exception of slightly impaired hearing in the left ear, resulting from a mastoidectomy in 1946. History of convulsions and accidental injuries to the skull was denied. Family history is negative for mental disease.

"Summary for Probation Officer's Report:

"This 13 year old well built boy has superior mental resources and functions only slightly below his capacity level in spite of chronic truancy from school which brought him into Youth House. No finding of neurological impairment or psychotic mental changes could be made. Lee has to be diagnosed as 'personality pattern disturbance with schizoid features and passive - aggressive tendencies.' Lee has to be seen as an emotionally, quite disturbed youngster who suffers under the impact of really existing emotional isolation and deprivation, lack of affection, absence of family life and rejection by a selfinvolved and conflicted mother. Although Lee denies that he is in need of any other form of help other than 'remedial' one, we gained the definite impression that Lee can be reached through contact with an understanding and very patient psychotherapist and if he could be drawn at the same time into group psychotherapy. We arrive therefore at the recommendation that he should be placed on probation under the condition that he seek help and guidance through contact with a child guidance clinic, where he should be treated preferably by a male psychiatrist who could substitute, to a certain degree at least, for the lack of father figure. At the same time, his mother should be urged to seek psychotherapeutic guidance through contact with a family agency. If this plan does not work out favorably and Lee cannot cooperate in this treatment plan on an out-patient basis, removal from the home and placement could be resorted to at a later date, but it is our definite impression that treatment on probation should be tried out before the stricter and therefore possibly more harmful placement approach is applied to the case of this boy. The Big Brother Movement could be undoubtedly of tremendous value in this case and Lee should be urged to join the organized group activities of his community, such as provided by the PAL or YMCA of his neighborhood."

The file contained a Special Behavior Report regarding LEE OSWALD written by one Mr. RAINEY and dated April 28, 1953. This report was as follows:

"Lee has constituted a problem here of late. He is a non-participant in any activity on the floor. He has made no attempts at developing a relationship with any member of the group and at the same time, not given any one an opportunity to become acquainted with him. He appears content just to sit and read whatever is available. He has reacted favorably to supervision; does what is asked of him without comment. There appears to be nothing on the floor of interest to him. Each evening at 8:00 Pm he asks to be allowed to go to bed. Members of the group appear to respect his seclusiveness. Perhaps this boy should have a talk with his Case Worker. Perhaps he will become more communicative from this point."

The file contained a letter dated December 14, 1953, said appearing on stationery with a letterhead FINCH & SCHAEFLER, Bar Building, 36 West 44th Street, New York, addressed to Mr. MELVIN ROMAN, Domestic Relations Court, 135 East 22nd Street, New York, signed by what appears to be EDGAR A. BUTTLE. This letter was as follows:

"Dear Mr. Roman:

"Mrs. Oswald informed me that she had just received a notice to the effect that she was to appear with her son before you on December 9, 1953, in connection with possible treatment of her son.

"I indicated to her that I would get in touch with you for the purpose of arranging another appointment. Unfortunately, I became tied up with other matters and did not contact you. However, I want you to know that failure to contact you was not the fault of Mrs. Oswald.

"It is my thought that some serious consideration should be given to having the boy receive private clinical treatment if it is really necessary. It has been my impression that the boy has the feeling he is being kept under surveillance so extensively that he is beginning to feel abnormal. While I am highly in favor of psychiatric treatment and its accomplishments, I feel in this case there is a possibility it is being overdone. In any event I shall be very glad to discuss the matter with you so that I may know more about the facts.

"Thanking you for giving this matter your kind attention, I remain, Sincerely yours, Edgar L. Buttle" N.Y.

The file also contained a letter dated December 17, 1953, addressed to Mr. E. LINDGREN, Domestic Relations Court, 1107 Carroll Place, Bronx, New York, sent by Mrs. BESSIE FORD, Chief Psychiatric Social Worker, Bureau of Mental Health Services, which indicated the following concerning LEE OSWALD:

"Dear Mr. Lindgren,

"Mr. Roman to whom this case was assigned for Intake tells me that the family lawyer phoned to inform us that the family is moving to New Jersey.

"According to the lawyer he has also informed the probation officer of the situation.

"We are therefore returning your material."

The file also contained the following: "Youth House Psychologist's Examination Report, Bronx Tr. 5/7/53; Date of Admission - 4/10/53; Case No. 26996; Name - OSWALD, LEE Harvey; Date of Examination - 4/17/53; Examiner - Irving Sokolow; age - 13.6; School Grades Completed - _____; Mental Age - _____; I.Q. - _____; Rating - _____."

The following was submitted by IRVING X SOKOLOW, Psychologist: 11/4

"Wechsler Intelligence Scale for Children (abb.) I. Q. 118, Monroe Silent Reading Test - reading rate 7.9 comprehension 7.5, Human Figure Drawings.

"Lee is a good looking slender youngster. He appeared alert and generally well motivated throughout the test situation, exhibiting some apprehensiveness.

"He achieved an I. Q. of 118 on the Wechsler Intelligence Scale for Children (abb.) indicating present intellectual functioning in the upper range of bright normal intelligence. All his scores were above the average for his age group, appreciably so in the verbalization of abstract concepts and in the assembly of commonly recognizable objects. His method of approach was generally an easy, facile and highly perceptive one. Although presumably disinterested in school subjects he operates on a much higher than average level.

"Lee achieved a 7.9 grade level in reading rate and 7.5 grade level in comprehension suggesting no retardation in this area. In the area of arithmetical reasoning he is above the average for his age group.

The Human Figure Drawings are empty, poor characterizations of persons approximately the same age as the subject. They reflect a considerable amount of impoverishment in the social and emotional areas. He appears "to be a somewhat insecure youngster exhibiting much inclination for warm and satisfying relationship to others. There is some indication that he may relate to men more easily than to women in view of the more mature conceptualization. He appears slightly withdrawn and in view of the lack of detail within the drawings this may assume a more significant characteristic. He exhibits some difficulty in relationship to the maternal figure suggesting more anxiety in this area than in any other.

"Under conditions of emotional stress and strain he appears increasingly defensive suggesting some concern orally and in general incapable of constructing an effective ego-defense."

The file also contained the report, date not indicated, of JAMES F. BRENNAN, Bureau of Attendance Officer, Board of Education, which reflected the following:

"Surname - Oswald; address - 825 East 179th Street, Bronx.

"Lee Harvey Oswald and his mother came to New York City from Fort Worth, Texas last year. Lee attended a Protestant parochial school in September, 1952 and then transferred to P. S. 117, Bronx. He soon became a truant, preferring the confines of their one room basement apartment, with its television programs, to the manners and customs of his schoolmates who ridiculed his mode of dress and different accent.

"When Mrs. Oswald moved to a three room apartment at 825 East 179 Street in mid-January, Lee was transferred to P. S. 44, Bronx. But he refused to attend that school either, despite the urging of his mother, the school counselor, the school court liaison officer and the attendance officer.

"A psychological examination was arranged with the Bureau of Child Guidance through the office of the Assistant Superintendent. But there were no prospects of an appointment for several months.

"Mrs. Oswald came to New York at the invitation of her oldest son, John, who is in the US Coast Guard stationed at Staten Island, NY. She and Lee lived with John and his wife, in their Manhattan apartment, for about a month, moving out when friction developed. Mrs. Oswald feels that this estrangement with his brother also affected Lee's disposition toward school. She is very much concerned about it.

"Mrs. Oswald, a widow about thirteen years, works as a saleslady for Martin's department store in Brooklyn, to support Lee and herself. She is industrious, and keeps a clean and nicely furnished home.

"Lee was born in New Orleans, La., and lived there until he was five years old. He was of normal birth and had the usual childhood diseases of measles, mumps and whooping cough.

"A quiet boy who has not made friends in New York, Lee has become irritable and impudent lately. He spends long hours at the television set when he should be in school. His other hobbies are moulding clay and reading comic books. He likes dogs and rides a bicycle. Besides, he aspires to be a Marine like his older brother, Robert.

"Under the circumstances, it is recommended that a petition be filed against the boy in Bronx Children's Court, School Part, because of his failure to attend school regularly."

An additional report by Bureau of Assistance Officer, BRENNAN, date not indicated, reflected background information on OSWALD and family as follows:

The surname OSWALD was indicated, address 825 East 179th Street, as of March 12, 1953, Apartment 3C. Under caption, "Others in Household", the name MARGUERITE, age 45, mother, was listed. Under a column "Family Income", it was indicated that OSWALD's mother was a saleslady at Martins, Fulton Street, Brooklyn, earning 45.00 a week. It was indicated that OSWALD's father, ROBERT LEE, died about 13 years ago at the age of 45. Other members of OSWALD's family, which were listed on this report were JOHN, born 1932, US, member of US Coast Guard and ROBERT, born 1934, US, member of US Marines. The bottom of this report, under column, "Attendance" indicated that OSWALD was present at P.S. 117, 16 and 2/2 days and absent 46 and 2/2 days.

The file contained a Household Department Final Adjustment Report, dated 5/1, year not indicated, requested by one STRICKMAN and written by C. R. CAFFEE, NY which contained the following regarding LEE OSWALD:

"Lee is a quiet, well developed boy that seems to have adjusted fairly well to the routines of the floor and house. He gets along well with the rest of the group and there hasn't been many occasions for reprimand for altercations and no fights: he plays a lot but can be easily settled down. He gets his room and himself clean before he begins to participate in any floor activity. He seems to have had a good nights rest upon awakening in the morning and he is seldom cross or angry. He eats normally and well. There has been no indication of sex play with him. He cooperates well with council members and supervisors as well.

"Lee, as has been reported by way of Special Behavior Report. has been apart bodily and mentally from the group and its activities. He reacts favorably to supervision and does what ever is asked of him completely and without comment. When on the floor, he usually sits to himself and reads what ever is available. Comes 8:15 PM (which is a daily occurance) he askes to be excused so that he can go to bed. The group, from all indication respects his seclusion. His appetite is normal, and he usually eats all foods given him without comment. Nightly, I check on his sleeping habits. His bed is usually askew about 10:30 PM and he makes little mumbling noises during his sleep, other than this his sleep is normal. He does not encourage conversation, nor does he participate in conversation. He does not communicate with the supervisors other than when he is asked a direct question, then his answer is very terse."

"5/1/53 Lee is a very quiet boy who says very little to anyone and no one bothers him. Usually on the floor he can be found sitting in the corner by the window. To make conversation I asked him how he liked Youth House, and his comment was 'it stinks'. In the dining room this evening he was observed trading his ice cream for the diner. He seems to have a good appetite anyway. His relations with the boys and to adult supervision is very good. I believe Lee, has adjusted very well to our Youth House program".

"5/1/53 Lee's behavior is quite unpredictable. Generally, the boy is very quiet and withdrawn whenever he is not activated in any program in Youth House. Most of the time the boy can be seen sitting alone minding his own business. However, whenever he becomes involve in any minor alteration he will become very hostile and belligerent and somewhat defiant towards supervision. The boy can more than hold is own and is respected by the group members. Wkr. is of the opinion that the boy has not made a good adjustment insofar as intergration with the members of his group is converned. Wkr. feels that the boy requires more than normal supervision since he can become hostile if the "situation presents itself. Mkr. would like to indicate that this hostility very seldom occurs but is a potential factor to take into consideration. Most of the time the boy is respectful and courteous towards supervision".

Attached to this report was a school report of P.S. 611 on LEE OSWALD, dated 4/24, year not indicated, and submitted for one STRICKIAN, which indicated as follows:

"Seems to have made a good adjustment. Although somewhat withdrawn, he had been completely cooperative and respectful of authority. Avoids contact with members of group - I believe Lee to ..." (The remainder of this report is not indicated).

The file contained a petition of JAMES F. BRENNAN, Bureau of Attendance Officer, Bronx, New York, in the matter of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, age 13, which petition was presented before Honorable HUBERT T. DELANY, Domestic Relations Court - Childrens Court Division, Bronx, New York. The petition alleged OSWALD to be a delinquent child for the reason that on March 11, 1953, and prior thereto, while residing at 825 East 179th Street and 1455 Sheridan Avenue, Bronx, New York, the respondent herein (OSWALD) has been excessively absent from school as follows:

"46 full days and 2 half days from 10/1/52 to 1/15/53; further that the said child has refused to register in P.S. 44, Bronx, since 1/15/53, when he moved into that school district and that he has not attended school since that time; further that he is beyond the control of his mother insofar as school attendance is concerned." A notation appeared that on 5/7/53, the "Pet amended on mother's statement that boy of Lutheran faith".

Public School 1953

The file contained a school progress report for Childrens Court, Bronx, New York, furnished by I. S. TAUB, Principal, P. S. 44, Bronx, New York, concerning the record of attendance, conduct, etcetera, of LEE OSWALD, 825 East 179th Street, 6th grade, from May 5, 1953, to October 16, 1953. This report was dated 10/16/53, and addressed to Probation Officer, Domestic Relations Court, City of New York. The report indicated the following attendance record for OSWALD:

Months	Days Present	Days Absent
May	14 and 1/2 days	1 and 1/2 days
June	13 and 8/2 days	1 and 8/2 days
September	11 and 2/2 days	2/2 days
October	9 and 1/2 days	1 and 1/2 days

Notations appeared next to months September and October that OSWALD's conduct was unsatisfactory. It was further noted that next to question "Has child shown improvement?" the answer "No" appeared; and next to question, "Have parents cooperated?' the answer "No - did not answer summons to come to school about her son's welfare".

The file contained a letter from RUTH THOMPSON, Brooklyn, Bureau of Social Service and Children's Aid Society, dated 11/13/53, addressed to Probation Officer CARRO, which reflected the following:

Brooklyn, N.Y.

"Dear Mr. Carro:

Re: Lee Oswald

"I am returning the material sent on the above boy.

"It is our feeling that this boy should be placed in a school as St. Christopher's because of his superior mental endowment and that he would not fit into or be properly placed with our group at Herriman.

"I am sorry we cannot help in planning for this boy.

"Sincerely,

"Ruth Tompson"

The file also contained a Notice of Appearance by what appeared to be Attorney Horton H. Nielson, 56 West 44th Street, New York City. It was indicated that this Notice of Appearance dated 11/19/53, was in the matter of Lee Harvey Oswald, Docket Number 39, 1953, and was addressed to the Domestic Relations Board - Childrens Court Division, Bronx, New York.

The file contained the docket jacket number 39, for Domestic Relations Court - Childrens Court Division, School Part, Bronx, New York, in the matter of Lee Harvey Oswald, age 13. It was indicated that the petition was filed 3/12/53, before Honorable Hubert T. Delany, and the final disposition was noted as discharged 3/11/54, and was signed by Hubert T. Delany. The name James F. Brennan was crossed out and under the column, "On the Petition Of" appeared the notation, "Now Margaret Burnes". The following dates and notations appeared on the docket jacket: R.I.Y.

"3/12/53 - mother present - child not present - warrant to be executed 3/19/53.

"3/19/53 - mother present all day - warrant officer was not able to execute warrant by 3 pm so it is ordered that warrant be executed when possible - mother is excused until notified by the court to appear.

"4/16/53 - warrant notice for this date illegible.

" 5/7/53 - parole to 9/24/53, referral to con. service and report on that date.

"9/24/53 - notation appearance for postponement to 10/29/53.

"10/29/53 - no appearance - postponed until 11/19/53."

Information concerning court appearances on 11/19 and subsequent dates were not indicated.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 12/3/63

On December 3, 1963, VINCENT TED LEE was interviewed by SAS JAMES W. STEVENSON and FRANCIS E. GIBBONS at his residence, Apartment 5E, 37½ St. Marks Place, New York City, New York. LEE was advised of his right to council, that he did not have to talk to the interviewing agents, and that any information he furnished might subsequently be used in a court of law. LEE was advised that the interviewing agents were contacting him with regard to LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the alleged assassin of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. LEE stated his willingness to speak to the interviewing agents concerning this matter and evinced a friendly, cordial manner.

National Office Director of

LEE stated that as he had already advised the press he had no knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no knowledge of a Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) charter having been issued to OSWALD or anyone else for a chapter of the FPCC in New Orleans. He stated he had no recollection of ever having received any correspondence from OSWALD requesting a charter for a New Orleans chapter, or ever having corresponded with OSWALD. He stated, however, it was entirely possible that the FPCC office in New York City may have received correspondence from OSWALD inasmuch as incoming mail to that office is voluminous.

LEE stated he has not been at the FPCC office in New York City since November 21, 1963. He stated on November 22, 1963, the day of President KENNEDY's assassination, he flew to Buffalo, New York, and was scheduled to return to New York City the same day, but was unable to obtain plane reservations and subsequently returned to New York City on November 23, 1963. He advised that since then he has been ill with a severe cold and has not left his apartment.

LEE advised he cannot recollect ever having met OSWALD, though it is possible they may have met in the course of one of LEE's many trips throughout the country on speaking engagements in connection with the FPCC. LEE advised he has seen photographs of OSWALD in the press since President KENNEDY's assassination, but does not recognize him as anyone he has ever met.

LEE advised that the FPCC office in New York City is not adequately staffed to handle the volume of mail received and that the FPCC, as a national organization, is a dying organization. He stated; however, his willingness to be of assistance to the United States Government by furnishing any information from the records of the FPCC office in New York that would be pertinent to the Government's investigation of the assassination of President KENNEDY. He advised that due to his illness he does not anticipate being able to go to the FPCC office for at least another two days, and that he would want his attorney present in the event he was to make any records available.

LEE advised that he can be reached at his home, telephone number, which is not listed, CAnal 8-9076.

Attached to the Appendix of this report is a characterization of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) wherein it is reflected that VINCENT TED LEE was appointed National Office Director in the fall of 1962.

FRANCIS L. MC CARTHY, United Press International (UPI), 220 East 42nd Street, New York, New York, advised SA FRANCIS J. O'BRIEN on December 3, 1963, that ALDEN MOSBY is a UPI reporter presently stationed in the Paris Bureau. He said that MOSBY was formerly employed in the Moscow Bureau of the UPI. Mr. MC CARTHY stated that GOLDBERG is probably A. I. GOLDBERG, an Associated Press (AP) reporter formerly stationed in the Moscow Bureau.

MC CARTHY added that the UPI telephone number in Moscow is 726681.

EDWIN KEITH FULLER, General Executive, AP, 50 Rockefeller Center, New York, New York, advised SA JAMES O. INGRAM on December 3, 1963, that STANLEY J. E. JOHNSON was formerly an AP reporter in the Moscow Bureau. He stated JOHNSON left Russia in 1962 and he is now employed as an AP reporter in New York City.

FULLER advised that A. I. GOLDBERG was formerly an AP reporter in the Moscow Bureau, but he was recently assigned to the AP office at the United Nations staff in New York City.

He said the AP telephone number at the Moscow Bureau is 726430.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 12/2/63

Dr. RENATUS HARTOGS advised that he is the Chief Psychiatrist for the Youth House of New York City, and, in this capacity, conducts psychiatric interviews of many children and youths referred to him by the Youth House.

Dr. HARTOGS related that upon reading a story in a New York newspaper concerning a psychiatric interview of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he realized that from the terminology used in the psychiatric report that he himself had conducted the interview of OSWALD. He stated that the specific phrases used in the psychiatric report of "potentially dangerous" and "incipient schizophrenia" are phrases that are peculiar to his type analysis, and he knows of no other psychiatrist who uses them.

Dr. HARTOGS stated that when he reflected on the interview, he recalled the fact that he was greatly impressed with OSWALD in that the boy, who was 13½ years old at the time of the examination, had extremely cold, steely eyes. Dr. HARTOGS stated that OSWALD was referred to him by the Youth House as the result of OSWALD's chronic truancy from public school, and, despite the fact that OSWALD had no record of violence, he recommended institutionalizing him as a result of his psychiatric examination, which indicated OSWALD's potential dangerousness. Dr. HARTOGS further added that he was so impressed with the OSWALD case that he made it the subject of a seminar that he gave at the Youth House to parole officers and students of psychiatry.

Dr. HARTOGS again emphasized that despite the lack of violence in OSWALD's past, he felt that he was potentially disturbed and dangerous, and that he should have institutional care.

When questioned as to whether he had retained a copy of the psychiatric report that he submitted following his interview of OSWALD, Dr. HARTOGS stated that some years after his interview of OSWALD, he moved his office and destroyed all his old files, which included the OSWALD file. He advised that he was unable to recall any further information at this time concerning OSWALD.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the afore-mentioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Braodway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by VINCENT "TED" LEE, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed LEE has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, LEE has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. LEE feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

DETAILS:

Information on VINCENT JOSEPH O'DOHERTY and Brother, EUGENE ALPHONSUS O'DOHERTY

The following investigation was conducted on November 25, 1963, by SA HUGH THOMAS FORSHA at Columbus, Ohio:

VINCENT JOSEPH O'DOHERTY, 1167 South High Street, furnished the following information:

He is employed by the Baker Bread Company, Zanesville, Ohio, as a breadman, working in Columbus, Ohio, and has been so employed since October 7, 1963. He was previously employed from September, 1961, to October 5, 1963, by the Donaldson Baking Company, Columbus, Ohio. He is married to ELIZABETH JEANETTE O'DOHERTY, who resides also at 1167 South High Street, Columbus, Ohio. They have six children.

O'DOHERTY was born in Lifford, Ireland, on May 19, 1918. He resided in Lifford, Ireland, until he was 22 years of age. In 1940 he joined the National Defense Forces in Ireland and served with them until June, 1944. All of that service was in Ireland.

From 1944 to 1949 he was a teacher of Irish Folk Dancing in County Mayo, Ireland. From 1949 to 1951 he was employed as a canvasser and mapper with the Electricity Supply Board in Sligo, Ireland. From 1951 to 1952 he sold insurance for the New Ireland Assurance Company, Sligo, Ireland. In 1952 O'DOHERTY went to England where he worked for McKechnie and Robbins in Birmingham, England. In March, 1953, O'DOHERTY entered the United States and went to River Forest, Illinois, to the home of his brother JOHN who had sponsored him. His brother, JOHN O'DOHERTY, is the area manager for the Franklin Life Insurance Company, River Forest, Illinois.

From 1953 to 1956 he lived in River Forest and Chicago, Illinois, and worked with the Edward Hines Lumber Company, River Forest, Illinois. In 1956 he moved to Evansville, Indiana, where he remained until 1959. While in that city he worked for the Brooks Lumber Company, Chandler, Indiana; the Cooke Feed Company; and as a Fuller Brush Man. In October, 1957, O'DOHERTY married ELIZABETH WALLENMEYER in Evansville, Indiana. He identified his wife's parents as J. C. WALLENMEYER and LOUISE WALLENMEYER. His wife's parents moved from Evansville, Indiana, to Fort Myers Beach, Florida, where J. C. WALLENMEYER purchased the Earls Drug Store, Fort Myers Beach, Florida. In 1959 O'DOHERTY and his wife moved to Fort Myers Beach, Florida, where O'DOHERTY worked as a counter salesman for his father-in-law in Earls Drug Store. In July, 1961, he left this employment due to a family misunderstanding, moved to Columbus, Ohio, with his wife and family, and has remained in Columbus since that date. O'DOHERTY said he had been friendly with a BERYL SIZEMORE, who had worked as a pharmacist at Earls Drug Store. SIZEMORE had preceded O'DOHERTY to Columbus, Ohio, and based on SIZEMORE's reports, O'DOHERTY thought Columbus would be a good place in which to live and obtain employment.

After arriving in Columbus, O'DOHERTY sold Watkins products for a few months, and then obtained employment at the Donaldson Baking Company. He resided at 1103 South Hampton from about September, 1961, to August, 1963, with his wife and family. In August, 1963, he moved with his family to his present residence.

O'DOHERTY is not a citizen of the United States and has lost his Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) card. He said he had informed INS of the loss of his identification card, had been told to apply for another card, but as yet has not done so.

Eugene O'Doherty

O'DOHERTY related the following information concerning his brother, EUGENE ALTHONSUS O'DOHERTY, who was born in February, 1916, in Lifford, Ireland:

Texas

Ohio

O'DOHERTY was reared with his brother EUGENE in Lifford, Ireland. EUGENE O'DOHERTY joined the British Army in about 1933, and served with the Artillery in Aldershot, England. However, after about six months or a year's service, EUGENE O'DOHERTY deserted the British Army and came back to Lifford, Ireland. EUGENE O'DOHERTY immediately joined the Irish National Defense Forces in Dublin, Ireland, and served throughout World War II. EUGENE O'DOHERTY had about ten years' service with the National Defense Force of Ireland.

Their mother died in 1944, leaving the family without a home. EUGENE O'DOHERTY remained in Galway, Ireland, where he worked on the Turf Board for about one year. EUGENE then went to England and Scotland where he was employed in factory work and as a photographer, from 1945 to 1957. In 1947 VINCENT wrote to EUGENE in Liverpool, England, asking EUGENE to get in touch with their sister, GLADYS CORSER, from Austin, Texas, who was visiting Ireland at that time. GLADYS CORSER had come to the United States, resided on Kenwood Avenue in Austin, Texas, and worked with the Internal Revenue Service in Austin, Texas. See O'Doherty

VINCENT claimed little contact with his brother EUGENE since 1944 except occasional intermittent correspondence. He had received letters from EUGENE in 1947, but had lost his address. In 1951 he saw GLADYS CORSER in Chicago, Illinois, and she gave him EUGENE's address in England. He wrote to EUGENE at that time and several times thereafter. He believed EUGENE was in the photography business, residing on Shall Road. VINCENT O'DOHERTY said that he had known within the past two years that EUGENE had moved from Liverpool, England, back to Dublin, Ireland. He said EUGENE had entered the United States in August, 1962, and he believed EUGENE flew from Dublin, Ireland, to Austin, Texas, and that his sister, GLADYS CORSER, had sponsored EUGENE.

From August, 1962, to April, 1963, EUGENE O'DOHERTY was in Austin, Texas, where he had worked for a Mr. PEYTON in photography. EUGENE has told him that he actually took the photographs while PEYTON processed them.

VINCENT said that EUGENE had called him in April, 1963, from Austin, Texas, and mentioned he was taking a trip to the Midwest. VINCENT claimed this was his next contact with EUGENE with the exception of occasional letters which they had exchanged. He was not aware until that call that EUGENE O'DOHERTY was in the United States and in Austin, Texas. EUGENE came to Columbus, Ohio, at the end of April, 1963, or the beginning of May, 1963. At that time VINCENT lived at 1103 South Hampton, Columbus, Ohio, and EUGENE, after arriving in Columbus, lived there with him. Later VINCENT moved to 1167 South High Street and EUGENE accompanied him and his family. After coming to Columbus, EUGENE obtained a job with the Columbus School of Motoring on North Hampton, his superior being a Mr. DICE.

VINCENT said that EUGENE has not returned to Texas since coming to Columbus, Ohio. However, EUGENE has called their sister, GLADYS CORSER, and she has called EUGENE on a number of occasions. The telephone calls have been of a personal and family nature inasmuch as GLADYS CORSER is lonely and has thought of moving to Columbus, Ohio. However, she informed EUGENE that she has been in Texas a number of years and, therefore, is reluctant to leave that state.

VINCENT said that EUGENE has been called by his former employer, Mr. PEYTON, on a couple of occasions from Houston or Austin, Texas. Apparently PEYTON wanted EUGENE O'DOHERTY to return to Texas to work for him and EUGENE has been considering that. However, EUGENE indicated to him that the photography work with PEYTON is of a seasonal nature and, therefore, he did not want to return to Texas. He added that EUGENE has hopes of launching his own driving school in Columbus, Ohio.

Edwin C

VINCENT said EUGENE had informed him that he had met and talked with General WALKER in WALKER's home in Texas. He said EUGENE may have met General WALKER through PEYTON. EUGENE, sometime between August, 1962, and April, 1963, actually interviewed General WALKER, and as a result of that interview, EUGENE had prepared a written account of his interview for publication. EUGENE had presented his article to General WALKER for permission to publish it, and had received General WALKER's permission.

After arriving in Columbus, Ohio, EUGENE had contacted the "Columbus Dispatch" regarding the possibility of publishing his free lance interview with General WALKER. However, the "Columbus Dispatch" wanted the right to edit the article which EUGENE would not consent to and, therefore, the deal fell through.

VINCENT O'DOHERTY said that both he and EUGENE are anti-communist and feel that the internal threat of communism is more dangerous than the threat of war with Russia. They both feel the American people are not awakened to the threat of communism.

VINCENT said EUGENE is a very opinionated person, but, to his knowledge, does not belong to any group; that EUGENE seems to admire General WALKER and General WALKER's policies. However, he indicated that EUGENE has not identified himself as a member of the John Birch Society. On the basis of conversations with EUGENE, VINCENT believes that his brother's former boss, PEYTON, was connected or friendly with the John Birch Society; that EUGENE possibly has met members of that society and has discussed the philosophy of that society. To VINCENT's knowledge, EUGENE O'DOHERTY has not associated with any members of the John Birch Society while in Columbus, Ohio.

VINCENT said that EUGENE has been outspoken regarding President KENNEDY's policy on aid to communist countries, and they both felt that the statement by President KENNEDY in Berlin that Ireland was free was a poor statement to make. He said they neither saw "eye to eye" with President KENNEDY's policies, but neither of them has ever made any threat against President KENNEDY. He said both himself and EUGENE felt very badly about the assassination of President KENNEDY, and EUGENE did not give any indication of any acquaintance with either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY. Prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY, EUGENE had indicated in conversations with him that he felt President KENNEDY would get a poor reception in Texas, and EUGENE felt that Texans did not care for President KENNEDY. In addition, EUGENE had expressed the belief that President KENNEDY's trip to Texas would be a failure, but EUGENE did not make any mention or reference to any violence in connection with that trip. VINCENT said he is sure that EUGENE did not envision the assassination of President KENNEDY.

VINCENT is quite sure that his brother EUGENE was not implicated in any way with the assassination of President KENNEDY and, to his knowledge, none of EUGENE O'DOHERTY's associates was implicated in any way.

VINCENT said that to his knowledge EUGENE has not received any other telephone calls from Texas, and has not made any to Texas. However, he said that EUGENE had been drinking on the evening of November 24, 1963, and it is possible that he could have made or received a telephone call. They were together at Tom and Mary's Bar on South High Street from shortly after 11:00 p.m., until about midnight on Sunday, November 24, 1963, and EUGENE had not made or received a telephone call during that period.

EUGENE has made rather radical statements at times and when he did not like a person he would come out rather strongly against that person. VINCENT said, as an example, that perhaps at sometime EUGENE had said that we should get rid of President KENNEDY or other leaders if he did not agree with them; that generally EUGENE talks a great deal and seems to enjoy arguing, but he certainly is not as radical as his talking would indicate. He recalled that EUGENE has made the statement that President KENNEDY was no good and felt that President KENNEDY was too soft on communism. He added that when EUGENE came to Columbus they had discussions regarding integration and EUGENE had expressed himself strongly against integration.

VINCENT has no knowledge whatever concerning the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, and to his knowledge, his brother EUGENE has no knowledge or association with that group.

VINCENT stated that he has been the closest associate of his brother, EUGENE O'DOHERTY; that he has met friends of EUGENE and described them as casual acquaintances. He has met these friends of his brother in bars in Columbus and was unable to recall the identity of any of them.

VINCENT O'DOHERTY furnished the following physical description of himself:

Unknown Person in Mexico City Who Resembled LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The following investigation was conducted by SAS THOMAS P. SCOLLARD and ROBERT C. DAVIS at Cincinnati, Ohio:

On December 5, 1963, JESSE GREGORY, 1520 F. Dudley, Parktown, Cincinnati, Ohio, advised SAS DAVIS and SCOLLARD that he believed he saw an individual in Mexico City who bore a striking resemblance to subject. He furnished the following information:

GREGORY is a retired Civil Service Commission employee, having worked in Washington, D. C., until 1953, when he became disabled by a heart condition. He planned a two-month vacation in Mexico, beginning August 30, 1963. He travelled by plane from Cincinnati, Ohio, to Chicago, Illinois, and from there to Mexico City, Mexico, arriving on August 30, 1963. He had reservations at the Hotel Canada, but decided against staying there when he saw this hotel because it appeared to be a low class establishment. He then obtained a room at a "huespedes," boarding house, located at 26 Lerma, Mexico City, where he stayed one night. He was not satisfied with this room and searched a Mexico City newspaper to locate better accommodations. From the newspaper he obtained a room in another "huespedes" located at 43 Varcocia, which was operated by CARMEN GODOY. He rented a room at this address for one month. He occupied a room on the first floor for a few days, then had his room changed to the second floor. There were 12 or 13 other people staying at this boarding house and he was surprised to find all these other people appeared to be intellectuals. He did not expect to find people of this class staying in an ordinary boarding house. He noted none of the other people staying at 43 Varsobia appeared to be engaged in regular employment because they were around the boarding house practically every day during the daylight hours and seemed to be resting or vacationing. When he first arrived at 43 Varsobia, all of the other persons living at this address were Latin Americans.

On or about September 23, 1963, or September 24, 1963, a young white male American, name unknown, about 20 to 25 years old, obtained a room at 43 Varsobia, occupying a room located over the detached garage of this house. This individual, according to GREGORY, could have been the subject because he bore a striking resemblance to photographs of the subject as seen by GREGORY in newspapers and magazines and on television. GREGORY saw this individual on only one occasion which occurred when they had breakfast alone on the day after the unknown white male American came to the boarding house. GREGORY's first impression of this suspect was that he looked very shabby and was a poor representative of the United States. GREGORY talked with this unknown suspect for about one hour when they had breakfast alone together at the boarding house. During this meal the suspect indicated strong dissatisfaction with the United States Government. He stated to GREGORY that he disliked the United States because of the racial situation. The suspect stated, "Things are pretty rotten in the United States," and "The United States is lousy." GREGORY has the impression this suspect was not particularly anti-Negro himself, but was disturbed over the racial problem in the United States and felt nothing could be done in the United States to alleviate the racial problem under the current system of government.

The unknown white male American indicated he was going to a college in Mexico City located on Delaroforma Street and told GREGORY he did not like college in the United States.

Suspect further indicated to GREGORY that at one time he had lived in Washington, D. C., but came to Mexico from Texas. The suspect spoke fair conversational Spanish. GREGORY attempted to reason with the suspect about the racial problem in the United States, pointing out that there were many bright spots in the racial situation and he felt the people of the United States were doing very well under the current system of government in solving their racial problems. The suspect was not convinced by these arguments and kept repeating that; "The United States is rotten." GREGORY stated before leaving the suspect at the breakfast table on this morning he loaned him a book entitled, "The Coming Explosion in Latin American," which GREGORY felt would help the suspect to become more understanding of the racial problem of the United States.

GREGORY did not see the suspect again, but on September 29, 1963, GREGORY left 43 Varsobia and before leaving went to the room of the suspect to get his book. After knocking on the door and identifying himself, the suspect handed the book out through the door without coming outside the door or showing his face. During the period September 23 or September 24, 1963, to the date September 29, 1963, when GREGORY left this boarding house, it appeared to him that the suspect did not mix with the other boarders and stayed by himself.

GREGORY furnished the following description of the suspect, stating he realized his recollection of small details concerning the suspect was faulty, but that at the time he saw suspect he had no particular reason for committing his description to memory:

Age:	20 to 25
Height:	5' to 5'4"
Weight:	160 pounds

GREGORY estimated this weight, but said suspect looked thin and drawn. GREGORY was unable to estimate weight and height of interviewing Agents with any degree of accuracy.

Eyes:	Dark, not otherwise noticed
Hair:	Dark brown, unkept, needed haircut

Complexion:	Slightly suntanned, but not vigorous healthy appearance
Face:	No special recollection
Mouth:	Tense, not pleasant appearing
Chin:	No special recollection
Teeth:	No special recollection
Nose:	No special recollection
Adams Apple:	Not prominent, but noticeable
Scars and Marks:	None observed
Appearance:	Not clean shaven; shabby looking; introverted
Speech:	Not noticeably regional, may have been Middlewest to South and Southwest, spoke softly, used word "rotten" often
Clothing:	Wearing long-sleeved pullover sweater, dark brown or very dark blue; white shirt, very dirty and worn, no tie; trousers - no specific recollection, but were dark and baggy; shoes - not noticed; luggage - carried one dark colored airline type handbag

One of the Latin Americans staying at 43 Varsobia during this period was known to GREGORY by the name of RUBEN D. MARANTES MEZA, who said he was employed by the Mexican Government as a hydroelectrical transformer specialist and was probably an electrical engineer. It was generally known at the boarding house that GREGORY was leaving the end of the month to visit for another month in Guadalajara, Mexico. MEZA offered to and did write a letter for GREGORY to obtain a place to stay in Guadalajara. MEZA sent this letter to DONNA DELORES RUBIA, 682 Juarez, Guadalajara, Mexico. GREGORY left Mexico City on September 29, 1963, and went directly to the 682 Juarez address where he obtained a room. GREGORY observed that this house was frequented by a group of 10 to 15 young Mexicans. During conversation, one of the young Mexicans told GREGORY that two rooms on the second floor of this address were being used to circulate communist literature. GREGORY never went to the second floor and never saw any evidence this address was being used to circulate communist literature. However, this report disturbed him so he went to see SAMUEL B. SOUTHWELL, Public Affairs Officer, U. S. Information Service, at Guadalajara. GREGORY discussed this matter with SOUTHWELL who informed him it was known that about a year or two ago the residence at 682 Juarez was the location of a Russian Cultural Center, but SOUTHWELL said he had no knowledge communists were currently using the residence at this address for any purpose.

GREGORY speculated, with no reason to know for sure, that MEZA knew the address at 682 Juarez was being used by communists and sent GREGORY there to involve him with the communists. GREGORY further speculated that other persons residing at 43 Varsobia may have been communists because they all appeared to be intellectuals with no visible means of support. GREGORY's speculation strengthens his suspicion that the unknown white male American rooming at 43 Varsobia may have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD visiting Mexico City to contact communists.

GREGORY left Guadalajara on about November 17, 1963, and returned home without further incident. He furnished the following names of other individuals who resided at 43 Varsobia during the period August 30, 1963, and September 29, 1963, and who may have seen or talked to the unknown white male American suspect:

6.5 MM Mannlicher-Carcano Ammunition Sold By Elmer Joyce Gun Shop, Covington, Kentucky

The following investigation was conducted by SA BENNY J. CANNY on December 6, 1963, at Cincinnati, Ohio:

SA CANNY contacted the following individuals:

CHARLES GROSSMAN, Owner, Grossman Gun Shop, 1195 Catherine Drive, Cincinnati, Ohio;

FRANK S. HODGES, SR., and FRANK S. HODGES, JR., Co-owners, Pioneer Gun Shop, 5147 Montgomery Road, Norwood, Ohio;

GEORGE C. BURRIER, Burrier Gun Shop, 5026 Montgomery Road, Norwood, Ohio;

MARTIN HOLLANDER, 3947 North Clerose Circle, Cincinnati, Ohio.

CHARLES GROSSMAN advised that he purchased only 100 rounds of this ammunition which he uses for test firing. The Pioneer Gun Shop, according to the HODGES, has not bought any of this ammunition. None of the listed persons recalled subject OSWALD prior to the newspaper and television publicity on the assassination of President KENNEDY, and none does any mail-order ammunition business, selling mostly to local individuals they know.

The following investigation was conducted by SA THOMAS B. ESTEP on December 6, 1963:

HOMER E. JOHNSTON, Owner-operator of a shooters supply shop, 11582 Lebanon Road, Sharonville, Cincinnati, Ohio, advised that he has been in business for 20 years at this address. On March 2, 1962, he purchased a box of this ammunition from Elmer Joyce Gun Shop, Covington, Kentucky, consisting of 1,000 rounds in 50 boxes of 20 rounds each. He still has 18 boxes of this ammunition left. He has no sales slip on the sales, but no sales were made to subject OSWALD, of which he is positive. This ammunition does not sell fast, but is excellent ammunition and is sold generally to persons who have bought old guns. He could furnish no information on subject.

CHARLES HENSLEY, employed at B&W Metals Company, Hamilton, Ohio, advised that he is owner-operator of the Mason Gun Shop, 1054 Butler-Warren Road, Mason, Ohio, where he lives. He has none of this ammunition and never had any of it. He stated that guns are a hobby with him and that he never heard of subject prior to the assassination publicity.

The following investigation was conducted by SA BILLY C. KIRTS on December 6, 1963, at Cincinnati, Ohio:

STEPHEN KUSMACK, Route 1, Manchester, U. S. Route 52, advised that he operates the Trade Winds Trading Post at this address. He had 100 rounds of this ammunition, 60 rounds of which he has sold to local persons he knows, the other 40 rounds still being in his possession. He could furnish no information on subject.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOHN F. McCLUSKEY on December 6, 1963, at Dayton, Ohio:

RUSSELL E. THORNTON, Owner of Thornton's Gun Exchange, 1543 West Third Street, advised that he has no record of any purchase of this ammunition from George Zucker or Century Arms Company, but that on June 15, 1962, he purchased 1,000 rounds of this ammunition from Elmer Joyce, 336 Scott Street, Covington, Kentucky, of which he has left four boxes containing 20 rounds each. He has no records on cash sales and most all of his customers are local and known to him. He could not recall ever having sold any ammunition to subject OSWALD, and could furnish no information on subject. He has sold no merchandise by mail in the past year or more with the exception of a rifle which he had shipped to a customer in Michigan.

Miscellaneous

On December 8, 1963, the following anonymous letter, postmarked 1A, Cincinnati, Ohio, 10:30 AM., December 7, 1963, addressed "Mr. Ed. Mason, FBI., Federal Building, 5th & Walnut Street, Cincinnati 45202, Ohio," was received:

"12/7/63

"Mr. Ed. Mason
F.B.I.
Cincinnati_ Ohio

"Dear Sir,

"Some reports say that Oswald and Jack Ruby never knew each other but I believe they did. For a second or two the T.V. camera revealed that Oswald did know Jack Ruby.
It was so clear I said to myself 'He sees someone he knows' When the officials first started to bring Oswald out 'In camera view' Oswald took about four steps and then turn his head to the left in the direction of the on coming Jack Ruby. 'Not yet in view of camera' Oswald's face showed a look of surprise, it was at this time that I said to myself 'He sees' someone he knows.'
We are all alike in this respect if we see someone we know when we are not expecting to see them our face will show surprise.
I don't know how many T.V. cameras were there but I do know that one of the T.V. tapes will show what I saw. Jack Ruby was a hoodlum and a hoodlum is only concerned about himself.

"Ed."

Long Distance Calls of MICHAEL R. PAINE, Irving, Texas

The following investigation was conducted by SA ROBERT F. MILLER on December 7, 1963, at Columbus, Ohio:

The current Columbus, Ohio, Telephone Directory shows that CA 8-4711 is subscribed to by Nationwide Insurance Company, 246 North High Street; and that AM 7-2450 is listed to Mrs. WILLIAM HYDE, 440 Glenmawr Avenue.

Previous investigation reflected that WILLIAM HYDE, father of RUTH PAINE, is employed at Nationwide Insurance Company, 246 North High Street, as an actuary, Mr. HYDE having been interviewed on December 2, 1963; and that Mrs. WILLIAM (CAROL) HYDE, mother of RUTH PAINE and divorced from WILLIAM HYDE, is residing at Oberlin Theological Seminary, Oberlin, Ohio, where she was to be interviewed by the Cleveland Office.

SOVIET SECTION

Information concerning background of GARY BROCK TRAPNELL was developed and reported in the case entitled "GARY BROCK TRAPNELL, TFIS; ITSP; ITSMV; CGR - FALSE PRETENSES (BAD CHECKS)", Buffile 26-281335, BA file 87-6302, and in the case entitled "MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES, aka Mike; ANTONIO VENTURA BART, aka Tony; CECILIA BART, aka Mrs. Antonio Bart; (FNU) SOUSA IS - CUBA" Buffile 105-123345, BA file 105-7480. TRAPNELL's allegations concerning the plot by Cuban refugees to kill the Attorney General, was furnished to the Bureau in Letterhead Memorandum in the latter case. Baltimore file contains copy of Bulet to U. S. Secret Service dated 9/6/63, which in turn refers to previous communications to that agency dated 8/21 and 9/4/63, concerning the plot and the mental condition of GARY BROCK TRAPNELL.

As was pointed out in referenced Baltimore teletype 11/24/63, TRAPNELL, in the interview of 11/23/63 furnished substantially the same information previously furnished Bureau and disseminated under the MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES heading. He changed the story in that in the earlier account he identified the group of only four individuals as MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES, and ANTONIO VENTURA BART, Cubans with whom he associated in Cuba while he allegedly was training CASTRO's soldiers, and BART's wife, CECILIA and a Negro male named SOUSA. In the November 23 interview he changed these identifications to replace ANTONIO VENTURA BART with a (FNU) OSWALDO, a girl, MARTA (LNU), and a third, dark skinned man whose name he could not recall. He then claimed that he recognized LEE HARVEY OSWALD from photographs as the individual using the name OSWALDO.

TRAPNELL's original identification of these 4 individuals consisting of FUENTES and BART as Cubans whom he had known in Cuba, the one being the wife of BART, and the other being a Negro male, does not leave room for logical identification of one of these individuals now as OSWALD.

On the last interview TRAPNELL also contradicts his prior statement concerning his original meeting of FUENTES which he now gives as having been in the U. S. Army at Fort Campbell, Kentucky in 1956, rather than in Cuba in 1958. By teletype to the Bureau and San Antonio on 12/7/63, Baltimore advised that MICHAEL ROCLEVITCH, son of FLORENCE ROCLEVITCH had furnished information that his mother was then residing at 4202 W. Commerce Street, San Antonio, Texas, his father was attending school which would terminate 12/11/63. San Antonio was instructed to interview FLORENCE ROCLEVITCH who had entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 9/26/63.

By teletype 12/11/63, San Antonio advised that Mr. and Mrs. ROCLEVITCH had left San Antonio without leaving a forwarding address. Baltimore was instructed to interview FLORENCE S. ROCLEVITCH on her return to her prior residence, 5418 56th Avenue, Riverdale, Maryland.

LEADS: One copy of this report is furnished Miami Division since activity alleged by TRAPNELL was located within that division and if further investigation should be necessary in the future such investigation may be necessary at Miami.

BALTIMORE DIVISION

AT RIVERDALE, MARYLAND

Will locate and interview FLORENCE S. ROCLEVITCH at 5418 56th Avenue, who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 9/26/63.

Synopsis: GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL, inmate of Clifton T. Perkins Hospital for mental defectives, Jessup, Maryland, claimed on 11/23/63 to have recognized LEE HARVEY OSWALD as one of four persons in pro-Castro group whom he had previously reported as plotting to kill the Attorney General. TRAPNELL previously confined to Spring Grove State Mental Hospital, Baltimore, Maryland. In prior interview on 8/19 and 29/63 to which TRAPNELL referred, he identified the 4 individuals as MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES and ANTONIO VENTURA BART, Cubans with whom he had associated in CASTRO's Army in Cuba in 1958, the wife of BART and a Negro named SOUSA. Foregoing individuals and places named by TRAPNELL could not be found to exist. Doctors at Perkins Hospital say TRAPNELL is a liar who lies for self aggrandizement.

Re: Allegations of GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL, Inmate of Clifton T. Perkins State Mental Hospital, at Jessup, Maryland

On November 23, 1963, Dr. WILLIAM G. CUSHARD, Superintendant, Clifton T. Perkins Hospital for mentally defective persons accused of crimes, Jessup, Maryland, telephoned the Baltimore Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation, to advise that an inmate of his institution, GARY BROCK TRAPNELL, had alleged that he had information concerning the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. Dr. CUSHARD stated that TRAPNELL is a liar, that he lies to make himself "big", and that he had claimed to know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, only after he had listened to radio accounts of the assassination.

GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL, also known as GARY BROCK TRAPNELL, [redacted] had come to the attention of the Baltimore Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation, on several previous occasions and the following information had been developed concerning him in connection with prior investigation:

On May 1, 1961, Mrs. MARY TALBOT, Office of the Medical Librarian, Spring Grove State Mental Hospital, Frederick Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland, advised Special Agent ROBERT L. LANPHEAR, that her records reflect GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL had been admitted to the Spring Grove State Hospital on October 23, 1958 from the Baltimore County Circuit Court, after being indicted for the crime of robbery. It had been determined at the time by Dr. CHARLES F. O'DONNELL and Dr. RICHARD DOSS, that TRAPNELL was mentally incompetent and unable to assist in the defense of his case. The Commitment Order was signed by Judge JOHN E. REINE. TRAPNELL was treated at Spring Grove State Hospital until October 27, 1959, at which time he was released for return to court, Baltimore County, Maryland.

TRAPNELL was reinstated at the Hospital on February 23, 1961 on the basis of medical examination by Dr. CHARLES F. O'DONNELL and Dr. FRED CONVERSE. He received treatment at the hospital until March 15, 1961 when he escaped. The diagnosis at that time by Dr. CHOMONDY was [redacted] The file concerning TRAPNELL was closed in April 1961 since TRAPNELL was not considered to be dangerous to himself or others.

On May 8, 1961, Sergeant FRANK SMITH, Fugitive Squad, Baltimore Police Department advised Special Agent LANPHEAR that TRAPNELL had been extradited on May 5, 1961 to Miami, Florida to stand charges there of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

On May 12, 1961, Assistant United States Attorney ROBERT E. CAHILL, Baltimore, Maryland, advised Special Agent LANPHEAR that he would decline Federal prosecution of TRAPNELL for the Crime On Government Reservation - False Pretenses (worthless checks) in view of TRAPNELL's mental condition and his prosecution by Miami, Florida, authorities.

On May 5, 1961, Lieutenant General THOMAS J. H. TRAPNELL, Commanding General of the 18th Airborne Corps at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, advised Special Agent ROBERT N. STEVENSON of the Charlotte Division, that GARY TRAPNELL, his nephew, had been a problem for him and his brother for several years. He said that TRAPNELL had been cashing worthless checks at various military installations throughout the United States, by using his relationship to Lieutenant General TRAPNELL as a reference, and that this situation had been very embarrassing to him. He said that TRAPNELL is incorrigible, that he is a "con artist" and acts like a "big shot".

On April 26, 1961, Mr. WATERS TRAPNELL, 1621 E. Coldspring Lane, Baltimore, Maryland, telephoned the Baltimore Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and mentioned that GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL, his nephew, has been mentally insane for many years.

When interviewed at the Baltimore County Jail, Towson, Maryland on March 24, 1961, by Special Agents ROBERT L. LANPHEAR and JOHN C. BONNER, GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL, advised that he had been released about December 27, 1959, from the Spring Grove State Mental Hospital, Catonsville, Maryland, where he had been under examination and treatment. He admitted cashing several worthless checks and having cased several locations in the vicinity of Richmond, Virginia for possible armed robberies. He denied having committed any armed robberies or crimes of violence since his release from Spring Grove State Hospital in 1959, but admitted committing several armed robberies from California to Maryland in 1958 with two other individuals, both of whom were then serving 20 year sentences in the Maryland Penitentiary.

TRAPNELL also admitted having slashed his wrists, having attempted to hang himself and having shot himself in attempted suicides during his military career, and having received a discharge for mental conditions from the United States Army as a result of the foregoing attempts. His Army Serial Number was RA 14569058. He claims service in the United States Army from October 1955 to March, 1958.

On August 19, 1963, Corporal J. W. ECKSTORM, Maryland State Police, Centerville, Maryland, advised Special Agent FRANCIS L. FEARTHREE that GARY BROCK TRAPNELL, a white, male, born January 31, 1938, was then awaiting trial in Kent County, Maryland, in connection with fraudulent checks issued for the rental of a boat from the Chestertown, Maryland, area, which he subsequently repainted, and sailed to Quincy, Massachusetts. TRAPNELL was arrested in the boat before it could be sold and returned to Chestertown, Maryland.

On August 19, 1963, TRAPNELL was interviewed by Special Agent FEARTHREE in the Kent County Jail, Chestertown, Maryland. He furnished the following information:

In 1958 TRAPNELL went to Cuba where he helped train members of CASTRO's Revolutionary Army in the use of the 57 millimeter recoilless rifle and small arms. While there in that capacity he met MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES, also known as Mike and ANTONIO VENTURA BART, also known as Tony, who were members of CASTRO's Army. TRAPNELL stated he was captured by BATISTA's Army on the Escamber Front, jailed in the Cabo Moncado Fortress, transferred to Santiago and later to a prison on a military base outside Havana, Cuba. He was later released from the prison and deported to Miami, Florida. He was flown from Havana to Miami via commercial airlines and no one connected with the Government of the United States talked with him on his arrival in the United States.

TRAPNELL stated he had been in Cuba for less than 6 months, that he had gone there on his own, at his own expense, and had joined CASTRO's Revolutionary Forces because of sympathy for their cause.

TRAPNELL stated that while in Miami, Florida in May or June of 1963, he met MIGUEL AMADOS FUENTES whom he had met earlier in Cuba, and on invitation, accompanied FUENTES to a building located on the southwest corner of West Flagler Street and 12th or 13th Avenue, or the southwest corner of Southwest 8th Street, Tamiami Trail, and 12th or 13th Avenue, where they met and drank intoxicants with ANTONIO VENTURA BART, his wife, CECILIA, and another man known only as Mr. SOUSA.

The group talked freely with TRAPNELL and told him that the four of them planned to kidnap and kill ROBERT KENNEDY, the Attorney General of the United States, in an effort to sabotage any relationship between the Cuban Revolutionary Movement and the United States.

He described these persons as loyal "Castroites" although all had come to the United States as refugees from CASTRO. He alleged that all were smoking marijuana and sniffing cocaine while he was with them in Miami and all were drinking intoxicants.

The group allegedly exhibited gasoline company road maps of Virginia with marked routes, exact routes unknown to TRAPNELL, a professional looking floor plan of a house that they claimed to be that of the Attorney General at McLean, Virginia, drawn on white paper approximately 18 inches by 24 inches, and small photographs supposedly of the KENNEDY homes at Palm Beach, Florida, and Hyannis Port, Massachusetts, and of the yacht the "Honey Fitz".

In addition, the group showed him a closet in this building wherein were stored at least 14 rifles, four 38 caliber revolvers, fragmentation and concussion hand grenades and some plastic explosives. They claimed they intended to use these arms in assassinating the Attorney General.

It was TRAPNELL's opinion that the group were fanatics and would be willing to die in any attempt on the life of the Attorney General.

During the course of the conversation the group alleged that they had gone to Washington, D. C. early in the spring of 1963 to carry out the assassination attempt but on arrival there felt that there had been a leak, that the authorities knew of their plot so they decided to postpone the attempt until late August or September 1963.

The group allegedly gave TRAPNELL one of the rifles which he described as a 7.62 millimeter, semi-automatic or full automatic rifle with ventilated ribs extending the full length of the barrel, a tripod under the muzzle, with the wood stock removed and replaced with a removable metal stock. This rifle which was allegedly of Russian make, resembled the U. S. Browning automatic rifle.

TRAPNELL furnished the following descriptions:

TRAPNELL furnished a handwritten map of the room where he talked with the subjects, and where they exhibited their arms to him. He described it as a commercial building, rented by a legitimate Cuban refugee organization, with the name of the organization on the plate glass front. The name may be "Students Union", "Peoples Party", or "FNA", or "FAN".

TRAPNELL advised that he did not furnish this information previously because he was fearful for his life, and the lives of his family and loved ones if he should make this information known. He pointed out that since he was then in jail, he felt secure.

TRAPNELL advised that he has been arrested previously in connection with Armed Robbery, worthless checks, and other offenses, and when tried in connection with the armed robbery, he was committed to Spring Grove State Hospital, near Baltimore, Maryland, where he was diagnosed as being [redacted] He implied that this diagnosis was obtained by a clever defense lawyer, and in this manner, he traded one year confinement in Spring Grove for 20 year confinement in jail for the armed robbery.

TRAPNELL stated further that about one year after he was released from Spring Grove, he cashed some worthless checks and had rented some cars with worthless checks. He heard that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was looking for him, so he turned himself in to Spring Grove Hospital voluntarily, feeling that he would not be prosecuted because of his mental condition. He said he avoided prosecution in that instance.

TRAPNELL stated that he is not insane nor is he mentally ill. He bragged that he is arranging with his lawyer to be committed to a mental institution in Maryland in the immediate future and indicated that he planned to avoid a jail sentence in this manner.

On August 20, 1963, Sheriff BARTUS O. VICKERS, Kent County, Chestertown, Maryland, advised that the subject was committed to Clifton T. Perkins Hospital, Jessup, Maryland, by the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland on August 20, 1963, for observation and study. TRAPNELL was delivered to that hospital on August 20, 1963.

On September 5, 1963, the Boston Division furnished information received from the Quincy, Massachusetts Police Department, reflecting that on June, 19, 1963, Lieutenant FRANK VALLIA of the Police Department, had arrested GARY BROCK TRAPNELL on a fugitive warrant from Kent County, Maryland. VALLIA advised that TRAPNELL had sailed a boat to Quincy, Massachusetts where he was taken into custody. At the time of his arrest TRAPNELL's wife and child were with him and the wife turned over to VALLIA a foreign make semi automatic rifle, make not known.

Lieutenant VALLIA said that this rifle was in extremely poor condition and rusted. TRAPNELL was removed on July 21, 1963 by the authorities to Kent County, Maryland.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agents of the Miami Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation:

Mr. DONALD LOVETT, owner, Beachway Ski School, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, on August 20, 1963, advised that an individual using the name GARY B. TRAPNELL, rented a boat with that company at Fort Lauderdale on May 23, 1963. He issued a $35.00 check drawn on the Security First National Bank at Van Nuys, California. According to LOVETT, the check was returned "account closed". He was driving a 1962 Valiant station wagon, California license LNK 580. He was alone at the time he rented the boat.

Records of the South Florida State Hospital, West Hollywood, Florida, were reviewed on August 20, 1963, by Dr. REGINALD EATON. These records show that there was no evidence of psychosis. According to the record, TRAPNELL knew the difference between right and wrong but was of anti-social behavior and not considered insane.

On August 20, 1963, Mrs. ELIZABETH BROCK TRAPNELL, 2431 Northwest 28th Street, Miami, Florida, advised that she is the mother of GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL. She has remarried and her married name is BETTY ZANG. She claimed that she had not seen her son since September, 1962. She knew of no Cuban associates of her son, and she said he was married to INGRID TRAPNELL in Miami about a year ago.

On August 20, 1963, Mrs. INGRID TRAPNELL advised that she is separated from TRAPNELL and she last saw him in April, 1963, in Washington, D. C. She did not know of TRAPNELL's trip to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, in May, 1963, and she believes that if TRAPNELL was in the Miami area he would have contacted her.

On August 28, 1963, Mrs. INGRID TRAPNELL was re-interviewed and at this time, she admitted that when previously interviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, she had failed to notify the interviewing agent that she had been present when TRAPNELL was arrested in Massachusetts. She admitted that at that time, she turned over to the police authorities an old rifle which she believed was of Russian make. She said that this rifle was a "museum piece" and had been in the TRAPNELL family for years. She stated that she had not furnished the above information previously because she was "afraid".

On August 21, 1963, Mr. JOHN MARSHALL, Agent in Charge of Secret Service, Miami, Florida, advised that in January, 1962, AARON PAUL WILHEIT, [redacted] U.S. wrote a letter to Secret Service and accused GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL and JOSEPH ANTHONY LLANUSA, [redacted] who were both in jail in Miami at that time, of plotting to kidnap the children of President KENNEDY.

Both TRAPNELL and LLANUSA were questioned by Secret Service and denied the accusation. FBI

FBI Identification records show that WILHEIT and LLANUSA both have long criminal records. AARON PAUL WILHEIT, according to records of the FBI Identification Division, has been charged in the past with impersonation of Federal officers and passing bad checks. Mr. MARSHALL advised that in view of the above, GARY BROCK TRAPNELL could possibly be fabricating the plot against Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY. MARSHALL also advised that the diagnosis of the local state hospital in West Hollywood, Florida, of the condition of TRAPNELL is not reliable as the state hospital tends to discharge persons unless they are absolutely insane.

On August 20, 1963, indices and records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) at Miami were reviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for any record possibly identical to FUENTES, the BARTs and Mr. SOUSA. These records were negative for all individuals other than a record for MIGUEL A. FUENTES, INS Number A12-80-230. This file was transferred to the New York Office of INS November 7, 1962. On August 21, 1963, the above individual whose complete name is MIGUEL ARMANDO FUENTES CABRERA, was interviewed by Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at New York City, and it was determined through interviews that he could not possibly be the MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES who TRAPNELL said was a party to this plot.

On August 21, 1963, records of the Cuban Refugee Assistance Program, Miami, Florida, as checked by Mrs. GEORGINA DE LA CUESTA, failed to show any record possibly identical to FUENTES, the BARTS or SOUSA. Mrs. DE LA CUESTA did have a record for the above mentioned MIGUEL FUENTES.

On August 21, 1963, the records of the following agencies were checked by Investigative Clerk ROBERT JOHN SCHAMAY and no record could be located possibly identical to FUENTES, BART, Mrs. BART and SOUSA:

Miami Police Department
Miami Beach Police Department
Dade County Department of Public Safety
Miami Municipal Court
Credit Bureau of Greater Miami.

Investigative Clerk SCHAMAY did determine that TRAPNELL has an extensive local criminal record and, in fact, is wanted by the Miami Police Department for passing worthless checks in September and November, 1962.

On August 21, 1963, numerous confidential informants and other individuals who are members of anti-CASTRO organizations in the Miami area and who are familiar with pro and anti-CASTRO activities in the Miami area were unable to furnish any information concerning the foregoing names, including (FNU) SOUSA, who was reportedly a former intelligence captain in the BATISTA army.

On August 20, 1963, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation viewed the general area of the southwest corner of West Flagler Street at both 12th and 13th Avenues and the southwest corner of Southwest Eighth Street (Tamiami Trail) at 12th and 13th Avenues. It was determined from observation that the buildings at these locations were all business firms such as gasoline service stations, a dry cleaning establishment and a bar. There was no apartment house or single residence at these locations.

On August 29, 1963, GARRETT BROCK TRAPNELL was reinterviewed by Special Agents JAMES V. SULLIVAN and RICHARD G. SULLIVAN at the Clifton T. Perkins State Mental Hospital, Jessup, Maryland. He had been confined there for a thirty day examination under a local court order.

TRAPNELL repeated the story of the plot to assassinate the Attorney General of the United States, ROBERT KENNEDY, as previously set out. He claimed that he met MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES, in a poolroom located on Flagler Street, Miami, Florida. The poolroom was located near a small store which is used as a cigar factory. He met FUENTES sometime in May, 1963. They later drove to a building located on the southwest corner of West Flagler Street and 12th or 13th Avenue, or the southwest corner of southwest 8th Street and 12th or 13th Avenue. He stated that this building is a commercial building rented by a Cuban refugee organization with the name of the organization on the plate glass front. He said the name could be "Students Union". "Peoples Party",

"FI'A" or "FAI". They were later joined by BART, BART's wife, and SOUSA. He was with them about one and one half hours. During the meeting FUENTES gave an automatic Russian rifle to TRAPNELL. He could recall no particular reason for being given the gun and he cannot account for getting it except that it was a gift from his friend, FUENTES. FUENTES inferred that he wanted TRAPNELL in the plot but he told them that he "passed". He claimed that he did not see anyone who knew him in Miami at that time except FUENTES and his associates. He said his wife was not with him in Miami. TRAPNELL protested that he was telling the truth and that he really cared for the life of the KENNEDY Family.

Later during the interview TRAPNELL became evasive and highly emotional and appeared to border on possible violent action. TRAPNELL finally stated he did not wish to continue the interview and became definitely hostile.

On August 30, 1963, all corners of the Flagler Street and southwest 8th Street areas at 12th and 13th Avenues in Miami were again viewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and no organization such as described by TRAPNELL was located on any of these corners. The nearby main intersections were also checked with negative results. It was also observed that there are no pool halls near cigar factories along the entire length of Flagler Street.

On August 30, 1963, Mrs. INGRID TRAPNELL, nee SCHOENKE, was reinterviewed near her employment, the Evans Insurance Agency, 240 Westward Drive, Miami Springs, Florida. She resides at 244 Cherokee Street in Miami Springs, Florida. Mrs. TRAPNELL advised she is a German national having arrived in the United States at Miami, Florida, on June 16, 1961, as a permanent resident. She was born December 16, 1940, at Kleve, Germany. She married GARRETT TRAPNELL on May 16, 1962. They lived together in Miami for four months. They then traveled to Van Nuys, California, where he managed an apartment house in Van Nuys for about three months. He then obtained employment with a local finance company until about April, 1963, when he purchased a late model valiant automobile and they traveled to Chicago, Illinois, staying there briefly. They traveled to Baltimore, Maryland, and sometime during the beginning of May they drove to Miami where they remained one day and then returned to Baltimore. Two weeks later TRAPNELL said he was going to Boston, Massachusetts. He was gone for four days and returned with a boat and boat trailer. A few days later this boat disappeared. One day in July TRAPNELL appeared with another boat and boat trailer. About two weeks later while they were in the process of moving to another apartment and using the boat as a trailer, they were stopped by the local police as TRAPNELL had apparently stolen the boat and trailer. She said their personal belongings were in the boat and when the police searched the boat they found the Russian rifle in same. The police asked her to release this property to them.

When reinterviewed on August 30, 1963, Mrs. TRAPNELL claimed that she had no idea where the Russian Gun came from. She first saw this gun about July, 1963, in Baltimore, Maryland. The gun was in their apartment behind the television set and she asked TRAPNELL where the gun came from and he did not answer her. She told him to get it out of the house and he removed same. The next time she saw the gun it turned up in the boat. She said she had "assumed that the gun had been in the Trapnell family for years and was a museum piece because it was so old".

She knows that TRAPNELL in the past had associated with Cubans but he never introduced them to her nor did they come to their house in Miami. She swears he did not tell her he had come to Miami in late May. She was unable to recall any of their addresses or TRAPNELL's employments during their visits to California, Chicago and Baltimore. She appeared to be positive during the time and circumstances concerning her observation of the Russian gun.

Mr. IRVING SCHEUER, Attendant at Clifton T. Perkins Hospital, Jessup, Maryland, advised that shortly before supper time at the Jessup hospital on November 22, 1963, GARY BROCK TRAPNELL, one of the patients, had given him a slip of paper on which TRAPNELL had written the type of a gun which TRAPNELL stated had been used to kill President KENNEDY. SCHEUER stated that TRAPNELL had been listening to the radio all afternoon following the assassination of President KENNEDY and claimed that he knew who shot President KENNEDY and that a German Rifle was used. TRAPNELL gave this slip of paper to SCHEUER at approximately 5:00 P.M. to 5:15 P.M., November 22, 1963.

Mr. SCHEUER stated he had not paid much attention to TRAPNELL's statement since it was quite common for the mental patients to claim they had "inside information" about matters of public interest.

SCHEUER made available the slip of paper referred to above, and it contained the following:

"MIKE AMADOR FUENTES

#1 German Mauser
Cal 7.65 MM or
#2 Tckarev 7.62 MM
11-22-63".

GARY BROCK TRAPNELL was interviewed at the Clifton T. Perkins State Hospital, where he has been undergoing psychiatric examination. At the outset of the interview he greeted SA RICHARD G. SULLIVAN, who has had prior contact with him, and advised SA SULLIVAN that he had been declared sane and was going back to State Court in the immediate future to be tried. He explained that he had no delusion and the story he was to tell was a true story. He stated that when he heard the news story of the assassination of President KENNEDY on the radio and television he knew in advance the facts which were later developed by investigation and was "calling the shots in advance" with respect to the type gun used and the background of the assassin. He advised that the fact that he "called the shots in advance" could be verified through contact with other inmates. TRAPNELL advised that when he saw the news photograph of OSWALD appearing in the morning paper he knew he was correct and at that time asked for an interview with the FBI to pass along his information.

He advised that in the latter part of May, 1963, he had gone to Miami, Florida. He explained that he used as an M.O. the following system: To go out of state, rent a boat and trailer with a bad check, and then leave the state with them, sell them, and pocket the proceeds. This was his purpose in going to Miami. He had told his wife he was going to Boston. He advised that the exact date he went to Miami could be checked by determining from his case history the date he had rented the boat in Miami. He had arrived two days previous and slept in his car while he spent two days casing boat locations. On the third day, he went into a pool hall located four or five blocks west of the bridge on Flagler Street. He could not recall the exact name of this pool hall which was a Cuban hangout with a Spanish name with the English translation "The Blue Star" or something similar. He advised that in the same block on Flagler Street was a store where Cuban cigars were being made. He further described the pool room as a combination bar and pool room with two pool tables on the right side and the bar on the left side as one enters.

In this pool hall, he met an individual he had known in the U. S. Army as "MIKE", true name MIGUEL AMADOR FUENTES. MIKE did not recognize him at first until TRAPNELL identified himself. He described MIKE as a short, heavy set American of Cuban ancestry, 5'7" or 5'8", 145 pounds, with a Cuban sport shirt hanging outside his pants. He had known FUENTES in the U. S. Army at Fort Campbell, Kentucky. He had been associated with FUENTES for about two months in the service and had a small drinking association with him. Also in 1958 when TRAPNELL had gone to Cuba, where he subsequently was kicked out by the Batista Forces, he had met FUENTES at Santiago, Cuba. He described FUENTES as having pro-CASTRO sympathies.

When TRAPNELL met FUENTES in the pool hall, the latter was playing pool. They spent about 45 minutes in conversation. FUENTES, according to TRAPNELL, made this invitation while they were in the pool hall, "Come on over to my place and we'll let you in on a good thing we've got going".

According to TRAPNELL, they got in his car, proceeded west on Flagler Street, turned left, went over to the Miami Trail and proceeded until they came to the intersection of 9th, 10th or 11th Street, which one TRAPNELL could not recall. At the intersection there was a small building on the corner with the words "Popular Front" or "Student Union" or something similar written on it in Spanish. This was a ground floor building with a mess hall type table inside, metal frame, soft top, collapsible legs. On the left side was a closet and to the rear a latrine and a rear door. A group of houses were immediately to the rear of this building.

There were three people in the room, a girl named MARTA, whose last name could be HERNANDES. This girl, according to TRAPNELL, did not like his presence. A second individual in the room was introduced to TRAPNELL as OSWALDO. This is the individual who is identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, according to TRAPNELL. The third man was a dark-skinned individual whose name TRAPNELL could not recall. OSWALDO is described as about 25, 5'8"-10", 140 pounds, dark hair, Cuban look, no distinctive or unusual features. This individual spoke English.

The other man had a mustache, was about 5'9", 190 to 200 pounds. TRAPNELL could furnish no further information concerning this man.

After they passed some time in nonpertinent conversation, FUENTES took him to the closet in which TRAPNELL saw guns, canteens, and knapsacks. He saw German Mauser rifles, German MP 44 pistols, and a Russian gun, a Tokarev Model 40 7.62 millimeter. They also showed him a black and white document, not a blue print, purporting to be the layout of the Attorney General's home at McLean, Virginia. From their conversation TRAPNELL deducted that they planned to assassinate ROBERT KENNEDY. The purpose of this was to place the cloud of suspicion over the Anti-CASTRO forces.

Additionally this group had photographs which TRAPNELL said were purported to have been taken on the beach or from the water at Hyannis Port, Massachusetts. Also they had pictures which were supposed to represent KENNEDY's father's place at West Palm Beach.

The actual spoken words of the group were discussed with TRAPNELL and also discrepancies in his statement from that previously furnished in prior contacts with the FBI.

With regard to the exact context of statements made by the group, TRAPNELL placed most of the talking into FUENTES mouth with the tacit approval of the other people present. He stated that the girl, MARTA, objected to TRAPNELL's presence and to FUENTES exposing their plans to him, although FUENTES vouched for TRAPNELL's loyalties. With regard to the exact wording, TRAPNELL stated that President KENNEDY's name had never entered into the conversation, although someone in the group had said, "We are going to get KENNEDY in the fall". It was TRAPNELL's impression that ROBERT KENNEDY was the target. In fact, TRAPNELL pointed out that he had at first been under the impression ROBERT KENNEDY had been assassinated. He had no specific details as to plan except that they planned on shooting their victim.

TRAPNELL advised that he felt certain he had mentioned the name OSWALDO to someone previously during an interview. He stated that this was the same story he had related when previously interviewed. He advised that he had been interviewed by a Secret Service Agent in September, 1963, and told the same story. He felt it might have been on that occasion he mentioned OSWALDO's name. He advised he had not been interviewed by Secret Service men prior to September, 1963.

TRAPNELL's story was reviewed with him, and he could furnish no specific plans or details of the planned shooting of ROBERT KENNEDY. He could furnish no additional information, identifying background or data that would assist in identification of any of the above parties.

TRAPNELL stated he felt that he was being sounded out as a possible participant in the assassination plot and when he failed to show any enthusiasm for this plot, he was not invited in as a participant. He advised that he asked them how they got the "stuff" here and was advised "the same way we get stuff into Cuba".

He advised that both he and MIKE had done some drinking of beer at the pool hall and an alcoholic beverage later, as MIKE had a bottle.

TRAPNELL explained his own sentiments, stating he had been pro-CASTRO until 1958 and from 1960 on had been Anti-CASTRO.

TRAPNELL stated that before there was any discussion on the radio of the weapon used to shoot President KENNEDY, TRAPNELL had told the hospital ward attendant what kind of a gun had been used. TRAPNELL said that he had written on a slip of paper the make gun used and had given this paper to the ward attendant.

Dr. WILLIAM G. CUSHARD, Superintendent, Clifton T. Perkins Hospital, Jessup, Maryland, telephonically advised that the psychiatric examinations of GARY BROCK TRAPNELL had been completed and that the hospital intended to submit its report early next week to the Kent County, Maryland Judge who had committed TRAPNELL for observation. Dr. CUSHARD was reluctant to discuss the report, stating that the Judge would be highly critical of such action, however, he said TRAPNELL was "in contact with reality and was capable of telling the truth". Dr. CUSHARD stated that he knows that TRAPNELL is a liar, that TRAPNELL does a lot of lying, that TRAPNELL knows when he is lying, and lies to make himself "big". Dr. CUSHARD stated that TRAPNELL had listened to the radio accounts of the assassination of President KENNEDY and later said that he knew OSWALD, the alleged assassin. Dr. CUSHARD stated that because TRAPNELL was a known liar, CUSHARD would not have reported this to the FBI except that the assassination was of such extreme importance. Dr. CUSHARD stated that TRAPNELL was being certified as sane and was responsible for his actions. He advised he realized that TRAPNELL had, by his earlier actions, set up a basis for the introduction into his criminal trial of a defense of insanity.

Dr. CUSHARD stated he could not venture an opinion as to whether TRAPNELL was telling the truth or lying when he said he knew OSWALD and that based upon TRAPNELL's history of past lies, CUSHARD would not have brought this to the attention of the FBI except for the magnitude of the case. CUSHARD stated TRAPNELL's lying to make himself "big" was not as advanced as a delusion.

Dr. CUSHARD advised that because of previous engagements, he was unavailable for a personal interview at this time.

Dr. JOHN MARSHALL HAMILTON was aware that on the evening of November 23, 1963, FBI Agents were present at the Clifton T. Perkins Hospital, Jessup, Maryland, relative to information furnished by GARY BROCK TRAPNELL, and he telephonically contacted the Perkins Hospital and suggested that he be contacted if information concerning TRAPNELL was desired.

Dr. HAMILTON telephonically advised that he was the Ward Psychiatric Supervisor at Perkins Hospital and that the psychiatric examinations of TRAPNELL had been completed. Dr. HAMILTON advised that a psychiatric examination of TRAPNELL had been made prior to TRAPNELL's trial on a criminal charge of theft. Dr. HAMILTON stated that although TRAPNELL's medical history reflected that he was psychotic, the present examinations at Perkins Hospital failed to reflect that he was psychotic at this time. He said TRAPNELL is anti-social but not deranged, and that TRAPNELL tells lies when he thinks that a lie will serve his interests, and that he lied many times during the psychiatric examinations and would later tell other lies contradicting previous lies. Dr. HAMILTON stated that TRAPNELL lied for self aggrandizement and that although the Doctor could not state that TRAPNELL was lying about having known OSWALD, the alleged assassin of President KENNEDY, it could easily be seen that any statement of previous association with a case of this magnitude would serve TRAPNELL's self aggrandizement and that he felt TRAPNELL would lie depending on how he thought he could best serve his own interests.

ADMINISTRATIVE CONT'D.

On 12/13/63, [redacted], who requested her identity be protected, advised SA ROGER H. LEE and VINCENT J. HARGER that on 12/12/63 she was present at a luncheon, with three other women, at the apartment of a friend whose name she did not wish to divulge. In addition to [redacted] and her unidentified friend, a Mrs. GUSTAV [redacted] Tepotzlan, Cuernavaca, Mexico, and another woman who [redacted] also did not wish to identify, were present at this luncheon. [redacted] stated that during the luncheon the topic of the President's assassination was discussed. She commented to the other ladies that it seemed strange that the housewife, Mrs. RUTH PAINE, with whom LEE OSWALD's wife was residing with prior to the assassination, spoke Russian. One of the ladies present then stated that she was a close acquaintance of RUTH PAINE and that RUTH learned Russian at the University of Pennsylvania. This woman also stated that she was a close friend of RUTH PAINE's parents, Mr. and Mrs. ARTHUR YOUNG of Paoli, Pennsylvania. This woman stated that she talked to RUTH PAINE's mother after the assassination and that RUTH's mother told this woman that RUTH had requested that she take LEE's wife into her home for awhile as the people of Texas were hostile toward LEE's wife because LEE assassinated the President. The woman stated that RUTH PAINE's mother refused this request.

According to [redacted] this same woman then stated "they" were all grateful that the fact that Mrs. RUTH PAINE was the daughter-in-law of LYMAN PAINE, whom she said was a well known Communist from California, had not been made public. This woman then explained that she had also known MICHAEL PAINE, RUTH PAINE's husband and the son of LYMAN PAINE, for several years. The woman then described LYMAN PAINE as a "wonderful person". The woman also stated that RUTH PAINE and her husband MICHAEL were "trying out" a separation.

[redacted] stated that she is from the Philadelphia area and that Mr. and Mrs. ARTHUR YOUNG, parents of RUTH PAINE, are known to her as a socially prominent family with "very liberal" views.

NYO indices, NY file 100-112849, Bufile 100-401929, captioned "GEORGE LYMAN PAINE, JR.", reflect only 1956 data to the effect that a GEORGE LYMAN PAINE was active in the Johnson Forest Group in the Los Angeles, California area, Los Angeles file 100-43728. It appears that this individual may be identical with the father of MICHAEL PAINE.

The above information was furnished to the Bureau and SACS, Dallas and Philadelphia by NYtel dated 12/17/63 wherein it was also requested that Bureau advise if desire to have NYO make efforts to recontact [redacted] and persuade her to divulge identity of woman at luncheon who furnished above information.

The above information was not set forth in details of this report inasmuch as positive identification of GEORGE LYMAN PAINE, JR., NY file 100-112849, as father of MICHAEL PAINE is not known at this time and furthermore that information reflected above was not obtained from original source. In the event the Bureau desires recontact of [redacted] and if subsequent investigation verifies above information, same will be set forth in future report.

By teletype dated 12/15/63, Bureau instructed NYO to locate and interview two Austrian girls, PATRICIA CLARE BASILEIGH-WINSTON, age 22, and PAMELA LILLIAN MUMFORD, age 21, re allegation that subject a passenger on "Red Arrow" bus from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, 9/26/63, and while en route engaged in conversation with these two young women. Buairtel 12/16/63 further instructed NYO to question above two young women re identity of 80 year old man, possibly one JOHN HOWARD POWELL, who allegedly sat next to subject during above-mentioned bus trip.

By teletype dated 12/16/63, NYO advised Bureau and SAC, Philadelphia that on 12/16/63 H. RATHBONE, 222 West 23rd Street, NYC, advised SA ROGER H. LEE that above-mentioned two young women resided at above address from 3/23/63 to 8/31/63 but departed stating they intended a tour of the US for a period of one year. Forwarding address was in care of DAVID THONENGINI, 710 Tunkhanrock Avenue, Exeter, Pennsylvania. Appropriate lead was set out for Philadelphia Office to interview THONENGINI re present whereabouts of two young women.

Information as set forth herein reflects names and organizations which appeared in a notebook belonging to subject. The name MARTIN ISAACS and the organization International Rescue Committee (IRC) were two that appeared in subject's notebook and it is to be noted that interview of ISAACS is reflected in report of SA JOHN JAMES O'FLAHERTY, 12/11/63, and interview with official at IRC set forth in report of SA O'FLAHERTY, 12/9/63.

NYO will continue to conduct investigation re subject on the basis of teletypes received from Bureau, office of origin - Dallas, and other offices.

JUKES stated that he has no information in his possession as to the date and place the notebook was obtained.

On December 12, 1963, EDWARD L. BRAUNE, Agent, Legal Department, New York Telephone Company, 140 West Street, New York City, advised SA JAMES M. ANDERSON that he was unable to locate any record concerning subscriber H. WARNER KLOEPPER.

On December 12, 1963, BRAUNE advised that phone number UN 6-0389 was listed to one F. THOMAS, 237 West 100th Street, New York City, and was connected November 23, 1963. The record did not indicate any bank for THOMAS but listed employment as truck driver for last fourteen years and office phone as HY 9-6147. BRAUNE advised that the above phone number had been previously listed to ROBERT N. BROCKS and STEVE WALDMAN, 285 Riverside Drive, New York City, Apartment 7D. It was indicated that service for this number had been connected May, 1963, and disconnected September 4, 1963. Employment for BROOKS appeared as TV Revisions, 710 Southern Boulevard, Bronx, phone number DA 8-6100, and his bank was indicated as Dollar Savings Bank.

On December 12, 1963, BRAUNE also advised that phone number UN 6-2741 is a non-published number which is listed to one EVARISTO PADRON, 151 West 108th Street, New York City, Apartment 55. This phone was connected June 19, 1962, and employment for PADRON was indicated as glass washer, American Export Wines, Hoboken, New Jersey, since 1956.

BRAUNE commented that no other records were located concerning the above-mentioned phone numbers.

On December 18, 1963, RICHARD SELLERS, Doorman, 285 Riverside Drive, New York City, advised SAS JAMES O. HORAN and ROGER H. LEE that Apartment 7D was registered to a Dr. TRUDE ROSMARIN during the summer of 1963 but that ROSMARIN had sublet her apartment to four young men for the summer. SELLERS recalls one BROOKS as a young man in his early 20's but was unable to recall any of the other young men who occupied the apartment. He stated that they moved into the apartment around May, 1963, and moved out around the first of September, 1963, reportedly to travel to California. He commented that since ROSMARIN had sublet the apartment he did not have any record or forwarding address for BROOKS and his friends were very noisy and had loud parties but that he believes they were just young college boys.

On December 18, 1963, Dr. TRUDE WEISS ROSMARIN, 116 Central Park South, New York City, advised SA JAMES O. INGRAM that she had sublet her apartment to two young men, ROBERT BROOKS and STEVE WALDMAN, in May, 1963. She advised that they told her that they belonged to a Jewish organization in Miami and she did not request them to sign a lease or application. She had no knowledge of their background and stated that they paid in advance for the summer use of the apartment. She stated that they moved into the apartment in May, 1963, and moved out after Labor Day, September, 1963. She stated that BROOKS had informed her that he worked for Editorial Revisions, Bronx, New York. She stated that the doorman had told her that several men actually were living in the apartment during the summer and had loud parties. She advised that she had no knowledge of the present whereabouts of these individuals.

On December 18, 1963, it was determined that TV Revisions was no longer located at 710 Southern Boulevard, Bronx, New York.

The telephone directories of the boroughs of New York City were reviewed on December 18, 1963, and no listing could be located for TV Revisions.

It was previously set forth that the telephone number of TV Revisions was listed as DA 8-6100. This number was dialed and a secretary for the World Scope Publishers advised that TV Revisions was a subsidiary of the World Scope Publishers and their office was located at 710 Southern Boulevard, Bronx. She said the company is now liquidated and the World Scope Publishers is presently in the final stages of bankruptcy proceedings. The World Scope Publishers is presently located at 290 Broadway, Lynbrook, New York. She said all employees have left the company and she and one other employee are presently attempting to store records.

She advised that their records reflect that ROBERT H. BROOKS was on their payroll of January, 1963, and listed as a door to door salesman of encyclopedias. It was reflected that he remained in this position until September 16, 1963. The only addresses which were listed for BROOKS were 265 Riverside Drive; 125 Riverside Drive; and 400 West 57th Street, all New York City, New York. The record reflected that these last two addresses had been crossed out. The record failed to reflect any forwarding address for BROOKS. She also stated that STEVE WALDMAN was employed by their firm from January 28, 1963 until August 19, 1963, and had listed his addresses as 125 Riverside Drive and 2855 Riverside Drive, both New York City. She added that WALDMAN did not indicate any forwarding address.

NYK

On December 18, 1963, ALEJANDRINA PADRON, 161 West 108th Street, Apartment 5S, New York City, advised SA JAMES O. INGRAM that she and her husband EVARISTO have lived at the above address for the past five years. She added that they have had the phone number UN 6-2741 for at least a year and a half. She commented that her husband is a Merchant Mariner presently aboard the "SS Constitution" and is expected to return December 30, 1963. She added that she was not acquainted with subject.

F.T. Thomas

On December 18, 1963, FREDDIE THOMAS, 237 West 100th Street, New York City, advised SA JAMES O. INGRAM that his phone was connected the latter part of November, 1963, and as yet has not received his first telephone bill. He added that he does not know any H. WARNER KLOEPPER.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

ARTHUR CLINTON, Director of Attendance, Board of Education, City of New York, advised his records contain information concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated his records show OSWALD attended Public Schools 117 and 44 in the Bronx, New York, during 1953, however, his records did not reveal the exact dates of OSWALD's attendance at these schools. CLINTON advised that he is the Director of the Attendance Bureau, therefore all attendance officers are under his jurisdiction. He said any violation by a truant is usually handled by their office.

His records show that LEE HARVEY OSWALD resided at 1455 Sheridan Avenue, Bronx, and 825 East 179th Street, Bronx, during 1953, however, his records did not indicate any dates of their residence at these addresses. OSWALD's parents were listed as ROBERT LEE OSWALD and MARGUERITE CLAVERIE. The children in the family were listed as JOHN, born January 19, 1932; ROBERT, born April 7, 1934; and LEE, born October 9, 1939.

Their records show that a Board of Education Calendar of Bureau Hearings was conducted by the Bureau of Attendance on January 13, 1953, in District 24, Hearing Number 60, concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD, 1455 Sheridan Avenue, and the Attendance Officer was Mr. BRENNAN. The disposition was listed as adjourned until January 20, 1953 for appearance.

On January 20, 1953, Hearing Number 60, in the matter concerning LEE H. OSWALD, same address, was held before the Bureau of Attendance and Officer BRENNAN was the Attendance Officer. The disposition was listed as probation to June 30 and a resummons would be issued.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On January 27, 1953, a hearing was held in District 24 on Case Number 60 for OSWALD and his address was then listed as 825 East 179th Street, Apartment 3 C. The Attendance Officer was J.F. BRENNAN. The disposition was listed as probation to June 20, 1953 and would prosecute the child on the next violation.

CLINTON said their records also show the Board of Education Calendar of Court Prosecutions in District 24 by the Bureau of Attendance. This record indicates LEE H. OSWALD had a hearing on March 12, 1953, before Magistrate DELANEY. The Attendance Officer was J.F. BRENNAN and OSWALD's address was listed as 825 East 179th Street. The disposition was only listed as March 19, 1953.

The records show that on March 19, 1953, the LEE H. OSWALD case was again before Magistrate DELANEY and the records indicate that the Warrant Officer was unable to execute the warrant concerning OSWALD.

The records show that on May 7, 1953, LEE H. OSWALD, 825 East 179th Street was again brought before the court before Magistrate MC CLANCY. OSWALD was accompanied by his mother, MARGUERITE and the Attendance Officer was listed as J. F. BRENNAN. The disposition was listed as case adjourned to September 24, 1953, and the latter was referred to the Community Service Society.

CLINTON stated he has no additional records concerning OSWALD, however, he understood that only one Attendance Officer actually recalls having any personal contact with OSWALD and this was VICTOR J. CONNELL, an Attendance Officer in the 22nd District.

VICTOR J. CONNELL, Attendance Officer, Bureau of Attendance, School District 22, 2424 Jerome Avenue, Bronx, New York, advised that during the spring of 1953, he recalls while working in the Bronx Zoo he observed a young boy approximately 13 years of age in the zoo. He described the boy as very clean and very well dressed. He approached the boy and determined that his name was LEE OSWALD and he was a truant. He described him as surly and referred to CONNELL as a "damned Yankee".

CONNELL stated he apprehended OSWALD and returned him to the school district and escorted him to the school. CONNELL advised he is sure he had no other contact with the OSWALD boy but he may have telephonically contacted OSWALD's mother at the time.

He could furnish no additional information.

by SA JAMES O. INGRAM:pmg Date dictated 12/17/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mrs. MARGARET BARNES, Attendance Officer, Bureau of Attendance, District 22, 2424 Jerome Avenue, Bronx, New York, advised SA INGRAM on December 16, 1963, to the best of her knowledge, she could recall no contact whatsoever with LEE HARVEY OSWALD as a truant.

JAMES P. BRENNAN, 2490 Davidson Avenue, Bronx, New York, advised SA INGRAM on December 13, 1963, he was formerly employed as an Attendance Officer for the Bureau of Attendance in District 24 in 1953. He said he formerly handled matters from Public School 44 in the Bronx and he recalled handling a truant matter concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

To the best of his knowledge, he could not recall ever having any personal contact with OSWALD and he does not believe he has ever talked with the boy. He recalls that in early 1953, around January or February, he contacted Mrs. OSWALD at her home in the Bronx, the exact address not recalled, and discussed with her the matter of her son missing school. At that time he believes Mrs. OSWALD was a sales clerk in a Manhattan women's apparel shop. He said that Mrs. OSWALD was not hostile to him in any way and that she appeared to be a respectable lady and she emphasized to him that she had to work to make a living, therefore, she could not spend a great deal of time with the boy. He recalled that the OSWALDs were from Fort Worth, Texas and that she remarked to him they would eventually return to Texas.

BRENNAN could not recall why OSWALD was truant and he states he could not recall ever taking the OSWALD boy before a hearing in the Bureau of Attendance or a hearing before a Magistrate.

He related he has read many articles concerning OSWALD since the assassination of the President, however, he still could not recall the details of his relationship with OSWALD.

The only other individuals who may have had contact, to the best of his knowledge, would be Mrs. MARGARET BARNES and VICTOR CONNELL.

Mrs. DOROTHY BOCKHORN, 490 Bleecker Avenue, Mamaroneck, New York, advised that she and her husband, HARRY BOCKHORN, had been superintendent at 1455 Sheridan Avenue, Bronx, New York, for a period of approximately nine (9) years, commencing in 1946.

Mrs. BOCKHORN stated that she recalled MARGUERITE OSWALD and her young son lived at the Bronx address for a period of about four to six weeks. Mrs. BOCKHORN stated that they lived in a one room apartment and no lease was required since these apartments were rented on a temporary basis due to the housing shortage on a month to month tenancy.

She recalled that Mrs. OSWALD worked in a department store somewhere in the Bronx, New York area. She also recalled that her son went to school but spent most of his free time in their apartment.

Mrs. BOCKHORN could furnish no information regarding the OSWALDs which would indicate any friends or associates in the area. Due to the temporary tenancy, no request was made of Mrs. OSWALD for any references or business address. Mrs. BOCKHORN stated that to her knowledge and recollection she was never requested by any concern to comment upon Mrs. OSWALD's reliability or character.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY OF THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book "This Time The World," copyrighted in 1961, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia, newspaper, reported that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that ROCKWELL'S party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 19, 1963, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by ADOLF HITLER. He added that ROCKWELL is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the American Nazi Party, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first, "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and the truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and, fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

PROGRESSIVE YOUTH ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

On February 9, 1961, a source advised that the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC) was established at a national socialist-oriented youth conference held in Chicago, Illinois, December 30, 1960, through January 1, 1961. This conference was the result of a mandate issued by the National Executive Committee, Communist Party, USA, calling for a youth conference to establish an organizing committee whose objective would be to set up a national socialist-oriented youth organization. The conference scheduled a convention to be held within a year to found a new national socialist-oriented youth organization.

On June 13, 1962, a second source advised it was reported at the meeting of the National Council of the PYOC held New York, New York, June 16 and 17, 1962, that although it had been planned to form a Marxist-oriented youth organization by the Fall of 1962, it would not be possible to form such an organization for the next few years.

On May 7, 1963, a third source advised the PYOC has its headquarters at 80 Clinton Street, New York, New York.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

Synopsis: LEONARD H. MELDAU, 1994 Palm Lane, Orlando, Florida, on 12/20/63, advised as follows: approximately two years ago he was employed by Pan American World Airways as Manager of Carter Cay Missile Base, under supervision of Patrick AFB, Fla. On a Sunday morning, exact date not recalled, a white man put a small open boat into above Carter Cay, and was later found walking around Antenna Field. When accosted by MELDAU and other authorities there, this man did not want to leave base, but reluctantly departed in his boat. MELDAU states he reported instance to Patrick AFB authorities, cannot recall name of above man, but remembers he bore strong resemblance to photographs he has seen recently in newspapers of subject, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Authorities at Pan American World Airways, Cocoa Beach, Florida, and Patrick AFB, Fla. unable to locate any written report or further information concerning above instance.

Mr. LEONARD H. MELDAU, 1994 Palm Lane, Orlando, Florida, telephonically contacted the Orlando Resident Agency Office, and advised as follows:

Approximately two years ago, he was employed by Pan American World Airways, Inc., as manager of Carter Cay Missile Base, under the supervision of Patrick Air Force Base, Florida. He explained that this small island was a part of the Grand Bahamas Down Range Missle Tracking System, operating out of Cape Kennedy, Florida (formerly Cape Canaveral, Florida).

MELDAU recalled that on a Sunday morning, exact date not recalled, but approximately two years ago, a young white man cruised up to Carter Cay in a small open boat. Later the same morning, MELDAU and two of his assistants, JERRY RIGBY and RED KILLMAN, found this man wandering around in the Antenna Field of Carter Cay. Since this was a restricted area, and there was a good possibility of radiation danger in that area, MELDAU and his two assistants approached the man, and informed him he would have to depart from Carter Cay in his boat immediately.

According to MELDAU, the man did not want to leave the island, claiming that his boat had "motor trouble". However, he, MELDAU, could find nothing mechanically wrong with the motor. He said that at the time, he obtained the man's name, and some identifying information regarding him, but cannot at this time recall his name or any further pertinent information.

Continuing, he explained that when the man was ordered off the island, he departed in his boat, but anchored about two hundred yards off shore where he spent the night. The man then departed from the area, and nothing further was heard about him.

MELDAU said he made a report on this instance at the time to his immediate supervisor, RALEIGH TREMAIN, who was station manager of the Grand Bahamas Islands, and whose office was located at Patrick Air Force Base, Florida.

MELDAU said that after seeing so many photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD recently on television and in the newspapers, it "suddenly dawned" on him that the man he saw on Carter Cay bore a strong resemblance to OSWALD, and there is a possibility the two men could be identical. MELDAU admitted his theory was "rather far-fetched" but explained that he felt he should report the matter to the FBI for any further investigation deemed necessary.

FYVIE verified from his records that LEONARD H. MELDAU was employed by Pan American World Airways, Inc. from July, 1961 to May, 1962, and had been stationed on Carter Cay during December, 1961.

Mr. RALEIGH TREMAIN, Assistant Manager, Missile Range Base, Patrick Air Force Base, furnished the following information:

He checked all available records at his office, but was unable to locate any written report of an incident which is alleged to have occurred on Carter Cay, one of the Grand Bahamas Islands, about two years ago. He said he vaguely recalled an oral report being made to him by LEONARD MELDAU concerning such an incident, however, it was his definite belief that no written report or other documentation was made on the matter, inasmuch as it appeared to be insignificant at the time. TREMAIN said he spoke by telephone on December 23, 1963, with CARL WENTLAND, a diesel operator at Carter Cay, and WENTLAND recalled the incident described by MELDAU. WENTLAND told TREMAIN that this same man who had put his boat ashore at Carter Cay during about December, 1961, also put his boat ashore at Grand Sales Cay during the same month. WENTLAND told TREMAIN that he, WENTLAND, was stationed at the latter cay at the time, and recalled that this individual was much older than LEE HARVEY OSWALD. WENTLAND told TREMAIN this person appeared to be in his late thirties at that time.

TREMAIN said WENTLAND told him he had no idea what this man's name was, but does not believe he furnished the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

I. TRAVEL

The following investigation was conducted in an effort to determine travel OSWALD may have made on or about September 25, 1963, and October 3, 1963.

Date December 17, 1963

Mr. ARTURO GARZA CANTU, Deputy Consul, Mexican Consul General's Office, 127 Navarro Street, San Antonio, Texas advised that a check of all applications for tourist cards for travel in Mexico on file in his office for the months of August and September, 1963, does not reflect that an application was received or Mexican tourist card issued during that period of time in the names of JOHN H. BOWEN or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. CANTU stated his office has no way to determine the place of issuance of Mexican tourist card bearing number 4329926.

Information was obtained that LEE HARVEY OSWALD departed New Orleans on September 24, 1963, and it has been determined that OSWALD then departed Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, by way of the Red Arrow Bus Line at 2:00 p.m. on September 26, 1963. Through a study of schedules of the Greyhound Depot at Houston, Texas, it was determined that the following five drivers would have traveled between Houston and San Antonio on various bus schedules carrying passengers between New Orleans and Laredo:

MEL W. NOWOTNY
T. C. JONES
A. L. COPELAND
E. P. WILLARD

The following investigation was conducted by SA E. CLEON GLAZE:

On December 10, 1963, MEL W. NOWOTNY, 1050 Allen, New Braunfels, Texas, advised that he drives Greyhound Bus Schedule No. 6749 which leaves Houston at 6:00 a.m. and arrives San Antonio at 11:20 a.m. Mr. NOWOTNY observed the photograph of OSWALD and advised that he could not recall anyone resembling OSWALD being a passenger on his bus. He added that he could have been a passenger on one of his buses, but if he was, he paid no more attention to him than to any of his other passengers.

On December 10, 1963, T. PATRICK TOLAND, 4919 Stonleigh, San Antonio, Texas, advised that on September 25, 1963, he drove Greyhound Bus Schedule No. 647 from Houston to San Antonio. He said the bus was scheduled to leave Houston at 9:00 a.m. and arrive at San Antonio at 2:30 p.m. After observing the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, TOLAND stated he could not recall anyone resembling OSWALD traveling on his bus. He added that at that time he would have had no reason to pay any more attention to OSWALD than any other passenger.

On December 11, 1963, Mr. A. L. COPELAND, Route 3, Box 165, San Antonio, Texas, advised that he regularly drives a Greyhound bus leaving Houston at 1:30 a.m. and arriving at San Antonio at 6:30 a.m. He observed photographs of OSWALD, including a standing photograph, and advised he had no recollection of having seen this individual.

On December 12, 1963, Mr. T. C. JONES, La Chalet Apartments, 832 East Grayson Street, San Antonio, Texas, advised that he did not have his Greyhound log available, but that he had on occasions made the trip between Houston and San Antonio. He observed the photographs of OSWALD and said that he could not recall even having seen him.

On December 13, 1963, Mr. E. P. WILLARD, 306 Olney, San Antonio, Texas, advised after checking his log, that he did not believe he had operated between Houston and San Antonio during the pertinent period. His log reflected that on September 24, 1963, he was off duty and on the following day, he left San Antonb on the Houston run at 9:40 p.m. He was at Houston all day on September 26 and left Houston at 1:30 a.m. on September 27, 1963. He said therefore that he did not make a run between Houston and San Antonio between September 24 and 26, 1963.

SANTOS GUTIERREZ, 13 Galveston Street, Laredo, Texas, advised that he is a bus driver for Continental Bus Lines operating from Laredo, Texas, and has the daily run to Eagle Pass, Texas.

He generally departs Laredo at 10:30 a.m. and he departed about that time on October 3, 1963.

He stated that as a rule, there are only two or three passengers on his bus. After viewing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY, he stated that neither individual was on his bus at any time.

JOAQUIN RODRIGUEZ, Continental Trailways Bus Driver, residence in Eagle Pass, Texas, advised that the Continental Bus originating in California passes through Van Horn, Texas, then to Del Rio, Texas, Eagle Pass, and to Laredo, Texas. Separate drivers are used between Van Horn and Del Rio, Del Rio and Eagle Pass, and RODRIGUEZ drives the bus at 7:20 each morning from Eagle Pass to Laredo and returns arriving in Eagle Pass at 5:20 p.m. the same date. He stated there is a direct bus route from Van Horn to Dallas but there is no direct route from Laredo to Dallas. Continental Trailways Bus from Laredo to Houston passes through Alice and tickets to Dallas are sold with a change at Alice with the passenger proceeding to San Antonio then to Dallas. RODRIGUEZ stated that he recalled no one fitting the description of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK LEON RUBY on this bus.

When exhibited a photograph of both OSWALD and RUBY, RODRIGUEZ stated that they did not appear familiar to him but unless something unusual had occurred it would be almost impossible for him to recall any specific passenger in view of the daily trips made and the large number of passengers.

Mr. NORMAN BEATON, tax accountant, American Bakeries Company, 919 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, advised his company operates throughout the United States under various names. Personnel files are maintained on all regular employees of American Bakeries regardless of the place the employee is employed. These files are maintained at the home office in Chicago, Illinois. Each company plant also furnishes the home office in Chicago, on a monthly basis, the names of all temporary and part-time employees employed by them during that particular month. No personnel file is maintained on temporary or part-time employees unless they become regular employees. The American Bakeries Company has no operations or employees outside the United States.

He searched the company's personnel files, opened and closed, on all regular employees for the period 1956 to the present time under the names of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, O. H. LEE and ALEC JAMES HIDELL, and stated he could not locate a personnel file under any of these names. He could locate no file under the last name of HIDELL and only one file under the last name of OSWALD. This file is captioned "HENRY BOBBY OSWALD," Social Security number 250-58-0332. A review of this file disclosed that HENRY BOBBY OSWALD was born February 18, 1936, and was hired as a temporary employee by American Bakeries on June 30, 1957. He was made a regular employee on July 28, 1957. His employment terminated on November 1, 1957, as he failed to report for work. During the period of time he was employed by American Bakeries, he was employed at their plant #40, located at Miami, Florida. He is described in his personnel file as a white male, 5 ft. 10 in. tall, 145 lbs., blue eyes, brown hair, residence 1009 S.W. Second Street, Miami, Florida, married, and the person to be notified in case of accident is shown as JEWELL P. OSWALD, 1009 S.W. Second Street, Miami, Florida.

Mr. BEATON also located a personnel file under the caption "ODIS HOWARD LEE," Social Security number 275-28-2446. A review of this file discloses that ODIS HOWARD LEE was born October 26, 1930, and was hired as a temporary employee on May 9, 1956, at American Bakeries' Detroit plant, and is presently employed at this plant as a regular employee.

On 12/17-19/63 at Chicago, Illinois File # CG 62-6115

by SAs CHARLES E. PRICE, JAMES D. DEWHIRST, and GEORGE H. PERKINS /mp Date dictated 12/19/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He is described in this file as married, male, 5 ft. 11 in. tall, 160 lbs., blue eyes and brown hair. It is recoded in this file that he served in the United States Army from July 23, 1948, to April 1, 1952, and the person to be notified in case of an accident is shown as ELSIE LEE, 9326 Central Street, Detroit, Michigan, the same address listed as his residence.

The personnel file of JAMES ARTHUR JACKSON, Social Security number 465-50-6916, residence, 1204 McKee Street, Dallas, Texas, was also reviewed and this file discloses that JACKSON was first employed by American Bakeries as a temporary employee on August 14, 1960, and was made a regular employee on October 15, 1960. He is currently employed by American Bakeries at their plant #82 located in Dallas, Texas.

One copy of the personnel file of HENRY BOBBY OSWALD, ODYS HOWARD LEE and JAMES ARTHUR JACKSON was made available by Mr. BEATON.

Mr. BEATON also made available the monthly list of all temporary and part-time employees furnished American Bakeries by its plants throughout the country for the years 1958 and 1959, and these monthly lists were reviewed to determine if the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD, O. H. LEE, and ALEC JAMES HIDELL appears on any of them as a temporary employee during these years. This review determined that none of these names was recorded on any of the lists of temporary and part-time employees.

Mr. BEATON advised that payroll checks for employees of American Bakeries are prepared either by the local office where the employee is employed or by the home office in Chicago. He stated the home office in Chicago is furnished the payroll of all plants, regardless of where the payrolls and checks are prepared, and the home office records all payrolls for all regular, temporary and part-time employees into a master payroll record which is maintained at the home office. The pay period at American Bakeries ends on Saturday and this date is recorded on the master payroll record, although a local plant may prepare its payroll and pay its employees with local checks on some day other than a Saturday. He stated that there were several thousand employees on American Bakeries payroll on the pay period ending August 27, 1960, and made available the master payroll record book which shows the gross wages earned, Federal income tax withheld, and Social Security deduction as well as other identifying data on each payroll check issued by American Bakeries home offices, as well as all of its plants throughout the United States.

A search of the master payroll record books was made to determine how many employees of American Bakeries received gross wages of $66.17, less $7.40 for Federal income tax and less $1.99 for Social Security for the pay period ending August 27, 1960. It was determined during this review that only one employee of American Bakeries received gross wages in this amount with identical deductions. This employee was listed on American Bakeries plant #82's payroll at Dallas, Texas, as JAMES JACKSON, who had Employee #757T. He received check number 82-19356 in the net amount of $56.78. His gross wage is shown at $66.17 and his Federal income tax deduction and Social Security contribution are shown at $7.40 and $1.99, respectively.

The policy of American Bakeries is to destroy all payroll checks and vouchers after two years. However, a search of the available canceled checks revealed some canceled payroll checks for the year 1960 which had not been destroyed. A review of the available 1960 canceled payroll checks resulted in locating check number 82-19356 and check number 82-19406, both issued to JAMES JACKSON by American Bakeries' plant at Dallas, Texas, Cushman's Bakeries.

Check number 82-19356 is dated August 22, 1960, and in the amount of $56.78. It is drawn on the bank account of American Bakeries Company at the Republic National Bank of Dallas, Dallas, Texas, and was stamped "paid" by this bank on August 25, 1960. It bears the handwritten endorsement "JAMES A. JACKSON, 1204 McKee, Dallas 15, Texas," and rubber-stamped endorsement "For Deposit Only, The GRT A & P Tea Company Store #113" and "First National Bank In Dallas, Dallas, Texas, August 25, 1960."

Check number 82-19406 is dated September 2, 1960, and is in the amount of $70.53. It is drawn on the account of American Bakeries Company at the Republic National Bank of Dallas, Dallas, Texas, and was stamped paid by this bank on September 8, 1960. It bears the handwritten endorsement of "JAMES A. JACKSON," and rubber-stamped endorsement of "Pay to the Order of South Oak Cliff State Bank, Dallas, Texas, Hodges Grocery #409," and bank endorsements of South Oak Cliff State Bank and the First National Bank in Dallas, both of Dallas, Texas.

Mr. BEATON made available both original checks payable to JAMES JACKSON and stated that they need not be returned to American Bakeries.

Re: MARY ELAINE TARIN
ROBERT LEE TARIN

On December 23, 1963 SA ALLEN checked records of the Orlando Police Department for MARY ELAINE TARIN. These records disclosed that MARY ELAINE TARIN, also known as ELAINE STONE, ELAINE RHODE, was arrested on December 1, 1963 and released to her father WILLIAM C. STONE, Box 99, Atascosa, Texas.

Her paramour, ROBERT LEE TARIN, also known as WILLIAM J. RHODE, EARL DAWSON, was turned over to the custody of the Volusia County Jail, Deland, Florida. He had no identification record with the Orlando, Florida Police Department.

Synopsis:

Investigation at Denver, Colorado, by U. S. Secret Service, disclosed neither ROBERT KAYE, whose true name is probably ROBERT KLONOWSKI or ROMAN BONOLOWSKI, nor his family can be located in Denver, Colorado. Wife ALICE KAYE reportedly living Las Vegas, Nevada with children. KAYE has told many bizarre stories about self; claiming expects to inherit millions of dollars from BESSIE MOYEN, Tulsa, Oklahoma, and two million dollars for life story. Also claims close personal relationship to former Presidents EISENHOWER and TRUMAN. KAYE last known to be in El Paso, Texas, 9/27/63, and has not returned to Denver. KAYE obtained $5,000 from BESSIE MOYEN at Tulsa, Oklahoma in September, 1963, and shortly thereafter abandoned family at Denver. Immigration file Denver indicates KAYE is not American citizen and has not registered with INS since 1951.

RE: ROBERT J. KAYE, also known as
ROBERT KLONOWSKI, ROMAN
SOKOLOWSKI, alleged associate OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD

DN 89-41

On December 21, 1963, Mr. ROLLAND H. OSBORNE, Special Agent in Charge, United States Secret Service, Denver, Colorado, advised that his office had conducted extensive investigation during the period November 29 through December 10, 1963, at Denver, Colorado, and surrounding vicinity in an effort to locate ROBERT KAYE and had been unsuccessful. Mr. OSBORNE stated that it appeared that KAYE left the Denver, Colorado area in the latter part of September, 1963, and was last known to be in El Paso, Texas, on September 27, 1963. Mr. OSBORNE advised that the following investigation was conducted by his office in an effort to locate KAYE:

Mr. FLOYD E. PROWELL, Deputy District Director, Immigration and Naturalization Service, (INS), searched Denver files on November 29, 1963, and was unable to find any record of KAYE under the names ROBERT KAYE, ROMAN SOKOLOWSKI, or ROBERT [illegible]. He teletyped national headquarters and on December [illegible], 1963, a skeleton file was received in Denver and [illegible] viewed.

This is INS File No. A-5208760 which shows that KAYE entered the United States on November 18, 1945, at Portland, Maine, under the name of ROMAN BOBBY SOKOLOWSKI, under sponsorship of guardian RICHARD S. ZEMLYNSKI. The Visa shows that KAYE was born [illegible] 1934, at Kharkov, Russia. The guardian, RICHARD [illegible], was assigned to the 385th Fighter Squadron, 364th Fighter [illegible], U. S. Military Forces in England. The Application for Immigration Visa was filed August 29, 1945, in London, [illegible] reflecting that at that time KAYE was 10 years of age [illegible] had lived in Russia and had traveled through Germany, [illegible], Africa, France and Hungary before reaching [illegible]. The Visa Application also indicates KAYE's passage to the United States would be paid for by Sgt. EDDIE KLOW[illegible] 4651 Grace Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The Immigration and Naturalization file contains no other information of any kind on KAYE, except a routine annual report card, filed by him on January 20, 1951, giving his Registration Number correctly as A-6208760, and showing that his registered name was ROMAN SOKOLOWSKI. However, the card is signed "Robert Klonowski". On this card he shows his place of birth as Poland, and his address at that time was shown as 4621 Grace Street, Chicago, Illinois.

KAYE has filed no other reports, nor does the file indicate that he has been granted citizenship. Denver Officers of the INS are mystified as to why the file was closed and sent to the Records Center, apparently many years ago, while KAYE was still regarded as an alien. Therefore, if KAYE is located, INS officials in Denver want to interview him and establish his present status.

Search of city directories failed to reveal any record of KAYE under the above names.

The address furnished by KAYE, 95 South Ogden, Denver, has no telephone listing. City Directories, however, show GLENN A. JENKINS, alleged associate of KAYE, residing at 67 South Ogden, three doors away from KAYE's address.

Police files in Denver reflect no record of KAYE.

On November 29, 1963, it was determined that 95 South Ogden, Denver, is vacant, but a card posted on the house referred to 67 South Ogden. An interview on that date with Mrs. GLENN A. JENKINS resulted in surrender of three cardboard containers and one suitcase filled with an assortment of letters, cards, personal papers, etc., all in complete disorder, which had been left at [redacted] when Mrs. ROBERT KAYE moved from Denver sometime in October, 1963, to an address in Las Vegas, Nevada. The interview on November 29, 1963, with Mrs. JENKINS, followed by lengthy interviews with her husband and Mr. W. H. "BUD" CARLSON, on December 1, 2, and 3, 1963, revealed the following information concerning KAYE and his family:

Sometime in June, 1963, KAYE called Mr. W. H. "BUD" CARLSON, manager of the R. F. Jones Company, 2830 West 9th Avenue, Denver, and asked for a job. The R. F. Jones Company operates a number of vending machine routes in Denver and other cities. KAYE gave his name as ROBERT KAYE and at no time identified himself by any other name, although later his wife indicated to Mrs. JENKINS that they formerly had a Polish name. KAYE also told Mr. CARLSON that he had experience as a service mechanic on vending machines, having previously worked in Las Vegas, Nevada, and Los Angeles, California.

At the time GLENN A. JENKINS operated a vending machine route for the R. F. Jones Company, this route doing business under the name of the C & H Vending Company. The route was in financial trouble and the R. F. Jones Company had repossessed it but permitted GLENN A. JENKINS to continue to operate it. JENKINS needed another man, and KAYE was hired. JENKINS said that KAYE had previously worked briefly for the C & H Vending Company, 1156 South Broadway, Denver, but had been laid off, although JENKINS' inquiry of this company established that KAYE was competent.

From the very beginning of his employment on JENKINS' vending machine route, the subject exhibited some peculiar characteristics. He talked constantly in grandiose terms, and seemed to operate on the rather vague hope that he was going to sell his life story for $2,000,000.

JENKINS was trying to improve his vending machine route and expand sufficiently so that he could retain the route. About two months after KAYE was hired, JENKINS explained to him that unless they could expand the route it would be necessary to lay KAYE off.

About the middle of August, or perhaps somewhat later, KAYE informed both JENKINS and CARLSON that he had a friend, Mrs. BESSIE MOYEN, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, who was a multi-millionaire and who was obligated to KAYE because she had known his parents in Poland or Germany. KAYE said that this woman had offered to adopt him into her family. KAYE explained that he had been wounded several times in Europe and he did exhibit scars along his right side indicating either a serious injury or extensive surgery. He stated that he had been a spy for the Allies and that the Nazis had retaliated by killing his family, including his father who had been an important executive in a shoe company in Germany. He claimed to have a close personal relationship with former Presidents TRUMAN and EISENHOWER, alleging that Mr. TRUMAN granted him citizenship after he fled to America with some prized memoir he had stolen from HITLER's home and which he presented to Mr. TRUMAN. He also claimed that as a war orphan he was sponsored for citizenship by movie star DANNY KAYE and others, and he took the name of KAYE because of this fact.

KAYE's wife, in her frequent conversations with Mrs. JENKINS, particularly after she was abandoned by KAYE, never did confirm any of these bizarre stories, but she did state that KAYE had been injured in an industrial accident in Chicago, that he received a [illegible] settlement and that the money was put in a trust [illegible] until he reached 21 years of age. KAYE's wife also stated that he was in an orphanage until he was 17 years of age, [illegible] left the orphanage he forged some credentials designed to prove he was 21 years of age and he was able to obtain these funds amounting to about $14,000. He invested this money in a cafe called The Chicken Shack in Chicago. His partner allegedly embezzled some funds from the cafe and the business folded up. KAYE and his wife then began moving west and ultimately landed in Colorado Springs where KAYE worked for a time in a coin-vending machine company, and then he came to Denver and was employed for a period of time as a fry cook at the Hilton Hotel.

With further reference to his alleged relationship to the MOYEN family in Tulsa, Oklahoma, late in August or early in September, 1963, KAYE told JENKINS and CARLSON that he expected to inherit several million dollars from Mrs. BESSIE MOYEN, and he proposed to invest some of this money in expanding JENKINS' vending machine route. KAYE also discussed this with Mr. CARLSON and propositioned CARLSON to help him invest this vast amount in money in exchange for a commission of two million dollars to be paid to CARLSON. KAYE was very persuasive and appeared so sincere that both JENKINS and CARLSON believed he might be truthful.

In late August or early September, 1963, KAYE said he was going to Tulsa to visit the MOYEN family. He left Denver in a 1959 Ford station wagon. Three or four days later he returned to Denver with a 1961 Thunderbird bearing Oklahoma license plates, stating that it had been given to him by Mrs. BESSIE MOYEN. He also said that Mrs. MOYEN had given him $5,000 and he exhibited a check for $1,800 drawn in his favor by some Ford agency in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He said he proposed to deposit this money in the Denver U. S. National Bank and use the money to finance expansion of JENKINS' vending machine route. Within the next week or so after this happened, KAYE made a couple of additional trips, allegedly to Tulsa, via commercial airline.

He also took his family to Chicago on a trip, and they had an accident en route to or from Chicago.

KAYE then became even more grandiose in his propositions, offering at one time to take Mr. CARLSON and his family to Acapulco for a weekend and continued to outline the proposed delivery to him of his huge "estate" and finally read to Mr. CARLSON and later exhibited to him a purported telegram allegedly sent to KAYE by an attorney RUTTENBERG stating as follows:

> "Stay put until 16 of this month I will call you about the 15th at 8:30 your time wait for call sorry I can't make it tomorrow I am on very important mission Bud is ok tell him everything is ok I talked to R. F. Jones and think we can do some business with him stay put stay put".

CARLSON challenged this telegram, which appears to possibly be typed from a teletype printer, and KAYE admitted that it was for the most part phony. However, KAYE still maintained he was closing a deal for his "estate" and on September 29, 1963 he informed CARLSON that he was driving to Colorado Springs that night to meet twelve men and receive final settlement. CARLSON drove to Colorado Springs that night to meet KAYE and the 12 men, but nobody showed up at the Broadmoor Hotel.

On October 1, 1963, CARLSON's company telephoned the MOYEN residence in Tulsa, Oklahoma, learning that BESSIE MOYEN is actually the daughter of Mrs. ANNA MOYEN, residing at 1604 South Utica Street. BESSIE MOYEN did not offer any explanation of their relationship with KAYE, but did verify that they had given KAYE $5,000 to buy a music machine route, and later learned that KAYE spent part of the money to buy a Thunderbird auto in Tulsa.

During all of these "negotiations" KAYE was in and out of Denver. His wife never seemed to know where he had gone. However, she received an airmail registered letter from KAYE postmarked El Paso, Texas, September 27, 1963, which contained $250 in cash, a copy of All State Insurance Policy Number J-267001 written on the Thunderbird auto on August 30, 1963, and a short note in KAYE's handwriting stating "be home soon". The insurance policy covers a 1961 Ford Thunderbird, with a notation indicating that it bore license plate No. AZ-8934 (state not indicated).

KAYE again disappeared from Denver shortly after October 1, 1963, abandoning his family. When Mrs. KAYE failed to hear from him for several weeks, she sold her few personal belongings, raising enough money so she and the four children could go to Las Vegas, Nevada. After Mrs. KAYE left, the JENKINS family recalls that a letter or statement came to KAYE's former residence, apparently from an optometrist in Fort Worth, Texas. This was forwarded to Mrs. KAYE in Las Vegas, Nevada.

None of the parties interviewed in Denver has heard from the subject since he disappeared from Denver early in October, 1963. Likewise, none of these parties recalled the subject stating or implying that he had been in contact with LEE OSWALD, that he planned a trip to Mexico, or that he had agreed to engage in any kind of a surreptitious undertaking. All parties interviewed were requested to immediately notify the Denver Office if they hear from KAYE, learn his whereabouts, or if he appears in Denver. Mr. and Mrs. GLENN JENKINS were instructed to refer the subject to the Denver Office to obtain his personal papers.

A review of the papers contained in the four containers furnished by Mr. and Mrs. JENKINS revealed the following points of interest:

On January 22, 1959, a letter was addressed to "Mr. Robert Klonowski, 2452 North Avers, Chicago, Illinois" by attorneys MAURICO H. and FRED S. HUTTENBERG, Suite 976, 165 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois, attempting collection of a bill owing to the Bel Aire Studios "for your wedding pictures". It is believed the subject took this name of "Huttenberg" to sign to the phony telegram exhibited to Mr. W. H. CARLSON in Denver shortly before the subject disappeared.

On November 27, 1957, the Industrial Commission of Illinois forwarded a Notice of Hearing in case No. 588641 to ROBERT KLONOWSKI, 4032 North Kostner Avenue, Chicago. This case label[illegible] ROBERT KLONOWSKI as Petitioner and C. R. CLARK & COMPANY and Fidelity Casualty Company of New York as Respondants. It appears KLONOWSKI was represented by "Grant & Niacipio", 69 West Washington Street, and the Respondants by "McNamara, Vought, Greene & Nordstrand", 135 South La Salle Street, both of Chicago. It is suggested that this hearing possibly [illegible] an industrial injury suffered by the subject.

Another search of the personal papers abandoned by KAYE's wife, [illegible] the following family connections:

Wife: Mrs. ALICE KAYE, nee HARDT. When Mrs. KAYE left Denver with her four children, she went to Las Vegas to live with Mrs. SUE KLUKAS, 3815 Nellis Boulevard. Mrs. KLUKAS appears to be an old friend of Mrs. KAYE. KAYE apparently married ALICE HARDT before 1956.

[illegible] papers is an autographed photograph and undated letter [illegible] that Mrs. KAYE once appeared on the television program [illegible] a candidate for "Queen for a Day".

[illegible] certificates indicate that [illegible] was born July 8, 1956, in Chicago, as the daughter of ROBERT and ALICE HARDT KLONOWSKI, and was baptized July 28, 1956, at the Congregational Church of Jefferson Park, Chicago, by The Reverend C. R. COOLEY.

SANDRA LYNE KAYE was born January 4, 1960, in Glockner-Penrose Hospital, Colorado Springs, Colorado.

There are two other children, but names cannot be determined.

Wife's father: ALEX HARDT, 5012 West Lawrence, Chicago, Illinois, [illegible] address, but he may now live with wife's sister listed below.

Wife's mother: Mrs. LILLIAN HANSEN, 3422 West North Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Wife's sister: Mrs. DOROTHY COX, 59 Rollins Road, Fox Lake, Illinois.

Wife's brother: Private ALEXANDER HARDT, RA 16682786, stationed in Germany in July, 1962.

The wife regularly corresponds with her mother and sister and it is believed either Mrs. HANSEN or Mrs. COX would know the current location of ALICE KAYE.

KAYE himself was baptized ROBERT (KLONOWSKI) Sokolowski on March 12, 1930 (conditionally) at St. Hedwig Chapel, Niles, Illinois, [illegible] on the certificate the following family information:

Father: JOHN SOKOLOWSKI

DN 89-41

Mother: Not Named.

Godfather: JOHN SNCZECINSKI

Godmother: JEAN MILANOWSKA

KAYE registered for Selective Service on May 18, 1953, with Area Board 4, Chicago, Illinois, using the name of ROBERT J. KLONOWSKI, 4521 West Grace Street, Chicago, Illinois, and showing his date and place of birth as December 25, 1934, in Lwow, Poland. On June 19, 1953, he was classified 1-A. There is no indication that he has had military service however.

A Social Security card indicates the subject may hold Social Security No. 360-26-3442 under the name of ROBERT J. KAYE.

A copy of a contract indicates the subject entered into an agreement on December 22, 1960, with ALEX S. ANDERSON, address unknown, whereby the latter would act as the subject's agent in attempting to publish the subject's life story. There are numerous complete or partial stories about alleged incidents in the subject's life, apparently written by Mrs. KAYE, among the containers of papers now held in the Denver Office. These are bizarre and highly imaginative, mostly of the slapstick comedy variety, and all purport to relate to that portion of the subject's childhood when he allegedly fraternized with American Troops in Europe during World War II.

Limited signature specimens and other writing indicate that the subject himself can barely write, and probably is nearly illiterate.

NOTE:

LA Police Department advised on 12/27/63 that Henson was arrested on 12/26/63 for attempted murder. It appears Henson had an argument with a co-worker, Richard Provencal, on 12/26/63, and on that evening came to Provencal's residence and stated for the past half hour he had a rifle with a telescopic sight trained on Provencal and that Provencal had better call the Police before he, Henson, killed him. Henson made several allegations to Provencal indicating he was wanted by the NYC PD for murder, and exhibited rifle and loaded clip and waited until LA PD arrived. Henson also claimed to have been in DL when the President was killed, and that he was a drinking buddy of Lee Harvey Oswald and indicated he was glad the President was shot.

LA Police Department has determined that Henson is not wanted for murder in NY and admitted during subsequent interview on 12/27/63 that murder was hoax and claimed something was wrong with his head. LA Police Department has indicated press has exhibited interest in this arrest. Henson interviewed by LA Agents, and furnished background information indicating disagreement with parents, several arrests and states he is not sure if the Oswald he knew was identical with Lee Harvey Oswald. Henson has also received undesirable discharge from the Army and denies making statement concerning glad that the President was dead. LA advises that the press has not contacted them concerning this matter. However, the LA Police Department is being advised of the exaggerations made by Henson as he still insists on making his story known.

While it would appear the allegations made by Henson are unfounded, we have the responsibility to disseminate pertinent information. There is every indication Henson is potentially dangerous, and in view of allegation that he was glad President Kennedy was shot, it is felt this matter should be brought to the attention of Secret Service.

NOTATIONS

The inquiry of sources in the French Quarter was occasioned by information furnished by Mrs. WINONA MC KINNON, 731 Dumaine St., New Orleans, as set forth on Page 480 of the report of SA WARREN C. deBRUEYS, 12/2/63 at Dallas, which was to the effect that she heard comments around the Bourbon House which indicated OSWALD was a sex deviate.

The report of SA WARREN C. deBRUEYS dated 12/2/63 at Dallas, page 41, contained information to the effect that Detective FREDERICK O'SULLIVAN, Intelligence Unit, Vice Squad, Dallas PD, informed that ROBERT (LNU), 1012 Dauphine St., New Orleans, had recently moved from Dallas to New Orleans and had made statements to the effect he was glad the president had been shot. ROBERT BRUCE STRICKLAND, 1012 Dauphine St., New Orleans, was interviewed in view of this information.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shown to Mr. ZUMWALT, who advised he could not recall observing OSWALD in the Greyhound Restaurant or Bus Terminal.

Mrs. LOIS ZUMWALT, wife of Mr. ZUMWALT, also was shown a photograph of OSWALD. She informed she could not recall observing OSWALD in the restaurant. They both pointed out most of their time is spent in the restaurant office, which is located in the kitchen part of the restaurant, and they do not get much opportunity to view the customers.

The following investigation was conducted by SA's JOHN B. LEE, JR., and ERNEST C. WALL, JR.:

At New Orleans, Louisiana

The following employees at the Greyhound Bus Terminal, 1710 Tulane Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana, were contacted on the dates indicated at which time a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and two photographs of OSWALD's luggage were exhibited to them to determine whether they recalled seeing OSWALD at the Terminal September 24-25, 1963.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Mr. A. C. LANGFORD, 305 North Pierce Street, Jefferson Parish, advised he is employed by Southern Greyhound Bus Lines, New Orleans, as an operator and is assigned Operator's Badge #1368. Mr. LANGFORD furnished the following information regarding his tour of duty on September 26, 1963, which he was able to recall upon examining a copy of his payroll record for that date:

On the afternoon of September 25, 1963, when he was at the bus garage, he received a call to drive Bus #1597 to the Bus Terminal for a trip to Lake Charles, Louisiana. He arrived at the Bus Terminal, 1710 Tulane Avenue, shortly after 2:45 PM. Upon arriving he observed that the local bus and the through bus to Lake Charles, Louisiana, had already departed. He informed that both of these buses leave at the same time, which is 2:45 PM.

According to a copy of his payroll record for September 25, 1963, he checked onto Bus # 1597 eight passengers and one "by" Lake Charles. He said this meant he left the New Orleans Terminal with a total of nine passengers, with eight passengers to leave the bus prior to or at Lake Charles, and one passenger to continue past Lake Charles, Louisiana.

LANGFORD stated he left the New Orleans Terminal at 2:55 PM on September 25, 1963, and recalls no details as to checking the nine passengers onto the bus. He does remember entering the bus after giving his report to the dispatcher, at which time he again recounted the passengers. He noted there were seven Negroes and two white males. One white male was a young boy and the other a man perhaps in his twenties. He described this young man in his twenties as average size, 5'7" to 5'10"; average weight, 140 pounds to 150 pounds; light-colored hair, which was thinning in front. This person appeared to need a shave. He stated this passenger did not have a hat on when he recounted the passengers, although he believed this passenger was either carrying or wearing a hat when boarding the bus. This white male was wearing a grey-brown sport coat with dark-colored pants, and he did not recall seeing this passenger carry any luggage or packages of any kind onto the bus.

LANGFORD advised the only reason he looked over the passengers was due to the fact he had been informed by some of the other drivers they were checked by company employees on several trips. He believed that this young white male may have been a checker for the Greyhound company. He did not have any conversation with this passenger but does recall that this passenger sat in the second row to the right of the driver's seat. This passenger was alone, and no one sat with this passenger on the trip between New Orleans and Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

LANGFORD advised he could not recall which one of the nine passengers had the ticket for points past Lake Charles. However, when he arrived at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, at 4:50 P.M., he was advised to discontinue this trip, and at 4:55 P.M. he was on his way back to New Orleans as a "rider" and not a driver. He does not recall just what happened to the passenger going beyond Lake Charles, but this passenger could have boarded either the local or through buses at Baton Rouge, as both these buses were in the Baton Rouge Terminal when he arrived at Baton Rouge. He did not handle the passenger with a ticket beyond Lake Charles when arriving at Baton Rouge because he did not know Bus #1597 was going to be discontinued at Baton Rouge until he checked with the dispatcher.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shown to LANGFORD. Upon viewing this photograph LANGFORD advised that he could not recall OSWALD as being a passenger on his bus on September 25, 1963, and that OSWALD was not identical to the individual previously described.

INVESTIGATION REGARDING SLING
USED ON RIFLE OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 24, 1963

On December 18, 1963, Mr. ADRIAN T. ALBA was contacted at his place of business, Crescent City Garage, Inc., 618 Magazine, New Orleans. At this time he was shown photographs of the device utilized as a sling on the rifle of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mr. ALBA said he had never seen OSWALD with the likes of the contraption shown and expressed the opinion that it definitely had never been intended at the time of manufacture to be used as a rifle sling. He reiterated, as on previous occasions, that he and OSWALD had never discussed rifle slings or like devices for use in the firing of the rifle.

NO 100-16601/dc

The following inquiries were made by SA ROBERT M. WHOMSLEY on December 19 and 20, 1963, at New Orleans, Louisiana:

The individuals named below were shown photographs of the device utilized as a sling on the rifle of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. They all agreed it was not a piece of equipment used for any purpose at their place of business, the William B. Reily Company, Inc., 640 Magazine. In addition, each individual informed he had never seen OSWALD in possession of such a contraption during his period of employment at instant company:

WILLIAM B. REILY III, Vice President

ALVIN PRECHTER, Director of Personnel

EMMETT BARBE, Supervisor of Maintainence Men

CHARLES LE BLANC, Employee

The following persons were likewise shown photographs of the device and all advised that it is foreign to them, i. e., they have never seen anything like it and were at a loss to offer a suggestion pertaining to its possible use:

Mr. CHARLES MONTEGU
Owner, Crescent Belt Manufacturers
520 St. Louis New Orleans, La.

Mr. CLAUDE C. MARTIN
Owner, The Dollar Store (Specializing in the sale of miscellaneous used merchandise)

NO 100-16601/mh

AT MISSISSIPPI CITY, MISSISSIPPI:

Mr. W. A. GLEATON, 153 Oleander Drive, was contacted by SA WILLIAM F. DUKES on December 20, 1963, and shown photographs of a sling composed of cowhide finished on the outside with a smooth black surface which photographs had been forwarded to New Orleans by the Dallas Division.

Mr. GLEATON, who advised he is an importer of musical instruments, immediately stated that the photographs appeared to be that of a guitar strap. He advised he had never seen a strap exactly like this one, and stated that in view of the rivets appearing on the strap he would guess that this strap was at least partially homemade.

Mr. GLEATON advised he has sold musical instrument accessories for years, but he was unable to advise who might handle a strap of this type.

CIVIL AIR PATROL
NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 24, 1963

On December 19, 1963, Mr. ROBERT J. RADELAT, 5147 Pauline Drive, New Orleans, advised that in 1955 he was affiliated with the Civil Air Patrol, being for a short period of time the Cadet Executive Officer, New Orleans Cadet Squadron, New Orleans Airport. He stated he has never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that OSWALD was never, to his knowledge, a member of the New Orleans Squadron. When shown a photograph of OSWALD, Mr. RADELAT stated he does not recall having ever seen the individual.

Mr. RADELAT was shown photographs of the device utilized as a sling on the rifle of OSWALD and he informed he has never seen such a contrivance. He further informed that the item in the photographs was never issued in the Civil Air Patrol and that very little equipment had been issued to members.

Mr. RADELAT concluded by stating that members of the Squadron had never been given any formal training in the use of firearms of any description.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 24, 1963

On December 20, 1963, Mr. LEON (NMI) GUIDRY, JR., 5308 Wilton Drive, New Orleans, advised he was previously affiliated with the Civil Air Patrol, New Orleans Squadron, New Orleans Airport. When shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Mr. GUIDRY stated he is unknown and was never known by GUIDRY as having been associated in any manner with the New Orleans Squadron.

Mr. GUIDRY continued by saying that members of the Squadron never received any formal firearms training and that they only fired on infrequent occasions at a makeshift range at the New Orleans Airport. He stated that during these occasions, they would fire the personally owned .22 caliber rifle belonging to some member of the Squadron.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

On December 20, 1963, Mr. ROY P. CLEMENT, 3216 Spain Street, New Orleans, informed he was a member of the Civil Air Patrol, New Orleans Squadron, New Orleans Airport prior to October, 1953, when during that month, he entered military service. He was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated that OSWALD is unknown to him and that, to the best of his knowledge, OSWALD was never a member of the New Orleans Squadron.

He continued by saying that he was a member of the Louisiana State National Guard while affiliated with the Civil Air Patrol. While a member of the Guard, he did some instructing in the use of the rifle. He said he did not, however, teach any members of the Civil Air Patrol the use of the rifle, that the Patrol had never had any weapons of any kind in operating condition and the only shooting done by members of the Patrol was unofficial shooting at a makeshift range at the New Orleans Airport. During these infrequent occasions, the persons shooting used privately owned .22 caliber rifles they brought from home.

Mr. CLEMENT was shown photographs of the device utilized as a sling on the rifle of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated the contrivance is not familiar to him and that it definitely is not any piece of equipment issued to members of the Civil Air Patrol.

JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY

1 NO 100-16601
CGP:bal

The following investigation was conducted by SA CLARENCE G. PROSPERE:

AT NATCHEZ, MISSISSIPPI:

On December 19, 1963, JOHN DONALD ALONZO, Coach, Cathedral High School, North Pine Street, Natchez, Mississippi who resides 714 North Rankin Street, Natchez, Mississippi, advised that he has not been to Dallas, Texas, since approximately 1950. ALONZO stated he has made no trips at any time with Bishop GEROD and Father FULLAM, at which time the three of them all traveled together.

ALONZO stated that a group of Cathedral High School students traveled from Natchez, Mississippi, to Dallas, Texas, leaving Natchez, November 29, 1963, and returning December 2, 1963. He stated there were approximately 20 in this group and that they were accompanied by Father JOHN RIETTI, the superintendent of Cathedral High School. ALONZO stated he did not know where these individuals stayed in Dallas.

The following investigation was conducted by SA CLARENCE G. PROSPERE ON December 24, 1963:

AT NATCHEZ, MISSISSIPPI:

JOHN DONALD ALONZO, Coach, Cathedral High School, Natchez, Mississippi, advised that with his memory refreshed he recalls JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY as a boy who was at Devreaux Hall, Boys' Catholic Orphanage, Natchez, Mississippi; that MURPHY was "definitely psychotic;" that MURPHY left Devreaux Hall in about 1953 or 1954 and that he last saw MURPHY about a year ago when MURPHY came "walking through Natchez." ALONZO stated he has no idea as to how MURPHY could be contacted. ALONZO pointed out that all personnel at Devreaux Hall have changed since MURPHY was at the orphanage; therefore, he knows no one who would know MURPHY at the orphanage.

ALONZO stated he now recalled a letter from the YMCA in Dallas, Texas, inquiring about MURPHY and that he had merely put down the names of Father FULLAM and Bishop GEROD as individuals who might know MURPHY since MURPHY had been at Devreaux Hall and the letter requested the names of any other individuals who might be able to recommend MURPHY.

ALONZO agreed to immediately advise the FBI should he receive any information which would possibly be of assistance in locating JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY.

On December 19, 1963, Father THOMAS FULLAM, Pastor, St. Mary's Cathedral, Natchez, Mississippi, who resides in the rectory at 107 South Union Street, Natchez, Mississippi, advised that he returned from a trip from Ireland on November 2, 1963, and that the only trips he has made since November 2, 1963, have been short trips to Jackson and Hattiesburg, Mississippi and New Orleans, Louisiana. He pointed out that these trips have only been for one or two days duration, and that they have been spread over the period from November 2, 1963, to the present time.

Father FULLAM stated he has not been in the State of Texas in the past 15 years and that he has made no trips with Coach ALONZO or Bishop GEROD.

On December 24, 1963, Father FULLAM advised he now recalls JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY who was at Devreaux Hall, Natchez, Mississippi and that due to MURPHY's inability to grasp normal school work he was sent to Hope Haven at Marrero, Louisiana, approximately ten years ago to learn a trade.

Father FULLAM stated he had had no recent inquiries or information regarding JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY and had not to his recollection received any such inquiries within the past four or five years.

Father FULLAM agreed to notify the FBI should he receive any inquiries or information regarding JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY which would be of assistance in locating MURPHY.

On December 19, 1963, Father JOHN RIETTI, Superintendent, Cathedral High School, North Pine Street, Natchez, Mississippi, who resides at 107 South Union Street, Natchez, Miss advised that he took a group of 19 students from Cathedral High School to Dallas, Texas. He stated they arrived in Dallas on November 29, 1963; that they stopped at the Fairground, and after leaving the Fairground, passed by the place where President KENNEDY was assassinated, but that they did not stop and continued on to the University of Dallas, where they stayed at night. He stated that on the following Saturday morning they made a trip into Dallas and the children were allowed to shop. On Saturday night they again spent the night at the University of Dallas. He stated that on the following Sunday morning, the entire group attended Mass and then saw the Dallas Cowboys and the New York Giants play football. Following the game, they left Dallas for Natchez, Mississippi, and arrived in Natchez during the early morning hours of December 2, 1963.

Father RIETTI stated that at no time to his knowledge, did his group of students visit the YMCA of Dallas, but that it was possible that when they were alone shopping on Saturday, that several of the boys might have visited the YMCA. He stated as a boyish prank, some of the children might have signed a guest book or register giving the names of the Coach, Mr. ALONZO, Bishop GEROD, and Father FULLAM, as a prank. He stated this was merely a possibility that passed through his mind in explanation for the names GEROD, FULLAM and ALONZO appearing on the records of the YMCA, Dallas, Texas.

Brother AQUINAS, Superintendent, Devreaux Hall, Natchez, Mississippi, advised his records, which merely consist of a register, show JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY was sent from Devreaux Hall to Hope Haven, Marrero, Louisiana in September, 1954.

Brother AQUINAS stated his records do not show relatives or background information and that there is no one present at the orphanage who knew MURPHY.

Brother AQUINAS stated he would immediately notify the FBI if he received any information concerning JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY.

NO 100-16601 /lyc

The following investigation was conducted by SA CLARENCE G. PROSPERE at Natchez, Mississippi:

NO T-1 advised on December 20, 1963 that JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY, registered with Local Board #1, Selective Service System, Natchez, on August 1, 1954 and was assigned Selective Service Number 221-36-106. His home address was given as Devereux Hall (orphanage), Natchez. The person shown as always knowing his address is Brother EDGAR, Devereux Hall, Natchez. NO T-1 advised that Local Board #1 had repeatedly contacted Brother EDGAR regarding JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY and that Brother EDGAR advised that he had been unable to maintain contact whatsoever with MURPHY and he had no information in his records which would assist in locating MURPHY.

NO T-1 stated the occupation of MURPHY when he registered was shown to be student, Cathedral High School, Natchez.

The following is a description of JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY as furnished by this source:

Date of birth	June 16, 1936
Place of birth	Kosciusko, Mississippi

The following investigation was conducted by SA CLARENCE G. PROSPERE at Natchez, Mississippi:

On December 27, 1963, Brother AQUINAS, Superintendent, Devreaux Hall (Catholic orphanage), Natchez, Mississippi, advised that in the five years he has been at Devreaux Hall there has been no Brother at the institution by the name of GERALD. He stated his records failed to show a Brother GERALD as ever having been at Devreaux Hall.

Brother AQUINAS stated he happens to know a Brother GERALD who was in New Orleans, Louisiana, until a year or 18 months ago at which time Brother GERALD moved to Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He stated Brother GERALD is now stationed at Catholic High School, Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

INVESTIGATION IN FRENCH QUARTER

BETTY PARENT, 935 Dauphine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised that she has made inquiries among her numerous friends and acquaintances who frequent the New Orleans French Quarter bars, particularly the Bourbon House, and Dixie's Bar of Music, regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY. PARENT advised she has been unable to develop any information which would indicate that LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY were known in the French Quarter. BETTY PARENT stated that she is acquainted with many of the sex deviates of the New Orleans French Quarter and from her contacts with these individuals in both Dixie's Bar of Music and the Bourbon House, she has been unable to develop any information which would indicate that OSWALD or RUBY were known, except that one sex deviate, whose name she does not know, indicated to her that ERICK, operator of the Lafitte in Exile Bar, located on Dumaine and Bourbon Street, has remarked to someone who repeated the remark among the sex deviates, that ERICK knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD. BETTY PARENT advised that she did not know the accuracy of this remark and she would regard it as gossip.

BETTY PARENT advised that the assassination of President KENNEDY has been a major topic of discussion among the sex deviates who frequent the New Orleans French Quarter and that all have various opinions and frequently speculate on OSWALD's background and activities; however, from all of the conversation and discussion in which she has participated and overheard, she has found no one who actually knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BETTY PARENT advised that she has talked with many of the sex deviates in the French Quarter during the past and has been unable to identify any individual by the name of CLAY BERTRAND as being known among the sex deviates of the New Orleans French Quarter.

BETTY PARENT advised that ERICK, who runs the Lafitte in Exile Bar, permits homosexuals to frequent this bar. She described him as a white male, approximately 45, dark hair, graying at the temples and of Mexican descent.

GUS BEELER, Assistant Manager, Bourbon House Restaurant and Bar, 700 Bourbon Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, stated he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and to his knowledge, has never met either individual.

GUS BEELER advised after viewing 5 photographs of both LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY, that he could not identify either photograph as being a patron of the Bourbon House Bar.

GUS BEELER stated that there has been considerable conversation in the Bourbon House regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD particularly by the wife of KERRY WENDELL THORNLEY. Both THORNLEY and his wife, according to BEELER, were regular patrons of the restaurant and bar and well known to most of the customers. THORNLEY and his wife separated about the time of the assassination of President KENNEDY and since that time, Mrs. THORNLEY has been "running down her husband" and telling everyone what will listen to her that he, THORNLEY, was a friend of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

In addition, BEELER advised that KERRY WENDELL THORNLEY has made public statements which have appeared in the local newspaper that he has either written a book or is writing a book in which he uses LEE HARVEY OSWALD as a model for a character in the book. BEELER stated that he did not know if this was true, but it has been the subject of conversation in the Bourbon House.

BEELER advised that other than the remarks about KERRY WENDELL THORNLEY which have been passed in the Bourbon House, he could think of no other individual frequenting the Bourbon House what might have known LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

New Orleans La.

ERIC TRUMBACH, 1025 Dauphine Street, employed as a bartender and night manager of the Lafitte In Exile Bar, corner of Dumaine and Bourbon Streets, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and to his knowledge had never seen either individual.

TRUMBACH stated that the Lafitte In Exile Bar is frequented by the homosexual element of the City of New Orleans and while he is acquainted with all of the regular customers of the bar, he knows most of them by their first name and nickname or just as a regular customer and only infrequently does he ever learn the full or correct name of any of the customers of this bar.

TRUMBACH stated that approximately December 1, 1963, an individual whose name he did not know and with whom he was not personally acquainted, was seated in the bar and they discussed the assassination of President KENNEDY. During the conversation, a question was raised as to whether OSWALD was "gay", that is, whether OSWALD was a homosexual. TRUMBACH stated that he told this unknown individual that if OSWALD was "gay" he must have known him. TRUMBACH stated he did not mean that he did know OSWALD, but this was just a general statement by which he meant that OSWALD probably came into the Lafitte In Exile Bar at sometime or other if OSWALD lived in New Orleans and was "gay". TRUMBACH stated that during the same conversation the name CLAY BERTRAND was also mentioned and TRUMBACH stated that this name sounded familiar to him. He remarked to this unknown individual that he thought this person may have been a patron of the Lafitte In Exile Bar. TRUMBACH stated that he subsequently determined that the individual he associated with the name CLAY BERTRAND was not CLAY BERTRAND and that this person's name was BURTON (phonetic) first name unknown, who occasionally comes into the Lafitte In Exile Bar. He stated he observed BURTON about two weeks ago, but did not know BURTON's residence or employment.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

JOHN LAURELL FORD, 207 Louise Anne Avenue, Monroe, Louisiana, employed by J. H. REDMOND, 3708 Jackson Street, Monroe, Louisiana, advised as follows:

During the first part of September, 1963, he moved from Houston, Texas, to Dallas, Texas, and secured a job at JERRY DUNCAN's Service Station, 1030 North Zangs, located at the intersection of Zangs and Beckley Streets. He left Dallas, Texas, to return to his home, Monroe, Louisiana, on or about November 11, 1963. During his stay in Dallas he resided at 203 Elston Drive and at 2423 Marfa Street with his sister and brother-in-law, SARAH JEAN and LYNDEL ALLEN.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, taken by the New Orleans Police Department on August 9, 1963, and photographs and publicity concerning OSWALD in news media, do not remind him of anyone he saw at DUNCAN's Service Station or in that neighborhood during the period of his employment. He did not have any contact with OSWALD and has no knowledge of OSWALD except that learned by reading and hearing of events in Dallas, Texas.

The only person from that neighborhood he drank beer with except CLYDE HUFF, fellow employee, and JERRY DUNCAN, station owner, was a white male, 18 to 20 years old, 5'3" tall, 125-130 pounds, reddish blonde hair, light complexion, who wore cowboy boots and western style shirt. This young man, name not known, rented a room from Mrs. A. C. JOHNSON on Beckley Street, across the street from DUNCAN's Service Station. He believes this person worked at an Auto Supply store on Jefferson Street. Mr. A. C. JOHNSON was former owner of DUNCAN's Service Station. He believes the young man was from West Texas and he was not familiar with Dallas, Texas.

The young man, who had no automobile, came into the service station and suggested that he and FORD drink beer together. On this occasion he drove the young man to where he could buy beer and then drove around with him while they drank beer. The young man suggested that they drink beer

OSWALD REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN SEEN IN HABANA BAR, NEW ORLEANS, WITH UNIDENTIFIED MEXICAN

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ, 1239 Chartres Street, New Orleans, La. was interviewed in the Spanish language.

RODRIGUEZ advised that in the early part of August, 1963, LEE HARVEY OSWALD and a Latin-appearing man who is unknown to RODRIGUEZ, came into the Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street, where RODRIGUEZ works as a bartender, and OSWALD ordered a lemonade and the other man ordered a tequila. RODRIGUEZ stated that the Latin-appearing person was rather irritated by the fact he had to pay fifty cents for one drink of tequila and that this was the reason that he recalled OSWALD and the unknown man.

RODRIGUEZ said the man's clothing indicated that he was probably a Cuban, but his accent indicated to RODRIGUEZ that he was more than likely Mexican. RODRIGUEZ said he had never seen this man before this occasion nor has he seen him in the area of the Habana Bar since the day he was in the bar with OSWALD.

RODRIGUEZ furnished the following description of the unknown man as best he could remember:

Height	5'7 or 8"
Age	About 25-30
Hair	Brown
Eyes	Brown
Build	Husky
Scars & Marks	None
Characteristics	No outstanding characteristics noted
Dress	White jacket, dark trousers and wore vest

RODRIGUEZ said if he were able to see the man again, he would recognize him but he had no information as to where the man might have lived, worked, or in what circles he might have traveled.

BACKGROUND OF OSWALD FAMILY

CLEM H. SEHRT, Attorney, Pere Marquette Building, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised that when he was a youth, his father operated a bakery at 934 North Claiborne Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana. SEHRT stated he worked in this bakery and one of the bakery's customers was the CLAVERIE family who resided in the neighborhood, and through his employment at the bakery he became acquainted with the CLAVERIE family.

SEHRT recalled that the father of MARGUERITE CLAVERIE was employed as a motorman by the New Orleans Public Service. Mr. SEHRT advised that he recalled that Mr. CLAVERIE's photograph was published in one of the New Orleans newspapers when he retired because of the many years he had worked as a streetcar motorman. Mr. SEHRT stated he did not remember the year of Mr. CLAVERIE's retirement.

Mr. SEHRT recalled that there were at least two other children in the CLAVERIE family, one an older son whose name he did not recall who died of tuberculosis many years ago and a daughter named PEARL who married and subsequently died in the Louisiana State Mental Hospital, Jackson, Louisiana. Mr. SEHRT could not recall the identity of the individual that PEARL CLAVERIE married. Mrs. Edith Lee Margueite Lee Oswald nee + Pic

Mr. SEHRT particularly recalled MARGUERITE CLAVERIE + Pic He stated she was a very beautiful girl approximately two years older than he. He stated that she married an EDDIE PIC with whom he was well acquainted and shortly after their marriage, EDDIE PIC divorced MARGUERITE CLAVERIE. SEHRT recalled that MARGUERITE CLAVERIE was unfaithful to her husband and was consorting with an individual by the name of V. J. KNOBLOCK (PH) who for years was an automobile salesman in New Orleans. Mr. SEHRT stated he has not seen KNOBLOCK in years and does not know whether he is still alive.

SEHRT stated he was a close friend of EDDIE PIC's Lee as a youth inasmuch as they both attended the S.J. Peters High School in New Orleans and both played on a local basketball team. They were both members of the New Orleans Athletic Club (NOAC) and played on the NOAC teams. SEHRT stated that EDDIE PIC was struck in the eye with a loose lace on a basketball and from this accident he lost the use of one eye and gave up sports. SEHRT stated that his friendship was with EDDIE PIC, but nevertheless, he had known EDDIE PIC's wife, MARGUERITE CLAVERIE for many years from the time he was a young boy until after EDDIE PIC's divorce from her.

SEHRT advised that EDDIE PIC is now an official with T. Smith and Son, Stevedoring Company, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Mr. SEHRT stated that over twenty years ago, MARGUERITE CLAVERIE came to him and requested that he handle the settling of an estate which involved a piece of property. Mr. SEHRT stated that he recalled that one of the attorneys in the office handled the case and placed MARGUERITE CLAVERIE in possession of the property. SEHRT recalled that at this time, MARGUERITE CLAVERIE was the widow of a man named OSWALD. Mr. SEHRT stated that he has not seen or heard of MARGUERITE CLAVERIE in over twenty years and it was not until he saw her photograph in a magazine that he recognized her as the person he had known in his youth and as a young, practicing attorney.

Mr. SEHRT advised that he has never seen MARGUERITE CLAVERIE's son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has no knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's activities or associates. Mr. SEHRT advised that he did not know JACK RUBY and had no knowledge of JACK RUBY or of his associates.

The following investigation was conducted at Alexandria, Louisiana, on December 23, 1963, by SA PAUL R. LANCASTER:

The purpose of this investigation was to determine if the individual who purchased a Continental Trailways bus ticket from Alexandria, Louisiana, to Dallas, Texas, some four to eight weeks prior to November 29, 1963 might possibly have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The individual was carrying a lever-action rifle which he was told to dismantle before boarding the bus. This individual was seen by three employees of Continental, who were shown a photograph of OSWALD on December 23, 1963. These three individuals all stated that it was not OSWALD who was the individual carrying the rifle and who had been instructed to dismantle it before boarding the Continental bus.

The three employees are Bus Driver EVEN WAYNE WRIGHT HOLLOWAY, 3132 Pershing Street; Ticket Agent J. C. GALLUP, 5227 Sallie Street; and Porter SAMMY DORSEY, 4517 Futrell Street. New Orleans, La

In addition, the three aforesaid employees all advised that they never again saw the person carrying the rifle mentioned above.

Mr. HALLOWAY felt positive that he would recognize the individual carrying the rifle should he ever see him again.

ROBERT BRUCE STRICKLAND, 1012 Dauphine Street, advised that prior to November, 1963, he had been employed by the Citizens Bank at Columbia, Mississippi for three and a half years. In October, 1963, he moved to New Orleans, Louisiana, and on November 19, 1963, began working for the main branch of the National Bank of Commerce in New Orleans as a student trainee. He worked all day at the National Bank of Commerce on November 22, 1963.

Mr. STRICKLAND stated that a personal friend, Dr. W. C. STONE, whom he met while attending Baylor at Waco, Texas, was married at Dallas, Texas, on November 3, 1963. STRICKLAND stated he left New Orleans on November 1 to attend the wedding and returned to New Orleans by plane on November 3, 1963, and has not been in Dallas since. He stated that Dr. W. C. STONE is now living at 3724 Cole Avenue, Dallas, Texas.

Mr. STRICKLAND said he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY. He denied ever having said that he was glad President KENNEDY was shot.

DATE: 12/28/63

FROM: J. L. Handley

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INFORMATION CONCERNING

At 4:15 p. m., 12/28/63 Omer Henry, State Department, telephonically contacted SA Curran. Henry stated that the FBI had requested information concerning what one Schulman (possibly Thomas) had said concerning the assassination of President Kennedy. State Department had been requested to obtain this information from Morocco.

Henry stated that the Moroccan police have advised that Schulman will leave Rabat December 29, 1963, on AF 2016 to travel by way of Paris and arrive New York City at 6:00 p. m., 12/29/63 on TWA Flight 801. Schulman's passport is limited to travel to the United States. Henry stated that Schulman is editor of "Avante-Guarde," a periodical.

ACTION:

The above information was relayed to SA Papich, Duty Agent for Division Five, who is handling.

Sgt. GIL FLOOD, Indio Station, Riverside County Sheriff's Office, Indio, California, advised SA THEODORE HINDERAKER, 12/30/63, that he had been contacted by JERRY CHANEY, reporter for the "Indio Daily News," at which time CHANEY mentioned that he had received an inquiry from an unspecified wire service indicating that a woman now residing in Indio, California, was LEE HARVEY OSWALD's aunt. This woman was identified as VIRGINIA PERRY, aka, Mrs. STANLEY PERRY, 44-451 Sungold, Indio. Mrs. PERRY was not contacted by the newspaper as, according to FLOOD, CHANEY refused to do the story on her as he felt that if she was related to OSWALD, she was an "innocent party" and this would only serve to destroy her reputation in her hometown. There has been no confirmation of any relationship between Mrs. PERRY and OSWALD.

The above is being furnished for the information of Dallas. UACB no action is being taken by Los Angeles and no report is being submitted.

Re Miami tel to Bureau, Dallas and NY, dated 12/28/63, setting forth interview of attorney EDGAR A. BUTTLE.

Re teletype set forth interview of attorney BUTTLE and his association with OSWALD in NY in the 1950s.

LEON SCHAEFLER, partner, Finch and Schaefler Law Firm, 36 West 44th St., NYC, advised SA JAMES O. INGRAM on 12/30/63, he could locate no record for LEE HARVEY OSWALD or MARGUERITE OSWALD. He said attorney EDGAR BUTTLE was not associated with his firm but BUTTLE had space in the law office of his firm at the address from about 1952 to 1956. He stated BUTTLE handled his own cases and their firm kept no record of his cases.

He added the only information concerning this matter would have to be furnished by BUTTLE whom he believes is employed by the Federal Trade Commission at the present time.

This information will be reported by the NYO.

DETAILS:

PERSONS ENTERING MEXICO SEPTEMBER 26, 1963

On December 5, 1963, Mrs. IRVEN E. LONDERMILK, Apartment 101, 5418 56th Avenue, East Riverdale, Maryland, advised SA JAMES W. SIBERT that FLORENCE S. ROCLEVICH had formerly resided at apartment 102 at this address. Mrs. LONDERMILK stated that it was her recollection that Mrs. ROCLEVICH had moved to Lewisdale, Maryland, street address unknown.

On December 7, 1963, Mr. MICHAEL ROCLEVICH, 6001 Tanglewood Drive, East Riverdale, Maryland, advised SA SIBERT that he is the son of FLORENCE ROCLEVICH, who had formerly resided at 5418 56th Avenue, Riverdale, Maryland. He stated that his mother was currently residing at 4802 West Commerce Street, San Antonio, Texas where his father was attending a school, which would terminate on December 11, 1963.

On December 9, 1963, Mr. R. ROUSE, Lake Motel, 4302 West Commerce Street, San Antonio, Texas, advised SA THOMAS A. BROUSTAD of the San Antonio Division that Mr. and Mrs. ROCLEVICH had moved without leaving a forwarding address.

He indicated that Mr. ROCLEVICH had been treated at the Lackland Air Force Base Hospital.

Sergeant BENARD, Lackland Hospital, advised on December 10, 1963 that ANTHONY P. ROCLEVICH, a retired Master Sergeant, had given his address as the Lake Motel, when he received treatment at the hospital. The Locator Service at Lackland Air Force Base was unable to furnish information concerning ANTHONY P. ROCLEVICH.

On December 17, 1963, SA SIBERT located FLORENCE S. ROCLEVICH and her husband ANTHONY P. ROCLEVICH at 8115 Powhatan Street, Hyattsville, Maryland, upon their return from Texas. Mr. and Mrs. ROCLEVICH, who are currently residing at this address, advised that they had entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo in the 1963 blue Chevrolet Impala, owned by Mrs. ROCLEVICH. They had entered at 1 p.m. on September 26, 1963 and drove to Monterey. They had made this trip for the purpose of looking over the area as a possible place of retirement. They returned to the United States at Roma, Texas, arriving at about 2 p.m. on September 27, 1963.

Mr. and Mrs. ROCLEVICH both advised that they have been observing photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the various newspapers and are certain that they did not come in contact with him during their short stay in Mexico.

They had no information concerning OSWALD.

The Baltimore Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation had not received any information concerning Mr. or Mrs. ANTHONY P. ROCLEVICH prior to the foregoing incident.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

NOTE: Yates, refrigeration serviceman voluntarily advised DL office on 11-26-63 that at about 10:30 am on either 11/20 or 21/63 he picked up hitch hiker outside DL and droped him at corner of Elm and Houston Sts. DALLAS. This man believed by Yates to be subject was carrying package wrapped in brown paper which hitch hiker claimed contained curtain rods. During ride he inquired whether Yates thought President could be assassinated from top of a building or from a window. Man exhibited picture which showed a man with a rifle and he inquired if Yates thought President could be killed with gun like one shown in picture. Yates claimed since he was driving he did not look at picture but commented he guessed so. Man also inquired whether Yates had ever been to Carousel Club and if he knew a certain individual whose name Yates could not recall. On that particular morning Yates was allegedly en route from service call at Oak Cliff section of DL to service call in Irving, Texas. Yates' employer verified he had service call at Irving on 11-21-63 but had no reason to be in Oak Cliff that date. On reinterview 12-10-63 Yates furnished signed statement in which he definitely identified hitch hiker as subject and stated he believed occurred on 11-20-63 following service call at Charlie Jordan's Meat Market, Oak Cliff, and while en route to Irving, Texas, on another call. Yates also recalled subject inquired whether he knew whereabouts of Carousel Club and whether Yates knew Jack Rubenstein more commonly known as Jack Ruby, whom subject identified as operator of Carousel Club. Despite Yates' previous statment he did not look at picture, during reinterview, Yates furnished detailed description of picture allegedly showed him and identified the male in that picture as subject, his hitch hiker. Subject was at work on 11-20- and 21-63 but company check of employees not sufficiently close to completely discredit Yates' story. Yates described by fellow employee as a "big talker who always talks about a lot of foolishness." Yates should be afforded polygraph.

Bogard an auto salesman claims that at about 3 pm on 11-9-63 he accompanied an individual identified by Bogard as subject on new car demonstration ride; that subject drove 75 to 85 miles an hour and indicated within 2-3 weeks he would pay cash for new car. Bogard claims this individual gave his name as "Lee Oswald" and Bogard wrote name on business card which he destroyed following subject's death.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO: Mr. Belmont

DATE: December 13, 1963

FROM: A. Rosen

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA.
IS - R

Reference is made to my memorandum to you dated 12/18/63 on the above-captioned matter. This memorandum recommended that Bureau liaison should obtain a copy of the Secret Service report so that it may be reviewed prior to its submission to the President's Commission. It was further recommended that Bureau liaison should inquire of the Secret Service to determine the purpose of the efforts of Secret Service to identify FBI Agents who allegedly interviewed Mrs. Oswald on 11/24/63.

On 12/19/63 Liaison Agent Bartlett was handed a copy of the Secret Service report by Mr. James J. Rowley, Chief, U. S. Secret Service. Mr. Rowley advised that the report is complete with the exception of an appendix which is the report of Secret Service Agent Lawson, who was the advance Agent from Secret Service headquarters in Dallas in the arrangements for the President's trip. This phase of the report was still being printed.

Concerning the efforts of Secret Service to identify the FBI Agents who interviewed Marina Oswald, Mr. Rowley told Bartlett that this phase of the case developed when Mrs. Oswald told Secret Service that she suspected she was either trying to be framed or that there was a complete mistaken identity on her part. Rowley said that the alleged interviews may have been done by Agents of immigration agencies, such as the Immigration and Naturalization Service; however, their inquiries have failed to identify the persons who interviewed her. In fact, such interviews did not occur. Mr. Rowley said there is no question in his mind about the fact that the last Bureau interview with Oswald or his wife took place on 11/10/63, the time of Oswald's arrest in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Mr. Rowley continued by emphasizing the cooperation necessary between the Bureau and Secret Service and commented specifically that he instructed his entire Service not to conduct any investigation regarding Oswald after it became apparent that some of the alleged Agents were making inquiry which was within the FBI's jurisdiction. Mr. Rowley also commented that the complete cooperation and assistance reflected to him and his Service by the Director and the Bureau is much appreciated. He commented on the Director loaning Bureau Agents to assist the Secret Service, such as President Kennedy's funeral. He also commented on the generosity of the Director in furnishing a bulletproof car for the Presidents use. At this point Mr. Rowley emphasized that he wanted the Director to understand that the detailed questioning of Mrs. Oswald by his Service concerning the alleged interviews by FBI Agents was done at his direction only because he felt she was not telling the truth and he wanted to get to the bottom of it.

Secret Service Report

A review of the Secret Service report dated 12/18/63, a copy of which was given to Liaison Supervisor Bartlett, reflects that it covered the advance preparations of the Secret Service for the Presidential visit to Dallas on 11/22/63 and the activities of Secret Service in Dallas on that day. This report does not set forth any investigative activity by Secret Service to ascertain or assist in ascertaining the identity of the President's killer or his motives. It is indicated in a cover letter that results of such investigative activity by Secret Service has been made available to the FBI. It is indicated that this report contains several aspects of Secret Service operation which are not generally public knowledge and requests the Commission consult with the General Counsel of the Treasury Department prior to making public any of the material in this report.

The report goes into great detail about the arrangements made with various individuals, civic leaders, political leaders and police departments in anticipation of the President's visit. The activities of individual Agents of Secret Service, before and the day of the President's assassination, are set forth. It sets forth individual statements by all the Treasury Agents who were actually on guard duty with the President and Vice President as to individual operations.

On pages seven and eight, the report sets out that Secret Service offices around the country had established liaison with the FBI in their districts, and that such was the case prior to 11/22/63. The report states that "In accordance with the usual practice, the local FBI office informed the local Secret Service office of any information which affected the President's visit." On 10/30/63, the local FBI office gave Secret Service in Dallas the name of a right-wing individual in the Dallas area. The report indicates that an investigation was made. On 11/21 and 22/63 the FBI Office referred two pieces of information to the local Secret Service office one involved scurrilous literature already in the hands of Secret Service and one second involved possible picket trouble which the local police were aware of. This report indicates that the name of Lee H. Oswald was not known to any Secret Service Agent in Dallas or elsewhere prior to the shooting of the President. This is the only reference to the FBI in the entire report.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka

Rerep of SA Edwin Dalrymple dated December 4, 1963, at Houston, a copy of which is enclosed for New Orleans. For information of Houston, subject is believed to have left New Orleans some time during September 25, 1963, en route to Mexico City. The first placement of Oswald during his Mexico City trip was when two witnesses observed him to board Continental Trailways bus number 5133 at Houston, Texas, at approximately 2 a.m., morning of September 26, 1963. He then traveled by this bus to Laredo, Texas, and from there to Mexico City via Mexican Red Arrow bus line. Purpose of inquiry requested herein is to develop facts concerning subject's travel and his purchase of tickets therefor covering his travels from New Orleans on September 25, 1963, to Houston and from Houston to Laredo, the latter by Continental bus. It now appears, in view of Oswald's telephone conversation with Mrs. Estelle Twiford in Houston, that subject probably arrived in Houston well in advance of arrival there of Continental bus 5133 which originated at Jackson, Mississippi. Accordingly, it is probable that Oswald purchased separate travel accommodations covering trip on September 25, 1963, from New Orleans to Houston, and thereafter in Houston he probably purchased the Continental bus tickets for trip to Mexico City. Houston reinterview Mrs. Twiford in effort to fix the approximate time of day she received the telephone call from Oswald during period when her husband was on the coast wise ocean trip. Houston endeavor to develop trace of subject through his possible purchase of Continental Trailways bus ticket at Houston. New Orleans, when advice received from Houston as to result of reinterview of Mrs. Twiford as to time of day Oswald

Have appropriate articles turned over by Mrs. Paine which are described on pages 712 through 717 of rerep been forwarded to Laboratory for cryptographic, handwriting and indented writing examinations? Note the handwriting described under Section h on page 715 of rerep. Possible that these entries were made by Oswald when he was in Mexico City. Question Marina Oswald concerning the silver bracelet found by Mrs. Paine. Ascertain how and when she acquired it and if the bracelet was gift from subject. Press her for details as to any representations he made concerning its origin. Note in this regard that if Oswald purchased the bracelet in Mexico, which appears likely he may have well mentioned this fact to his wife. Also ascerta if Oswald ever mentioned watching Jai-lai games to Mrs. Oswald and if she knows if he was in possession upon his return to Dal in October, 1963, of a phonograph record.

Mrs. Oswald has consistently denied any knowledge of husband's trip to Mexico in late September, early October 1963 Among the Oswalds' effects found by Mrs. Paine were a silver b with name "Marina" inscribed on same and a slip of paper bear notation "phone embassy, get bus tickets, watch Jai-lai game, silver bracelet, buy record". These notations appear in the a small Spanish-English dictionary in which were also found s post cards of various views of Mexico City. Oswald probably the bracelet to his wife when he returned from his Mexican tr if so, she may have mentioned the trip to her.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Belmont

DATE: 12/3/63

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT, NOVEMBER 22, 1963 DALLAS, TEXAS

With reference to prior telephone call today indicating a note in the Russian language had been located in a cookbook that Mrs. Ruth Paine had given to the Irving, Texas, Police Department for transmittal through Secret Service to Mrs. Lee Harvey Oswald.

In interview with Mrs. Oswald today, Mrs. Oswald admits that some time last Spring, the date she cannot remember, her husband came into their house on Neeley Street in a very excited condition and immediately turned on the radio. She inquired as to what was wrong and Oswald admitted that he had shot at General Walker but did not know whether he had hit and wanted to hear on the radio whether or not he had. Mrs. Oswald stated that she threatened to go to the police if Oswald ever again made any such attempt to shoot anyone.

She said she kept this note so that she could use it to threaten Oswald in the event he thought up some other crazy scheme. He told Mrs. Oswald that General Walker was leading the Fascist organization in Dallas and it was best to remove him. It is noted that General Walker was shot at while he was in his home on April 10, 1963. It is also noted that Oswald and his wife left Dallas, Texas, on April 29 and went to New Orleans, Louisiana.

The rifle slug that was shot at General Walker was located in his home and has been in the possession of the Dallas Police Department since that time. The fact that this rifle slug was located has been discussed previously last April with the Police Department and the Bureau volunteered to make an examination of this slug but no request for such examination was ever made by the Dallas Police Department.

The slug in question has been picked up by Bureau agents inasmuch as there was a possibility based on current developments that Oswald might have shot at General Walker and the bullet slug was transmitted today and is en route on an evening plane to the Bureau Laboratory for examination. In view of these developments the original note in Russian is being retained in Dallas until Dallas can have an opportunity to run out all the ramifications and take any other action that is necessary concerning this note.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

With further reference to the note written in Russian, Mrs. Oswald advised that this letter in its original form had been shown to her by the Secret Service. She advised that she had found this note in Oswald's room where he kept his belongings at the Neeley Street address and she cannot remember the date that she located this note.

No information is available as to whether Secret Service has notified the Dallas Police Department concerning this admission on the part of Mrs. Oswald that Oswald shot at General Walker. No action is being taken here to ascertain what Secret Service has done. It is recommended that at such time as the slug is received in the Bureau and a detailed examination made, consideration be given to notifying the police in the event the slug is identified as having come from Oswald's rifle.

SUBJECT:

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R
Assassination of the President

Inspector Malley called from Dallas at 1:50 p.m. to advise that Inspector Tom Kelley of Secret Service had furnished the following note, which had been translated from Russian, and which note was left in a cookbook frequently used by Mrs. Oswald at the residence of Mrs. Paine: The note had been given by Mrs. Paine to the Police Department at Irving, Texas, so they could give it to Secret Service and get it to Mrs. Oswald. The note reads as follows:

"This key for a post office box in the post office located in the City, on Ervay Street, on the same street toward the drug store where you always stood. Four blocks from drug store, on the same street toward post office, you will find our box. I paid for the box last month so don't worry about it.

"Send the consulate information what happened to me, and also clippings from the newspapers (if the newspapers will write about me). I think that the consulate immediately will help you if they learn all. I have paid for the latter on the 2nd so don't worry about it. I also paid for the water and gas. Possibly the money from the work will be coming. They will send our checks by mail. You will go to the bank and change the check for cash.

"My clothing, et cetera, you can throw away or give away. Don't keep them, but my personal papers (military and civil, et cetera) I prefer that you hold. Several of my documents are located in a small blue suitcase. Address book on night cabinet table if you need it. Here we have friends and Red Cross would help you (Red Cross in English).

"I am leaving you as much money as I could ($60 on the 2nd of the month) and you---can live on $10 per week, two more months. If I am alive and taken as prisoner, Municipal Building is located at the end of the bridge through which we always traveled when I went toward the city, right in the beginning of the city after you pass the bridge."

ACTION:

Inspector Malley did not have further details, as he furnished this information immediately upon receipt. He has agents out to get hold of the note and transmit it to the Laboratory for examination as to handwriting, et cetera. He will find out exactly where the note has been; when it was given to the Irving police; why Mrs. Paine gave it to the Irving police; and how the Secret Service got hold of it. He will follow through on the leads suggested in the note to find out what is in the mail box and will interview Mrs. Oswald concerning what she knows about the note, any conversations she had with Oswald, et cetera. Malley will call back as soon as he gets additional information.

Malley was requested to see if he could keep this quiet and so instruct Secret Service and the police, until we find out what it is all about.

Run down vigorously.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

The basis for investigation at Laurel, Mississippi, regarding AUBERT CURTIS GRIFFIN, was as a result of Jacksonville teletype to Dallas and New Orleans, 12/6/63 at 8:11 p.m., which informed that GRIFFIN reportedly made statements concerning the shooting of President KENNEDY. GRIFFIN alleged to be an alcoholic and a former patient at the Jones County Hospital, Laurel, Mississippi. It is assumed that Jacksonville has prepared and submitted FD 302s on the interviews with GRIFFIN.

The basis for the investigation at Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, was as a result of St. Louis teletype to Director, Dallas and New Orleans, 12/5/63 at 10:46 a.m., which informed that a review of OSWALD's Marine Corps service record indicated he attended a course entitled, "Aircraft Control and Warning Operator", at Keesler Air Force Base, from May 2, 1957 to June 18, 1957.

The basis for the investigation at the Southeastern Louisiana Hospital, Mandeville, Louisiana, regarding ELLEN DIRMANN, a former mental patient, was as a result of Dallas teletype to Bureau and New Orleans, 12/9/63 at 4:00 p.m. This teletype requested the character and background of DIRMANN be determined and she be interviewed concerning statements reportedly made that President KENNEDY was going to be killed when he got to Texas. In view of DIRMANN's past mental instability and the fact that on her release, she was still considered to be a schizophrenic-parenoid type and that this condition could very well re-occur, DIRMANN was not interviewed.

The basis for the investigation at Shreveport, Louisiana, Ida, Monroe and Fort Polk, Louisiana, was as a result of Dallas teletype to Houston, Kansas City, Knoxville, Little Rock and San Antonio, dated 12/9/63 at 11:26 p.m. This teletype set forth a list of long distance telephone numbers which were called from WH3-0062, a coin box telephone, Dallas, Texas, from which OSWALD allegedly made long distance telephone calls.

It is noted that 218 Vernon Street, Monroe, Louisiana, is also the address of JOHN LAURELL FORD, who was interviewed in connection with the case entitled, JACK RUBY; LEE HARVEY OSWALD - Victim, CR. When interviewed on 11/25/63, FORD denied knowing OSWALD or RUBY.

The basis for the interview of HENRY J. ROUSSEL, JR., at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, was as a result of St. Louis teletype to Director, Dallas and New Orleans, 12/10/63 at 5:48 p.m. This teletype instructed that ROUSSEL be interviewed for information pertaining to OSWALD as they apparently had both served in the U. S. Marine Corps together at one time. As a result of the interview with ROUSSEL, leads have been set out to the Philadephia Office to locate and interview RICHARD D. CALL and to the New York City Office to contact Pan American Airways for the whereabouts of ROSALEEN QUINN, so she may be interviewed.

The basis for contacts at New Orleans Firearms Company, sporting goods and leather goods stores, regarding rifle slings, was as a result of a request received from the Dallas Office on 12/7/63.

The basis for contact with New Orleans area newspapers, was as a result of Dallas teletype to Director, New Orleans and San Antonio, dated 12/10/63 at 4:38 p.m., which informed that SAMUEL B. BALLEN of Dallas, upon interview had stated he had met OSWALD in either December, 1962 or January, 1963, and that it was his recollection that OSWALD had been employed by a newspaper in New Orleans.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Synopsis: ERIC ROGERS, a neighbor of OSWALD's, states he observed OSWALD leave apaprtment at 4905 Magazine St., New Orleans, at approximately 7:00 p.m., 9/24/63, carrying two suitcases. EARL SPENCER ANDERSON, bus driver, New Orleans Public Service Co., could not identify photograph of OSWALD and cannot recall ever seeing OSWALD. ANDERSON states he knows where OSWALD's apartment at 4905 Magazine located and could not state when, but recalled several months ago seeing station wagon parked in front of apartment for one or two days. ANDERSON recalled that during one evening trip towards Canal Street, he stopped at corner of Magazine and Upper Line Streets to pick up passenger carrying two suitcases. Passenger placed smaller suitcase alongside bus driver's seat and placed larger suitcase behind bus driver's seat. After paying fare, passenger inquired as to best route to Greyhound station. ANDERSON could not describe passenger. Other bus drivers interviewed, but could furnish no information, except JERRY TRACEY, who recalled on one occasion about 2 or 3 months ago, observing a station wagon backing out of driveway located next to OSWALD's apartment. Station wagon observed loaded with clothing, household furnishings and that a baby bed or crib tied to top of vehicle. Investigation determined that unemployment compensation check payable to OSWALD cashed sometime after 8:00 A.M., 9/25/63 at Wade Dixie Store, 4303 Magazine Street. OSWALD's mother, MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, employed Goldrings, New Orleans, from 3/16/56 to 6/31/56. Other employments for Mrs. OSWALD obtained. Records of Jones County Community Hospital, Laurel, Mississippi, show that A. C. GRIFFIN admitted to hospital 12:10 a.m. 11/23/63 and discharged 11/27/63, and observed in Laurel, Mississippi between 9:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m., 11/22/63. Prior to this time, GRIFFIN had been drinking heavily. Investigation at Keesler AFB, Mississippi, determined that in 1957 several hundred Marines took AC&WO courses at Keesler. No records maintained at Keesler to verify OSWALD's attendance. ELLEN DIRMANN, Abita Springs, La., former mental patient at State Hospital, Mandeville, La. Condition described as schizophrenic-paranoid type and even though discharged from hospital this condition could very well re-occur. HOYT F. MARSHALL, Shreveport, La., PURGON WILSON LOWE, Ida, La., or JAMES S. GRANT, Ft. Polk, La., advise they do not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY. No information developed at New Orleans regarding rifle sling. New Orleans, La. area newspapers have no record of OSWALD being employed.

INVESTIGATION RE LEE HARVEY OSWALD
LEAVING APARTMENT AT 4905 MAGAZINE STREET,
NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, SEPTEMBER 24, 1963

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 12/10/63

New Orleans, Louisiana

ERIC ROGERS, 4907 Magazine Street, advised that he saw OSWALD leave his apartment at 4905 Magazine Street on the evening of the day following the day that Mrs. OSWALD and baby left in a station wagon. He could not recall the specific date of the day of the week but he said he remembers seeing OSWALD loading up clothes and household effects in the station wagon one day and that the following day Mrs. OSWALD and the baby departed in the station wagon driven by a lady who had two small children. ROGERS recalled that he paid particular attention to the fact that everything was very quiet in the OSWALD apartment the night after Mrs. OSWALD left and that he, ROGERS, wondered if OSWALD had also gone. He said that on the following evening just before dark he saw OSWALD run quickly through the gate in the fence leading to the OSWALD apartment and run toward the bus stop at the corner of Magazine and Upperline Streets. He said the bus driver saw OSWALD running and waited at the corner of Magazine and Upperline Streets for him. OSWALD crossed Magazine Street and ran around the back end of the bus and then up to the front of the bus on the opposite side to the entrance door. The bus was headed toward Canal Street.

ROGERS said that he noted that OSWALD was carrying two suitcases which he described as rectangular in shape and approximately eighteen inches long. He said both suitcases were the same size and that they appeared to be black in color. He wondered to himself how anyone who had been out of work for so long a period of time could afford to have such good luggage.

ROGERS places the time which he observed OSWALD leave his apartment at approximately 7:00 PM. He said that it was just before dark and that the street lights had not yet been turned on.

Mr. VALENTINE KISSEN, Utilities Department, City of New Orleans, City Hall, advised that the street lights in the city of New Orleans are controlled for the most part by photo electric switches which turn the lights on automatically at a certain time of the day. This time varies depending upon the amount of light, but generally the lights are turned on at about 15 minutes after sunset.

Mr. SIDNEY SEILER, Engineering Department, New Orleans Public Service, Inc., 317 Baronne Street, advised that the street lights on Magazine Street between Upperline and Robert Streets are controlled by photo electric switches and that the current goes on automatically when the level of illumination reaches one foot candle. He said generally these controls are set at the factory and whereas there may be some variation in each switch, for practical purposes the current would go on 22 minutes after sunset on a clear day and as early as 12 minutes after sunset on a cloudy day.

JERRY TRACEY, Badge 186, residence address 2017 Haring Road, Metairie, Louisiana, observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised that he had never seen him and could furnish no pertinent information concerning him. He said that he knew where the OSWALD apartment was located at 4905 Magazine Street and recalls that about two or three months ago, he was operating a Magazine bus headed toward Audubon Park and was blocked momentarily by a station wagon which was backing out of the driveway located next to the OSWALD apartment. He said he noted that the station wagon was a late model one and in good condition and what made him notice it was the fact that it was loaded with clothing and household furnishings. He recalled that a baby bed or crib was tied on top of the station wagon. He said that he did not recall the number of the license. He was unable to recall whethera man or a woman was driving the station wagon at the time it blocked his bus. He was also unable to state the time of day or the day of the week when this happened.

EARL SPENCER ANDERSON, Badge 171, residence address 6554 Jefferson Highway (Harahan), New Orleans 23, Louisiana, advised that he knew where the OSWALD apartment was located at 4905 Magazine Street, near Upperline. He stated that he did not recognize a photograph of OSWALD and cannot recall seeing him. He recalled seeing a station wagon parked in front of the OSWALD apartment for one or two days several months ago. He cannot state when he saw the station wagon, but remembered that it was parked in front of the OSWALD apartment for one or two days. He further recalled one evening on a trip toward Canal Street where he had stopped at the corner of Magazine and Upperline Streets to pick up a passenger. He observed a man walking on the lake side of Magazine Street at the corner of Upperline, carrying two suitcases and walking toward the bus. ANDERSON said he waited for this individual to get on the bus and that this person asked if he could put his two suitcases by the driver's seat. This individual had one small suitcase which he placed alongside the bus driver's seat and a larger suitcase which he placed in the space behind the bus driver's seat. After this individual paid his fare, he inquired as to the best route to the Greyhound Bus Station. ANDERSON said that he told him that he should stay on the Magazine bus until he got to Canal Street at which point he should transfer to a Canal streetcar going toward the lake. When this streetcar got to Elks Place, he instructed the individual to get off the streetcar and transfer to a Tulane bus at Elks Place and Canal Street which would take him to the Greyhound Bus Station, which is located on Tulane Avenue and South Claiborne Avenue. ANDERSON was unable to describe the color of the suitcases but recalled that they, although they were not new, were not in a dilapidated condition. They bore no tags or stickers to the best of his recollection. He said the small suitcase was rectangular shaped piece of luggage approximately 22 inches long. The larger suitcase was the same shape as the smaller one and it was about 29 inches long.

ANDERSON could not describe this individual except to state that he spoke in a pleasant voice and that

Mr. J. D. FUCHS, Manager, Winn-Dixie Store Number 1425, 4303 Magazine Street, Louisiana, advised as follows:

Store hours on September 24 and 25, 1963, were from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. On both dates, cash registers were cut off at 4:00 p.m. or within a few minutes thereafter to recap the days work. At the time of cut off, checks on hand in each register were removed along with the cash register tapes. The checks were then listed in total on adding machine tapes to prepare for deposit in the bank on the following day. Such deposits were picked up at the store just before 8:00 a.m. on these days and on September 26, 1963, for delivery to the main office of the National Bank of Commerce.

A deposit of $1,552.33 was credited to their account on September 26, 1963, by the National Bank of Commerce. Any check deposited at the bank on September 26, 1963, would have been cashed at the store between 4:00 p.m., September 24, and 4:00 p.m., September 25. The adding machine tapes listing the checks included in the deposit were destroyed after approximately one week, and the cash register tapes showing details of transactions were destroyed within one month.

He viewed copy of Warrant Number G459698, issued by State Comptroller of Public Accounts, Austin, Texas, dated September 23, 1963, in the amount of $33, and made payable to L. H. OSWALD, P. O. Box 30061, New Orleans, Louisiana. This warrant bears an endorsement by LEE H. OSWALD, 4707 Magazine. MR. FUCHS stated this item was okayed by him for cashing and was actually handled by Mrs. THELMA FISHER, Cashier Number 3. He noted that the warrant is endorsed for deposit to the account of Winn-Dixie Store Number 1425 through Cashier Number 3. He has no recollection of OSWALD or his wife, and has no recollection of having approved the warrant for payment.

Miss MARION SCHUBERT, Office Manager of Goldring's, 810 Canal Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a review of their personnel records disclosed that a Mrs. MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, social security number 435-22-5686, was employed by Goldring's as a sales woman from March 16, 1956 to July 31, 1956. She advised the records showed that at the time Mrs. OSWALD applied for the position, she was residing at 126 Exchange Place, New Orleans, Louisiana. The records also showed that Mrs. OSWALD stated her husband was deceased and she listed two exemptions for income purposes. Miss SCHUBERT advised the records did not indicate why Mrs. OSWALD'S services were terminated. Miss SCHUBERT did not have any personal recollection of Mrs. OSWALD working there and she could not furnish any additional information about her.

On December 10, 1963, Mr. FRANK KATZENSTEIN, President, United Shoe Stores Company of Louisiana, Inc., 2901 Lynwood Avenue, advised SA DELANE CHRISTIANSON his firm owns Jean's Hosiery, 727 Canal Street, New Orleans.

He advised he did not believe that they had retained employment records prior to 1950, however, he would check his files and advise this Bureau.

On December 11, 1963, Mr. KATZENSTEIN advised he had determined all files prior to 1950 had been destroyed. However, in searching they located an old withholding report made to the State of Louisiana, Department of Labor, for the third quarter of 1942. On this appeared the name MARGUERITE ROMBACH, Social Security Number 435-30-8034. This report showed $20.52 tax had been paid for the period July to September, 1942. This report was the only pertinent record prior to 1950, he had located.

KATZENSTEIN stated he had contacted Mrs. ILA ASHLEY, who had managed the New Orleans Store in 1943 and 1944 and she had advised him she could not recall either MARGUERITE OSWALD or MARGUERITE ROMBACH.

Louise X Hays

Laurel, Miss.

Mrs. RALPH A. HAYS, 201 East Jackson Street, stated she has known ALBERT CURTIS GRIFFIN for a number of years, having met him before she and her husband were married. She stated GRIFFIN drinks to excess frequently and is practically an alcoholic. Mrs. HAYS stated that to the best of her knowledge, GRIFFIN lives in Meridian, Mississippi.

Mrs. HAYS related that on Wednesday night, November 20, 1963, GRIFFIN came to her home around 9:00 or 9:30 PM, and visited until her husband got off from work at 11:00 PM. She said GRIFFIN acted funny and appeared to be drinking rather heavily. Shortly after her husband arrived, he and GRIFFIN left in her husband's car reportedly to take GRIFFIN to his hotel. GRIFFIN had previously indicated that he was staying at the Edwin Hotel or the Delmar Courts in Laurel, Mississippi.

Mrs. HAYS stated that when her husband returned, he told her that he and GRIFFIN had stopped at Ralph's Cafe where he had coffee and GRIFFIN drank a beer. He then left GRIFFIN at the hotel, name not mentioned.

Mrs. HAYS said that on Thursday morning, November 21, 1963, GRIFFIN called her home and asked to talk with her husband. She told him he was not there and that he should call later. She next heard from GRIFFIN shortly after midnight, Saturday, November 23, 1963, when she received a telephone call from the Jones County Community Hospital, advising that GRIFFIN was a patient there and wanted Mr. HAYS to come by and see him.

Mrs. HAYS informed that her husband tried to locate GRIFFIN at the hospital early Saturday morning but was told they had no one by that name registered. He checked several other hospitals and could not locate GRIFFIN. Mr. HAYS later learned through an associate at the Masonite Plant that GRIFFIN was actually at the Jones County Community Hospital. Mr. HAYS checked and learned that on Wednesday, November 27, 1963, GRIFFIN was to be discharged from the hospital. Mrs. HAYS stated that she went to the hospital at which time she met GRIFFIN's father, who was reportedly taking him home to Meridian, Mississippi.

Mr. RAY STRINGER, Manager, Delmar Courts, U. S. Highway #84 East, stated that he does not have any record of AUBERT CURTIS GRIFFIN registering at that establishment. He recalls that an individual fitting the description of GRIFFIN registered on November 19, 1963, listing his name as REX C. (last name illegible but believed to be AYSETAR or ARPETAR) 418 High Street, Jackson, Mississippi, representing the Harrison Guard. He said that this individual wanted to have the room on credit but he refused, due to the fact GRIFFIN was not a regular guest. Mr. STRINGER recalled that this individual stated that he was A. C. or R. C. GRIFFIN, a detective working with the Federal Government, and he, STRINGER, still refused to rent the room on credit.

Mr. STRINGER stated this individual then paid $5.00 cash and he did not see him any more until around 3:00 or 4:00 PM, afternoon of November 20, 1963, at which time he registered again, paying cash.

Mr. STRINGER stated that this individual was alone on both occasions and he arrived in a taxi on November 19, 1963.

Mr. STRINGER stated that he does not recall this individual ever having registered at the motel in the past and he has not seen him since that time.

Mrs. RUTH STRICKLAND, Route 4, states she was at Harold's Cafe, 209 Central Avenue on the date President JOHN F. KENNEDY was assassinated. She recalls that shortly after President KENNEDY was killed, Mr. CLARENCE RHODES, a barber next door to the cafe came and told them about the assassination. 11:50.

Mrs. STRICKLAND advised that some time prior to receiving the news concerning the death of President KENNEDY, a white male about 40, 6'1", 160 - 165 pounds, slender build, with black wavy hair came in the cafe. He appeared to be drinking at the time and while in the cafe drank two or three beers.

Mrs. STRICKLAND states that this person was in the cafe for possibly two or three hours. He claimed to be a private detective from New Orleans, Louisiana, and he was reportedly looking for some woman in Laurel. He exhibited a photograph of this woman but never indicated why he wanted to locate her or mention any name. Mrs. STRICKLAND said this person had been staying at Bud Stringer's Motel, for one or two nights before coming to Harold's Cafe.

Mrs. STRICKLAND informed that this individual was present in the cafe when Mr. RHODES told them about President KENNEDY being killed.

Mr. RALPH A. HAYS, also known as "ARCHIE," 201 East Jackson Street, advised that he has known AUBERT CURTIS GRIFFIN for several years, having met him while he, GRIFFIN, was working for the Lance Company, which deals with potato chips, cookies, etc. Mr. HAYS stated GRIFFIN left Laurel and moved to Meridian, Mississippi, where he had been living for the past several years.

Mr. HAYS stated that he met GRIFFIN at his home around 11:00 PM on November 20, 1963. He stated that when he arrived home, GRIFFIN was there and was drinking rather heavily. Mr. HAYS stated they had a cup of coffee and he offered to drive GRIFFIN to his hotel. They left and on the way downtown, GRIFFIN suggested that they stop and have a beer. GRIFFIN got a beer and he, HAYS, had a cup of coffee at Ralph's Cafe. While they were in the cafe, GRIFFIN tried to get him to cash a check for him or to have the manager of the cafe cash a check, which he, HAYS, refused to do, stating that the reason he did not do this was the fact that GRIFFIN was heavily under the influence of alcohol at the time.

Mr. HAYS informed that after leaving Ralph's Cafe, GRIFFIN indicated that he was staying at the Edwin Hotel and wanted to be driven there. Mr. HAYS stated he stopped in front of the hotel and GRIFFIN got out and walked towards the entrance. He did not know if GRIFFIN registered there or not and did not see him any more after that time.

Mr. HAYS recalled that his wife told him about receiving a telephone call from the Jones County Community Hospital early Saturday morning, November 23, 1963, reporting that GRIFFIN was a patient and wanted Mr. HAYS to stop by and see him. Mr. PETER J. CONNOLLY, Manager, Edwin Hotel, 207 North Maple Street, advised he recalls a man who used to be the route salesman for the Lance Peanut Company coming to the hotel on Wednesday, November 20, 1963, around 1:00 or 2:00 p.m., requesting a room. Mr. CONNOLLY did not require this person to register since the hotel is being closed and no customers are being registered. The only reason this man was allowed to stay was due to his being a former guest.

Mr. CONNOLLY advised this person appeared to be "goofy" at the time he came to the hotel. This man was acting rather strange and appeared to be under the influence of alcohol or narcotics. The man left the hotel shortly after he made arrangements for the room and returned around 6:00 p.m. He borrowed his, CONNOLLY's, razor and shaved. This man left the hotel again around 9:00 p.m. and did not return until shortly before midnight.

On Thursday, November 21, 1963, this man was in and out of the hotel all day. He again borrowed Mr. CONNOLLY's razor and shaved during the late afternoon. Mr. CONNOLLY said this person was drinking rather [illegible] and was in general an unwelcome guest. Mr. CONNOLLY talked with his son, EDWIN P. CONNOLLY, and they decided to ask this man to check out of the hotel Friday morning, November 22, 1963.

Mr. CONNOLLY stated this person came through the hotel lobby around 9:00 or 10:00 a.m., Friday, November 22, 1963, and was told he was being checked out of the hotel. This individual left walking east on Central Avenue toward the railroad.

Mr. CONNOLLY advised that MAJOR RENO, owner, Seafood Cafe, next door to the hotel, knew this person since he ate most of his meals there during the time he was at the hotel.

MILITARY SERVICE U. S. MARINE CORPS

Date 12/11/63

1 Colonel JOHN C. EVERS, Commander, 3380th Technical School, Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, advised there are no records on Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, to verify the attendance of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in any of the courses of instruction held in the past. He advised that the best and most authentic verification of such attendance is the document entitled, "Summary Student Record of Technical Training", of OSWALD on file at the Personnel Records Center, St. Louis, Missouri. He said that if that document reflects that OSWALD attended a course entitled, "Aircraft Control and Warning Operator", (AC&WO), then such course was attended.

Colonel EVERS stated also that the "201" personnel file of OSWALD, maintained by the Marine Corps when OSWALD was in service, and retired after his discharge, would contain a copy of such a record.

Colonel EVERS said the AC & WO courses held in 1957 were for members of the Air Force, and that during that interval of 1957, several hundred U. S. Marines took the course. He stated at that time it was a 180 hour, six-week course.

EVERS said he knew of no way to identify any of the instructors OSWALD may have had during the three-phase, six-week course of instruction. He said the course of instruction is very similar to that presently conducted, but it has been extended from six to a seven-week course, and that the School Operations Officer will be able to advise as to the course of instruction.

Colonel EVERS advised that in the personnel file of OSWALD there will be found a copy of the orders sending him from his Marine Corps assignment to Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, to attend the course of instructions. He said that in all probability that order will contain the names of other Marine Corps personnel who perhaps traveled to Keesler Air Force Base with OSWALD, may have attended the same course with him, lived in the same housing accommodations with him, and may have departed on return to Marine Corps assignments with him. He said that the personnel file will, or should contain, a chronological account of the whereabouts of OSWALD during the entire tenure of his Marine Corps service, and that the various orders in his file are the key to further inquiries as to him, either at Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, or at any other place he was merely attached or assigned for a duty period.

Colonel EVERS stated also that a copy of OSWALD's graduation orders from the AC & WO course will be found in OSWALD's personnel file, and this order will contain the names of other Marine Corps students who graduated with him and should likewise contain their respective Marine service or serial numbers, enabling them to be located.

EVERS said there is no roster at Keesler Air Force Base to identify those who attended the course with OSWALD. EVERS said if OSWALD were in the Marine Corps beginning in 1956, he would not have had the rank to justify off-base housing, and that OSWALD would have been billeted on the base, but there was no way to determine to which barracks he may have been assigned at the time.

Lt. Col. DAVID E. MYERS, School Operations Officer, 3380th Technical School, Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, under which is operated the Aircraft Control and Warning Operator course (AC and WO), Keesler AFB, Mississippi, advised that since 1957, the course has been extended to seven instead of six weeks; that basically the course is composed of three phases, and that this was the case in 1957, during May and June.

He said the first phase was the Introduction and Familiarization one for a two-week period, followed by two-week phases of Procedures and Operations, Parts I and II.

MYERS made available a copy of the current AC & WO course chart dated August 26, 1963, which describes the course as follows:

Course Material - UNCLASSIFIED 36 hours
BLOCK I - AC & W (Manual) Familiarization

Orientation (7 hours); Air defense system (7 hours); Basic radar principles (3 hours); Communications procedures (3 hours); Weather (12 hours); GEOREF and ZULU time (2 hours); Measurement and critique (2 hours).

Course Material - UNCLASSIFIED 36 hours
BLOCK II - Air Surveillance Operations

Surveillance procedures (3 hrs); Simulated surveillance operation (3 hrs); Range height indicator procedures (3 hrs); Simulated range height indicator operations (3 hrs); Plotting, telling, and recording procedures (4 hrs); Simulated plotting, telling, and recording operations (6 hrs); Tactical mission data, weather, weapons, and electronic status board plotting procedures (5 hrs); Simulated plotting operations (7 hrs); Measurement and critique (2 hrs).

Course Material - UNCLASSIFIED 48 hours
BLOCK III - Direction Center Operations

Movement and identification section procedures (2 hrs); Control section procedures (1 hr); Surveillance station operating procedures (1 hr); IFF operating procedures (1 hr);

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Simulated direction center operations (41 hrs); Measurement and critique (2 hrs).

Course Material - UNCLASSIFIED 90 hours
BLOCK IV - Simulated AC & W Operations

Control center operating procedures (1 hr); ECM and ECCM characteristics and capabilities (4 hrs); Simulated AC & W operations (78 hrs); Measurement and critique (7 hrs).

He said that in 1957, this course was a "high-flow" one and that several hundred students entered the course each week. He said there is no way to determine who OSWALD's instructor or instructors may have been, unless some of his fellow students recall their names, as no records are available to so identify them.

INVESTIGATION

M/Sgt. JAMES S. KING, Category Test Branch, School Operations, 3380 Technical School, Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, advised that in 1957 he was an Instructor-Supervisor on "A" Shift, of Course ABR-27330, or the Aircraft Control and Warning Operators Course. (AC and WO). He said hundreds of U. S. Marines were taking this course during that year, and all were assigned to "A" Shift, meaning the period from 6:00 AM to noon, Monday through Friday. He said he never knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor does he remember this name.

KING said he recalled that all of the Marines taking this course of instruction were housed in barracks of the 3386th School Squadron. They were all kept together and he does not recall that Air Force and Marine students were mixed. He said there is no way to tell who may have been billeted in the barracks with OSWALD; that there is no way to be certain just which barracks building had been used to house the Marines, or the one OSWALD may have lived in.

Advice was also furnished by KING, that the orders putting OSWALD in the AC & WO course, and ordering him back to his regular duty station, might contain names of other Marines moving on those same orders, and these persons might recall OSWALD. KING said he was quite certain none of the short-course Marine students had been given permission to have off-base housing. He said that Major TONY PUMA, he believed, was the Commanding Officer of Squadron 3386 at the time,e.g., 1957; that PUMA is now retired and believed to be residing somewhere in New York State. KING said that PUMA had no director personal contact with the "high-flow" students, did not come in contact with them; that he would be unlikely to know any of those taking the course.

M/Sgt. KING related that the Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge for the Marine Corps, taking the AC & WO Course at Keesler AFB, during 1957, was a M/Sgt. (FNU) SLATER, who later went to the Naval Base at San Diego, California, as a Warrant Officer, and may now be retired, since his location is unknown for the past several years. He said SLATER was assigned to look after those Marine students who came to Keesler Air Force Base to take the course; that SLATER was a Marine and was assisted by a then S/Sgt. (FNU) GILPIN, and a Sgt. (FNU) GAMBLE. He said these men were, so far as he knew, all assigned to the Marine Corps, but were merely attached to Keesler AFB, Mississippi, to assist in the problems that might arise with the students of the Marines who attended. He said SLATER conducted the barracks inspections, etc., kept all records for the Marines of those in attendance at the course. He said he did not know where GILPIN and/or GAMBLE could be found. He said he obtained these names from his personal files at his residence and knew of no place, except the Marine Corps, where their identities in full, or present locations could be found.

KING said that so far as he knew, all Marines attending the AC & WO course lived in barracks on the base at Keesler Air Force Base, during the tenure of the course.

1 MR. HOYT F. MARSHALL, 3010 DeSoto Street, was interviewed at his place of employment, George Sproull Company, Inc., 3124 Mansfield Road, at which time he furnished the following information:

He said his wife, EVA M. MARSHALL, the wife and three children of his grandson, HERBERT LEON LEE, all live at the above residence with him. He said his grandson, who will be 21 in January, 1964, formerly worked at Shreveport as a floor layer and also worked with HUB BRANDAO and his orchestra as a piano player. He stated further that on or about September 1, 1963, LEE went to Dallas, Texas, where he has since been employed as a floor layer with the Trinity Floor Company.

Louisiana Texas Shreveport 1963

MARSHALL stated his grandson telephones his wife and children once or twice each week, and these calls are both prepaid and collect. MARSHALL said his grandson is the only one who has called his home from Dallas, Texas, since September 1, 1963. He said he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY prior to recent publicity, and to his knowledge, none of the other members of his family had either.

He advised his daughter JANICE was employed at the First National Bank, Dallas, but resigned her job during December, 1962 and about three months ago, returned to Dallas, seeking employment. He said his daughter JANE went to Dallas about two weeks ago and is employed with the Floyd West Insurance Company at Dallas, Texas.

He said his daughters have contacted him by telephone during the period of September 29, 1963 through October 25, 1963 some six times and Mr. PIERCE has called twice. He said the reason for so many long distance telephone calls during this period was that his employer, Mrs. N. L. ADAMS was killed in an automobile accident in the State of Texas during the middle of October, 1963.

He stated the only time he had ever seen ROY PIERCE was during the last of October, 1963 when he stopped for a visit at their home in Rodessa, Louisiana. He advised PIERCE was on his way to a job located at Texarkana, Arkansas.

JAMES S. GRANT, ASN US 54345777, Company B, First Training Regiment, Fort Polk, Louisiana, advised upon interview that unlisted Houston telephone number MI 5-8887 was assigned to him on or about July 8, 1963. GRANT and his mother, DOROTHY STANFORD GAYLIN, reside at 5803 Southford Street, Houston. GRANT requested unlisted number from phone company due to numerous unsolicited sales calls on previously listed number and shortly after receiving above unlisted number, he received telephone bill indicating toll calls to various locations. He recalls that one call was to Florida. Upon checking with telephone company, he was advised that the previous subscriber to the above number had failed to pay his bill and inadvertently GRANT had been billed for these calls. He advises no further difficulty concerning long distance calls arose.

GRANT entered the U. S. Army as a draftee on October 21, 1963, and during period of July, 1963, to October, 1963, he never personally received or placed a long distance call from or to Dallas, Texas. He has no friends, associates, or relatives in the Dallas, Texas, area. He advised it is possible his mother, who had free use of the telephone, may have received such a call, but he does not believe so as to his knowledge his mother, who was raised in the Mexia, Texas, area, has not been in contact with distant relatives in that area for many years. To his knowledge, only his grandparents, who live in Corpus Christi, Texas, his stepfather, SAMUEL GAYLIN, presently separated from his mother and residing in Houston, and the Abbot of the Benedictine Monastery in Corpus Christi, were furnished with his unlisted number. He has no friends who have used his phone nor has he given permission for any friend or other person to receive calls at his residence in Houston. He does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and the only knowledge he has of these persons is through newspsper accounts. He specifically denies receiving a phone call or any other contact from LEE HARVEY OSWALD at any time. The only organization he has ever joined is the Knights of Columbus.

Baton Rouge Louisiana

HENRY J. ROUSSEL, JR., 2156 Elisgalde Street, advised that he served in the U. S. Marine Corps from July 31, 1959, to June 20, 1960, and that he presently is a first year law student at Louisiana State University. ROUSSEL advised that while in the Marine Corps he served for approximately three or four months with LEE HARVEY OSWALD at MCAF, El Toro, California, in MAC #9.

ROUSSEL advised at this time he was Acting Lance Corporal and that OSWALD was a private. He stated that he was not a close acquaintance of OSWALD as they did not bunk in the same hut and as they were only on work details together on three or four occasions.

ROUSSEL advised that he did, however, get a "date" for his aunt, ROSALEE QUINN, a stewardess for Pan American Airways, with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that at the time that he did this, his aunt was home on a leave of absence from Pan American and had driven to California with him. He stated that his aunt was studying the Russian language in an effort to secure employment with the U. S. State Department and he knew that OSWALD had also been studying the Russian language and this was the reason that he arranged the date. ROUSSEL stated that he does not know any of the details as to where his aunt and OSWALD went or what they might have talked about during this date.

He stated that in addition to studying Russian, he believes that OSWALD also studied the German language, however, he, ROUSSEL did not know of any other languages or political dogma that OSWALD may have been interested in. He stated that he never engaged in any private conversation with OSWALD nor did he ever talk "politics" with OSWALD.

ROUSSEL advised that OSWALD, on occasion, when addressing others would refer to them as "Comrade" Smith or whatever their last name was. He stated he thought OSWALD was doing this as a joke and that he and most of the fellows did, in turn, call OSWALD "Comrade" OSWALD.

ROUSSEL stated that he did not know any associates or friends of OSWALD's and that the only person to his knowledge

The following inquiries were made by SA ROBERT M. WHOMSLEY on December 11 and 12, 1963:

Mr. P. C. SPEDALE, Louisiana owner, Crescent Gun and repair Company, 2401 South Claiborne Avenue, stated that in his opinion the sling described as having been on the rifle of LEE HARVEY OSWALD is undoubtedly a target sling. In this regard he stated that he had never seen a sling black and brown in color and that they are all naturally oiled leather, brown in color. He said there are no distributors in New Orleans for leather products, i.e. holsters, slings and so forth. He said that in addition to his concern, there are two other firms in New Orleans dealing almost exclusively in firearms.

Mr. ARTHUR T. TURNER, gunsmith, and Mr. LEE YAGERTON, Manager, New Orleans Arms Company, Inc., 240 Chartres Street, both commented in the manner of Mr. SPEDALE. Louisiana

Mr. FRANK MORENO, Manager, Security Company, 3604 South Carrollton Avenue, likewise commented in the manner of those individuals noted above.

A photograph of OSWALD was shown to those individuals indicated and all informed he is unknown to them and has never been known to have done business in their respective businesses.

The individuals named below were contacted at their respective places of business and all advised they had never seen a rifle sling of the description of that found on the rifle of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. In addition it was learned that they receive very few orders to make rifle slings to precise specifications for customers, and, in addition never made one to order for OSWALD. When shown a photograph of OSWALD, all informed he is unknown to them and was never known to be in their respective companies:

LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA, IS DASH R DASH CUBA.

MARINA OSWALD WAS INTERVIEWED TODAY. SHE ADVISED SHE DOES NOT RECALL WHEN OSWALD BOUGHT SUBJECT RIFLE NOR DID SHE KNOW WHERE HE OBTAINED THE RIFLE UNTIL SHE FOUND OUT FROM PUBLICITY RESULTING FROM ASSASSINATION. SHE KNOWS OSWALD HAD THE RIFLE AT THE NEELY ADDRESS BUT DOES NOT KNOW HOW IT WAS TRANSPORTED TO NEW ORLEANS. OSWALD LEFT FOR NEW ORLEANS ABOUT TWO WEEKS BEFORE SHE DID. HE PACKED SEVERAL BOXES OF BELONGINGS WHICH HE SENT TO NEW ORLEANS VIA BUS THE DAY BEFORE HE LEFT. OTHER THINGS HE PACKED AND LEFT WITH MARINA, WHO STAYED AT THE PAINE RESIDENCE. SHE DOES NOT KNOW IF THE RIFLE WAS IN THE EFFECTS LEFT WITH HER OR THE EFFECTS SENT TO NEW ORLEANS BY OSWALD. SHE AGAIN REMEMBERS SEEING THE RIFLE WHEN THEY WERE SETTLED IN NEW ORLEANS. HE KEPT THE RIFLE IN A ROOM WHERE HE KEPT PERSONAL THINGS INCLUDING PAPERS, CORRESPONDENCE. THIS WAS THE SAME ROOM IN CHICH HE DIRECT THE QUOTE HANDS OFF CUBA UNQUOTE THROWAWAYS. END

62 JAN 6 1964

SHE DID NOT SEE HIM LEAVE WITH THE RIFLE NOR RETURN WITH THE RIFLE AT ANY TIME FROM THEIR RESIDENCE IN NEW ORLEANS.

HE NEVER SPOKE OF PRACTICING WITH THE RIFLE EITHER IN NEW ORLEANS OR DALLAS. SHE SAW NO AMMUNITION FOR THE RIFLE EITHER IN DALLAS OR NEW ORLEANS.

SHE DOES NOT KNOW EXACTLY HOW THE RIFLE WAS TRANSPORTED BACK FROM NEW ORLEANS TO DALLAS. SHE SAID THE NEXT TIME SHE REMEMBERS SEEING IT AFTER THEY BROKE UP HOUSEKEEPING IN NEW ORLEANS WAS WHEN SHE SAW IT WRAPPED UP IN THE BLANKET IN THE PAINE-S GARAGE. SHE KNEW IT WAS A RIFLE BECAUSE ON ONE OCCASION SHE WAS LOOKING FOR SOME STEEL LEGS FOR HER BABY JUNE-S OLD AND OPENED A CORNER OF THE BLANKET AND NOTICED THE STOCK OF THE RIFLE.

ON THE DAY OF THE ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT, WHEN SHE HEARD THAT THE PRESIDENT HAD BEEN SHOT SUPPOSEDLY FROM A WINDOW OF THE SCHOOL BOOK DEPOSITORY, SHE THOUGHT OF OSWALD-S RIFLE AND WENT TO THE GARAGE TO CHECK ON IT AND THE BLANKET SEEMED TO BE SHAPED IN ITS USUAL WAY AND

END PAGE TWO

SHE THOUGHT THE RIFLE WAS IN IT. SHE WAS SURPRISED WHEN THE POLICE ON NOVEMBER TWENTYSECOND IN SEARCHING THE GARAGE FOUND THE BLANKET EMPTY.

MARINA STATED SHE HAD INSISTED ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS THAT OSWALD BUY A CAR BUT HE OBJECTED THAT HE DID NOT HAVE SUFFICIENT MONEY TO BUY IT, AND, FURTHER, THE CAR WOULD REQUIRE REPAIRS. SHE KNOWS OF NO OCCASION WHEN HE SAW ANYONE ABOUT THE PUCHASE OF AN AUTOMOBILE OR MENTIONED TO HER THAT HE HAD SEEN SOMEONE OR INTENDED SEEING SOMEONE ABOUT THE PURCHASE OF AN AUTOMOBILE.

MARINA STATED OSWALD COULD NOT SPEAK SPANISH. SHE BOUGHT A SELF BASH STUDY BOOK ON SPANISH LANGUAGE IN RUSSIA AND HE WOULD ON OCCASION ATTEMPT TO PRONOUNCE SPANISH WORDS BUT HIS PRONUNCIATION WAS BAD AND SHE LAUGHED AT HIS PRONUNCIATION. HE DID NOT SPEAK FRENCH OR GERMAN NOR ANY OTHER LANGUAGE EXCEPT ENGLISH AND RUSSIAN. HE SPOKE RUSSIAN WELL. MARINA CAN NEITHER SPEAK NOR UNDERSTAND NOR READ ANY OTHER LANGUAGE EXCEPT RUSSIAN.

OSWALD SPOKE ONLY RARELY ABOUT HIS MILITARY SERVICE. HE LEFT THE IMPRESSION THAT HE HAD ENJOYED IT. HE

END PAGE THREE

HE RECALLED ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS THE PRETTY JAPANESE GIRLS THAT HE HAD MET WHILE IN THE SERVICE.

MARINA RELATED AGAIN PARTICULARS OF HER VACATION TRIP TO KHARKOV, RUSSIA, IN NINETEEN SIXTYONE. THE TRIP WAS A VACATION TRIP ALLOWED HER BY THE GOVERNMENT. SHE RECALLS IT OCCURRED IN OCTOBER AS SHE WAS GONE ON OCTOBER EIGHTEEN, OSWALD-S BIRTHDAY. THE TRIP WAS OF THREE WEEKS DURATION BEING ABOUT OCTOBER TWENTYTHREE, NINETEEN SIXTYONE. SHE STAYED WITH HER AUNT AND HER HUSBAND, POLINA VASILIEVANA AND YURI MIKHAILOV. YURI HOLDS A VERY RESPONSIBLE POSITION AS AN ENGINEER IN THE BUILDING TRADES PROGRAM IN KHARKOV. SHE BELIEVES HE IS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY. ON HER VACATION, SHE RESTED BUT DID NOT DO MUCH AS SHE WAS PREGNANT.

MARINA DENIES SHE WAS EVER QUESTIONED BY ANY SOVIET MILITARY INTELLIGENCE OFFICER.

SHE STATED OSWALD DID NOT CONSULT HER ABOUT THE MATERIAL HE WROTE FOR WHAT SHE TOUGHT WAS A BOOK. SHE DOES NOT KNOW IT AS A DIARY. THE MATERIAL HE WAS WRITING WAS A SECRET. IT WAS IN ENGLISH AND SHE COULD NOT READ IT.

END PAGE FOUR

SHE SAID OSWALD RARELY MISSED A CHANCE TO GLORIFY HIMSELF AND THAT EVERYTHING HE DID WAS TO GET HIS NAME IN HISTORY. SHE BELIEVES THAT HIS STATEMENT THAT HE WAS A MARXIST IS NOT CORRECT BUT ONLY A STATEMENT THAT HE MADE TO DRAW ATTENTION TO HIMSELF.

SHE VOLUNTEERED THE INFORMATION THAT THERE HAD BEEN A PUBLISHED REPORT THAT OSWALD WAS A HOMOSEXUAL, WHICH WAS COMPLETELY FALSE.

SHE SAID SHE LAUGHED AT OSWALD-S IDEAS AND THE POLITICAL STATEMENTS HE WOULD MAKE AND THAT THIS WAS THE REASON THEY QUARRELED SO FREQUENTLY AS HE WOULD GET MAD AT HER FOR LAUGHING AT HIM. SHE SAID SHE WANTED A DIVORCE FROM OSWALD BECAUSE OF HIS CRAZY IDEAS AND POLITICAL OPINIONS THAT HE EXPRESSED.

CONCERNING THE FAREWELL NOTE LEFT BY OSWALD ON THE NIGHT OF THE ATTEMPTED WALKER ASSASSINATION, MARINA SAID OSWALD HAD LEFT THE HOUSE SUPPOSEDLY TO ATTEND A TYPEWRITING CLASS. WHEN HE HAD NOT RETURNED AT ABOUT TEN O-CLOCK SHE BECAME WORRIED AND WENT INTO THE ROOM WHERE HE KEPT HIS PERSONAL PAPERS AND EFFECTS. SHE BELIEVES SHE WENT TO THIS

FOUND THROUGH INTUITION. ON TOP OF A LITTLE END TABLE SHE FOUND THE NOTE AND THE KEY TO THE MAIL BOX. WHEN SHE READ THE NOTE QUOTE HER HAIR STOOD UP UNQUOTE. SHE COULD NOT UNDERSTAND WHAT OSWALD MEANT BY HIS REFERENCE TO BEING TAKEN A PRISONER. IN HER MIND THERE WAS A DEFINITE CONNECTION BETWEEN THE NOTE AND OSWALD-S TARDINESS IN RETURNING HOME. SHE DID NOT KNOW WHAT TO DO OR TO WHOM TO DO AS SHE DID NOT SPEAK ENGLISH. SHE WALKED AROUND THE APARTMENT, BATHED HER DAUGHTER JUNE, AND WAITED. SHE DOES NOT RECALL EXACTLY WHAT SHE DID WITH THE NOTE ON THE EVENING OF THE ATTEMPTED WALKER ASSASSINATION BUT RECALLS THAT LATER SHE PUT IT IN HER COOKBOOK AND IT STAYED THERE AS FAR AS SHE KNOWS. THERE IS NO QUESTION IN HER MIND BUT THAT THE AUTHOR OF THE NOTE IS OSWALD.

INTERVIEW WILL BE CONTINUED TOMORROW.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Mr. Hoover,

A number of years ago when I was editorial writer for the Quincy Patriot Ledger in Massachusetts I had the privilege of commending you editorially upon the completion of, as I remember, 30 years as Director of the F.B.I. You graciously acknowledged the compliment in a letter to our paper and I am sure you must have a copy of your letter in your files.

In connection with the Sinatra case here in Los Angeles, however, I wish to express a concern that the excellent reputation of the FBI may have been done some harm. If so, this would only serve to make your already difficult job of apprehending criminals more difficult in the future.

The failure of the FBI to keep watch on Mr. Oswald in Dallas has lead to some public disenchantment, I fear. If, in addition, there is a suspicion that FBI secrecy is being used to mask unusual aspects of the Sinatra case on behalf of the Attorney General, a known friend of Sinatra, I believe this would be most unfortunate. — UNREC.

Sinatra is commonly felt to be a consorter with criminals. He also happens to be a strong Democrat and a friend of the Kennedys, to their loss. Chief Parker is a highly respected official.

I fervently hope that the personal friendships of the Attorney General will not influence the position of the FBI in the Sinatra case.

With best wishes,

Richard L. England

December 26, 1963

Mr. Richard L. England
8106 Fordham Road
Los Angeles 45, California

Dear Mr. England:

I have received your letter of December 15th and want to thank you for your interest in this Bureau. We in the FBI appreciate observations from the general public concerning various investigations we have conducted. We also welcome criticism when it is based on fact rather than speculation.

With regard to the Frank Sinatra, Jr., kidnaping case, this crime took place in an area far removed from Los Angeles. During this far-ranging, fast-moving case, some situations arose which made it necessary for us to request local authorities for assistance and man power. In every instance when this was done, complete cooperation was immediately received.

It was regrettable that some who could not be aware of all the factors saw fit to prematurely criticize our endeavors. This Bureau was guided throughout the investigation by the primary desire to obtain the victim's safe return and thereafter apprehend the kidnapers and recover the ransom. These motives governed all decisions in the handling of this investigation. At no time during this case has the FBI criticized any other law enforcement agency.

In connection with the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, literally thousands of people come to our attention each year who have exhibited unusual behavior or have expressed unorthodox views. However, it would be wrong for this Bureau to inundate the Secret Service with the names of people unless there was some reason to suspect that these persons were potential threats. The FBI was investigating Lee Harvey Oswald. He had indicated through his actions and statements that he advocated principles contrary to the best interests of the United States. His background and activities fully justified our action concerning him but the data we had regarding Oswald gave absolutely no clue indicating he was a potential assassin.

Records of Volusia County SO disclose that ROBERT LEE TARIN, aka William J. Rhode, arrested by SO, DeLand, on 11/30/63, in possession of 1963 Ford station wagon, color white, bearing 1963 Texas tag KR1901. TARIN arrested after he had fled from Orlando, Fla., on 11/30/63, taking with him a Sears Roebuck employee and an off duty Orlando police officer who had attempted to arrest him on worthless check charges. Subject indicated he would submit to arrest but desired to contact his attorney and after the two men got in subject's car he fled toward DeLand at a high rate of speed.

TARIN's wife, MARY ELAINE, was arrested by Orlando PD on 11/30/63, at Orlando motel and was interviewed by Orlando authorities. Car driven by TARIN returned to Orlando and last known to have been in the custody of Orlando PD. MARY ELAINE TARIN was never brought to DeLand, Fla.

On 12/20/63, ROBERT LEE TARIN, DOB 1/15/17, FBI #3840858, presently held Volusia County Jail on numerous worthless check charges and detainer's filed against him by Panama City, St. Augustine, Jacksonville, Orlando and USM, Jacksonville.

TARIN claims has resided in San Antonio since 1920 and at 802 West Mayfield Street since 1943 and employed as a building contractor. Admits incarceration in Texas State Penitentiary, Huntsfield, on 10/22/57, on forgery charge and there contracted diabetes. TARIN claims arrested on peace warrant by San Antonio PD on 1/4/63, and remained in jail until about 9/15/63. He thereafter met his wife, MARY ELAINE, whom he married at Laredo, Texas, in 1962, at her father's home in Altascosa, Texas. With his wife they moved into 620 Essex Street, San Antonio, and within several days thereafter claims he and his wife took Greyhound Bus from Laredo to San Antonio taking with them their three children. TARIN claimed that he, wife and children crossed into Mexico on foot and denied that he had ever had or applied for a Mexican tourist card. Later TARIN said he and his wife had crossed into Mexico by bus and still later he denied that he and his wife had been to Mexico at any time. He claims loss of memory due to diabetic condition and lack of insulin. He claimed he has never lived in Dallas, does not know OSWALD and has never seen and never heard of him until after the President was assassinated.

It appears that TARIN and his wife may have crossed into Mexico in the 1963 Ford station wagon mentioned above since this car was still in San Antonio on unknown date in September, 1963.

SAN ANTONIO - At Altascosa, Texas: Will interview MARY ELAINE TARIN.

TAMPA - At Orlando, Fla.: Will interview Captain BEACH, Orlando PD, for results of interview with subject's wife while confined Orlando City Jail.

DATE: 12/31/63

FROM: R. H. Jevons

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA.;
IS - R - CUBA

The Dallas Office submitted to the Laboratory a blue jacket which was recovered from the Texas School Book Depository on 12/16/63. This jacket was positively identified as being Oswald's by his wife and was submitted for gunpowder residue, hair and fiber examinations.

Several head hairs were found in the debris removed from this jacket that microscopically matched known head hairs from Oswald.

None of the textile fibers previously removed from the rifle used in Mr. Kennedy's assassination could be associated with this jacket and no gunpowder residues were found on the jacket.

A report setting out the above results is being prepared.

SUBJECT:
LEE HARVEY OSWALD
Internal Security - R - Cuba

Deputy AG Katzenbach advised he had received a telephone call from Ralph Dungan, Special Assistant to the President, at the White House. Dungan, in turn, had received a report entitled "POSSIBLE PSYCHOLOGICAL MOTIVATIONS IN THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY," written by Jose I. Lasaga. According to Dungan, Lasaga is a scholar, a former university professor, and a recognized authority in the field of psychology.

Much of the factual data on which Dr. Lasaga's report is predicated has come from public sources. The matter was brought to our attention, however, by Katzenbach, because of one item contained in the report. This item is to the effect that the author ascertained through very reliable sources that Oswald held an extended interview with the Cuban Ambassador, in Mexico. He allegedly met the Ambassador in a restaurant on the outskirts of the city and they both got into the Ambassador's automobile so they could talk without being overheard.

The White House asked Dr. Lasaga for the source of this information. He said he secured it from Angel Fernandez Varela, an employee of the Voice of Cuba, in Miami, who in turn secured it from Salvador D. Yerson, who was in Mexico after the President's assassination doing investigative work.

In checking with the Domestic Intelligence Division it has been ascertained that this is the first time such an allegation has been made. Since the author has named specific individuals as being knowledgeable about this reported meeting with the Cuban Ambassador, we should run it out. Katzenbach is giving us a copy of Dr. Lasaga's report which will be reviewed at the Bureau. The Department is also making a copy of the report available to the Warren Commission.

ACTION BEING TAKEN:

If you approve, we will instruct Miami and, if necessary, the Legat in Mexico City, to conduct necessary investigation with regard to the alleged meeting with the Cuban Ambassador.

Mrs. Hal Davison, 4047 Tuxedo Road, AT, Georgia, advised SA Charles S. Harding on 12-16-63 that she has never met subject and has never corresponded with him. Mrs. Davison advised that her maiden name is Natalia Alekseevna.

She stated that her son Aleksis was formerly the Embassy Doctor at the American Embassy in the Soviet Union. She stated that one of his jobs was to examine people leaving the Soviet Union for entry into the U.S. and she believes her son may have examined subject or his wife upon their departure from the Soviet Union and have given them her address since she is of Russian background.

On 1-3-64 a representative of the U.S. Air Force advised that Alexis H. Davison, former Assistant Air Attache at American Embassy, Moscow, was discharged from the Air Force 6-6-63. At that time his forwarding address was listed as 431 Riverside Drive, New York, New York.

RE PHILADELPHIA TELETYPE DECEMBER TWO LAST.

FORMER ASSOCIATE OF OSWALD. FOLLOWING INVESTIGATION BY SA ORVILLE N. MOLMEN ON DECEMBER THREE INSTANT. AT SALINAS, CALIFORNIA. JAMES ANTHONY BOTELHO, EIGHT TWO ZERO W. ALISAL ST., SALINAS, CALIFORNIA, ADVISED HE WAS IN MARINE CORPS FROM JANUARY EIGHT, FIFTY-SEVEN TO JANUARY EIGHT, SIXTY, AND SERVED WITH OSWALD FROM ABOUT MARCH TO SEPTEMBER, FIFTYNINE, WHILE THEY WERE ATTACHED TO MARINE AIR CONTROL SQUADRON NUMBER NINE, MARINE CORPS AIR FACILITY, SANTA ANA, CALIF. OLWALD RECEIVED HARDSHIP DISCHARGE IN ABOUT SEPTEMBER, FIFTYNINE TO HELP HIS MOTHER. HAD NO INDICATION OSWALD GOING TO RUSSIA UNTIL BOTELHO'S PARENTS SENT HIM UPI RELEASE DATELINED MOSCOW IN ABOUT SEPTEMBER OR OCTOBER, FIFTYNINE WHICH INDICATED OSWALD WOULD STAY IN RUSSIA SINCE HE WAS NOT HAPPY UNDER U.S. CAPITALISM.

END PAGE ONE

SINCE OSWALD/S DEFECTION RECEIVED SO LITTLE PUBLICITY, BOTELHO THOUGHT OSWALD MIGHT HAVE BEEN SPY FOR US. WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN AS SURPRISED IF OSWALD WOULD HAVE GONE TO CUBA BECAUSE HE ONCE MENTIONED HE WOULD LIKE TO GO TO CUBA TO TRAIN CASTRO/S TROOPS BECAUSE OF THE MONEY HE WOULD EARN.

BOTELHO SHARED SAME ROOM WITH OSWALD THE TWO MONTHS PRIOR TO OSWALD/S DISCHARGE. OSWALD VERY UNUSUAL PERSON IN THAT HE WOULD NOT SPEAK UNLESS SPOKEN TO AND HIS ANSWERS WERE ALWAYS BRIEF. HE ASSOCIATED WITH OTHERS AS LITTLE AS POSSIBLE. OSWALD SUBSCRIBED TO RUSSIAN LANGUAGE NEWSPAPER HE SAID WAS PUBLISHED IN SAN FRANCISCO AND TO WHICH HE STATED HE FIRST SUBSCRIBED WHILE IN TOKYO SO THAT HE COULD LEARN RUSSIAN LANGUAGE. NEVER GAVE ANY REASON FOR HIS INTEREST IN RUSSIAN LANGUAGE.

RICHARD CALL IN ANOTHER LANGUAGE, BEGAN CALLING OSWALD QUOTE OSWALDSKOVICH PAREN PHONETIC END PAREN END QUOTE AND OTHER MARINES CONTINUED TO DO THIS. ONE DAY BOTELHO CALLED HIM OSWALD AND OSWALD

REQUESTED THAT HE CONTINUE TO CALL HIM OSWALDSKOVICH AND WAS SERIOUS IN HIS COMMENT. BOTELHO ADVISED THAT MARINES ALSO BEGAN TO ANSWER OSWALD BY USING EXPRESSIONS LIKE QUOTE DA END QUOTE AND QUOTE NYET END QUOTE AND OSWALD WOULD SOMETIMES TALK TO THEM IN RUSSIAN. RICHARD CALL ALSO IN KIDDING MANNER TALKED TO OSWALD ABOUT OUR CAPITALISTIC WARMONGERING SYSTEM AND OSWALD TOOK HIS COMMENTS SERIOUSLY AND SEEMED TO AGREE.

OSWALD HAD ROUGH TIME IN MARINES BECAUSE OF INSUBORDINATION SUCH AS REPORTING LATE FOR MUSTER AND APPEARANCE NOT UP TO MARINE STANDARDS. OSWALD DID HIS OWN LAUNDRY AND HIS PRESSING NOT VERY NEAT. THERE WAS CONSIDERABLE PRESSURE ON OSWALD TO BECOME A BETTER MARINE AND THIS MAY HAVE ACCOUNTED FOR HIS DISLIKE OF U.S. AND HIS INTEREST IN RUSSIA.

OSWALD NEVER ENGAGED IN ANY FIGHTS ALTHOUGH HE HAD MANY VERBAL ARGUMENTS WITH SUPERIORS BECAUSE OF HIS INFRACTION OF RULES. OSWALD DID COMMENT ON COURT MARTIAL HE RECEIVED WHILE IN JAPAN AND INDICATED HE HAD BEATEN UP A SERGEANT WHO HAD BEEN RIDING HIM FOR NO GOOD REASON, ACCORDING TO OSWALD. HE STATED HE MET SERGEANT WHILE OFF DUTY IN BAR AND SERGEANT INSULTED HIM AND SINCE BOTH PRETTY INTOXICATED, FIGHT OCCURRED.

BOTELHO STATED OSWALD ALMOST NEVER WENT ON LIBERTY. HE WAS ACCOMPANIED BY BOTELHO TO A MOVIE IN SANTA ANA AND ON ONE OTHER OCCASION THEY WALKED AROUND SANTA ANA. OSWALD ALSO DATED A GIRL FROM SANTA ANA ONCE BUT SHE DID NOT ACCEPT A SECOND REQUEST FOR A DATE SO HE DID NOT SEE HER AGAIN. HER IDENTITY NOT KNOWN TO BOTELHO. OSWALD LIKED TO READ PAPERBACK BOOKS AND PLAY CLASSICAL RECORDS, ONE IN PARTICULAR QUOTE RUSSIAN WAR DANCE UNQUOTE BY TSCHAIKOWSKY WHICH HE PLAYED OVER AND OVER. BOTELHO PLAYED ONE OR TWO GAMES OF CHESS WITH OSWALD BUT BOTELHO KNEW LITTLE ABOUT THE GAME.

BOTELHO STATED HE CANNOT RECALL THAT OSWALD EVER HAD A VISIT FROM ANYONE. HE SEEMED TO BE WITHOUT FUNDS AND INDICATED THIS WAS DUE TO AN ALLOTMENT HE PAID HIS MOTHER. HE ALSO SAID HE HAD A BROTHER WHOM HE DID NOT LIKE.

Under separate cover there are being forwarded two Russian language books, one a cookbook and the second a baby-care book, same being the property of MARINA OSWALD, wife of the subject. These books were turned over to the Irving, Texas, PD, by Mrs. RUTH PAINE and thereafter furnished to the office through the Secret Service at Dallas.

It is requested the Cryptanalysis and Translation Section examine these books for the purpose of determining, if possible, if the books could possibly be used as espionage code books and if copies of such books are known to that section.

MARINA OSWALD has requested these books be returned to her as she uses them daily in her household activities. It is requested, therefore, that the FBI Laboratory return these books to the Dallas Office upon completion of examination.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R

Synopsis: REYNALDO GOMEZ, Airman First Class, Gettysburg AFB, Gettysburg, South Dakota, had no knowledge of OSWALD as passenger on airplane from Laredo, Texas to San Antonio, Texas. Investigation at Grenora, Stanley, and New Town, North Dakota, failed to indicate that LEE HARVEY OSWALD ever a resident in these areas.

- P -

DETAILS:

POSSIBLE TRAVEL OF OSWALD

By San Antonio communication to Minneapolis dated December 12, 1963, it was requested that REYNALDO GOMEZ be contacted re possible information that OSWALD was a passenger on the same airplane as GOMEZ.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 27, 1963

REYNALDO GOMEZ, Airman First Class, Gettysburg Air Force Base, Gettysburg, South Dakota, advised that he recalled taking an airplane from Laredo, Texas to San Antonio, Texas, on October 3, 1963. GOMEZ explained that he had been home at Bruni, Texas, 43 miles east of Laredo, and was enroute on that date to Lackland Air Force Base. He stated that he boarded the airplane at Laredo, Texas for San Antonio, Texas. He advised that he is familiar with the appearance of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from seeing a photograph of OSWALD both on television and in the newspaper. He could not recall anyone on the airplane departing from Laredo, Texas, on October 3, 1963, who in any way resembled LEE HARVEY OSWALD. GOMEZ stated that a careful study of the photograph of OSWALD exhibited during the interview failed to elicit any recollection of familiarity.

BACKGROUND OF OSWALD

By Bureau communication dated December 20, 1963 and Seattle communication to the Bureau dated December 22, 1963, it was indicated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD may have been a resident at Stanley, North Dakota in 1953.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

DELVIN DOUGLAS JELLESED, Westland Oil Company, Stanley, North Dakota, advised that he has been a resident of Stanley, North Dakota, his entire life and that he is not aware that LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his mother were ever residents of Stanley, North Dakota.

JELLESED explained that he has two brothers, DELMAR FRANCIS, a member of the United States Air Force, who is stationed in Japan, and DALE LEROY, a member of the United States Army, who is stationed at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas. JELLESED advised that while he has not been in frequent contact with his brothers, he is sure that if his brothers had any information that OSWALD had been a resident of Stanley, North Dakota and known to them, that this information would have been communicated to him by his brothers because of the wide publicity given to OSWALD.

JELLESED further advised that his mother, Mrs. HARRY MERBACH, former operator of the Stanley Cafe at Stanley, North Dakota, from approximately 1947 to 1960, now resides at Grenora, North Dakota. JELLESED stated that he is in more frequent contact with his mother and is certain that his mother would have mentioned to him the fact that OSWALD had resided in Stanley, North Dakota, had that been the case.

JELLESED reiterated that to his knowledge neither OSWALD nor his mother had ever been residents at Stanley, North Dakota, since this would have become common knowledge in view of the publicity given OSWALD and the small town complex of Stanley, North Dakota.

Mrs. HARRY MERBACH, Grenora, North Dakota, advised that she had no knowledge that LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his mother had ever been residents in Stanley, North Dakota. She explained that it would have been impossible for them to have been residents in Stanley, North Dakota, without this fact being known to the entire community because of the wide publicity given to OSWALD.

MERBACH explained that Mrs. ALMA COLE is her third cousin and resides at the present time in Yuma, Arizona. MERBACH stated that although she has had very little contact with ALMA COLE over the past years, she does communicate with her occasionally by letter and recalled that shortly after the death of President JOHN F. KENNEDY at Dallas, Texas, she had written a letter to ALMA COLE to the effect that it was certainly a shame that President KENNEDY was assassinated. MERBACH advised that while she was unable to recall the exact text of her letter to ALMA COLE, she emphatically did not write that any of her sons were acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or had any knowledge whatsoever regarding the death of President KENNEDY or OSWALD'S planned participation in his death.

She further stated that she certainly did not comment in the letter that OSWALD and his mother had at one time resided in Stanley, North Dakota or that she or her sons were acquainted with them. She explained that ALMA COLE had been a resident of Stanley, North Dakota, many years ago and that she had attempted suicide while a resident of Stanley, North Dakota, by drinking Lysol. MERBACH went on to add that it was her belief that ALMA COLE may possibly be suffering from a mental condition caused by a change of life and a recent operation for female disorder.

JERRY EVENSON, rural Stanley, North Dakota, advised that he is acquainted with WILLIAM HENRY TIMMER and did associate with him as a youth in approximately 1953. EVENSON stated, however, he does not recall any meeting or gathering in the Stanley City Park during the Summer of 1953, involving any individual by the name of OSWALD.

EVENSON pointed out that many of the small youths of Stanley, North Dakota, used to play ball at the city park at Stanley during the summertime, but that he could not recall anyone by the name of OSWALD engaged in any activities at the park.

EVENSON stated that he felt that if OSWALD had ever been a resident at Stanley, North Dakota, this fact would have been well known by this time because of the publicity given to OSWALD.

EVENSON pointed out that in 1953, he would have been 11 years of age.

Date December 27, 1963

LANE EVANS, New Town, North Dakota, at the residence of his father-in-law FLOREN SJOL, advised that he is a student at the Dickinson State Teachers College, Dickinson, North Dakota.

EVANS stated that he vaguely recalls an incident that happened in the Stanley City Park at Stanley, North Dakota, about 1953 or 1954, but was unable to remember the circumstances. EVANS stated that he believes that WILLIAM HENRY TIMMER was involved in a fight, but does not recall what caused the fight or who was involved. EVANS stated that the Stanley City Park was a favorite meeting place for the youths of Stanley, North Dakota and that fights among the youths at Stanley City Park was not uncommon.

EVANS advised that the name of OSWALD as a resident of Stanley, North Dakota, was unknown to him.

On December 21, 1963, WALTER POULSON, Stanley, North Dakota, advised that he has been a resident of Stanley, for his entire life and has never known an OSWALD family as ever being residents of that city.

RALPH HAMRE, Sheriff, Mountrail County, Stanley, North Dakota, on December 23, 1963, stated that he was a lifelong resident of Stanley, North Dakota and Mountrail County and that to his knowledge no one by the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD had ever been a resident at Stanley, North Dakota.

HAMRE stated that he is acquainted with WILLIAM HENRY TIMMER, an itinerant worker who visits Stanley once or twice a year, and does not consider him to be a reliable individual.

On the same date Mrs. ELMER NELSON, rural Stanley, North Dakota, advised that she is the mother of JACK FEEHAN, Rapid City, South Dakota. Mrs. NELSON advised that her son was scheduled to return to Stanley for the Christmas holidays, but that he did not arrive. She advised that she had heard that her son had been involved in a car accident in South Dakota and consequently has no idea of his present whereabouts.

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages A7699-A7700. Congressman Derwinski, (R) Illinois, extended his remarks to include an article written by Eric Sevareid entitled "Power, Money—and Now Publicity—Third Major Corrupting Force Blamed for Allowances Leading to Oswald Death." The article states "What the Dallas police did in the case of Oswald any number of other police in other cities have done in the cases of hundreds of other suspects. Even the FBI which, by the uncanny inversions of publicity has become more sacrosanct than our Highest Court, has declared men guilty before any trial was held. It has been common practice for police at all levels to announce confessions which ought not be revealed outside a courtroom."

Mr. J. Lee Rankin, Counsel for the Commission, on 12/20/63 stated he was particularly interested in knowing whether a search had been instituted of Postal Money Orders that might have been sent or received by Lee Harvey Oswald or Jack Ruby.

Mr. Rankin was advised that U. S. Postal Inspector Harry Holmes, Terminal Annex, Dallas, Texas, advised the Dallas FBI Office it would be impossible to locate a Postal Money Order unless the Postal Money Order number, amount, or date, could be furnished for making this check. Inspector Holmes advised all money orders purchased and cashed are finally received at the Money Order Center, U. S. Post Office Department, Washington, D. C. Inspector Holmes estimates that probably four to five million money orders cashed are received on a daily basis at the Money Order Center in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Rankin was advised that no check has been instituted with the U. S. Post Office Department, Washington, D. C., in an attempt to trace Postal Money Orders in view of the absence of any specific information which would aid in such a check.

Mr. Rankin requested that he be furnished information in memorandum form concerning this situation relating to Postal Money Orders.

ACTION: There is attached for Mr. Rankin's use a letterhead memorandum setting forth the information relative to the checking of Postal Money Orders which will be delivered by Malley if approved.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

Counsel for the Commission investigating captioned matter has requested that efforts be made to determine if subject sent or received Western Union or Postal money orders.

Inquiry by the Dallas Office has determined that records pertaining to Postal money orders are filed centrally in Washington, D.C., in the Post Office Department, and it is estimated that four or five million Postal money orders are received daily at the money order center. It does not appear feasible, therefore, to attempt to check for Postal money orders sent or received by the subject.

Dallas has determined that Western Union money order records are kept for six months in local offices of Western Union. During the past six months Oswald resided in Dallas and New Orleans. Dallas has already checked the local records of Western Union covering Oswald's period of residence in Dallas with negative results.

New Orleans has advised that pertinent records are retained in the seven local Western Union branches and ten or twelve Agent days would be required to search the records. New Orleans has been instructed to immediately arrange to check these records.

The Western Union Audit Bureau in Minneapolis has the records of Western Union money orders covering the period prior to the past six months. Minneapolis has advised that to check these records for the period of June, 1962, when Oswald returned to the United States, to May, 1963, would take at least two months and 3,000 hours of clerical time at a cost of $2.50 per hour.

Memorandum W. A. Branigan to W. C. Sullivan
RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that unless the New Orleans Office comes up with some suspicious money orders sent or received by the subject during the past six months the Commission be advised that records covering Oswald's residence during the six-month period were checked negatively; that to go beyond that period would cost a minimum of $7,500 and take at least two months to complete; that our investigation has clearly indicated that Oswald was living within his income; that we have found no evidence of any bank accounts or other depositories for funds held by Oswald; that there is no evidence of any kind that he was receiving money from other than his employment, despite all of the speculation that has appeared in the newspapers; and that, therefore, it does not appear feasible or practical to make this further check of Western Union and the Bureau will not do so unless requested that it be done.

It is also recommended that the Commission be advised that records of Postal money orders are filed centrally in Washington, D.C.; that an estimated four or five million orders are received daily; and that it does not appear to be feasible to check for Postal money orders sent or received by the subject, particularly in light of facts set forth above concerning his financial status.

CHARLES COLE, President, Cole Publishing Company, 623 South Wabash Avenue, furnished the following information after viewing a photograph of the strap found on OSWALD's rifle:

His father, M. M. COLE, has been dead for over five years.

Mr. COLE said that he did not recall seeing a strap identical to the one in question and he did not believe it to be a guitar strap. It was his opinion that the snaps and rivets were attached in a superior manner indicating the strap might be foreign made. He felt that a leather dealer might be able to narrow the search by examining the leather.

He further said that the snaps on the wide strip of leather were not familiar and their use foreign to him.

He suggested that one NATHAN POLLOCK of the Reliable Belt Company be contacted as he manufactures guitar and other leather belts and straps.

Mr. NATHAN POLLOCK, President, Reliable Belt Company, 2160 South Canalport, Chicago, Illinois, furnished the following information after viewing a photograph of the strap found on OSWALD's rifle:

He could not be sure what kind of strap it was nor if it was domestic or foreign made. He could not recall seeing a similar strap but it was his opinion based on general experience that this strap was the sort usually found on a camera bag or binocular case. He said it appeared to be a full grain piece of leather but probably a cheap or inferior piece of leather. He said that if it was manufactured outside of the United States, the leather would be stamped to this effect.

Mr. POLLOCK further advised that the search might be shortened by taking apart the snaps to see if they were stamped by their manufacturer.

LOUIS J. THOMAS, Owner, United Binocular Company, 9043 South Western Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed at his residence, 12334 70th Court, Palos Heights, at which time he furnished the following information:

He advised upon viewing the photographs of the sling which had been on OSWALD's rifle, that they appeared to him to be a foreign setup. He said by this he means he cannot recall ever having seen such a belt or sling on any American made binoculars or gun. THOMAS advised that he has never seen a binocular strap on a binocular case made up in such a manner. He said the only straps he has seen on binocular cases has been the single type strap and that the strap is the same width all the way around.

From viewing the wide part of the strap on which appears two snaps, the possibility exists that there may have been a place on a jacket where these snaps would have been snapped to. He said the only reason that he could see for such an arrangement would be to keep the strap from sliding around on the person's shoulder.

THOMAS advised that from the photograph that the leather appears to be a very cheap type as the strap shows that it has "bubbles" in the leather. THOMAS continued that such a strap may have been issued on submarine duty during World War II in connection with binoculars. He said this was only a guess, but felt may be the arrangement was such that a person on a submarine would be able to control his binoculars better through a snap arrangement on the case. However, THOMAS could not recall ever having seen such an arrangement. THOMAS concluded that he has never seen such a sling as pictured in the photographs ever having been issued on a rifle.

You should immediately interview Tommy Virgil Luce at which time he should be confronted with statements he allegedly made concerning the death of the late President Kennedy. During such interview you should be most alert to determine if Luce represents a possible risk to the security of the President of the U. S. or any other Government official.

Results of your contact with Luce should be furnished to the Bureau in form of amended pages four and synopsis of rerep.

NOTE:

Seattle Office received information from several sources reporting Luce indicated prior to the assassination of President Kennedy that he would offer $100 to anyone who would assassinate President Kennedy. After the death of President Kennedy, Luce reportedly showed no remorse. Seattle did not follow through and confront Luce with these allegations. This should be done and at the same time an assessment should be made as to whether Luce represents a threat to the security of President Johnson or other Government officials.

STELLA BRAY, nee Kalifia, also known as Mrs. CHARLES BRAY, the Village Apartments, 1538 Payne Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, advised that she is a stripper who dances under the name "YUM YUM."

She related that during the Summer of 1956, she was booked into the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, which was owned and operated by JACK RUBY, by her booking agent, LILLIAN MC CARDELL of Houston, Texas. She could not recall the specific months although she did remember that it was during the Summer, and it was her first engagement as a stripper.

She noted that at the time there were five strippers on the bill including herself and a CINDY EMBERS, who was the headliner. She could not recall the identities of the other three girls and last knew CINDY EMBERS to be engaged in stripping on the West Coast.

She advised that her relations with JACK RUBY were strictly that of an employer and employee and further that RUBY never had anything but business dealings with the strippers. She stated that during her three month engagement she casually spoke to RUBY and often saw him eating breakfast at a restaurant frequented by show people. The one thing that still stands out in her mind was the fact that everyone in Dallas seemed to know RUBY and she recalls that often people seemed to go out of their way to say hello to him. She said she had no information pertaining to his background.

She stated that she recalls RUBY to be very calm individual who never seemed to get excited. For this reason, she stated that she could hardly believe that RUBY killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She noted that she never discussed politics with RUBY and no information ever came to her attention concerning his political affiliation. She had no reason to believe that he was other than an average American who was solely interested in making a living. She further reflected that she had never seen or heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the President's assassination.

She concluded by saying that she can always be reached through her booking agent, LILLIAN MC CARDELL, Houston, Texas.

SOVIET ESPIONAGE

Sergeant SOUTHERLAND advised that he was unable to locate any reference identifiable with the name of JOEY JOWIFCZ.

Mrs. BERDIE SUE BELCHER, Clerk, Merchants Retail Credit Association, 2112 Jackson, advised that she could loca no reference identifiable with BILLY RAY HENSON or the name JOEY JOWIFCZ.

AT IRVING, TEXAS

Mrs. LEE L. FARLEY, 223 West 7th Street, advised tha she and her husband have known BILLY RAY HENSON for approxima two years since her husband met HENSON during the time that they were living in Ennis, Texas and her husband operated a milk route for the Borden Company. Mrs. FARLEY said that HEN asked to work for Mr. FARLEY on the milk route and although HENSON's family lived in Ennis at the corner of Hall and Clay Streets, he did not get along very well with his family and he spent approximately two months with them before he admitte that he was "AWOL" from the U. S. Army. Mrs. FARLEY advised that she spent a great deal of time talking to HENSON and convinced him that he should return voluntarily to the Army. He hitch-hiked a ride to Fort Hood, Texas and then was taken to Fort Knox, Kentucky. Mrs. FARLEY advised that HENSON was very emotionally unstable person who when told to do somethin which he did not agree with, would generally tell that person "I'll kill you!" She said that when he was told to go back t the Army, he became so mad that he tore his Army uniform apart right in front of the entire family. She said that at one time while he was staying with them at Ennis, Texas before he returned to the Army, her neighbors told her that he was reading comic books and got mad for some reason or another, cursed loudly, and crawled into a large dog house and stayed

Mrs. FARLEY advised that HENSON came to visit them at Irving, Texas approximately three or four days before the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, and on the day of the assassination he was watching a television speech of President KENNEDY with the FARLEY family. They turned the television set off and later heard that the President had bee assassinated, and then spent much of the day watching the television accounts of the assassination.

Mrs. FARLEY said that Mr. FARLEY got HENSON a job at the Frank Holister Electroplating Company in Dallas, Texas and he was to go to work for this company the following Monday after the President was killed, but since he did not have any identification to furnish the company, Mr. and Mrs. FARLEY told him that he would have to go back to his mother's house in Ennis, Texas and get proper identification. He told them that he had lost his Army discharge, Social Security Card, and tore up his Selective Service registration card. When he was told to go back to Ennis, he screamed: "I'll kill you!" Mrs. FARLEY said that they did not pay any attention to this threat since he made it so often and didn't mean it. She said on one occasion, he threatened to kill her if she walked across a line in the driveway. She said she walked right past him and he did nothing but break down and cry.

Mrs. FARLEY said that she and Mr. FARLEY finally decided after he refused to get his identification for this job, that he should not stay with the FARLEY family any longer, since he frightened the children, and on one occasion when he wasn't allowed to play with them had threatened to kill them, also; however, the children got quite used to these threats and payed little attention to him afterwards.

On the Sunday afternoon when he was told to go back to Irving, Texas, he made such a commotion in the front yard that Mrs. FARLEY had the Irving City Police Department pick him up at about 5:00 P.M. and take him to the Continental Trailways Bus Station. She said they did not arrest him but did this as a courtesy. At about 6:30 P.M. that same day, she called HENSON's mother at Ennis, Texas and was told by Mrs. HENSON that BILLY RAY had just arrived on the bus from Dallas. Mrs. FARLEY said that she and her husband and family have not seen BILLY RAY HENSON since this time.

During the time that the FARLEYs knew BILLY RAY HENSON, he would often "make up stories" and actually seemed to believe them himself. She said that he often talks "big" and claimed that while he was in the U. S. Army, he turned a .50 caliber machine gun on fellow troops at target practice and killed all of them. She said that the FARLEY family, of course, thought that this was ridiculous since he would have been sent to an Army prison if such a thing occurred.

Mrs. FARLEY said that it appears to her and her husband that the HENSON family which is composed of five or six children, has at least one other child who is emotionally unstable. Mrs. FARLEY advised that she believes that this is TINY HENSON, age 22, who weighs approximately 350 lbs. BUDDY HENSON, age approximately 30, is in the U. S. Army, overseas in Germany; KENNETH HENSON is in the 11th grade; BECKY HENSON is approximately age 15. They appear to be normal, intelligent children.

Mrs. FARLEY said that BILLY RAY HENSON never said at any time that he ever knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and he did not discuss them in any detail during the news of the assassination and the later killing of OSWALD by RUBY.

On December 30, 1963, Supervisor W. R. Wannall forwarded the evidence listed below to the Laboratory together with a letter from the United States Information Agency (USIA) pertaining to the submitted evidence.

Q350 Airmail envelope addressed to the Voice of America postmarked Habana, Cuba, 6 p.m., DIC 3 1963

Q351 Accompanying typewritten letter headed La Habana 27 De Noviembre 1963 bearing salutation "Senores" and ending with the typewritten and handwritten signature "Miguel Galban Lopez"

It was concluded that the typewriting on Q350 and Q351 was prepared on the typewriter used to prepare specimens Q232 through Q235 previously submitted.

It was noted that the envelope Q350 is the same kind as the envelope Q232 and Q234 and the paper of Q351 is the same kind as Q235.

The signature on Q351 is not comparable with the signatures on Q233 and Q235.

No indented writing was found on Q350 and Q351.

It was noted that the envelope Q350 had been previously opened and resealed as were Q232 and Q234.

It was noted that the date of the letter Q351 is the same as the date of the letter Q235.

Q232 through Q235 were two letters previously submitted both bearing Cuban postmarks.

Señores:

Por la presente nos dirijimos a Usted para hacerle saber que el asesinato del Presidente de los Estados Unidos John F. Kennedy tiene relacion con el Gobierno Revolucionario de Cuba. Hace aproximadamente unos dos meses, el presunto asesino del Presidente, Lee Harvey Oswald, se entrevistó en la Ciudad de Miami con el señor Pedro Charles, agente de Fidel Castro en México, el cual hubo de entregarle al referido Lee H. Oswald la cantidad de siete mil dolares. Esta fuente es oficial, toda vez que una dama que acompaño a Pedro Charles en un Club Nocturno de Miami vio a ambos conferenciar juntos, y esta dama hubo de reconocerlo en las fotografias publicadas aqui en la Habana. Esa dama reside en la Habana y no se puede revelar su nombre, pues su acompañante el tal Pedro Charles se encuentra actualmente en Méjico en una mision del Gobierno de Castro para un intercambio cultural. Dicha dama tan pronto abandone el pais, pues se encuentra en una grave crisis nerviosa, se trasladara a algun pais de America Central clandestinamente y evitar que la policia de Castro la detenga. Es todo lo que puedo informar por el momento y es la gran verdad, esperamos pues que la dama en cuestion salga de Cuba para poder saber de sus propios labios todo lo relacionado con éste monstruoso hecho en que perdiera la vida el Presidente Kennedy.

De Ud, atentamente:

Miguel Galbán López.

U. S. Information Agency (USIA) has furnished Bureau with letter dated at Havana, Cuba, 11-27-63 addressed to Voice of America and signed by one Miguel Galban Lopez. Letter alleges that assassination of President by Oswald was undertaken at the direction of a Cuban agent, one Pedro Charles, who gave Oswald $7,000 for this mission.

The FBI Laboratory has examined letter in question and has concluded that typewriting thereon is identical with typewriting which appeared in two previous letters received by the Bureau which contained similar allegations. (See memorandum Wannall to Sullivan, 12-11-63, same caption.) As noted in prior memorandum of 12-11-63 it seems clear this matter represents an attempted hoax possibly perpetrated by some anti-Castro group or individual seeking to attach blame to the Castro regime in connection with the President's death. State Department and the Central Intelligence Agency as well as Secret Service have previously been advised of these letters.

Bureau files contain no reference identifiable with Miguel Galban Lopez. Letter from USIA does not require acknowledgment.

The matter of searching of Postal Money Orders as well as Western Union Money Orders was discussed in detail today with Mr. J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission. Information previously set forth in letterhead memorandum form showing Mr. Rankin that it would be necessary to check between four and five million money orders on a daily basis at the Washington headquarters of the U. S. Post Office Department was discussed with him and Mr. Rankin indicated that for the time being no further check on Postal Money Orders would be necessary.

In connection with Western Union Money Orders, Mr. Rankin was advised that a check had been made by our Dallas Office of Western Union Money Orders and that the same type of check was being made by our New Orleans Office for a six-month period, this being the length of time money orders are kept in the various area offices of Western Union. Mr. Rankin was advised that to search Western Union records which are maintained at Minneapolis, Minnesota, for outgoing Western Union Money Orders from Dallas alone for a period of three years would require the time of ten persons at a cost of $2.50 per hour for approximately one month. Mr. Rankin was advised that these records are filed under the city of origin of the money order; then chronologically under the date they were sent; and then alphabetically under the name of the payee. Mr. Rankin was advised that without this data a search for a money order would have to cover the entire Western Union system on a day-to-day basis and that Western Union was unable to furnish an accurate estimate of the number of hours such a search would require.

Mr. Rankin was also advised that in view of the manner in which the records are handled, a check at Minneapolis for the cities in which Oswald lived would only be a half-way check in that any money orders sent to him from anywhere else in the city would not be picked up on such a check as was described above.

Mr. Rankin advised that in view of the foregoing, no further check should be made at this time but that the Commission would appreciate receiving the results of the six-month check that had been initiated. He was assured this information would appear in report form in the near future.

ENCLOSURE

Memo to Mr. Belmont from A. Rosen
Re: Lee Harvey Oswald, et al

Following the above discussion, Mr. Rankin mentioned that Oswald had been in Mexico for a brief period in late September and the first day or two of October 1963. He inquired as to whether or not it was possible to check on any money orders which Oswald may have sent or received while he was in Mexico and whether or not any such check had been made up to this time. Mr. Rankin was advised this matter would be looked into and he would be subsequently advised. Supervisor E. T. Turner in the Domestic Intelligence Division was contacted and is handling this check.

ACTION: When information is received as to the possibility of making the above check requested by Mr. Rankin, he will be advised.

The telephone numbers called by the MICHAEL R. PAINE family from telephone number, BL 3-1628, Irving, Texas, to Arlington, and Fort Worth, Texas, are mostly to business establishments. No interviews were conducted at these business establishments.

It should be noted that SAS JOSEPH L. SCHOTT and ARNOLD J. BROWN interviewed R. F. KRYSTINIK, who is employed at Bell Helicopter plant, Arlington, Texas, on 11/25/63.

Information was furnished on 12/12/63 to SA MALON L. JENNINGS by [redacted] First National Bank of Fort Worth, concerning the savings account of LEE H. OSWALD.

It should be noted that on 5/25/61 a thumbnail sketch of the Dallas chapter of the American G. I. Forum was submitted to the Bureau. By letter, dated 6/7/61, the Bureau advised that the thumbnail sketch was not approved, as this organization is a legitimate organization, which at one time was infiltrated by Communist Party members. Accordingly, no characterization of the G. I. Forum is being included in the appendix pages of this report.

The name of VIRGINIA POE as an employee of Local Draft Board 26-31, Dallas, Texas, was not concealed for the reason that she is not divulging data from the confidential files of the Selective Service Board, but is rather furnishing data relative to the fact that a specific number is fictitious. If her identity were concealed, it would be logical for someone to question the capacity of the informant to make the statement that a specific Selective Service number was fictitious.

ADMINISTRATIVE DATA

A review of Philadelphia file 105-9421, entitled "Quebec-Washington-Guantanamo Walk for Peace" reflects that this Walk for Peace was sponsored by the Committee for Non-Violent Action (CNVA), 325 Lafayette Street, New York 12, N. Y.

The peace walkers were in the Philadelphia Division twice during the summer of 1963. On the first occasion they were crossing from north central to northeast Pennsylvania en route to New York City. On the second occasion they were en route from New York south and stopped in Philadelphia from August 13 to the early morning of August 17, 1963. They held a rally at Rittenhouse Square on August 15, 1963. Their route of march was from Quebec, Canada, to the U. S. Naval Base at Guantanamo, Cuba, and stated purposes were to develop non-violent solutions to the Cuban conflict, help forestall future crises and to oppose all military power, East and West, and to oppose all nuclear weapons and all other forms of mass destruction.

A review of the file, names of members of the peace march who were identified, and review of the photographs taken failed to effect any identification of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as having been a member of the march, a participant of any of their rallies and demonstrations, or as a bystander who might have been included in the photographs. Likewise, a review of the file failed to reflect the identity of anyone with the initials "JHC."

At 11:29 a.m., December 5, 1963, [redacted] Texas, called from Dallas stating he is employed by Wolfe Moving Company in Greenville and that recently while in Paris, Texas, he obtained information from a sister of Mrs. [redacted] a long distance telephone operator for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, that [redacted] while on duty on the morning of November 23, 1963, had monitored a telephone call from New Orleans, Louisiana, to a lady in Garland, Texas. He stated his information indicated the call was made by a man and that the matter concerned "OSWALD" who had shot the President on November 22, 1963. According to [redacted] the man reportedly told the woman in Garland to catch the next plane to New York City. He also reportedly told the woman he had spent $85.00 in long distance telephone calls.

According to [redacted] a part of the conversation between the parties was in some sort of code and that [redacted] who monitored the call had taken the information down and still has it in her possession. [redacted] reportedly has the name of the caller and possibly the name of the person to whom the long distance call was made.

[redacted] stated [redacted] indicated to her sister in Paris, Texas, that she was afraid to turn the information over to the FBI because she may lose her job. [redacted] reportedly resides in Irving.

[redacted] stated he felt the information he had received may be of possible value to the FBI however he was not attempting to evaluate the matter. He further stated that in the event [redacted] is contacted concerning this matter that his identity not be disclosed as the source of information.

The following investigation was conducted by SA C. RAY HALL:

On December 9, 1963. [redacted] Texas, telephone [redacted] advised SAs C. RAY HALL and ALFRED C. ELLINGTON that she is employed as a long distance telephone operator for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Dallas, Texas. She said that on the morning of November 23, 1963, she noticed that a customer was flashing, and she went on the line to see if the person was asking for her to come on the line. She received a flashing signal several times, and then put a clip on the line so that the parties would not be disconnected. While checking to see if one of the persons was flashing to attract her attention, she ascertained that a man from New Orleans, Louisiana was talking to a woman in Garland, Texas. The man in New Orleans talked very broken English, with a pronounced foreign accent that she could not identify. She heard this man say "OSWALD", but heard nothing further about a discussion of OSWALD. She also heard the man tell the woman to catch a plane to New York City, and they talked about some numbers that she thought was a part number or something. She heard the man say something about spending $85 or $90 on phone calls.

[redacted] stated she heard nothing that indicated to her that either was connected in any way with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, or the assassination of President KENNEDY. She said she does not have the name of the caller or the person called, and copied no sort of code down on any paper. She requested that this information be kept confidential, as she did not want to lose her job.

Information in the body of the report concerning WILLIAM B. UHLHORN, WILLIAM VERNON UHLHORN and SHEILA UHLHORN is based upon information received by San Juan teletype to Director and Dallas, November 27, 1963, captioned, "JACK LEON RUBY, Aka; LEE HARVEY OSWALD - VICTIM (DECEASED); CR," which contained information received by Special Agent ROYAL L. BLASSINGAME on November 26, 1963, from FRANK LEYVA, Special Agent in Charge, Secret Service, San Juan, Puerto Rico, as follows:

LEYVA received information from an unidentified person at the office of the Puerto Rico Telephone Company, San Juan, that an operator had placed a call to Dallas, Texas, November 24, 1963, and had listened to part of the conversation. The call was person-to-person at 6:50 P. M., to "BUTCH" UHLHORN, phone number EM. 3-4376, but party was not there, and returned the call at 7:15 P. M. Call lasted 11 minutes and was made from San Juan number 791-6061. Operator heard parts of conversation as follows:

Dallas person asked San Juan person if he had heard what had happened. Reply was in the affirmative. Dallas person remarked OSWALD had been killed and then discussed death of the President in general terms and that President's visit had been known three months ago. During conversation, operator heard Dallas person remark, in presumed reference to victim, that he had seen him the Thursday before (November 21), to which San Juan person told him not to say anything as it might cause trouble. A woman referred to as Mother then joined San Juan person on the line, stating they would visit the boys, to which Dallas person stated he would be there next week if everything worked out.

The Dallas person appeared to be nervous in his speech,

Many Agents of the Dallas Office participated in this investigation as well as numerous Agents from other surrounding offices, and their identities are reflected in this report.

In connection with this report, it should be borne in mind that the Dallas Office has a separate case in connection with the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, captioned "JACK L. RUBY, aka; LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka (DECEASED) - VICTIM, CR," Dallas File 44-1639.

During the initial preparation of reports in instant matter, the material was being submitted under Dallas File 89-43, and for this reason, certain of the FD 302's and inserts contained in this report may bear that file number rather than 100-10461. The overlap in the period of this report with that of referenced reports was occasioned by the fact that material with respect to certain phases of the investigation was withheld until such time as the complete resolving of a particular phase could be included in a report.

No local dissemination of this report is being made to either the U. S. Attorney or the local U. S. Secret Service or any other agency. Extra copies have been made by the Dallas Office for use in the event the Bureau directs dissemination.

Report of:	ROBERT P. GEMBERLING	Office:	Dallas, Texas
Field Office File No.:	100-10461	Bureau File No.:	105-82555
Title:	LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Synopsis:

AMOS LEE EUINS, age 14, states saw white man, whom he cannot identify, in window of Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) with rifle after first shot and observed this man fire second and third shots and what he believes may have been fourth shot. ARNOLD LOUIS ROWLAND states he saw man with a rifle in the southwest corner (shots fired from southeast corner) of sixth floor of TSBD at about 12:15 P.M., 11/22/63. (This was approximately 15 minutes before shooting). Investigation as to source of sling on assassination weapon indicates it may be home-made sling from luggage straps or guitar straps. Efforts made to trace OSWALD's source of 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridges, negative. Several reports received that OSWALD was target practicing with rifle before assassination, but such reports thus far not substantiated. Examination of sixth floor of TSBD on 11/22/63, reveals southeast corner (not corner from which shots fired) was practically vacant and windows in this corner easily accessible. Analysis made of markings on Enco City Map of Dallas found in room of OSWALD at 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas. No clock or register for employees to sign on duty maintained for warehouse employees at TSBD. FBI Laboratory examination of President KENNEDY's clothing worn at time of assassination revealed minute traces of copper on the fabrics surrounding the holes in the back of the coat and shirt. Evidence bullets submitted have been determined to be clad with copper metal. Translation of undated letter written in Russian language, found by wife of OSWALD on night of 4/10/63, and left at residence of Mrs. RUTH PAINE where MARINA OSWALD residing at time of assassination, turned over to Dallas FBI Office by U. S. Secret Service and upon translation, reflected writer anticipated becoming involved in some difficulty. Writer of this letter identified as being

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

OSWALD through handwriting comparison. Examination of bullet from residence of General EDWIN A. WALKER (fired at him 4-10-63) determined to have been fired from a barrel rifle with four lands and grooves, right twist, and rifles of the type used in the assassination are among those which produce general rifling impressions such as were found on this bullet, but not possible to determine whether or not bullet fired from assassination weapon. Cartridge cases recovered at places where OSWALD alleged to have practiced with rifle examined and none identified as having been fired from assassination rifle. Letter dated 11-10-63 but postmarked at Havana, Cuba, 11-28-63, addressed to OSWALD at Dallas and signed "PETER" suggests acquaintanceship of writer and OSWALD and makes apparent oblique reference to assassination. Individuals at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, Dallas, on reinterview, state OSWALD test drove new Comet approximately two weeks before assassination. Investigation concerning allegations of OSWALD and JACK L. RUBY (charged with murder of OSWALD) acquaintanceship not substantiated. MICHAEL and RUTH PAINE (lady with whom OSWALD's wife living at time of assassination), advised RUBY unknown to them and to their knowledge unknown to OSWALD. Former co-employee (1962-63) at Dallas claims OSWALD stated "There is more freedom in Soviet Russia than there is in America under capitalism." Also allegedly discussed microdots and possible use in espionage operations. One JAMES MURPHY allegedly appeared at employment office, Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, at same time OSWALD sought employment there. MURPHY left job at that hotel 11-26-63 ostensibly to live with sister, JEAN MURPHY, 1309 Bourbon Street, New Orleans. On 10-4-63, OSWALD referred by Jobco Employment Agency to the DeVilbiss Company, Dallas, but not hired. Comments of former neighbors who knew OSWALD as a youngster include descriptions such as "a lone wolf," "vicious and high-tempered," "quiet and reserved," "a boy who did not like discipline OSWALD's brother and half-brother more favorably described by neighbors. Wife of OSWALD spent some time in early November, 1962 with Mr. and Mrs. GARY TAYLOR, son-in-law of GEORGE DeMOHRENSCHILDT, while OSWALD stayed at YMCA, Dallas. OSWALD attended LILY B. CLAYTON School, Fort Worth (1-27-47), first grade; transferred to GEORGE CLARK Elementary School, Fort Worth, 3-19-48; Arlington Heights Elementary School, Fort Worth, 9-8-48 to 6-3-49; Ridglea Elementary School, 9-7-49 to 5-29-52; Arlington Heights High School, 9-5-56 to 9-28-56, when he withdrew to enlist in U. S. Marine Corps. Summary of residences, schools attended and employments, together with schedule of OSWALD's income between 6-13-62 and 11-22-63, prepared. Addresses for OSWALD's mother, 1950 to 1963, obtained. ILYA MAMANTOV of Dallas advises learned OSWALD and wife attended party of Russian speaking persons in University Park, Dallas, early 1963 at which time they met Mrs. MICHAEL (RUTH) PAINE. MAMANTOV alleges Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE DeMOHRENSCHILDT have been good friends of OSWALD and wife and states he suspects DeMOHRENSCHILDT of being a Communist. IGOR VOSHININ describes Mrs. DeMOHRENSCHILDT as half-Russian and half-French, born and reared in China, and Mr. DeMOHRENSCHILDT as a member of a group called "Bohemian Club" and further described them as "a group of 'free thinkers' in Dallas." VOSHININ could not tell if either Mr. or Mrs. DeMOHRENSCHILDT were pro-Soviet. The DeMOHRENSCHILDTs claim they met OSWALD in summer, 1962. They state PETER GREGORY, a Fort Worth engineer, first discovered Mrs. MARINA OSWALD and mentioned her plight to Mr. and Mrs. MAX CLARK (DeMOHRENSCHILDT's attorney), and to GEORGE BOUHE, a philanthropist, and latter two asked DeMOHRENSCHILDTs to help MARINA. The DeMOHRENSCHILDTs claim they last saw OSWALD early in 1963 and comment that general impression of OSWALD in Dallas was one of distaste and fear due to his brutality toward wife and mental instability. SAMUEL B. BALLEN, Chairman of the Board of Highplains Natural Gas Company and Electrical Log Services, Incorporated, Dallas, interviewed OSWALD approximately January, 1963 at which time OSWALD alleged he had received training in photography in Russia. CLIFFORD M. SHASTEEN, barber, 1321 South Story Street, Irving, Texas, advised that on several occasions in past two or three months, OSWALD entered shop in company of a fourteen-year-old boy who once mentioned "We will only be free when everyone has the same, when everyone is equal." Selective Service card in name ALEK JAMES HIDELL alleged fictitious. Association with Dallas Civil Liberties Union indicated. Contents of OSWALD's address book reflected. Interviews with wife MARINA include her statements that in her opinion no deal between OSWALD and Russians to furnish information in return for permission to leave Russia; denies she made any arrangements with Russians to perform assignments in U. S.;

she possesses no data re transportation of rifle by OSWALD from New Orleans to Dallas; denies OSWALD had homosexual tendencies; states GEORGE DeMOHRENSCHILDT is a humanitarian who is often accused of being a Communist due to his objective views, but in her opinion, not a Communist. States OSWALD was somewhat afraid of DeMOHRENSCHILDT who was big in stature and talked loudly. States OSWALD listened to him but did not believe DeMOHRENSCHILDT would ever have influenced OSWALD to do anything bad. She remarked DeMOHRENSCHILDT jokingly mentioned to OSWALD several days after General WALKER assassination attempt "How is it that you missed General WALKER?" after which OSWALD visibly blanched and looked at MARINA as though she might have told DeMOHRENSCHILDT about OSWALD's confession of his attempt to kill General WALKER. OSWALD changed conversation and nothing more said in that regard. Anonymous allegation that OSWALD attended Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) meeting in Philadelphia in summer of 1963, not substantiated by investigation. Investigation relative to OSWALD's travel to Mexico conducted.

"Dallas, Texas
Nov. 22, 1963

"I, Danny Garcia Arce, make the following voluntary statement to Gaston C. Thompson and Robert C. Lish whom I know as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This statement is given freely and I realize I don't have to make any statement.

"I was born at Dallas, Texas, Sept. 14, 1945. I finished one year high school.

"About Sept. 6, 1963, I started to work for Texas School Book Depository, located on Houston Street, Dallas, this being the warehouse where I am employed as an order filler. Occasionally I am required to work at the main building of Texas School Book Depository, located 411 Elm Street, Dallas.

"I was at my place of employment, 411 Elm Street, today, Friday Nov. 22, 1963, at eight o'clock A.M.

"From 8:00 AM, Nov. 22, 1963 until about 10:00 AM, I was working on the sixth floor of the building 411 Elm Street. I, around 10:00 AM, along with other employees went to the first floor for a break. This was for about ten minutes, and then I returned to my work on the sixth floor where I remained until about 11:50 AM when I along with other employees went down to the first floor and then outside the building where we expected the President of the United States __ pass in an automobile with others. Bill Shelley, a supervisor of Texas School Book Depository, had told me the President's party was to pass by the building. As I stood on a corner, across the street from 411 Elm St. I observed a large automobile pass, the President of the United States and his wife seated on his left, being on the back seat.

"The President's automobile had passed and was a short way down Elm Street towards the underpass when I heard something like a gun shot and then a second and third shot close together. When this happened, everybody around began shouting and running, saying the President had been shot. I saw one lady crying, and she said it is horrible, the President has been shot.

"Within a few minutes after the above happened I went back into the building where I work.

"About one month ago I saw at Texas School Book Depository a man who today I came to know as Lee Oswald. This man was, I believe, employed as an order filler and in this capacity worked on all the floors of the building.

"I never during my employment came to know Lee Oswald closely and never associated with him. I did observe him around the building at his work and during the breaks we had during our work day.

"Today I first saw Lee Oswald when I came to work, this being on the first floor. This was about eight o'clock. I next saw him on the sixth floor, this being around eleven o'clock today, shortly before lunch time. He was by himself with piece of paper in his hand. I had nothing to say to him but some of the other male employees tease him and tell him he ought to go get a haircut. Lee Oswald just laughed at this remark.

"I last saw Lee Oswald at Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, today at approximately 11:50 AM, this being on the fifth floor near the elevators.

"I have read the above handwritten statement consisting of this and three other pages. It is true & correct to the best of my knowledge.

DANNY GARCIA ARCE, 1502 Bennett, Dallas, Texas, employed as a warehouse man for the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), Dallas, Texas, was re-interviewed for any additional information which he might have which would assist in identifying an old man whom he had reported in the TSBD Building prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963.

Mr. ARCE stated that some 45 minutes before the arrival of the President's motorcade, as he was walking out the front door of the building to view it, an elderly man approached him on the steps and asked if ARCE could direct him to a rest room. He complained of kidney trouble. ARCE assisted him up the steps and into the building and pointed out a public rest room. Some four or five minutes later, ARCE saw the man leave the building. He got into an old (about 1949) black Buick, occupied by three elderly women, and drove north on the service street in front of the TSBD Building, made a right turn on Elm, and drove west through the underpass.

ARCE described this individual as being a white male, 79 to 80 years of age, a man who walked only with apparent extreme difficulty. He was very thin and drawn, approximately 5 feet 9 inches in height, wearing an old brown suit, and wearing a western-style hat.

ARCE said that he had not seen this man before, nor has he seen him since this time. He was unable to supply any information concerning this individual or his car which might readily result in his identification for interview. ARCE stated that he had not considered that this old man could in any way be related to the assassination of the President.

AMOS LEE EUINS, 411 Avenue F, advised that on the day of the assassination, he was standing on the northeast corner of the intersection of Elm and Houston Streets. He stated that the car in which the President was riding had turned the corner and was proceeding on down Elm. He stated since he could no longer see the President's car, he happened to glance up and noticed what appeared to be the barrel of a rifle protruding from the window near the top of the Texas School Book Depository Building. He stated he saw a man's hand on what appeared to be the rifle stock and that he knew it was a rifle because he heard the shots fired. He stated he could not tell anything about the man and that he never saw anything other than what appeared to be his hand on the stock.

AMOS LEE EUINS, 411 Avenue F, age 14, advised that he is in the ninth grade and attends Roosevelt High School, in Dallas.

He stated that on November 22, 1963, he skipped school and at approximately 12:15 P.M., he was standing on the corner of Elm Street, facing the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) building, waiting for the Presidential motorcade to pass. He said that he glanced at the TSBD building and noticed what appeared to be a metal rod extending out of what he believes is the fifth floor window on the southeast side of the TSBD building. He said he did not pay any attention to this rod at that particular time, and shortly thereafter, the Presidential motorcade passed him; he waved to the President and the President waved back.

He said after the President's car started down the hill, he heard what he thought was a car backfire and he looked around and also glanced at the TSBD building, and on the fifth floor where he had seen what he thought to be a metal rod, he noticed a rifle in the window and saw the second and third shots fired. He stated he saw a man's hand on what appeared to be the trigger housing and he could also see a bald spot on the man's head. He stated he did not see the face of this individual and could not identify him. He said he was sure this man was white, because his hand extended outside the window on the rifle.

He stated he also heard what he believes was a fourth shot, and that the individual in the window, after firing the fourth shot, began looking around and he (EUINS) at this time hid behind a concrete partition. He said he saw this individual withdraw the rifle and step back in the window.

ARNOLD LOUIS ROWLAND, 3028 Hammerly, Dallas, Texas, was reinterviewed at the Sanger-Harris Department Store on Lamar Street, where he is currently employed, and furnished the following information:

At approximately 12:10 P. M., on November 22, 1963, he and his wife, BARBARA, were standing on the east side of Houston Street about half-way between Elm and Main Streets. At about 12:15 P. M., he saw a man with a rifle on the sixth floor of the Texas State Book Depository Building at the southwest corner of the building. He is certain this was the southwest corner and was the corner nearest the triple underpass. He assumed this person was a security guard, and attempted to point him out to his wife, but since she had forgotten her glasses she could not see that far. This man was seen about fifteen to twenty minutes before President KENNEDY's motorcade came by this building and was not seen by him again since he did not look in this direction at the time of the shots.

A photograph of the Texas State Book Depository Building was exhibited to ROWLAND and he pointed out a window on the sixth floor at the southwest corner of this building as being the place where he had seen this person.

HOWARD LESLIE BRENNAN, 6814 Woodard, advised that he furnished information previously to the Federal Bureau of Investigation regarding his having observed activity at the window in the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) from which shots were allegedly fired at President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, at Dallas. He advised that at about 7 p.m., November 22, 1963, when he observed a line-up of individuals at the Dallas Police Department he selected LEE HARVEY OSWALD as the individual most closely resembling the person whom he had seen with a rifle in the window of the TSBD Building. He said this was the extreme east window of the sixth floor on the front side of the TSBD Building where he observed this individual. He noted that he was seated on a wall across Elm Street from the TSBD at the time the Presidential motorcade passed. He stated that he now can say that he is sure that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was the person he saw in the window at the time of the President's assassination. He pointed out that he felt that a positive identification was not necessary when he observed OSWALD in the police line-up at the Dallas Police Department at about 7 p.m., November 22, 1963, since it was his understanding OSWALD had already been charged with the slaying of Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT. He said that another factor which made him hesitate to make a positive identification of OSWALD in the police line-up was that prior to appearing at the police line-up on November 22, 1963, he had observed a picture of OSWALD on his television set at home when his daughter asked him to watch it. He said that he felt that since he had seen OSWALD on television before picking OSWALD out of the line-up at the police station that it tended to "cloud" any identification he made of OSWALD at that time.

BRENNAN stated that he is not a publicity seeker and that on the contrary he would prefer not to have it known that he had made any identification of OSWALD as the person who had fired shots from the window of the TSBD. He stated that if it became necessary that his identity be known in this matter in connection with any subsequent hearings or Governmental review of reports regarding this matter he would be willing to have his name known and, therefore, he is identified herein as having furnished at this time a positive identification of OSWALD as the person who fired a rifle from the window of the TSBD on November 22, 1963, when the motorcade of President KENNEDY was passing the building. BRENNAN stated that he was able to observe OSWALD's head and shoulders in the window and possibly down as far as OSWALD's belt. He stated that he had earlier pointed out that he has especially good vision at a distance through being farsighted although he wears glasses for reading.

It is noted in an earlier report in this matter Mr. O. V. CAMPBELL, Vice President and Secretary, Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), Elm and Houston Streets, Dallas, Texas, advised on November 26, 1963, that while he had not observed anyone fire any shots from his building on November 22, 1963, he had observed an individual wearing a construction-type hat who was talking about seeing an individual fire from the window of the TSBD Building, and he noted that a police officer had taken this individual's name.

On December 17, 1963, Mr. CAMPBELL advised SA KENNETH B. JACKSON that as best he could recall this individual was wearing a white helmet and work clothes with possibly red lettering on the helmet. He described the man as white, about 5'9" or 5'10", possibly 165 pounds and possibly around 35 years of age. He said that this man was talking with a Dallas Police Department officer.

A review of information in this matter indicated that the individual observed by Mr. CAMPBELL may possibly have been identical to HOWARD LESLIE BRENNAN who has been previously interviewed in this matter.

On December 17, 1963, BRENNAN advised SA KENNETH B. JACKSON he was employed with Wallace-Beard Construction Company as a steam fitter, and he was doing prefabrication work at a location to the rear of the TSBD Building on November 22, 1963. He is still employed with this company but is now working at the construction site of the Republic National Bank Building, Dallas. He stated he continues to reside at 6814 Woodard, Dallas.

On December 17, 1963, BRENNAN was introduced to Mr. O. V. CAMPBELL by SA KENNETH B. JACKSON, and neither individual showed recognition of the other at first. Mr. CAMPBELL was of the opinion that BRENNAN was very likely the person he had referred to as having conversed with the Dallas police officer immediately after the shooting of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963. He indicated that possibly his recollection of a white construction-type helmet on the individual he had observed could possibly have been a gray helmet which, according to BRENNAN, was what he, BRENNAN, wore on November 22, 1963, with the name of his company, Wallace-Beard, stenciled in black letters on the front of the helmet and at that time a small black name sticker bearing BRENNAN's name. Mr. CAMPBELL observed a round white badge bearing a number, 130, with the words Wallace-Beard Republic Bank Tower and indicated that possibly his recollection of red letters on white background could have been from observing this badge which badge, according to BRENNAN, was worn by him on November 22, 1963, as at the present. The entire badge was not in red lettering, but the large digits 130 in the center were in red, the word Wallace was in blue letters, the word Beard was in red letters and the words Republic Bank Tower were in blue letters. BRENNAN furnished his own description as white male, 5'7½", 155 to 160 pounds and age 44. As CAMPBELL and BRENNAN talked Mr. CAMPBELL stated he became a little more sure that BRENNAN was the individual he had seen conversing with the Dallas police officer on November 22, 1963. Mr. BRENNAN stated that he was unable to recall CAMPBELL at all but remarked that he himself had talked to a Dallas police officer at that time and that CAMPBELL could have observed his conversation with the police officer without his own knowledge. BRENNAN did state, however, that he felt reasonably sure that the person referred to by CAMPBELL would have been himself.

Mr. R. S. TRULY, Superintendent, TSBD, stated that he was in company with Mr. CAMPBELL on November 22, 1963, at the time the motorcade of President KENNEDY passed in front of the TSBD. He stated that immediately after the shooting at that time he and Mr. CAMPBELL apparently became separated by the surging crowd, and, therefore, he would not be able to comment regarding any persons observed by Mr. CAMPBELL at the time. Mr. TRULY furnished this information to SA KENNETH B. JACKSON on December 17, 1963.

RONALD FISHER, Supervisor, Dallas County Auditors Office, Dallas County Records Building, Dallas, Texas, residence 4007 Flamingo Drive, Mesquite, Texas, advised as follows:

On November 22, 1963, employees of the Auditors Office had been permitted to take an extended lunch hour and to leave work a bit early in order that they might be afforded an opportunity to see President KENNEDY and the motorcade. He left the office at about 11:30 A.M. and had lunch with a fellow employee, ROBERT EDWARDS, and after finishing lunch at about 11:45 A.M., he went to the northeast corner of Main and Houston Streets, where he was to meet EDWARDS, who had left him following lunch for an errand. When EDWARDS met him at Main and Houston, they decided to go to the southwest corner of Elm and Houston for a better viewing point, this location being directly across from the Texas Book Depository Building.

Several minutes before the Presidential motorcade turned onto Houston Avenue, EDWARDS punched him slightly and said words to the effect, "Look at that fellow in the window. I wonder what he is hiding from." This person in the window was located in the far righthand side corner window of the sixth floor, and could be seen by him from the neck up. He believed this man to be a white man, in his late twenties, wearing an open-neck shirt, light in color. He was fair complected and had a high forehead and light hair. He noticed this man never moved during the entire minute or two he and EDWARDS were staring at him and he appeared to be standing in an awkward position, leaning forward, but not leaning out the window. He did not think he could identify the man he had seen in the window, and he saw no gun, or any object, but the man and many boxes in the window.

ROBERT EDWIN EDWARDS, employee, Dallas County Auditors Office, Dallas County Records Building, Dallas, Texas, residence 821 South Nursery, advised as follows:

He, along with other employees of the Auditors Office, had been permitted to leave work early on November 22, 1963, in order to eat lunch and view the Presidential motorcade scheduled for that date. He ate lunch around 11:30 A.M. and just before twelve o'clock went to the northeast corner of Main and Houston Avenues, there he met a fellow employee, RONALD FISHER, by pre-arrangement.

Shortly after he arrived there, he and FISHER went to the corner of Houston and Elm Streets for a better viewing position. At this time, they were facing the Texas Book Depository Building. He arrived at this point about two or three minutes before the motorcade appeared. Just after arriving there, he saw a man on the sixth floor of the above mentioned building who was apparently standing so he could be seen in the corner window.

He described this person as a white man, wearing a light colored sports shirt, open at the neck, and having short, light, sandy hair. He did not recognize this individual and he mentioned to FISHER how unusual it was this man would be in the window and that he wondered what he was doing up there. He did not see a gun at any time, and his attention was diverted from this man when the Presidential motorcade appeared.

Shortly after President Kennedy's car passed his position, he heard shots, which he thought were three or four in very rapid sequence, and because of the confusion, he did not again look for the individual he had previously seen in

ROY EDWARD LEWIS, warehouse employee, Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), 411 Elm Street, advised he was working in the warehouse on November 22, 1963, on the date of the assassination of President KENNEDY. He advised he recalls seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the warehouse on one occasion, that being at approximately 10:30 AM, November 22, 1963, on the first floor of the warehouse, where he was filling orders. As he recalls, this was the only time he saw OSWALD on that date. He stated he subsequently viewed the Presidential Motorcade and heard the shots being fired at the President but could offer no information as to where the shots had come from, nor did he observe anything further regarding the activities of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

LEWIS advised in previous contacts with OSWALD, he considered OSWALD to be a quiet individual and one who kept to himself during his course of employment at the TSBD.

Special Agent ELMER MOORE, United States Secret Service, 505 North Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas, exhibited the following photographs in possession of the Secret Service which photographs were taken by Mrs. MARY ANN MOORMAN, 2832 Ripplewood, Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963. Both photographs were made with a polaroid camera.

The first photograph is of very poor quality, being extremely light and exhibits a lower corner of the Texas School Book Depository Building. No view is shown in the photograph of the upper floors of the building and particularly the windows on the sixth floor from which shots were fired at President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 22, 1963. The principal subject in this photograph is a Dallas policeman on a motorcycle. No other parts of the Presidential motorcade are seen in the photograph.

A second photograph taken by Mrs. MOORMAN was sold to the Associated Press by Mrs. MOORMAN. This photograph, a copy of which was exhibited to SA CHARLES T. BROWN, JR. by SA MOORE, of the Secret Service, shows the automobile occupied by President KENNEDY which photograph apparently was made shortly after President KENNEDY was struck by a bullet fired by the assassin. The Texas School Book Depository Building does not appear in this photograph at all and the entire photograph is filled with the view of the President's automobile. The photograph shows President KENNEDY leaning slightly to the left toward the position in which Mrs. KENNEDY is sitting in the car. This photograph appeared in many newspapers throughout the United States and the copy exhibited to SA BROWN by SA MOORE carries a Dallas, Texas dateline of November 23, 1963. It is indicated to be a "(AP Wirephoto)(rus 71555 cor) 1963". On December 16, 1963, Secret Service Special Agent WILLIAM PATTERSON was contacted regarding the present whereabouts of ten Secret Service Agents who were escorting the President when President KENNEDY was assassinated on November 22, 1963. The list which had been furnished to the Dallas Office by the FBI Headquarters, Washington, D.C. contained the following names:

President's Car

ASAIC	Roy H. Kellerman	(front seat)
SA	William R. Greer	(driver)

Follow-Up Car

ATSAIC	Emory P. Roberts	(front seat)
SA's	Samuel A. Kinney	(driver)
	Clinton J. Hill	(left front running board)
	Paul E. Landis	(right rear " ")

On December 16, 1963, Special Agent PATTERSON of the Secret Service, advised the above individuals comprised a group of agents who were traveling with the Presidential party on November 22, 1963, and none of these men were assigned to the Secret Service Office at Dallas, Texas. Agent PATTERSON stated these men departed from Dallas shortly after the assassination on November 22, 1963 and their whereabouts would have to be ascertained through the office of the Chief of Secret Service, Treasury Department, Washington, D.C.

Mr. ROYCE GLENN SKELTON, 2509 Reagan, Apt. 105, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his place of employment, the Texas-Louisiana Freight Bureau, Room 215, Union Terminal Building, and furnished the following information:

Mr. SKELTON advised that he and a fellow worker, AUSTEN LAWRENCE MILLER, decided to watch the Presidential Motorcade on November 22, 1963 from the railroad tracks on top of the triple railroad overpass on the Elm Street side, facing east. They arrived at this spot about 12:15 P.M. and waited until the Presidential Motorcade came by.

Mr. SKELTON noticed that as an open limousine turned on Elm Street, it had moved approximately one hundred feet at which time he noticed dust spray up from the street in front of the car on the driver's side. This dust spray came from the direction of the Texas School Book Depository building. A few seconds later, he heard what he believed to be three shots. He did not see anyone fall but he saw a woman grab someone and hold him and heard her say "Oh, no! Oh, no!" It seemed as if the car slowed down for a few seconds and then he heard a voice say something to the effect of: "Get out of here," and the car quickly sped away.

Immediately thereafter, he turned around trying to look in all directions at once, and watched newsmen running around trying to take pictures. He also noticed a motorcycle lying in the street. He does not recall seeing anyone else that he knew on the railroad overpass or in the vicinity of the shooting besides Mr. MILLER, and a man he believes was the electrician of the Union Terminal Building but whose name he does not recall.

He does not recall ever seeing the President of the United States during the above-described scene.

He saw an open top limousine containing people turning left off of Houston, driving west directly in front of the Texas School Book Depository building. He heard three shots and also noticed a powder dust spray in the street directly to the driver's side and rear of the car. He immediately looked to his left and back on the hill west of the Texas School Book Depository building to see if anyone was standing there.

It was his first impression that the noise of the shots was a motorcycle backfire or firecrackers. Turning back to observe the car, he saw someone fall forward, but he could not tell who was in this car, and the car was then driving very fast under the railroad overpass. After the car disappeared, a motorcycle policeman drove up on to the hill, west of the Texas School Book Depository building and ran up the hill. There were other men that he assumed were plainclothes police officers, some carrying guns in their hands, and other uniformed police officers also running up the hill. He noticed that there was no one moving on the hill other than the police officers or on the railroad tracks behind the park wall. He did not notice anyone in the building and did not know where the "shot" sounds came from. He does not recall seeing anyone with cameras near the scene, and SKELTON and the electrician of the Union Terminal Building whose name he does not know, plus approximately ten to fifteen people, were the only individuals on the railroad overpass.

He recalls that prior to the above-described scene, a police officer was on the railroad overpass checking the identification of everyone and turning away anyone who was not employed by the railroad since this was railroad property.

Mr. FRANK E. REILLY, residence 3309 Thibet Street, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at the Union Terminal Company, Union Station, where he is employed as an electrician.

Mr. REILLY advised that he and Mr. R. C. DODD, track foreman, and Mr. S. M. ROLLAND, Signal Supervisor, both Union Terminal Company, Dallas, Texas planned to view the Presidential motorcade from the railroad overpass at Elm Street. They arrived there about thirty minutes before the Presidential motorcade came to Elm Street. He saw two cars turn on Elm toward the underpass and at this time heard three shots which he thought came from the trees west of the Texas School Book Depository. The second car in line drove quickly around the first car and went under the railroad overpass. Mr. REILLY said that he did not see the passengers in this car, and he did not see the President of the United States at any time. Mr. REILLY advised that he did not know or recognize any other person in the vicinity of the place where he was observing the Presidential motorcade.

Mr. REILLY advised that he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor did he know of JACK RUBY prior to the news release after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

Mr. HARRY HOLMES, Inspector, U. S. Post Office, Terminal Annex, Dallas, advised he and several employees in his office were watching the Presidential Motorcade on the afternoon of November 22, 1963 at the time of the President's assassination. Mr. HOLMES pointed out the windows of his office looked down on the area in which the fatal shots were fired. Mr. HOLMES said he was using a pair of binoculars himself at the time of the shooting, and one of the employees in his office was observing the President when the bullets struck the President.

Mr. JIM TAGUE, 2424 Inwood, Apartment 253, employed as a salesman, Chuck Hutton Company, 5431 Lemmon Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised that he was driving a car on November 22, 1963, and was stopped in traffic at the Triple Underpass located below the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) Building. While stopped, he saw that the Presidential Motorcade was going to pass nearby, and he got out of his car and stood near the Triple Underpass between Commerce and Main Streets. He stood near the curb of Main Street waiting for the motorcade to come to where he was standing. When the motorcade was approximately 100 feet from him he heard a loud noise, and at that time he looked around as he thought someone had shot a firecracker. He then heard two more loud noises in quick succession. Other persons in the area then started scrambling around, and he realized that the noises must have been gun shots, so he got behind one of the pillars of the underpass. During the time of the shooting, he felt something hit him on his right cheek. Whatever it was that hit him broke the skin and caused about two drops of blood to flow. He thought possibly that one of the bullets had hit the curb near his feet and possibly a piece of the curbing had hit him in the cheek. He did look around the curb and near where he was standing there was a chip missing, which he stated looked fresh. He stated he did not see anyone with a rifle and did not look at the TSBD Building. He did not see the shots take effect and stated he could not furnish any information as to where the shots actually came from. He stated he is not acquainted with OSWALD and had never heard of him prior to the shooting of President KENNEDY.

He has been in JACK RUBY's club on a few occasions, but he actually knows nothing about RUBY, his associations, or his background. He does know RUBY, however, by sight, since he has seen him in his club on a few occasions. TAGUE stated he did not know of any connection or associations between OSWALD and RUBY.

JOHN F. DOLAN, 6311 Martel Street, advised he is employed at the Sportatorium, Industrial Boulevard and Cadiz, Dallas, Texas. According to Mr. DOLAN, he was stopped at the eastern edge of the triple viaduct where the three streets of Commerce, Main and Elm merge, on November 22, 1963; the reason being traffic was held up at this point since the Presidential motorcade was approaching this section of Dallas.

Inasmuch as all traffic was stopped, he got out of his car and stood at the base of the triple viaduct, facing toward the concrete memorial, which is on the north side of Elm Street and just west of the Texas School Book Depository. As he was standing at this point, and prior to the arrival of the Presidential motorcade, he noticed an unknown white male tossing a white ball, about the size of a softball, in the air. This person would throw the ball up and seem to catch it himself; and it caught his eye inasmuch as this person appeared to be about 30 years of age and was wearing white sneakers.

He further described this individual as being about six feet tall with black curly hair, wearing dark colored jacket and non-descriptive pants. He also doubted if he would ever recognize this individual were he to see him again.

Shortly after he noticed this individual, the Presidential motorcade came into view and from where he stood he could hear three shots fired at the President's car. He advised he did not see where these shots came from, nor who fired these shots; but thought possibly the individual whom he has described and who was standing on the grass triangle between Elm and Main Streets, might possibly have either been a decoy or a signal for the assassin when to shoot. He concluded by saying he had no particular reason for this thought, but merely wished to volunteer this information to the FBI.

Mr. FARMER advised that on November 22, 1963, at approximately 12:15 p.m., he arrived at the Dallas County Courthouse to pay taxes. He was unaware that there was to be a presidential motorcade passing by. He noticed the crowd and heard someone say that the President is coming. He waited in the park at the corner of Houston and Elm Streets and watched the motorcade come west off Main Street on to Houston Street and then west on Elm.

He stated he saw President KENNEDY appear to fall over in the car and then he saw Governor CONNALLY also appear to fall over. He did not hear any shots fired and did not know what had happened. There was confusion with many people running in all directions, and then the President's car drove off at a high rate of speed.

FARMER stated that he did not know what happened, but thought that both men had been shot; however, he did not hear any shots.

He stated he has no further information to furnish on the shooting as he then returned home. He does not know LEE OSWALD and has never seen him other than on television. He does not know JACK RUBY and saw him only on television.

Mrs. TONEY (RUBY) HENDERSON, 1434 Prairie Creek, Dallas, Texas (EX 1.2474), furnished the following information:

On November 22, 1963 at approximately 12:15 P.M., she was standing on the east side of Elm Street just north of Houston Street awaiting the passing of the Presidential Motorcade at that site. She said shortly after she arrived at this location, and just prior to the arrival of the motorcade, she recalls an ambulance arriving and departing the area to pick up an individual whom she understood had an epileptic fit. Mrs. HENDERSON said after the ambulance departed the area, she heard a woman in the record building located on the southwest corner of Elm and Houston, yell "Yeah, Woodman," which is a Dallas High School, and she looked in the direction from which the yell emanated. She said she thereafter swung around and looked in the building in which she works, the building located on the southeast corner of Elm and Houston and thence around to the Texas School Book Depository Building.

She said she observed numerous people on various floors looking out of the windows of the Texas School Book Depository Building, and recalls that she saw two men on one of the upper floors of the building. She said she recalls one of the men had on a white shirt and one had on a dark shirt. She said she only observed these men from the waist up and does not know what their other attire consisted of. She said these men were standing back from the window and she got the impression they were working and yet looking out the window in anticipation of the motorcade passing that building. She said she saw these men before the motorcade reached Houston and Elm, but doesn't have any idea how long it was prior to the motorcade arriving at that location. She said she believes the person in the white shirt had dark hair and was possibly a Mexican, but could have been a Negro as he appeared to be dark-complexioned. She said she couldn't describe the other person other than the fact he was taller than the aforementioned individual.

Mrs. HENDERSON said at the time the motorcade passed where she was standing, she heard what she initially thought was a firecracker and saw what she thought was paper fly out of the Presidential car. She said she now realized it was a shot she heard and what she thought was paper was probably flesh. She said after the first shot, she believes she heard two more in rapid succession, and then a fourth shot.

Mrs. HENDERSON said after the shooting she stood transfixed for some time before returning to work. She said she returned to her place of employment at approximately 12:43 P.M.

Mrs. HENDERSON said she became extremely upset, and nervous, after the President's assassination and it was necessary for her to take the following Monday off her job. She said she hesitated to mention anything about her observations but felt she should relate same as they might possibly be of some benefit.

Mrs. HENDERSON reiterated she could not definitely state one of the men she saw in the window of the Texas School Book Depository was not a Negro. She said she does not know what floor of the building the men were on, but doesn't recall seeing anyone on a floor higher up than the one they were on.

1 Date 11/25/63

Mrs. JACK FRANZEN, 11572 Cromwell Circle, contacted at 1900 Main Street, advised she was with her husband and small son viewing the motorcade of President KENNEDY from the park area near the intersection of Houston and Elm Streets at approximately 12:30 PM, November 22, 1963.

She advised shortly after the President's automobile passed by on Elm Street near where she and her family were standing, she heard a noise which sounded to her as if someone had thrown a firecracker into the President's automobile. She advised at approximately the same time she noticed dust or small pieces of debris flying from the President's automobile.

She advised she heard two other sounds which sounded like shots from a firearm and noticed blood appearing on the side of President KENNEDY's head.

She does not remember looking at the building housing the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD); however, she stated this building was across Elm Street from the position where she was standing, and she may have looked toward the building. She advised the President's automobile continued on down Elm Street at a higher rate of speed, and she observed police officers and plain-clothes men, whom she assumed were Secret Service Agents, searching an area adjacent to the TSBD Building, from which area she assumed the shots which she heard had come.

She advised her small son called her attention to the fact that some of the men in the automobile behind the President's car were holding guns in their hands shortly after the shots which apparently struck President KENNEDY and stated she assumed these men were Secret Service Agents.

She advised she has no additional information which she feels might be helpful to this investigation.

JOHN ARTHUR CHISM, 4502 Underwood Drive, advised he was employed as a cook at the Marriott Motel, 2101 Stemmons Freeway, Dallas, Texas. According to CHISM, he was standing on the curb in front of the concrete memorial on Elm Street which is just east of the triple underpass where Elm, Commerce and Main join in Dallas on November 22, 1963. He was standing at this location when the Presidential motorcade passed this point. As it passed in front of him he heard at least two shots and possibly three but no more. The first shot he thought was a firecracker until the second shot sounded and at the same instant he saw the President slump over in the back seat of the Presidential limousine. On hearing the second shot he definitely knew the first was not a firecracker and was of the opinion the shots came from behind him.

At this point Mr. CHISM advised he would be looking south and, therefore, immediately turned towards the north but did not see anyone who apppared to be doing the shooting either in the aforementioned concrete memorial or in the Texas School Book Depository. He also advised that since the day of the shooting he has seen both LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK L. RUBY's photograph in the news media but is positive he does not know either of these two men and also did not possess any information which might indicate these two men were associated with each other.

United States Attorney H. BAREFOOT SANDERS, Dallas, Texas, telephonically advised ASAC KYLE G. CLARK on December 5, 1963, that a reporter for the Dallas "Morning News", name unrecalled, had advised him that four of the women working in the Society Section of the Dallas "Morning News" were reportedly standing next to Mr. ZAPRUDA when the assassination shots were fired. According to this reporter, these women, names unknown, stated that the shots according to their opinion came from a direction other than from the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) Building. Mr. SANDERS also advised that the reporter calling stated he had interviewed Patrolman J. M. SMITH who advised that he definitely distinguished the aroma of gunpowder near the underpass.

Patrolman JOSEPH M. SMITH, Traffic Division, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, on December 9, 1963, advised SA'S HENRY J. OLIVER and LOUIS M. KELLEY that he was working on November 22, 1963, on traffic at Elm and Houston Streets. He stated he was near the parking lot when the shots were fired which killed President KENNEDY. The shots echoed so loudly he had no idea at the time where they had been fired from. He stated he did smell what he thought was gunpowder but stated this smell was in the parking lot by the TSBD Building and not by the underpass. He advised he never at any time went to the underpass and could not advise if there was the smell of gunpowder in the underpass. He stated he did not see the President when he was shot and stated he saw nothing which would assist in this matter. After the shots were fired, there was a great deal of confusion, and he left his post for a few minutes to go in the area where the President had been shot but did not go in the TSBD Building.

Patrolman E. V. BROWN, Traffic Division, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, on December 9, 1963, advised SA'S OLIVER and KELLEY that on November 22, 1963, he was assigned to traffic and was stationed on the overpass located below the TSBD Building. He stated he heard the shots that killed

President KENNEDY, but he did not see the shots take effect and stated he could not furnish any information which would assist in identifying the assassin. He advised that he believed he could smell gunpowder in the air on the overpass but believed it probably was brought there by the wind. No shots could have been fired from the overpass, as he was present in this area at least an hour or two before the motorcade came along and was there on duty when the President was shot.

He advised that about 10:40 AM, he recalls a green pickup truck which was stalled on Elm Street near the overpass. This truck was a concern since they needed to get it moved prior to the Presidential Motorcade. Patrolman JOE MURPHY can give full facts regarding the truck and the occupants as he handled the matter and was successful in getting it removed prior to the Presidential Motorcade. The persons in this truck were workmen who actually had trouble with the truck and were out of the area when the motorcade came by. He did not see anyone remove anything from this truck.

LMK:mam

The following investigation was conducted by SA'S HENRY J. OLIVER and LOUIS M. KELLEY on December 9, 1963:

JOE MURPHY, Patrolman, Traffic Division, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was stationed on the Triple Underpass on Elm Street to assist in handling traffic. At approximately 10:30 - 10:40 AM, a pickup truck stalled on Elm Street between Houston Street and the underpass. He was unable to recall the name of the company to whom this truck belonged but stated it is the property of the company working on the First National Bank Building at Elm and Akard in Dallas.

There were three construction men in this truck, and he took one to the bank building to obtain another truck in order to assist in moving the stalled one. The other two men remained with the pickup truck along with two other officers. Shortly prior to the arrival of the motorcade, the man he had taken to the bank building returned with a second truck, and all three of the men left with the two trucks, one pushing the other.

MURPHY noted that the men did not leave the truck except for the one he took to the bank building, and all three left together sometime prior to the arrival of the President's motorcade. He described the stalled truck as being a green pickup and noted the truck had the hood raised during the time it was stalled. This truck had side tool bins on it, and they had a considerable amount of construction equipment in the back.

MURPHY further stated it was probable that one of these men had taken something from the rear of this truck in an effort to start it. He stated these persons were under observation all during the period they were stalled on Elm Street because the officers wanted the truck moved prior to the arrival of the motorcade, and it would have been impossible for any of them to have had anything to do with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Sheriff BILL DECKER, Dallas, Texas, advised that Deputy Sheriff ROGER CRAIG, in his opinion, is a reliable employee who is completely honest in his belief that he saw OSWALD getting into a white Nash Rambler immediately after the shooting, even though CRAIG is obviously mistaken in his belief. DECKER said that he had discussed this identification with CRAIG and pointed out to him that witnesses, corroborated by the transfer found in OSWALD's possession, showed that OSWALD left the assassination scene on November 22, 1963, by a city bus. CRAIG stated to DECKER that he was aware of all that and knew that this indicated that CRAIG was mistaken in his identification, but he still saw someone getting into a white Nash Rambler and still believed that this person was LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

RALPH LEON YATES "Dallas, Texas

"I, RALPH LEON YATES, make the following statement voluntarily to C. RAY HALL, who has identified himself to me as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. No threats or promises have been made to me to get me to make this statement. I have been told that I do not have to make a statement, that I have a right to talk with a lawyer before making any statement, and that this statement may be used against me in a court of law.

"I was born at Dallas, Texas, on January 23, 1936, and went to the ninth grade in school. I am now working as a refrigeration service-man for the Texas Butcher Supply Co., at 2038 Commerce, in Dallas, Texas, and live at 13564 Brookgreen in Dallas.

"On a date that I now believe was Wednesday, November 20, 1963, I had been to Charlie Jordan's Meat Market in Oak Cliff, and was driving on the R. L. Thornton Expressway on my way to the Parkit-Market on Shadygrove Road in Irving, Texas. I noticed a man hitch-hiking near the Beckley Street entrance to the expressway, and stopped and picked up this man. When this man walked up to get into the pickup truck, he was carrying a package wrapped in brown wrapping paper about four feet to four and one-half feet long. I told this man he could put the package in the back of the truck, but the man said that the package had curtain rods in it, and he would just carry it with him. Later, as I drove along, this man asked me if I knew where the Carousel Club was, or had ever been there. I told him that I had not been there and did not know where the Carousel Club was located. The man then asked me if I knew a JACK RUBENSTEIN, and I said 'Who?'

The man then said that JACK RUBENSTEIN was more commonly known as JACK RUBY, and RUBY ran the Carousel Club. I then asked the man if RUBY ran Jack's Branch Office Lounge on Industrial, and the man said that he didn't. I told the man that I had serviced refrigerators in a number of clubs, in the past, and had possibly been to the Carousel Club, but did not remember it.

"I mentioned to this man that there was going to be a lot of excitement in Dallas soon, and this man asked me what I meant. I told him that the President was coming to Dallas, but I personally felt that the President should not come to Dallas, because of the reception which ADLAI STEVENSON got not too long ago. This man then asked me if I thought a person could assassinate the President. I told him that I guess such a thing could be possible. The man then asked me if it could be done from the top of a building, or out of a window, high up, and I told him I guessed this would be possible, if a man had a good rifle with a scope on it, and was a good shot.

"This man then pulled a picture out of his pocket, and showed it to me. This was a photograph of the man who was in the car with me; and it showed him holding a rifle in his right hand, with the butt of the rifle resting on the ground. The photo showed the rifle to have a strap on it, but did not have a scope on the rifle. This photo also showed that the man had a pistol of some kind in a holster on his left side. After I looked at the picture, this man asked me if I thought the President could be killed with a gun like that one, and I told the man that I guessed so.

"This man then asked me if I knew the President's route for the parade in Dallas, and I told him I did not know the route, but it had been in the paper.

The man then said I misunderstood him, and he had asked me if I thought the President would change his route. I told him that I doubted if he would change the route, unless they might for safety reasons.

"We were almost to downtown Dallas by this time, and I told the man I was going on to Irving and asked him where he was going. This man said he was going to Houston Street, so I told him I would turn off the expressway and let him off on Houston Street. I turned off at the Commerce Street exit and when I got to Houston Street, turned left off of Commerce. I asked the man where he wanted off, and he said that anywhere along Houston Street would be all right, so I let him off at the corner of Elm and Houston Streets when I stopped there for a red light. The man got out of my truck, and took his package with him. I turned left and went on to Irving, and did not see which way the man went from where I let him out, except he walked across Elm Street going North on Houston. As the man got out of my truck, he said something about the triple underpass, but I didn't understand what he said.

"After I got back from Irving, that same day, I told DEMPSEY JONES, a man that I work with, about the conversation I had with this man.

"After President KENNEDY was assassinated, I saw pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the newspaper and on television. I remember seeing a full page photograph on the front page of one Dallas newspaper, that showed LEE HARVEY OSWALD just an instant before he was shot.

"I have been shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and this photograph has a label 'Dallas Police, 54018, 11 23 63.' This is a photograph of the man that I picked up and gave a ride to, and had the conversation with as set forth above in this statement.

"I have read this statement which is written on this and one other page an, it is true to the best of my knowlage

MARION MEHARG, 2102 Village Way, Dallas, Texas, communicated with this office at which time he inquired as to whether Agents of this office had located a green and white Chevrolet station wagon which he had previously called to the attention of this office. SA BROWN was familiar with the name of MARION MEHARG as having made several previous calls to this office reporting the activities of a woman driving a green and white Chevrolet station wagon. SA BROWN was also cognizant of information obtained from a Mrs. CLICK, mother-in-law of MEHARG, in which Mrs. CLICK advised Bureau Agents MEHARG for several months has attempted to cause trouble for his former wife by reporting her to the Dallas Police Department on unfounded complaints.

MEHARG was advised this office had no information for release concerning the information discussed by MEHARG.

MRS. BERNICE CLICK, 905 Barnett, advised that she is the mother of MILDRED MILLER, who was formerly married to MARION MEHARG.

MRS. CLICK stated that her daughter MILDRED remarried approximately two months ago to a DAVID MILLER and moved to Atlanta, Georgia. They presently reside at 186--13th Street, N.E., Apartment 2, Atlanta.

MRS. CLICK stated that MILDRED's daughters, JANE and JUDY JENKINS were in Atlanta, visiting their mother and returned to Dallas on November 17, 1963. They are now staying with her at above address.

MRS. CLICK stated that she has been contacted by MARION MEHARG on several occasions where he is attempting to locate the address of his former wife, MILDRED. She stated that MARION MEHARG is attempting to regain custody of his two boys.

She stated that MARION has in the past, threatened MILDRED with a knife and threatened to commit suicide. She does not know where he is presently employed and does not hold a job for more than one week.

MRS. CLICK advised as far as she knows, her daughter MILDRED still owns her 1956 Chevrolet station wagon.

MARION MEHARG advised he resides at 2102 Village Way, Dallas, Texas, telephone FR 1-0921, with his sister, Mrs. LORETTA AVERY. He was interviewed on the premises of the Cooperative Delivery Service, 410 South Good-Latimer Expressway, telephone RI 2-2288, where he is temporarily employed as a mechanic.

He was asked if he is the same man who furnished information to SA ALFRED C. ELLINGTON on December 2, 1963 concerning observing certain events take place on the day of President KENNEDY's assassination in the vicinity of the Texas School Book Depository building. He stated that he did talk to Mr. ELLINGTON and furnished him with certain information.

MEHARG was advised at this time that to knowingly furnish false information to federal officers is a violation of a federal law. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement or answer any questions, and that any statement made by him or questions answered could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised of his right to seek legal counsel before answering any questions. He was advised again that if he now furnished information which is false and which he knew to be false, he could be prosecuted.

MEHARG was then asked if he advised SA ALFRED C. ELLINGTON on December 2, 1963 as follows:

That within a matter of minutes after President KENNEDY was shot, he observed a man come out of the Texas School Book Depository building, jump off the loading dock at the rear of the building, run across Houston Street and get into a 1956 green and white Chevrolet station wagon; that he further observed the license number on this vehicle and believes the first four digits were PW 17. He was further asked that did his former wife not own a 1956 green and white Chevrolet station wagon with a 1963 Texas license PW 1784.

MEHARG stated that he did furnish SA ELLINGTON this information and advised that he is worried about his two boys who are in the custody of his former wife, MILDRED, and is afraid she might have gotten mixed up in this affair. He stated he is sure he observed a 1956 green and white Chevrolet station wagon on Houston Street with Texas license starting with PW or PB or PF or something, and was afraid it was hers.

At this time, MEHARG was asked if he made anonymous phone calls to the Dallas Office of the FBI stating that license number PW 1784 is a lead in this case. He stated that he did make an anonymous call and also called the Texas Highway Patrol. MEHARG stated that he did this as he was worried about his two sons and was afraid his wife might be mixed up in some way. At this time, MEHARG stated he did not mean to furnish false information and again repeated that he is worried about his two boys. He does not know where his former wife, MILDRED, is and wants to find her and his two boys.

At this time, MEHARG was again reminded that to furnish information known to be false to the FBI is a violation of federal law and could result in his being prosecuted. At this time, he stated he did not intend to give wrong information and kept repeating he is worried about his boys and was afraid MILDRED may have been involved. He reiterated he is positive he saw somebody jump off the loading platform of the Texas School Book Depository building and get into a 1956 green and white Chevrolet station wagon which was occupied by at least one other man and drive away. The license was similar to that of his former wife's car, and his former wife also owns a similar described car.

He was asked if he called the FBI and said that a woman with a green and white Chevrolet station wagon, Texas license PW 1784 and who has "hung out" at the Carousel Club, was seen picking up OSWALD in Irving. He did not answer this question, however, and continued to state that he is worried about his boys.

MEHARG advised that he has a third grade education and can barely read and write. He is suffering from "the smothers" and is nervous. He was rejected for military service for reasons unknown. He admitted being "picked up" by the Police in Dallas at least ten times for being drunk. He stated that he had been married to MILDRED for 13 years, and that she divorced him approximately two months ago and married a man named [redacted] and he does not know their location.

Re: ROY S. TRULY
Texas School Book Depository

On December 5, 1963, at Memphis, Tennessee, Dr. CLEMENT COTTER, Senior Surgeon, U.S. Public Health Service Hospital, telephonically advised SA CYRIL F. BUSCH that he knew of one ROY TRULY of Dallas, Texas, possibly identical with the employer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the Texas School Book Depository. Dr. COTTER furnished the following information concerning the TRULY whom he thought might be identical with this individual:

From 1953 to 1955 TRULY worked as a chauffeur and general handyman for Dr. ANDREW TOMB, who operated a clinic on Hallettsville Highway, Victoria, Texas, where Dr. COTTER was assigned as a student physician for four months in 1954. TRULY was a peculiar person in that he frequently carried a pet parakeet with him on his finger.

TRULY was reputed to be an experienced sniper and on one occasion told Dr. COTTER of an experience in Europe during World War II sniping at Germans, after which encounter he was captured and commended by the German Commander. In 1957 while Dr. COTTER was practicing at Galveston, Texas, TRULY visited his office there, said he was selling stock and gave a Dallas, Texas, address.

In 1960 Dr. TOMB died, but ROY TRULY is well known to Dr. GEORGE CONSTANT, a psychiatrist at Victoria, and should be known to other former employees of Dr. TOMB.

Dr. COTTER described ROY TRULY as a white male, now 40 to 45 years of age, 6'2" tall, weighing 200 pounds with "pot belly", brown wavy hair, dark eyes, some gold on front teeth, a cigar smoker who was in 1957 married to a woman named JACKIE.

Agent PINKSTON has interviewed Mr. ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Superintendent, Texas School Book Depository, on numerous occasions since November 22, 1963. The description of ROY TRULY, furnished by Doctor CLEMENT COTTER, Senior Surgeon, U. S. Public Health Service Hospital, Memphis, Tennessee, could not be a description of Mr. ROY S. TRULY, of the Texas School Book Depository.

A check of the Dallas City Directories, from 1963 back to, and including, 1951, each year shows Mr. ROY S. TRULY employed by the Texas School Book Depository, in Dallas, Texas.

FERDINAND KAUFMAN, 608 Domine Drive, who is employed as an associated press photographer, with office at 353 Dallas News Building, telephonically advised SA EDMOND C. HARDIN that he had heard a rumor to the effect that the gunsmith at Irving, Texas, who had allegedly mounted the scope on LEE HARVEY OSWALD's rifle denies that he did mount this scope. Mr. KAUFMAN added that on December 5, 1963, he was in the home of Mrs. SHIRLEY WILLIAMSON, 3329 Avenue N, Fort Worth, Texas, which individual is raising a fund for the widow of OSWALD, KAUFMAN advised that he gathered the impression that Mrs. WILLIAMSON and her husband, who is a cement worker, are supposed to be destitute, but he was surprized to notice while in their home a phone bill in the amount of $67. He did not have the occasion to examine this bill in detail.

Mr. KAUFMAN stated that while in the WILLIAMSON home, he noticed that Mr. WILLIAMSON has an elaborate gun shop located therein. KAUFMAN added that inasmuch as it is rumored that the gunsmith at Irving presently denies mounting OSWALD's scope, he, KAUFMAN, wished to suggest the possibility that Mr. WILLIAMSON may have mounted this scope or may have information concerning OSWALD, although KAUFMAN is under the impression that the WILLIAMSONs claim they did not know OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mrs. EDITH WHITWORTH, home address 315 South Jefferson, Irving, Texas, advised that around November 6, 7, or 8, 1963 (she was unable to definitely establish the date in her mind), an individual whom she later knew was LEE HARVEY OSWALD from his photograph had come into the Furniture Mart where she was working.

At the time OSWALD came into the store, there was a gun repair sign on the front of the building which had been left there by the previous occupant. OSWALD was directed to a gun repair shop approximately 1½ blocks away from the Furniture Mart.

While in the store, Mrs. WHITWORTH stated that OSWALD inquired as to both a living room and dining room set, stating that he would need both in the near future. While in the store, his wife, carrying a small baby and leading a small girl, came in and observed OSWALD's activities but never made any statement or said anything. When she came in, OSWALD told Mrs. WHITWORTH that his youngest child had been born on October 20, 1963, and Mrs. WHITWORTH recalled this date as being the approximate time that a grandchild of hers had been born.

OSWALD remained in the Furniture Mart approximately 15 minutes, but despite the conversation concerning the infant child, no attempt was made by Mrs. OSWALD to exhibit the baby, nor did she permit anyone to look at the child.

On leaving the Furniture Mart (second-hand furniture store), the OSWALDs made a U-turn and left driving against the traffic on East Irving Boulevard in the direction of the gun repair shop in either a 1956 or 1957 two-tone blue and white Ford or Plymouth.

OSWALD did not have any type of firearm in his possession at the time he was in the Furniture Mart.

Mr. G. E. SMITH advised he resides at 604 Argenthia, Apartment C (Wynnewood), Dallas, Texas, telephone WH 2-9176. He is the daytime service attendant at the Shell Service Station on the corner of Rock Island and Story Streets, Irving, Texas. He became so employed during April, 1963, exact date unknown to him at this time.

Mr. SMITH advised that he heard conversation at the station to the effect that ROBERT TAYLOR, the mechanic, purchased a rifle from a customer, and that TAYLOR is of the opinion the customer was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. This occurred before he first became employed at this station, and did not see the individual who sold TAYLOR the rifle.

SMITH stated that a woman, whose name he does not know but she resides at 2515 5th Street, Irving, Texas, and who is in some way connected with the OSWALDs, has been a customer at this station. She drives a 1957 Chevrolet station wagon and he has serviced it on several occasions including oil changes and washings. On one such occasion, he delivered groceries that were in the back of the automobile to her house and actually carried them into the house. While in her home, she mentioned to him that her children speak Russian better than they speak English, and made a flat statement, "We're Russian."

SMITH continued that he never knew this lady's name and still does not know it; however, in view of all the excitement that occurred in the neighborhood after the assassination of President KENNEDY, he realized that she was in some way connected with LEE OSWALD or Mrs. OSWALD. She has come to the station for gasoline only on one occasion since the assassination.

ROBERT ADRIAN TAYLOR advised he resides on Hard Rock Road near Irving, Texas and has Post Office Box 125G, Route #1, Grand Prairie, Texas. He is employed as a mechanic at the Shell Service Station on the southwest corner of Rock Island and Story Streets, Irving, Texas.

Mr. TAYLOR advised as follows:

Upon viewing LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television, he recognized OSWALD as the man who sold him a rifle in approximately March or April, 1963.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD taken at New Orleans, Louisiana on August 9, 1963 was exhibited to TAYLOR, and he stated that he is very sure that the man who sold him the rifle was OSWALD and identical with the photograph and with the man on television. It is a possibility, of course, that it could be someone who strongly resembles OSWALD.

He believes it was in March or April, 1963 and fixed the date as it happened just prior to the time Mr. G. E. SMITH became employed as an attendant at the station. He determined from SMITH that SMITH first became employed in April, 1963. Further, a former employee at the station, CURTIS CROWDER, resigned in April, 1963 and was present at the time he purchased the rifle.

He is of the opinion the incident happened on a Saturday and in the morning hours. Two men drove into the station complaining of engine trouble in their car. He determined that the generator of the automobile needed repairs, and that it would cost $11.50 to make these repairs.

on 12/13/63 at Irving, Texas File # DL 100-10461

by Special Agent MAURICE J. WHITE/rms Date dictated 12/14/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

The man who he now believes to be OSWALD was a passenger in the car. Between them, they did not have $11.50 at which time the man he believes to be OSWALD asked him if he would like to buy a rifle. He replied that he might be interested, at which time one of the two men opened the trunk of the car and said, "There it is."

TAYLOR asked what kind of a gun it was and received a reply that it is an "0 six". He picked the weapon out of the trunk, looked at it and offered $12.00. The driver of the vehicle then said, "You're not going to let it go for that. You paid $35.00 for it." The passenger then replied, "No, we need the money."

TAYLOR continued that he obtained $12.00 out of the cash drawer and purchased the rifle. He then proceeded to repair the generator and charged them $11.50 which they paid and departed. He does not recall the make and model of the automobile, but thinks it could have been a 1959 Chevrolet.

He described the rifle as a Springfield bolt action 30.06 caliber. It contained the markings U.S. Rock Island Arsenal, Model 1906 and has serial number 66091. He was of the opinion the rifle had never been fired as it had a great deal of grease in the barrel. It appeared to him as a typical surplus rifle that was probably released for sale by the Government during the last five or ten years. He has since reconditioned the weapon and his son is now using it on a deer hunt.

TAYLOR stated that he had never seen either of these two men before this time. He does think, however, that the man he believes to be OSWALD came into the station several weeks to a month later as a passenger in another automobile, this time driven by a woman. He did not get a good look at the woman and does not know who she is nor can he give a description of her. He cannot recall what kind of automobile the woman was driving, and would hesitate to give a description of it.

He stated, naturally, he cannot be positively sure that the man who sold him the rifle was OSWALD. He feels that it was OSWALD as that upon viewing OSWALD on television, he immediately thought of this rifle, and at that instant thought that OSWALD was the man who sold the weapon to him. At the time of the purchase, this man was wearing ordinary slacks and a jacket and did not express much knowledge of an automobile.

He described the driver of the car as a white male, about 20 years of age, 5'8" tall with dark hair and a thin face. He has never seen either men since other than in the one incident related before.

TAYLOR stated that he has followed the investigation of the assassination of President KENNEDY on television as well as the shooting of OSWALD by JACK RUBY. He has never seen JACK RUBY to his knowledge and knows of no information concerning him.

C. Tracing of Sling for Assassination Weapon

NAP:mja

The following investigation was conducted by SAS NAT A. PINKSTON and ALLAN D. BRAY, on December 7, 1963:

Mr. RAY BRANTLEY, owner and operator of Ray's Hardware, 736 Singleton Boulevard, Dallas, one of the largest gun shops in Dallas, observed a photograph of the 6.5 rifle used by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that although, he has handled many, many rifles and slings, he has never seen a sling like the one appearing in the photograph on this rifle. He stated that in his opinion, this is a home-made sling and was apparently made out of luggage straps, or something of that nature, and not originally designed as a rifle sling.

Mr. MAURICE RUBIN, Manager, Texas Army-Navy Stores, 128 West Jefferson Boulevard, Dallas, observed a photograph of OSWALD'S rifle and immediately stated he had never seen a sling like the one appearing in the photograph of this rifle. He stated that his store handles both new and military surplus rifle slings, both for American and foreign-made guns, but he has never seen a sling of this nature. He suggested that inquiry be made at the Fair Jobbing Company, 1322 Marilla, the headquarters for the Texas Army-Navy Stores, in Dallas.

Mr. JOHN W. HALL, Fair Jobbing Company, observed a photograph of OSWALD'S rifle. He stated that he had not ever seen a sling like the one appearing on this rifle and does not believe that it was designed, or made, as a rifle sling, but is a "home-made" job made of leather straps designed for some other purpose.

Mr. JERRY HOOD, L. B. Mercantile Company, 123 West Jefferson Boulevard, Dallas, a store handling surplus materials, advised he had never seen a sling similar to the one appearing in the photograph of OSWALD'S rifle and does not know where such a sling might have been obtained.

Mr. AL YEARGAIN, Manager, Sporting Goods Department, H. L. Green Company, Main and Ervay Streets, Dallas, the man who furnished the information which established the original source of OSWALD'S rifle through which it was traced, advised that he has handled rifles similar to this rifle used by OSWALD, but has never seen a sling like the one appearing in the photograph of this rifle; and feels sure this is a home-made sling.

Mr. GEORGE G. VAN METER, Control Buyer (musical instruments), Sears Roebuck and Company, 1409 S. Lamar, was shown two photographs of the leather sling taken from the assassination weapon used in the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY; however, Mr. VAN METER was not told what this object was nor where it came from but was merely asked his opinion as to what the object was.

Mr. VAN METER said it was his opinion that the object in the photograph was a guitar strap. Mr. VAN METER checked the Sears Roebuck catalog and advised that this strap was not one bought or sold by Sears Roebuck.

Mr. VAN METER advised he believes the following individuals and companies might be able to identify the manufacturer of the guitar strap if shown a photograph of it:

M. M. COLE, Importer, 823 S. Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

C. H. RUBOVITS, Vice President, The Harmony Shop, 4700 Kolin Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

R. W. KENWORTH, Vice President, Kay Musical Instruments Company, 1640 Walnut Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Mr. HABERMAN observed the photographs briefly and he immediately said that in his opinion this was a guitar strap and that he had often seen guitar straps of similar construction.

Mr. HABERMAN searched the supply of guitar straps in his supply shop but was unable to locate one of similar construction. This however did not change his opinion as to what the object was.

He advised he believes that Sears Roebuck has handled similar guitar straps. Mr. HABERMAN added he does not recall that such a guitar strap had been sold in his shop pointing out that such guitar straps are usually sold along with the guitar in the operation of a pawn shop.

Mr. JACK WILDER, Salesman, David Wexler Accessories Company, 823 South Wabash, Chicago, Illinois, residence 3040 Walnut Hill Lane, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at the FBI Office, Dallas, Texas. Mr. WILDER was shown two photographs which were the front and back side of a leather strap used as a rifle sling on the rifle which was used in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. Mr. WILDER was not advised of the source or identity of this object and was asked what his opinion was concerning the identity of this object. He said that the strap could be a guitar strap but he had never seen one like it, although he had many salesmen for David Wexler for many years and had distributed many varieties of guitar straps to music stores.

He advised that the following companies may be able to determine the identity and origin of this strap provided it is a guitar strap:

Mr. WILLIAM R. MC EWAN, Branch Manager, United-Carr Fastener Corporation, 1066 West Mockingbird Lane, was interviewed at his residence, 4442 Hockaday. Dallas, Texas

Mr. MC EWAN was shown a photograph of a leather strap used as a rifle sling on the rifle used in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. This photograph revealed that there were two fasteners on this leather strap which were marked "United Carr".

Mr. MC EWAN said that he believed that these snap type fasteners were manufactured by the Carr Fastener Company, Division of United-Carr Fastener Corporation, Cambridge, Massachusetts, under the trade name of "Dot" fasteners. He said that it appears that the fasteners were "Baby Durable fasteners", parts numbers BS-12303 (stud) and BS-12402 (eyelet). Mr. MC EWAN said that it also appeared that the rivets used to hold the large piece of leather to the strap appeared to be "Dot Speedy rivets", parts numbers *BS-99972 (button-top) and *BS-22405 (eyelet base). The asterisk in front of the part numbers indicates that these parts are brass but are available in steel also when the asterisk prefixes the catalogue number. Standard finishes for these parts are nickel, brass, brown and black. The eyelets are nickel, brass and black.

Mr. MC EWAN made the above observations concerning the Dot fasteners from Catalogue #60 of the Carr Fastener Company.

Mr. MC EWAN advised that he did not personally recognize the leather object in the photograph as any manufactured product for which he had sold Dot fasteners. Mr. MC EWAN advised that the following individuals may recognize the leather strap and may have been consulted by the manufacturer of this strap:

Mr. RALPH HVOSLEF, Sales Manager
Consumer Products

Mr. W. W. HENDRICKS, Assistant Sales Manager,

Re: Six point five mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridges, Southern Trading Company, Houston, Texas

The following investigation was conducted by SAs TERENCE D. DINAN and MALCOLM R. HARWELL at Houston, Texas, on December 6, 1963:

J. DALE RAMSEY, President, Southern Trading Company, 4012 Griggs, made available a carbon copy of invoice # 5111 reflecting the shipment of 20,000 rounds of 6.5 Western Ammo (military) to Southern Trading on December 7, 1962. This shipment was sent from New York City, New York, on that date and was directed to Southern Trading through GEORGE ZUCKER SALES, 3950 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

RAMSEY advised that these 20,000 rounds were distributed to Southern Trading's retail outlets as well as other retail accounts and that supply was entirely depleted by September 3, 1963. RAMSEY stated that this distribution consisted of 53 individual outlays of 6.5 ammunition. He furnished the following breakdown of those retail outlets receiving portions of the 20,000 rounds:

NUMBER OF ROUNDS PURCHASED	RETAIL OUTLET	AMOUNT OF PURCHASE	INVOICE #
120	Van's Surplus Store, 8322 Jensen, Houston, Texas	12/10/62	24747
200	L. H. Johnson, Rt. 1, Box 537, Humble, Texas	12.14/62	24776
980	Academy Super Surplus Sales, 321 Congress, Austin, Texas	12/17/62	24797
120	Van's Surplus Store, 8322 Jensen, Houston, Texas	1/7/63	24857
10,000	Vic's For Guns, 2413 Market, Galveston, Texas	1/15/63	24885

NUMBER OF ROUNDS PURCHASED	RETAIL OUTLET	AMOUNT OF PURCHASE	INVOICE #
160	Van's Surplus Store, 8322 Jensen, Houston, Texas	1/28/63	24929
100	Beymer's Army Surplus, Freeport, Texas	2/15/63	24997
100	L. H. Johnson Rt. 1, Box 537, Humble, Texas	2/26/63	25012
100	"	4/15/63	25128
120	Lewie's Army Surplus, Liberty, Texas	5/23/63	25227

RAMSEY stated that the other 8,000 rounds were distributed in 43 outlays to Southern Sales Company stores and GI Surplus stores, which are the affiliated retail outlets of Southern Trading Company in Houston, Texas and the surrounding area. He furnished the following breakdown of these retail outlets:

HO 62-2115

Southern Sales Company
6 separate stores all located in Houston, Texas

GI Surplus Stores
(3) Corpus Christi, Texas
(2) Beaumont, Texas
(1) Nederland, Texas
(1) Port Arthur, Texas
(1) Orange, Texas

RAMSEY advised that the exact amounts distributed to the above 14 Southern Trading Company retail affiliates could not be determined. He added however, that none of these retail outlets handle any mail order business. He further advised that he did not presently know whether or not those retail outlets in Houston, Humble, Freeport, Liberty and Galveston, Texas, not affiliated with Southern Trading, handled orders for ammunition received through the mails.

RAMSEY advised that the above itemization constitutes the entire 20,000 round shipment received December, 1962 from GEORGE ZUCKER and that none of that ammunition was shipped to retail stores in the Dallas-Fort Worth or New Orleans areas.

E. Alleged Target Practice by LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The following investigation was conducted by SA KENNETH R. ALBERT at Dallas, Texas:

On November 27, 1963, N. T. (DOLLY) FISHER, Deputy Chief, Patrol Division, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised he was not aware of any information indicating that two unknown men were seen by officers of his department on November 20, 1963, sighting-in a rifle near the scene of where the President was assassinated, nor any information these men were sighting-in on two silhouette targets and when police attempted to contact these men, they could not locate them.

FISHER telephonically contacted Lt. Col. EARL BOYD, Regional Office, 112th INTC Group, Dallas, Texas, and was advised by him that personnel of his organization had heard on Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963, while at the Dallas Police Department that the Police Department had received a call Wednesday night regarding two men sighting-in a rifle on Continental Street. Chief FISHER stated he had no information indicating this was true and had the following items checked in an effort to substantiate this rumor; however, he could locate no information to substantiate the rumor:

1. Officers' return sheet on radio calls.
2. IBM listing of radio calls as to location, and
3. Dispatcher's call sheet.

Chief FISHER then had the officers working the daylight shifts on November 20, 1963, and November 21, 1963, contacted in an effort to determine whether or not any of the officers had seen these men and did not report it, since there was no record of anyone calling in to make a complaint. Chief FISHER advised he was unable to locate any officers who had seen anything even resembling this incident.

Captain WILL FRITZ, Homicide Bureau, was contacted concerning this matter and stated he was not aware of such information, and this information had never come to his attention.

Mr. G. C. HAGAN, 136 Casalite (BR 6-3071), Garland, Texas, employed as a maintenance man, Dallas Flood Control, 2245 Irving Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, on December 2, 1963 reported the following to SA DAVID H. BARRY as a possible test site for the firing of the rifle in question used by LEE HARVEY OSWALD:

HAGAN described this site as that below the levees of the Trinity River between Hampton Road and Irving Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, that point where the Hampton Road pump station is located. He stated that this site could be called "the open range of Dallas," it so frequently is used for test firing of rifles by hunters and others. HAGAN said that the elevation and trajectory as OSWALD had found at the Texas School Book Depository building could be simulated by firing from the levee to the river bottom. He stated that the area is strewn with shell cases as a result of the firing by numerous individuals.

WADDELL ROBERTSON, also known as "SLIM" ROBERTSON, was interviewed at 104 Woodland Drive, Irving, Texas, where he is employed by Mr. ELLIS DUNN as a yard man. ROBERTSON stated that in the latter part of August or first part of September, 1963, he and his wife, OPAL ROBERTSON, saw a white man, about 25 years of age, 5' 9" - 5' 10", tall, weighing about 160 lbs., with dark hair receding at the temples, clean-shaven and no glasses, as this man was firing a rifle on the Trinity River Bottom behind 104 Woodland Drive, Irving, Texas.

ROBERTSON said the man had piled two bales of hay one on top of the other and was using the hay bales for a resting place for the rifle. ROBERTSON explained this occurred shortly after a mower had cut grass in the river bottom and the bales of hay were lying about, easily available. The man had an unidentified woman and small boy with him. The boy appeared to be about four years of age. He described the woman as in her 20's, 5' 6", 130 lbs., dark hair, no glasses. ROBERTSON was unable to note the caliber or detailed description of the rifle being fired by this man, and stated he did note the rifle had a scope on it.

ROBERTSON said after the assassination of President KENNEDY when he saw pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television and in the newspapers, he felt the man he had seen on the Trinity River Bottom looked like OSWALD. ROBERTSON said the man was shooting at a homemade bullseye target which he had placed on the side of the levee in the Trinity River Bottom. The woman and small boy stood and watched him while he fired the rifle. The day the man was observed firing the rifle, ROBERTSON observed a car parked nearby which presumably belonged to the man doing the shooting, although ROBERTSON did not see the man leave in the car. ROBERTSON described this as a black car, make not known, model - early 1950's. ROBERTSON advised about four or five days after he first saw the man in the latter part of August, 1963, he and his wife, OPAL, were fishing in the Trinity River when the same man came up alone and spoke to them. The man asked ROBERTSON and his wife if they were catching anything and stood and talked to them for

Mrs. OPAL ROBERTSON was interviewed at 104 Woodland Drive, Irving, Texas, where she and her husband, WADDELL ROBERTSON, are employed by Mr. ELLIS DUNN as servants.

OPAL ROBERTSON stated she was with her husband during the latter part of August or early part of September, 1963 when they observed a white man in his 20's fire a rifle in the Trinity River Bottom located behind 104 Woodland Drive, Irving, Texas. Mrs. ROBERTSON said they observed this man around 5:00 or 5:30 one afternoon. Mrs. ROBERTSON said after she had seen pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in newspapers and on television, she believed the man they saw firing the rifle in the river bottom looked like OSWALD. Mrs. ROBERTSON said the man was accompanied by a woman in her 20's, 5' 6", 130 lbs. with dark hair, and a small boy about four years old. A dark-colored car of an old model was parked nearby.

On that particular afternoon, the man was firing a rifle at a homemade bullseye target which he had placed on the levee in the river bottom.

Four or five days later, Mrs. ROBERTSON and her husband were at the river bottom fishing, and the same man came up and spoke to them and carried on a friendly conversation with them for five or ten minutes. She recalled the man saying he was from Irving, Texas, after he had asked them where they were from.

Mr. FULLER said he observed two persons sighting in a rifle on a makeshift range located on Highway 183 at Belt Line near Irving, Texas, a day or two before the President was assassinated, and he said after President KENNEDY's assassination he telephoned LEON POWERS, Assistant Chief of Police, at Irving, Texas, on Saturday, November 23, 1963, to give him the information because he believed this makeshift range would be a good place to check to determine if LEE HARVEY OSWALD might have used the range to practice shooting. He said that he did not get close enough to these two individuals to get a good description of them but he recalled one of the individuals wore a tan cloth jacket and was bare headed, and after seeing OSWALD's photograph on TV and in the newspapers he felt there might be some slight resemblance. He said the other person appeared to be a young boy in his late teens but he paid no particular attention to either of these men. He did not observe whether they had a car and did not stop to look at them so he was unable to furnish any more definite information concerning these people.

Mr. FULLER said he had never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY at any time and had never actually seen either of them until the TV and news media produced photographs of them.

Doctor DONALD DALE WHITCOMB, M.D., 1005 Southwest Third Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, advised JAMES E. WHEELES, of 733 Danish Drive, Grand Prairie, Texas, on December 6, 1963, saw a television news program pertaining to the activities at a firing range between Dallas and Grand Prairie, at which LEE HARVEY OSWALD possibly had practiced. Mr. WHEELES furnished that information to Doctor WHITCOMB and they recalled they had practiced also at what they believed was the same firing range recently. They decided this matter should be reported to the FBI.

Doctor WHITCOMB said he and Mr. WHEELES, at about 4 P.M., November 13, 1963, arrived at the firing range located just off Highway 80, just east of Grand Prairie, between Grand Prairie and Dallas. Doctor WHITCOMB fired from stall number 5 and Mr. WHEELES from stall number 6. Mr. WHEELES told him an individual, in either stall number 7 or number 8, had done an excellent job of rifle firing, hitting four bullseyes out of four shots from 100 yards. Doctor WHITCOMB did not see that individual and could not furnish his description and could not give any indication as to whether it might have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD practicing.

Doctor WHITCOMB had his three small children with him and immediately after he and Mr. WHEELES finished firing, Doctor WHITCOMB and Mr. WHEELES gathered up some of the empty cartridge shells and gave them to Doctor WHITCOMB's children, who took them home as toys. Doctor WHITCOMB does not know what type of rifle was used by that person and said a number of the cartridge shells in possession of his children could not be identified by him as 6.5 mm shells, but said some of them might be of that caliber.

On December 9, 1963, Doctor WHITCOMB furnished 65 empty rifle cartridge shells that he obtained from his residence that day. He said these had been accumulated by his children, most of them having been obtained on November 13, 1963, from the above described firing range, which he believes is located in about the 8000 block of West Davis, Dallas (U. S. Highway 80), which is located just east of Grand Prairie, Texas.

JAMES E. WHEELES, 733 Danish Drive, Grand Prairie, Texas, who is a retired Major, U. S. Air Force, and presently employed as an Insurance Agent by John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, 2906 Maple Avenue, Dallas, advised he and Doctor DONALD DALE WHITCOMB, on November 13, 1963, from about 4 P.M. until dusk practiced rifle firing at the rifle range located in the 8000, or 8200, block West Davis, Dallas, the name of which he does not recall, but believes the name was Sportsdrome Rifle Range. He fired from stall 6 and Doctor WHITCOMB from stall 5. To his left, in stall 7, an unidentified individual was firing a rifle which looked something like a rifle he had observed on television later as being the rifle LEE HARVEY OSWALD alledgedly used on November 22, 1963, when President KENNEDY was assassinated.

He saw the man in stall number 7, but cannot now remember enough about him to furnish any physical description and cannot either state that he was OSWALD, or that he was not OSWALD. He recalled the person appeared pleasant in his manner, and he recalled the muzzle blast from the rifle was heavier than from the 30.06 rifle he (WHEELES) was firing. That person was hitting a two-inch bullseye almost every time from 100 yards. He said he helped Doctor WHITCOMB pick up some of the spent cartridge shells for the WHITCOMB children.

On December 12, 1963, L. V. (I.O.) PREDDY, 3325 Fort Worth Avenue, Dallas, Texas, furnished approximately 200 empty brass shell casings to SA ARTHUR E. CARTER. Mr. PREDDY said he picked these up at the Sports Dome Rifle Range at 8000 West Davis in Dallas, Texas, on the Saturday after the President was assassinated and on the Monday following. He requested they be returned to him when they had served their purpose in the investigation.

On December 12, 1963, RICHARD C. LOPEZ, a salesman in the sports department of the H. L. Green Company, 1616 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, examined the above described shell cases and advised SA CARTER that none of them were 6.5 caliber and none of them could have been fired in a rifle such as the one that was used in the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

On December 13, 1963, SA CARTER returned the empty shell casings to Mr. L. V. PREDDY at 3325 Fort Worth Avenue, where he is employed by the Dye Trucking Company.

MR. JAMES THOMPSON, 1116 Gilpin Street, Dallas, Texas, advised he has telephone number FE 1-6955, and in the fall of 1962 he was a partner with FLOYD GUY DAVIS in the operation of the Sports Dome Rifle Range, 8000 West Davis. He recalled that on Sunday, November 17, 1963, he went out to help Mr. and Mrs. DAVIS operate the range from about 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., or sundown.

He said Mrs. DAVIS operated the traps and Mr. DAVIS ran the turkey shoot with a rifle. He, Mr. THOMPSON, ran the rifle stalls.

He observed the New Orleans Police Department photograph No. 112723 dated August 9, 1963, of OSWALD and advised he did not resemble anyone who appeared at the rifle range on November 17, 1963. Mr. THOMPSON said he recalled he examined all of the rifle targets that were fired on by the customers on that particular day, and no one shot any unusually good targets with a "tight" pattern or group.

He said he had no recollection of any very large men with heavy beard and earmuffs, and he distinctly recalled that that particular Sunday was not cold.

Mr. THOMPSON said he did recall changing a couple of targets where the shooter fired on the wrong targets. One of these men was firing from position 6 and the other from position 9. He said he had never known JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and was inclined to believe that the persons who had believed OSWALD on the Sports Dome Rifle Range might just have "imagined" they had seen someone there who appeared to be OSWALD.

Mr. THOMPSON furnished the following description of himself:

Mr. EARL LIPSCOMB, 3561 Marquet, Dallas, telephone number EM 1-7989, whose card appeared in RUBY's property, was contacted at his place of employment, Earl Lipscomb Associates, 3605 Inwood Road, Dallas, at which he furnished the following information:

He advised that he met JACK RUBY on only one occasion and this was sometime this past year, exact date he could not recall, at which time he visited the Carousel Club with a friend of his whom he identified as being E. G. BYERS, who is a Field Engineer at Houston, Texas. Mr. LIPSCOMB stated that he and his friend, BYERS, had stopped at the Carousel Club this one occasion inasmuch as they had heard the entertainment was very good. He explained that this was the one and only time he had visited the Carousel Club and was the first and only time he had met JACK RUBY. He could vaguely recall that particular evening when they visited the Carousel Club and believed that they were attempting to locate some Dixieland music. Upon arrival at the Carousel Club, they realized that there was no Dixieland music and had only stayed for a few minutes. Upon their departure from the Carousel Club, he, Mr. LIPSCOMB, introduced himself to JACK RUBY and asked Mr. RUBY if he knew of any place in Dallas where they might be able to listen to some Dixieland music. JACK RUBY was unable to furnish a place where they could listen to Dixieland music and referred them to his other club, Vegas Club, and suggested that they may like to visit the club that evening.

Mr. LIPSCOMB further advised that upon his departure from the Carousel Club, he gave JACK RUBY a business card with his name, employment and address on it and believed this was the way that this card got in RUBY's possession.

Mr. LIPSCOMB stated that he could offer no information pertaining to associates, friends or any background information in regard to JACK RUBY. He knows of no association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the reported assassin of President KENNEDY. Mr. LIPSCOMB was exhibited a photograph of OSWALD, at which time, he advised that he had never met this individual and had only seen the picture in the local newspapers. He advised he knew of no connection whatsoever between OSWALD and RUBY.

Just prior to the completion of the interview, Mr. LIPSCOMB advised that he had received information to the effect that a dentist and his son, who reside somewhere in Oak Cliff, are sporting enthusiasts and in connection with this, had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at a rifle range during the past few months. The information he received indicated that the dentist's son, name unknown, had actually looked at LEE HARVEY OSWALD's rifle at one time when they were visiting the rifle range. Mr. LIPSCOMB stated that a Mr. THORNTON VICKREY, telephone number WH 8-3701, would be able to furnish the identity of both the dentist and his son for information in regard to this matter. He could offer no further information concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated that the information received in connection with this was strictly "second-hand" and was offering it for whatever it was worth.

Mr. LIPSCOMB was unable to offer any information as to why JACK RUBY had shot OSWALD and did not possess any information regarding either the assassination of President KENNEDY or the shooting of OSWALD other than what was pointed out in the local newspapers.

Mr. EARL LIPSCOMB was of the opinion that E. G. BYERS could offer no more information other than that which he, LIPSCOMB, related to the interviewing agent, inasmuch as this was the first visit to the Carousel Club by Mr. BYERS.

On December 5, 1963, the Houston Office advised that KENNETH LONGLEY, Student, Sam Houston State Teachers College, Huntsville, Texas, advised he met a Dr. HOMER WOOD and his son STERLING at a rifle range in west Dallas on November 16, 1963. He advised he and STERLING used booth #4, occupied at the time by a white male, 25 years of age, 5'9-10", slender build, sandy hair, wearing wire-framed spectacles, and yellow western shirt, snaps down the front. This individual had a rifle, possibly 7 mm. with scope, claimed to be four power. Rifle appeared not to have full stock, and was colored light brown. Gun spit fire and had strong recoil. Clip appeared to slant at the bottom. This person fired ten shots and departed. LONGLEY does not believe this individual is identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

LONGLEY advised he was also accompanied by DAN and GERALD SPENCER, Edwards Circle, Dallas, Texas. LONGLEY advised that the SPENCERs have advised him they did not notice person in question.

Mr. GERALD SPENCER, 1119 Edwards Circle, advised he and his brother, DAN, were out on a west Dallas rifle range on Saturday afternoon, November 16, 1963. He said they were there for approximately three hours sighting in their rifles.

SPENCER stated he recalls that he and his brother occupied booth 3 next to KENNETH LONGLEY and STERLING WOOD who used booth 4.

SPENCER advised he does not recall the individual described by KENNETH LONGLEY and who was alleged to have used booth 4 for a short period of time prior to the time LONGLEY and STERLING WOOD used it.

SPENCER advised he does not recall seeing anyone at the range who resembled pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD that he had seen on television or in the newspapers.

SPENCER stated he recalls seeing a big man down at the end of the range. He stated he was well over six feet tall and had a black beard. SPENCER stated he does not know who the man is and he had never seen him before. He stated he did not pay any attention to who might have been with this person.

DAN SPENCER, 1119 Edwards Circle, advised that on Saturday afternoon, November 16, 1963, he and his brother, GERALD SPENCER, went to a rifle range in West Dallas. He stated they were there from about 2:00 p.m. until approximately 5:30 p.m. He stated he recalled they listened to the Baylor-Texas football game while they were at the rifle range.

SPENCER advised he and his brother were also in the company of a Dr. HOMER WOOD, STERLING WOOD, and KENNETH LONGLEY.

SPENCER advised he does not recall seeing individual described by KENNETH LONGLEY. He stated he vaguely recalls a rifle that was spitting fire but recalls nothing about the individual who was handling the gun.

SPENCER advised he has seen numerous photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in newspapers and on television but does not recall anyone out at the range on that particular day who resembled OSWALD.

SPENCER adtsed he recalls an individual who was out on the range for an hour or so who occupied booth 9 or 10. He said he remembers him because he was such a large individual. He said he was about 6'4" and had a heavy black beard. He stated he does not know who this individual is or who he was with at the range.

ALVEY McGAFFEY, Box 108, Hutchins, Texas, advised that at approximately 11:30 A.M. on November 20, 1963, while working in the fields near McCormas Road and Central Express, he heard shots from an adjoining field. Mr. McGAFFEY stated that he went to the area in which he heard the shots and saw a male individual sitting in a 1957 Chevrolet, blue over white in color. Mr. McGAFFEY related that he approached the individual and advised him that he was trespassing on his land and would appreciate it if he would leave. He continued that the unidentified individual stated that he was new in the area and was looking for an area to do some target shooting. McGAFFEY further related the individual did not "cause any trouble," but left the area as instructed.

Mr. McGAFFEY stated that the unknown individual is described as white, male, 25 to 30 years old, thinning brown hair, medium fair complexion, and was wearing a light blue jacket. Mr. McGAFFEY advised that he did not see the weapon unknown individual was using and cannot recall any other details regarding this man.

Mr. McGAFFEY examined New Orleans Police Department Photograph No. 112723 of OSWALD and Dallas Police Department Photograph No. 36398 of RUBY, and advised that the individual who was target shooting on November 20, 1963 is definitely not identical to RUBY, and that he is of the opinion the photograph of OSWALD is not identical to the unknown individual, but felt that there was a slight resemblance.

Mr. McGAFFEY stated that at approximately 5:00 P.M. on November 20, 1963, he again heard shots from the adjoining field from where he was working. He further stated that he again went to the adjoining field and observed another unknown male individual. He related he advised this individual that he was on private property and asked this individual his name. Mr. McGAFFEY continued that this individual refused to furnish his name. He stated that he is unable to recall the make of automobile this person was driving but advised that the license was a 1963 Texas license, Number PU 7862.

JOHNNIE BOWLING advised he resides at 1808 Kirby, Carrollton, Texas, and is employed in the maintenance section of Braniff International Airways at 7701 Lemmon Avenue in Dallas, Texas. He said he had never known JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. BOWLING said he picked up some empty 6.5 brass shell casings on a field which is used as a practice range by the residents of Carrollton, noting that this area is located on Belt Line west of Carrollton where a bridge formerly crossed a creek. He said there is no organization to the way people place their targets in this area; and since they use no regular type targets or target frames, he would have no idea where the impact area might be from the position where he recovered the four shell casings.

He said he recovered one of these on one occasion and the other three on another occasion which he would judge to be the last week in November. He believes he gave the first one to a friend named ROBERT L. GOODWIN, who resides at 1806 Southwest Third Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, on about December 4, 1963, and he recalled that on about December 6, 1963, he gave Mr. GOODWIN three more 6.5 shell cases and added that it is his custom on his days off from his employment to go to various shooting areas where he picks up empty shell cases, and he in turn gives them to friends of his who are interested in reloading cartridges.

Mr. BOWLING said that in his experience it is noted that there is a very limited amount of 6.5 brass, most of the brass being 30.06 and 30-30 caliber. He further advised he was alone when he picked up these 6.5 shell cases and said they need not be returned regardless of whether it is determined that they were fired from the gun which was used to assassinate President KENNEDY.

ROBERT L. GOODWIN advised that he is a radio maintenance mechanic at Braniff Airways, 7701 Lemmon Avenue, Dallas, Texas, and resides at 1806 Southwest Third Street, Grand Prairie, Texas. He advised his hobbies are guns, radio, and metal work. A friend and fellow employee of his, JOHNNIE BOWLING, who lives in Carrollton, Texas, has been picking up spent brass shell cases at various shooting areas in the Carrollton-Irving-Grand Prairie and Dallas areas, and he brings this brass to him and he reloads it.

Mr. GOODWIN said that since the assassination of President KENNEDY, he has been going over the shell cases that BOWLING brought him, and he had four 6.5 shell cases which were brought to him by BOWLING which he retained at his home. He said these were, according to BOWLING, picked up at the range which is located west of Carrollton Square on Beltline near the Trinity River Bridge at a place in the river bottoms where people practice with their rifles. He said the first shell was brought to him on Sunday night after the assassination, and on December 6, 1963, BOWLING brought him three more from the same area. He said he would telephone his wife, VIRGINIA GOODWIN, and have her turn over the four 6.5 shells to a Special Agent of the FBI.

He said he had never known OSWALD or RUBY at any time and had no other information concerning them or persons who might know them.

LESLIE C. CRAWLEY, 508 Apollo Street, was contacted and advised that he never heard of KENNETH RAY CRAWLEY and that his brother, D. E. CRAWLEY, resided on Fair View Drive and he knew that D. E. did not have any sons or relatives named KENNETH RAY CRAWLEY.

KENNETH RAY CRAWLEY was located at 532 La Salle Drive, Richardson, Texas, and advised that a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to him. He further stated that he never saw OSWALD at the Speed Dome Gun Range at Grand Prairie, Texas, on the day of the turkey shoot. He said that he believed this day was the Sunday before the Presidential parade which would have been November 17, 1963. He said he attended a turkey shoot with his uncle, HOWARD PRICE, who lives on Rice Street in Grand Prairie. He said this was the only day he had been to the Speed Dome Gun Range.

PAINE stated that he has no knowledge of any rifle practice conducted by LEE HARVEY OSWALD anywhere in the Dallas, Texas area or in fact in the United States.

Mr. PAINE stated that if he had previously indicated that the meeting of the American Civil Liberties Union occurred at Mc Farlin Auditorium, SMU, this is an error, since the meeting actually occurred at Selecman Hall which is also on the SMU campus.

On November 29, 1963, Mr. E. P. BASS, 2019 Ferndale, Dallas, Texas, telephonically advised SA MILTON L. NEWSOM that he is a member of the Lancaster Gun Club and practices firing his rifle at the club range frequently. He said that approximately two weeks before the President's assassination he observed an individual at the Lancaster Gun Club Range that was possibly identical to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. BASS said he is not certain of this identification; however, he recalled that the man was very rude, rough in appearance and appeared to be an excellent shot with the rifle he was using. He said the rifle had a scope and that the magazine protruded in front of the trigger guard exactly like the one pictured in the newspapers that was used in the President's assassination. He said as nearly as he could recall this man's description fit that of OSWALD. BASS advised the President of the Lancaster Gun Club is HUNTER B. BAKER and that Mr. BAKER has been staying at the club during the time practice sessions with rifles have been allowed.

On December 3, 1963, Mr. HUNTER B. BAKER, 717 Winston, Dallas, Texas, advised SA KENNETH B. JACKSON that he is the president of the Lancaster Gun Club and that he spends a great deal of time at the range, usually about four or five days a week. He said some weeks he is there everyday in the week and stated that he had never observed anyone at the range who resembled LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that if a rifle such as OSWALD allegedly used in the assassination of President KENNEDY had appeared on the range in the possession of any member or guest he would have likely remembered it. He referred to this type of rifle as "junky". He said that OSWALD was not a member of this gun club, and he was unable to furnish any information to indicate that anyone resembling OSWALD may have visited the range at any time. He pointed out that there is a gate at the entrance to the range which is normally kept locked and that only members are permitted to have keys to the gate for entry on the premises.

On December 3, 1963, Mr. E. P. BASS was recontacted regarding this matter, and he advised that he was unable to furnish any additional information to identify the individual that he had observed on the range of the Lancaster Gun Club approximately two weeks before the President's assassination. He said that as best he could recall the individual whom he recalled as possibly resembling OSWALD kept bothering him which he himself did not appreciate because he goes to the range to shoot and does not like interruptions. He said the gun in the possession of the individual whom he thought resembled OSWALD was an ordinary-looking gun and had a telescopic sight. He said it had a mahogany stock which was not an oil-soaked stock. He said that as best he could recall there may have been no others present at the range other than himself and his son and the individual whom he thought resembled OSWALD. BASS said that he did not know this individual as a member of the gun club and had no way of knowing who the person might have been. He said, however, that he probably would have presumed at the time that the man was a member of the gun club since the gun club range is restricted to the use of members and their guests. Mr. BASS said that his son, JAN BASS, age 15, is quite alert and has a better recollection probably of this individual then he himself.

On December 3, 1963, JAN BASS, age 15, 2019 Ferndale, Dallas, Texas, advised that he accompanied his father E. P. BASS to the Lancaster Gun Club Range approximately three weeks previously on an occasion when there were no other persons at the range with the exception of a man who came there with what he described as a gun that looked like a "typical mail order gun". He said that he did not pay much attention to this man, but he feels that the man may have been an inch or two taller than his father who is 5'7½". He stated the man was driving a 1961 blue Falcon sedan, and he was quite certain the man wore glasses. He said he has no recollection of how the man was dressed. He said that after observing photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD that he does not have any reason to believe that this individual was OSWALD based upon his recollection of the man.

SA KENNETH B. JACKSON conducted the interviews of E. P. BASS and JAN BASS on December 3, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

Re: JOHNNY ODELL

On December 7, 1963, Assistant Chief of Police, M. W. STEVENSON, Dallas, Texas, furnished a copy of a report concerning one JOHNNY ODELL, an employee of the Lone Star Mill and Lumber Company, to SA JAMES W. BOOKHOUT. This report was made by Detective M. H. BRUMLEY and is as follows:

"The following information was received from Detective P. M. PARKS, Administrative and Special Investigations Section, Special Service Bureau, Dallas Police Department.

"PARKS stated that he received information that JOHNNY O'DELL, an employee of the Lone Star Mill & Lumber Company, 600 N. Wildwood Road, Irving, Texas, phone Bl 3 5121, made a statement to his fellow employees approximately four weeks prior to President KENEDY's visit to Dallas that someone should put a bullet between Kennedy's eyes.

"Approximately one week prior to KENNEDY's arrival, O'DELL made the remark that his shoulder was sore, that he and some guys had been practicing with a rifle; indicating they had been practicing to shoot President KENNEDY.

"Upon receiving news that KENNEDY had been assassinated, O'DELL said to his fellow employees that 'you know that I didn't do anything', 'I couldn't do anything like that, I was just kidding'."

JOHNNY O'DELL, home address 1123 Belew Street, Irving, Texas, and employed at Lone Star Mill and Lumber Company, 600 North Wildwood Road, Irving, was interviewed at his place of employment. He advised he had been employed at his present job for the past seven years.

O'DELL stated he had disagreed with the KENNEDY administration's policy on integration and that "he may" have made statements in connection with this disagreement which could have been misinterpreted to indicate that he held personal animosity toward the President, but that he did not.

Prior to the opening of deer season, O'DELL stated he and two of his friends went to his uncle's farm located at Keller, Texas, where he fired his .30 caliber Winchester rifles, a 30.06 sporting rifle and a 7.65 mm. rifle, sighting in all of these guns for the purpose of hunting deer. On his return to work the following Monday, he stated he "may" have made statements about his shoulder being sore from rifle shooting, but he definitely did not mean that he had been practicing with this rifle for anything but hunting deer.

O'DELL stated that he had served in the U. S. Army from May 8, 1951, to April 23, 1953, when honorably discharged at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. He further stated that he had not even had a fist fight since the age of approximately nine years and that he was not a person who would even wish harm to anyone, particularly the President. O'DELL stated that he was working at his job in Irving, Texas, when he received news by radio of the President's assassination and that he was "shocked and dumbfounded" and also that he "could not believe what he heard."

O'DELL stated he did not know either OSWALD or JACK RUBY and that the only thing he had ever even heard

Re: RALPH GARLAND

The Milwaukee Office by communication dated December 3, 1963, advised Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD V. LE CLAIR, Route 2, Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, were in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963, the reason being their son "RICKIE" LE CLAIR, age 8, had been taking treatment for leukemia at the Taylor Clinic in Dallas but on the night of November 21, 1963, had died.

On the morning of November 22, 1963, at approximately 11:00 AM they were at the Noah Camp and Sons Ambulance Service and Funeral Home, 4202 Live Oak, Dallas, where one of the funeral home employees came into the funeral home carrying a short rifle with a telescopic sight. They were both of the opinion this man was employed for the funeral home. They also described this unknown individual as being of the caucasian race, 6' tall, 200 pounds, with light brown hair cut short. Mr. LE CLAIR gave this unknown person's age in the early 20's whereas Mrs. LE CLAIR thought the unknown individual would be in his early 30's.

NOAH CAMP, Funeral Director, Camp Funeral Home, 4202 Live Oak, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his place of business and furnished the following information.

Mr. CAMP stated he had no way of determining which of his employees picked up the body of the son of Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD LeCLAIR of Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin on November 22, 1963, as he kept no records of names of drivers responding to calls. He volunteered to question his employees to ascertain which of them had done so, and thus determine which of them was seen entering the rear of his establishment with a rifle. He further advised he kept a B-B gun in his establishment to scare pigeons away from a section of the roof at the rear, and that all of his employees frequently used it for purpose.

He produced the gun at this time and an examination of it reflected it to be a B-B gun, approximately 30" long and dark in color over all. Although not equipped with a telescopic site, it had a raised portion above the breech, approximately six inches long and three-fourth inches high. This gun was stamped "Model 106, Daisey Manufacturing Corporation, Plymouth, Michigan."

RALPH GARLAND, 4202 Live Oak, Dallas, Texas, an employee of the Camp Funeral Home, same address, furnished the following information:

Mr. GARLAND stated that on November 22, 1963, he picked up the body of the son of Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD LeCLAIR, Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, and was probably the individual identified as having entered the rear of the Camp Funeral Home with a rifle. He stated a B-B gun is kept on the premises and used to scare pigeons from the roof at the rear of the building. He advised he cannot specifically remember having used the gun behind the building at about 11:00 A.M., November 22, 1963, but that he has done so almost daily for the past three or four weeks, and quite probably did so on that date.

The Empire Wholesale Sporting Goods, Ltd., merely acted as a sales agent for International Firearms Company, Ltd. of Montreal, Canada, who imported guns as military surplus from England. The only record of a transaction available is a letter dated November 21, 1962, from George Rose and Company, Inc., Los Angeles, California, advising that a letter of credit valid until December 15, 1962, had been opened at Security First National Bank, Los Angeles, California, in the amount of $8,600 to cover purchase of 400 Smith and Wesson revolvers, caliber .38 Special reblued, assorted 3-inch and 4-inch barrels, at $21.50 each, Freight on Board, New Jersey. Bill of lading of Maislin Transport No. 166299, dated December 13, 1962, was for shipment of these revolvers from Montreal, Canada, to East Rutherford, New Jersey, to be picked up at that point by "own trucker". ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Manager, Texas School Book Depository, advised that the Texas School Book Depository has occupied the building at 411 Elm Street for only a few months. Prior to this time, the building was occupied by a wholesale grocery company engaged in supplying restaurants and institutions and during the course of their occupancy, the floors of the building became oil soaked and this oil was found to be damaging the stock of the School Book Depository stack thereon. In view of this, they had instituted a process of covering the floors with sheets of plywood. This process was being performed by the regular warehouse employees whenever they had slack periods of work.

The southwest corner of the 6th floor had been cleared of stock in order that plywood could be laid over this floor and the southwest corner was consequently empty of stock on November 22, 1963, making the windows to the southwest corner of the building readily accessible.

B. ANALYSIS OF DALLAS CITY MAP OBTAINED FROM ROOM OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The following is an analysis of markings found on Enco City Map of Dallas, originally located by the Dallas Police Department, November 22, 1963, in the room rented by LEE HARVEY OSWALD at 1026 N. Beckley, Dallas, Texas:

All investigation unless otherwise specified is by SA BARDWELL D. ODUM at Dallas, Texas:

On November 29, 1963, RUTH PAINE, 2515 W. 5th, Irving, Texas, advised SA BARDWELL D. ODUM that on October 7, 1963, she took OSWALD from her home to the bus station in Irving. Before OSWALD left the PAINE home, Mrs. PAINE gave him an Enco (brand name of the Humble Oil and Refining Company) map of the city of Dallas for his use in seeking employment. OSWALD was to go to Dallas from Irving to seek work. The map was not a new one but had been in the possession of PAINE for several months. She did not mark anything on this map for OSWALD. She feels certain of this. There may have been previous markings on this map, which had been used by PAINE, but she cannot recall same. She obtained this map from an unrecalled Humble Service Station on a date which she cannot fix.

The following refer to marked points on the Dallas side of the map unless otherwise specified:

Point 1.

The mark at the intersection of Elm and Houston Streets is the location of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), where OSWALD commenced employment October 16, 1963.

Point 2.

The mark at the intersection of Marsalis and Pentagon Streets is the approximate location of the Texas Driver's License Examining Station, 4456 South Marsalis. Mrs. RUTH PAINE recalled taking LEE OSWALD there on November 9, 1963.

Point 3.

A mark appears across Irving Blvd., near Manufacturing Street.

On December 12, 1963, RAY RANDUK, Counsellor, Jobco, an employment agency, Adolphus Tower Building, advised he sent LEE H. OSWALD to the DeVilbiss Company, 2506 Irving Blvd., on October 10, 1963, where he had an appointment to be interviewed at 1:30 p.m. Mr. RANDUK advised he recalls OSWALD stated he did not have a car but that he would stop at this place since it was on his way home.

On December 3, 1963, C. L. McNIEL, Dispatcher, Dallas Transit Company, advised that the bus which goes closest to 2506 Irving Blvd., is the Industrial bus which makes a U-turn at the end of the line, Irving Blvd., and Manufacturing Street. 2506 Irving Blvd., would be about four blocks beyond this point toward Irving.

Points 4 and 5.

There are two marks close together on this map one being at the intersection of Harwood and San Jacinto, a point on the Presidential motorcade route, and the other being a mark near the intersection of Olive and San Jacinto.

On December 3, 1963, DON THIBODAUX, Manager, Manpower, Inc., an employment agency, 710 Olive Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was never employed through this agency, but he may have applied for work there. Many persons apply for work in answer to the advertisements which this agency runs each Sunday in the Dallas newspapers.

THIBODAUX advised that anyone who asks directions on the telephone to the agency is told by him to get on Harwood Street and go to the intersection of Harwood and San Jacinto, and then go over one block to the intersection of Olive and San Jacinto. This is one half block from the office, but he does not give them more specific directions, since he feels that if they are interested in employment, they will find the office from there.

The "Dallas Times Herald" for October 13, 1963, was examined on December 12, 1963. It contains an advertisement by Manpower, Inc., 708 Olive, under "Male Miscellaneous" seeking men who wanted temporary employment.

Point 6.

There are markings along streets north of Love Field, and north of Northwest Highway, and east of Harry Hines Blvd.

On December 3, 1963, C. L. McNIEL, Dispatcher, Dallas Transit Company, Interurban Building, Dallas, Texas, advised that Letot Bus proceeds to the end of its line going north on Denton Road from Bachman Blvd., to Lombardy Lane, thence east on Lombardy Lane to Webb Chapel Road, then along Webb Chapel Road about a block to Community Drive, then southwest along Community Drive back to Denton Drive, and then south toward downtown Dallas. Lines in these markings coincide with this route.

The point at Lombardy Lane and Denton Drive is the nearest point by city bus to Solid State Electronics Company, 2647 Myrtle Springs, according to Mr. McNIEL. As previously reported, OSWALD was referred to Solid State Electronics Company by the Texas Employment Commission (TEC) on October 8, 1963.

Point 7.

The intersection of Inwood Road and Maple Avenue has a circle around it.

On December 11, 1963, an examination of the "Dallas Morning News" classified section for October 12-13, 1963, reflects an advertisement for a male office trainee by the Wiener Lumber Company, Inwood at Maple.

On December 11, 1963, SAM WIENER of Wiener Lumber Company, Inwood at Maple, Dallas, advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD submitted an application for employment at Wiener Lumber Company dated October 14, 1963. He stated he believes this was the date that OSWALD was in his office.

Point 8.

A mark appears at the intersection of Boll and San Jacinto Street. The only business located on this intersection is the Mohr Chevrolet Company, and on December 6, 1963, the following employees of Mohr Chevrolet Company, 999 N. Central Expressway, advised

SAs BARDWELL D. ODUM and RALPH RAWLINGS to the best of their knowledge LEE HARVEY OSWALD has never been in that agency:

JUDD RIVES, Sales Manager;

BILL MILLER, Manager of used car lot;

FRED HOLMES, Office Manager.

JUDD RIVES advised that Mohr Chevrolet Company did have ads in the Dallas papers during the period October 3 to 16, 1963, for car salesmen but that he does not recall OSWALD ever answering such an ad. He stated he had canvassed his salesmen and could locate no one who recalls OSWALD as a prospect.

L. L. Ridgway Company, Inc., a blueprint firm, is located at 933 N. Central Expressway, next door to Mohr Chevrolet Company. On December 10, 1963, Mr. L. F. McCASLIN, Assistant Manager of L. L. Ridgway, advised that he does not recall OSWALD appearing at his office at any time seeking employment and that his records contain no application for OSWALD. He stated his firm does send work to Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall (a former employer of OSWALD).

On December 10, 1963, MICHAEL PAINE, 2515 W. 5th, Irving, Texas, advised SAs BARDWELL D. ODUM and JAMES P. HOSTY that he recalls making one visit to L. L. Ridgway Company, Inc., Dallas, sometime in the summer of 1963. He stated he was at the Dallas City Hall and had a map with him and was looking up the location of Ridgway prior to going there to determine if it was walking distance. He stated he does not know whether this is the map that he had and does not know whether he or the person he was talking to at the Dallas City Hall might have placed the mark on the map at Boll and San Jacinto. Likewise, he stated he cannot state that he did not place the mark there.

Point 9.

A small triangle appears just south of Irving Blvd., (Highway 356), west of Apricot Street.

Examination of this area by SA BARDWELL D. ODUM on December 6, 1963, reflects that this is a vacant field just east of East Texas Motor Freight Company.

On December 10, 1963, GEORGE BELCHER, East Texas Motor Freight Company, 4242 Irving Blvd., Dallas, and BILLIE GENTRY, Receptionist, advised they do not recall LEE HARVEY OSWALD as being an applicant for a job there or as having ever been in the office. Both likewise advised they have no application on file from OSWALD..

On December 12, 1963, the classified section of the "Dallas Times Herald" for October 3, 1963, was examined by SA BARDWELL D. ODUM. This lists an ad under "Help Wanted Male - Trades," by Trinity Steel Company, 4001 Irving Blvd., Dallas, Texas. Trinity Steel is located approximately across the road from the triangular mark on the map, and LEE HARVEY OSWALD has previously worked for a welding company.

On December 12, 1963, EDDIE NEYRA, Assistant Shop Foreman, Trinity Steel Company, 4001 Irving Blvd., Dallas, advised he does not recall OSWALD ever being an applicant at that company. He stated if OSWALD did not have sufficient qualifications as a welder he would not get past the receptionist and NEYRA would not see him.

On December 12, 1963, NINA WILLIAMS, Receptionist, Trinity Steel, advised she does not recall LEE HARVEY OSWALD as ever being in the office of Trinity Steel but stated that when they run ads in the newspaper there are many applicants coming in and that she would not necessarily remember each one of these persons. She advised that a check of the records fails to reflect any application on file for LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Point 10.

A mark appears across Myrtle Springs Avenue just west of Harry Hines Blvd. This mark is the approximate location of Solid State Electronics Company, 2647 Myrtle Springs (See point 6).

Point 11.

A pencil dot appears on Hillcrest Blvd., just south of Asbury Avenue.

This is directly across from the Southern Methodist University campus, and Selecman Hall, where LEE HARVEY OSWALD attended a meeting of the American Civil Liberties Union subsequent to October 24, 1963, is approximately one block east and one block south of this point. There is no street through the campus at this point but the hall can be reached by walking along the sidewalks in the area.

On December 4, 1963, MICHAEL PAINE advised SAs BARDWELL D. ODUM and JAMES P. HOSTY that he frequents Hillcrest Blvd, and that the dot just south of Asbury on Hillcrest Blvd., is the type mark he makes but that he cannot recall making this mark. He stated he often eats at Luby's Cafeteria which is approximately one and one half blocks north of this dot.

The following persons at businesses located in the block south of Asbury on Hillcrest Blvd., were contacted on December 6, 1963, by SAs ODUM and RALPH RAWLINGS and each advised he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD or had any dealings with him:

JOYCE JAMISON, Cashier, Henry's Restaurant, 6229 Hillcrest, located on the corner of Asbury and Hillcrest.

E. I. ALLMON, University Radio and Television Service, 6225 Hillcrest.

On December 10, 1963, L. C. JACKSON, who operates the Jackson Gun Shop at 6209 Hillcrest, advised he is primarily a collector of antique guns. He stated he does not handle 6.5 mm rifle ammunition. He advised he does not recall LEE HARVEY OSWALD ever being in his gun shop. He stated that about June, 1963, a young man, short in stature, was in his shop on two occasions to buy a copy of the "American Rifleman." This man was short and dark haired but JACKSON is certain he is not OSWALD after examining OSWALD's picture.

On December 11, 1963, an examination of the classified section of the "Dallas Morning News" for October 13, 1963, reflects an advertisement under "Male Miscellaneous" for an experienced bus boy over 21 years of age by the Little Red Barn Restaurant, 6201 Hillcrest.

On December 11, 1963, WILLIAM DUNCAN of the Little Red Barn, 6201 Hillcrest, advised that he does not recall LEE HARVEY OSWALD as ever having been in his restaurant. He stated if OSWALD had showed up for the job he would not have hired him as he hires only colored bus boys.

Point 12.

A portion of a curved line appears near the name Bennett in Bennett Avenue which appears to be part of a circle around the street name.

On December 12, 1963, an examination of the classified section of the "Dallas Times Herald" for October 5 and 6, 1963, reflects an advertisement under "Furnished Rooms" of a room with private bath for $10 per week at 1734 Bennett.

On December 12, 1963, Mrs. SANDOR JAHDAR, 1734 Bennett, advised she does not recall LEE HARVEY OSWALD ever appearing in answer to her advertisement of a room. She stated many people came to look at the room after she had it rented but she cannot identify LEE HARVEY OSWALD as being one of them.

On December 6, 1963, observation along Bennett Street determined that the street is residential with a number of rooming houses particularly in the 2000 block of Bennett. Only one business was noted that being a printing business operated behind the residence at 1507 Bennett known as House of Jensen.

On December 10, 1963, GEORGE JENSEN, who operates a one-man printing shop known as House of Jensen, 1507 Bennett Street, Dallas, advised he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never seen him. He stated he does not recall OSWALD ever applying for a job and pointed out that he usually does not have any employees and if he does need help temporarily he contacts some of his friends. Mr. JENSEN stated he is a customer of Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, a former employer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Point 13.

A circle is drawn around the name of Hawes Avenue, west of Harry Hines Blvd.

Observation of this area on December 10, 1963, reflects there are numerous companies located from the 2000 block through 2700 block of Hawes Avenue.

DALLAS, TEXAS

On December 10, 1963, JACK MUSE, Certified Welding Works, 2116 Hawes Avenue, advised he does not recall ever having seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated he did not run an advertisement in the paper during October or November, 1963, and that he gets all his help through the TEC.

On December 10, 1963, GEORGE CROW, Walco Manufacturing and Supply Company, Inc., steel fabricators, 2134 Hawes Avenue, advised he hires welders but had no advertisement in the Dallas papers in October or November, 1963. He stated he generally obtains his welders from the TEC.

He advised he does not recall ever having seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD and does not believe he was ever at his firm looking for a job. He stated he believes he may have done business at one time with LEE OSWALD's brother, since he dealt with a BOB OSWALD who operated a business in Fort Worth, Texas, about six months to a year ago.

Point 14.

A notation "1.25" appears just below the co-ordinate "8" on the right hand margin of the Dallas map. This was OSWALD's hourly wage at the TSBD.

Point 15.

A rectangular shape mark appears in the legend block which appears to be a doodling mark of no known significance.

Point 16.

Several marks appear just northwest of the Houston Street Viaduct, south end, which appear to be extensions of Oregon, Morgan Julian, and Greenbriar Lane, with corresponding new streets added north and south to complete square blocks. Examination of this area on December 7, 1963, reflects there are no such street extensions or new streets as indicated. The Houston Street Viaduct would be the shortest route for OSWALD to have taken from his room at 1026 N. Beckley to his employment at the TSBD, if he walked (a distance of approximately two miles).

Point 17.

On the Fort Worth side of this map, at the bottom, is an area map of Dallas-Fort Worth. A small quadrangle appears in Southwest Irving, between Shady Grove Road and Irving Blvd., and between Story Road and Belt Line Road. MICHAEL PAINE immediately located this mark when examining the map on December 4, 1963, and stated this is the location of his house, 2515 W. 5th, Irving, Texas, and that he may have placed this mark there himself.

There are only two points marked on this map which are on the Presidential motorcade route. These are points 1 and 4.

The mark designated point 1, the TSBD Building, does not designate the trajectory of the bullets which killed President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY but runs approximately at a right angle to the trajectory.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Mrs. LENNIE MAE RANDLE, 2439 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, advised that she has previously furnished all information that she knows regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She advised that her mother, Mrs. WILLIAMS, does not know OSWALD and did not see him with a brown package on the morning of November 22, 1963.

Her mother did get a glimpse of him as he passed by the kitchen window, but at that time OSWALD had already put the package in the car, and he was waiting for her brother BUELL to leave for work. She stated that her children, DIANE and PATRICIA, ages nine and six, did not see OSWALD as the kitchen window is high and they could not have seen him from where they were sitting at the breakfast table. She stated they know nothing about OSWALD or about this matter and preferred that they not be interviewed.

Mrs. ESSIE MAE WILLIAMS, 3429 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, advised that she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She stated she and her husband have been visiting with her daughter but her husband had to enter the hospital and this caused a change in plans and has prolonged their visit. She stated that on the morning of November 22, 1963, she did get a glimpse of a man through the kitchen window while they were having breakfast around 7:15 A.M. She inquired as to who this man was and her son, BUELL, advised that it was LEE. She did not see this person carrying anything and stated she could not furnish any information concerning OSWALD or the brown bag he supposedly had been carrying prior to her seeing him. She stated that she only got a quick glimpse of OSWALD and stated she could not furnish any further information regarding his movements on November 22, 1963.

On December 12, 1963, Dallas T-2 furnished information to SA CHARLES T. BROWN reflecting that a brown paper parcel had been located in the "Nixie" section of the Irving, Texas Post Office. The "Nixie" section has been described as the section in which mail and parcels are placed when such mail and/or parcels contain a non-existent or unlocated address or when the mail or parcels have been damaged in transit.

The brown paper parcel found in this section was partially opened at time of discovery. It was determined the brown paper parcel contained what appeared to be a brown paper bag made of fairly heavy brown paper which bag was open at both ends. The bag was approximately 18" in length. The parcel was addressed to Mr. LEE OSWALD at a non-existent address in Dallas, Texas. There was no indication the parcel had ever been mailed as there was no postage on the outer wrapper. The parcel was discovered at the Irving, Texas Post Office on December 4, 1963.

According to informant, inquiry conducted by Post Office personnel failed to result in the identification of any postal employees who had handled the parcel or knew anything about the parcel. It was not possible to identify the postal employee who had placed the parcel in the "Nixie" section at the Irving Post Office.

On December 9, 1963, Mr. WILLIAM H. SHELLEY, Warehouse Foreman, Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), Dallas, Texas advised that no time clock or register of any kind is maintained for the warehouse employees of TSBD. The only record maintained is the payroll record that shows whether or not the employee was present on a specific date. Each morning after working hours begin, he checks to see that each employee is present and on the job, and if any employee is missing, he notes this fact and advises Mr. TRULY, who in turn notifies Mr. AIKEN, who keeps the payroll records. The only permanent record maintained is that record maintained by Mr. AIKEN for the payroll.

Mr. SHELLEY stated specifically that on the morning of November 22, 1963, he did not see OSWALD with any package and, in fact, did not actually see OSWALD arrive at work but did see him at about the time the work day commenced, and at that time OSWALD had no package.

Mr. SHELLEY stated there is no way to determine what other employee, or employees, arrived for work at about the same time as OSWALD on that or any other date.

WILLIAM WAYNE WHALEY, residence, 619 Pine Street, Lewisville, Texas, employed as a cab driver for Yellow Cab Company, Oak Cliff Cab Division, examined a brown long-sleeved man's sport shirt and stated that he cannot definitely say whether this is or is not the shirt worn by LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 22, 1963, when he took OSWALD from the Greyhound Bus Station to the 500 block of Beckley, Dallas, Texas.

He stated that this may well be the shirt since, as he recalls, OSWALD was wearing grey work pants and a grey work jacket and had on a darker shirt which had a gold streak in it. He also recalled that this shirt was opened down the front to about the fourth button, and he does not recall OSWALD's wearing an undershirt. He also recalled that the shirt, as well as the rest of OSWALD's attire, was unpressed and wrinkled, as though it had not been ironed after washing or as though he had slept in the clothes.

D. FBI Laboratory Examinations

Under date of December 13, 1963, the FBI Laboratory advised as follows concerning a document examination requested by the Miami Office on November 29, 1963:

"Specimens received 12/2/63

"Q1 Envelope postmarked 'ARLINGTON TEX APR 18 4 30 PM 1963' bearing typewritten address 'To TONY CUESTA or Remon Fort, or Mario Alvarez, or any of their true friends among the Cuban Exiles of Miami, Florida' and accompanying one-page typewritten letter beginning 'TO TONY CUESTA ACTIVE? ARDENT...' and ending '...pollute and enslave his own people.'

"Result of examination:

"The typewriting on Q1 is too poor for an adequate classification. However, it does resemble most closely an L C Smith elite style of type spaced twelve letters per inch.

"The typewriting on Q1 was not identified in the Anonymous Letter File. A photograph will be added to this file.

"It was concluded that the typewriter used to prepare Q1 was not used in preparing any of the typewriting in the case entitled 'Assassination of President John F. Kennedy, 11/22/63, Dallas, Texas.'"

Under date of December 5, 1963, the FBI Laboratory advised Honorable JAMES J. ROWLEY, Chief, United States Secret Service, Department of the Treasury, Washington, D. C. 20220, as follows concerning an examination requested by communication of November 23, 1963:

Specimen:

Evidence personally delivered by Special Agent Orrin Bartlett on November 23, 1963

Q19 Pair of black moccasin shoes
Q20 Pair of black socks
Q21 - Q22 Trousers and coat
Q23 Belt
Q24 Necktie
Q25 Shirt
Q26 Handkerchief
Q27 Comb
Q28 Bandages and belt
Q29 White shorts

Results of examination:

Examination of the President's clothing revealed the presence of a small hole in the back of the coat and shirt. The hole in the back of the coat is positioned approximately 5 3/8" below the top of the collar and 1 3/4" to the right of the middle seam. The hole in the shirt back is located in the same relative area, being 5 3/4" below the top of the collar and 1 1/8" to the right of the middle. These holes are typical of bullet entrance holes.

The evidence bullets submitted in this case are clad with copper metal. Spectrographic examination of the fabric surrounding the holes in the back of the coat and shirt revealed minute traces of copper.

A ragged slitlike hole approximately 1/2" in length is located in the front of the shirt 7/8" below the collar button. This hole is through both the button and buttonhole portions of the shirt due to the overlap. This hole has the characteristics of an exit hole for a projectile. No bullet metal was found in the fabric surrounding the hole in the front of the shirt.

A small elongated nick was located in the left side of the knot of the tie, Q24, which may have been caused by the projectile after it had passed through the front of the shirt.

X-ray and other examinations of the clothing revealed no additional evidence of value.

Result of examination:

There are no images in any of the exposures of Q104 which show the corner window of the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building from which the assassin's gun was fired that can be interpreted as the form of an individual. The forms recorded in this window can be interpreted as in the same general shapes of boxes, found at and just behind the window in question.

Specimens received Available in Bureau

Q176 Documents pertaining to Mr. and Mrs. Oswald furnished by Soviet Embassy, Washington, D. C.

Specimens personally delivered November 27, 1963, by Agents of your office

Various letters written in Russian purportedly by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, K43, and his wife, MARINA, K44 (Your items 158-167, 127-155, 109-114, 250-260, and 361)

Results of examination:

The documents in Q176 which are handwritten or hand printed and signed Lee H. Oswald and the signature on the typewritten letter in Q176 were written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, K4 and K5 in this case, whose purported known handwriting also appears in K43.

The remaining documents in Q176 (excluding Marriage Certificate 11-PYA 333281) are handwritten in Russian and signed M. Oswald or Marina Oswald. Due to the difficulty of properly evaluating the handwriting characteristics in a non-Latin alphabet language, a definite conclusion could not be reached whether the letters written in Russian and signed M. Oswald or Marina Oswald in Q176 were written by MARINA OSWALD, whose purported known writings appear in K44.

Specimen:

Evidence received from the Secret Service and personally delivered by Special Agent Orrin Bartlett of the FBI on December 3, 1963:

CLEAN CLOTHES OF OSWALD

Q179 Belt
Q180 Tie
Q181 Tan sweater
Q182 Olive sweater
Q183 Blue-gray shirt
Q184 Red and gray sport shirt
Q185 Blue shirt
Q186 Blue sport shirt
Q187 White shirt

Results of examination:

Specimen Q179 is a size "32" tan leather belt manufactured by "Hickok." Such belts are common and distributed and sold through numerous outlets throughout the country. Nothing of significance was noted about Q179.

Specimen Q180 is a brown and tan necktie. No labels were found in Q180 and the manufacturer is not known to the Laboratory.

The Q181 sweater is approximately a size "small" sleeveless lamb's wool sweater. No labels or markings were found in Q181. The manufacturer is unknown to the Laboratory. This sweater exhibits an average amount of wear.

Specimen Q182 is a size "small" new-appearing olive-colored woolen sweater with white and black stripes. This sweater was manufactured by the Campus Sweater and Sportswear Company, 3955 Euclid, Cleveland, Ohio. Campus brand sweaters are sold through numerous outlets throughout the country.

Specimen Q183 is a blue, gray, black and white knit short-sleeved sport shirt. A label in Q183 indicates it was manufactured in Hong Kong. This same label also bears the name "HADSON SPORTSWEAR" which may be the name of the company distributing such shirts.

Specimen Q184 is a well-worn, red, gray and black shirt or pajama top. Two sheets of purple toilet tissue were found in the pocket of Q184. A small visible marking "85M" appears on the lower front left lining of Q184. This appears to be manufacturer's marking; however, the significance of it is not known. No labels were found on Q184.

Specimen Q185 is a blue cotton short-sleeved sport shirt manufactured by "Arrow." Arrow brand shirts are distributed and sold nationally. A manufacturer's number, "4591B1WAY SP SS8 S1PS1631L," is present on the front lower right flap of the tail of Q185. The significance of this number is not known.

The Q186 blue cotton shirt exhibits considerable wear. A label indicates it was manufactured by Sedgefield Men's and Boys' Sportswear, Blue Bell, Inc., New York, New York. Specimen Q186 is a size "small."

The Q187 white cotton shirt is a size "15 1/2." A label present in the collar indicates this shirt was "STYLED FOR PORTER'S NEW ORLEANS." A manufacturer's marking "SANDO 67 12 15^{2}-" appears on the lower right shirttail of Q187.

Specimens Q180 through Q187 were examined for visible and invisible laundry and dry cleaners markings, but none were found. The Q183 through Q187 shirts all appear to have been laundered recently by hand.

None of the fibers previously found on the K1 gun could be associated with specimens Q181 through Q187.

The text of an undated letter written in the Russian language which had been left at the PAINE residence and subsequently turned over to the FBI Office in Dallas through the U. S. "1. This is the key to the mail box which is located in the main post office in the city on Ervay Street. This is the same street where the drug store, in which you always waited, is located. You will find the mail box in the post office which is located 4 blocks from the drug store on that street. I paid for the box last month so don't worry about it.

"2. Send the information as to what has happened to me to the Embassy and include newspaper clippings (should there be anything about me in the newspapers). I believe that the Embassy will come quickly to your assistance on learning everything.

"3. I paid the house rent on the 2nd so don't worry about it.

"4. Recently I also paid for water and gas.

"5. The money from work will possibly be coming. The money will be sent to our post office box. Go to the bank and cash the check.

"6. You can either throw out or give my clothing etc. away. Do not keep these. However, I prefer that you hold on to my personal papers (military, civil etc.).

"7. Certain of my documents are in the small blue valise.

"8. The address book can be found on my table in the study should you need same.

"9. We have friends here. The Red Cross also will help you. (Red Cross in English)

Under date of December 9, 1963, the FBI Laboratory advised Mr. JESSE E. CURRY, Chief of Police, Dallas, Texas, as follows concerning an examination requested by the Dallas Office on December 2, 1963:

Specimens:

Q188 Bullet from EDWIN A. WALKER's residence

Results of examination:

The remaining physical characteristics of the bullet, Q188, are the same as those of the bullet and bullet fragments recovered in connection with the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and the same as those of 6.5 millimeter Mannlicher-Carcano bullets manufactured by the Western Cartridge Company. The mutilation of Q188 prevents stating that it is of Western manufacture to the exclusion of all other sources.

Specimen Q188 was fired from a barrel rifled with four lands and grooves, right twist. Mannlicher-Carcano rifles of the type used in the assassination of President KENNEDY (described as specimen K1 in Laboratory report PC-78243 BX) are among those which produce general rifling impressions such as were found on specimen Q188.

Because of the extreme mutilation and distortion of Q188 and because the individual microscopic marks left on bullets by the barrel of the K1 rifle could have changed subsequent to the time Q188 was fired, it was not possible to determine whether or not Q188 was fired from K1.

There are no specimens presently being maintained in the National Unidentified Ammunition File which could have been fired from the K1 rifle or which logically should be compared with Q188. Further, no bullets or rifles which logically should be compared with specimen Q188 have come to the attention of the FBI Laboratory since March, 1963.

The copper jacket and the lead core of the Q188 bullet were determined to be slightly different in compositions from the copper jackets and lead cores of the Q1 and Q2 bullets.

Although the differences in composition between the Q188 and the Q1 and Q2 bullets were small and do not indicate that these bullets represent two different types of bullets, it was not possible to determine if these bullets came from the same box. It is to be noted that there is no assurance in the fabrication of ammunition that all the ammunition ending up in one box possesses bullets from the same batch of metal, that is, with the same composition.

The bullet, Q188, is being temporarily retained in the Laboratory for comparison with any additional bullets which may be received.

Specimens received: 12/5/63, from New Orleans

Q213 Rough draft layout for handbill commencing with words "HANDS OFF CUBA!" and ending with the words "Everyone Welcome!"

Q214 Job ticket #D 7548 dated 5/29/63 for the Jones Printing Co.

Q215 Three copies of handbill commencing with the words "HANDS OFF CUBA!" and ending with the words "EVERYONE WELCOME!"

Q216 A 2½" by 3½" hand printed copy of what appears to be a membership card, entitled "FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE NEW ORLEANS CHAPTER"

Q217 A printed copy of hand printed membership card entitled "FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE NEW ORLEANS CHAPTER"

Q218 One 4" by 9" offset printed paper soliciting membership and/or contributions to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee

Q219 Application for Fair Play for Cuba Committee

Result of examination:

It was concluded that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, K4 and K5 in this case, prepared the hand printing on specimens Q213 and Q216.

Q215 agrees with the limited descriptive data appearing on the job ticket, Q214.

It was concluded that Q215 came from the same printing source as specimens Q43 through Q45, previously submitted.

The rubber stamp impression "A. J. Hidell P. O. Box 30016, New Orleans" on Q219 was prepared from the rubber stamp kit, K39, previously submitted. K39 was previously identified as having been used in the preparation of Q43 through Q45.

Evidence was found on Q218 and Q219 indicating these specimens were prepared from a paper or parchment plate which had at least two images thereon. Due to the limited number of significant typewriting characteristics present, no conclusion could be reached whether Q218 and Q219 were prepared from the same typewriter. No characteristics were noted on Q218 and Q219 which would indicate whether they did or did not come from the same offset printing lot.

Q217 does not contain a sufficient number of significant printing characteristics to determine whether it came from the same printing source as Q67, previously submitted, and the 159 cards, previously submitted, and designated as Item 115.

The FBI Laboratory further advised that a search was made in the files of the Identification Division on the basis of the name "A. J. Hidell" and fingerprint card signatures of individuals using this name or a similar name were compared withthe various questioned Hidell signatures in this case but nothing of interest on the signatures was noted.

Q231 6.5 mm cartridge case made available by Mrs. LOVELL T. ~~X~~ PENN

Results of examination:

The cartridge case, Q231, is a 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge case. Q231 was compared with the evidence cartridge cases, Q6, Q7 and Q48, which were previously identified as having been fired in OSWALD's rifle. As a result of this examination, it was determined that Q231 could not have been fired in OSWALD's rifle. This conclusion is based on differences in firing pin and breech face marks.

"Specimens received 12/9/63

"Q232 Envelope addressed to Lee Harvey Oswald, Mail Office, Dallas, Texas, U.S.A., postmarked La Habana, Cuba, November 28; 9:30 a.m., 1963

"Q233 Typewritten letter headed La Habana, 10 de Noviembre, 1963, addressed to Lee Harvey Oswald, Mail Office, Dallas, Texas, U.S.A., bearing salutation of Amigo Lee and ending 'Siempre sincerely, Pedro Charles' signed 'Peter'.

"Specimens available in Bureau

"Q234 Envelope addressed to Mr. Roberto Kennedy, Secretary of Justice, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., U.S.A., postmarked on reverse side Habana, Cuba, Nov. 28 9:30 AM, 1963

"Q235 Typewritten letter headed La Habana, 27 de Noviembre, 1963, addressed Mr. Robert Kennedy, Secretary of Justicia, Washington, D. C., bearing on reverse side the handwritten and typewritten signature 'Mario del Rosario Molina' Cuba

"Result of examination:

"It was concluded that specimens Q232 through Q235 were prepared on the same typewriter. This machine is equipped with Remington Number 10 large pica type, first used on standard correspondence machines in October, 1935. This typewriting was not identified in the Anonymous Letter File. Appropriate photographs will be added to this file.

"It was concluded that the envelopes, Q232 and Q234, came from the same source. These envelopes have a yellowish tinge indicating they are from an old batch. It was noted that the postmark on the reverse side of both envelopes is the same and that the '9:30 A.M.' portion of the postmark is upside down on both envelopes. Furthermore, both envelopes have "an illegible postmark on the face of the envelopes of which only the '1963' is legible. In addition, it was noted that the same kind of three-cent stamp was found on both envelopes.

"Q233 measures 8.38" x 12.95" x 0.0020" (manifold paper). Q235 measures 8.30" x 12.89" x 0.0042" (bond paper). No watermarks or other significant characteristics were noted which would indicate the source of the paper or envelopes, Q232 through Q235.

"It was found that the same type of pen and ink were used to prepare the signatures on Q233 and Q235. These signatures are limited in nature and are not comparable with each other. Hence, it could not be determined if both signatures were written by the same individual.

"No indented handwriting was found on Q232 through Q235. No microdots were found on Q232 through Q235.

"It was concluded that the envelopes, Q232 and Q234, had been previously opened and resealed.

"No latent prints of value were found on Q232 through Q235."

On December 7, 1963, HARRY M. CORMICK of the "Dallas Morning News" advised the Dallas Office of the FBI that in February, 1963, a friend of his, GWYNNE GASSAWAY, 3708 Armstrong, had written a letter to the editor which letter had been published in his paper. As a result of this letter being published, Mrs. GASSAWAY received an anonymous communication signed "A Worker".

MC CORMICK said on November 24, 1963, the "Dallas Morning News" carried a facsimile of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's letter to JOHN CONNALLY, "Secretary of the Navy". MC CORMICK said Mrs. GASSAWAY saw this facsimile letter of OSWALD's in the paper and has told him she believes the handwriting in the facsimile and the handwriting in the anonymous communication she received, are the same. MC CORMICK was advised by Mrs. GASSAWAY that the original anonymous letter which she received had been turned over to the FBI by her in February, 1963.

The anonymous communication, dated February 16, 1963, signed "A Worker", postmarked February 16, 1963, Dallas, Texas, which was previously turned over to the Dallas Office by Mrs. GASSAWAY, was located in Dallas files and forwarded to the FBI Laboratory on December 9, 1963 for comparison with the known handwriting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, for the purpose of determining whether the anonymous communication was or was not written by OSWALD.

On November 28, 1963, Captain GEORGE M. DOUGHTY of the Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, turned over to me the following items which were related to the shooting of J. D. TIPPIT of the Dallas Police Department. Captain DOUGHTY stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was charged with this shooting on November 22, 1963.

1. One gray man's jacket with "M" size in collar, laundry mark 30 and 030 in collar, zipper opening, name tag ("Created in California by MAURICE HOLMAN") on lining of jacket. This jacket bore the initials of W.E.B. which is W. E. BARNES and G.M.D. which is GEORGE M. DOUGHTY, officers of the Dallas Police Department Crime Laboratory. This jacket also bore tag number D 9738 on the bottom of the jacket. Captain DOUGHTY stated this jacket was found by Captain W. R. WESTBROOK of the Dallas Police Department on an open parking lot west of Patton Street between 10th and Jefferson Streets, Dallas, Texas.

2. Five live .38 caliber western special shells initialled "E.B." which were found in the left front pocket of LEE HARVEY OSWALD following his arrest at the time he was searched by ELMER BOYD, a detective of the Homicide Bureau of the Dallas Police Department.

3. Four live .38 caliber shells found by Dallas police officer JERRY HILL at the time he was arrested by the Dallas Police Department on November 22, 1963.

4. Four empty .38 caliber hulls. Regarding two of these hulls, Captain DOUGHTY stated at first that an unidentified witness at the scene of the shooting of Officer TIPPIT at 400 East 10th Street, Dallas, Texas on November 22, 1963, had turned them over to Officer J. M. POE of the Dallas Police Department who delivered these two hulls to the Police Crime Laboratory at the Dallas Police Department. Captain DOUGHTY stated that subsequent information verified that one DEMINGO BENAVIDES of 501 East Jefferson, had found these two hulls on November 22, 1963 in the block of 400 East 10th Street near where the shooting of Officer J. D. TIPPIT occurred on that date, and that BENAVIDES was the individual, in fact, that had turned these hulls over to Dallas Police Officer POE. One of these hulls was found by BARBARA JEANNETTE DAVIS of 400 East 10th Street, Dallas, Texas, and this hull was turned over to Captain GEORGE M. DOUGHTY of the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory. This hull was found in the front yard of BARBARA JEANNETTE DAVIS of 400 East 10th Street, Dallas, Texas. The other empty hull was found by VIRGINIA DAVIS of 400 East 10th Street, who resides at that address. VIRGINIA DAVIS found this empty hull in her front yard and turned it over to Detective C. M. DOHORITY, Homicide Bureau of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas. Captain DOUGHTY stated that all hulls were received in the Police Crime Laboratory on November 22, 1963.

Captain DOUGHTY stated that at the time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was arrested on November 22, 1963, there actually were six live .38 caliber shells found by Dallas Police Officer JERRY HILL in the gun found on OSWALD. Two of these live .38 caliber rounds were released to U. S. Secret Service on November 26, 1963 and were at the time in custody of the U. S. Secret Service, as far as he knew. Captain DOUGHTY stated that he wanted to point out this fact since only four of the live .38 caliber shells found by Dallas Police Officer JERRY HILL at the time OSWALD was arrested by the Dallas Police Partment on November 22, 1963, were being turned over to the FBI.

Captain GEORGE M. DOUGHTY, Captain of Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department, furnished me with a piece of wood approximately 40" long and 3/4" in width for transmittal to the FBI Laboratory. Captain DOUGHTY stated that there was a possibility that there might be fingerprints on this wood since he had obtained same from the window ledge on the 6th floor where it is believed that the assassin fired the rifle in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 22, 1963.

Mr. R. S. TRULY, Superintendent, Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), advised that on approximately December 16, 1963, a room adjoining the shipping room on the first floor of the TSBD Building was being cleaned and articles in there were being removed. He said that this room has been utilized by various employees who would leave articles of clothing as well as other articles from time to time in the room. He said that some of the colored men eat lunch in this room and play dominoes there. He said that in the course of this room being cleaned up a blue jacket with gray quilted lining and zipper front was located and that it was not claimed by any of the employees who have access to the room. He said that in view of this it was his thought that perhaps this jacket belonged to LEE HARVEY OSWALD who was an employee of the TSBD as of the time of the assassination of President KENNEDY in front of this building on November 22, 1963. TRULY said that he had been unable to ascertain through inquiry among employees that this was OSWALD's jacket or that anyone had specifically observed OSWALD wearing it. He stated, however, that he himself had a vague recollection of having possibly seen OSWALD wear a jacket similar to that one in the past. He pointed out that he believed the morning of November 22, 1963, was a cool enough morning that a jacket would have been desirable at the time of the morning OSWALD would have reported for work in the TSBD Building.

IV. OTHER INVESTIGATION RELATING TO LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On November 27, 1963, the Washington Field Office advised that on November 26, 1963, ROBERT D. JOHNSON, Chief Counsel, Passport Office, Department of State, informed SA KENNETH J. HASER that a National Broadcasting Corporation Representative made telephonic inquiry that date seeking to identify from passport files one JACK LAWRENCE, of Dallas, born about 1939, an alleged associate of JACK RUBY; that passport files were negative, and no additional information had been located regarding LAWRENCE.

On November 28, 1963, TOM PETTIT, NBC Correspondent, informed SA JOSEPH B. ABERNATHY, of the Dallas FBI Office, that he was leaving for New York and stated he had recorded a lengthy interview with AL BOGARD, Salesman, Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, Commerce at Industry, Dallas. This interview concerned OSWALD's having come in to look at new cars some two weeks earlier and OSWALD's being permitted to test drive a new Comet. PETTIT quoted BOGARD as stating that JACK LAWRENCE, a former salesman for Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, had considerable additional information in this regard.

The following investigation was conducted by SA'S TOM E. CHAPOTON, JR., and ALLEN H. SMITH at Dallas, Texas:

On December 5, 1963, FRANK PIZZO, Assistant Sales Manager, Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, stated that JACK LAWRENCE was hired as a salesman on October 22, 1963. He was discharged on November 23, 1963, after another former salesman, BOB TETER, had told him that LAWRENCE had received a Bad Conduct Discharge from one of the military services, because he had tried to help FIDEL CASTRO when CASTRO first began to fight BATISTA in Cuba.

Mr. PIZZO made available an application of LAWRENCE with the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company for a bond, which had been executed in connection with his employment. The following information was taken from the application:

Name: JACK ALAN CARROLL LAWRENCE

Address: YMCA, 605 Ervay, Dallas, Texas

Former address: 144 10th Avenue, South Charleston, West Virginia

Date of birth: 9/14/38

Social Security No.: 236-58-6645

Previous employment:

5/63 - 9/63, Sears Roebuck, Charleston, West Virginia;

1/63 - 5/63, Unemployed. At St. Petersburg, Florida and Charleston, West Virginia for confirmation LINDA LAWRENCE;

11/62 - 1/63, Forsythe Advertising, under WILLIAM FORSYTHE, Fort Lauderdale, Florida (company now defunct);

3/62 - 11/62, Electronics Communications, Inc., 72nd Street North, St. Petersburg, Florida, under SID SMITH;

1/62 - 3/62, Morrison's Cafeteria, Inc., Central Avenue, St. Petersburg, Florida.

References: SID SMITH, EUGENE BOYD, care of Electronics Communications, Inc., St. Petersburg, Florida

JAMES HILL, Sears Roebuck & Company, St. Albans, West Virginia

JAMES CUNNINGHAM, 2600 Beach Boulevard, Gulfport, Florida

GENE SITES, E Street, South Charleston, West Virginia

Mr. FIZZO said that LAWRENCE had applied as a result of an advertisement and had related he had been stranded in Dallas when his car broke down and he had to sell the car.

On December 6, 1963, JOE MC REE, Secretary, YMCA, Dallas, stated that JACK LAWRENCE, 1006 First Avenue, Charleston, West Virginia, checked in on October 6, 1963, and checked out on November 30, 1963, leaving forwarding address as JACK LAWRENCE, 144 10th Avenue, South Charleston, West Virginia, telephone RI 4-0857. He occupied Room 811 during this time. Mr. MC REE was not acquainted with LAWRENCE and knew of no one else who was.

On December 7, 1963, ROBERT D. TETER, 3737 Higgins, Apartment 222, Dallas, Used Car Salesman for Eagle Lincoln-Mercury, 5211 Lemmon Avenue, stated that he had formerly been employed as a salesman for Downtown Lincoln-Mercury and had met JACK LAWRENCE during this employment, since LAWRENCE was also a salesman.

On one occasion, date not remembered, but which was prior to the assassination of the President, he and LAWRENCE had gone out together one evening and had a few drinks. He could not recall any of the details of their conversation during this evening out, but said he did remember LAWRENCE telling him he had gotten a Bad Conduct Discharge when he had tried to help FIDEL CASTRO when CASTRO first began to fight BATISTA in Cuba. He said he did not remember other statements made by LAWRENCE, but did recall LAWRENCE had been very emphatic about some of his ideas. TETER said that this had come to his attention because somebody at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury had recognized OSWALD as having been in that agency to see about a car and all the ensuing publicity about OSWALD being an admirer of CASTRO.

TETER said the last he heard LAWRENCE had gone back to West Charleston, where his wife was living, address unknown.

Mr. ALBERT GUY BOGARD, Salesman, Downtown Lincoln Mercury, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following written statement:

"Dallas, Texas
December 9, 1963

"I, Albert Guy Bogard, make the following statement voluntarily to C. Ray Hall, who has identified himself to me as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. No threats or promises have been made to me to get me to make this statement. I have been told that I do not have to make a statement, and that I have a right to talk with a lawyer before making any statement. I have been told that this statement may be used against me in a court of law.

"I was born December 30, 1924, at Coushatta, La., and finished the eleventh grade in school. I am now living in Dallas, Texas, and work as an automobile salesman for Downtown Lincoln-Mercury located at 118 East Commerce.

"On Saturday, November 9, 1963, at about 3:00 to 4:00 PM, a young man came in the showroom at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, and stated he was interested in a car. This young man was alone, and I did not see him drive up in a car. I introduced myself to this man, and asked him for his name about twice before he ever told me his name. This man said his name was Lee Oswald.

"I showed the man all the cars in the showroom, then went outside with him and showed him cars we had outside. He seemed interested in a red Comet hardtop, so I asked him if he would like to take a ride in one of our cars. It was at this time that the man said his name was Lee Oswald. I asked him if he had a trade-in, and he said he didn't, but was going to pay cash. I asked him if he meant a cash down payment, or full payment of the car in cash, and he said he had some money coming in within two or three weeks and would pay cash for the car.

"I got a car similar to the one in the showroom and I asked the man if he wanted to drive it. He said, 'Yes, I wondered if you were going to let me drive one before I bought.' This man, who had told me his name was Lee Oswald, drove out of our place and drove South on Industrial Blvd. for a short distance, then turned around and drove to Stemmons Freeway. In driving North on Stemmons Freeway, this man drove at speeds up to 75 to 85 miles per hour. He turned off on the Inwood Road exit, then crossed under the Freeway and came back on to the Freeway going South. He drove South to the Colorado Street exit, where he turned off and turned back on to the Freeway going North. He then drove back to my place of business.

"After we got back, I tried to get this man to give me a down payment, and fill out an order for a new car, but he would not do so. I again tried to get the man's address and phone number, but he would not give either his address or a phone number. I do not now recall whether the man said he lived in Oak Cliff or not. I gave this man my business card, and when he would not give me his address, I wrote the name 'Lee Oswald' on the back of one of my cards and put it back in my pocket.

"On November 22, 1963, after President Kennedy had been killed, I heard a radio broadcast about Lee Oswald being picked up as a suspect, and thought about the man being in about two weeks previously. I found the card in my pocket, that had the name Lee Oswald on it. This was sometime in the afternoon of November 22, 1963. I mentioned this name on the card to some of the other people at the place where I was working, and showed the card to them, remarking, 'He isn't a prospect any more.' I then threw the card in the waste basket.

"That night, while watching the news on television, I saw pictures of Lee Harvey Oswald, the person who was being held by the Dallas Police Dept. in connection with the death of President Kennedy. The following day, I saw photographs of this lee Harvey Oswald in the newspaper. I am positive that this Lee Harvey Oswald, who was arrested in connection with the death of President Kennedy, is the same person who came to my place of business on November 9, 1963, and gave me his name as Lee Oswald.

"The day after President Kennedy was killed, two Special Agents of the FBI, one of whom was named Clements, contacted me, and I related to them the same information as set out in this statement.

"I have read this statement which is written on this & four (4) other pages and it is true to best of my knowledge.

Mr. ORAN PAUL BROWN, 101 Savannah, Waxahachie, Texas, advised he was formerly employed as an automobile salesman for Downtown Lincoln Mercury, Dallas, Texas. He is presently working as a trainee at the Fina Service Station, 2681 Royal Lane in Dallas, and as soon as the Fina Service Station at Stemmons Expressway and Inwood Road is completed he will be employed as manager at that location.

While working for Downtown Lincoln Mercury, one night about a week or two before President KENNEDY was assassinated, BROWN was scheduled to be on duty that night. Another salesman, ALBERT BOGARD, came by and told him he had a prospect for the sale of a car, by the name of LEE OSWALD. BOGARD said that OSWALD had been in looking at cars, but didn't have enough money for a down payment, and was supposed to come back when he got some money. BOGARD asked BROWN to take care of OSWALD, if he came in, and they would split the commission if the car was sold. BROWN then wrote the name "LEE OSWALD" down on something, and thought he wrote the name down on the back of one of BROWN's cards. No one named OSWALD came in, and he forgot about the matter.

On the afternoon of November 22, 1963, after President KENNEDY had been killed, he came to work at about 3:00 PM, and BOGARD remarked to him that LEE OSWALD had been arrested in connection with the assassination. BOGARD then said, "OSWALD was the name of the guy I was going to sell the car to, and I gave you his name as a prospect." BOGARD also reminded BROWN that when BOGARD was talking to OSWALD at Downtown Lincoln Mercury, BROWN started to walk into the office where BOGARD and OSWALD were talking, but BROWN walked away when he noticed that BOGARD had a customer. BROWN said he thought he remembered this incident, but didn't pay any attention to the customer BOGARD was talking to, and definitely could not identify this customer. BROWN stated he has seen the photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in newspapers, and on television and he could not say that he had ever seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD before. However, BROWN was positive that BOGARD gave him the name of LEE OSWALD, as a prospective customer, a week or two before President KENNEDY was assassinated.

When BROWN got home on the evening of November 22, 1963, his wife asked him what he knew about OSWALD, telling him that she had seen the name of OSWALD on a piece of paper among his effects. He told her that this was a prospective customer, but he thought he had written the name on one of his cards. They both looked around the house, but could not find the card or a piece of paper, with the name of OSWALD on it.

On November 23, 1963, BOGARD told BROWN that he was sure that the LEE HARVEY OSWALD that he had seen on television, was the same OSWALD that had been in to see him about buying a car.

Mrs. ORAN PAUL BROWN, 101 Savannah, Waxahachie, Texas, advised that her husband was formerly employed as an automobile salesman for Downtown Lincoln Mercury, Dallas, Texas.

On the afternoon of November 22, 1963, she watched the television news concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY. When she heard that a man named LEE OSWALD had been arrested, she recalled seeing the name of OSWALD on a piece of paper that her husband had left at the house. When her husband came home late that afternoon, she asked him about it, and told him she thought she had seen the name of OSWALD on a piece of paper, about two weeks previously. Her husband then told her that one of the other salesmen where he worked, had given him the name of OSWALD as a prospective customer.

Mrs. BROWN said that she recalled the name on the piece of paper was "OSWALD," and she thinks this name was preceeded by two initials, but she does not remember what the initials were.

AT DALLAS, TEXAS:

At 11:00 a.m. on November 23, 1963, SA EDWIN D. KUYKENDALL received a telephone call from one JACK LAWRENCE, residence YMCA on Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas, who stated a person he believed to have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD had recently appeared at Downtown Lincoln Mercury in Dallas, at which time he had indicated a desire to purchase an automobile. The individual stated he had no money at that time but expected to have cash in sufficient amount to purchase an automobile within "a couple of weeks."

JACK A. LAWRENCE, who is presently staying at the home of his parents in law at 144 Tenth Avenue, South Charleston, W. Va., was advised that he was being contacted in connection with a phone call he had made to the Dallas, Texas, Office of the FBI the day after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. LAWRENCE was asked what he knew about JACK L. RUBY, and he said he knew nothing about this man, had never seen him and had had no contact in any way with him. He said he had heard a great deal about him, which was all second hand and which was general knowledge around Dallas. He said he had heard that RUBY was a close friend of the Sheriff of Dallas County, as well as a close friend of newspaper people, especially since he was in the office of the Dallas Morning News at the time of the assassination. He said he had also heard that RUBY knew members of the Dallas police very well. He said all this he had heard after the shootings and that none of it was first-hand knowledge to him.

Mr. LAWRENCE was asked what he knew about LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and he said he had never known or seen this man and had never heard of him until his arrest after the assassination. He said that he had called the FBI Office in Dallas, Texas, because of an incident which occurred and about which those who knew of it first hand would not report same, and he felt that all such information should be reported. He said that he called the FBI right in front of those involved; and as a result, his leaving his employment in Dallas at the Downtown Lincoln-Mercury Company was speeded up and occurred the same day he made the call.

Mr. LAWRENCE said that right after the assassination of President KENNEDY and the arrest of OSWALD the Assistant Sales Manager, PIZZO, and a salesman, AL BOGARD, talked about OSWALD being in there about ten days before. He was looking at a $3,500 Comet Caliente Sports Car, fully equipped. He took one of these cars, a demonstrator belonging to salesman GENE WILSON, for a test drive. This drive took place along the same route taken when President KENNEDY came to Dallas and covered the route where he was assassinated. At the same time, the salesman wrote up papers covering the sale of this car to OSWALD, but he told them he was not taking the car at that time, but he would be back in three weeks to get the car and he would pay for it in full in cash.

Mr. LAWRENCE said he knew nothing further about OSWALD but felt this should be reported to the FBI even though the others would not report it.

Mr. LAWRENCE said that in January, 1959, he was in the service and that at that time CASTRO was over throwing the government in Cuba. He said he and others in the service were very much in favor of CASTRO's actions, and they wanted to go down and help him, but he said that he was not discharged from the service until it was too late to go down and do any good. He said that now he is glad he did not help CASTRO because he no longer favors what he has done or what he stands for. He said he is opposed to what CASTRO stands for now and would not help him under any circumstances.

MARY ADDA DOWLING, 617 West Tenth, advised she is currently employed at Skillern's Drug Store No. 41, Preston Road and Forest Lane. She advised that until recently she was employed with the Dobbs House at 1221 North Beckley working during daytime hours. She said that she did not know who LEE HARVEY OSWALD was when she formerly waited on him when he ate breakfast in the morning, usually between 7:00 and 7:30 a.m., but that since OSWALD has received so much publicity in connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, she became aware that he was the one who had been a customer at the Dobbs House. She recalled that OSWALD was in the restaurant on Wednesday morning, November 20, 1963, at about 10:00 a.m. She said that OSWALD was apparently in an ugly mood at the time and said something "nasty" to her using curse words regarding his order. She said she told him that if his order was not right that the Dobbs House would make it right. She said that shortly thereafter, OSWALD again used curse words in addressing her because she did not give him more coffee as soon as he thought she should. She recalled that Officer J. D. TIPPIT was in the Dobbs House at that time, apparently as a customer, and that when TIPPIT heard OSWALD making his outburst toward her, TIPPIT shot a glance at OSWALD. She said OSWALD was already getting ready to leave, and nothing was said between TIPPIT and OSWALD. She stated there was no indication that TIPPIT and OSWALD ever knew each other.

She noted that she had known Officer TIPPIT for approximately five years because he had formerly come into the Continental Bus Station in downtown Dallas in which bus station she worked in the drug store. She said that TIPPIT was usually in the Dobbs House each morning about 10:00 a.m. or shortly thereafter to drink coffee.

Regarding OSWALD, Miss DOWLING said that she had not seen OSWALD in the Dobbs House on Thursday or Friday, November 21 or 22, 1963, and she attributed it to the possibility that OSWALD may have been angry with her because of their clash on November 20, 1963. She recalled that sometime prior to their clash on November 20, OSWALD had on one or two occasions asked her for her name, and she would not tell him her name.

Miss DOWLING stated that she had never to her recollection seen JACK RUBY prior to the time of the President's assassination on November 22, 1963, but that she did recall that the night manager at the Dobbs House, DOUGLAS LEAKE, had said after JACK RUBY shot OSWALD that RUBY had been a customer of the Dobbs House during night hours in the past.

She said she had no information of association between OSWALD and RUBY.

Mr. WILLIAM F. GORMAN, JR., also known as BILLY F. GORMAN, JR., 1306 North Beckley, advised that he works a shift with the U. S. Post Office in Dallas, whereby he gets off work at midnight and that before retiring, he usually stops at the Dobbs House, 1221 North Beckley, for a little to eat inasmuch as it is convenient to where he lives in the next block. He said that he had seen JACK RUBY in the Dobbs House on about three occasions. He said that on the first occasion RUBY introduced himself to him as BILLY GRAHAM, the evangelist. GORMAN stated he told RUBY he was delighted to meet him and that he himself was Bishop SHEEN. He said that on a second occasion when he observed RUBY in the Dobbs House there was no occasion for conversation between him and RUBY. He said that on a third occasion when he saw RUBY at the Dobbs House, RUBY did not speak to him, and he thought he might have offended RUBY on the first occasion by the response he had made to RUBY. He said that someone at the restaurant, either an employee or customer probably, had told him that this individual was named JACK and also gave his last name, but the last name did not stay with him. He said that whoever told him this had advised him that this person had a "strip-tease" place in Dallas.

GORMAN advised he never really knew RUBY's full name of JACK RUBY until after RUBY became involved in the investigation of the assassination of President KENNEDY and was given considerable publicity as a result of his having been charged with the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. GORMAN said that on the first two occasions that he saw RUBY in the Dobbs House, RUBY had in his company a quite attractive girl, a different girl each time. He said that he never saw OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and had no information which would reflect there was any association between OSWALD and RUBY.

JERRY DUNCAN, operator of an Enco Service Station, 1030 North Zangs, Dallas, advised that OSWALD lived at 1026 North Beckley just across the street from his station. Although he had no automobile, he came to the station on occasion. He secured change with which to make long distance telephone calls from DUNCAN at least twice. He believes this was approximately six weeks ago. The calls were made from a coin telephone booth located at the side of his station, telephone number WH 3-0062.

Approximately six weeks ago, OSWALD went out with one of DUNCAN's employees, JOHN L. FORD, to drink beer. So far as DUNCAN knows, they were out together only on the one occasion. FORD has left Dallas, and his whereabouts is unknown to DUNCAN. He could not supply his last Dallas address or the identity of anyone who might supply background data concerning him. He did recall that FORD's home address is Monroe, Louisiana, but could not supply a street address. He advised that FORD is a white male, age 24.

DUNCAN advised he has never observed JACK LEON RUBY in the neighborhood or associated with OSWALD.

The following investigation was conducted by SA ALFRED D. NEELEY on December 12, 1963:

The following investigation was conducted as a result of information received showing that a long distance call had been placed to 465-5013 (HOmestead 5-5013), Denison, Texas, from a public telephone WH 3-0062, Dallas, Texas, which phone LEE HARVEY OSWALD allegedly made long distance calls from.

Public telephone records show that HO 5-5013 was listed in the name of Mrs. CLARENCE R. STILL, 830 West Munson Street.

Mrs. CLARENCE R. STILL, 830 West Munson, Denison, Texas, advised that she receives almost daily long distance calls from her daughter, Mrs. WARD GAINES, 827 North Crawford Street, Dallas, telephone WH 2-0634. Mrs. STILL stated that she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no information that her daughter, Mrs. GAINES, had called her from WH 3-0062.

1 Date 12/18/63

JAMES WARD GAINES, 827 North Crawford, Dallas, Texas, employed by Boedeker - Verner, 111 North Marsalis, Dallas, advised that he has read newspaper accounts revealing that LEE HARVEY OSWALD resided a short distance away from Mr. GAINES' residence. Mr. GAINES stated that neither he nor his wife were acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD during the period that OSWALD resided in the Dallas, Texas, area, or at any other time.

Mr. GAINES stated that his wife is currently visiting with Mrs. GAINES' mother, Mrs. CLARENCE R. STILL, 830 West Munson, Denison, Texas, and Mrs. GAINES will not be home until Christmas Day.

Mr. GAINES stated that he believes that his wife maintains frequent contact with her mother in Denison, Texas, by their personal telephone, as well as by public telephones. He stated that his wife uses the public telephones to keep their telephone bill from becoming too big.

Mr. GAINES stated that a woman whose name is known to Mr. GAINES only as BONNIE, who lives in the apartment house north of Mr. GAINES' residence, has indicated that she believes she saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD in a washeteria. Mr. GAINES stated he had no other information regarding BONNIE's having seen OSWALD.

Patty Jackson

On December 12, 1963, PATRICIA LOU JACKSON, age 19, a student at Texas Woman's University, Denton, Texas, advised that telephone number 382-9194 is the long distance phone at her residence, Houston Hall, located on the campus. Miss JACKSON stated she has received numerous long distance calls on the above telephone from her boyfriend, MIKE HARPER, who formerly resided at 1015 North Zangs Boulevard, Dallas. Miss JACKSON stated that HARPER often used a pay telephone located near his residence when calling her. She stated she did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never heard of him prior to the assassination of the President.

Mrs. ALBERT A. LEWIS, 102 Norris Street, was interviewed concerning information received that a long distance telephone call had been made to telephone number 886, Commerce, Texas from the Dallas telephone number WHitehall 3-0062, which is a coin box located at 1030 North Zangs Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, from which LEE HARVEY OSWALD had allegedly made long distance telephone calls. Mrs. LEWIS stated she is the subscriber of telephone number 886 in Commerce. She said about two months ago her cousin, Mrs. DAVE GARNER, at Dallas, Texas had called her from a pay telephone in Dallas. Mrs. GARNER does not have a personal telephone and this was the reason for the call from the coin box.

Mrs. LEWIS said she had never seen or heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to November 22, 1963.

Re: JOHN LAURELL FORD, aka
John L. Ford

@ Approx 1939

JOHN LAURELL FORD was interviewed by Agents of the New Orleans Office and advised that his permanent residence is 218 Vernon Street, Monroe, Louisiana. He has been employed by the Redmond House Movers, Monroe, for approximately eight years except for the four-month period, July through October, 1963. In July, 1963, he went to Houston, Texas in an effort to reconcile with his second wife and he resided in Houston for approximately two months at 4731 Galveston Road until it was apparent that the reconciliation would fail. About the first of September, 1963, he moved to Dallas, residing with his sister, JEAN, and brother-in-law, LINDELL ALLEN, at 323 Elston, and later at 2423 Martha. He returned to Monroe, Louisiana on November 4, 1963. In Dallas, he was employed by Duncan-Humble Service Station, 1030 North Zangs, owned by Gerald DUNCAN. He does not believe that he ever met LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor had he ever heard the name ALEK HIDELL or O. H. LEE, and never knew or heard of JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN. He did not recognize the photographs of either OSWALD or RUBY which were exhibited to him.

The records of the Sheriff's Office, Monroe, Louisiana, reflect that FORD, FBI No. 677293D, was arrested on July 8, 1957 for improper muffler and resisting arrest. He was fined $25.00 and costs and $100.00 and costs or 60 days. He was again arrested December 1, 1960 on a muffler violation and fined $25.00 and costs. LA.

Mrs. GLENDA FOSTER, daughter of D. H. REDMOND, who operates the Redmond House Movers by whom JOHN LAURELL FORD is employed, advised that FORD had previously worked for her father and resumed his employment on November 24, 1963. LA.

The New Orleans Office has been requested to recontact FORD re the telephone call from Duncan's Service Station to Monroe, Louisiana on October 12, 1963.

The San Antonio Division by communication dated December 11, 1963, advised that a letter postmarked December 9 at 4:30 PM at Las Cruces, New Mexico, addressed to the FBI Office at Austin, Texas, was received in the morning mail on December 11 and read as follows:

"Mrs. Smith's son saw a man kill Officer Tippit. Said not Oswald. 328½ East 8th Street, Dallas, Texas".

The letter was on a half sheet of unruled typewriter paper all in penciled long hand except the envelope address which was printed. There was no return address on the letter.

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

The following investigation was conducted by SAs JAMES J. WARD and ROBERT E. BASHAM on December 12, 1963:

The city directory reflected that 328½ East 8th Street, Dallas, was vacant. However, one MILLER I. SMITH was listed at 328 East 8th Street and his employment was listed as attendant at Hill Texaco. There was no listing for Hill Texaco in the city directory and a contact with Texaco Company was unproductive.

Inquiry at 328 East 8th Street indicated that a SMITH family resided at 328½ and ARTHUR TROY SMITH was contacted at this address and advised that he did not know any MILLER I. SMITH. He said his wife works at Tenzear's Sewing Factory near the Ford Motor Plant and his mother lives in Arkansas where he had worked for some 20 years until recently. He said he was presently employed by HAROLD L. WILSON, contractor, as a laborer and on November 22 he was working in North Dallas for WILSON building a church. He said he did not see the Presidential parade or the assassination of President KENNEDY and was not present when Officer TIPPIT was shot. He said that possibly his son, WILLIAM ARTHUR SMITH, age 20, observed the shooting. He said that his son was presently visiting his son-in-law who is a Mexican and works at a paper mill in Dallas, possibly Owens. He said his son-in-law has not been back to Mexico in over a year that he knew of. He advised that he cannot read or write and knew no one in New Mexico.

ROSS BURT was contacted at the residence of DAVID SHEAFER, 505 East 10th Street, Apt. 8, Dallas, and advised his son, JIMMY BURT told him that he was with WILLIAM ARTHUR SMITH at the time an individual shot and killed a police officer in the 400 block of East 10th Street. He said his son was presently living next to C. L. HOWARD, General Delivery, Belmont, Louisiana. He further claimed his son had been stationed at a missile base in Denton, Texas and had gone to Fort Hood, Texas to receive discharge papers. He said his son had been AWOL on numerous occasions in the past and he was being discharged from the military. He advised, however, that his son had lived at 505 East 10th, Apt. 8, for the past three months.

BURT said he did not know whether his son was discharged or AWOL again. He said that the Fort Hood, Texas base sent his civilian clothes home not too long ago. He advised his son was married to the daughter of DAVID SHAEFER and that she and their small baby are living next to the HOWARDS in Belmont, Louisiana.

WILLIAM ARTHUR SMITH, age 20, 328½ East 8th Street, was interviewed at the residence of his brother-in-law, TIMMIE ANZALDUA, 1831 Idaho Street, Dallas. He advised that he observed Officer TIPPIT when he was being shot by an unknown white male but he did not report it to the police because he claimed he had been on two year's probation for auto theft and he thought he might get in trouble with the police. He said he was too far away from the individual to positively identify him but he said he was a white male, about 5'7" to 5'8", 20 to 25 years of age, 150-160, wearing a white shirt, light brown jacket and dark pants.

SMITH advised that he did not believe it was OSWALD when he first saw OSWALD on TV because it looked like OSWALD had light colored hair. He was exhibited a photograph of OSWALD and stated that the individual he observed had dark hair like the New Orleans Police Department photograph of OSWALD. He said he saw this individual walk up to the police car and as the policeman started to emerge he heard four or five shots, the policeman fell to the ground, whereupon the white male continued down 10th Street and turned left on Patton heading towards Jefferson. He said this was the last time he saw the individual and he immediately went up to talk to Mrs. MARKHAM, a neighbor of his who lives at 328½ East 9th Street. He stated that she was a witness to the shooting also and had been interviewed by the police on a number of occasions. SMITH advised that his reason for being in the area was that he was visiting a friend of his, one JIMMY BURT, who was living with his father-in-law, DAVID SCHAFFER at 505 East 10th Street. He said he thought JIMMY might have seen the shooting also but he was not certain for he believed he had arrived at JIMMY's house prior to the time of JIMMY's arrival. He advised that JIMMY was AWOL from the Army Missile Base at Denton, Texas, at the time. He said that he believed JIMMY was awaiting discharge for being AWOL on a number of occasions. He believed that JIMMY was presently visiting his father, ROSS BURT, somewhere in Louisiana, possibly Bellmont.

On December 2, 1963, a woman, who refused to disclose her identity, telephonically advised SA JOHN V. ALMON that an individual named [redacted] who operates an upholstery shop at [redacted] Dallas, Texas, had informed her husband that prior to the assassination of the President, he had observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY together at 518 Cockrell Hill Road, Dallas, Texas.

[redacted] Dallas, Texas, advised SA ALMON that one [redacted] with her daughter resides at the residence of his sister-in-law, [redacted] He stated that the daughter, name unknown, entertains teenage boys at all hours of the night, and that approximately six weeks ago, while observing their activities, he saw a young man who somewhat resembled a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD which he had seen on television at that address. When questioned further concerning the identity of this individual, [redacted] stated the young man appeared to be approximately 18 years of age, tall, slender, and wore a mustache. A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was exhibited to him but he was unable to identify the young man mentioned as being OSWALD. [redacted] stated he did not know JACK RUBY and that he was not aware of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

[redacted] Dallas, Texas, advised SA ALMON on December 5, 1963 that her brother-in-law [redacted] is a "nut who imagines things." She stated the family is afraid of him and that in her opinion he should be confined to a mental institution.

Mr. STEVENS stated these records could be made available through PARK WILLIAMS, telephone FL 1-9911, Extension 385, American Airlines, Fort Worth.

JAMES R. HEGLER, Chief, Reservations Administration, American Airlines, Greater Southwest International Airport, Dallas, advised SA GEORGE T. BINNEY on December 7, 1963, that reservations card for American Airlines Flight 59, dated January 2, 1963, in name of E. CAMPBELL, reveals a teletype reservation was made from American Airlines in Los Angeles, California, on January 2, 1963, for passenger E. CAMPBELL. This passenger came to Dallas via American Airlines Flight 122, coach section, from Los Angeles, taking Flight 59 from Dallas to San Antonio, Texas.

A search of all available reservation cards for Flight 59 failed to reflect name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by that name or aliases. A check of passengers who applied for Flight 59 and whose names appeared on waiting list was also negative.

Mr. HEGLER advised that airline passengers departing the United States for Mexico are recorded by name on U. S. Government form I-94 (Arrival and Departure Record) which is retained by the Immigration and Naturalization Service or Customs Agents, San Antonio, Texas.

On December 4, 1963, JOHN GARNER CURRIE, WAYNE ARNOLD WARREN, and PERRY WARREN HARDWICK, all residents of Goodall Wooten Dormitory, and ANNE PENN CHEW BORN, 2207 Rio Grande, all freshmen students at the University of Texas, Austin, Texas, advised Special Agent H. T. BURK that they accompanied by JODIE LYNN PHILLIPS, a student at Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas, traveled from Austin to New Braunfels, Texas, in PHILLIPS' automobile, on the afternoon of November 23, 1963, where HARDWICK was to go deer hunting.

While in New Braunfels, they entered an unknown grocery store and upon observing a newspaper there with headlines concerning the assassination, they made remarks intending to convey the impression that was the first news they had received concerning the event. They made other remarks with the intention of misleading persons in the store into thinking they had known LEE HARVEY OSWALD personally.

After leaving HARDWICK in New Braunfels, they started back to Austin, Texas, and planned en route to attempt to play a joke at another store by pretending they were personally acquainted with OSWALD.

In Kyle, Texas, they entered a general store where they attempted to give the impression they had known OSWALD personally.

CURRIE, WARREN, HARDWICK and BORN all advised Special Agent BURK that both incidents were merely jokes, admittedly in bad taste, and that none of them had ever heard of OSWALD prior to the assassination and had no knowledge or information concerning him. They were unable to identify a photograph of OSWALD as being anyone known to them.

JODIE LYNN PHILLIPS, a student at Abilene Christian College, advised that on December 3, 1963, he, along with JOHN GARNER CURRIE, WAYNE ARNOLD WARREN, PERRY WARREN HARDWICK, and ANNE PENN CHEW BORN left Austin, Texas, in his, PHILLIPS', car and drove to New Braunfels, Texas. While in New Braunfels, they all entered an unrecalled grocery store. While in the store they observed newspaper headlines about the assassination of President KENNEDY and made remarks leading people in the store to believe they knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and attempted to get people in the store to discuss the assassination.

He stated that all of them, with the exception of HARDWICK who stayed at New Braunfels, started back to Austin, Texas. En route to Austin, they stopped at a small unrecalled grocery store at Kyle, Texas, and again all made remarks indicating that they were acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said this was their idea of a joke and he now realizes that this was in very poor taste and a very poor joke. He stated that he does not know OSWALD and that none of the others knew OSWALD.

The following description of JODIE LYNN PHILLIPS, was obtained during above interview:

Mr. GEORGE SMITH, Manager, Avalon Motel and Apartments, 1015 Fort Worth Avenue, advised that he has managed this motel since 1959. He stated that the motel is owned by Mrs. ESTELLE JACKSON who resides at 2733 West Ledbetter Drive, Dallas. He stated that she recently returned from Brownsville, Texas where she recently purchased another motel, the Colonial Motel.

SMITH advised that Mrs. JOHNSON spent last night at the Avalon Motel at which time he and Mrs. JACKSON discussed some changes to be made at the motel. He advised that at no time since the assassination nor last night was there any discussion concerning the fact that LEE HARVEY OSWALD might have stayed at this motel.

SMITH advised that pictures of OSWALD in newspapers and on TV did not resemble anyone who might have stayed at the motel.

SMITH and Interviewing Agent examined registration cards of motel for past six months, and no registration for OSWALD was located under true name or known aliases.

Mrs. ESTELLE JACKSON, 2733 West Ledbetter Drive, advised that she is owner and operator of the Avalon Motel and Apartments located at 1015 Fort Worth Avenue, Dallas. She stated that she also owns the Colonial Motel at Brownsville, Texas where she had recently been on a business trip.

Mrs. JACKSON advised that the pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD which she saw on television and in the newspapers, looked like someone she had seen in the past. She advised that he could have stayed at the Avalon Motel but is not certain She said that they have many patrons at this particular motel, and it is physically impossible to recall each individual.

Mrs. JACKSON advised that in June of 1963, there was a man by the name of ROBERT AHLER who stayed at the motel for approximately three weeks and whom she suspected of having communistic tendencies. She advised that AHLER allegedly came to Dallas from New Orleans but was originally from New York City.

I.D. Jels

JACKSON described AHLER as white male, 30-35 years of age, 5' 10", 170 lbs., dark blond curly hair, blue eyes, and had considerable acne on face.

JACKSON stated AHLER came to Dallas to go to work for Trinity Universal Insurance Company and left there without notice. He also left the motel without notice leaving only a suitcoat in the room. She said he left owing a motel bill.

JACKSON advised that she had reason to be suspicious of AHLER because of the fact that he had numerous pieces of literature in dresser drawers that she thought were communist propaganda. She stated that she also noticed that one of the booklets he had, had a swastika on it.

JACKSON advised that while AHLER was at the motel, he averaged $20.00 a week in phone calls to New Orleans.

She stated that all the calls were to the same location, because individual on other end of the line always answered "Club". She stated that the calls appeared mysterious and she could not ascertain what AHLER or party at the other end of the line were talking about.

She advised that while AHLER was here, he wrote two checks on the Hibernia Bank of New Orleans which were returned marked "Account Closed". She said checks were in the amount of $15.00 and $5.00.

JACKSON stated that after AHLER left, a law firm in New York City had appeared most anxious to ascertain whereabouts of AHLER. JACKSON advised that she has not seen or heard from or about AHLER since that time. She stated that when he left he took everything with him including the propaganda literature. She said the only thing that was left was a suitcoat which she gave away to an unrecalled individual about six months later. JACKSON advised that AHLER in no way resembled pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

JACKSON volunteered that she was acquainted with JACK RUBY inasmuch as she had had some difficulty with him in December of 1961. She stated that a man by the name of BUDDY KING resided at the Avalon Motel for a short period of time. She stated that KING was from New Orleans and was formerly a member of "Our Gang" comedy in Hollywood, California. She stated that he came to Dallas to appear as Master of Ceremonies for JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club. She stated that while KING was here he suffered a slight heart attack and was taken from the motel to the hospital. She stated that he was in arrears on his motel bill at the time that he went to the hospital, and a short time later, JACK RUBY came to the motel to try and get KING's belongings. She stated that RUBY wanted them without settling the bill, and she refused to let him have them. She stated that he got mad and that the had some words over the matter. She stated that he threatened to blacklist her through the Variety Guild but later calmed down after she threatened him with a suit. She advised that she has not seen RUBY since that time.

Sergeant LIONEL ESTOPINAL, Record Room, New Orleans Police Department, advised as follows:

Sergeant ESTOPINAL advised that at 11:30 AM, he had received a phone call from a reporter, name not recalled, with the Fort Worth Press, who stated that he was doing a background story on the OSWALD family and wanted to know about an open case against ROGER RALPH OSWALD, a brother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. ESTOPINAL checked and found out that the only brother was ROBERT LEE OSWALD. He said that the reporter apparently was trying to get him to say that ROGER was a brother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Their record on ROGER RALPH OSWALD, a waiter, is for a [redacted] and has been disposed of. The reporter is supposed to call him back at which time he will try to find out why the man thinks that ROGER RALPH OSWALD was a brother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

AT TAMPA, FLORIDA

At 9:30 p.m., December 2, 1963, Captain DANIEL GALLUP, Judge Advocate Section, MacDill Air Force Base, telephoned SPC WILLIAM R. RUMPH and stated that Captain GALLUP's wife had her hair set that day at Valdez Hair Design School, 4324 South Manhattan Avenue, Tampa, Florida by a hair dresser named JEWEL (Last Name Unknown). During the hair dressing session, JEWEL remarked to Mrs. GALLUP that she had a boy friend who was acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and that this boy friend had said that OSWALD was in Tampa during President KENNEDY's visit on November 18, 1963. JEWEL's friend also allegedly knew of a gun in OSWALD's possession.

On December 3, 1963, inquiry was made of Valdez Hair Design School, 4324 South Manhattan Avenue by Special Agents ONNIE K. WALKER and LIONEL E. BELANGER and it was ascertained that the only employee named JEWEL was JEWEL JOCHUMSEN.

JEWEL JOCHUMSEN, age nineteen, 2405 Davis, Tampa, Florida, was interviewed at Valdez Hair Design School 4324 South Manhattan Avenue. She advised that she could not recall specifically discussing LEE HARVEY OSWALD with anyone on the day before, but that a friend of her family, by the name of JOE SUCO, who is a teacher in the Hillsborough County schools, apparently knew someone who knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She could not recall ever stating that this person, who is a friend of SUCO, ever said that OSWALD had been in Tampa at anytime, nor could she recall that OSWALD had a weapon of any kind. She did recall that SUCO had visited her family from time to time and that the subject of the assassination of President KENNEDY had come up, but she could not recall anything specific about this except that Mr. SUCO apparently knew something about LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she did not consider the matter important and she believed that the information furnished to the FBI concerning statements made by her were garbled or very much in error.

8 April 1964

She stated that she does not keep company with any boy at this time, and certainly she would have reported any factual information to the FBI.

Mr. SUCO stated that he knows the JOCHUMSEN family very well and that he had visited them frequently in the past. He said that like everyone else in the country, he had spoken of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and recalls vaguely in his mind that somewhere, someplace, someone, had mentioned that OSWALD had been in Tampa. He stated that as hard as he tried to recall, he could not recall who had told him this. He said that he has no factual information concerning OSWALD and the only thing he knows about OSWALD is what he read in the papers, heard on the radio or saw on television. He said that it is perfectly possible during his conversation with the JOCHUMSEN family he may have mentioned something as a fact concerning OSWALD when in truth, it was only heresay as far as he was concerned.

Mr. SUCO stated that he was deeply shocked by the news of the President's death and would not hesitate to bring anything of factual value in this case directly to the FBI.

Officer ARTHUR HAMMETT of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised SA JOHN J. FLANAGAN at 12:25 PM, November 25, 1963, he had just received a long distance telephone call from RAY CARNEY, news director, Radio Station KBEA, Mission, Kansas, in which CARNEY stated that during the Cuban Revolution, in which he had been a news correspondent, he had been contacted by an individual who requested that he fly in a "flying tiger type harassment". CARNEY was of the opinion that such individual was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The purpose of his call was to seek HAMMETT's advice as to what to do with such information. Officer HAMMETT stated he had told CARNEY to give the information to the FBI and had indicated he would, himself, advise the Dallas Office of the matter.

RAY CARNEY, news director, Radio Station KBEA, Mission, Kansas, advised SA'S MAURICE F. DANIELS and GEORGE A. ARNETT on November 25, 1963, he had telephoned his friend, Officer ART HAMMETT of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department, on that date, to determine if there was any newsworthy information available on the RUBY matter. HAMMETT had been unable to furnish any information. During their conversation, CARNEY mentioned he had been attempting to contact GUS HALL, a national official of the Communist Party, USA, at Communist Party Headquarters in New York, for the past four weeks, in order to arrange an appearance for HALL on a Station KBEA discussion program called "Hotline". He had last contacted HALL's office on November 18, 1963, and had been advised by HALL's secretary that HALL would return on November 23, 1963. CARNEY commented that this was somewhat coincidental since it was the day following the President's assassination but stated that he did not mean to imply that HALL was implicated in any manner or had any connection with either RUBY or OSWALD.

CARNEY stated that while he was news director for Station KBOX in Dallas, Texas, during 1960 and 1961, he was contacted by an anti-Castro Cuban General, name not recalled, who attempted to recruit him as a pilot for an attack on Cuba and also sought his assistance in obtaining funds and publicity for the venture.

As a result of this contact, he received considerable publicity and was later contacted by numerous pilots who desired to volunteer their services in an anti-Castro force. CARNEY stated he had furnished the names of these individuals to the Cuban and also to the FBI in Dallas.

Subsequent to this contact, he was contacted by an individual he believes to have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the latter part of 1960 or early party of 1961. This individual attempted to obtain the names of the volunteers and expressed pro-Castro sympathies to CARNEY, in an effort to convince him that Castro was right. CARNEY refused to furnish the information to the individual and referred him to the FBI. He had explained to this individual he had been in jail in Havana in December, 1959, and was personally aware of the ~~direct~~ true conditions in Cuba under Castro.

CARNEY was contacted several times by this same individual during the following months, but he refused at all times to divulge the information requested.

CARNEY stated one RICHARD TULLIS, JR., whereabouts unknown, but who might be reached through his father, RICHARD TULLIS, SR., of Dallas, was well acquainted with both pro-Castro and anti-Castro Cubans and might be in a position to furnish additional information concerning OSWALD.

CARNEY stated he had been acquainted with JACK RUBY of Dallas only by reputation, and that he was not aware of any relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He was likewise not aware of any connection between either OSWALD or RUBY and GUS HALL.

Miss TINA BAKER, room clerk, Maple Terrace Apartments, Dallas, Texas, advised SA'S JAMES J. WARD and ROBERT E. BASHAM on December 2, 1963, that RICHARD TULLIS had been in Washington, D. Mr. RICHARD TULLIS, SR., Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D. C., advised on December 4, 1963, his son, RICHARD ANTHONY TULLIS, JR., was residing at the Seamans Institute, 25 South Street, New York, New York.

It is noted that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was in Russia as of May, 1961, for which reason no further efforts will be made to interview ART HAMMETT, DICK MOORE, EARL BURNHAM or TOM MATTS.

RAYMOND B. CARNEY, news director of radio station KBEA, Mission, Kansas, when re-interviewed furnished the following information:

He said that after his first interview he realized that there was some conflict between the dates he alleged he had been contacted by LEE HARVEY OSWALD and the dates OSWALD was in Russia. CARNEY said to the best of his recollection he had met OSWALD or an individual of similar name and description three times in May of 1961 at Dallas-Garland Airport.

CARNEY said that these meetings were recalled to mind by him during the telecast concerning the assassination of the late President KENNEDY. He said he thought he recognized the name and photographs of OSWALD as possibly the pro-CASTRO individual who had, while he was new director of station KBOX, Dallas, contacted him to determine details of his alleged "Underground Air Force Recruitment of Anti-Castro Cubans." CARNEY emphasized that he could not positively identify the individual as OSWALD and the fact that OSWALD was in Russia from October, 1959, to June, 1962, would certainly cause considerable doubt that the two individuals were identical.

He could give no specific description of OSWALD and pointed out that two and a half years have elapsed since the three meetings took place with this individual at hangar #1 at Dallas-Garland Airport. CARNEY said that the meetings were held in the KBOX news car and all took place within a period of seven or nine days during May of 1961. The only other contacts he had with this individual were telephone calls over the next two or three months during which time this individual attempted to solicit names and information concerning individuals who had contacted him as a result of a newsstory on station KBOX. This story included a discussion by an anti-CASTRO Cuban general relative to activities and events in Cuba.

SA GEORGE A. ARNETT bg Date dictated 12-11-63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

CARNEY stated that in his capacity of news director of KBOX he had put the story on the air upon promise of this Cuban general, name unrecalled, of getting the first shot at any newsworthy story from the anti-CASTRO Cuban forces. CARNEY said that he did not recall the name of this individual, where he came from or where he went. He said he did recall, however, that this individual had mentioned something about going to Houston, but was unaware as to whether he had gone to Houston or not.

Concerning the individual he thought was identical with OSWALD, he could recall that he was violently pro-CASTRO and thought he claimed to be a member of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. During the meetings with this individual and subsequent telephone conversations no information concerning his actual identity was obtained other than the name which was either LEE OSWALD or similar to it. He did not know when this individual arrived in Dallas, nor did he know where he came from or where he went.

CARNEY said that he was sorry he seemed so positive in his identification of OSWALD upon initial interview, but since he was not then sure of the dates he had met this individual he thought perhaps he was identical with OSWALD. Upon sufficient reflection and more accurate pinpointing of the time he felt that although a remote possibility exists that it was OSWALD, it was now his considered judgment that it probably was not.

CARNEY said although it was his practice to make notes on his steno pad on all interviews such as the foregoing, he was almost positive that he had no notes relative to the meetings with this individual in Dallas. He said he would make a thorough search of his old papers and personal effects and if he located anything that would further identify this individual he said he would contact the FBI.

CARNEY said the following persons in the Dallas area might be cognizant of the identity of the individual he thought was OSWALD as he was associated with them during the period that these meetings took place:

ART HAMMETT, Dallas Police Department;

DICK MOORE

EARL BURNHAM

TOM MATTS, all formerly associated with radio station KBOX, Dallas, Texas

The following investigation was conducted by SA FRANK P. GRIFFEE:

LYNDON LOUIS HOLTZCLAW, 670 Northeast 137th Street, North Miami, Florida, on November 29, 1963, advised as follows:

Prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and approximately at the time President KENNEDY was in Miami, HOLTZCLAW observed in what he described as an "off-beat newspaper" a story predicting the assassination of President KENNEDY. The newspaper was described as a tabloid type newspaper, smaller than an ordinary newspaper and definitely not a magazine.

HOLTZCLAW observed the newspaper in a drug store located on the northeast corner of the intersection two blocks west of the railroad tracks on 79th Street. To the best of his recollection, he observed the same newspaper containing the same article in another drug store, A Rexall drug store, located near 9th Street and 8th Avenue, Hialeah, Florida. HOLTZCLAW stated he recalled going into the drug store as he habitually did almost daily and seeing on the front page of the paper a picture of a bridge. He stated the car depicted was an open car, and it appeared to have been a hand sketch rather than a photograph. He stated to the side of the picture was a story to the effect that "On November 22, 1963, at 9:39 p.m. as the Kennedy motorcade progresses toward downtown Dallas minutes before making his speech two men will be waiting nearby with high-powered rifles." He stated that also on the front page of the paper was a red headline to the effect, "We Will Shoot Your President," to the side of which appeared in smaller letters, "Says Fidel."

HOLTZCLAW stated he also recalled that the names of two men were mentioned, one being a Spanish name and the other being LEE H. OSWALD. He also stated there was some comment in the story about their being from the lower Gulf area.

HOLTZCLAW stated that immediately after he learned of the President's assassination he returned to the two drug stores and attempted to find the newspaper but was unable to do so. He stated the only such paper he observed in the drug store upon his return was the "Home News," which is printed in Hialeah, Florida. He said he questioned people at the drug stores about the article but had been unable to secure any information. He stated he had also gone to the office of the Hialeah "Home News" but had been unable to learn anything.

On December 2, 1963, JOSEPH HACK, Manager of East Hialeah Pharmacy, 1001 East 25th Street, Hialeah, (this is the extension of Northwest 79th Street, Miami) advised he does not recall any such article in any newspaper. HACK stated he did not know exactly what tabloid-type newspapers were handled by the store, but identity of all newspapers sold in the store would be known to the Dade County News Supply Company which supplies all publications sold by the store.

It was observed that the store had for sale on December 2, the Hialeah, Florida, "Home News" and the "National Enquirer," a tabloid-sized weekly newspaper, and the New York "Daily News," Sunday edition.

Mrs. EDNA WILLIAMS, Cashier, East Hialeah Pharmacy, advised that the store handled one other similar newspaper in addition to the three mentioned above. She was unable to recall the name of it. Mrs. WILLIAMS said she remembered that a man had come into the store shortly after President KENNEDY's assassination and had made inquiries concerning a story he had seen in a paper in the store. She stated she did not recall any such story and recalled no red headline on any paper except those on the "Sporting News," which is also handled by the store.

RUBY CHITTICK, Cashier, Hialeah Drugs, 925 East 8th Avenue, Hialeah, Florida, advised that the only tabloid-sized newspapers handled by the store was the "New York News," Sunday edition, and the "National Enquirer." She said the Sunday edition of the "New York News" always had the comic sheet as the cover page, and she had never seen a red headline on it or on the "Enquirer." Mrs. CHITTICK recalled that shortly after President KENNEDY's assassination a man had come into the store, asking for a copy of a week-old paper with a story about the assassination on the front page. She stated she recalled no such story.

NICK MESSINA, Assistant Manager, Dade County News Supply Company, 3801 25th Avenue, Miami, advised that his company supplied the East Hialeah Pharmacy with newspapers and periodicals; that the only tabloid-type newspapers delivered to that store were the "New York News," Sunday edition, the "National Enquirer," and the "National Star Chronicle." Mr. MESSINA said the Sunday edition of the "New York News" always had the comic page for a cover sheet. He said that the "Enquirer" and the "Star Chronicle" both feature sensational-type news and photographs. He said he had never seen a red headline on either, and that both papers feature a photograph on the front page rather than a news story. He advised that the "Enquirer" is published weekly; that the "Star Chronicle" is published every other week.

MESSINA made available copies of the "National Enquirer" for the dates December 15, December 8, November 24, November 17, 1963, which were reviewed. Nothing pertinent was noted. It is noted that this publication bears a date approximately two weeks ahead of the date on which it actually appears on stands for sale. Mr. MESSINA stated in all probability the November 11, 1963, issue of the "National Star Chronicle" would have been on the newsstands approximately one week before the President's assassination. MESSINA advised he would attempt to locate back issues of the "National Star Chronicle."

On December 3, 1963, MESSINA telephonically advised he had located issues of the "National Star Chronicle" for November 11, and November 25, 1963, and that neither contained an article predicting the assassination of President KENNEDY. MESSINA said the "National Star Chronicle" is published every other Monday at 32 Gramarcey Park South, New York City. It is noted that the masthead of the "National Enquirer" shows it is published weekly by the Best Medium Publishing Company, 655 Madison Avenue, New York City.

On December 5, 1963, DON CLAPROOD, Associate Editor, Hialeah - Miami Springs "Home News", 300 East 1st Avenue, Hialeah, advised he recalled HOLTZCLAW's coming into the "Home News" office shortly after the President was assassinated and claiming he had observed a story predicting the President's assassination. CLAPROOD stated HOLTZCLAW impressed him as being somewhat peculiar.

CLAPROOD advised that all news stories cross his desk, and he positively had never seen a story such as described by HOLTZCLAW. CLAPROOD said the only other local newspaper which would have been on sale in Hialeah during the pertinent period was the Dade County "Times Union," which was published for only a few weeks and which was printed by the Universal Printing Company.

The issues of the "Home News" for September 27, through November 22, 1963, were reviewed. It was noted the paper employs red headlines; however, no such item as that described by HOLTZCLAW was observed.

At the Universal Printing Company, 500 West 18th Street, Hialeah, Florida, copies of the Dade County "Times Union," including issues of October 3, through November 21, 1963, were reviewed. Nothing pertinent was noted.

The following interview was conducted by SA's KENNETH B. JAC[illegible]nd JOHN V. ALMON on November 29, 1963:

[illegible]EXAS DALLAS, TEXAS

[illegible] owner, American Aviation Company, [illegible]ing, Red Bird Airport, advised that Room 101, [illegible] from Febru[illegible]11, 1963, he, together with several friends, on [illegible]ented the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, which [illegible]s is owned by one JACK RUBY. JANUARY stat[illegible] February, 1963, he received an anonymous tel[illegible]m a man who offered him the sum of $5,000. [illegible]redo, Texas, and back with no questions a[illegible]aid that he surmised that this individual [illegible]sport narcotics to Dallas and for this reason [illegible]offer. JANUARY further stated that duri[illegible] received a second anonymouse telephone [illegible]o wanted him to fly $12,000,000.00 wo[illegible]o Mexico City where he was to pick up th[illegible]urn with it to Dallas. He stated that thi[illegible]ed him $400,000.00 to make this flight wi[illegible]ned.

JANUARY st[illegible]g the latter part of July, 1963, a man and [illegible]he had never seen before contacted him at his [illegible] which time they inquired about chartering a plane for [illegible]p to "Old Mexico", JANUARY stated that when he asked thi[illegible]an questions essential to such a flight he was definitely evasive in his answers. JANUARY explained that this individual did not appear to know exactly where he desired to go in Mexico but said something about the West Coast. Furthermore, he did not appear to know when he desired to return or exactly how many passengers could be expected on the flight. JANUARY said that this man, after stating that he did not wish to make the flight for a couple of months, stated that he would consider the information which JANUARY had given him and let him know at a later date. He said that when the couple left he observed a third man who had been waiting in their automobile during the entire conversation, and after observing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television it now seems to him that this man somewhat resembled OSWALD although he was not definitely sure in this respect. JANUARY was unable to offer any additional information which might be of assistance in identifying the man and woman who inquired about the flight to Mexico. He said that they did not appear to him to be persons of sufficient financial means to charter a trip such as the one discussed.

JANUARY reiterated the fact that the man, accompanied by the unidentified woman, who made inquiries concerning a chartered flight to Mexico, was not LEE HARVEY OSWALD and said that he has no records or any other method of identifying the persons who contacted him during the latter part of July, 1963.

JANUARY further commented that he never visited the Carousel Club when he did not observe several plainclothes officers, and when a friend of his attempted to date one of the performers, KATHY KAY, she informed this friend that she had to go with another man, whom she identified as a plainclothes officer.

JANUARY concluded with the opinion that JACK RUBY was not the type individual who would have killed, or attempted to kill, anyone charged with the assassination of the President. He said that he does not think that RUBY would care that much, even about his own mother.

Mr. FRANK LEYVA, Special Agent in Charge, U. S. Secret Service, San Juan, Puerto Rico, advised Special Agent ROYAL J. BLASSINGAME on November 26, 1963, it was believed a long-distance telephone call between WILLIAM B. UHLHORN, Isla Verde, Puerto Rico, and WILLIAM VERNON UHLHORN was believed to have some pertinence to this case, and that WILLIAM B. UHLHORN appeared to be connected with a construction firm, known as "Uhlhorn International, S. A."

On November 27, 1963, Miss RAMONA STOKES, Office Manager, Uhlhorn International, S.A., 1519 Ponce De Leon Avenue, Santurce, Puerto Rico, advised Secret Service Special Agent in Charge FRANK LEYVA and Special Agent ROYAL S. BLASSINGAME that WILLIAM B. UHLHORN is president of the company, whose headquarters are in Panama City, Panama, with a branch office in Balboa, Canal Zone, Panama. He left Puerto Rico via Eastern Airlines to Miami, Florida, at 5:05 P. M., November 26, 1963, en route Balboa and Panama City on company business, exact date of return unknown. The company has a construction contract for a Navy radio station located at Sabana Seca, Puerto Rico. UHLHORN is originally from Memphis, Tennessee, but after World War II settled in Harlingen, Texas, where he also operates the Uhlhorn Construction Company. His son WILLIAM VERNON UHLHORN, also known as "BUTCH," is a student at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas. UHLHORN's wife SHEILA also left Puerto Rico, November 26, 1963, for New York, New York, to visit relatives in New Jersey. Their names and addresses unknown.

On November 27, 1963, GUSTAVO MARENO, Service Manager, Dunn and Bradstreet, 609 Condado Avenue, Santurce, Puerto Rico, advised Special Agent BLASSINGAME records of his company disclosed Uhlhorn International, S.A., was incorporated under the Laws of Panama, and the president, WILLIAM B. UHLHORN also operates the Uhlhorn Construction Company, Harlingen, Texas. The Puerto Rico Branch of the company was opened in September, 1962. The only additional available information was that the company was engaged in the construction of radio station facilities at the Navy site at Sabana Seca, Puerto Rico.

On November 27, 1963, LUIS FEBUS, Identification Division, Police of Puerto Rico, Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, advised Investigative Clerk DORSEY ANDRES HOWARD his records contained no information identifiable with WILLIAM B. or SHEILA UHLHORN.

ROSARIO DAVIDA, Retail Credit Company, Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, furnished Investigative Clerk HOWARD information on the same date pertaining to WILLIAM B. UHLHORN, which was found to contain no pertinent information in addition to that appearing in the records of Dunn and Bradstreet.

1 Date 12/4/63

WILLIAM VERNON UHLHORN was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He was advised he did not have to make a statement and any statement he did make would be voluntary and could be used against him in a court of law. He was further advised of his right to consult with an attorney. UHLHORN stated he would be willing to cooperate fully with the FBI in furnishing any information in his possession that might be of assistance in the investigation of the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY. UHLHORN was interviewed in a Bureau automobile in the close proximity of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity House located at 3105 E. Binkley, Southern Methodist University (SMU).

UHLHORN stated he had been talked to by Special Agents of the U. S. Secret Service on Wednesday morning, November 27, 1963, at 9:00 a.m. He stated that on this occasion the Secret Service Agents questioned him relative to his knowledge of or association with LEE HARVEY OSWALD indicating they were of the belief that UHLHORN had met with and talked to OSWALD on Thursday the day before the assassination of President KENNEDY. UHLHORN stated that at that interview with the Secret Service Agents he had emphatically denied knowing OSWALD or having any knowledge of a meeting at any time at any place with OSWALD. He further related that the first time he ever knew that OSWALD existed was through news media following the assassination of President KENNEDY when he observed OSWALD's picture and saw OSWALD for the first time. UHLHORN further advised he had no recollection of ever knowingly or unwittingly seeing or observing OSWALD prior to the assassination either at close hand or from a distance.

UHLHORN stated that the assassination of President KENNEDY was of general interest to every student at SMU and of course was the topic of discussion among UHLHORN's acquaintances and fellow students at SMU. UHLHORN discussed the assassination of the President with his roommate and his girlfriend. He also telephoned his mother, Mrs. JACQUELIN WALSH UHLHORN, 1008 Ebony Drive, Harlingen, Texas, prior to his departure from Dallas, Texas, by airplane for Thanksgiving holiday at Harlingen, Texas.

UHLHORN stated that on Sunday, November 24, 1963, his father, WILLIAM BAYNE UHLHORN, telephoned him at the Fraternity House however UHLHORN was out and upon his return to the Fraternity House at about 5:00 p.m., November 24, 1963, he returned the call to his father who resides at Santurce, Puerto Rico. During his conversation with his father at this time, his father had asked him if he had seen the OSWALD slaying on television and asked him what it looked like. UHLHORN said his father indicated he was unable to keep up with the news on a current basis in Puerto Rico and for this reason was extremely interested in all details concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY and subsequent events.

UHLHORN advised he did not talk to anyone other than his father from San Juan at the time of his call and that his father and mother are separated and have already taken divorce action and UHLHORN's sister resides with his mother at Harlingen, Texas.

The following is a description of UHLHORN as obtained through observation and interview:

The following investigation was conducted by SAs WILLIAM G. BROOKHART and GEORGE T. BINNEY at Dallas, Texas:

On December 2, 1963, WILLIAM VERNON UHLHORN, student at Southern Methodist University, advised that he had heard a rumor that a colored employee of Mustang Service Station located on Hillcrest Avenue near Southern Methodist University, had remarked that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had driven JACK RUBY's Cadillac to the service station for servicing.

On December 2, 1963, LOWELL DEE ENGLISH, owner and manager, Mustang Service Center, 6511 Hillcrest Avenue, advised that his employee, ROBERT ROY, had made the comment that while in business for himself a few months ago at Ross Avenue Automotive, Dallas, Texas, LEE OSWALD had taken a 1959 Cadillac convertible to ROY to be repaired. ENGLISH stated he had discussed this matter at length with ROY and had endeavored to determine from ROY if he had saved the work repair order used in connection with the repairs of this alleged 1959 Cadillac. ENGLISH further advised that ROY had stated that in connection with the repairs of the Cadillac, he had driven OSWALD down town to JACK RUBY's burlesque house in Dallas. ENGLISH asked ROY how many times he had driven OSWALD, and ROY alleged that he took OSWALD down town several times. ENGLISH stated ROY had commented that the individual he knew as LEE was identified by ROY as being OSWALD through newspaper pictures after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

ENGLISH stated that he had subsequently searched through the repair orders which ROY had in his possession with negative results. ROY advised ENGLISH that additional repair orders had been retained by the bookkeeper who had handled ROY's accounting matters in connection with the operation of the Ross Avenue Automotive repair.

ENGLISH advised that records of his office revealed that ROBERT V. ROY was employed at the Mustang Service Station when ENGLISH took over the management of the service station on November 30, 1962. In March or April, 1963, ROY resigned to become self employed at the Ross Avenue Automotive Service. ROY came back to work in October, 1963, at the Mustang Service Station.

On December 2, 1963, ROBERT VERNON ROY, mechanic, Mustang Service Station, residence 2318 Hatcher, advised that during the period he was self employed at the Ross Avenue Automotive Service located at 4228-30 Ross Avenue, Dallas, Texas, in late August or early September, 1963, he recalls that an individual known to him as Mr. LEE came to him for the purpose of doing repair work on a 1959 white Cadillac Convertible De Ville (62 Series). ROY stated that to the best of his recollection, LEE had stated on the first occasion of coming to him that he had been referred to ROY by a colored man who works at Cullum and Boren, a sporting goods company in Dallas, Texas.

ROY stated that he identified the person he knew to be Mr. LEE as LEE OSWALD through observing photographs of OSWALD in the Dallas newspapers following the assassination of President KENNEDY. A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was displayed to ROBERT VERNON ROY at this time, and he positively identified OSWALD as being the man for whom he did automotive repair work on a 1959 white Cadillac Convertible.

ROY stated that the repair work that he had performed for the person he knew as Mr. LEE would appear in his records. He made available two separate stacks of automotive repair orders to interviewing agents. A search of these records reflected no reference to a 1959 Cadillac.

ROY stated that additional repair orders were in the possession of an individual who had done accounting work for Ross Automotive repair. He identified this company as Whitehill Taxkeeping System of Dallas, 13037 Glenside Drive, Dallas, Texas, home phone BL 4-2330.

ROY stated that he had performed services for Mr. LEE on approximately four separate occasions and on one occasion LEE was brought to the Ross Avenue Automotive Repair Service in a 1960 blue four door Chevrolet by three other men whom ROY could not describe. On two other occasions when Mr. LEE came to ROY with the Cadillac, ROY drove Mr. LEE to the downtown area of Dallas, letting Mr. LEE out of ROY's car near the intersection of Elm and Akard not far from Whittle's Music Store.

ROY denied ever observing Mr. LEE in any burlesque house in downtown Dallas, Texas, and further denied ever observing Mr. LEE in the company of JACK RUBY, whose photograph ROY had also observed in the Dallas newspapers following the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. ROY denied having stated that he had driven Mr. LEE to a burlesque house in downtown Dallas and further denied any knowledge that the 1959 Cadillac Convertible upon which he had done repair work belonged to or was connected in any way with JACK RUBY.

On December 3, 1963, Mr. GORDON F. CULLUM, President, Cullum and Boren Company, 1509 Elm Street, Dallas, advised that his company employs approximately ten Negro men, and he would attempt to determine which one of these men may have taken a company car to the Ross Avenue Automotive Service for repairs.

On December 3, 1963, J. WALTER MALLOY, Cullum and Boren Company, advised that records of his office reveal a repair order from Ross Avenue Automotive bearing No. 1184 and dated June 8, 1963, in the name J. W. MALLOY on repair of a 1958 Chevrolet station wagon involving relining of brakes and replacement of two twin drums. This bill was paid by check No. 28331 on June 8, 1963, to Ross Avenue Automotive, 4228-30 Ross Avenue, in the amount of $27.85.

Mr. MALLOY advised that the station wagon had been driven to Ross Avenue Automotive by employee JAMES EARL FUCUALS.

On December 3, 1963, JAMES EARL FUCUALS advised that he recalled driving the company station wagon to Ross Avenue Automotive sometime ago; however, he could not recall the date. He stated further that he could not recall ever having referred anyone to Ross Avenue Automotive. Photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were displayed to FUCUALS, who stated that he had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD except in newspaper photographs following the assassination of President KENNEDY.

ROBERT VERNON ROY was reinterviewed at Mustang Service Station on December 3, 1963, at which time he made available additional automotive repair orders which he had located through a search of his automobile. A review of these automobile repair orders failed to reflect any record of repair for a 1959 Cadillac. ROY also conducted a search of his former place of business at 4228-30 Ross Avenue and his second automobile, making available additional auto repair work orders to interviewing agents. A review of these auto repair work orders failed to reflect repair on a 1959 Cadillac.

On December 3, 1963, OLIVER C. VAN HOESEN, 2201 West Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information:

A conditional sales contract executed by VAN HOESEN on July 23, 1963, in behalf of ROBERT ROY for Whitehill Taxkeeping System reflected that this bookkeeping system went into effect September 1, 1963. Mr. VAN HOESEN advised that this account was serviced by a representative named HANK STILL, the salesman who had sold the plan to ROY. Mr. VAN HOESEN stated that he, VAN HOESEN, had retained no papers or repair orders of any type belonging to Ross Avenue Automotive Repair Service. He stated that these papers would have been in the possession of HANK STILL on a temporary basis; however, STILL had advised him that all such papers had been returned to Ross Avenue Automotive Repair Service. VAN HOESEN further advised that ROY's affairs were in a very turbulent condition and that he had gone out of business with his affairs and papers in complete disarray and confusion. He stated that subsequent efforts by VAN HOESEN to contact ROY relative to submission of his tax work papers had been negative and that

VAN HOESEN has subsequently disassociated himself with the Whitehill Taxkeeping System. HANK STILL, according to VAN HOESEN, is currently a student attending a college located at Lubbock, Texas, possibly Texas Tech.

VAN HOESEN stated that at no time during his contacts with ROY at the Ross Avenue Automotive Service did he, VAN HOESEN, observe a customer driving a 1959 white Cadillac Convertible, nor could he recollect the description of any of these customers.

On December 4, 1963, ROBERT VERNON ROY was reinterviewed at Mustang Service Station, at which time he advised that LEON WILLIAMS, an accountant, 1201 South Brighton, Dallas, Texas, had handled some accounting work for him during August and September, 1963.

On December 4, 1963, LEON FREDERICK WILLIAMS, 1201 South Brighton, made available automotive repair work orders of August and September, 1963, of Ross Avenue Automotive Service, a review of which reflected no reference to a 1959 Cadillac or the name LEE. Mr. WILLIAMS stated that he had no additional automotive repair records pertaining to Ross Avenue Automotive Repair Service.

On December 4, 1963, JAMES EARL FUCUALS was reinterviewed at Cullum and Boren Company at his request, at which time he furnished the following additional information:

FUCUALS advised that he recalls now that a white man came into Cullum and Boren wanting to look at the yellow pages of the telephone directory indicating that he needed his brakes fixed and wanted to know where the nearest garage was. FUCUALS said that he could go to the Ross Avenue Automotive since he had taken a company car there and received satisfactory service. FUCUALS said that he believes the white man went to the garage on Ross Avenue, and at any rate he wrote the telephone number and address down.

This white man came into the Cullum and Boren store about two or three weeks after FUCUALS had taken the station wagon to the Ross Avenue Automotive Repair, and he described the white man as approximately 35-40 years of age, approximately 5'9", heavy shoulders, wearing a sport coat or brown jacket and slacks. FUCUALS also believes this man was wearing suede loafer type shoes. FUCUALS did not observe the kind of automobile the man wanted repaired. FUCUALS again was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and said that this white man whom he referred to Ross Avenue Automotive did not in any way resemble OSWALD.

On December 12, 1963, HANK STILL, 3015 28th Street, student at Texas Tech, advised he resided and worked during the past summer in Dallas and he sold bookkeeping systems. He recalled selling a system to ROBERT ROY, operator of the Ross Avenue Automotive Repair Service. He said ROY had very inadequete records at the time and it was necessary to post the new system from existing records which may not have been complete. STILL advised he took existing records to his home and made the postings into the new system, but he returned every item to ROY. He stated he is certain that none of them were retained elsewhere for any purpose.

He reported he has no knowledge of any person using the name of LEE or of any white 1959 Cadillac which may have been repaired by ROY.

JOE LORIA, 4230 Oak Lawn, Dallas, Texas, advised as follows.

He had known an individual named "SCOTTIE" who had frequented his lunch room several months ago. He did not know SCOTTIE's true name but knew him to have been engaged to one WANDELL RENE WHITLEY, daughter of Mrs. LEE WHITLEY, 346 Classen, Dallas. SCOTTIE had told him he had worked for General WALKER as a chauffeur and had lived at his residence. He had built himself up as an important person but LORIA, who says he is interested in police work, judged SCOTTIE to be a "con man" and warned Mrs. WHITLEY that she should check into this man. As a result the above mentioned engagement was broken. In connection with the possible association between SCOTTIE and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, LORIA said that about seven or eight months ago SCOTTIE had been in his restaurant and in his company was an individual who he believed to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He based this identity on a photograph of OSWALD he had seen in the Dallas newspapers and he could recall only the one time that he thought he had seen OSWALD and SCOTTIE together. LORIA recognized the fact he serves many customers daily but said he would "bet money" it was OSWALD who was with SCOTTIE.

Mrs. LEE WHITLEY, 346 Classon, telephone FL 2-4735, employed Henry Investment Company, Braniff Building, Harry Hines Boulevard, advised she had known WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF, who was also known as WILLIAM MC EWAN MC DUFF and SCOTTIE, for approximately one year as he had been engaged to her daughter. She knew none of his friends and was certain based on her knowledge that he had no association with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She last saw him in the spring of 1963 following the time the engagement between DUFF and her daughter had been broken.

Mrs. RENE ADLER, 346 Classen Drive, Dallas, Texas, advised as follows:

She had formerly been engaged to WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF but had broken this engagement when it had been determined this man was not a suitable prospect for marriage. She met none of his friends during their courtship and was certain she had never been introduced to any person by him who might possibly be identical to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she had seen pictures of OSWALD on television and in the newspapers and was certain she had never met this person or seen him physically.

CHARLES HOLLOWAY, Apartment 123, 5420 Lewis, employed as Assistant Manager, Skillern Drug Store, 5400 E. Grand, advised as follows:

WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF, known by the nickname "SCOTTIE", had formerly been his room mate for several months and he knew of no association between DUFF, JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He knew nothing concerning RUBY or OSWALD except what he had read in the newspapers. He is certain DUFF left Dallas about seven or eight weeks ago, possibly longer, by bus for Oklahoma City because he had taken him to the bus station and had seen the bus ticket with the destination Oklahoma City. DUFF had told him he was going into the U. S. Army but he doubted DUFF's word in this respect.

JUANITA BUCHANNON, owner, El Dorado Lounge, 1010 North Haskell, advised as follows on December 16, 1963:

She had first met WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF, known to her as "SCOTTIE", about seven or eight months ago when he started hanging around the bar and making a "big splash." She described him as a "con man" and she knew of no association between DUFF, RUBY and OSWALD. She did not know OSWALD but knew RUBY as she had been a former employee of his when he owned the Sovereign Club. She knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD based on her acquaintance with RUBY.

On December 17, 1963, she advised DUFF had a former friend named ANDRE ANGELES (phonetic) whom she described as a white male, age 31 - 32, height six feet, weight 165 lbs, thin build, red hair, blue eyes, freckles on face and wearing horn rimmed glasses. ANDRE has called the El Dorado Lounge from Washington, D. C. approximately eleven times in recent months attempting to locate one RIED TIPPINS (phonetic), also a friend of DUFFs.

At the time of the last call, December 16, 1963, ANDRE advised he was in Washington, D. C. using the name DON MOON, telephone number 481-7057. She asked ANDRE if he had seen "SCOTTIE". ANDRE replied words to the effect "No, and I'd rather not talk about it." She recalled ANDRE had known JACK RUBY and had mentioned gambling with him.

The only other unusual incident she recalled was the fact ANDRE called her from Washington, D. C. the Sunday prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY telling her he was flying to Dallas on Friday, November 22, 1963, with a lot of money and wondered if she and her husband would meet him at the airport. They did not meet him and she did not know whether ANDRE had come to Dallas.

On December 17, 1963, Sgt. BRADY KELSEY, U. S. Army Recruiting Service, 1114 Commerce, advised WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF had expressed his intention to enlist in the Army July 30, 1963, and he had been rejected for [redacted] reasons on August 15, 1963. DUFF was notified of the reason for his rejection and this included the fact he had many traffic arrests in Los Angeles, California, and had been arrested there for [redacted] in 1961, the charge being dropped. KELSEY said that when an alien attempts to enter the United States Army, he must show his papers of intent and the Immigration and Naturalization Service is notified if the man is inducted.

On December 12, 1963, JEFF WOOSLEY, Immigration and Naturalization Service, 1402 Rio Grande Building, Dallas, Texas, advised as follows:

WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF, Registration # A11330675, was born November 4, 1931 in Scotland. He entered the United States in 1957 and gave as the person he would be living with the name of a sister, MARGARET LAWSON, 715 W. Mission, Alhambra, California. The last address he gave Immigration and Naturalization Service was 5201 Willis, Dallas, Texas. Previous addresses were 316 LaFrance, Alhambra, California, and 407 S. New Avenue, Monterrey Park, California. Additional descriptive data includes his height 5'8½" to 5'9", weight 150 - 160, eyes blue, hair brown, receding.

On December 17, 1963, a stop was placed with Mr. WOOSLEY regarding WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF. WOOSLEY said that if DUFF had entered the military service his office would ultimately receive this information.

A review of the Dallas file concerning WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF indicated the following.

In January of 1963, information was received that WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF had met one FRANCES BERNARD, 5201 Willis, on a bus in Los Angeles and had married her three weeks later. BERNARD had had the marriage annulled shortly thereafter, after she had called a brother of DUFF at 7614 E. Glenden Way, Alhambra, California, at which time she was notified he was formerly married and was "no good."

On December 11, 1963, Lt. ELMO CUNNINGHAM, Dallas Police Department, advised as follows:

His file on WILLIAM MC EWAN DUFF, born November 4, 1931, indicated he had been given a polygraph examination in connection with the assault on General EDWIN WALKER and had been absolved from having had any part in this assault. He had been interested in the activities of DUFF as he believed him to be a con man and check passer. However, he had no warrant on DUFF. DUFF's room mate was listed as CHARLES HOLLOWAY, 5420 Lewis Avenue, Dallas. He had received an anonymous call several months ago informing him DUFF had gone to Oklahoma City. CUNNINGHAM telephonically contacted FRANCES BERNARD whom he had previously interviewed and she advised she had no information regarding DUFF.

RE: FABIAN MC ELROY

As indicated in previous Dallas report of December 10, 1963, entitled "LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka. IS - R - CUBA" on November 23, 1963, Mrs. ROBERT D. (VIRGINIA) YOUNG, Dublin, Texas, furnished information concerning an individual who came to her residence about October 1, 1963, inquiring as to the whereabouts of a priest active in the Roman Catholic Church in Dublin. She reported this incident to a sheriff at Stephenville, Texas.

Upon viewing the photograph of the subject on television on November 22, 1963, she noted a resemblance between this person and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but concluded OSWALD was not the man referred to above.

JERRY ANDREW MC FADDEN, Mesquite, Texas, advised he was in Miami, Florida, on November 30, 1963, in an effort to get his wife to return to Dallas with him. He stated that he did sell a gun to the Tamiami Gun Shop, Miami, Florida, on or about November 30, 1963, and he recalls that the operator of this gun shop asked him, MC FADDEN, if he, MC FADDEN, knew OSWALD or RUBY. According to MC FADDEN, he did not tell the gun shop operator that he, JERRY MC FADDEN, knew either OSWALD or RUBY. He admitted that it is altogether possible that during the conversation he may have left the impression with the gun shop operator that he knew OSWALD or RUBY.

Photographs of OSWALD and RUBY were exhibited to MC FADDEN, and he stated that he did not know either OSWALD or RUBY.

JULIA ANN MERCER, residence 5200 Belmont, Apartment 208, Dallas, Texas, no telephone, who is employed at Automat Distributors, 1720 Canton Street in Dallas, advised she was born February 10, 1940, at Chattanooga, Tennessee.

She advised that at about 10:50 AM, November 22, 1963, she was driving a rented white Valiant automobile west on Elm Street toward the Triple Underpass below Houston Street and at a point about 45 or 50 feet east of the overhead signs over the right entrance road to the underpass, there was a truck parked on the right-hand side of the road, which truck blocked her progress for a few seconds until the lane left of her cleared and she was able to pass around the truck. This truck appeared to have the two right wheels up on the curb. The hood of the truck was open. On the driver's door the words "Air Conditioning" were printed in black letters and the words formed a half-moon shape. The truck was a green Ford pickup, with Texas license.

She advised there was a man sitting under the wheel of the car, slouched over the wheel. This man was wearing a green jacket and was described as a white male, who appeared to be about 40 to 45 years of age, and to be of heavy build.

Another man was at the back of the truck on the street and was reaching over the tailgate when she drove up. This man took out from the truck what appeared to be a gun case. This case was about 3½ feet to 4 feet long and about 8 inches wide at the widest point and about 3, 4, or 5 inches wide at the narrowest point. This case was brown in color and had a handle. The man took this out of the truck and proceeded to walk away and as he did the small end of the case caught in the grass or sidewalk and he reached down to free it. The man then proceeded to walk across the street and up the grassy hill toward the overpass. She said that is the last she saw of this person.

She noticed at the time there were three policemen standing there talking near a motorcycle on the bridge just west of her.

She advised that the man who took the gun case from the truck was a white male in his late 20's or early 30's, with

After examining the photographs Miss MERCER advised that it did not appear that any of these persons had been the person she had seen take what appeared to be a rifle case from the pickup truck at approximately 10:50 a.m. on November 22, 1963, on Elm Street near the Texas School Book Depository building. She was then shown the photograph of OSWALD separately and said that this did not look like the person who had taken the rifle from the truck.

On December 8, 1963, EDWIN HULLEIT, 107 South Edgefield, an employee for Norco Air Conditioning, 1326 Morrell, telephonically advised SA C. E. UNDERHILL that about 1:30 p.m. he observed a 1957 or 1959 green Ford pickup, Texas License 3J947, with "Air Conditioning" written on the passenger side parked in front of the Guthrey Club, Corinth and Industrial.

On the same date, SA's ROBERT E. BASHAM and VERNON MITCHEM attempted to locate this pickup in the vicinity of Corinth and Industrial with negative results.

The following investigation was conducted by SA's JAMES J. WARD and ROBERT E. BASHAM on December 9, 1963:

LORENE CROFTS, Dallas County Records, advised 1963 Texas License 3J947 was transferred from JAMES R. NIX to FRED LEETH, 1304 Arbor Vitae, Dallas, Texas, on October 16, 1963. She said this license is for a 1959 pickup, Vehicle Identification No. F10C9D27125.

Mrs. EILEEN LEETH and FRED W. LEETH, 1304 Arbor Vitae, Dallas, advised that he purchased a light green pickup, 1959 Ford, from a wholesaler who had repossessed the pickup from JAMES NIX when NIX went into debt. He said that the pickup has black lettering on the sides but runs straight across, and the name has been blacked out with black paint between "Air Conditioning" and "Dallas, Texas". It is noted that Mr. LEETH is a white male, 59 years of age, 5'11", 160 pounds, dark hair graying at the temples and base. He added that he has an employee, white male, 30 to 35 years of age, 5'7", dark hair, working for him, but they were working at BEN MITCHELL's place near Love Field on the morning of November 22, 1963, and that traveling to that area they did not use Houston Street or the Triple Underpass. He said he did not know of the assassination until completing the work at MITCHELL's place when he turned on the truck radio.

The following investigation was conducted by SA's HENRY J. OLIVER and LOUIS M. KELLEY on December 9, 1963:

JOE MURPHY, Patrolman, Traffic Division, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was stationed on the Triple Underpass on Elm Street to assist in handling traffic. At approximately 10:30 - 10:40 AM, a pickup truck stalled on Elm Street between Houston Street and the underpass. He was unable to recall the name of the company to whom this truck belonged but stated it is the property of the company working on the First National Bank Building at Elm and Akard in Dallas.

There were three construction men in this truck, and he took one to the bank building to obtain another truck in order to assist in moving the stalled one. The other two men remained with the pickup truck along with two other officers. Shortly prior to the arrival of the motorcade, the man he had taken to the bank building returned with a second truck, and all three of the men left with the two trucks, one pushing the other.

MURPHY noted that the men did not leave the truck except for the one he took to the bank building, and all three left together sometime prior to the arrival of the President's motorcade. He described the stalled truck as being a green pickup and noted the truck had the hood raised during the time it was stalled. This truck had side tool bins on it, and they had a considerable amount of construction equipment in the back.

MURPHY further stated it was probable that one of these men had taken something from the rear of this truck in an effort to start it. He stated these persons were under observation all during the period they were stalled on Elm Street because the officers wanted the truck moved prior to the arrival of the motorcade, and it would have been impossible for any of them to have had anything to do with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

By communication, dated December 11, 1963, Mr. HERBERT J. MILLER, JR., Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, U. S. Department of Justice, furnished the following information:

In a letter received by the Attorney General recently from MARVIN JONES of 1714 Life Building, Dallas, Texas, the following information is furnished:

"(1) I was personally told by a member of the Sheriff's office that on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, about 5:00 A.M., the Sheriff's office either sent a car to transfer Oswald or requested that the transfer be made at that time, but that Dallas Police Chief Curry refused to transfer him at that time because of press notice, although Ruby was transferred without notice to the press.

"(2) One television report stated that employees and other persons entering the building where Oswald worked were checked by the Dallas police on Friday morning, November 22, 1963, and that Oswald entered carrying a package but it was not checked by the policeman for the reason that Oswald said it contained a window shade.

"(3) Mr. Jack Gay, one of my law partners, learned Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963, from one of his clients that some man had stated that he would give his life to kill President Kennedy. This information was given to Chief Greene of the Police Department of Farmers Branch (a suburb of Dallas) because the person hearing the statement made was a female who resides in Farmers Branch. It is my understanding that Chief Greene has made some investigation of this matter."

Mr. MARVIN JONES, attorney, 1714 Life Building, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

JONES said he is a general practitioner in law and as a result has occasion to handle some criminal cases. He stated that he has practiced law in Dallas for approximately seventeen years. JONES stated that Sheriff BILL DECKER, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, is always available and does not tolerate anyone working for him, DECKER, not doing a good job.

JONES stated that this is not true of the Dallas Police Department. JONES said, "It is not how well you do your job but how well you impress your boss at the Dallas PD." JONES alleged that the above attitude has been prevalent among the officers of the Dallas Police Department during the last two administrations at the Dallas Police Department.

JONES pointed out as an example of the attitude of the officers of the Dallas Police Department the following incident. JONES said that on the morning of November 22, 1963, he heard Officer [MARVIN (LNU)], who works the area around Jackson and Akard Streets in Dallas, make the statement, "Wouldn't it be a shame if they shot at the President and missed him." JONES said he had no further information concerning the above matter, and that he, JONES, did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has had no personal dealings with JACK RUBY.

Mr. MARVIN JONES, attorney, 1714 Life Building, Dallas, Texas, advised that within a day or so after the assassination of President KENNEDY, he, JONES, heard over the TV or radio that employees and other persons entering the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) Building where LEE HARVEY OSWALD was employed were checked by the Dallas Police Department on Friday morning, November 22, 1963, and that OSWALD entered the building carrying a package. Mr. JONES said that according to the commentator, the package that OSWALD was carrying was not checked by the policemen, for the reason that OSWALD is alleged to have said it contained a window shade.

Mr. JONES stated that he, JONES, does not recall who the commentator was, what program, the time of day, or whether he heard it on radio or TV. He stated that he was unable to furnish any further information in connection with this matter.

Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, on this date advised that there was no one from the Dallas Police Department on November 22, 1963 prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY who was screening individuals or packages that were brought into the Texas School Book Depository building. Chief CURRY stated that if they were stopped by any officer, it would have been for some other purpose. He stated that as far as he knew, no one was questioned that day relative to any package that was brought in by anyone to the Texas School Book Depository building.

Mr. JACK GAY, attorney, 1714 Life Building, Dallas, Texas, informed that JIM HOUSTON, a client, who is active on the Americanism Committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, of Farmers Branch, a suburb of Dallas, Texas, related that he, HOUSTON, attended a forum where one Mrs. (FNU) STEWART was present. After the forum, several people, including Mrs. STEWART, who had attended the forum, went to the home of HOUSTON. During a discussion at the home of Mr. HOUSTON, Mrs. STEWART said that an unnamed person had told her that he, the unnamed person, would give his life in exchange for KENNEDY's life.

Mr. GAY said that he now understands that Chief of Police PETE GREENE, to whom GAY reported the above, contacted Mrs. STEWART, and she denied saying that she heard such a statement made. Mr. GAY said that he, GAY, has no further information concerning the above matter, having turned all the information he has ever to Chief PETE GREENE, of the Farmers Branch Police Department.

Mr. GAY said that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and has never met JACK RUBY personally. He stated that on one occasion, several years ago, a BERNARD FERGUSON, also known as "Buttercup", from Nevada, was an entertainer at the Chalet in Dallas, Texas, and apparently received a better offer from JACK RUBY to entertain at the Carousel Club. Mr. GAY stated that BERNARD FERGUSON wanted some kind of contract in connection with his employment with RUBY; however, GAY told FERGUSON that he, FERGUSON, was too young for a contract, being only seventeen years old, and also was not a citizen of the United States. Mr. GAY stated that he recalls that he talked to JACK RUBY over the telephone in connection with this matter.

Chief of Police PETE GREEN, Farmers Branch, Texas, advised that JACK GAY, an attorney who practices law at Farmers Branch in Dallas, Texas, advised him several days ago that a man named JAMES HOUSTON, 3028 Randy Lane, Farmers Branch, Texas, had told him that HOUSTON had heard a woman state that during the summer of 1963 this woman had heard a man say that he would give his life for President KENNEDY's life. Chief GREEN said that he could not recall the woman's name who is alleged to have heard this statement but that he had contacted her and she had stated that she had never heard such a statement made and did not know anything about such a statement having been made.

Chief GREEN stated that he believes JAMES HOUSTON is unreliable because last year the Farmers Branch Police Department had proved to his satisfaction that HOUSTON was trying to perpetrate a swindle on an insurance company concerning his automobile.

A search of the records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company revealed that tickets on cancelled long distance calls emanating from Dallas were destroyed on November 26, 1963. These were all long distance tickets made on cancelled calls and were involved in a study of a group of such calls attempted to be made from Dallas on November 22, 1963. These tickets were traced through the accounting department of the telephone company and back to the Central Ticket Investigating Bureau, which is a group making a special study for the telephone company of long distance calls which have been cancelled. From that point they were returned to the accounting department at which place these tickets were all destroyed.

It was determined that it appears likely that any long distance call which may have been placed from Dallas to a locality in Indiana, was on a ticket that was destroyed. No specific information was available from the records of the telephone company concerning any long distance call placed at Dallas on November 22, 1963 from Anderson Furniture Studio, 2222 North Harwood, Dallas, telephone RI. 1-5311.

The above information is available only upon the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum which subpoena should be directed to Mr. R. A. BURROW, Chief Special Agent, South-western Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, Texas.

The following investigation was conducted as a result of an interview with JOHN EDWARD RODDENBERRY, by the Philadelphia Office.

A search of the current and past Dallas City and Telephone Directories failed to list a Ramous Bar.

A check of all taverns and bars within a four block direction on each street from the corner of McKinney and Lemmon Avenue, Dallas, Texas, failed to reflect any bar named Ramous.

Previous investigation has further reflected that LEE HARVEY OSWALD rented premises at 4905 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, from May 9, 1963, to September 23, 1963, and was employed by the William B. Reily Company Incorporated, New Orleans, from May 10, 1963, to July 19, 1963, and filed claims for unemployment insurance in New Orleans on July 22 and 30, 1963, and August 6, 1963, making it highly improbable that he was in Dallas at any time during July, 1963.

Mrs. JEAN BRISCOE, Manager of the Governor's Palace, 4040 Travis, advised this was a 24-unit apartment building.

Mrs. BRISCOE stated she recalled JOHN E. RODDENBERRY as an undesirable tenant who had resided in the apartments for a short time during the summer of 1963.

After consulting her records, Mrs. BRISCOE stated RODDENBERRY put up a $75.00 cash deposit on July 19, 1963 and moved in shortly thereafter. On departing RODDENBERRY failed to give notice or turn in a rented television set, and since his departure Mrs. BRISCOE stated she had been frequently contacted by individuals representing firms who had accepted worthless checks from RODDENBERRY.

Mrs. BRISCOE viewed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated this individual had not been seen by her at the apartments and insofar as she knew, had never visited him (RODDENBERRY) while residing at the Governor's Palace Apartments.

Mrs. BRISCOE concluded that RODDENBERRY had informed her he was representing the International Counseler Service while a resident of the apartments and her records did not reflect the exact date of his departure, but it would have been shortly after August 1, 1963.

MARTIN ROSS, Vice President, Big State Construction Company of Arlington, Inc., 114 Fairview, advised that a truck driver from his company, WILLIE HORTON, found a piece of paper which apparently was adding machine tape paper with the name LEO HARVEY OSWALD on one side and the name REDDING, 2122 Meadock or Weadock on the opposite side.

Mr. ROSS advised that HORTON turned this in to him on November 29, 1963, on which date it was found by HORTON, who found the piece of paper on the Stemmons Expressway where the company is installing a median guard rail on the Stemmons Expressway.

ROSS said HORTON told him he found this piece of paper just west of the Trade Mart entrance off the Expressway.

Mr. ROSS advised that he desired to make this available to the FBI for whatever significance it may have concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. ROSS advised that WILLIE HORTON's residence is 522 Northwest 18th Street, Grand Prairie, Texas.

Mr. ROSS further stated he had no more information concerning this matter.

With reference to a slip of adding machine tape paper bearing the name LEO H. OSWALD on one side and the name REDDING and address 2122 "Meadock" or "Weadock" on the opposite side received from Mr. MARTIN ROSS of the Big State Construction Company, the Dallas City Directory and telephone book were examined on December 9, 1963, by SA HAROLD R. DOBSON with the result that no streets named Meadock or Weadock were found and no individual named REDDING was found residing on any street bearing a phonetic similarity to those street names.

A closer examination of the adding machine tape paper on that date disclosed the possibility that the street address was "Wood Oak" Street.

Mr. J. R. REDDING, 2122 Wood Oak Street, Irving, Texas, Vice President of World Gift Company, Inc., 845 Regal Row, Dallas, Texas, advised he had returned to Dallas approximately four months ago from opening a branch of his company at Reno, Nevada, and that this was the first time he had been in Dallas since 1951. He recently purchased a house at the address given above and moved into it within the past forty-five days.

He has no friends or associates in Dallas at this time other than officials and employees of his company and could not recall furnishing his residence address to anyone with the possible exception of public utilities and other services in order that their facilities at his home might be begun. He never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and has never written OSWALD's name. He caused a search of company records to be made which disclosed the company is suing one BARBARA OSWALD of 157 Fredericks Road, Tonawanda, New York, as of November 26, 1963, but he had no connection with the case and was unable to see any pertinence of it to the case at hand.

He was of the opinion that the slip of paper had probably been used by a serviceman of one of the public utilities who had probably received a radio message to turn on facilities at his new home. From several irregular lines underneath the name LEO H. OSWALD it was his opinion that the individual writing same had been merely "doodling". He was unable to recognize the handwriting as belonging to any person he knew.

He recalled having considerable difficulty with a General Electric clothes drier which came with his house which occasioned several visits there by servicemen from the General Electric Company.

He had never seen the slip of paper before and could offer no further suggestions as to its origin.

Re: ROY T. RUTHERSFORD

Phoenix on December 7, 1963, advised that the Douglas, Arizona Police Department on December 7, 1963, advised that at 8:35 PM on that day they had received a long distance call from an unknown female caller in Miami, Florida. This unknown female stated to Sergeant FULLER, the answering officer, "do you have ROY T. RUTHERSFORD in custody". Sergeant FULLER replied no, at which time the female caller said "well you should know about him because he's the one who helped LEE OSWALD". The caller then hung up. The operator came on the line and advised FULLER that the call had been placed from a pay phone in Miami, Florida, but she did not know the number. Sergeant FULLER checked his records and determined that they had a record of RUTHERSFORD as he was arrested in 1959 for a minor offense. RUTHERSFORD at the time was employed by a local mining concern and was a resident of Douglas. These records described RUTHERSFORD as a white male, born May 29, 1919, and listed his address as 501 D Avenue, Douglas.

Phoenix on December 12, 1963, advised that investigation at Douglas, Arizona, revealed that ROY T. RUTHERSFORD and his wife, ELOISE formerly resided at 501 D Avenue, Douglas, Arizona, where he was employed as a carpenter, smelter worker and hamburger stand owner. Credit Bureau records contain an inquiry dated September 21, 1960, indicating RUTHERSFORD resided at 9333 Spring Drive, Houston 55, Texas. The only arrest record at Douglas, Arizona, was on August 17, 1961, for a traffic violation. RUTHERSFORD was described as a white male, born May 29, 1919, at Tularosa, New Mexico, 5'10", 155 to 160 pounds, brown hair, blue eyes, medium to dark complexion.

Houston on December 13, 1963, advised as follows:

ROY T. RUTHERSFORD, 541 Texas Avenue, South Houston, Texas, advised he had never met or known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he and his wife have not been in Dallas, Texas. RUTHERSFORD said the only person he knows who might have called Douglas, Arizona, is a MARGARET MOFFITT, 134 South Dixie Highway, A132.

Hallandale, Florida. He advised he met MOFFITT in Douglas, Arizona, in 1959. MOFFITT had called the Douglas, Arizona, Police Department to locate RUTHERSFORD and his wife in December, 1961. RUTHERSFORD said he last saw MOFFITT in the summer of 1961 at which time MOFFITT had stayed at his home in Douglas, Arizona. He put her on a bus for Hallandale, Florida, when he observed her to be an alcoholic and political fanatic. RUTHERSFORD advised neither he nor his wife have written or talked to MOFFITT since 1961.

Miami on December 14, 1963, advised that MARGARET MOFFITT, Hallandale, Florida, was interviewed on that date. She stated she was joking in the telephone call she placed on December 7, 1963, to the Douglas, Arizona, Police Department, when she remarked that ROY T. RUTHERSFORD had helped OSWALD. She knows nothing about OSWALD and feels sure RUTHERSFORD does not. She stated that RUTHERSOFRD owed her money and she was attempting to locate him.

Mr. LEE ALLEN SHERMAN, 2218 Finley, Irving, Texas, advised he is employed at the Great Southwest Warehouse, Heavy Hauling Division, 3191 Commonwealth, Dallas, Texas. He said his immediate supervisor is Mr. CHARLES CAMPLEN and that shortly after he heard of the assassination of President KENNEDY, he was engaged in a conversation with Mr. CAMPLEN in which conversation he told Mr. CAMPLEN that pictures of OSWALD appearing in the paper strongly resembled a man he met at "drag racing." He said he was unable to recall whether he met this man at the Sportsdome, 8000 West Davis, Dallas, or at the home of one of the racing drivers who appears there. He said that he is well acquainted with all of the drivers and owners, and this man he felt sure was neither a driver nor an owner, but he recalled he observed this person about the first or middle part of October, 1963. The time would have been during the late afternoon or early evening on a Saturday. He said he seemed to recall the unknown individual was standing by a racing car, and he asked this man a question about the car, and the man responded, "Speak up. I'm hard of hearing." Then another man, identity not recalled, remarked, "That guy is not deaf."

Mr. SHERMAN said he told Mr. CAMPLEN about this incident and felt the unknown man might have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD because his recollection had been "stirred up" as a result of seeing OSWALD's picture in the paper and on television.

He described this unknown person as a white male American, early to mid 20's, 5'10"-11", 165 pounds, thin build, color and length of hair not recalled, had high forehead, hair combed back to side, not believed ducktail, wore a dark shirt with collar, short sleeves, no coat and dirty blue jeans. Mr. SHERMAN was unable to recall his posture or the type of shoes he was wearing. He said he was unable to recall that this individual associated with or talked to any other persons, but he was quite sure he did not participate in any races as a driver or passenger.

SHERMAN observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD which was made at New Orleans, Louisiana, No. 112723, on August 9, 1963, and said that the cars and hairline of OSWALD strongly resembled the unknown person about whom he was talking. He said he is not positive that he saw this person at the Sportsdome Race Track -- it could have been at an owner's home where some work was being done on a car. He could not recall the make of the car but believed the engine was running and the hood was up, and he thought this man was just watching people work on the vehicle.

Mr. SHERMAN said the cars used by the racers are "the bottom of the barrel -- anything that has wheels and will run may be used."

He said he had no other contact with this person and has never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

LLOYD SINEATH, Manager, Charleston Heights Motel, 4241 Rivers Avenue, North Charleston, South Carolina, was interviewed and he furnished the following:

One WALTER, last name illegible, registered at the Charleston Heights Motel, September 3, 1962, in Room Number 17. SINEATH stated that this individual was driving a 1956 model Chevrolet automobile. He believes the car was green and white in color. The car bore Virginia license Number 759078.

The white male paid for one night's lodging and remained at the motel for two days, leaving without paying the balance of the bill. When he departed he left several articles of personal property and a few clothes in the room.

SINEATH stated that sometime later he received a letter from this individual from someplace out of state requesting that he send the clothing and personal articles to him. SINEATH stated that he destroyed the letter and does not recall the exact locality from which the letter was mailed. He disposed of the clothing and personal articles and did not send them as he was requested by this individual.

When the man registered alone at the motel, he appeared to be very nervous and emotionally upset. The man carried on a rambling conversation and did not make sense during his talk with him advised SINEATH.

SINEATH further advised that after seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television several times, he feels that it is probable that the man who registered at his motel on September 3, 1962, is identical with OSWALD.

He is not certain that it was OSWALD. He further stated that he does not know what this man was doing at Charleston, South Carolina.

On December 2, 1963, Mrs. MARY ANN SMITH, Virginia State Division of Motor Vehicles, Richmond, Virginia, advised Special Agent CHARLES F. HEINER that her files reveal that 1962 Virginia license 759-078 was issued to WALTER STOKES LIBBY, JR., 2419 Grove Avenue, Richmond, Virginia, for a 1955 Chevrolet.

On December 2, 1963, Mrs. VIRGINIA LESTER, Operator's License Section, Virginia State Division of Motor Vehicles, Richmond, Virginia, advised SA HEINER that files of her section reveal that WALTER STOKES LIBBY, JR., 2419 Grove Avenue, Richmond, Virginia, was described therein as a white male, born July, 1940, 5' 11", 155 pounds, brown hair, brown eyes.

On December 2, 1963, Mrs. LOIS MILBURN, Secretary to the Personnel Officer, Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, Richmond, Virginia, advised Special Agent WILSON B. WADDY that WALTER S. LIBBY, JR., 2419 Grove Avenue, Richmond, Virginia, born July 14, 1940, at Summit, New Jersey, was employed as a technician for Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company in Richmond from June 12, 1961, to September 28, 1962, at which time his employment was terminated for medical reasons.

According to Mrs. MILBURN, LIBBY was sent to Charleston, South Carolina, on an assignment for Virginia-Carolina on about September 1, 1962. He departed Richmond for Charleston but could not thereafter be immediately located at Charleston. When he returned to Richmond he was obviously mentally unbalanced which resulted in his discharge from Virginia-Carolina Chemical.

Mrs. MILBURN exhibited receipts that were obtained from LIBBY on his return to Richmond from Charleston, South Carolina, which supported expenses that had been incurred by LIBBY at Charleston. These receipts included motel receipts, gasoline receipts, etc.

A review of one of these receipts revealed that LIBBY stayed at the Charleston Heights Motel, Charleston Heights, South Carolina, on September 3 and 4, 1962.

It was also observed that on these receipts LIBBY had written notes to himself, addressed to "WALT", which were accusations that he was cheating Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company.

On December 3, 1963, at 2:10 P.M., MELVIN R. SUTTON, 1318 Old Jacksboro Road, Graham, Texas, telephonically advised SA J. DOYLE WILLIAMS he has information pertaining to LEE HARVEY OSWALD which came to his attention in California in 1947.

SUTTON stated he was formerly assigned to Army security and that he was acquainted with OSWALD in California.

SUTTON stated he was unable to discuss the matter on the telephone because he felt this matter was something dealing with security and he should be contacted personally for the information he has. He declined to give any information as to the nature of the information and insisted that an Agent contact him.

SUTTON stated he does not have a telephone and that he is employed in Olney, Texas. He declined to state the name of his employer.

The following investigation was conducted by SA WILLIAM E. LOGG, JR., on December 6, 1963:

Sheriff JOHN EDWARDS, Young County Sheriff's Office, Graham, Texas, was contacted to determine the reliability of MELVIN R. SUTTON. Sheriff EDWARDS stated he presumed the inquiry was because of "SUTTON's telephone call". He then explained SUTTON had been in the office of Attorney PAYNE ROYE, Graham, Texas, when he telephoned the Dallas FBI Office. Sheriff EDWARDS advised Mr. ROYE had informed him of the call and had also told him SUTTON was drunk at the time he made the call. Sheriff EDWARDS advised SUTTON was a bricklayer who works for his father-in-law and was presently working at Olney, Texas.

Attempt was made to contact SUTTON at Olney, Texas, and it was ascertained he had returned to Graham, Texas.

MELVIN R. SUTTON was contacted at 1318 Old Jacksboro Road, Graham, Texas, and advised he had been in the Army Security Force in Germany stationed at Frankfort, Germany, in 1948. He explained he was assigned to the motor pool of the Army Security Agency-Europe at Frankfort, Germany. He related the Sergeant in charge of his unit held weekly discussions and following one of these discussions one of his, SUTTON's, buddies, one ERNST BRUEX (phonetic), had remarked that he had known a fellow named OSWALD in Louisiana who had acted like a Communist. SUTTON was unable to furnish any additional information except that BRUEX, whose name he did not know how to spell, was a Cajun from Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

SUTTON was asked why he had refused to furnish this to the Agent to whom he had spoken on the telephone, and he replied he was afraid someone might have listened in and then "they" would get to BRUEX before the FBI could. It was pointed out to SUTTON that he had reportedly stated in his telephone call that he had been in the service in California and had been acquainted with OSWALD. He then stated he had been misunderstood, that he had meant to say he had known a fellow named OSWALD back in 1947 in the service, but this OSWALD had been from Oregon. He was unable to furnish further identifying information concerning this man. It is to be noted that in the year 1948, LEE HARVEY OSWALD would have been only nine years of age.

Date November 26, 1963

ROBERT H. TAYLOR was interviewed in the late hours of November 23 and the early hours of November 24, 1963, in his motel room, Number 11, at El Motel.

Mr. TAYLOR advised he departed his residence in Kansas City, Mo., on Saturday, November 16, 1963, and was originally headed for California. He stated he arrived in El Paso, Texas, on November 18, 1963, and there changed his plans about his trip to California. He decided instead to travel to Tampa, Fla., to visit friends.

He said he spent the night of November 19, 1963, in Van Horn, Texas, and anticipated spending the next night in Houston, Texas. On the morning of November 20, 1963, he began to notice an automobile traveling about the same speed he was traveling. He described this car as a small, black, foreign made convertible, the make of which was unknown to him. This car was occupied by two male individuals, and had a luggage rack on the back trunk, which rack was covered by green canvas and was strapped down. TAYLOR said it appeared to him there were three pieces of luggage under this green canvas.

He said to the best of his recollection, this automobile had a California license, the number of which was unknown to him. TAYLOR related that sometime around noon, he stopped for gas, and observed the same foreign made automobile already in the service station being serviced. He said that while his own car was being serviced, he got out to stretch his legs, and observed these two individuals more closely. He said one of these individuals was untalkative and appeared very edgy. He would take one step and look around and take a sip of a soft drink he was drinking. The other individual appeared friendly, and during the course of a conversation with this individual, TAYLOR ascertained that these two persons had just left the state of California, exact location unknown, and were headed for Dallas, Texas.

TAYLOR said he did not recall seeing this automobile again after leaving this service station.

TAYLOR advised that on Friday, November 22, 1963, he stopped at a motel in Pensacola, Fla., and upon observing the news broadcast which contained the information of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, TAYLOR observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said this photograph immediately struck him as resembling the individual previously described as untalkative whom he had observed at the service station, and with whom he had not carried on any conversation. He described this individual as:

White Male
In his twenties
5'10" to 6' tall
155 lbs.
Light brown hair
Fair complexion
No outstanding peculiarities
Wore a T-shirt and dark pants.

TAYLOR described the second occupant of the automobile whom he had observed in the service station as:

White Male
In his forties
6' tall
200 lbs.
Dark brown hair
A full beard, appearing to be several days growth
Olive complexion.
Wore dark shirt and dark pants
Wore sun glasses
Spoke with an accent, origin of which was unknown to TAYLOR.

TAYLOR was unable tp pinpoint the exact location of the service station. He could not name the brand of gasoline purchased; however, he advised he uses Texaco gasoline whenever possible, and will only use name brand gasolines in his automobile. He said this station was located in the country, and described the station as a small, clean, modern station. It did not have a restaurant connected thereto. TAYLOR advised he pays for his gasoline by cash. He described his own automobile as a 1958 Oldsmobile Station Wagon.

CEDRIC YOUNGER VON ROLDESTON, also known as Arthur Dean Swift, advised that he had information which might be of value in connection with the investigation of HARVEY LEE OSWALD. He stated that he and his twentyfour year old wife, ONEDA RUTH VON ROLDESTON, arrived in Alexandria, Louisiana around 2:00 A.M., on the early morning of October 11, 1963. He registered at the Hotel Bentley and they both went immediately to bed, sleeping most of the same day.

Adjacent to the lobby of this hotel was a campaign headquarters for a candidate whom he believed was "GILLIS," and this was a Democratic Headquarters.

Outside of this headquarters and in the lobby, he saw a man talking to three other men. This man was not dressed in a suit, but had on a light colored jacket and a hat. He stated that all he can say about the three men were that they wore normal business suits. He observed this man in conversation for some time, but did not overhear any of the conversation. After the three men left, this same man came over to him and asked him where he was from and where he was going. He felt this was a strange request but then engaged in a brief conversation with this man. During the general conversation, this man said "VERY SOON A LOT OF CATHOLIC LEADERS OR RULERS WILL BE SHOT." He does not remember any further conversation with this man and does not know if he was registered at the hotel or not. He stated that this was the last time that he saw this man, until he later saw a picture of OSWALD.

He stated that the next day, he and his wife were asked to leave by the manager of this hotel. He stated that he does not know why they were asked to leave, since he always pays his bills, and has never been asked to leave any hotel before.

They drove through the southern states and eventually into Washington, D. C., arriving there on October 31, 1963.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He came to Washington, D. C., because he wanted to see Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY to see if he could get a pardon and to see if he could get some help for his seven children. He stated that he wanted to have them raised in a Catholic School. He wanted the pardon, because in 1952, he was convicted for Extortion, and he served time for this crime. He stated that he wanted to clear the records for his little children who were coming along. He also wanted to mention to him about the statement about "A lot of Catholic rulers or leaders will be shot."

He was not successful in seeing KENNEDY, and he tried to get in touch with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), but he did not follow this through. He then went to the Soviet Embassy, where he met the Second Secretary of the Embassy of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR), GENNADI N. SEREBRYAKOV. He went to the Embassy because he is a great admirer of Premier KHRUSHCHEV, and he wanted to give KHRUSHCHEV one of his landscape paintings. The painting was accepted and he was informed that it would be sent to KHRUSHCHEV. He told the Secretary that he admired KHRUSHCHEV because "he is the only ruler who would part with virgin gold to feed his own people and the world."

While there, he showed the Secretary some colored photographs of paintings he had done previously. Mixed up with the colored pictures was a postcard from the Hotel Bentley, Alexandria, Louisiana, and he himself, did not know that this postcard was with the pictures. When the Secretary came to the postcard, which was a picture of a dining room in the hotel, he appeared for a moment to show surprise, but said nothing. It was as if he recognized the place or name of the hotel.

He left then, and he and his wife traveled north to New Jersey, New York, and into New England. On the day that the President was shot, they were in New England. He saw the television and the newspapers, and after observing the many pictures of OSWALD, he is positive that OSWALD is identical to the man he talked to in the lobby of the Hotel Bentley at Alexandria, Louisiana, on October 12, 1963. He stated that he is an artist and he knows facial construction, and that is why he is positive that this man was OSWALD. He stated that he then also recalled the statement about top Catholic rulers or leaders being killed, and here was KENNEDY shot, as well and two top Catholic Rulers in Viet-Nam. He stated that he did not know the names of the two Catholic rulers in Viet-Nam who were shot, but they were brothers and they ran the country. He recalled reading about it in the newspapers. He also then recalled how the Secretary of the USSR Embassy looked when he saw the pictures of the Hotel Bentley dining room.

He then tried to get in touch with ROBERT KENNEDY at Hyannis Port, Massachusetts, but was not successful, so he and his wife then made their way to Washington, D. C., arriving there on December 3, 1963. He again went to see the Soviet Embassy, and the same Secretary talked to him. He asked this man if he recalled their previous conversation. He recalled that on the previous visit to the Soviet Embassy, he had told this man to "trust President KENNEDY and the Catholic People. Don't trust the Baptists and the Protestants in Texas." The man did not recall the conversation, but told him that the picture had been forwarded to KHRUSHCHEV. The man then wanted him to tell him where he was going and where he could be located. He told this man he traveled constantly with his wife and did not have a home. He felt this was a strange request for this man to ask of him.

He then left and again tried to get in touch with ROBERT KENNEDY to tell him of his information. He could not see Mr. KENNEDY. Then he and his wife drove to the Quantico, Virginia, Marine Base, and here he told the Officer in Charge of the Military Police his story and asked him if he would get in touch with the FBI for him. He stated that he is glad that this information is in the right hands and he was advised that the matter would be looked into.

As a matter of background, VON ROLDESTON stated that he came from England as a small boy. He was raised in this country and is a naturalized citizen, and he does not have any home. He and his wife travel continuously, and he gets work doing landscape work wherever he stops. He stated that he has done landscape work and portrait work all over this country. He specializes in landscape work, and usually contracts for a job doing a mural on a wall of a bowling alley or restaurant. When he first grew up, he stated that he was violently anti-Catholic, but in recent years, he has seen the light and now he is pro-Catholic. He stated he is not a communist.

He once recalled in 1952 of writing a letter to STALIN in which he told STALIN to "blow up Rome" and to go ahead on the development of rockets in space. He stated that he was right about the rockets, and the Russians must have taken his advice and developed them. He then exhibited a letter from T. A. MEADE, a Vice President of the AMF Pinspotter Company. In this letter, Mr. MEADE thanked him for his suggestion that when KHRUSHCHEV came to this country, he should be shown a bowling alley, so that the people of Russia could also have bowling alleys. He stated that he read in the papers later on his visit KHRUSHCHEV did visit a bowling alley, and this again shows that his suggestions were taken by the Russians. For this reason, on his recent visit with the Soviet Embassy, prior to the death of KENNEDY, he told this Second Secretary to trust President KENNEDY and the Catholic People. He did not want them to do anything to President KENNEDY. He stated that he had the greatest of admiration for President KENNEDY. He exhibited his photograph album which contained letters of recommendation indicating that he was a proficient artist.

He stated that he did not know where he and his wife were going from Fredericksburg, Virginia. He stated that they both just take off and drive.

The following is a description of VON ROLDESTON as obtained through interview and observation:

Miss BILLIE JEAN WARREN, 11325 Prelude, Dallas, Texas, advised that she is employed by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Dallas as a long-distance operator.

She stated that on November 22, 1963, between 12 o'clock Noon and just prior to hearing that President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY was shot, exact time not recalled, she handled a call to a PABLO BRENNER or BRUNER in Mexico City, Mexico, from a Riverside 8 exchange in Dallas, Texas. She said she could not recall the name of the individual in Dallas who placed this call or the telephone number but that this person stated the call was an "emergency." She said that it took approximately five minutes to get the call through to Mexico City and when the party from Mexico City came on the line she overheard the individual from Dallas tell BRENNER or BRUNER "He's dead, he's dead." She did not hear any more of the conversation, however, the individual in Dallas while waiting for the call to go through was talking to someone else, and there appeared to be a great deal of noise in the background as if a lot of people were talking. She said this call to Mexico City lasted approximately one minute.

Miss WARREN advised that she is long-distance operator 681 and was certain that the name BRENNER or BRUNER would appear on the toll ticket in addition to the name of the person making the call from Dallas inasmuch as this was a person-to-person call. She said that this call was not placed from a pay station.

She did not know how the telephone company files their toll tickets but assumes that they are filed by the name of the person to whom the telephone is registered and possibly by telephone number. She said that this toll ticket might possibly be located in the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company files by contacting an official of this company.

Miss WARREN advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK L. RUBY were unknown to her prior to seeing them on television and in the newspaper after President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY was assassinated.

With reference to information received from Miss BILLIE JEAN WARREN, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company long distance operator, on December 2, 1963, that between 12:00 o'clock noon and immediately prior to her receiving news of the assassination on November 22, 1963, she handled an emergency telephone call to Mexico City, Mexico for one PABLO BRENNER or BRUNER from a RIverside-8 telephone exchange in Dallas, Texas, from a check of long distance calls to Mexico conducted by SA ROBERT C. LISH on December 6, 1963, it is noted that none of the calls from a RIverside-8 exchange in Dallas found, coincided with the time of the call as reported by Miss WARREN.

No further effort is contemplated in this regard.

The following investigation was conducted by SA J. DOYLE WILLIAMS:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

On November 26, 1963, at 9:07 p.m., a telephone call was received by SA J. DOYLE WILLIAMS from an individual who declined to identify himself but who stated he had information pertaining to LEE H. OSWALD and worthless checks he had written. The caller stated a collection agency in Dallas had several worthless checks signed LEE H. OSWALD and that this agency was attempting to collect on the checks for Braniff Airlines in Dallas.

The caller stated that he felt it most important that the FBI should be advised of these facts, however, that under the circumstances he could not identify himself because if he did so, the source of the information to the FBI would immediately be known to the collection agency. He stated he had friends working at the collection agency and that he had overheard conversations between them to the effect the collection agency did not want anything said about the fact that they had the checks, since OSWALD was dead, and that they did not want to bring the matter to the attention of the police or FBI.

The caller stated he felt this was wrong and that he was furnishing this information for whatever value it may be. He further mentioned something about Mexico City; however, stated he did not have specific information regarding details of the facts in question.

Special Agent WILLIAMS telephonically contacted the residence of E. E. HOLLAND, collection manager for Braniff Airlines, 5215 McComas, telephone number TA 4-8944. However, Mrs. HOLLAND stated Mr. HOLLAND was not expected home until approximately 10:00 p.m. or later.

Mr. WES WISE, Sports Department, KRLD-TV, was interviewed at which time he furnished the following information. Mr. WISE said on December 4, 1963 he made a talk before the Oak Cliff Exchange Club at a luncheon meeting at the El Chico Restaurant in Oak Cliff. WISE said although his specialty is sports, eventually the conversation at the meeting got around to the assassination of the President since persons present knew WISE was associated with KRLD-TV, the CBS outlet in Dallas, Texas.

WISE continued that at the conclusion of the meeting, one of the guests came forward and reluctantly volunteered information that on November 22, 1963 just after news had been broadcast of the President's assassination, he observed a red 1957 Plymouth four-door sedan proceeding west at a rapid rate of speed on Davis Street in Oak Cliff. WISE said his source stated after a short period of time, this car returned to the parking lot at the El Chico Restaurant where the car parked beside the restaurant and the occupant remained in the car. The source told WISE because of the mysterious maneuverings of this car, he walked close to the car and determined the license number was PP 4537. The source told WISE at the luncheon meeting that evening while observing TV, a picture of OSWALD was shown and the source recognized OSWALD as being the individual he observed in the red 1957 Plymouth on that afternoon.

WISE said as he recalled, this occurred on the same corner where OSWALD reportedly left a taxicab following his trip from downtown Dallas.

WISE said he had checked the license PP 4537 through the License Bureau and it was ascertained this license was issued to CARL AMOS MATHER, 4309 Colgate Lane, Garland, Texas.

WISE stated at this time he desired not to furnish the identity of his source of information, but added if investigation indicated this individual might be involved in the OSWALD case, WISE would reveal the identity of the source.

Mrs. CARL A. MATHER, 4309 Colgate Street, Garland, Texas, stated she and her husband own the light blue over medium blue 1957 Plymouth automobile bearing 1963 Texas License PP 4537 which was parked in the driveway at this address. Mrs. MATHER stated she and her husband also own a 1954 Ford station wagon which is white over light blue in color.

Mrs. MATHER stated on November 22, 1963, her husband left his work at Collins Radio Company in Richardson, Texas at approximately 2:00 or 2:30 P.M. in the afternoon at which time he came to their home at 4309 Colgate Street, Garland, Texas. Mrs. MATHER stated she and her husband were friends of former Dallas Policeman J. D. TIPPIT who was shot on the afternoon of November 22, 1963. Mrs. MATHER said shortly after her husband arrived home, they took their two children with them in their 1954 Ford station wagon at which time they proceeded to Dallas, Texas to the TIPPIT home to express their condolences to Mrs. TIPPIT, and to assist her in any way possible. Mrs. MATHER said she and her husband and the children remained at the TIPPIT home together until around 5:00 P.M. They arrived at the TIPPIT home at approximately 3:30 P.M. that afternoon. Around 5:00 P.M., Mr. MATHER left the TIPPIT home with the two MATHER children and drove to the MATHER home in Garland where he fed the two children and put them to bed.

Mrs. MATHER was questioned as to knowledge of her husband or anyone else driving a red late model automobile in the vicinity of the El Chico Restaurant on the afternoon of November 22, 1963 at which time Mrs. MATHER stated she was at a loss to understand any connection between the red automobile reportedly bearing Texas License PP 4537 and her family. Mrs. MATHER said as best she could recall, her husband was at the TIPPIT home constantly on the afternoon of November 22, 1963 following their arrival there at about 3:30 P.M.

Mr. WES WISE, Sports Department, KRLD-TV, advised Mr. T. F. WHITE, a Mechanic at the Mack Pate Garage, 114 West 7th Street, Dallas, Texas, is the individual who furnished WISE information on December 4, 1963. WISE stated on December 4, 1963, WHITE had told WISE he (WHITE) observed a 1957 red Plymouth automobile on the parking lot adjacent to the El Chico Restaurant in Dallas, and WHITE believed the individual driving the car at the time was LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

WISE stated although he did not desire to furnish the identity of his source of this information at first, it would be permissable for an FBI Agent to interview WHITE at this time to further check out WHITE's story.

Mr. T. F. WHITE, Mechanic, Mack Pate's Garage, 114 West 7th Street, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed regarding a red 1957 Plymouth reportedly seen by him on the parking lot of the El Chico Restaurant on the afternoon of November 22, 1963. Mr. WHITE was advised Mr. WES WISE, Sports Department, KRLD-TV, Dallas, had furnished information which Mr. WISE obtained from Mr. WHITE reflecting the individual driving the red 1957 Plymouth was believed to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. WHITE stated he saw the red car at approximately 2:00 P.M. on the parking lot of the El Chico Restaurant. He stated he now believes the car to have been a red 1961 Falcon and he believed the automobile had 1963 Texas License PP 4537. WHITE said he observed the man driving the car from the side of his face, and when he saw television pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on the night of November 22, 1963, he believed the man he saw at the El Chico Restaurant parking lot was identical with OSWALD. He said the man sat in the car for a short period of time and then left at a high rate of speed, going west on Davis Street.

Mr. WHITE was advised that the license number furnished by him had been checked and ascertained to be assigned to the 1957 Plymouth automobile which had been observed by an FBI Agent and determined to be light blue over medium blue in color. Mr. WHITE was also advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been captured at the Texas Theater in Dallas at approximately 2:00 P.M., after having shot Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT at approximately 1:18 P.M. Mr. WHITE was further advised witnesses have stated they observed OSWALD fleeing from the scene of the TIPPIT shooting on foot and he was observed by other witnesses to enter the Texas Theater shortly after the shooting.

Mr. WHITE said he thought he had obtained the correct license number on the car, and, upon seeing OSWALD on television on the night of November 22, 1963, he thought OSWALD was possibly identical with the man he had seen driving the red automobile on the afternoon of November 22, 1963.

The following investigation was conducted by SA GEORGE N. DENTON:

On December 3, 1963, HENRY O. WYNEKEN, 913 Coral Street, Corpus Christi, Texas, advised that his mother-in-law, Mrs. O. E. LYNGE, Allen, Texas, visited with him over the past weekend. Mrs. LYNGE related that one of her daughters, Mrs. ROY HEFNER, who teaches in the public school system of Richardson, Texas, related to her than an unknown student at this Richardson school remarked several days after the assassination of the President, JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, that he, the student, was in the vicinity of downtown Dallas and saw someone that he now thinks was LEE HARVEY OSWALD get into a 1963 white Chevrolet Impala hardtop with no license plate. This reportedly happened a short time after the fatal shooting. Mr. WYNEKEN stated that he did not know if Mrs. HEFNER had contacted the Dallas Police Department or the FBI.

The following investigation was conducted by SA's VERNON MITCHEM and JOHN T. KESLER:

On December 5, 1963, A. M. ANDERSON, Principal, Lake Highland High School, 10301 Kingsley Road, Dallas, Texas, advised that Mrs. LILLIAN HEFNER was a teacher at Lake Highland but had been absent from school for the past two days due to the fact that her husband, ROY HEFNER, was in the hospital. He stated that he did not know when Mrs. HEFNER would return to school. He advised that Mrs. HEFNER's home address is on Keith Drive in Allen, Texas, and she could be telephonically contacted at SA 7-3426.

DAVID PENNINGTON, 9115 Livingshire, Dallas, Texas, age 13, was interviewed at the Lake Highland Junior High School, in the presence of Principal DAN LAIR.

DAVID PENNINGTON advised that on November 22, 1963, he was in the downtown area of Dallas, Texas, and witnessed the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

DAVID PENNINGTON advised that shortly after hearing the rifle shots fired, he saw a grey 1963 Super Sport Chevrolet, bearing no license plates, proceed immediately after the President's motorcade.

PENNINGTON, when questioned concerning the location of the 1963 Chevrolet shortly before the shooting, explained that the Chevrolet in question was parked on the north side of Elm Street, west of the Houston and Elm Street intersection.

PENNINGTON, when questioned concerning person or persons driving the aforementioned Chevrolet, advised he had been unable to observe person or persons operating same. He advised cars were parked all along Elm Street down to the Triple Underpass.

PENNINGTON advised he was accompanied by his brother, JOHN PENNINGTON, and SIDNEY HOLCOMB. After seeing the assassination of President KENNEDY, they immediately departed for Lake Highland Junior High School, arriving there at approximately 2:00 PM, at which time he advised he informed Mrs. LILLIAN HEFNER of the aforementioned assassination.

ALFRED SIDNEY HOLCOMB, 8931 Audelia, Dallas, Texas, age 15, was interviewed at Lake Highland Junior High School. HOLCOMB, when questioned concerning the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, advised the first information he had concerning the assassination was when he heard about it from an unknown individual somewhere between downtown Dallas and Lake Highland Junior High School.

HOLCOMB advised that he, DAVID PENNINGTON, and JOHN PENNINGTON had observed the Presidential Motorcade at the intersection of Lemmon and Inwood Drive, Dallas, Texas. After observing the motorcade, the three of them had lunch at Kip's Hamburger Stand, near the intersection of Lemmon and Inwood and thereafter proceeded back to Lake Highland Junior High School.

HOLCOMB advised he did not witness the assassination of President KENNEDY, but as soon as he, JOHN PENNINGTON and DAVID PENNINGTON heard of the assassination, DAVID suggested they that they tell everyone at school they had personally witnessed the assassination of President KENNEDY.

HOLCOMB advised according to various rumors around Lake Highland Junior High School, apparently DAVID PENNINGTON has been advising everyone that he, DAVID, witnessed the assassination. This is not true.

HOLCOMB advised that he was driving the vehicle in which he, DAVID and JOHN PENNINGTON rode to downtown Dallas, observed the Presidential Motorcade, and returned to Lake Highland Junior High School.

On November 25, 1963, Confidential Informant Dallas T-4 advised that he is personally unacquainted with suspect LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but is slightly acquainted with JACK RUBENSTEIN, having infrequently patronized his night clubs at Dallas, Texas, in the past. Informant knows nothing of RUBY other than his personal appearance.

Informant advised that a man possibly involved in the events of November 22-24, 1963, at Dallas, or with RUBY or OSWALD in the past is a "beatnik" known to associate with PAT KIRKWOOD, Jr. Informant could not recall the beatnik's name, other than CHARLIE.

CHARLIE is described by informant, who has met him, as of probably American birth, but of recent immigrant Middle-European stock. He is about 40 years; 5' 4" tall; 130 pounds, hair black, balding; wears small goatee beard; sloppy dresser; personally dirty; quiet in demeanor; has a lively gifted mind. CHARLIE has no apparent livelihood; but lends his mind to PAT KIRKWOOD, Jr., and lives off him and others in KIRKWOOD's circle. KIRKWOOD operated "The Cellar", a night club, Dallas-Fort Worth area, frequented by beatniks. KIRKWOOD's father was under Federal indictment about three or four years ago for gambling, after raid by Texas Rangers on his premises.

Informant believes CHARLIE and PAT may be involved with either RUBY or OSWALD simply because they are, from news and TV accounts, odd-ball, or "way-out" people.

CHARLIE departed Fort Worth about early spring, 1962. He traveled in Europe. He returned to the United States through South America, and via Matamoros, Tamaulipas, Mexico. PAT KIRKWOOD, Jr., and his wife, GAY LOVETTE PETTA, by pre-arrangement, met CHARLIE at Brownsville, Texas, where the trio spent about ten days together. They stayed at 25 Coria, in Brownsville, then the residence of a JOSEPH F. PETTA, a beauty parlor operator, and uncle of Mrs. PAT KIRKWOOD, Jr. (JOSEPH F. PETTA is reportedly now employed at Vernon's Beauty Shop, Camp Bowie Boulevard, Fort Worth, Texas.)

During CHARLIE's stay with the KIRKWOOD, JR.'s in Brownsville he was reported in possession of a walking stick, leather covered to conceal a long steel sword blade, which he got in Europe.

KIRKWOOD, JR., has a Dallas-Fort Worth reputation as "the daddy of beatniks". He appeared about four years ago in Life magazine's coverage of a beatnik protest demonstration in Burk Burnett Gardens, in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

KIRKWOOD, JR., subsequent to the meeting in Brownsville with CHARLIE, opened in November, 1962, at San Antonio, Texas, a companion night club, "The Cellar". CHARLIE helped him in this. "The Cellar", San Antonio, was later closed, when it was put "off limits" by the United States Air Force.

Further to the character of PAT KIRKWOOD, JR., source advised that about 1961 KIRKWOOD, JR., indicated that he could have a certain house in the Grand Prairie area "burned down for $35". This house was then up for sale, and KIRKWOOD indicated that he could easily burn the house for a cash-out on the insurance money. The house, which stood at 610 East 6th Street in Grand Prairie, has since been torn down.

Source said his purpose in furnishing the above information was to draw attention to CHARLIE and PAT KIRKWOOD, JR., as typical of low-grade night life in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Source is aware of no personal relationship between suspect OSWALD or KIRKWOOD, JR., other than that from current press and TV commentary OSWALD is indicated as possibly associated with odd-balls and beatnik types.

Source upon recontact could furnish no further specification for his above conclusions that CHARLIE and PAT KIRKWOOD might have had some past association with JACK RUBY and/or OSWALD. He stated he offered the above information because of the geographic proximity, and the seemingly odd-ball or beatnik qualities the four persons have in common. It is source's further impression that the Fair Play For Cuba Committee generally has "beatnik" adherents.

The following investigation was conducted by SA's BENJAMIN O. KEUTZER and MALON LUCAS JENNINGS at River Oaks, Texas:

On November 27, 1963, JOHN FRANKLIN HARDESTY, 1029 Banks Street, presently employed at "The Cellar", Fort Worth, owned by PAT KIRKWOOD, JR., advised LEE HARVEY OSWALD is not known to him, and he has no recollection of ever seeing him. HARDESTY worked for KIRKWOOD in San Antonio from about January 15, 1963, to March, 1963. He said "The Cellar" in San Antonio was opened in December, 1962. He advised that a CHARLES WOMPER WILLIAMS, who now lives in Burleson, possibly helped KIRKWOOD open "The Cellar" in San Antonio.

The following investigation was conducted on November 27, 1963, by SA's BENJAMIN O. KEUTZER and MALON LUCAS JENNINGS at Fort Worth, Texas:

PAT KIRKWOOD, JR., 3220 Cortez Street, owner of "The Cellar", Fort Worth, Texas, advised he is slightly acquainted with JACK RUBY, owner of the Carousel Club in Dallas. He stated that RUBY accompanied by some of his employees (strip girls) have in the past come to Fort Worth for entertainment in "The Cellar", which is the only after-hours place open in this area. He stated he has never had any discussion with RUBY, and RUBY has never caused any trouble in his place.

KIRKWOOD advised he is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

KIRKWOOD identified CHARLES ROBERT WILLIAMS, also known as "Womper", as the individual who traveled Europe and who would have been referred to as "CHARLIE". This individual helped him open "The Cellar" in San Antonio, Texas, in November, 1962.

CHARLES ROBERT WILLIAMS, Route 2, Old Alverado Highway, Burleson, Texas, mailing address in care of J. B. WILLIAMS, Fort Worth, Texas, brother, advised as follows:

He does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, does not know if he has ever met OSWALD or ever seen him.

During approximately 1960 and 1961, he toured Japan, Manila, Hong Kong, Singapore, India, and thence to Marseilles and Paris, France, and Munich, Germany, returning to the United States at port of entry, New York City, in the middle of 1961. He rode a bus to Fort Worth and then to Tuxpan, Mexico, where he joined PAT KIRKWOOD, JR., and wife. They stayed in Tuxpan for approximately one week and then spent three or four weeks in Monterey, Mexico. To the best of his recollection they returned to the United States through the port of entry at Matamoris, Mexico. WILLIAMS did not visit Mexico during the summer of 1962.

WILLIAMS helped KIRKWOOD open "The Cellar" in San Antonio on December 7, 1962, and worked there until it was closed in March, 1963. The only other time he worked for KIRKWOOD was in 1959 when KIRKWOOD opened "The Cellar" at Fort Worth.

WILLIAMS visited Tuxpan, Mexico, and Mexico City in the summer of 1963, returning to the United States in August, 1963. WILLIAMS has not been out of the United States until October 23, 1963, Saturday, when he and KIRKWOOD, and their dates spent the week end in Mexico.

Captain ROBERT ALLEN, Vice Squad, San Antonio, Texas, Police Department, advised that PAT KIRKWOOD, JR. opened the "Cellar" on December 7, 1962, at San Antonio, Texas, and ceased operation on April 4, 1963. The Cellar was located at 202 1/2 East Houston Street, and was considered by Captain ALLEN as a hang-out for some local hoodlums and accordingly frequent checks were made at this establishment and a number of arrests of individuals visiting this establishment were made during the period that it was open.

The records of the Vice Squad of the San Antonio Police Department reflect that PAT KIRKWOOD, JR. gave his address as 3220 Cortez Street, Fort Worth, Texas, and the following individuals assisted KIRKWOOD in the opening of this establishment which was considered a "Beatnick joint":

CHARLIE WILLIAMS
W. C. SIMMS
EUGENE JAMES PAUL, JR.

TEXAS

Other individuals who also assisted in the opening of this establishment but whose addresses were not listed and the home addresses not known were:

EUGENE CRUMB
JAMES HARRELL
ROLAND Z. REFT

TEXAS

Captain ALLEN stated that the father of KIRKWOOD, PAT KIRKWOOD, SR., allegedly resides in Fort Worth, Texas, and is a gambler. Captain ALLEN had no information as to the identity of any of these individuals who may have been acquainted with OSWALD, the assassinator of President KENNEDY.

VI. ALLEGATIONS REGARDING ACQUAINTANCESHIP OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD AND JACK L. RUBY

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 5, 1963

Mr. RICHARD L. SAUNDERS, Advertising Salesman for the "Dallas Morning News", home address 3553 High Vista, telephone number CH 7-9059, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed in the advertising section of the "Dallas Morning News" and he furnished the following information:

He was near the Triple Underpass in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963, at the time of the President's assassination. SAUNDERS' location was approximately 100 yards from the Texas School Book Depository Building. SAUNDERS was near the intersection of Elm Street and Stemmons Freeway, which is approximately 100 yards from the Texas School Book Depository Building. He said that after the President's car went by him to the hospital he drove to the "Dallas Morning News" building and went to his desk on the second floor of that building. He estimated that it took him a total of 10 minutes to arrive at his office after the President's car passed him and said this would make his arrival time at approximately 12:40 p.m.

He advised that when he came to the Advertising Section of the building, he saw JACK RUBY, who was standing near Mr. SAUNDERS' desk, and was not actually at that time sitting in SAUNDERS' chair. RUBY was "ashen white" in the face, and was visibly shocked when SAUNDERS first saw him. SAUNDERS felt that RUBY was probably more "shook up" than any of the other people in the office at that time.

JACK RUBY has habitually come to the "Dallas Morning News" on Fridays for a long period of time and it was certainly not unusual for him to be in the Advertising Section at that time.

Mr. SAUNDERS believes RUBY has always been a person striving for recognition but he wanted this recognition for doing the right thing. SAUNDERS first called on JACK RUBY six or seven years ago when RUBY was operating the Vegas Club and SAUNDERS has the impression that RUBY has always tried to run a clean show. RUBY apparently tries to keep his shows on a little higher plane than the average stripper show.

SAUNDERS was of the distinct impression that RUBY was genuinely shocked and was in fact dazed after hearing of the President's assassination. He said that if it turns out that RUBY had any connection with OSWALD, it will "be the biggest error I have ever made in my judgment of a person." When SAUNDERS originally started contacting JACK RUBY in 1957 for RUBY's advertisements, he gave RUBY credit on occasion for his (SAUNDERS') convenience. He never doubted JACK RUBY's word at any time and RUBY never turned out to be a bad credit risk but always paid off exactly as he had agreed. To SAUNDERS' knowledge, RUBY never carried a gun on his person except on occasion when RUBY would be carrying money. He has seen RUBY on numerous occasions at his desk in the club counting money and generally RUBY would have a gun with him either on the table or in a drawer of the table. On one occasion he saw RUBY with a sizeable sum of money in a bag and saw RUBY put a gun in the same bag. He does not believe RUBY carried a gun unless RUBY had large sums of money in his possession.

RUBY was known as being a "woman chaser" according to SAUNDERS and was believed to be particularly interested in the strippers who worked for him.

RUBY was known by SAUNDERS to respect authority and the President of the United States was theoretically the highest authority in the United States. For this reason, SAUNDERS believes RUBY was particularly shaken up over the President's assassination, and this could have been the reason that in SAUNDERS' opinion that RUBY eventually killed OSWALD. He said that RUBY could have continued to brood over the fact that OSWALD shot the President. He further said that on the morning of the shooting of OSWALD, RUBY may have had the gun on because he might have had a large sum of money on his person and in SAUNDERS' opinion could have gone to the police department without intending to kill OSWALD.

He characterized RUBY as being a highly nervous individual but he was of the opinion that RUBY did make some efforts to upgrade himself and his shows. He pointed out that only a short time before the assassination RUBY had told him that he (RUBY) had recently gotten an injunction against other burlesque show operators so that they could not advertise their Amateur Nights. He advised that the Amateur Nights had been advertised and on these nights either girls who had never stripped before or girls who would hold themselves out as never having stripped before would put on shows. RUBY was well pleased that he had arranged to stop the advertisement of these nights.

SAUNDERS related that during the seven years he has known RUBY he has carried on conversations with him quite frequently. At no time did RUBY ever discuss or mention politics or President KENNEDY.

He also informed that he knew of no relationship between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

GEORGIA MAYOR, Secretary in the Advertising Division, "Dallas Morning News", home address 115 West 7th Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 22, 1963, she returned from her lunch hour at approximately 12:30 p.m. She said that when she returned JACK RUBY was sitting in a chair directly in front of her desk. She said she is not sure which way he was looking but she had a faint impression that he was looking out at the scene where President KENNEDY was assassinated. She emphasized that she is not sure of this, however. She pointed out that in the particular chair where RUBY was sitting the Texas School Book Depository Building was clearly visible and further that the particular window from which the assassin shot is clearly visible.

Miss MAYOR stated that she had received information as she was returning from her lunch hour that the President had been shot. She stated that HAL COLEY had furnished her this information and she said that after stopping briefly downstairs to cash a check she came directly to the advertising room by the elevator. She said further that DICK SAUNDERS, the employee whose desk is in front of hers, and in whose chair RUBY was sitting, can verify the above information.

Miss MAYOR stated that when she first saw RUBY she did not notice him looking particularly dazed or pale but that at approximately 1:00 p.m. she again saw RUBY at JOHN NEWNAM's desk and at that time he seemed very dazed. She advised that he just stared into space when she noticed him at NEWNAM's desk. Miss MAYOR informed that she does not know the significance of RUBY being at that one particular spot where he could observe the assassination scene and admitted that she realized the distance was approximately 600 to 800 yards from the "Morning News" Building to the Texas School Book Depository Building.

DON J. CAMPBELL, Advertising Salesman, "Dallas Morning News", home address 5514 Swiss, telephone number TA 1-0792, furnished the following information:

JACK RUBY has in the past for a number of years been a regular advertising customer with the "Dallas Morning News". It is the usual thing for him to be in the Dallas News Building with his advertisements on a Friday morning.

On Friday, November 22, 1963, at approximately 12:00 noon, CAMPBELL returned to the Advertising Office and JACK RUBY was in the office at that time. CAMPBELL heard from some unrecalled source that RUBY ate breakfast at the cafeteria of that building on that particular day. CAMPBELL, who has handled RUBY's accounts for the past few years, and RUBY discussed business and at the conclusion of that business, RUBY talked to CAMPBELL about his, RUBY's, business.

On this particular day, RUBY mentioned what a "lousy" business he was in and talked about some of the problems of running a night club. He spent some time talking about some of the physical fights he had been in in connection with his night club and informed CAMPBELL that he, RUBY, was a very capable fighter. At that time he made a statement to CAMPBELL that any time he felt like he was fixing to have trouble with someone, he would always get a gun and have it on his person.

RUBY did not at this time or at any other time to CAMPBELL's recollection, mention anything about President KENNEDY, the parade which was going on at that time, or discuss any kind of politics.

CAMPBELL had another customer he had to see and left the building at approximately 12:25 p.m. CAMPBELL advised he did not return to his office before RUBY's departure. He further advised that while he was in the office RUBY was not near the desk of Miss GEORGIA MAYOR to his (CAMPBELL's) knowledge.

JOHN NEWNAM, Advertising Salesman, "Dallas Morning News", home address 3124 Kingston, Dallas, telephone number FE 1-8090, advised that he watched the Presidential parade on November 22, 1963, at Austin and Main Streets by Sanger-Harris Brothers. He said he returned to his office on the second floor of the "Dallas Morning News" Building at approximately 12:40 p.m. He furnished the following additional information:

When he arrived in the office, JACK RUBY was sitting at NEWNAM's desk. A short time after he, NEWNAM, sat down, JERRY COLEY came into the office and stated that the President had been shot. Everyone in the room, of course, was perturbed. A short time after receiving this news, RUBY called his sister and while he was talking to her he told Mr. NEWNAM to listen. He put the receiver to Mr. NEWNAM's ear and Mr. NEWNAM heard the party on the other end which party he feels sure is RUBY's sister. From the gist of the talk, she was obviously very upset.

When NEWNAM first came into the office and saw RUBY, RUBY did not appear to be particularly upset and he does not believe RUBY had heard of the shooting at that time. A short time later, NEWNAM looked up from his desk and saw RUBY leaving the office. NEWNAM could not state the exact time that he saw RUBY leaving, but he estimated it to be at approximately 1:30 p.m.

BILLIE A. RAY, Advertising salesman, Dallas "Morning News," home address 157 Arbor Lane, Lancaster, Texas, telephone number 221-5233, furnished the following information:

On November 22, 1963, the date of the assassination of President KENNEDY, RAY had returned from lunch and had been in the office for approximately 10 minutes when one of the boys in the office ran in and remarked that President KENNEDY had been shot. RAY recalls seeing JACK RUBY sitting in DON CAMPBELL'S chair which chair is directly in front of the desk of Miss GEORGIA MAYOR. At the time RAY noticed RUBY, RUBY was facing away from the window of the building. It is not unusual in RAY'S opinion for RUBY to be where he was since he has been around the office for so long a period of time doing business.

RAY further recalled seeing JACK RUBY near a small TV set in the office listening to the details of the President's assassination. JACK RUBY had a very strange look on his face at that time and seemed to stare without comprehending the events.

Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, telephone BL 3-1628, advised that she has known LEE OSWALD and his wife, MARINA OSWALD, since about February 1963. She stated that he never exhibited any interest in night clubs or in striptease joints and recalled that on one occasion in September 1963 RUTH PAINE was in New Orleans and she exhibited a curiosity about the striptease joints along Bourbon Street. She and MARINA OSWALD with their children toured Bourbon Street together but LEE OSWALD was never interested and stayed home and did the dishes.

She examined a photograph of JACK RUBY and stated that she has never seen this individual in the company of LEE or MARINA OSWALD and has never heard either one of them mention his name.

She advised that LEE OSWALD showed very little interest in drinking and she does not believe he drinks at all and thus she is of the opinion he would not be in a night club or beer joint.

GEORGE A. BOUHE, 4740 Homer, Apartment O, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his place of residence.

Mr. BOUHE was asked if he was aware of any relationship whatsoever between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY. Mr. BOUHE stated that he met LEE HARVEY OSWALD approximately a year and a half ago through OSWALD's wife. He pointed out that he had made it a point of meeting Mrs. OSWALD since he had become aware that she was from his own home town in Russia. In this connection, he stated that he had left Russia in 1924 and has been residing in the United States since that time.

Mr. BOUHE was emphatic in stating that he had never even heard the name JACK RUBY until the name appeared in the paper following the shooting of OSWALD by JACK RUBY. He said that neither LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor his wife, MARINA, had ever mentioned JACK RUBY in his presence. He likewise stated that in his contacts with the Russian colony in Texas, he had never heard the name of JACK RUBY mentioned.

It was pointed out to Mr. BOUHE that JACK RUBY had within the past few years resided at 4749 Homer Street. BOUHE pointed out that all residences on the Homer Street in the 4700 block are of the apartment building type. He said that the apartment which he occupies rents for $75.00 a month, whereas the apartments at 4749 rent for $200.00 a month. He said he has never been in contact with individuals residing in the apartments across the street from the apartment in which he resides.

Mr. BOUHE said that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had never resided on Homer Street or anywhere in the area of the 4700 block of Homer to his knowledge. He pointed out that when he first met OSWALD, he was residing at 2703 Mercedes in Fort Worth, Texas. When OSWALD first came to Dallas he resided at the YMCA for a couple of ~~years~~ weeks. Following his residence at the YMCA, he said OSWALD secured a room in the Oak Cliff area of Dallas, but he could not recall this address nor did he have a record of it in his papers. At this point, Mr. BOUHE produced a card on which he kept addresses, and this card bore the notation dated November 1, 1963, 602 Elsbeth , Oak Cliff, for OSWALD and a notation dated June 1, 1963, reflecting an address of 4907 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana (Mr. BOUHE said he received this information second hand).

Mr. BOUHE advised that he was not too well acquainted with OSWALD, repeating that he met him through his wife. According to BOUHE, OSWALD frequently beat Mrs. OSWALD, and he recalled that on one occasion when he and some other members of the Russian colony had visited the OSWALD residence they had found it practically devoid of furniture, with the young child sleeping on the floor. Accordingly, he and other members of the group felt sorry for the OSWALDs and between them secured some child's furniture and clothing, along with milk and other groceries for the family. Even while they were making this material available to the OSWALD family, he said that OSWALD was extremely ungrateful and beligerent, stating that his family did not need such items even though it was very obvious that they did.

Mr. BOUHE advised that to his knowledge OSWALD never had any money of consequence except on those occasions immediately after he had cashed his weekly pay check.

BECKY JONES, 115 North Adams Street, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, where she is employed as a cigarette girl.

JONES advised that she has known JACK RUBY for the past four months as he hired her to go to work in his club at that time.

JONES stated that she last saw RUBY on Thursday, November 21, 1963, and therefore had no opportunity to talk with him regarding the death of President KENNEDY. She advised that the Master of Ceremonies at the Carousel Club had made the statement that he had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Carousel Club strictly for publicity reasons; that no one else in the club has said that they saw OSWALD there. JONES viewed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised that she had never seen him before.

JONES stated that RUBY was friendly with numerous policemen and that he liked the police. She knew of no specific police officers or newsmen with whom he was particularly familiar or friendly.

KAREN BENNETT KARLIN, also known as "Little Lynn", 3809 Meadowbrook, Fort Worth, Texas, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, where she is employed as an exotic dancer.

Mrs. KARLIN advised that three months ago she began dancing as an amateur; that she began this employment as she is pregnant and her common law husband, BRUCE KARLIN, is unemployed.

She stated that she last saw JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club on Thursday night, November 21, 1963. She did not talk to him at all the following day as the club was closed, however, she thought that the club would be open Saturday night so she went to work only to find the club closed. She called RUBY as she did not have enough money for transportation back to her home in Fort Worth. She asked RUBY for enough money for transportation, and RUBY called the man at the garage next door to his club and told him to give her $5.00 which he did. She called RUBY again on Sunday, November 24, 1963, at 10 or 10:30 a.m. as she needed money to pay her rent. He told her that he would send her $25.00 for her rent by Western Union. At about one or two p.m. on Sunday, November 24, 1963, Mrs. KARLIN called Western Union in Fort Worth and was told that the money order was waiting in the Western Union Office. Mrs. KARLIN accompanied by her husband, BRUCE, then went to Western Union in Fort Worth and obtained the $25.00 which had been forwarded to KAREN BENNETT, in care of Western Union, Fort Worth, Texas. KAREN used her Texas driver's license as identification.

At the time she talked with RUBY, Sunday morning, she asked him if the club was going to be open Sunday night. He became upset regarding this then talked harshly to her indicating that he did not feel she was showing the proper respect toward the deceased President. She stated that during her telephone conversation he sounded vague and preoccupied. Mrs. KARLIN advised that she knows nothing of JACK RUBY's social or private life; that he was thoughtful and respectful to her.

She was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she advised that he was not known to her; that he has never been in the Carousel Club to her knowledge. She advised that RUBY knows many policemen but that she knows no particular policeman or newsman with whom he is friendly.

Mrs. KARLIN pointed out that it is very difficult to identify anyone in the club from the stage due to the lighting arrangements.

She stated that she knew a "LARRY" and that he worked at the Carousel Club for RUBY for a short time as a light operator. She described LARRY as white male, approximately 23 years old, sandy hair, 5'8" to 5'10", slender build with four upper front teeth missing. She said that LARRY attempted to impress her by showing her a badge and telling her that he was a policeman.

BONNIE LOUISE HETHCOAT KELLY, 3500 Armstrong, Highland Park, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1213½ Commerce Street, Dallas, where she is employed as a cocktail waitress.

KELLY advised she was hired by JACK RUBY in March, 1963, as she answered an "ad" in the newspaper. She stated that RUBY was good to her; that he advanced her money on occasion, and appeared to be genuinely concerned regarding her welfare and the welfare of her children. She stated she never dated him and he never asked her to do so. She heard him make a statement at one time that the girls in the club probably would not go out with him if he asked them.

KELLY stated that everyone at the Carousel Club knows that the Master of Ceremonies, BILL DE MAR, lied when he said he had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the Carousel Club. She said that if OSWALD had ever been at the club one of the waitresses would have remembered him; also, that from the Master of Ceremonies' position on the stage, one cannot see into the audience, due to the lighting arrangements in the club.

KELLY was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she advised she had never seen him at the Carousel Club or associating with JACK RUBY.

KELLY advised she knows none of the policemen by name with whom JACK was friendly by name; that JACK liked all policemen and many of them came to the club.

JOYCE LEE WITHERSPOON MC DONALD, also known as "Joy Dale", of 424½ West Tenth Street, Apartment 3, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street where she is employed as an exotic dancer.

MC DONALD advised that she has known JACK RUBY for the past two years as two years ago she went to work for RUBY's sister as a waitress at the Vegas Club in Dallas. She began employment at the Carousel Club as a stripper in August, 1963.

MC DONALD described RUBY as a friendly, helpful person and stated that she had never heard him discuss politics other than that he made it known that he approved of President KENNEDY's physical fitness program. She advised that she last saw RUBY at 3 o'clock Friday evening, November 22, 1963, at which time she went to the Carousel Club. RUBY was sitting in the club crying. She mentioned to him what a terrible thing it was that the President had been killed, and he told her not to talk about it as it would only upset him further. She thought his actions to be strange at the time as she had never seen him cry before; that he usually attempted to project himself as a rough, tough individual.

MC DONALD was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she advised that she had never seen him in the Carousel Club and that she doubted very much if the Master of Ceremonies at the club, BILL DE MAR, had ever seen OSWALD there as it is very difficult to distinguish faces in the club due to the lighting arrangements.

MC DONALD stated that RUBY knows numerous policemen; that he liked all policemen, however, personally knew Detective BOB CARROLL of the Dallas Police Department and also knew TONY ZALPY (phonetic), a reporter with the Dallas Morning News. She stated that she knew of RUBY's association with CARROLL and ZALPY as each had come to the club on numerous occasions and had gone to RUBY's office to discuss matters with him.

According to MC DONALD, around October 11, 1963, RUBY met a fellow by the name of LARRY (LNU) and got him a

After the fair had ended, JACK RUBY gave LARRY a job at the Carousel Club operating the stage lights from about the middle of October until November 23, 1963, when LARRY departed from Dallas, and his present whereabouts is unknown to Miss MC DONALD. She stated that she did not know LARRY's full name nor did she know anything concerning his background. Several days prior to his departure from Dallas, he had indicated that he was "getting itchy feet" and was ready to move on.

LARRY was described as white male American, about 23, sandy hair, 5'8" to 5'10", slender, and with four front upper teeth [redacted] missing.

MAYRILYN MIRANDA MOONE, 3120 Healy Street, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, where she is employed as an exotic dancer.

Miss MOONE advised she has known JACK RUBY for approximately four years as she has worked as a waitress in numerous clubs in Dallas including the Vegas Club which is operated by RUBY's sister. She booked two weeks ago with RUBY as a stripper.

Miss MOONE described JACK RUBY as follows:

She said that he gave the first impression that he was a playboy and lady's man; that he "came on strong", however, she later thought him to have homosexual tendencies and was overly aggressive toward people to give the opposite impression and to cover up a bad inferiority complex. She stated that sometime after she had first met RUBY he began calling her on the telephone, and he would recite poetry to her which was very suggestive and almost obscene. She stated that he talked a great deal regarding sex but again she stated that she felt it was merely to cover up his homosexual tendencies. She said that RUBY also telephoned a girl friend of hers, ELAINE ROGERS, who presently lives at 1728 North Fitzhue Street, and talked to her over the telephone regarding sex in a similar manner.

Miss MOONE advised that she knew of no particular policeman or newsman whom RUBY knew personally as it was her understanding that he knew a number of Dallas police officers.

Miss MOONE was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she advised that she had never seen OSWALD. She said that it would be very difficult for anyone on stage at the club to recognize faces in the crowd due to the lighting arrangements. Miss MOONE advised that she did not feel that RUBY shot OSWALD out of any sense of patriotic duty but felt it was just another attempt on his part to make everyone think he was a "big man".

KAREN GREEN WILLIAMS who resides at 2064 Kirby, Apartment D, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, at which time she furnished the following information:

Mrs. WILLIAMS was born and grew up in Dade City, Florida, and lived in Dade City until June 8, 1963, at which time she came to Dallas and married BILLY DON WILLIAMS. Her husband up until November 15, 1963, was employed by Melnik Construction Company in Dallas and is presently unemployed. On Tuesday evening, November 19, 1963, Mrs. WILLIAMS and her husband went to the Carousel Club in answer to an ad which appeared in a local newspaper and applied for a job as a strip-tease dancer. Mrs. WILLIAMS talked to RUBY on that evening, and he hired her for $90.00 per week.

The last time Mrs. WILLIAMS saw JACK RUBY was at closing time on Thursday night, November 21, 1963, and she has not seen him nor heard from him since that time.

Mrs. WILLIAMS was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at which time she stated that OSWALD was unknown to her, and she was certain that she had never seen him in the Carousel Club. She stated that it is almost impossible to recognize anyone in the audience due to the brightness of the lights on the stage. Mrs. WILLIAMS knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life or political beliefs as her brief acquaintanceship with him has been on a strict employer-employee basis. Mrs. WILLIAMS advised that she dances under the name of FELISA PRELL as she did not want it publicly known that she was working as a strip-tease dancer. During her previous stay at the Carousel Club she has not noted any specific police officers or newsmen with whom RUBY was particularly friendly.

BILL DE MAR, presently residing at Shady Oaks Motel, Cabin 8, located at 1512 Fort Worth Avenue, RI 7-0065, advised he is employed as a ventriloquist and for the past two weeks has worked at the Carousel Club located at 1312 1/2 Commerce Street, this being the fourth time he has worked at this spot. He, before coming to Dallas, has worked at the T-Bone, Wichita, Kanaas. He advised his whereabouts would always be known to his mother, Mrs. W. D. CROWE, 824 West Idlewilde Drive, Evansville, Indiana, HA 3-7245.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, New Orleans Police Department No. 112723, taken August 9, 1963, was exhibited to DE MAR, and DE MAR said he believes this is the man he saw seated among the patrons of the Carousel Club "one night last week." DE MAR advised he works seven nights each week and, therefore, is unable from his recollection to determine which particular night of the week he observed OSWALD seated in the group around the runway in the club and due to the seating arrangement at this club, he, DE MAR, would be unable to say whether or not OSWALD had a party or group with him at the time he was seen.

DE MAR stated he, in addition to his ventriloquist act, puts on a memory demonstration and he believes OSWALD was among a number of persons at the club that was used by him in performing this memory demonstration.

DE MAR advised to the best of his recollection he had never seen OSWALD at the club previously and had no information as to any associations that OSWALD might have at the Carousel Club, Dallas.

Mrs. A. C. JOHNSON, 1026 North Beckley Street, advised that she and her husband owned the building at that address in which she rents several rooms on a regular basis. Mrs. JOHNSON furnished the following information:

On October 14, 1963, a young man using the name O. H. LEE rented a room at that address, which room is a tiny room opening out onto the dining room and living room of the building. Mrs. JOHNSON was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD whom she identified as the individual renting this room. The man told her that he came there to rent a room in order to be near his work. He stated he would be returning to Irving, Texas, each weekend.

Mrs. JOHNSON advised that OSWALD regularly left the house early during the morning hours to go to work and would return about 6:00 p.m. from work. He usually made one or more telephone calls from the telephone located in the dining room section of the house. All of these calls were local calls and he made no long distance calls. In each instance, he made the calls himself and at no time did he receive a telephone call. She could not follow the conversations inasmuch as he always spoke in a foreign language which she could not identify.

While residing there, OSWALD carried on practically no conversation with her or with the other individuals living there, and to her knowledge, never had any visitors. He spent most of his time, in fact about 95 per cent of the time, in his room where she believes he did quite a bit of reading. Occasionally, he would come to the living room and watch television with others for a few minutes at a time, during which time he would not converse with the other people. She said OSWALD appeared to be a hard working man, neatly dressed, and to the best of her knowledge, neither drank alcoholic beverages nor smoked. He appeared to be a timid type of individual but, in her opinion, not a good mixer. She stated she never knew he was married since he furnished no information concerning his background. He usually brought food to the house where he would prepare and eat his meals in his room. Practically every weekend he would be away from the house. He would leave his room on Friday morning and would return to the house after work on Monday evening. There were two exceptions to this routine. On the weekend of Sunday, November 17, 1963, he remained at that address over the weekend. He was absent from his room on the night of Thursday, November 21, 1963.

Mrs. JOHNSON was shown a photograph of JACK RUBY. She stated she is sure she has never seen this individual and that he has never been in her house. She repeated that to her knowledge OSWALD never had a guest at this house.

Mrs. ALLEN LEWIS, 2514 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information:

Upon viewing a photograph of JACK RUBY, she stated she has never seen this individual to her knowledge and has no information concerning him.

Upon viewing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she advised she had seen this individual on one or two occasions under the following circumstances: Several weeks ago, she learned a woman of foreign birth began residing with her child across the street from Mrs. LEWIS at 2515 West 5th Street, the home of RUTH PAINE. She understood that her husband was working somewhere in Dallas and sometimes came to visit his wife. On October 27, 1963, she noticed a man resembling OSWALD's photograph, whom she presumed was OSWALD, sitting in a lawn chair in the yard of Mrs. PAINE. Some children were playing in the yard and she does not recall any other individuals in contact with him at that time. She believes she had seen him previously sometime in October, 1963, date unrecalled, one morning when he came out of the house and entered an automobile which had just pulled up, which car was driven by a man who in no way fits the description of RUBY. This car was an old car, a black Chevrolet. The men drove off and she has not seen the driver since. She presumed the man picked OSWALD up to take him to work. She is not sure the man who left the house was OSWALD, but is sure he was not Mr. PAINE.

When she and Mr. LEWIS began residing here in May, 1963, she learned that Mrs. PAINE and her husband were separated. Mr. PAINE came back on several occasions to visit her during the week ends. She talked to him only on one occasion, namely, during the afternoon of November 24, 1963, shortly after the murder of OSWALD. PAINE stated he wanted to talk with them, but did not specify his purpose. She surmises that he wanted to apologize for the events which had occured at Dallas relative to the assassination of President KENNEDY, inasmuch as OSWALD had been visiting in his home and OSWALD's wife had been living there. He did not mention OSWALD or the tragedy.

The following individuals all of whom live in the immediate vicinity of the residence of Mrs. MICHAEL PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, were exhibited photographs of JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD by SA JOSEPH G. Mrs. BILLY W. MORSE, 2534 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information:

During the afternoon of October 27, 1963, she was visiting her cousin, Mrs. ALLEN LEWIS, at 2514 West 5th Street. Around 5:30 or 6:00 PM, she recalls seeing a man sitting in a lawn chair across the street at 2515 West 5th Street. He was alone except for several small children playing in the yard. She recalls that this man resembled the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but is not sure he was the same man.

Upon viewing a photograph of JACK RUBY, she stated she is not certain she has seen this man, but believes she may have seen him on one occasion during the Summer of 1963 when a man resembling his photograph came next door to her home and picked up her neighbor, BILL SIMMONS, who was playing in a combo in one of RUBY's night clubs. This man may have been RUBY. She is certain, however, that she has never seen RUBY and OSWALD together.

JOSEPH McREE, Resident Secretary, Downtown YMCA, 605 North Ervay, advised that he has been interviewed previously by the FBI concerning OSWALD and has furnished the information below to the FBI.

He stated that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY personally but has seen JACK RUBY in the Y on a number of occasions, since he was a member of the Health Club and had been a resident at the Y about 10 or 12 years ago when he first came from Chicago. He stated that he has never seen OSWALD or RUBY together that he could recall.

GERALD L. JENSEN, 9834 Twin Creek Drive, Dallas, Assistant Executive, Downtown YMCA, 605 North Ervay, advised that he has been interviewed previously by the FBI about JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that JACK RUBY had been a member of their Health Club until about two months ago when his membership lapsed. He stated that RUBY had lived at the Y approximately 10 or 12 years ago when he first came from Chicago. He said that he did not know either OSWALD or RUBY personally, but had seen RUBY working out with weights at the Health Club on a number of occasions. He stated he talked to RUBY at one time and he seemed personable enough, and when he learned RUBY had shot OSWALD, he could not believe it because he did not believe that this was the sort of man that would have done such a thing. He said that according to the Resident Manager or Secretary, OSWALD had stayed at the Y on October 3, 1963. He said that he believed the Resident Manager had mentioned this to the FBI previously. He has never seen OSWALD and RUBY together as far as he knew or could recall.

ROY McWHORTER advised he is the City Servant for the Jehovah Witnesses in the Dallas area. He also advised he resides at 2948 Valley View, Dallas, and there are approximately 15 Jehovah Witnesses congregations in the Dallas area. Each one of these congregations maintains its own records regarding members and there are no central records for the Dallas area or for the United States.

According to McWHORTER, a 5 x 7 membership card is initiated and maintained on each member after the member has stayed a sufficient length of time to be baptized into the Jehovah Witnesses religion. This card is maintained in the files of the organization to which the member has just been baptized and never leaves these files until the member is transferred due to his business or for personal reason to another congregation in a different section of Dallas or a different city in the United States. At this time the card is mailed from one congregation to the other and it is never carried on the person of the member. He also stated this card shows the background information regarding a member and his progress in the Jehovah Witnesses congregation.

McWHORTER further added the only time the name of a Jehovah Witness would appear on one of their manuals or books would be in a case where the member was acting in the capacity of a lecturer to other members. McWHORTER stated he is positive that had LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his wife been a member of the Jehovah Witnesses in the Dallas area he is positive due to his position in the organization he would have had knowledge of the membership.

JOE R. FRANKLIN, Texas Department of Corrections number 172094 was interviewed on December 2, 1963, at the Wynne Prison Farm, Texas Department of Corrections, where he is an inmate presently serving two years for forgery.

FRANKLIN stated that in the last two weeks of October, 1962 while he was employed by the Fox and Jacobs Construction Company in Dallas, he had occasion to visit a blood bank located on Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas. He sat next to a man for one hour prior to giving his blood and upon leaving, this same man was still seated in the waiting room. FRANKLIN asked this man to accompany him to a tavern and they proceeded to a tavern three blocks from the blood bank on Commerce Street. This man identified himself to FRANKLIN as LEE OSWALD. While in the tavern, the owner came over and said, "Hi, LEE". OSWALD thereafter allegedly introduced this owner to FRANKLIN as JACK RUBY.

After a few hours of drinking, FRANKLIN took the person known as OSWALD to visit OSWALD's wife, who was separated from him and residing at a rooming house in west Dallas.

FRANKLIN claimed he happened to meet OSWALD two more times while OSWALD was standing at the corner of Inwood Avenue in Dallas and FRANKLIN gave him a ride to Farmer's Branch. On one occasion OSWALD gave FRANKLIN a book from the Jehovah's Witnesses and OSWALD claimed to be a member of this group.

FRANKLIN acknowledged that he has been committed to various institutions in the past for "nervous disorders" and a drinking problem.

FRANKLIN also claimed that in 1956, he uncovered information that was vitally important to the NATO alliance while serving in the United States Army in Italy. FRANKLIN concluded he is postive after having read the

Mrs. JESSE JAMES GARNER advised that she did not know of any rooming house in which LEE HARVEY OSWALD resided, and his only place of residence known to her is the apartment which he resided at 4905 Magazine Street. She said that shortly before OSWALD was arrested by the New Orleans Police Department, she observed two posters which read "Hands Off Cuba" hanging on the front porch of the OSWALD apartment. She called this to the attention of her husband, and Mr. GARNER made OSWALD remove the pamphlets.

Mrs. GARNER said that the station wagon which brought Mrs. OSWALD and the child to New Orleans was the same one which picked up Mrs. OSWALD and the baby when they left New Orleans. This station wagon was driven by a lady and had a Texas license plate on it. She did not recall the license number. Mrs. GARNER stated that she had seen photographs of JACK RUBY on television and in the newspapers and that she never observed RUBY in New Orleans and that she knows of no connection or association between OSWALD and RUBY.

JESSE JAMES GARNER advised that he observed the station wagon with Texas license plate in which Mrs. OSWALD and the baby departed. He said this station wagon was cream colored and was driven by a lady who had two small children. He said that he did not obtain the license number but did observe that it was a Texas license plate. He advised that he has seen photographs of JACK RUBY in the newspapers and on television and that he has never seen him in New Orleans and that he knows of no connection between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. GARNER stated that shortly before OSWALD was arrested by the New Orleans Police Department, probably the day before, Mrs. GARNER told him that OSWALD had two posters attached to the screen porch of his apartment at 4905 Magazine Street. This occurred sometime between 4:30 and 5:00 p.m. after GARNER got home from work. He said that he went over to the OSWALD apartment and observed the posters which read "Hands Off Cuba." He told OSWALD to remove the posters, and OSWALD asked him, "Who rejected?" GARNER replied that he objected and that if OSWALD did not remove the posters, he would have to move.

GARNER related that OSWALD immediately took the two posters down. Mr. GARNER said that he did not know of any other place of residence which OSWALD had in New Orleans, other than the apartment in which he lived at 4905 Magazine Street.

MYRTLE EVANS, 1910 Prytania Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, was interviewed at her place of residence and advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD contacted her relative to an apartment during the first week of May, 1963. She advised that at this time she and OSWALD spent about three hours together conversing mainly about OSWALD's family.

She advised that OSWALD told her that he (OSWALD) was currently living with his aunt on French Street. She stated OSWALD did not say anything to her about living in a rooming house and that she knew of none in which OSWALD resided prior to his occupancy of the Magazine St. apartment. She stated she knows of no station wagon picking up OSWALD at a New Orleans rooming house nor does she know of any landlady obtaining communist literature from OSWALD's room. She advised she was under the distinct impression that OSWALD had been residing with his aunt prior to the time that he occupied the Magazine Street apartment.

Mrs. CHARLES F. MURRET, 757 French Street, furnished the following information: MRS. CHARLES F. MURRET NEW ORLEANS, LA.

She knows nothing concerning her nephew, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, ever living in any rooming house. She knows nothing about any landlady finding communist literature in his room and requesting him to move. She stated she had seen on television the landlady of the Magazine Street apartment where LEE and his family had lived while in New Orleans in the spring and summer of 1963, and the landlady said she had asked LEE to remove a pro-Castro sign from the front of his apartment which LEE did. Mrs. MURRET saw no communist literature in LEE's possession while he stayed at her house for about a week after he arrived in New Orleans in late April or early May, 1963, prior to moving to the apartment. She knows of no other place where he lived in New Orleans after his arrival in the spring.

She knows of no connection between LEE OSWALD and JACK RUBY. She does not know and had never heard of JACK RUBY prior to RUBY shooting LEE. The only station wagon she saw in connection with LEE OSWALD was the station wagon which a lady was driving who brought LEE's wife, MARINA, and child, to the MURRET home to meet LEE and who then drove LEE and his family to the Magazine Street apartment that LEE had rented. LEE told Mrs. MURRET the woman was the woman with whom his wife had been staying in Texas. Mrs. MURRET may have been told the woman's name but does not recall. She now assumes her name is Mrs. PAYNE, inasmuch as newspaper accounts have stated MARINA had been staying at Mrs. PAYNE's home in Texas.

Miss MARILYN MURRET, 757 French Street, cousin of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, advised as follows:

OSWALD arrived at the home of her mother, 757 French Street, where MARILYN lives, in the spring of 1963. OSWALD advised that he had come from Texas where his wife and child were staying at the home of a woman who speaks Russian. OSWALD stayed at the MURRET home for about a week until he had obtained a job and rented an apartment on Magazine Street. She does not know the address of this apartment. It is the only place she knows of that OSWALD rented. She saw on television the landlady of this apartment who stated she asked her husband to request OSWALD to remove a poster or leaflet, which apparently was in praise of CASTRO or Cuba. This was apparently pasted or hung somewhere on the front of the apartment OSWALD had rented. As best she could recall this television interview, the landlady said her husband told OSWALD that if he did not remove the poster or leaflet that he would have to move. OSWALD removed it. Miss MURRET was not aware of any room OSWALD had rented or of any communist literature found in the room. She stated that if there is such a rumor it was probably confused with the above incident.

She does not know of any contacts between OSWALD and JACK RUBY. She had never heard RUBY's name mentioned prior to the murder of OSWALD by RUBY. The only station wagon she is aware of that has any connection with OSWALD is the station wagon which was driven by the lady from Texas, who brought OSWALD's wife and child to New Orleans. She did not see this station wagon herself, although she was at home when the woman arrived with OSWALD's wife and child. Her mother told her they had arrived in a station wagon. MARILYN was in the house getting ready to go out and this woman came into the house for a few minutes, and she was introduced to her but she did not recall her name. She assumes it was the Mrs. PAYNE who was reported in the newspaper as being the woman at whose house OSWALD's wife and child had stayed.

JOHN M. MURRET, 6622 Louis XXIV Street, advised as follows:

New Orleans, La

He is a cousin of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Sometime in the spring of 1963, OSWALD arrived at the home of his mother at 757 French Street, where MURRET was living at the time. OSWALD stayed at the house about a week and then rented an apartment on Magazine Street. The Magazine Street apartment was the only place he knows of where OSWALD lived after moving from MURRET's parents' house.

MURRET knows nothing concerning the finding of any communist literature in OSWALD's room and a landlady requesting him to move. MURRET saw a television interview in which the landlady of the Magazine Street apartment stated that she had requested her husband to ask OSWALD to take down a sign of some sort that was on the screen door or window of the apartment OSWALD was renting. OSWALD did take down the sign.

MURRETT knows of no connection between LEE OSWALD and JACK RUBY. The first time he had heard JACK RUBY's name was in connection with RUBY's shooting of OSWALD. The only station wagon he knows of that has any connection with OSWALD is the station wagon which brought OSWALD's wife and child from Texas. MURRET was told by a member of his family that OSWALD's wife and child had been staying with this woman in Texas. The last time he saw OSWALD was on Labor Day, 1963, when he took OSWALD, his wife and child from the MURRET home on French Street to OSWALD's apartment on Magazine Street.

WILBURN WALDON LITCHFIELD, II, was interviewed in the Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, and furnished the following signed statement reflecting that he is unable to make a positive identification of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as the individual he saw with JACK RUBY at the Carousel during the first two weeks of November, 1963.

"Dallas, Texas

"I, Wilburn Waldon Litchfield II make this free and voluntary statement to James W. Bookhout and George W. H. Carlson whom I know to be Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I have been advised that I do not have to make any statement. No threats or promises have been made to me and I have been advised that I have the right to consult with an attorney. I have been advised that this statement may be used against me in court if it is not true.

"I am 30 years old and I was born June 14, 1933 in Dallas, Texas. I reside at 2454 South Zangs, Apartment 120. I am a salesman for the Spencer International Press Inc., 155 N. Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

"Sometime within the first two weeks of November, 1963, on either a Tuesday or Thursday night, I cannot recall the exact date. It was the night that a photographer for a National magazine was at the Carousel Club, on Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, taking pictures of the strippers for the magazine. There were four strippers and three of them signed releases but one did not.

"I arrived at Carousel Club around 10:00 - 10:15 PM as I had an appointment with Jack Ruby at 10:30 PM. Jack Ruby was not there when I arrived and the doorman informed me that there were three people already waiting to see him and I could have a seat and wait. I do not know the doorman, however, he is stocky, in his late 40's or early 50's, real curly hair without a part and silvery gray and has a northern or mid-western accent.

"While I was waiting I had a cup of coffee, saw the show at the Carousel Club and looked around. There were about six young fellows sitting to the left of the center of the stage and I was sitting at the first table to the left of the front door. There was about twenty eight people inside. At the table next to the aisle in front of me was a young man in a white sweater. At the table next to the wall on the aisle going to Jack Ruby's office was a man in a dark suit, had black curly hair, in late 30's or early 40's, who I later found out to be a friend of Ruby's from California and who was also waiting to see Ruby. The third person waiting to see Ruby was a photographer sitting at a table in front of me to my left.

"I do not know the names of any of the people in the Carousel Club who were patrons or waiting to see Ruby.

"About 11:10 PM to 11:20 PM the front door near where I was sitting opened and in came a dog and then in came Ruby. Ruby was wearing a dark blue suit and a dark snap brim hat. Ruby spoke to me and asked if I would mind waiting. I told him I would wait. Ruby and the dog went to the left toward his office. Ruby invited the man from California to come in to his, Ruby's office first.

"About 15 or 20 minutes later Ruby came back out with the man from California. Ruby then invited the photographer to come in to his, Ruby's, office. About 10 or 15 minutes later Ruby and the photographer came out. The photographer stopped by a post where all the electric control buttons are located.

"Ruby then invited the young man in a white sweater to come in to his, Ruby's office. This young man was in his middle 20's, 5'7" - 5'9"; and very slender. The young man was with Ruby for about 20 minutes. Ruby came out and said something to the man from California. The young man in the white sweater walked down the aisle toward me and stopped at the door. The young man turned to his right and looked toward the table where the man from California was sitting. The reason I noticed the young man in the sweater was because of his sloppy dress and wondered what he was doing there. Most of the men there were wearing suit coats or sport coats. While the young man was turned to the right I saw his face and that he was wearing a V neck white sweater, gray slacks, his hair was not combed and he did not have oil on his hair. His slacks needed pressing. He had acne pock marks on the right side of his chin. The young man was at the door about 45 to 60 seconds.

"Ruby left the man from California and walked down the aisle to the first table on the right in front of the cash register and said something to the doorman because the cigarette girl had left early. Then Ruby turned and invited me into his office. While I was in Ruby's office I met the photographer and a newly married couple. The newly married husband was 6'5" - 6'6", 245 - 260; 30's, coal black hair thick and full, very heavy build and a very flashy dresser. The man said he was an entertainer and had worked in Galveston and Florida and was playing at the Dallas Athletic Club. The newly married wife was 21 years old, from Galveston, Texas, 5'5" - 5'7"; 112 - 118; light brown hair, and was wearing a light beige or cream dress. She was wearing a corsage. The newly married couple could not have seen the young man in the white sweater. There was also a Negro who came in Ruby's office who works at the Carousel Club. The Negro man possibly saw the young man in the white sweater. The man from California and the photographer and the doorman saw the young man in the white sweater.

"I did not think anything of the young man in the white sweater until after the assasination of President Kennedy and the capture of Oswald. (Lee Harvey Oswald) From the pictures on television and then the picture in the Times Herald newspaper I remembered that I had seen a young man who closely resembled Oswald at the Carousel Club. He bore a very close resemblance to the young man in the white sweater whom I had seen at the Carousel Club as related above. I did not say anything about this until Sunday night December 1, 1963, when I called Officer Don Green of the Special Services Bureau, Dallas Police Department. I informed Green of what I remembered and told him that I was fairly sure that I had seen Oswald the night I was at the Carousel Club and asked his advice as what to do. Green told me he would contact his supervisor and for me to call him, Green, on December 2, 1963 at 9:30 AM. I called Officer Green and he told me to meet him, Green, at the Statler Hotel. I accompanied Officer Green to the Dallas Police Department.

"I have been exhibited a photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald, Dallas PD #54018 dated November 23, 1963. I cannot positively say that the photograph of Oswald is identical to the young man in the white sweater at the Carousel Club but the photograph does closely resemble the young man in the white sweater I saw at the Carousel.

"On either Monday or Tuesday November 25 or 26, 1963 when two Special Agents of the FBI interviewed Bertha Cheek at 3914 Swiss Avenue, Dallas, Texas, concerning her knowledge of Oswald I was introduced to the two Special Agents and realized I had the opportunity to furnish the above information at that time but did not do so because I was not completely positive of my identification of Oswald.

"I have known Jack Ruby since October or November 1959. He owned the Vegas Club, 3508 Oak Lawn, Dallas, Texas, and I used to go to the club.

"Since I have known Ruby I have never heard Ruby voice any political opinion to me. I have never heard him discuss Castro or Fair Play for Cuba Committee. I have never known Ruby to be associated with or acquainted with Lee Harvey Oswald. I do not know Lee Harvey Oswald myself.

"On December 2, 1963 I furnished a sworn statement to the Dallas Police Department concerning my presence at the Carousel Club sometime during the first two weeks of November 1963. The sworn statement is true except the last paragraph wherein I made a positive identification of the individual I saw at the Carousel Club, being identical with Lee Harvey Oswald.

"I wish to state at this time that I cannot make a positive identification of said individual as being identical with Lee Harvey Oswald.

"I wish to state that my only reason for contacting Jack Ruby at the Carousel Club on the occasion mentioned herein was to negotiate a purchase of his Vegas Club which I was unable to do because he did not wish to sell it. Ruby said the club was 'dear to his heart'.

"I have read the above statement consisting of (8) eight pages and (12) twelve lines on page (9) nine. This statement is true and correct.

Captain O. A. JONES, Forgery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, furnished the following affidavit of WILBURN WALDON LITCHFIELD reflecting that LITCHFIELD claimed to have seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD with JACK RUBY during the first two weeks of November, 1963. Said affidavit is set forth as follows:

AFFIDAVIT IN ANY FACT

THE STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF DALLAS

BEFORE ME, Betty Dunagan a Notary Public in and for said County, State of Texas, on this day personally appeared Wilburn Waldon Litchfield, aka Robert, 2454 South Zangs apartment 120, WH8 9503, Business: Spenser Press, 8428 Kate.
Who, after being by me duly sworn, on oath deposes and says: Sometimes within the first two weeks of November, 1963, either on a Tuesday or Thursday night, (Idon't remember the exact date, but this will help establish the date: It was the night that the strippers had their pictures made for the National Magazine at the Carosel. Three of them signed the release and one didn't. I do not remember the man's name who took the pictures) I went to the Carosel Club. I had an appointment with Jack Ruby between 10:00 and 10:30 pm. I entered and asked for Jack Ruby and was told by the doorman that Mr. Ruby was not in, but I could wait. There were three people already waiting to see him. The doorman was a man in his late 40's, or early 50's about 5'7" to 5'9", stocky build, close curly hair, silver colored without a part, and he spoke with a northern or mid western accent. He was wearing a blue suit, dark blue tie with light blue and red in it, and white shirt with collar unbottoned. He offered me a seat at the first table to the left of the door, and said I could wait until Mr. Ruby arrived. While I was waiting, I had a cup of coffee and watched the show and observed the people in the Carosel.

While I was watching the crowd which consisted of about 28 people, I noticed about 4 tables directly in front of me, a man in a white sweater. The reason I noticed this man was that everyone else in the Carosel was either in a suit, sport coat, or in uniform.

After I had been waiting approximately one hour, the door opened. In came a dash hound, and in came Jack Ruby. Jack greeted me, said just a minute, spoke to the doorman, came back and asked me if I'd mind waiting that he had to see some other people, took his hat off, turned left, and went to the back towards his office. He came back into the club area, and the first person he saw was a fellow in his late 30's or early 40's, black wavey hair, real stocky build, who was sitting at the table directly by the door to the back, next to the wall. I was later informed by the doorman and Jack Ruby that this gentleman was an old friend from California. Jack spoke to this man roughly 15 to 20 minutes.

The next man that Jack sawwas a photographer for a national magazine similar to Stag or Male, etc. The reason I know this man was a photographer for a national magazine is that during my discussion with Jack Ruby, this man was introduced to me (although I don't remember his name) as a photographer for the above type national magazine.

The next man that Jack saw was the man mentioned earlier who was sitting 4 tables in front of me wearing a white sweater. Jack came and got this man and they walked back toward his office. They were gone about 15 to 20 minutes. Theyboth came out and Jack stopped at the table by the wall and spoke to the man from California again. The gentleman in the V neck white sweater and grey slacks walked by me under neath a bright light by the door. He was approximately two feet from where I was sitting.

After Jack got through talking to the man from California, he came over and gotme and carried me back to his office. We discussed a private club. I asked him if he would sell the Vegas. He said no, it had about $40,000 Federal taxes against it, but that he had a good, terrific idea for a private club at a location in Northeast Dallas. I asked him if he had a lease, what the idea was and what the location was. Jack did not say. He said he was afraid someone would steal his idea from him. I left around 1:20 to 1:45 am. After President Kennedy was assasinated, and this fellow Oswald's picture was on televisionand in the paper, I remembered that he was the man that I saw in the white V neck sweater the night that I was at the Carosel Club to see Jack Ruby. I didn't say anything for about a week until Sunday, December 2, 1963, and then I called Don Green, a friend of mine, and told him about it, and asked his advise. He suggested that I come in and talk to the Police.

determine if Litchfield was being truthful about seeing Lee Harvey Oswald at the Club Carousel which is operated by Jack Ruby. Below is a list of pertinent quiestion asked.

1. Have you told the complete truth about seeing Oswald at the club the night you were there? Answer: Yes

2. Have you made up any of this story about seeing Oswald at the club the night you were there? Answer: No

3. Are you looking for any personal gain or notoriety from making this statement? Answer: No

4. Have you deliberately lied about your thinking this was Oswald? Answer: No

Mr. Litchfield tried for the first half of the examination to control his breathing pattern.

It is the opinion of this Examiner that this person has been untruthful to the above questions.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs JAMES W. BOOKHOUT and GEORGE W. H. CARLSON:

At Dallas, Texas

On December 4, 1963, Captain O. A. JONES, Forgery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised that in connection with his supervision of the investigation regarding remarks of WILBURN WALDON LITCHFIELD to the effect that on one occasion during the first two weeks of November, 1963, he had seen an individual with JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club who is identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the additional investigation had been conducted. Captain JONES stated Lieutenants JACK REVILL and FRANK CORNWALL had interviewed JACK RUBY at the Dallas County Jail December 4, 1963, at which time RUBY advised that the individual wearing the V-neck white sweater at the Carousel Club on the occasion described by LITCHFIELD and who LITCHFIELD thought was identical with OSWALD, was actually EDWARD ROCCO, an employee of Cabaret Magazine. Captain JONES stated the Cabaret Magazine is published by Trans-American Export News, Skokie, Illinois.

CHESTUR ARTHUR McLAUGHLIN was interviewed at his place of employment, Worcel Mobile Homes, Palm Beach Boulevard, Fort Myers, Florida, at which time he furnished the following information:

McLAUGHLIN stated that on November 13 or 14, 1963 in the forenoon he entered a barbershop located in the Tropic Isles Shopping Center, North Fort Myers, Florida. He advised the barber, whose name he does not know, was watching President KENNEDY on television holding a news conference. McLAUGHLIN told the barber how to cut his hair at which time the barber told him he was watching "that meathead." McLAUGHLIN stated after the news conference was finished, the barber turned off the set and said to him, "Wait and see, when that S.O.B. gets to Dallas, Texas they will shoot and kill him.", referring to President KENNEDY.

McLAUGHLIN stated that on November 29, 1963 he returned to the barbershop, but had to wait to get his hair cut. He said he went to a coffee shop located in the same shopping center where he met a friend and related to the friend what the barber had told him. He said a red headed waitress overheard what he had told his friend about the barber, at which time she called to another waitress, stating do you remember what happened Friday when President KENNEDY was shot. McLAUGHLIN advised the waitress said the barber brought his television set to the coffee shop, plugged it in and told them to keep it on all day and watch the news. McLAUGHLIN said according to the waitress, the barber did not open his shop on Friday, November 22, 1963. He said he left the coffee shop and returned to the barber shop and egged the barber on regarding how RUBY got in to kill OSWALD. He advised the barber told him that the High Finger sent RUBY in to keep OSWALD from talking. He said the barber also told him gangsters were coming from Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco to kill RUBY within the next ten days.

McLAUGHLIN said the barber told him that the bullets that killed the President were five point steel nosed which shatter like a grenade when they hit a bone. He also advised the barber said OSWALD was killed with a .32 bullet which also shatters when it

On December 3, 1963, Mr. JAMES E. BARTON, Manager, Tropic Isles, Inc., Orange Grove Boulevard, advised that one ~~ROLAND~~ RONALD NEWSBIGLE operates a barber shop in the shopping center. He had no other information concerning Mr. NEWSBIGLE but was of the impression he had come from some northern state.

On December 3, 1963, Mr. HENRY WRIGHT of the Lee County, Florida, Sheriff's Office, and Officer J. WERNER of the Fort Myers, Florida, Police Department, advised their files contained no identifiable records for CHESTUR ARTHUR MC LAUGHLIN, LEONA MC LAUGHLIN, ~~ROLAND~~ RONALD RUBIN NEWSBIGLE or GRACE H. NEWSBIGLE.

On December 3, 1963, Mr. W. B. Date 12/4/63

RONALD RUBIN NEWSBIGLE was interviewed at his place of employment, Tropic Isles Barbershop, Orange Grove Boulevard, North Fort Myers, Florida.

He advised he recalls seeing President KENNEDY holding a news conference on television during the first part of November of this year, while he was working in his barbershop. He said that he recalls telling a customer that the President should not go to Dallas, Texas as someone would probably kill him. NEWSBIGLE stated he made this remark because of the incident that happened to ADLAI STEVENSON when he was in Dallas, Texas. NEWSBIGLE stated that from what he heard on television and had read in the newspapers concerning Dallas, he felt it was a hot box and the President should not go to Dallas, Texas. NEWSBIGLE stated he never used any vile or vulgar language concerning President KENNEDY during his conversation with his customers.

NEWSBIGLE stated he knows nothing concerning RUBY except what he reads in the papers and sees on television. He advised he never made any comments regarding RUBY's going to be killed within ten days. He said that since RUBY came from Chicago and was a hoodlum, that it is possible he said he could be killed by one of his hoodlum friends.

NEWSBIGLE stated he does not know what caliber bullet killed President KENNEDY or OSWALD ~~either~~ other on television a bullet that killed OSWALD was a dum dum bullet.

NEWSBIGLE stated he was opened all day November 22, 1963 and saw President KENNEDY assassinated on television. NEWSBIGLE stated that BUD, a member of Tropic Isles, Incorporated, came to his house November 25, 1963 to see if he was going to open his shop, but he told him no. BUD then borrowed the key to his barbershop, got his television set and brought it to the coffee shop to watch the funeral procession of President KENNEDY.

NEWSBIGLE again stated he never used any vulgar or vile language concerning President KENNEDY.

Mrs. EVELYN HARRIS, 1812 Ardmore, who is employed by the T. B. Butler Publishing Company, stated that on November 30, 1963, she had been visiting an aunt in Van, Texas, and while there met a woman who lives across the street from her aunt. She stated this woman is known as LUCY LOPEZ, a white woman who is married to a Mexican and had given the following story.

Mrs. LOPEZ had just come from Dallas where she had been babysitting for her daughter. She stated her daughter works at a sewing room across from the Texas School Book Depository Building. She stated her daughter and some of the other girls knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD who apparently spoke Spanish well and ate with them at a nearby restaurant. They were reportedly acquainted with JACK RUBY.

She stated on November 22, 1963, the girls, all of Spanish descent, were watching the Presidential parade from a window of the sewing room. They reportedly observed JACK RUBY walking up and down the street near the Texas School Book Depository Building and when OSWALD came out of the building, they saw RUBY give him a pistol.

Mrs. LOPEZ stated after the killing of OSWALD the girls were afraid to contact the Dallas Police Department and as far as she knew no one had interviewed any of the girls in connection with the President's assassination or the killing of OSWALD.

S. Post Office, a man by the name of CONRAD (last name unknown to her), stated that two or three Mexican girls, names not given, who work at the sewing room across from the Texas School Book Depository Building, had seen a "chubby" man give a pistol to LEE HARVEY OSWALD when OSWALD left the Texas School Book Depository Building. He stated from the conversation it appeared the girls had known OSWALD and the "chubby" man.

She stated CONRAD works as a laboratory technician with her son-in-law, RALPH ROJAS, but she does not know the name of the laboratory but thinks it is operated by the government. ROJAS resides at 3009 Clover Drive, Mesquite, Texas, telephone BR 9-1881.

She denied that her daughter, Mrs. LOUIS VELEZ, knew either OSWALD or JACK RUBY or that she had seen RUBY give OSWALD a pistol. She further denied that the persons who saw this transfer of the pistol from a "chubby" man to OSWALD were afraid of the Dallas Police Department. She stated she was leaving for Dallas on December 1, 1963, to be at the home of her daughter, Mrs. LOUIS VELEZ, 3319 Hedgerow.

JESS WILLARD LYNCH, Trailer Space No. K-49, Page Trailer Park, Page, Arizona, employed as a painter for MERRITT, CHAPMAN, AND SCOTT, INC., prime contractor, on the Glen Canyon Dam at Page, advised that in the early part of 1958 he answered an advertisement in a Dallas, Texas newspaper which resulted in his obtaining employment with BERTHA CHEEK as a cook in her boarding house at 5212 Gaston, Dallas, Texas. He stated that a short time later, he became manager of this boarding house in addition to being the cook and in the spring of 1959 he rented a room to two Cuban males, names and descriptions not recalled. He advised these two men stayed together for about four weeks at which time one of them left while the other one stayed on for about three more weeks. LYNCH stated that the one who left had been busy trying to purchase gas or oil refinery parts in Dallas and Houston, Texas, while the one who stayed on claimed to be a watchmaker. LYNCH stated both Cubans dressed very well and always seemed to have a lot of money. He never knew the Cubans to receive or send any mail, but recalled that the watchmaker usually made two long-distance telephone calls a week to Havana, Cuba using the pay telephone in the lobby of the boarding house. LYNCH advised that he (LYNCH) usually put the calls through for the Cuban, but is unable to recall any name or number called, only that it was always the same number and that the conversation was always in Spanish. LYNCH advised he is certain that one of the Cubans was arrested by the Dallas, Texas Police Department however, the charge, the date, and the disposition is unknown. He stated that neither of the Cubans had a car but the one who traveled to Houston rented a car every so often. He did not know where or for whom either Cuban worked; does not recall them having any visitors; and does not recall them being friendly with any of the other roomers.

LYNCH advised that while the boarding house was owned by BERTHA CHEEK, she had little or nothing to do with the people who stayed in the house and he does not recall that she had anything at all to do with the Cubans.

LYNCH advised that Mrs. CHEEK's sister, Mrs. (FNU) ROBERTS, was the housekeeper of the boarding house and stayed in a room next to the kitchen. He advised she was quite friendly with the two Cubans during the time they stayed there. He stated he never knew of Mrs. ROBERTS being too familiar or intimate with any of the boarders and recalled only that she talked with the Cubans in the dining room during the evenings.

LYNCH advised he did not know JACK RUBY and could not recall ever having heard his name prior to the time he, RUBY, shot OSWALD and his name became familiar from television and newspaper coverage.

With regard to the information originally furnished by LYNCH, he stated that this must have been a misunderstanding on either his part or the part of the person to whom he had talked stating that he did not mention a Mrs. JOHNSON and stating that he does not know a Mrs. JOHNSON and that the person he saw on television and recognized was Mrs. (FNU) ROBERTS.

LYNCH classified BERTHA CHEEK as a wealthy woman who has dealt with "big shots", not further identified, in Dallas and stated that she is a poor bookkeeper, but the names of all persons who stayed at 5212 Gaston should be listed in the 1959 ledger book which Mrs. CHEEK should have in her possession.

LYNCH advised that there was a big turnover of roomers and estimated the turnover as 30 - 50 per month and stated this is the reason he is unable to recall any names or descriptions.

LYNCH advised that Mrs. ROBERTS told him once that her sister, Mrs. CHEEK, had at one time been under a doctor's care for a mental condition.

PX 89-42

LYNCH advised he left Mrs. CHEEK's employ in August of 1959 because of the way things were going in regard to purchase of merchandise and treatment of some of the tenants adding that Mrs. CHEEK expected him to prepare decent meals from cheap cuts of meat and decaying vegetables.

LYNCH advised he was not seeking any publicity by furnishing the above information and added that he had no objection to his name being furnished to Mrs. CHEEK if it would help to solve the killing of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. LYNCH advised he was born on March 11, 1918 in Vincent, Kentucky. He has never been arrested and served honorably in the United States Army under Army Serial Number RA 35212316 from 1941 - 1943 and 1946 - 1948.

Mrs. BERTHA CHEEK, Manager of the apartments at 3914 Swiss, Dallas, advised as follows:

1. that she had operated Cheek's Boarding House at 5212 Gaston, Dallas, from about 1956 to 1961, when it was razed for the construction of luxury-type apartments;

2. that she recalled having rented to two Cuban males in in 1959 or 1960 but could provide no other information concerning them;

3. that EARLENE ROBERTS, her sister, had rented the room to LEE HARVEY OSWALD at 1026 Beckley, Dallas, Texas, Mrs. ROBERTS being employed as a housekeeper by Mrs. A. C. JOHNSON at this Beckley address;

4. that Mrs. CHEEK has been acquainted with JACK RUBY since about 1948 to the present, she formerly having operated night clubs in Dallas, this being the basis for their acquaintanceship:

   a. In 1948, JACK RUBY, according to Mrs. CHEEK, attempted to secure her investment of $12,000 in a night club venture.

   b. About eight days ago, on or about November 18, 1963, according to Mrs. CHEEK, RUBY had invited her to the Carousel where she spent several hours, during which time he attempted to secure her investment of several thousand dollars in the Carousel.

(Mrs. CHEEK stated that she had parked her car in the parking garage next door to the Carousel during this period.)

5. Mrs. CHEEK could not identify a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as anyone known to her, although when first having seen him on television, she felt she might have rented to him in the past.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

BERTHA CHEEK, 3914 Swiss, Dallas, Texas, was reinterviewed and registration records were reviewed covering rentals at Cheek's boarding house, 5212 Gaston Avenue, Dallas, Texas, for the period 1958 and 1959 in an effort to identify two Cuban males who had rented for the periods of four and seven weeks, individuals who reportedly had been friendly with or had visited MARLENE ROBERTS, then in residence, she being a sister of BERTHA CHEEK and currently the housekeeper at 1026 North Beckley, where LEE HARVEY OSWALD had rented a room as O. H. LEE.

In an effort toward obtaining some identification of these two Cuban males, Mrs. CHEEK was advised that the rental had been made by JESS WILLARD LYNCH, then manager, who had advised that one Cuban, renting for seven weeks, had claimed to have been a watchmaker and was reported to have called Havana, Cuba, twice a week from the pay station at the boarding house, 5212 Gaston; that the second Cuban renting for four weeks, had claimed to have been a buyer of gas and oil refinery parts; that the names, physical descriptions or additional background data concerning these Cubans were unknown.

Mrs. CHEEK, who advised she had owned three or four boarding houses at this time, all managed by people whom she had obtained through the Union Gospel Mission on Park Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that she only had a vague recollection of JESS WILLARD LYNCH, who was said to have rented to the two Cuban males.

Mrs. CHEEK said she had no recollection whatsoever of the two Cuban males, and examination of the register of guests failed to refresh her recollection, a record which is voluminous for the period in question, 1958 and 1959. In one of these years, Mrs. CHEEK said she had assisted and rented to some 365 from the Union Gospel Mission alone.

Mrs. CHEEK said that she had discussed this matter with EARLENE ROBERTS, her sister, now at 1026 North Beckley, and the two, discussing it together, had been unable to recall having rented to the Cubans in question. Mrs. CHEEK said that Mrs. ROBERTS had been in poor health during this period, out of work, and was only living at 5212 Gaston at the time, not participating in the management. For reasons of her illness, she had had little contact with the guests and thus it would be unlikely that she would recall the Cubans in question.

Mrs. EARLENE ROBERTS, 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed in an effort to identify two Cuban males who were said by JESS WILLARD LYNCH to have rented at 5212 Gaston, Dallas, Texas, during 1958 or 1959, LYNCH then having been manager of the boarding house for BERTHA CHEEK, owner and sister of EARLENE ROBERTS.

Mrs. ROBERTS stated that while she had lived at 5212 Gaston during this period, she had not participated in the actual management nor worked as a housekeeper as she was in poor health at the time. She said she had had little contact with the guests by reason of her health and has no recollection of the persons in question, described only as two Cuban males.

Mrs. ROBERTS said she had discussed this matter with her sister, BERTHA CHEEK, in an effort to refresh her recollection without success.

By letter dated November 28, 1963, ARMOUR E. KREISCHER, 9922 Hurley Way, Dallas, Texas, advised the Dallas Office of the FBI regarding some information which had come to his attention with regard to the investigation of the actions of LEE OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and the assault upon Governor CONNALLY. In this letter he stated that Mrs. DAN H. FOLEY, 902 Cedar Hill, Dallas, informed her daughter KATHY, who relayed the information to her class in government, Bishop Dunne High School, Dallas, that she knew a woman, a close friend (unidentified by KATHY), who did actually operate a boarding house where OSWALD was in residence, and that the woman had confided that OSWALD, at that time, was known to have been employed (exact capacity unknown) as a man of all work for one JACK RUBINSTEIN, alias Ruby.

On December 9, 1963, KATHLEEN ANN FOLEY, student, Bishop Dunne High School, 3900 Rugged Drive, Dallas, Texas, advised SA KENNETH B. JACKSON that she had no firsthand information but that she believed it was a man who repaired her family's automobile at the Pittman Street Garage who had indicated he knew of someone, possibly who works at that garage or who is a customer, who had made the statement that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had lived in a boarding house and that OSWALD's landlady at that boarding house had made inference that OSWALD worked for RUBY. Miss FOLEY was rather vague about the matter.

On December 9, 1963, Mrs. D. H. FOLEY, 902 Cedar Hill, mother of KATHLEEN ANN FOLEY, advised SA KENNETH B. JACKSON that her daughter KATHLEEN had received the information referred to above from her and that she had received it from neighbors who live on the street behind her house and that these neighbors are named Mr. and Mrs. HAPPY BROCKMAN. Mrs. FOLEY telephonically contacted Mrs. BROCKMAN who advised her that this information had originally started with an employee of a Humble service station in about the 1000 or 1100 block of Zangs Street.

On December 9, 1963, Mr. GERALD A. DUNCAN, 2034 Vatican Lane, Dallas, Texas, advised SA KENNETH B. JACKSON he is the manager of a Humble service station at 1030 North Zangs, Dallas. When advised of the information in this matter to the effect that a former landlady of LEE HARVEY OSWALD had indicated OSWALD may have worked for JACK RUBY, DUNCAN advised that he was the original source of that information and that it was entirely erroneous. He stated that he was talking to a customer just a few minutes after JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that prior to talking to this customer he had been busy in the back of the service station possibly lubricating a car or a similar activity. He said that he did not know RUBY had shot OSWALD until this customer told him that it happened, and the customer mentioned that her mother owned a small eating place in the same building where the Carousel Club is located which club was allegedly operated by JACK RUBY. He said this customer told him that RUBY worked at the Carousel Club and that she had seen him on many occasions and knew him. DUNCAN said that he was under the impression that when this customer referred to "him" he himself thought the customer was referring to OSWALD while in fact he later realized she was referring to RUBY. He said that he quickly "put two and two together" as a result of his customer's reference to "him" and figured that RUBY and OSWALD knew each other and that OSWALD worked at the Carousel Club which was operated by RUBY. He said that he reported this to the Dallas Police Department before he had the facts straight and that he should have attempted to contact this customer to get the details straight before reporting it to any official agency.

DUNCAN identified this customer as DOROTHY FREELAND, 505 West Eighth, Apartment 202, telephone WH 2-9992, Dallas, Texas.

EDDIE A. REDDELL, salesman, Mohr Chevrolet Company, North Central Expressway and San Jacinto Street, home address 201 S. Lancaster, Dallas, Texas, advised that he first met JACK BOWEN, commercial artist, at the Stork Club, Dallas, around August, 1963. REDDELL stated that in addition to selling automobiles he also sells leasing of automobiles and leased a 1963 Pontiac to BOWEN through the Continental Leasing Corporation, Dallas. In addition to this business with BOWEN, he has had several social conversations with him, mainly at the Stork Club. REDDELL stated that he has a dream of setting up an import-export business of his own. This business will consist mainly of leasing heavy equipment and automobiles. He plans to possibly have offices in Mexico. He stated he has done some research onthis matter but he has never had the money to start such a business.

In his conversations with BOWEN he told BOWEN all about this business and told BOWEN on one occasion that he intended to go to the library to obtain all the information possible regarding this business and information regarding Mexico. BOWEN at this time told him he had a girl friend who is employed at the library and told REDDELL he could use his, BOWEN's, library card. BOWEN then gave him the library card.

REDDELL stated he was aware of the fact that he could get a card of his own but he did take BOWEN's card and believes that he still has this card. He made a search of his briefcase where he had miscellaneous information regarding the leasing business he intended to try to set up and he did locate a library card from the Dallas Public Library. This card is in the name of JACK L. BOWEN, 1919 Steven Forest Drive, Dallas 8, Texas. The card is signed in the name of JACK L. BOWEN. The reference listed on the card is HAROLD K. VAN BUREN, 6416 Chevy Chase, no city listed, telephone # EM 1-5449. This card expires on November 8, 1964. REDDELL stated he does not recall ever using this library card.

Re: JACK LESLIE BOWEN,
Aka Jack L. Bowen

Found in the wallet of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the time of his arrest November 22, 1963, by the Dallas, Texas Police Department, was the front and back of a Dallas Public Library Identification Card in the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and bearing the signature LEE H. OSWALD which also reflected the name of JACK L. BOWEN, 1916 Stevens Forest Drive, telephone WH 8-8997. OSWALD's business was shown as Jaggers-Chiles-Stovall. JACK L. BOWEN was identified as JACK LESLIE BOWEN, permanent address c/o Mrs. PAULINE GRIFFIN ALLEN, 6155 Mockingbird Lane, Dallas Texas. BOWEN was located on December 7, 1963, in New York City, and interviewed there by SAs JOHN D. HURLEY, JR. and ROGER H. LEE and furnished the following information:

He is presently in New York City on business and is staying at the Martinque Hotel. He was previously employed by Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Dallas, as an assistant art director. He was employed in this capacity for approximately two years terminating his employment in August, 1963. In the late fall or early winter of 1962, Lee Harvey Oswald was employed by Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall as a camera trainee. Bowen recalled that OSWALD was a withdrawn, ~~social~~ person and was not liked by fellow employees. Bowen stated that on one occasion he was present while OSWALD was discussing obtaining a library card so that he could charge out books on the Russian language at the Public Library. At this time Oswald was talking to DENNIS OFSTEIN, another employee. Bowen told him that he would have to furnish the library with a reference prior to obtaining a card. BOWEN gave him his full name and address so that OSWALD could use it as a reference. He did not give OSWALD his own library card and is positive that OSWALD never used his card to obtain books. BOWEN did state that OSWALD could have secured a library card and used BOWEN's name. BOWEN advised that his, BOWEN's wife, was an employee of the Dallas Public Library but the the best of his knowledge never knew or had any contact with OSWALD.

BOWEN advised that he does not have his library card at this time and believes it is in the possession of EDDIE REDDELL, 201 South Lancaster Street, Dallas.

BOWEN stated OSWALD never discussed political beliefs or entered into political discussion at work. BOWEN did recall that OSWALD had stated he was from New Orleans and had served in the United States Marines. OSWALD also told fellow employees he was interested in the Russian language. BOWEN never met OSWALD outside of work and the only other employee that did know OSWALD outside of work was DENNIS OFSTEIN who also had an interest in the Russian language. BOWEN believes that OFSTEIN had OSWALD and his wife to dinner on at least one occasion.

BOWEN recalled being present in the office of RAY HAWKINS, foreman of the Photo Department, when OSWALD was explaining Russian symbols on maps the firm was preparing for the United States Army.

BOWEN stated that he remembered OSWALD receiving a few outside phone calls but could remember nothing about these calls. On one occasion, BOWEN received a call from an unknown Dallas Bank inquiring if the firm would back a check OSWALD was cashing which was drawn on a New Orleans bank. BOWEN transferred this call to the Secretary-Treasurer of the company.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Mr. RAYMOND HAWKINS, Foreman, Photo Setter Department, Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc., 522 Browder, Dallas, Texas, advised that he only knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD by sight. He became acquainted slightly with OSWALD during the period of time OSWALD was employed by Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, which he believes was only about six months. During his employment, OSWALD was employed in another department, and, in view of this, HAWKINS only saw him occasionally. On these occasions he would probably just speak to him and does not believe he ever spoke to him over six or seven times. OSWALD was not friendly and he cannot recall ever having any conversations with him other than on one occasion when he, HAWKINS, was working on some maps. There were Russian symbols on one of these maps. HAWKINS was talking to some employee, whose name he does not recall, about the maps and made a comment that he wished that he knew what the Russian symbols stood for. When he made this comment, OSWALD was passing by and apparently heard the comment and stopped and pointed out one symbol and told HAWKINS what this one symbol stood for. OSWALD then immediately walked on. He could not have been stopped but just for a few seconds and made no other comment other than what the one symbol stood for.

HAWKINS stated he did not recall the map OSWALD saw and did not recall whether the map was being done for the United States Army or for some private concern. They do prepare many maps and he could not go back to all maps prepared during the time OSWALD was employed and locate this particular map. They do some classified work and the classified work is kept under lock and key and OSWALD would not have had an opportunity to see this work. The one map he did see was just for a few seconds and he could not have seen enough of the map to learn anything about it.

HAWKINS stated he knew nothing about the personal life of OSWALD, since his only contact with him was very limited at his employment.

HAWKINS stated he did not know RUBY.

DENNIS OFSTEIN

Mr. DENNIS HYMAN OFSTEIN, photographer, Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc., 522 Browder, who resides at 6015 Bryan Parkway, Dallas telephone TA 7-7987, advised he was employed this company at the time LEE HARVEY OSWALD commenced his employment in about October, 1962, and that he was a fellow employee of OSWALD until OSWALD was terminated in about the spring of 1963. He said that the nature of his work and OSWALD's work brought them in fairly close contact with each other during the average working day. He said that he had no social contact with OSWALD or OSWALD's family away from the place of employment but that he did on one occasion shortly prior to OSWALD's termination invite OSWALD and his wife, whom he had never met, to his house to pay a social visit but that they never came. He stated he also wrote a letter to OSWALD shortly after his termination at this company, addressing it to a Post Office box, Dallas, Texas, at the Main Post Office at Ervay and Bryan, inviting OSWALD and his wife to come and visit himself and his wife and again they never did come and never responded. He said that inasmuch as OSWALD had no automobile he had even offered to pick OSWALD and his wife up at their residence to take them to his house for a social visit.

OFSTEIN stated that OSWALD told him that his, OSWALD's, wife was a White Russian and that he believed he had indicated she was from Minsk; that they had met while in Russia. OFSTEIN said that possibly he himself got along with OSWALD better than anyone else who worked with OSWALD at Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, probably because he did not argue with OSWALD and figured that OSWALD's personality was his own business. He said that he felt rather sorry for OSWALD because OSWALD had so much trouble getting along with other people. He said OSWALD claimed to have been in the United States Marine Corps but he could not recall that he had told him when; that OSWALD had indicated he had been stationed at one time in Japan with the U. S. Marine Corps; that he had been on some sort of rifle team in the U. S. Marine Corps at one time but gave no details of this.

OFSTEIN said OSWALD brought a library book to work one day which was in Russian language and he asked OFSTEIN if OFSTEIN could read the book. OFSTEIN said he told OSWALD that he could read it to small extent. He said that he did not tell OSWALD where he learned Russian but added that he had actually learned it while he himself served in the U. S. Army in the Security Branch. He said OSWALD told him he had lived in Russia a couple of years and exhibited to him a picture which he said he took in Russia, possibly in Minsk. He said that in the picture was a big building with a river in the foreground and a military establishment in the background. He said that it was his understanding that the building was a military headquarters building. He noted that the building according to OSWALD was carefully guarded at all times and that OSWALD pointed out to him that military personnel guarding military establishments in Russia had automatic weapons which they kept loaded at all times. He said OSWALD said they had orders to shoot if any violation of the military establishment was committed. He said OSWALD inferred that apparently these military guards had no regard for lives of their countrymen. He advised OSWALD gave him information as to the disposition of military units in Russia as, for example, tank groups would be in one area, air force in another area, and possibly ground troops in another area. He said that OSWALD did not detail this to him but seemed well-versed in this disposition and had pointed out to him that the Russians had only one seaport of consequence for military operations. He said OSWALD also pointed out to him that if a person lived in the Soviet Union in an area where he could observe jets flying over, he would not see tanks or other type military activity in that area. He said OSWALD noted that he had never seen any contrails in Minsk which would have indicated an absence of jets in the Minsk area. He said that OSWALD told him the only time he had seen jets was in Moscow on May Day on one occasion.

According to OFSTEIN, OSWALD asked him at one time if he knew anything about microdots to which OFSTEIN replied he did not.

He said OSWALD told him that microdots were used as a means whereby a page of anything could be reduced down to a size smaller than a postage stamp such that it could be concealed under postage stamp and could be used in espionage operations. OFSTEIN said this statement aroused his suspicions and he asked Sgt. TOM CRIGLER, who is employed with the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, Dallas, and is a resident of the Oak Cliff area of Dallas, regarding this. He said he told CRIGLER he had run into a fellow at work who had spent some time in Russia and he wondered if the FBI should run a security check on him inasmuch as he, OFSTEIN, did not want to jeopardize his own status for any possible future security clearance in the event he ever returned to the U. S. Army. He said he did not believe CRIGLER attached any signifiance to the matter at that time. OFSTEIN noted that he, himself, is not in the U. S. Army Reserve at the present time. He said that when OSWALD never came to visit at his house after being invited he gave this matter no further thought and figured that it had no bearing on his own status thereafter. He mentioned that he never knew OSWALD's exact residence and was under the impression OSWALD lived somewhere in Dallas.

OFSTEIN said OSWALD on one occasion had some Russian newspapers with him in the plant where they worked. He said he asked OSWALD where he got the papers and OSWALD told him he bought them through a New York firm known as VICTOR A. KAMKIN. He said that two or three days after this OSWALD brought to work some publications which were in Russian but the title of which in translation to English would have been "Soviet White Russia", "The Agitator" and "The Crocodile". He said that he believed it was on the back of "The Agitator" that OSWALD wrote VICTOR A. KAMKIN, New York, and told him that if he, OFSTEIN, would write KAMKIN, KAMKIN could furnish him the cost of various publications in Russian as well as the cost per unit number of publications. OFSTEIN said that OSWALD left these three publications with him and that he still has them at his home with OSWALD's handwriting on the back of one of them.

OFSTEIN said he asked OSWALD if there were any groups in the Dallas area that had discussions in Russian as he, OFSTEIN, was desirous of refreshing his own knowledge of the Russian language. He said OSWALD told him that the persons that he knew of would not be interested in a person unless he could handle Russian quite well. OFSTEIN said that automatically ruled him, OFSTEIN, out since he does not handle Russian with ease. He said OSWALD told him that if he would practice and try to improve his vocabulary on his own that possibly sometime he, OSWALD, could arrange for OFSTEIN to get together with a group to practice his Russian. OFSTEIN said this never happened.

OFSTEIN said that he recalled that one night a week while OSWALD worked at the Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall plant, OSWALD would leave work early and claimed he was going to night school; that he had some typing books; that it was believed OSWALD may have been attending H. R. Crozier Technical High School at Bryan and Live Oak Streets in Dallas.

OFSTEIN said that OSWALD kept pretty much to himself at the plant, and seemed to have no particular friends. He said that he was unaware if OSWALD had ever had any social contact with employees of the plant away from work. He said that as an indication of OSWALD's anti-social attitude he himself had on one occasion offered OSWALD a ride to the Post Office in Dallas in his automobile and OSWALD had declined. He said that OSWALD had never mentioned that he was affiliated with any organizations in Dallas or elsewhere and had never discussed politics or claimed to be a Marxist or communist. He said there was also no indication of adherence, advocacy or concern with the so-called "Communist Party Line". He said he himself never pressed OSWALD on these subjects as he thought OSWALD may have been in Russia on some mission for the United States. He said OSWALD never stated what his purpose was in being in Russia or how he got there or any details in that regard. He said that OSWALD complained of a lack of certain commodities and food stuffs in Russia pointing out that for lack of butter in Russia the people used caviar on their bread. OSWALD told him that at eating places there would be an abundance of black bread on the table in thick, hard slabs, but that white bread was extremely difficult to obtain. He said that OSWALD told him that the government in Russia had offered persons land if they would go out and colonize, work up the land for agriculture, and stay there in the portion of Russia nearest Alaska.

OFSTEIN said that he asked OSWALD if the Secret Police in Russia had ever bothered him to which OSWALD replied that they had interrogated a couple of his neighbors regarding him but never had interrogated him directly. He said OSWALD noted that he had been to Moscow and had watched a May Day parade in Moscow; that he claimed he had been to several cities in Russia, not only in White Russia, but also in other parts of the Soviet Union.

OFSTEIN said that on one occasion he himself said something very derogatory regarding FIDEL CASTRO and OSWALD merely shrugged his shoulders and did not seem upset regarding this comment. He said that if he had had an unfavorable reaction to OFSTEIN's remark about CASTRO he did not exhibit it.

OFSTEIN said that on OSWALD's last day of employment at the plant prior to his termination, he, OFSTEIN, asked OSWALD what he was going to do for work after he left. He said OSWALD told him he was not sure; that he liked this type of work and hated to leave it; that if he could not get a job, he could always go back to Russia. He said that following this remark OSWALD "sort of snickered."

Upon being recontacted on December 3, 1963, regarding the above information which OFSTEIN furnished above on December 2, 1963, OFSTEIN stated he had recalled something else that OSWALD had told him; that OSWALD had told him not to tell anyone that

OSWALD had been in the Soviet Union for two years. OFSTEIN said that he believes he did mention this to one or two employees at the plant where he is employed (Jaggers-Chiles-Stovall) but that this was after OSWALD had been terminated as an employee there, possibly only a month or so prior to the present time.

At this time OFSTEIN furnished the three publications mentioned above for which he had furnished translations as "Soviet White Russia","The Agitator", and "The Crocodile". On the back cover of "The Agitator" OFSTEIN pointed out the following notation which he said had been made by OSWALD "VICTOR KAMKIN Book Store, Inc., 2906-14th Street, N.W., Washington 9, D. C." OFSTEIN stated that on the preceding day he had furnished KAMKIN's address as New York City according to his recollection, and that it is in fact Washington, D. C. as indicated here. He said in addition to the notation of the book store in Washington, D. C. on the back of "The Agitator", OSWALD had also noted some subscription rates for "The Crocodile", as well as for "Izvestia" and "Pravda".

THOMAS H. CRIGLER, JR., 1705 McAdams, advised he is currently a Staff Sergeant, U. S. Army Security Agency, Field Representative, assigned to the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, Dallas. He advised that he and DENNIS OFSTEIN were assigned to the same U. S. Army branch in Europe and that he knew OFSTEIN from about June, 1960, to October, 1960, purely as another person attached to the same unit with him. He said he had never become socially or well acquainted with OFSTEIN at that time. He said the caption of their group was the 507th USASA Group, Heilbron, West Germany.

He advised that in about August, 1963, he and OFSTEIN accidentally met outside the U. S. Army Recruiting Station building in Dallas, and OFSTEIN came into the Recruiting Office where the two of them had a conversation. He said OFSTEIN told him that he knew a fellow who spoke Russian. He said he cannot recall that OFSTEIN gave this individual's name, but that he himself gained the impression that the man referred to by OFSTEIN was a Russian. He said OFSTEIN told him he was interested in keeping his Russian fresh inasmuch as OFSTEIN had attended U. S. Army Language School to learn Russian. He said that he cannot now recall if OFSTEIN mentioned anything of a security nature regarding this individual, and he could not recall that OFSTEIN furnished much in the way of details at the time. He said he felt that if OFSTEIN had told him anything of a security nature regarding this individual, he himself would have probably paid much closer attention to OFSTEIN than otherwise.

He said that about a week after he met OFSTEIN in Dallas, OFSTEIN and his family visited him and his wife at their house. He said that about twice thereafter he and his wife visited OFSTEIN at his home. He said that he and his wife were not too favorably impressed with OFSTEIN and his wife and therefore did not desire to continue a close association.

Mr. HENRY F. KIRCHNER, proof reader and Foto-setter, Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc., 522 Browder, advised he resides at 4117 Fernwood Drive, Garland, Texas. He stated that he was acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD as a fellow employee at this place of employment during the time OSWALD worked there in late 1962 and early 1963. He said he never became acquainted with OSWALD because OSWALD did not indicate any desire to be acquainted with anyone in the plant and stayed very much to himself. He said that the only thing he could recall regarding OSWALD that might be of significance was that on one occasion about a day or two before OSWALD was terminated at his employment in the plant, he himself walked into the dark room where developing is performed, and apparently heard the end of a discussion. He said that OSWALD was saying "There is more freedom in Soviet Russia than there is in America under capitalism". He said that the individual in the dark room to whom OSWALD apparently addressed this remark appeared to have no desire to argue this point and walked out of the dark room without being identified by KIRCHNER. He said that he has no idea who this person was but that it would have logically been another one of a number of employees who worked in the art room or photo room at this plant. He said he never observed OSWALD having any conversations with other persons in the plant and one reason that he had little opportunity to observe OSWALD was because he, himself, worked nights during that period while OSWALD worked days. He said the only times that he saw OSWALD were when their shifts overlapped and his impression was that OSWALD was normally very quiet and kept to himself.

Confidential Informant Dallas T-5 on December 17, 1963, advised that he works for the Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc., 522 Browder, Dallas, Texas. Dallas T-5 stated that he had received information from a foreman at the Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc., RAY HAWKINS, that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was employed at Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc., for a period of about five months in late 1962, and early 1963. Dallas T-5 stated that he never knew OSWALD as a fellow employee at the company. He stated further that he understands that OSWALD worked in the Photography or Camera Department of Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc.

Two photographs of the strap which was used as a sling on the rifle used to assassinate President JOHN F. KENNEDY were displayed to Dallas T-5 without identifying the source of the strap to him. Dallas T5 was asked if he could identify the strap, whereupon he advised he had never observed such a strap at Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc., and he could furnish no information as to the origin of the strap.

W. D. TYRA, Superintendent of Front Services, Adolphus Hotel, 1321 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that two or three months ago, a young man, he now believes was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, came up to him seeking employment as a luggage porter. TYRA said his interview with that person was brief, but he recalls that the young man indicated he would work mornings or evenings and he wanted to go to school.

TYRA said he had this young man place his name and address on a 3x5 card, which TYRA destroyed about a month ago, and he seems to recall that the name "LEE OSWALD" appeared on the card with an unrecalled street address in Irving, Texas. TYRA remembers the young man listed his address as Irving, Texas, because he asked him how he would get to work. He replied by stating he could get a ride to Dallas each day.

TYRA informed the young man that if he was interested in employment at the Adolphus Hotel he would have to execute an application for employment in the personnel office, take a physical examination and a Truth Verification Test (polygraph). TYRA added that all Adolphus Hotel employees have to take the Truth Verification Test.

TYRA believes he directed the young man to the hotel's personnel office.

He related that in view of the fact LEE HARVEY OSWALD was accused of assassinating President KENNEDY and subsequently shot and killed by JACK RUBY, owner of the Carousel Club which is located across the street from the Adolphus Hotel, he was most curious if the young man who sought employment at this hotel was the same LEE HARVEY OSWALD accused of assassinating President KENNEDY. He checked the hotel's personnel office but could locate no application executed by OSWALD.

TYRA believes the young man he briefly interviewed two or three months ago for employment was the LEE HARVEY OSWALD who was accused of assassinating President KENNEDY.

TYRA also mentioned that JACK RUBY is frequently seen at the Adolphus Hotel but he knew of no association between OSWALD and RUBY.

TYRA stated he recalls that the young man, he now believes was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who applied for a job as luggage porter at the Adolphus two or three months ago, mentioned he had one child and his wife was expecting another.

TYRA said that frequently when a young man applies for a job here and he has no openings, he refers that person to the Baker Hotel, which is located across the street from the Adolphus. TYRA was unable to recall if he referred the above-mentioned person to the Baker Hotel.

Mrs. JO FISCHER, Personnel Director, Statler-Hilton Hotel, 1914 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 26 or 27, 1963, Mrs. LAURA LAYFIELD, who was formerly employed as a receptionist in this office, and who is presently employed as a hostess in the Court Club, Statler-Hilton, Dallas, mentioned the following to her:

On October 31, 1963, three young men came into the personnel office of the Statler-Hilton. Two of the men requested applications for bellmen, while the third man waited on the other two. The two men completed the applications and turned them over to Mrs. LAYFIELD, who checked the applications for completeness and accuracy.

Mrs. LAYFIELD recalled that one of the young men indicated on the application he completed the tenth grade; he was married, with two children, one being two weeks old; he had been previously employed as a printer; and he spoke Russian.

She informed Mrs. FISHER that since one of the men indicated he spoke Russian, which appeared somewhat unusual for a bellman applicant in Dallas, she asked the young man where he learned to speak Russian. He became very angry and informed Mrs. LAYFIELD it was none of her business. He did state, however, he was married to a Russian girl. He left in a state of anger.

Mrs. LAYFIELD recalled the application was hand printed and she believed the name on the application was (FNU) OSWALD.

Mrs. FISCHER advised that during her conversation with Mrs. LAYFIELD about the above matter, she asked Mrs. LAYFIELD what happened to the young man's application. She said Mrs. LAYFIELD remarked at first that she apparently retained the application because she believed she noted in writing on the application "Very Nasty", or some similar wording. Mrs. FISCHER said during the same conversation Mrs. LAYFIELD mentioned that the young man, while in a state of anger, grabbed his application from her and tore it up. Mrs. FISCHER said she has no personal knowledge of the above matter. She added that Mrs. LAYFIELD is prone to exaggeration at times and she (FISCHER) would not express an opinion as to the authenticity of the above.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mrs. FISCHER stated that applications executed by anyone applying for employment at the Statler-Hilton are retained by this office. She said applications of persons rejected are destroyed after six months. She searched her files but could locate no application under the names LEE HARVEY OSWALD, LEE HARVEY, LESLIE OSWALD, A. HIDELL, A. J. HIDELL, ALEK J. HIDELL, ALEK JAMES HIDELL, or O. H. LEE.

Mrs. FISCHER advised that according to Mrs. LAYFIELD the second young man in the group was informed they had no openings for a bellman but the hotel did have an opening for a helper in the hotel employees' cafeteria. He accepted that position and began his employment on November 1, 1963. Mrs. LAYFIELD identified the young man as JAMES MURPHY.

Mrs. FISCHER made available the application of MURPHY, whom she had interviewed on two occasions, which reflected the following information (additional description of MURPHY as furnished by Mrs. FISCHER appears in parentheses below):

Name	JAMES MURPHY
Address	1715 Canton Street, Dallas, Texas
Social Security No.	488-42-7335
Date of Birth	June 16, 1936
Place of Birth	Kosciusko, Mississippi
Sex	Male
Race	White
U. S. Citizen	Yes
Height	5'10"
Weight	140 lbs.
Hair	Blond (dishwater blond)
Eyes	Gray (gray or blue)
Marital Status	Single
(Characteristics:	Teeth stained; chain smoker, brand unknown; penetrating star while talking)
Who recommended you for work with us?	Nobody
Emergency Address other than your own:	Sister - JEAN MURPHY, 1309 Bourbon Street, New Orleans, Louisiana

Other training, trade, special skills:	Bellhop, writer
Physical defects:	None
Past employment:	As reflected on application and Permanent Record card made available by Mrs. FISCHER: Haskell Drive In, Haskell Avenue, Dallas, Texas, 1/61 to 10/61, kitchen helper. Reason left--not enough pay. Olan Mills Studio, Chattanooga, Tennessee, 10/60 to 2/61, salesman. Reason for leaving--company folded. Hollywood Beach Hotel, Hollywood, Florida, 11/61 to 12/61, bellhop. Reason for leaving--seasonal work. Jefferson Davis Hotel, Nashville, Tennessee, 1960-1961, bellman. Reason for leaving--more money.

Mrs. FISCHER made available the Permanent Record card for MURPHY which reflected the following additional information:

Insurance beneficiary:	Sister--JEAN MURPHY, 1309 Bourbon Street, New Orleans, Louisiana
Education:	11th grade
Military service:	None indicated
Have you ever been arrested?	No
What languages other than English do you speak?	None
What office machines can you operate?	None
Number of dependents:	None

Mrs. FISCHER recalls JAMES MURPHY personally because after being employed here for about one week, he came to see her and requested an advance on his salary. His first pay check was due on November 21, 1963. He informed Mrs. FISCHER he had been "kicked out" of the Salvation Army at 800 Browder Street, Dallas, after five days and had to find a room elsewhere. He said he had been in a rented room for a week and had to pay his rent or leave.

She related that she did not see MURPHY again until November 26, 1963, when he came to her and submitted his resignation. He informed Mrs. FISCHER that he was "shaken up" over the President's death and was going to New Orleans, Louisiana, to live with his sister. Mrs. FISCHER said she noted the above information on an "exit interview card", which is a part of MURPHY's file.

Mrs. FISCHER said when MURPHY mentioned he was going to New Orleans she looked up at him with somewhat of a surprised look, after which he immediately stood up and shouted he did not know OSWALD. Mrs. FISCHER said she never mentioned OSWALD to him.

A "Past Work Record" reflected MURPHY was employed on the 6:00 AM to 3:00 PM shift, six days a week, beginning November 1, 1963. Mrs. FISCHER ascertained from MURPHY's supervisor that his scheduledoff day each week was Monday and that although he was on the 6:00 AM to 3:00 PM shift, his shift could change, depending on the need, to the 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM or 12:00 Noon to 9:00 PM shift.

Mrs. FISCHER ascertained from the payroll office that on Friday, November 22, 1963, MURPHY checked in for work at 9:23 AM and checked out at 8:50 PM. A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD taken on August 9, 1963, was exhibited to Mrs. FISCHER, and she said she had never seen him in the personnel office at the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

Mrs. LAURA LAYFIELD, hostess, Court Club, Statler-Hilton Hotel, 1914 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, who resides at 1810 Mosier Street, Dallas, telephone TA 7-7877, advised as follows:

She was employed as a receptionist in the personnel office, Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, until recently. On October 31, 1963, while she was in the personnel office, three young men entered. She does not recall the exact time the men entered but stated, "It was lunchtime", since the other employees had gone to lunch. Mrs. LAYFIELD said her lunch hour was 11:30 AM to 12:30 PM and she believes the three men came into the personnel office shortly after 12:30 PM. She added she was the only employee present at the time but two or three unknown applicants were in the personnel office when the men entered.

Two of the men requested applications for employment as bellmen while the third man waited on the other two. She added the three men appeared to be acquaintances.

After completing their applications, she checked the applications for completeness and accuracy. One of the young men hand printed his application, and she seems to recall the name (FNU) OSWALD appeared on the name line of the application. She said she recalls this young man in particular because he indicated on his application that he spoke Russian and it appeared somewhat unusual in Dallas for a bellman applicant to speak Russian. She also believes the young man indicated on his application (or she learned through conversation with him) that he completed the tenth grade; he was married, with two children, one being two weeks old; and he listed three prior employments, all as a printer or printer's helper.

She seems to recall two of the employments were in Dallas, Texas, and one in New Orleans, Louisiana. She was unable to recall his former employers but believed he indicated his lengths of employment as one and one-half years, one year and six months. She also believes he listed a Fort Worth address on his application and that he had been in military service. During their conversation he mentioned he had been in the Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas, area for three or four years.

Mrs. LAYFIELD said she asked the young man where he learned to speak the Russian language, and he became very angry, shouting it was none of her business. He did state, however, he was married to a Russian girl. The young man said nothing further and left in a state of anger.

She stated that the two men accompanying the above young man left with him, but one of the young men, whom she identified as JAMES MURPHY, returned later that day and was hired as a helper in the hotel employees' cafeteria.

Mrs. LAYFIELD estimated that the above three men were in the personnel office from fifteen to twenty minutes.

Mrs. LAYFIELD believed she read in a local newspaper, after President KENNEDY was assassinated, that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been employed at the Texas Book Depository in Dallas for about two months and OSWALD would have been employed at the depository on October 31, 1963, the day that the above young man was in her office. She opined, however, that if the above young man was OSWALD, that OSWALD could have walked from the Texas Book Depository Building to the Statler-Hilton Hotel or used some means of transportation, on his lunch hour, completed his application and returned to his employment there.

(It is to be noted that the Texas Book Depository Building in Dallas is fourteen blocks from the Statler-Hilton Hotel.)

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD dated August 9, 1963, was exhibited to Mrs. LAYFIELD, and she stated the above individual closely resembles OSWALD.

She said she checked the personnel office but was unable to locate the application executed by the above person. She seems to recall noting on the application in writing that the person interviewed was "very angry" or some similar wording. However, she also seems to recall that this person may have grabbed the application from her hands at the time and tore it up.

She described the person interviewed by her on October 31, 1963, as follows:

Name	Unknown, but possibly (FNU) OSWALD
Sex	Male
Race	White
Age	About 30
Height	5'8" to 5'10"
Weight	140 to 150 lbs.
Hair	Medium brown or sandy, medium length, slightly receding hairline
Eyes	Unknown
Build	Slender
Scars and Marks	None noticeable
Characteristics	Deep voice; no Southern accent; stared at person while talking

She described the third man, who said nothing and waited on the other two to complete their applications, as follows:

Name	Unknown
Sex	Male
Race	White
Age	About 19 years
Height	5'10"
Weight	180 lbs.
Build	Stocky
Hair	Dark, straight
Eyes	Unknown
Complexion	Dark
Scars and Marks	None noticed
Characteristics	None noticed

Mrs. LAYFIELD also advised she is acquainted with JACK RUBY and advised as follows:

In approximately the spring of 1960 she noticed an ad in a local Dallas newspaper placed by RUBY, who desired a young woman to work in his club. To the best of her recollection, the ad called for a young woman to manage or serve as a hostess at a night club.

She called about the ad and JACK RUBY answered. After conversing with RUBY for a few minutes, RUBY insisted on interviewing Mrs. LAYFIELD at her residence. When RUBY arrived, and after talking with him for a short time, he informed her he would like to hire Mrs. LAYFIELD to manage his waitresses at the Carousel

Club in Dallas. At the same time, RUBY offered to go into the night club business with Mrs. LAYFIELD. She informed RUBY that she "did not need money that bad". Mrs. LAYFIELD declined to explain what she meant by her answer to RUBY that she "did not need the money that bad". She did state that she has no personal knowledge that RUBY was ever engaged in prostitution, narcotics, or gambling.

Mrs. LAYFIELD stated she did not like RUBY's "approach" and refused his offer for employment and his offer as a business partner.

The next time she saw RUBY was in October 1960 when she was passing the Dallas County District Attorney's office in Dallas. RUBY came up to her and asked her to go to the fair with him. She refused.

Several months later she went to the Carousel Club with a friend, and RUBY greeted her. She did not see RUBY again until about four months ago, when she went to his Vegas Club in Dallas with friends and he spoke to her.

She related that the above have been the only contacts with RUBY and she has never dated him. She knew nothing about his personal life. She said RUBY never mentioned the names of any Dallas police officers and he never indicated he had friends on the Dallas Police Department.

Mrs. LAYFIELD said she knew of no association between RUBY and OSWALD.

RAY RANDUK, counselor, JOBCO Employment Agency, 612 Adolphus Tower, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

L. T. RANDUK

On October 4, 1963, an individual using the name LEE H. OSWALD, Social Security Number 433-54-3937, appeared at the JOBCO Office and filled out an application for employment on that date. RANDUK recalled that OSWALD mentioned he had been in the Marine Corps and also indicated he did not have a car.

OSWALD appeared at the JOBCO Office again on October 10, 1963, and RANDUK referred him to the DeVilbiss Company on Irving Boulevard, Dallas. He had an appointment to be interviewed by JIM FRIEL at 1:30 PM, but FRIEL did not hire OSWALD.

RANDUK examined a photograph of OSWALD but stated he cannot say that this is or is not the LEE H. OSWALD whom he interviewed. He stated that he has interviewed so many persons since that time that he has no clear recollection of what OSWALD looks like.

RANDUK made available the application which he stated was filled out by LEE H. OSWALD and signed by OSWALD on the back. RANDUK also identified his signature below OSWALD's signature.

This application contains the following information:

LEE H. OSWALD, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, home telephone BL 3-1628, wife, MARINA, in an unemployed status, desired a job as a commercial photographer and specified a desired rate of $1.50 per hour. He indicated he rented, had one child 20 months old, cared for by his wife, had been in the area 15 years and did not have an automobile.

OSWALD indicated he was 23 years old, born October 18, 1939, 5'9" tall, 140 pounds, and was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps, serving from October, 1959, to October, 1962. He listed his rating as Sergeant and his draft classification as IV-5. He indicated his nationality as "U.S." and his church affiliation as "Luth." He also indicated he had been referred to JOBCO from a newspaper ad.

OSWALD listed his preferences for work as (1) commercial photographer, printing company (2) clerk (3) mail clerk. He indicated the monthly salary he expected as $275.00 and the minimum he would take as $250.00. He indicated he had never been bonded, that he would not consider a business investment, that he would not relocate, he would not travel, and had no physical defects.

OSWALD listed his education as "RigLeia West" Grade School, Arlington Heights High School, graduating in 1958, and he put the notation "radar oper." opposite technical or trade schools.

He listed his job experience as follows: From "May, 1963, to September, 1962" (possibly meant to be 1963), Louv-R-Pak Company, 210 N. E. Vacek Street, Fort Worth, Texas, employed as a clerk at $1.35 an hour, Supervisor TOM LOPEZ, reason for leaving "seasonal work".

From "October, 1962, to May, 1963", Jaggers - Chiles - Stoval_, 522 Browder Street, Dallas, as a photographer, at $1.50 an hour, under JOHN GRIEVES. OSWALD indicated that their business was "typograpy", and he left because of a "cut in work force". He indicated previous to that he was in the United States Marine Corps but did not list the dates on that part of the application.

In a block where the applicant is instructed to designate skills in which he has had training, the following items were checked: adding machine, mimeo-graph, file clerk and layout.

On the reverse side of the application in a space for character references, OSWALD listed ELENA HALL, 4760 Trail Lane Drive, telephone WA G-3741, and closest friend as GEORGE DE MORENSCHILDT, 6628 Dickens, telephone EN 3-1365. On the reverse side OSWALD also signed his name as LEE H. OSWALD, date October 4, 1963, and listed his Social Security Number as 433-54-3937.

Mr. RANDUK identified his own signature below the Social Security Number of OSWALD and also pointed out a notation made by RANDUK reading "Airheart Print Co.", which he stated indicated that OSWALD told him he had already applied for a job with that company. RANDUK advised that he has checked the telephone and city directories for Dallas without being able to locate any such printing company. He does not recall if OSWALD told him where this company was located.

RANDUK also pointed out notations made by him on the front of the application in the right lower corner which indicated that from his conversation with OSWALD, OSWALD indicated that he had experience in photo art layout, dark room work and commercial development.

R. H. SCHAEFER, Regional Sales Manager, the DeVilbiss Company, 2508 Irving Boulevard, advised that he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and did not have any contact with him. He made available an undated interview record for LEE HARVEY OSWALD to which is stapled at the top a card reading "Jobco proudly introduces LEE OSWALD". On the inside of this card it reads to Mr. FRIEL, DeVilbiss Company, 2506 Irving, introducing LEE OSWALD, position shipping and receiving clerk, date October 10, time 1:30 PM, signed R. RANDUK, Counselor.

The interview record contained the following information:

LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Social Security Number 433-54-3937, address 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, telephone BL 3-1628, a citizen of the United States, married to MARINA OSWALD, is the individual filling out this form.

OSWALD indicated that he rents, does not own an automobile, has no physical handicaps or disabilities and has never been employed by the DeVilbiss Company. He indicates that the last physician he contacted was "service physician" and describes himself as age 23, born October 18, 1939, height 5'9", weight 140, brown hair, gray eyes. He lists two dependents and indicates he can accept a position immediately.

Under education OSWALD indicates he attended "Rigley" West Grade School for nine years and Arlington Heights High School for three years taking general courses in both schools. Opposite questions as to what foreign languages he speaks and reads he placed a dash. Also opposite listing for hobbies he listed a dash. He indicated military service for the United States from 1959 to 1962 and lists his wife at the same address as shown for him as the person to contact in case of an emergency.

Under previous employment record OSWALD lists the following:

1. Leav-R-Pak, April to September, as a stock clerk under supervision of TOM GOMEZ at rate of $1.50 per hour doing stock inventory.

He does not give a year for this employment and gives the address of the company as 201 N.E. Vacek Street, Fort Worth, Texas.

2. Jaggars-Chiles-Stoval, October to April (no year listed), photographer under supervision of JOHN GRIEVES at $1.50 per hour. He lists the address of this company as 522 Browder Street, Dallas, Texas, and indicates his reason for leaving was "out in work forces".

3. Military service, without specifying branch or dates.

OSWALD indicates that he has never been discharged (apparently referring to being discharged by an employer).

Under personal references OSWALD listed the following:

1. Mr. R. PAINE, 2517 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, a housewife known to him for one year.

2. Mr. M. BLEDSOE, Retired, 621 Marsalis Street, Dallas, Texas, known one year.

3. GEORGE DE MORENSCHILT, 602 Dickens Street, Dallas, Texas, an engineer known to him one year.

TENTATIVE

JAMES FRIEL, the DeVilbiss Company, 2508 Irving Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, residence 113 South Gloucester, Irving, Texas, telephone BL 5-6456, furnished the following information:

LEE HARVEY OSWALD was referred to DeVilbiss by Jobco, an employment agency, and was interviewed by FRIEL on October 10, 1963, in connection with his application for a job as shipping clerk. OSWALD filled out an interview record on the premises of DeVilbiss and this interview record is in the files of DeVilbiss undated. FRIEL states that he knows the interview record was filled out on October 10, 1963, because this was the same date that he interviewed BARNHILL MARION STANLEY, whom he actually hired for the position that OSWALD was applying for.

FRIEL advised that OSWALD filled out everything on the interview record with the exception of the name of his wife "MARINA" whose first name OSWALD had failed to list. FRIEL filled this in on the interview record after LEE HARVEY OSWALD told him his wife's name.

FRIEL advised that OSWALD was shabbily dressed and he was not impressed by him and did not consider him seriously for the job at any time. He stated that he is unable to definitely identify LEE HARVEY OSWALD by photograph as being at the office on October 10, 1963. He explained that there were at least five men who appeared on that date and who were interviewed by him for the job. Therefore, he is unable to recall definitely the identity of LEE HARVEY OSWALD but can identify the interview record as being that of the person interviewed by him.

Mrs. WILLIAM V. (ROBERTA) PARKER was interviewed at the Gregg Publishing Company, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, and furnished the following information:

She resides at 5916 Ellsworth, Dallas. Her husband is employed by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. Mrs. PARKER on November 22, 1963, left the offices of the Gregg Publishing Company and walked across the street to a small park from which vantage point she observed the Presidential Motorcade. With her at the time were DELORES KOUNAS and LLOYD R. VILES, also employees of the Gregg Publishing Company. She noted that 411 Elm Street is the address for the Texas School Book Depository building. The car in which President KENNEDY, Governor CONNALLY and their wives were riding had passed Mrs. PARKER only a short distance when she heard what she thought was a shot. From her location, she was unable to see whether the shot had hit anyone in the Presidential car. The shot sounded to her as though it had come from a cement memorial building to the north of the Texas School Book Depository on Elm Street. She looked in that direction but saw nothing that she could relate to the shot. During this time, she heard two additional shots and in looking around, glanced at the Texas School Book Depository building which was directly across Elm from her. She noted that a number of windows were open on the fifth and sixth floors of the building, but saw no one standing in any of those windows.

On seeing the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the newspapers, she believed she recognized him as an individual she had seen on one occasion in the lunch room at the building. She did not talk to him at this time and noted that he was by himself on that occasion. She has had no contact with OSWALD and does not know him.

She advised that she has seen photographs in the news media of JACK RUBY, but to her knowledge has never seen him and knows of no connection he might have with OSWALD.

R. L. ADAMS, Interviewer, Texas Employment Commission (TEC), Dallas, Texas, on December 2, 1963, advised SA BARDWELL D. ODUM that a Mr. HAMILTON, Office Manager, Al Semtner Drug Depot, 2600 block South Central Expressway, called him today mentioning that OSWALD had come to see him about a job, but that he was not impressed.

ADAMS stated that he does not recall referring OSWALD to HAMILTON, but that HAMILTON indicated that he believed OSWALD had been sent by the Texas Employment Commission. ADAMS advised TEC records do not show any referral of OSWALD to the Al Semtner Drug Depot.

Mr. OLIN BENJAMIN HAMILTON, Route 2, Parker Road, Plano, Texas (telephone 995-3444), Treasurer and Production Manager for the AL SEMTNER Drug Depot, 2416 South Central Expressway, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed concerning a report that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had come to see him about a job but had not been hired.

Mr. HAMILTON advised that on Monday, September 23, 1963, he had made a request of the Texas Employment Commission for referral of possible job applicants for the position of warehouseman, and numbers had reported for purpose of making application. After the assassination of President KENNEDY and the appearance of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television, HAMILTON stated that he recognized the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as that of an individual who had applied for employment with the company during this period, though he stated he was unable to identify photograph of OSWALD as being one that had applied.

Mr. HAMILTON described the individual whom he recalled as LEE HARVEY OSWALD as follows: white, male, American, age 27, height 5' 7" to 5' 8", slender build, dark hair. He stated that he was wearing a suit and presented a fairly good appearance. This individual stated that he had been in the U. S. Marines. Mr. HAMILTON stated the pay for warehousemen at the firm is $1.35 per hour. This individual stated that he wouldn't take less than $1.50 per hour as he had a wife and two children to support. He failed to make a good impression with Mr. HAMILTON who described this individual's manner as arrogant and not friendly. He said that he felt he would not mix with the other boys in the warehouse.

Mr. HAMILTON feels with some certainty that the name of the person so applying was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that he had destroyed the employment application which OSWALD had prepared.

Mr. HAMILTON was unable to supply any other information of pertinence.

Personnel at Military Personnel Records Center, St. Louis, Missouri, made available the record for JOHN RENE HEINDEL, Serial Number 1543855, which indicated he enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps on January 27, 1956, and entered on active duty February 15, 1956, at New Orleans, Louisiana. He was honorably released from active duty August 14, 1956, as a Private at Jacksonville, Florida, and transferred to the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve.

HEINDEL served in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve from August 15, 1956, to July 15, 1957, at which time he was honorably discharged to re-enlist.

HEINDEL re-enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps on July 16, 1957, and entered on active duty the same date at New Orleans, Louisiana. He was honorably released from active duty July 14, 1961, as a Corporal at New Orleans, Louisiana, and transferred to the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve.

HEINDEL served in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve from July 15, 1961, to January 28, 1962, at which time he received an honorable discharge due to expiration of enlistment.

HEINDEL was reduced to the next inferior rank on June 23, 1961, in that he did wrongfully appear at main gate without cover on. The reduction was suspended one month unless sooner vacated.

HEINDEL's record contained a recommendation for undesirable discharge dated January 7, 1957, for fraudulent enlistment - failed to reveal he was married at time of enlistment. This recommendation was waived and he was retained in the U. S. Marine Corps.

He was awarded the Good Conduct Medal and the China Service Medal.

HEINDEL's address was listed as 806 Belleville Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

The following relatives were listed for HEINDEL:

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

She stated that immediately prior to early November, 1962, her husband, LEE OSWALD, had been residing in the YMCA in Dallas, Texas. She was residing in Fort Worth. She recalls she had a dental appointment in Dallas and Mr. GARY TAYLOR, the then son-in-law of Mr. GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, picked her up in Fort Worth in his car and took her to her dental appointment. While she was at the dentist's, another appointment was made, and Mrs. TAYLOR requested that MARINA stay with the TAYLORs until the next dental appointment, which was three or four days away. She said she lived with the TAYLORs for a few days and that LEE OSWALD had visited her at the TAYLOR house, although he did not sleep there. He continued to stay at the YMCA. She said she cannot recall the address of the TAYLOR house, but LEE OSWALD had it in his telephone book. She said the first place that she and OSWALD had a place together in Dallas after this was when they lived on Elsbeth Street. They moved into the Elsbeth Street address in Dallas in early November, 1962.

(NEE) T. QUARLES

MARY ANN STUDDARD, Secretary, American Life Insurance Company, Life Building, Dallas, was advised of the identity of the interviewers as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. She furnished the following information:

MRS.

For approximately two or three months around the first part of 1961 she and her former husband, DYAL CUERIN QUARLES, lived in an apartment house at 612 Hurley Street, Fort Worth, Texas. Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD lived in an upstairs apartment at the same address. While the QUARLESes lived at this address, Mrs. OSWALD moved away saying she was going to work in Wichita Falls, Texas. She had previously been employed in Fort Worth for a cleaning establishment close to the Hurley Street address.

Miss STUDDARD recalled that while Mrs. OSWALD lived at 612 Hurley, Miss STUDDARD's sister, PAULA, came to visit the QUARLESes for a short period of time.

Miss STUDDARD recalled that while residing at 612 Hurley, Mrs. OSWALD had told the QUARLESes that she had a son whom she had not heard from for about six months concerning whom she was quite worried, stating that she did not know where he was but believed he was in Russia. On one occasion Mrs. OSWALD expressed concern that possibly her son had been killed.

Miss STUDDARD stated that she and her husband visited Mrs. OSWALD infrequently and Mrs. OSWALD on occasion returned the visits. Mrs. OSWALD never had any other company to Miss STUDDARD's knowledge.

Miss STUDDARD recalled that the man who owned the apartment house at 612 Hurley ran a jewelry store on Eighth Avenue, Fort Worth, in the close vicinity of Hurley Street.

Miss STUDDARD believes that Mrs. OSWALD resided at this address for approximately one month before she moved

PAULA STUDDARD, Receptionist, Belden Associates, Suite 3000, Southland Life Building, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

In May and June, 1961, PAULA STUDDARD visited her sister, the then Mrs. DIAL CURRIN QUARLES, at the QUARLESes residence, 612 Hurley Street, Fort Worth, Texas. During this period, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD resided in an upstairs apartment at the same address. Mrs. OSWALD would occasionally drop down and visit the QUARLESes and in this way Miss STUDDARD became acquainted with her.

On one occasion, Mrs. OSWALD mentioned that she had a son whom she had not heard from since 1959, stating that she did not know whether her son, who Miss STUDDARD believes was LEE OSWALD, was alive or dead. Mrs. OSWALD advised that she thought LEE was in Russia.

Mrs. OSWALD also stated that she had another son, who was living in Fort Worth, Texas.

During the time that she lived at 612 Hurley, Fort Worth, Mrs. OSWALD was employed in a cleaning establishment nearby. During the period that PAULA STUDDARD was staying with her sister and brother-in-law on Hurley Street, Mrs. OSWALD left this address stating that she was going to Wichita Falls, Texas, to be a companion to a woman in that city.

PAULA STUDDARD could not recall whether Mrs. OSWALD had a car at this time and she further could not recall if Mrs. OSWALD had any associates or acquaintances who visited her.

DYAL CURRIN QUARLES was advised of the identity of the interviewers as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He furnished the following information:

In the latter part of 1960 or early 1961 when he was residing in the vicinity of Eighth and Hurley Streets, Fort Worth, Texas, with his then wife MARY ANN, he was acquainted with Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, who resided in the same apartment building in an upstairs apartment.

QUARLES stated that although he could not recall the exact address of this apartment building he did recall that it was in a building with three apartments, two downstairs, and one upstairs. The landlord was an individual who operated a combination jewelry and antique store, as well as a watch repair shop located in a shopping center in the close proximity of the apartment building. QUARLES could not recall the name of this man.

Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD visited in QUARLES' apartment from time to time and QUARLES and his wife returned the visits to Mrs. OSWALD's apartment occasionally. QUARLES recalled that Mrs. OSWALD worked in a dry cleaning establishment nearby on Eighth Avenue where she was employed as a seamstress and also waited on customers.

Mrs. OSWALD advised QUARLES that she had a son named LEE who had gone to Russia approximately six months before and whom she had not heard from for some time. Mrs. OSWALD frequently referred to her son LEE, stating that the United States officials in Washington, D. C., with whom she had been in touch knew more about her son's location than she did. She indicated that she had contacted the United States State Department and a Congressman, however, they would tell her nothing concerning her son's residence in Russia. QUARLES recalled that he asked Mrs. OSWALD why her son went to Russia and she replied that she did not know why he had gone.

Mrs. OSWALD on one occasion advised QUARLES that she had two other sons in addition to LEE, one of whom QUARLES believes was in the U. S. Army at the time.

QUARLES recalled that during the time that Mrs. OSWALD resided in the upstairs apartment at the address in Fort Worth, she was visited from time to time by an individual who was unknown to QUARLES, however, who was described by QUARLES as being a white male in his early 40's, dark complexion, and usually wearing dark glasses and a hat. He was dressed neatly to QUARLES' best recollection. Mrs. OSWALD advised QUARLES that this individual was her boyfriend.

On one occasion Mrs. OSWALD came to QUARLES' apartment to ask QUARLES if he would give her some advice relative to her dismissal from the dry cleaning establishment where she had been fired. She asked QUARLES if he would accompany her to this dry cleaning establishment, with which request QUARLES complied. On this occasion, Mrs. OSWALD went to the dry cleaning establishment and engaged in a bitter argument with the owner of the dry cleaning establishment relative to her dismissal.

Mrs. OSWALD moved from the apartment building advising QUARLES and his wife that she was going to West Texas to obtain work as a maid or cook with a wealthy family. QUARLES did not know the name of the city where she went to live. He recalled that at the time he knew her, she was driving a 1954 Buick and he believes she drove this car when she moved out of the upstairs apartment.

During the time that QUARLES knew Mrs. OSWALD she informed him she had previously resided in Louisiana and that she had lived some time in New Orleans. She also indicated that she had moved around from city to city in the United States quite a lot.

Following is a description of QUARLES as obtained through observation and interview:

Mrs. JAMES L. TAYLOR, 4936 Collinswood, stated that she is the managr of the apartment building at that address. She ptated that according to her records, she rented the upper west apartment at that address on July 1, 1956 to Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD. Mrs. OSWALD was accompanied by her two sons, LEE and ROBERT. Mrs. OSWALD was in the act of moving to Fort Worth from New Orleans, Louisiana. Mrs. OSWALD remained in this apartment until June 1, 1957. At the time she departed from the apartment, she owed Mrs. TAYLOR $6.60 for utility bills. Mrs. OSWALD moved to 1031 West 5th Street in Fort Worth. Mrs. TAYLOR contacted Mrs. OSWALD at that address on two or three occasions, and Mrs. OSWALD refused to pay the utility bills.

Mrs. TAYLOR stated that a few weeks after the OSWALDs moved into the apartment, ROBERT married and moved away from this address. She stated that LEE was 16 years of age and about three months after they moved into the apartment, he became 17 and at that time he quit school and enlisted in the United States Marines. He was attending Arlington Heights High School at the time he quit school. She stated that she never did see LEE OSWALD after he enlisted in the United States Marines. She also stated that she has never seen Mrs. OSWALD or ROBERT since the mother moved out of this apartment on June 1, 1957.

During the time Mrs. OSWALD resided at her apartment, Mrs. OSWALD was engaged in selling ladies' hose in a shoe store in Fort Worth. She stated the store was Paul's Shoe Store. On one occasion, Mrs. OSWALD told her that she had been fired from a job because she refused to do some chore which the manager requested.

Mr. HIRAM CONWAY, 7420 Ewing, Fort Worth, Texas, advised he has resided at the above address since October, 1948, and recalls Mrs. OSWALD and her three boys moving into the residence at 7408 Ewing during summer of 1949.

Mr. CONWAY stated LEE OSWALD's brother, ROBERT, and his half-brother, JOHN PIC, were real fine young men but LEE OSWALD was very vicious and high tempered. Although LEE generally kept to himself, he on several occasions started fights with neighborhood children. The fights usually resulted from his failure to win at a game or his failure to get his own way. Mr. CONWAY stated he felt LEE OSWALD to be a highly emotional child ~~that~~ who could not control himself.

Mr. CONWAY further stated that the OSWALDs moved to New York City in the summer of 1952. JOHN PIC, half-brother of LEE OSWALD, had joined the Coast Guard and was stationed in New York and it was Mrs. OSWALD's desire to move to that city in order that they might be near JOHN.

Mrs. W. H. BELL, 100 San Saba, on December 11, 1963, stated that Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, a widow, and her three sons lived across the street from her in the house at 101 San Saba. She stated that she recalled Mrs. OSWALD lived at 101 San Saba for about three months during the summer of 1948. Mrs. OSWALD was a practical nurse. Mrs. OSWALD was continually complaining that she was very poor, she was very talkative and was continually talking about her family and stating that society was against her and how hard it was for a widow to provide for a family.

She stated that LEE was the youngest of the three boys and at that time, she noted that he was a boy who liked to be alone and as she recalled, he was a boy who did not like to be disciplined. She stated that the two older brothers appeared to be of a different personality and seemed to get along better with the other children than did LEE.

She stated that this is about all the information she remembers concerning the OSWALD family, and that she has never seen or heard of them after they moved away up until the time the assassination took place in Dallas.

Mrs. EDWIN ENOCHS, 4936 Collinswood, stated that she lived in the adjoining apartment to the one occupied by Mrs. OSWALD and her two sons. Mrs. ENOCHS stated that LEE OSWALD was a lone wolf type individual just like his mother, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD. She stated that LEE remained in the apartment practically all the time and was constantly reading books and when he was not reading, he was playing with a bird, a parakeet, which he owned. She stated that ROBERT was only in the apartment for a very short time before getting married and after he was married, he moved away. She stated that Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD in her opinion had a persecution complex against society in general.

She explained that Mrs. OSWALD was constantly complaining that everyone was against her and that her employers were not fair to her. Mrs. OSWALD told her that she had been fired from two jobs while she was residing in the apartment. Mrs. ENOCHS stated that as she recalls, LEE never played with any other boys and so far as she recalls, only one boy came by to see him on one occasion. This is the only time she remembers seeing anyone in company with LEE.

Capt. O. A. JONES, Forgery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed concerning the previously reported information of Mrs. EARLENE ROBERTS, 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, to the effect that about 1:00 p.m., November 22, 1963, LEE HARVEY OSWALD entered his room at said residence. She looked out the front window of said residence about this time and saw police car #207 with two uniformed policemen in the car which slowed up and stopped in front of said residence. One of the officers blew the horn on the car and then drove slowly on Beckley toward Zangs.

Capt. JONES stated he was supervising an investigation being conducted by the Dallas Police Department concerning various aspects of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 22, 1963. Capt. JONES stated it had been determined that on November 22, 1963, Dallas Police Officer J. M. VALENTINE was driving police car #207. Capt. JONES stated Officer VALENTINE was interviewed and advised that on November 22, 1963, he was in the Juvenile Bureau, Dallas Police Department, when he was informed of the shooting of President KENNEDY. VALENTINE stated he left the Juvenile Bureau immediately and went to the Texas School Book Depository Building and assisted in the search of said building. VALENTINE advised that during this period he turned the keys to police car #207 over to Sgt. J. M. PUTNAM, who was at the Texas School Book Depository Building. Capt. JONES added that Officer VALENTINE further stated that he did not drive to the Oak Cliff area in police car #207 on November 22, 1963.

Capt. JONES advised further that Sgt. J. M. PUTNAM had been interviewed and stated upon receiving the keys for police car #207 from Officer J. M. VALENTINE at the Texas School Book Depository building on November 22, 1963, he, PUTNAM, kept said keys in his pocket, and police

JAMES DOUGLAS WATSON, age 19, date of birth July 2, 1944, was interviewed at the Campbell Soup Company plant site, Paris, Texas, by SA DEL D. DRAKE, JR., and prior to interview was advised of the identity of SA DRAKE. WATSON stated he resided at 1026 Beckley, Dallas, Texas, for about one week "early in November, 1963," and that he rented room 17 or 18 at that address. He thought his landlady was named JOHNSON and that his weekly rent was either $7.00 or $8.00.

WATSON claimed that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, unknown to him by name until he saw OSWALD's picture on television, resided in a small room off the hall going from the living room to the kitchen. He stated he had on one occasion asked OSWALD if he wanted to go out to supper with him, and OSWALD did not even reply. He thought that on one occasion he saw OSWALD having coffee at a restaurant, but he was not certain. WATSON said if he did, it would have had to be the restaurant at the Clifton Hotel, the Beckley Cafe, or the El Fenix as these were the only restaurants WATSON frequented while residing on Beckley.

WATSON said he never saw OSWALD talk to anyone at the rooming house, but on occasion OSWALD would be in the "television room" and if anyone else came in, OSWALD would return to his room. OSWALD was usually dressed in white or light trousers, a T-shirt, or a sweater. Outside of this, WATSON claimed he could furnish no information about OSWALD because OSWALD actually never talked to him and WATSON never saw him talk with anyone at the rooming house.

WATSON stated he is now residing at 1227 Woodlawn, Apartment 3, and can always be reached through Trinity Floor Covering Company, Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. LUELLA MERRETT, 3436 Indale Road, Fort Worth, advised she is currently principal of the Ridglea West Elementary School and was working in that capacity during period of time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was in attendance at that school. Mrs. MERRETT furnished the following information from available records:

LEE OSWALD, 7408 Ewing, Fort Worth, Texas, was born October 18, 1939. Parents were listed as Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD - mother, and EDWIN EKDAHL - step-father. Mrs. MERRETT advised LEE OSWALD entered the Lily B. Clayton School, Fort Worth, Texas, as a first grade student on January 27, 1947, while residing at 1505 Eighth Avenue, and was passed to the second grade at the conclusion of the school year on May 30, 1947. Mrs. MERRETT advised the records do not indicate where LEE OSWALD attended the second grade. OSWALD completed his third year of elementary school while in attendance at Arlington Heights Elementary School, Fort Worth, during period September 8, 1948, through June 3, 1949. OSWALD entered Ridglea West Elementary School on September 7, 1949, while residing at 7408 Ewing, and completed the fourth, fifth and sixth grades at that school. He completed the sixth grade on May 29, 1952.

Mrs. MERRETT stated OSWALD made average grades, was not absent excessively and was not a disciplinary problem. She recalls he had a difficult time with spelling and found it difficult to communicate with others. OSWALD had an IQ of 103 with such being based on tests administered January 16, 1950.

Mr. JACK BASS, Principal, George Clark Elementary School, Fort Worth, Texas, stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD transferred to his school from Lily B. Clayton Elementary School in Fort Worth on March 19, 1948. At that time, LEE was in the second grade and according to his records, had attended the first grade and the second grade up to that point at the Lily B. Clayton School. LEE HARVEY attended his school until June 2, 1948, at which time he was promoted from the second grade to the third grade. He listed his father as EDWIN EKDALL. The records reflected that LEE resided with his mother and stepfather at 3300 Willing, and had previously lived at 1505 8th Avenue.

The records reflected that he made a failing grade in spelling and made below average in reading. The rest of his courses were average with the exception of citizenship, which was below average. Mr. BASS stated that in the first three grades of school, the two most important courses are spelling and reading. He stated this was the only record on LEE HARVEY OSWALD, that he had.

1 Date 12/19/63

Mrs. HOWARD L. GREEN, 7316 Oakland Lane, telephone number BU 1-3216, telephonically advised that she was LEE HARVEY OSWALD's instructor for about one year when OSWALD was in the sixth grade at the West Ridglea Elementary School in Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. GREEN stated she had called because she recalled seeing OSWALD's picture in the "Fort Worth Star Telegram", she believed in the Summer of 1962. She stated she desired to make this known to the FBI if they had not checked the old editions of the "Fort Worth Star Telegram."

Mrs. GREEN stated also that she had been contacted by a representative of the "New York Times" and also of the "Fort Worth Press", and she had told them what little she recalled about LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mrs. GREEN stated she had given a sixth grade class picture to "Life" magazine which group picture included a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. GREEN stated that she had tried to recall all she could about LEE OSWALD, but was unable to recall specific instances about LEE OSWALD. She stated that her recollection was that he was not above average intelligence and did not show that he had too much interest in learning in the sixth grade. Mrs. GREEN stated that she has some recollection of OSWALD associating with another boy in the sixth grade and that this boy actually was more trouble than OSWALD but she could not recall his name at this time.

Confidential Informant Dallas T-16 advised that it is his recollection that during 1959 or 1960, MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, sent $50 to $100 to Russia for her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Dallas T-16 said that their procedure is that a payment order was to have been issued to the Chase Manhattan Bank in New York City to transfer these funds to Russia. Dallas T-16 said he cannot locate any bank records for this transaction since these type records have been destroyed. Further, he does not recall any information being received from another bank about such a transaction.

LESTER STROTHER, Public Relations Officer, Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, 700 Throckmorton, advised that for several years before going to work for the Chamber of Commerce, he had been employed as a news reporter for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. STROTHER said that he had been working on the Star-Telegram in 1959 when the story broke that LEE OSWALD, of Fort Worth, had defected to Russia. STROTHER said he was given the assignment by his city editor to interview members of the OSWALD family. He first contacted ROBERT L. OSWALD, brother of LEE OSWALD. ROBERT L. OSWALD was then employed as a milk salesman in Fort Worth. The name of the company is unrecalled by STROTHER. He lived in a small frame house with his wife and one or two children, and STROTHER did not recall this address. The main recollection he had of ROBERT L. OSWALD from this interview was that he seemed stunned that his brother had defected to Russia. STROTHER did not recall any of the specific questions he asked the brother about LEE OSWALD and his political beliefs.

STROTHER then interviewed MARGUERITE OSWALD at her residence. He did not remember this address. The main recollection he had about this interview was that she seemed extremely sorry for herself that her son had defected to Russia. He said she wept a lot during this interview and could give no reason for her son's defection. STROTHER said he did not recall any specific questions he asked Mrs. OSWALD about LEE OSWALD's political beliefs.

STROTHER said sometime later he talked with ROBERT L. OSWALD on the telephone who informed STROTHER that he had sent a telegram to Secretary of State DULLES and a cablegram to the U. S. Embassy about his brother. He did not recall what messages had been contained in these communications.

STROTHER said that he vaguely recalled that

ROBERT L. OSWALD had called him on the telephone sometime after LEE OSWALD returned from Russia and asked him if the Star-Telegram wanted to buy the story of LEE's experiences in Russia. He asked one of the editors about it, and the editor said the paper would have no interest in the story. STROTHER informed ROBERT L. OSWALD of what the editor said, and he hung up. That was the last time that STROTHER was in contact with any member of the OSWALD family.

STROTHER said he had never maintained a file on OSWALD.

He said he did not know JACK RUBY or any of his associates.

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

The following investigation was conducted by SA W. G. BROOKHART and SA GEORGE T. BINEY:

On December 10, 1963, MISS AMANDA M. MIMS, Personnel Director, National Bankers Life Insurance Company, 201 South Ervay, advised that she was unable to locate any record of employment for a MRS. MARGUERITE OSWALD. MISS MIMS advised that the National Bankers Life Insurance Company was not in the Irwin-Kessler Building (presently known as the National Bankers Life Insurance Building) in 1951 - 1952, but moved to the present location in 1957; the name of the building was eventually changed to the National Bankers Life Insurance Building, so it is possible that this woman worked for a general agent of National Bankers Life Insurance Company. MISS MIMS said that the general agent for National Bankers Life Insurance Company at that time was JOE F. LUKER who was then in Room 818 of the Irwin-Kessler Building, and is presently the general agent for the National Bankers Life Insurance Building.

On December 10, 1963, MR. JOE F. LUKER, general agent for National Bankers Life Insurance Company and/or American Union Life Insurance Company, 405 National Bankers Life Insurance Company Building, advised that he clearly recalled MRS. MARGUERITE OSWALD since she worked for him as an insurance agent in the Luker's Insurance Agency in Fort Worth, Texas, a branch of his agency at Dallas.

MR. LUKER advised that there are no personnel records available concerning MRS. OSWALD since he only maintains these records for five years and then they are destroyed; however, it is his general impression that MRS. OSWALD worked for him at Fort Worth, Texas, from approximately June, 1950, until January, 1952. He considered her services as very good; however, she left employment of her own accord and he has had no contact with her since that time.

MR. LUKER advised that he is well aware that MRS. OSWALD is the mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the alleged assassin of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY but he could not recall during the time she was employed whether she had any children at all and believed that she was a divorced woman.

MR. LUKER said that he did not know any of MRS. OSWALD's associates nor was he able to recall any other person who could furnish any additional information concerning MRS. OSWALD.

On December 16, 1963, Mr. JOHN OSORIO, National Bankers Life Insurance Company, Austin, Texas, telephonically advised SAC J. GORDON SHANKLIN, Dallas, Texas, that his company has a file regarding MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, who has a life insurance policy with this company. He advised that Mr. SAMUEL GILBERT, of the Dallas Office, would make available this file. ...

Mr. SAMUEL GILBERT, Executive Vice President, National Bankers Life Insurance Company, National Bankers Life Building, Dallas, Texas, on December 16, 1963, advised that he had made a complete review of their files regarding MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, and that he had prepared a memorandum showing all information in this file. Mr. GILBERT made available a copy of this memorandum which is set out below:

"Marguerite C. Oswald Hospital Policy #128664-H and Life Policy #148813.

"The above subject was licensed as an agent through the Joseph Luker Agency in 1950 with this Company. She worked directly under Mr. Eddie Ohel and Mr. S. S. Bjornson who were managers in Fort Worth, Texas under the direction of the Luker Agency in Dallas, Texas. She voluntarily terminated her agents contract to represent this Company on March 6, 1952. Mr. Luker advises me that during the period the above represented this Company, she wrote between twenty (20) and fifty (50) applications per month. He further advised that she was an excellent agent, and the business she submitted to this Company was a good quality of business. He stated that she serviced her policyholders very well, and she never gave them any trouble whatsoever in connections with the business she wrote.

"Mrs. Oswald purchased a Hospital policy #128664-H on October 9, 1950 in this Company. The benefits were $6.00 per day room coverage together with the usual surgical schedule. This was a family Hospital Policy covering Mrs. Oswald and her two sons

"Robert E. Oswald and Lee H. Oswald. At the time she purchased this coverage, our records give her age as 43, Robert's age as 16 and Lee Oswald's age as 11 years. The premium for this coverage, at the time of purchase, was $5.00 per month. On July 25, 1952, Mrs. Oswald requested that we delete Robert E. Oswald from this policy stating that he had entered the U. S. Marine Corp_. With the deletion of Robert E. Oswald the premium was then lowered to $3.50 per month. On July 25, 1954, this Company had an overall rate increase on all Hospital policy-holders raising Mrs. Oswald's premium to $4.50 per month. On January 5, 1961, Mrs. Oswald came into the Home Office in Dallas and visited with Mr. Leo Good, Jr._ manager of Policy-holder Service Department, and at that time stated to him that her son_ Lee H. Oswald_ had entered the U. S. Marine Corp_ on October 31, 1956. She further stated that he was not in the United States at that time, and that the State Department was attempting to locate him, and she further stated that she belived that he was in Russia. At that time, she requested that her son_ Lee H. Oswald_ be deleted from this same Hospital Policy. The Company of course honored her request and refunded to her that portion of the premium that had been paid for Lee H. Oswald's coverage under her policy since the date he entered the Marine Corp_ which was October 31, 1956 to January 5, 1961. As there was no coverage afforded under the Hospital policy during the time he was in the service, this was the Companies practice. The amount of the refund was $75.00. As she was the only insured left under that Hospital policy at that point, her premium was then reduced to $3.25 per month which was the premium for a female at her age then. In August 1961, the Company has another overall rate increase, and at that time Mrs. Oswald's premium became $3.75 per month which is the current premium she is now paying as her Hospital policy is paid to December 25, 1963 and as of this writing is still in force.

"In addition to the above mentioned Hospital policy, Mrs. Oswald purchased a Life Insurance policy on her life on March 11, 1951

"with this Company, the policy number being #148813. When purchased, the annual premium on this Life policy was $31.21 per year. The premium on this type policy she purchased doubles starting the sixth (6th) year. On March 11, 1956, her premium doubled to $42.62 annual premium. She has been paying that premium since that date with her policy now being paid to March 11, 1964. She changed the beneficiary on the above Life policy on January 5, 1961 from her Estate to her son Robert Oswald who is still the beneficiary. On January 5, 1961, Mrs. Oswald made a loan on her Life policy in the net amount of $120.88. She repaid this loan in full on March 21, 1963.

"On the same date of March 11, 1961, Mrs. Oswald also purchased the same type as hers on the life of her son, Robert Oswald who was then age 17. The policy was #148814; however, on March 11, 1953 she allowed this policy to lapse from non-payment of premium. So the policy on her son is not in force.

"Following is a list of all change of addresses taken from our premium cards that we have on Mrs. Oswald since she bought her first insurance from this Company in 1950 to the present time.

Mr. W. M. YOUNG, Identification Officer, Sheriff's Department, Fort Worth, Texas, stated that he resided at 3233 Willing in Fort Worth from approximately 1941 until 1960. He stated that in about 1948 he recalled some people living at 3300 Willing whom he now believes was Mrs. OSWALD and her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He explained that the house at 3300 Willing was a rent house, and the tenants moved frequently. He stated at this time he does not recall anything definite about either Mrs. OSWALD or her son, LEE. As he recalls, the OSWALDs only lived in this house for a few months. He stated that there was no one in that neighborhood at the present time who would possibly remember the OSWALD family.

TY E. REED, manager, Holiday Inn Motel, Highway 71, North, Fayetteville, Arkansas, advised telephone HI 2-9591 is the pay station in the lobby at the Holiday Inn.

His records, he informed, revealed at 4:25 P.M. on July 6, 1963, a JOHN M. MURRET, 757 French Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, no firm listed, checked into the Holiday Inn Motel and was assigned rooms 236 and 238. MURRET's registration indicated five persons were in the party, but their names were not listed on the registration. The group, he stated, checked out of the motel at 11:00 A.M., July 7, 1963.

According to Mr. REED, the party was traveling in a 1962 Ford, Arkansas license 4-12122.

Mr. REED informed his records failed to reveal that any local or long distance telephone calls were made by the occupants of rooms 236 or 238 on July 6 or July 7, 1963. He advised he is unable to recall MURRET or the members of his party and his wife, who handles registrations, has no recollection of the group.

ROBERT LEE OSWALD was interviewed at the Acme Brick Company, Denton, Texas, and advised as follows:

As he recalls, LEE HARVEY OSWALD was released from the Marine Corps during the middle of September, 1959. He recalls that LEE spent two days en route from California to Fort Worth, Texas, and thereafter spent three days in the Fort Worth area prior to departing for New Orleans. During this three day period, ROBERT LEE OSWALD, his brother-in-law, and LEE HARVEY OSWALD spent an afternoon hunting squirrels on his brother-in-law's farm. ROBERT recalls that LEE was using one of two .22 caliber rifles, both of which were owned by S. R. MERCER, JR., his brother-in-law. Both of these weapons were kept at the MERCER farm. One of the rifles was a single shot bolt action and the other an automatic. ROBERT LEE OSWALD cannot recall specifically which rifle was used by LEE HARVEY OSWALD on that particular day.

ROBERT further recalled that sometime between the middle of June and the middle of July, 1962, following the return of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from Russia, he, ROBERT, was contacted several times by FBI Agent (FNU) FAIN (Phonetic), who was assigned to the Fort Worth, Texas, Resident Agency of the FBI. Recalling that LEE returned on June 13, 1962, from Russia, ROBERT LEE believes that all of his contacts with SA FAIN were in regard to LEE's activities during his stay in Russia. ROBERT LEE further stated that he was aware that LEE had been contacted by FBI Agents and subsequently "released" during this period. He then concluded that since LEE was "released" after being interviewed that LEE was "all right and not dangerous to our country." ROBERT further advised that he has never heard an FBI Agent comment to him regarding the feeling of the FBI toward LEE HARVEY OSWALD or the policies of the FBI regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

ROBERT LEE was advised of the statement made by JOHN EDWARD PIC concerning their discussion regarding the un-American beliefs and activities of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he denied ever having made any statement to PIC that an FBI Agent had told him that LEE was "all right and not dangerous to our country." ROBERT LEE assumes that PIC, after discussing LEE's interview with FBI Agents, and his subsequent "release" thereafter, also concluded that LEE was not a security risk to the United States.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JARRELL H. DAVIS at Crowell, Texas, on December 17, 1963:

JOE LONG, 318 North First Street, advised that when Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD worked for him, as he mentioned in his previous interview, she had worked for him as a practical nurse taking care of his invalid mother who resided nearby at 316 East Donnell Street in Crowell. He added that Mrs. OSWALD during the time she worked for him had lived with his mother and received her mail at 316 East Donnell Street.

Mr. LONG advised he had not recalled any additional information since he was last interviewed. He added that his mother is now in a rest home and does not even remember him when he visits her. He added she would be unable to furnish any information concerning Mrs. OSWALD as she would not even recall Mrs. OSWALD because of her present condition.

The following is in reference to a check of the records of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, New Orleans, Louisiana, on November 29, 1963 concerning long distance calls from the residence of DUTZ MURRET, 737 French Street, New Orleans, telephone number HU. 8-4326.

On December 6, 1963, Mr. WOODWARD of the Traffic Department, Eastern Airlines, Houston, Texas, advised SA JAMES W. RUSSELL that ELIZABETH KULIK is an Eastern Airlines employee presently stationed at Idlewild Airport, New York, New York.

The telephone directory for the City of Houston, Texas lists telephone number 644-1261 as assigned to the Houston Airport Hotel, 7777 Airport Boulevard, Houston, Texas. On December 6, 1963, SA JOHN T. KELLY ascertained through the records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Beaumont, Texas, that telephone number TW. 2-9473 is currently listed to EMIL O'BRIEN, 1615 Fairway, Beaumont, Texas.

It was also determined that telephone number TE. 2-7646 is listed to LYNN THIBODEAUX, 305 East Corley, Beaumont, Texas.

Telephone number TE. 8-3943 was determined to have been listed to its present subscriber since September 24, 1963 which does not cover the pertinent period. A further check is being made in an effort to ascertain the identity of the previous holder of this number.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Information was obtained from records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Fort Smith, Arkansas, on December 6, 1963, as follows:

There is no such telephone number as 883-0926 at Barling, Arkansas. Barling is a suburb of Fort Smith, Arkansas, and is listed on the Fort Smith exchange. This system uses only four numbers in dialing and does not use the letters for other numbers in the prefix. The number 883-0926 would have been TUrner 3-0926. This number is not an operating number. It was issued as SUnset 3-0926 in November 1963. From the records of the phone company, it is not possible to tell if this number was an operating number in July 1963.

It was further determined that all coin telephone numbers on this exchange have the second number as nine. The number 883-0926 would not be a coin telephone number.

A check of telephone number 3-9026, which would be a coin telephone, revealed that this number was issued to a public telephone booth at Exposition Park, Fort Smith, Arkansas. This number was disconnected in June 1963.

The above information should not be made public until the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum. Any such subpoena should be directed to [redacted], Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Mrs. LOWELL HOPKINS, 6870 Camp Bowie Boulevard, advised that she presently leases the book store in the R. E. Cox Department Store.

Mrs. HOPKINS stated that several years ago, in the early 1950's, she recalled that a MARGUERITA OSWALD was employed by the Literary Guild and operated a booth in Cox's Department Store which at that time was located at 7th and Throckmorton Streets in Fort Worth. Mrs. HOPKINS stated that she was more or less Mrs. OSWALD's supervisor, however, her employment was with the Literary Guild and the Literary Guild had any employment application that Mrs. OSWALD may have submitted when she was employed.

Mrs. HOPKINS stated she recalled that Mrs. OSWALD was the mother of two boys. She did not know either of them and had never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. HOPKINS stated she recalled that MARGUERITA OSWALD's employment was terminated because Mrs. OSWALD had created some friction with the other women working near the Literary Guild Booth at R. E. Cox Department Store. Mrs. HOPKINS could not recall the events which caused the termination of Mrs. OSWALD's employment but there was some argument with the store employees. She has some recollection of the argument being over some costume jewelry.

Mrs. HOPKINS stated her recollection of Mrs. OSWALD is vague and, in fact, after seeing Mrs. OSWALD's picture in the newspaper and on television, she could not say that she recognized the picture as being Mrs. OSWALD because, in her opinion, there has been a great deal of change in her physical appearance.

Mrs. HOPKINS stated she had no knowledge of JACK RUBY nor did she have any knowledge that RUBY was acquainted with the OSWALDS.

JOHN COPORAN, News Director, WDSU-TV, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised that WDSU-TV, shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY, received a series of anonymous type calls linking DAVID WILLIAM FERRIE with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mr. COPORAN stated that through inquiry with the New Orleans Parish District Attorney's Office, he also determined that that agency was conducting inquiries regarding DAVID WILLIAM FERRIE's activities and subsequently he interviewed FERRIE at the New Orleans Police Department, First District, where he had been placed in custody by the District Attorney's Office. Mr. COPORAN stated he developed considerable background information which included information that FERRIE was interested in hypnotism, but found no information which would in any way connect FERRIE with OSWALD, except pure speculation.

Mr. COPORAN advised that a TV news report from Dallas had alleged that an entertainer whose name he, COPORAN, did not recall, had been quoted as stating that OSWALD had been seen in the night club operated by JACK RUBY. COPORAN recalled the news story had reported that the night club entertainer was a mind reader or had a mind reading act. COPORAN advised that he furnished the news story regarding DAVID WILLIAM FERRIE to NBC News in New York with the comment that he did not believe it worthy of additional news coverage and to his knowledge the story had never been carried by NBC news staff on a national program.

COPORAN advised that subsequent to his interview with DAVID WILLIAM FERRIE, he, COPORAN, talked with BOB MULHOLLAND of the NBC News who was in Dallas, Texas, covering the OSWALD news story and he, COPORAN, commented to MULHOLLAND on the TV news report that a night club entertainer had alleged that OSWALD had been in the night club operated by RUBY. COPORAN stated that he and MULHOLLAND speculated as to the possibility that the night club entertainer and DAVID WILLIAM FERRIE of New Orleans could have had a mutual connection; however, this was pure speculation and he was merely tying in his knowledge of FERRIE based upon his interview with him on November 25th or 26th, 1963, and the news report that COPORAN stated he heard involved a mind reading act at RUBY's night club.

JOHN COPORAN advised that he had no knowledge of any connection between DAVID WILLIAM FERRIE and LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had no knowledge of any connection between DAVID WILLIAM FERRIE and JACK RUBY or DAVID WILLIAM FERRIE and BILL DEMAR. He stated he had no knowledge of any connection between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY or BILL DEMAR.

COPORAN confirmed that his discussion with BOB MULHOLLAND of the NBC news staff in Dallas, Texas, was mere speculation on his part in an effort to develop a possible connection between these individuals.

"New Orleans, Louisiana
"December 10th, 1963

"I, DAVID W. FERRIE, hereby furnish the following free and voluntary statement to Special Agent REGIS L. KENNEDY, who I know to be a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. David W. Ferrie

"In 1955, or thereabouts, I assisted, for a time, the Moisant Squadron of Civil Air Patrol, at Moisant Airport, New Orleans, Louisiana, though I cannot establish through personal records or recollection the exact dates of this connection. I have no records, or recollection, to my knowledge, to show that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was, or was not, a member of this particular unit of the Civil Air Patrol. To my best knowledge and belief I do not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and have no personal recollection of ever having met him. If I did ever meet him it was very casual and to my best recollection have definitely not seen him in recent years.

"In the last fifteen years, I have been in Dallas, Texas, very infrequently. Usually I only stopped at the airport. I have not frequented any night clubs in the city of Dallas in the last fifteen years. To my knowledge, I have never met JACK RUBY who, I understand, from public sources, operated a night club in Dallas, Texas. I have seen a photograph of JACK RUBY, and I do not recognize this photograph to be a person with whom I am acquainted.

"I have been asked if I am acquainted with BILL DE MAR. I am told that he operates a mind-reading act at the Carousel Bar in Dallas, Texas. I have never known of this person, and to my knowledge, have never met him.

"I know of no connection between LEE HARVEY OSWALD, JACK RUBY, or BILL DE MAR, and I have never been connected with any of them insofar as I know.

"During the time that I was connected with Civil Air Patrol, in 1955 or thereabouts, there was a limited amount of fire-arms training given ordinarily to the advanced students. This training was primarily on safety features and safe handling of a gun. A student of a CAP Squadron that had been a member for a complete course would not have received enough training with firearms to enable him to develop any proficiency in the use of a gun, in my opinion. Instructions were never given, to my knowledge and recollection, to use a telescopic sight on a rifle. The guns used were generally fire-arms owned by the members themselves and for the most part this would mean .22 calibre rifles. I have no personal recollection of LEE HARVEY OSWALD ever being a member of any cadet class that I instructed and have no records or photographs which would establish that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had ever been connected in any way with the CAP.

"I have for years been a student of hypnotism. From my study and knowledge of the effects of hypnotic induction and the subsequent hypnotic states, I do not believe it would be possible to induce a post-hypnotic suggestion, orginarily, which would last long enough without a series of repeated suggestions, to enable an individual to commit a crime, especially one involving a series of discretionary judgements.

"I am acquainted with an individual named JACK S. MARTIN, SR. of 1311 N. Prieur Street, New Orleans, Louisiana. Mr. MARTIN has told me of how he has secured numerous honorary titles and degrees and has shown me certificates of them, which in my opinion are probably worthless. I myself have never sold or distributed any of these documents, and have no knowledge of BILL DE MAR or any information that he has any type of fraudulent medical or college degree.

"I realize that in the city of New Orleans my name has been associated with that of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by certain persons. However, to the best of my recollection and belief I have never known LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

"I have personally typed this statement of two and a half pages and it is true and correct to the best of knowleedge belief and recollection at this time."

Mr. ILYA MAMANTOV, 6911 East Mockingbird Lane, advised that he is employed as a geologist for Sun Oil Co., Dallas, Texas, and teaches at SMU, Dallas, Texas.

MAMANTOV stated he first heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife MARINA in early 1962 at which time the OSWALDs resided in Fort Worth, Texas. He stated that since 1960, he, MAMANTOV, has taught a course in Russian at Socony Mobil Research Laboratory, Dallas, Texas, and shortly after Christmas, 1962, one of his students, NORMAN FREDRICKSEN, came to him, MAMANTOV, and told him of the OSWALDs and their efforts to meet other Russian speaking persons. Further, he learned that the OSWALDs attended a party of Russian speaking persons at an unknown residence in University Park, Texas, which was held in early 1963 at which place they met several Russian speaking persons including Mrs. MICHAEL PAINE, 2515 W. 5th Street, Irving, Texas, with whom Mrs. OSWALD now resides.

Mr. MAMANTOV stated that in early 1963 OSWALD lost his job in Fort Worth, Texas (employment unknown) and OSWALD then came to Dallas where he diligently sought employment as a photographer. When he was unable to find employment as a photographer in Dallas, he went to New Orleans, Louisiana, this being in about May, 1963 and left his wife with Mrs. PAINE. MAMANTOV later heard that OSWALD found employment in New Orleans, presumably as a photographer but exact nature of employment being unknown.

MAMANTOV stated that OSWALD's wife joined him in New Orleans in the summer of 1963 and in September, 1963, Mrs. PAINE went on a vacation visiting unknown states in the East and on her return to Dallas visited the OSWALDs in New Orleans and brought her back to Dallas, this being in late September, 1963.

Mr. MAMANTOV stated that he has known GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, 6628 Dickens, Dallas, Texas, for a number of years and MARINA OSWALD admitted to MAMANTOV's mother-in-law, Mrs. DOROTHY GRAVITIS, 6911 East Mockingbird, that they, the OSWALDs, were good friends of the DE MOHRENSCHILDTs.

(MRS. IGOR VOSHININ)

Mr. MAMANTOV said he suspects DE MOHRENSCHILDT of possible subversive activities and of being a communist and mutual friends, IGOR and NATALIE VOSHININ, 3504 Mockingbird Lane, told him, MAMANTOV, that DE MOHRENSCHILDT had made a trip to Mexico City, Mexico, where they met MIKOYAN from Russia, and he, MAMANTOV, also learned that DE MOHRENSCHILDT has within recent years visited Togo, Yugoslavia, and Dahomey. Further, DE MOHRENSCHILDT is not working regularly and is not highly regarded as a geologist but some months ago received an assignment from Look or National Geographic Magazine to do extensive photographic work for them in Brazil or some other South American country. He pointed out that DE MOHRENSCHILDT does not work staadily; is not highly regarded as a geologist but seems to get along well financially and travels extensively.

Mr. MAMANTOV stated that he has never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and first met MARINA OSWALD on November 22, 1963, when he, MAMANTOV, acted as translator during interview with MARINA in the Dallas Police Department. Mr. MAMANTOV has always been afraid to meet or be associated with the OSWALDs as he has been suspicious of them since he first learned about them and pointed out that he, MAMANTOV, is a relatively recent naturalized citizen (naturalized in 1955) and does not want to do anything that might put him in a bad light such as being associated with persons of questionable repute.

Mr. MAMANTOV stated that based on the above information he has come to the conclusion that LEE HARVEY OSWALD must be an underground communist agent. He stated this conclusion has been arrived at by his knowledge that any citizen or person who goes to Russia can usually only leave after they have accepted definite assignments from the Russian Government. Further, MARINA OSWALD has repeatedly frequently complained that while she and her husband were residing in Russia LEE H. OSWALD hunted frequently and MAMANTOV stated it is well known that only trusted communists are allowed to have guns, even for hunting purposes, in Russia. Further, the OSWALDs reportedly had a very nice apartment while residing in Russia which luxury is usually reserved for those of influence in the Communist Party and from all the information that he has been able to gather, LEE HARVEY OSWALD denounced his American citizenship while in Russia, attempted to or did apply for Russian citizenship, and married a Russian girl and was later able to leave Russia with little or no difficulty. He pointed out that in the usual situation where the above circumstances were present it would be extremely difficult for an individual to depart Russia and especially take a Russian citizen with him, even though he is married to the person.

Mr. MAMANTOV concluded that he is of the opinion that LEE HARVEY OSWALD is probably a subversive agent planted in this country to creat disturbances when so directed. MAMANTOV opined that OSWALD's actions on November 22, 1963, assuming that he did assassinate President KENNEDY, in all probability have international implications and OSWALD may very well have acted under the direction of a foreign power in carrying out this action. In this regard Mr. MAMANTOV said he has never received any information or statement attributed to OSWALD that would indicate that OSWALD had any animosity or opposition to President KENNEDY as an individual or as a president.

MAMANTOV stated that OSWALD's failure to express opposition to President KENNEDY should not be accepted as being of pertinence because should he have had an assignment in this regard it would be only logical that he would not discuss the matter with anyone or say or do anything that might bring attention to his assignment.

Mr. MAMANTOV stated he has no direct information indicating that OSWALD is a communist but MARINA OSWALD told Mrs. DOROTHY GRAVATIS that LEE H. OSWALD has idealistic communist views. After consulting with Mrs. GRAVATIS who is ill at this time, Mr. MAMANTOV stated that during a discussion between Mrs. OSWALD and Mrs. GRAVATIS, they were discussing mutual friends, when Mr. GEORGE BOUHE, 4740 Homer Street, Dallas, Texas, was mentioned. MARINA OSWALD stated her husband and BOUHE did not get along well and Mrs. GRAVATIS asked her if she meant that they had political differences; to which MARINA OSWALD is quoted as answering in the affirmative. Mrs. GRAVATIS then asked if it was because LEE H. OSWALD was a communist, at which time MARINA said "yes" and explained that her husband is an "idealistic communist."

Further, Mr. MAMANTOV stated he has learned from the VOSHININs and BOUHE that LEE H. OSWALD "hates America and the American way of government."

Mr. MAMANTOV pointed out that he has had no direct contact with the OSWALDS and his information has primarily been received from Mrs. MICHAEL PAINE and MARINA OSWALD through his mother-in-law, DOROTHY GRAVATIS. He stated that he is of the understanding that Mrs. GRAVATIS has had only one contact with Mrs. OSWALD that being an occasion that Mrs. GRAVATIS called Mrs. OSWALD at the request of Mrs. PAINE, who was out of town and asked Mrs. GRAVATIS to call to see if she could be of help to Mrs. OSWALD. Mr. MAMANTOV stated that Mrs. PAINE has been taking private lessons in Russian from Mrs. GRAVATIS and wanted Mrs. GRAVATIS to tutor her small children in the Russian language. He stated this has bothered him as to why Mrs. PAINE would want to study the Russian language and have her small children study the language, pointing out that she, Mrs. PAINE, is about 28 years of age, separated from her husband, and supporting two small children.

He stated that during conversations between Mrs. PAINE and Mrs. GRAVATIS Mrs. PAINE had frequently been quoted as stating that LEE H. OSWALD should be a communist and was probably doing underground work but she, Mrs. PAINE, found it difficult to convince herself that he, OSWALD, was a communist as he is such a nice young individual.

Mr. MAMANTOV stated that MARINA OSWALD claims to be a graduate pharmacist but he, MAMANTOV, questions this as MARINA came to the United States at the age of 20 years, therefore, it would have been extremely difficult for her to have completed high school and a four year course at that young age. MARINA OSWALD told Mrs. GRAVATIS that she has no parents and Mr. MAMANTOV thinks this may very well be true pointing out that MARINA was born in 1941 in Leningrad, Russia, which city was the scene of bitter fighting during World War II.

KATHY FORD DECLAN FORD DECLAN FORD KATHY FORD MRS. FORD

ACQUAINTANCES OF LEE H. AND MARINA OSWALD

Mr. MAMANTOV stated that DECLAN P. and KATHERINE FORD, 14057 Brookcrest, Dallas, Texas (AD 9-5642) are acquainted with the OSWALDs and MARINA stayed with them for about one month in late 1962. MAMANTOV said KATHERINE FORD was born in Russia having lived in the U.S. something more than 14 years. Mr. MAMANTOV said he has no evidence that would bear on the political background or beliefs of either Mr. or Mrs. FORD.

MAMANTOV said GEORGE BOUHE, a long time resident of Dallas, Texas, is a retired accountant that lives at 4740 Homer Street, Dallas, Texas. He said BOUHE is a bachelor who trys to help persons who are in need by giving them money and/or collecting money or clothes for such persons. He stated that soon after the OSWALDs arrived in Dallas, Texas, BOUHE helped them by collecting clothes and other similar acts and since that time has reportedly been in contact with them, probably in his philanthropic efforts.

MAMANTOV stated that while Mr. and Mrs. OSWALD were residing in Fort Worth they were in contact with two families, (FNUs) CLARK and GREGORY, both of Fort Worth, Texas, who helped the OSWALDs financially during the period they resided in that city. He said Mr. BOUHE can furnish the identities of CLARK and GREGORY. He opined that their assistance to the OSWALDs was probably caused by the fact that CLARK's wife and Mr. GREGORY were both born in Russia. He stated that CLARK is an attorney and GREGORY is an independent petroleum consultant and he believes GREGORY's first name is either PETER or PAUL.

Mr. MAMANTOV stated that one FOLKNER SCHMIDT, a German who came to the United States about two years ago and is a geologist employed by Socony Mobil Company can probably furnish information regarding GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT as they are apparently close acquaintances.

He explained that SCHMIDT told him, MAMANTOV, that he had met DE MOHRENSCHILDT who seemed to be an extremely nice individual this being sometime in 1962. Later MAMANTOV warned SCHMIDT about associating with DE MOHRENSCHILDT knowing that SCHMIDT would want to apply for his citizenship and did not feel that his association with DE MOHRENSCHILDT would be an asset at the time of making such application. A couple of days later DE MOHRENSCHILDT called MAMANTOV and says "A good friend of mine told me that you said I was a communist. If I hear of any more statements of this nature, I will come over and beat hell out of you." Mr. MAMANTOV said he had not told SCHMIDT that DE MOHRENSCHILDT was a communist but had warned him that DE MOHRENSCHILDT was a person who SCHMIDT might not want to be associated with and said that DE MOHRENSCHILDT was not highly regarded as a geologist. He stated that at most he might be accused of inferring that DE MOHRENSCHILDT might be other than a patriotic American citizen.

He stated that MARINA OSWALD stayed with TEOFIL MELLER, 5930½ LaVista Street, Dallas, Texas, during an unrecalled period while in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. MAMANTOV said the VOSHININS can in all probability furnish the name and address of the persons where the party was held in Highland Park, Texas, at which time the OSWALDs met numerous Russian speaking people as stated above.

Date December 12, 1963

IGOR VOSHININ, 3504 Mockingbird Lane, advised that he had never met either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or MARINA OSWALD. He stated the first time he heard of the OSWALDs was when he read an article in the "Dallas Times-Herald" sometime during the early summer of 1962. This article stated that LEE OSWALD, a defector to the Soviet Union, was returning to Fort Worth, Texas with his Russian-born wife.

VOSHININ stated that he never actually met the OSWALDs but heard of them the first time through a Mrs. MAX CLARK who is of Russian ancestry. The CLARKs apparently met the OSWALDs on two or three occasions and advised VOSHININ that LEE OSWALD was very unpleasant, bad-mannered, and arrogant. For this reason, VOSHININ stated he had no desire to meet LEE OSWALD.

VOSHININ advised that the OSWALDs associated with what he called the BOUHE group which group is led by GEORGE BOUHE of 4740 Homer Street, Dallas, Texas. VOSHININ went on to explain that there are actually two Russian Orthodox parishes in Dallas. One is St. SERAPHIM's which is located at 4203 Newton Street in Dallas. This is the church to which he, VOSHININ, belongs. The other group, quite often referred to as the BOUHE group, has St. NICHOLAS Russian Orthodox Parish. They actually do not have a church building but meet in individual homes and have an Orthodox priest from Houston visit them every five or six weeks. This priest is named Father ALEXIS who resides in Houston, Texas. GEORGE BOUHE has taken it upon himself to contact every person of Russian descent who comes to Dallas and try to help them in getting jobs and getting settled. For this reason, he contacted MARINA OSWALD.

VOSHININ could not recall ever having heard that LEE OSWALD stated he hated America and the American way of government.

VOSHININ stated that Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE DeMOHRENSCHILDT were frequent companions of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife, MARINA OSWALD. VOSHININ advised that originally DeMOHRENSCHILDT was a member of St. Nicholas Parish; however, due to the fact that his present wife is an Atheist, neither one of them have been attending church in recent years. VOSHININ advised that Mrs. DeMOHRENSCHILDT is half Russian and reportedly half French and she was born and raised in China. The DeMOHRENSCHILDTs, during their association with the OSWALDs, took the OSWALDs around to visit at different houses in Dallas. VOSHININ stated that he told the DeMOHRENSCHILDTs not to bring the OSWALDs to his house, because he did not want to associate with LEE OSWALD after having heard of his poor behavior. VOSHININ stated that LEE OSWALD had the reputation of a wife-beater and he had heard this from several people who stated that MARINA OSWALD constantly bore signs of having been beaten up by LEE OSWALD.

VOSHININ advised that DeMOHRENSCHILDT belonged to a discussion group called the "Bohemian Club" which was a group of free thinkers who used to meet periodically at the Old Warsaw Restaurant. They had about 40 members and a Mr. BILL HUDSON (PH) who has a wife named BETTY and who is a wealthy oil man, was the president. VOSHININ believed that DeMOHRENSCHILDT introduced OSWALD to several of the members of this club. According to VOSHININ, DeMOHRENSCHILDT told him that LEE OSWALD was an idealistic MARXist.

VOSHININ advised that the DeMOHRENSCHILDTs were in Mexico City a couple of years ago when Soviet Deputy Premier MIKOYAN was there. During the parade for MIKOYAN, Mrs. DeMOHRENSCHILDT ran out of the crowd and ran up to MIKOYAN and started talking to him in Russian. MIKOYAN reportedly became very alarmed at this. This above incident allegedly appeared on television.

VOSHININ stated that he could not tell if either Mr. or Mrs. DeMOHRENSCHILDT were pro-Soviet. VOSHININ stated DeMOHRENSCHILDT doesn't believe in anything, either religious or political; however, he cannot tell about Mrs. DeMOHRENSCHILDT who is very reserved. Mrs. DeMOHRENSCHILDT's first husband (FNU) LeGAN (PH), is apparently of unsound mind and is in an institution in Los Angeles, California. He is also of Russian extraction and was born in China. VOSHININ stated that DeMOHRENSCHILDT is currently working for the Haitian government as a geologist. From a political point of view, DeMOHRENSCHILDT brags that he is a staunch Republican while his wife is a staunch Democrat. VOSHININ stated that he does recall DeMOHRENSCHILDT telling him that LEE HARVEY OSWALD opposed the U. S. policy on CASTRO and Cuba. VOSHININ stated that DeMOHRENSCHILDT is the type of person who likes to argue, and he recalls having heard that DeMOHRENSCHILDT once started an argument by saying he was in favor of Nazi Germany and thought HEINRICH HIMMLER was all right.

DeMOHRENSCHILDT has a brother who is a professor at Dartmouth University who goes by the last name of VON MOHRENSCHILDT. VOSHININ went on to explain that their family was originally from Sweden and when they moved to Russia several generations ago, they Germanized their name; then, during World War II, GEORGE DeMOHRENSCHILDT changed the prefix of his last name because of the anti-German feeling in the United States. VOSHININ stated that Mrs. DeMOHRENSCHILDT seemed to pity MARINA OSWALD, and stated "We have to help her." VOSHININ stated he recalled on one occasion DeMOHRENSCHILDT telling him that an official of the U. S. Government, exact organization unknown, came to interview DeMOHRENSCHILDT and DeMOHRENSCHILDT was amused by how he could argue with this government official. VOSHININ stated that DeMOHRENSCHILDT and his wife are "mixed up" both emotionally and politically and seemed to enjoy it. VOSHININ stated that DeMOHRENSCHILDT had a rather troubled childhood; his father was arrested by the Communists after the Soviet Revolution when DeMOHRENSCHILDT was about eight years old and he wandered the streets begging for food, living almost like an animal. He then escaped to Poland. His father and brother also escaped. VOSHININ stated that DeMOHRENSCHILDT would never talk about his mother and when he was asked about her, he would refuse to discuss his mother in any way. DeMOHRENSCHILDT attended high school in Poland and upon finishing school, started a career in the Polish Army as a cavalry officer; however, he did not have sufficient funds to pursue this career since most Polish army officers had to have independent means to maintain themselves. For this reason, he left the Polish army and went to France and Belgium where he studied economics, obtaining a Doctor of Philosophy Degree in Economics. The depression then was in progress and he was unable to obtain employment in Europe and he moved to the United States to join his older brother. DeMOHRENSCHILDT then went to the University of Texas where he obtained either a Bachelor of Science or Master of Science degree in Geological Engineering. He worked in Venezuela for a while with an oil company and then returned to Texas. VOSHININ advised that DeMOHRENSCHILDT's current wife is his fourth wife. His first wife was French and she is currently remarried and living in Paris; his second wife was an artist, place of residence unknown; his third wife came from a prominent Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Quaker family named SHARPLES (PH). DeMOHRENSCHILDT had a daughter by his first wife who is married and has one son. She is divorced at the present. He had a boy and a girl by his third wife. The boy died and the girl is married to a doctor in Philadelphia. VOSHININ stated DeMOHRENSCHILDT is basically a nice fellow, but Mrs. DeMOHRENSCHILDT is a very bitter individual. She is a dress designer by profession and she has one daughter, a Mrs. JEAN KRUKTON. Mrs. DeMOHRENSCHILDT's father was apparently executed by the Chinese Reds.

Mrs. IGOR VOSHININ, 3504 Mockingbird Lane, advised that she and her husband never actually met LEE HARVEY OSWALD or Mrs. OSWALD. She stated that they heard various bits of information from acquaintances of their own regarding Mr. and Mrs. OSWALD, and that based upon the information they had heard, they had no desire to meet the OSWALDs. She said that they gained the impression that OSWALD was a man of poor manners and poor behavior, and that he was alleged to beat his wife. She stated that one of the sources of their information regarding the OSWALDs was Mr. MAX CLARK, an attorney in Fort Worth, Texas, and his wife, both of whom reside at 4312 Selkirk, Fort Worth. She stated that another source of their information regarding OSWALDs was Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE DeMOHRENSCHILDT. She noted that Mr. and Mrs. DeMOHRENSCHILDT had indicated to herself and her husband that they considered OSWALD a Communist without any question; that they had indicated he was an idealistic pure MARXist. She said that she believed that they may have received similar information regarding the OSWALDs from other sources not specifically recalled at this time. She said that people in the Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas area were inclined to pity the OSWALDs when the OSWALDs came to this area following their return from Russia, sometime probably in 1962.

Mrs. VOSHININ stated that she and her husband feel that nothing is to be gained by their having anything to do with persons of such questionable reputation as LEE OSWALD apparently had, and that was why they made it a point to avoid ever meeting him. She noted that she and her husband are members of NTS - Russian Solidarists, which she stated is known as the National Union of the Working People, which organization has a representative in Washington, D. C. She stated this organization exists in the form of an underground movement in Russia and also has groups in other parts of the world; that its objectives include the abolishing of Communism and the promotion of private enterprise.

INTERVIEW OF MR. AND MRS. GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT AT PORT AU PRINCE, HAITI

Mr. NORMAN E. WARNER, First Secretary of the American Embassy, Port au Prince, Haiti, interviewed Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT on December 4, 1963. The report of this interview by WARNER is as follows:

(1) Original Meeting with LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The DE MOHRENSCHILDTS met OSWALD in the summer of 1962 through some friends in Fort Worth who had become interested in helping the OSWALDS. Among these were GEORGE BOUHE, an accountant in Dallas, and MAX CLARK, a lawyer in Fort Worth, who had previously been a security officer with the Convair Plant. Someone had brought Mrs. OSWALD from Fort Worth to Dallas to visit a baby clinic. Since there was no return transportation for Mrs. OSWALD, Mr. and Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT took her back to her home in Fort Worth the following night. The precise chain leading to the DE MOHRENSCHILDTS' acquaintance with the OSWALDS was as follows, to the best of their recollection:

A petroleum engineer in Fort Worth, PETER GREGORY, first "discovered" Mrs. MARINA OSWALD. He mentioned her plight to Mr. and Mrs. MAX CLARK (who is the DE MOHRENSCHILDTS' lawyer), and to Mr. GEORGE BOUHE (a sort of local philanthropist who always is ready to help in unfortunate cases.) GEORGE BOUHE and the CLARKS then spoke to the DE MOHRENSCHILDTS about Mrs. OSWALD asking for help.

(2) Subsequent Contacts

On the occasion of the Greek Orthodox Christmas in early January, 1963, the DE MOHRENSCHILDTS brought Mr. and Mrs. OSWALD to a Russian Christmas party at the home of Mr. DECLAN FORD in Dallas. This party was attended by many people including Americans, Europeans and White Russians. The baby was left at another home during the party. Previously, they believed, Mrs. OSWALD had stayed with Mrs. FORD for a time during her separation from Mr. OSWALD (during the fall of 1962). She stayed at about four different Dallas homes during this separation. During the Christmas party, Mr. OSWALD spent most of the evening with a Japanese girl named YAIKO (phonetic). Mrs. OSWALD was upset by this and seemed rather jealous.

(3) Employment Application

When the DE MOHRENSCHILDTS first met the OSWALDS, he had a job as a metal worker, as Mr. DE MOHRENSCHILDT recalls, in Fort Worth, but the company was shutting down and he had been let out, according to what they were told. The OSWALDS appeared to be in very difficult financial circumstances. The DE MOHRENSCHILDTS understood that at this time OSWALD was repaying the loan he had received from the United States Government for repatriation expenses. Subsequently, OSWALD worked in a photographer's dark room in Dallas and the DE MOHRENSCHILDTS understood that he frequently worked overtime. Mrs. OSWALD stated that even though he frequently returned late from work during this period, he would spend the rest of the evening reading. His wife resented this somewhat. He did not drink or smoke and disapproved of his wife's liking for wine on occasion and also her smoking which she had to do surreptitiously. Mr. DE MOHRENSCHILDT does not recall giving him (OSWALD) authority to use his name as a reference but said some people in Dallas took OSWALD to the State Unemployment Agency there.

(4) Written Resume of OSWALD's Life in Russia

In the summer or early fall of 1962, OSWALD gave Mr. DE MOHRENSCHILDT a typed resume of his experiences in a factory in Minsk, USSR. This resume was about 20 pages long. It was not a stupid resume; he criticized a lot of things in Russia. One striking observation was that life for a worker in Russia is impossible because of the meetings which workers are obliged to attend after working hours. Once when Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT asked him why he had come back from Russia, he replied, "I did not find there what I was looking for."

(5) OSWALD's Views on United States Domestic Affairs

OSWALD was against segregation. Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT commented that in general she had the impression that OSWALD's views were favorable toward United States Government policies. He did express admiration for CASTRO as an individual. The DE MOHRENSCHILDTS were never aware of any connection OSWALD might have had with any organizations. Mr. DE MOHRENSCHILDT always considered him a complete lone-wolf.

(6) Other Persons Who Knew OSWALD

On one occasion the DE MOHRENSCHILDTS took the OSWALDS to meet a friend, EVERETT GLOVER, in Dallas. The GLOVERS introduced a Mrs. RUTH PAINE (an American girl who was learning Russian) to the OSWALDS.

(7) Last Meeting with the OSWALDS

The DE MOHRENSCHILDTS believed that the last time they saw the OSWALDS was at the Christmas party in early 1963. The DE MOHRENSCHILDTS were busy with other matters and just did not have an occasion to see the OSWALDS after that. They were preparing to come to Haiti at that time and Mr. DE MOHRENSCHILDT did come to Haiti in March, 1963.

(8) General Impressions

According to the DE MOHRENSCHILDTS, the general impression of people in Dallas concerning OSWALD was one of distaste and even fear of him because of his brutality toward his wife and his mental instability. OSWALD resented the sympathy and interest accorded his wife by various people and Mr. BOUHE (who had been particularly active in enlisting help for Mrs. OSWALD) felt that OSWALD might even take his resentment out on him. OSWALD would sometimes insult people who were trying to help his family.

(9) Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT Told of the "Gun"

In the fall of 1962, Mrs. OSWALD said to Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT one day when the latter was visiting her, "Look how crazy he is, now he has bought a gun." (Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT received the clear impression that he had very recently acquired the gun.) Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT saw the gun, which she described as being about four feet long. She was not sure if it was a rifle or a shotgun. She did not take it in her hands or examine it closely. Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT recalled that Mrs. OSWALD said the gun had something special about it. She believed that it was automatic or that it had a telescopic sight. Thinking it over, Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT believed that the gun had been described as having a telescopic sight but stated she herself is not familiar with telescopic sights.

(10) Other Aspects

Mrs. OSWALD frequently "pecked" at her husband, even in public, and on several occasions in the DE MOHRENSCHILDTS' hearing she had commented on her husband's sexual inadequacy. They do not recall that she ever made such remarks in front of him, although she had made remarks about OSWALD which were disparaging in his (OSWALD's) presence. They were always bickering, picking on each other and fighting. They both adored their baby, however. In fact, Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT noted that Mrs. OSWALD spoiled the child and that he was worse than she in spoiling the child. OSWALD beat his wife sometimes when they quarreled.

(11) Final Comments

The DE MOHRENSCHILDTS are not aware of any close associations OSWALD may have had. "Nobody could stand him." Upon their return from Russia they lived with his mother (or it may have been his brother) in Fort Worth for awhile but were "thrown out," maybe because she was so lazy.

The DE MOHRENSCHILDTS never heard OSWALD make any threats against any individuals whatsoever. Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT considered him "cuckoo" but not "bad" in the sense of being likely to resort to physical violence. His beating of his wife was due to a special situation.

SAMUEL B. BALLEN, Chairman of the Board of Highplains Natural Gas Company and Electrical Log Service, Inc., 1717 Southland Center, Dallas, advised he had been previously interviewed on November 29-30, 1963, by RONNIE DUGGER, who is editor of the "Texas Observer", Austin, Texas, and who indicated he was also a reporter for the "Washington Post" newspaper. Mr. BALLEN advised that the article which appeared in the "Washington Post" on December 1, 1963, wherein BALLEN was quoted concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD was correct. He states he first met LEE HARVEY OSWALD in December, 1962 or January, 1963, at the home of GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT in Dallas, Texas, although Mr. BALLEN advised he does not recall talking to OSWALD on this occasion.

Approximately ten days later Mr. BALLEN received a telephone call from DE MOHRENSCHILDT who stated that he was trying to help OSWALD and wanted to know if BALLEN would talk to OSWALD and attempt to obtain a job for him. Mr. BALLEN stated that he on this occasion talked to OSWALD for approximately 1½ hours.

BALLEN advised that OSWALD appeared to be intelligent and extremely independent. OSWALD told him that he had been in Russia and his reason for going to Russia was to find out "what Russia was like". OSWALD said that "Russia was boring."

OSWALD advised BALLEN that he received training in photography in Russia and it was BALLEN's recollection that OSWALD had been employed by a newspaper in New Orleans, Louisiana.

During the interview OSWALD kept repeating "don't worry about me. I don't want any charity." BALLEN advised that he got the impression OSWALD was too independent and he therefore did not attempt to obtain employment for him. BALLEN informed that he was unaware OSWALD had Marxist leanings, and that during the conversation OSWALD was critical of Russia. Upon termination of the interview OSWALD said he was going to the YMCA.

BALLEN advised DE MOHRENSCHILDT had approached his, BALLEN's, wife and other people, whose names he did not know, to have OSWALD and his wife, MARINA, out socially. Mr. and Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT went out of their way to befriend the OSWALDS. Mr. BALLEN advised that he does not know how the OSWALDS became acquainted with the DE MOHRENSCHILDTs but he believes it was possibly through the Russian community in Dallas.

Mr. BALLEN advised that DE MOHRENSCHILDT is reportedly residing in Haiti and can be contacted through the U. S. Embassy there. Mr. BALLEN is of the opinion DE MOHRENSCHILDT is a "beatnik". He said DE MOHRENSCHILDT, who is a geologist, became a "beatnik" after the death of his son. DE MOHRENSCHILDT prior to leaving Dallas had characterized OSWALD as either a "genius or a nut".

Mr. BALLEN informed that DE MOHRENSCHILDT's son-in-law, "RAGS" KEARTON, is reportedly residing in Anchorage, Alaska, and was exposed to OSWALD for about two weeks prior to leaving Dallas for Anchorage in January, 1963. KEARTON prior to leaving Dallas stated he had seen enough of OSWALD, that OSWALD was a "nut".

BALLEN states that he was impressed by OSWALD and OSWALD appeared to be very independent and a "critical thinker". Mr. BALLEN reiterated that he had no idea OSWALD had Marxist leanings.

Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, advised that she has found no notes or letters written by LEE OSWALD or pertaining in any way to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY or any related matter.

She advised that at the present time there are two tape recorders in her home. One is the tape recorder of her husband, MICHAEL, however it was not in her home during the time that LEE HARVEY OSWALD spent time at the residence, from October 3, 1963, to November 22, 1963, but was moved into the house when MICHAEL PAINE moved in about November 29, 1963.

She stated that OSWALD would have had access to another tape recorder but that it is not in working condition. This recorder was kept in the kitchen and she made this recorder available. It had no tape on it and did not appear to be in working condition. Mrs. PAINE stated that she has found no tape recordings or messages of any type that could have been left by LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the last time he was at the house the morning of November 22, 1963.

Mr. ILYA MAMANTOV, 6911 East Mockingbird Lane, Dallas, Texas, advised that information he furnished to Special Agents of the FBI on November 23, 1963, regarding his knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was primarily based upon information he had previously received from his mother-in-law, Mrs. DOROTHY GRAVITIS, who resides with him at 6911 East Mockingbird Lane. He said that other information that he had furnished at that time was likely obtained by him from others who had been acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. He advised that any statement he made either publicly or privately which may have indicated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was backed by the Soviet Union in the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, would have been based entirely upon his own opinion and conclusion. He said that any conclusions of this nature he himself would have drawn would have been based upon OSWALD's background.

1 Date 12/16/63

Mrs. DOROTHY GRAVITIS, 6911 East Mockingbird Lane, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed in the presence of her son-in-law, Mr. ILYA MAMANTOV, at whose home she resides. Inasmuch as Mrs. GRAVITIS speaks no English and is of Russian nationality Mr. MAMANTOV interpreted the information which she furnished making translation to English from Russian. All of the information herein is set forth as it was furnished by Mr. MAMANTOV as a result of information given him by his mother-in-law simultaneous to the translation.

Mrs. GRAVITIS first became acquainted with Mrs. MICHAEL PAINE through the fact that Mrs. GRAVITIS had done some teaching of Russian at Berlitz School in Dallas, and Mrs. PAINE had been a student of Russian at this school. Mrs. PAINE had allegedly been a student of Russian previously, possibly at a college in Pennsylvania. Mrs. PAINE's lessons cost her $6.00 at Berlitz School and subsequent to that time Mrs. GRAVITIS gave Mrs. PAINE lessons in Russian at her, Mrs. GRAVITIS', home at the rate of $3.00 each. Mrs. PAINE was a good student. Mrs. PAINE corresponded by mail with a teacher in Russia as a means of practicing Russian. Mrs. PAINE allegedly wrote letters to this Russian teacher in Russian, and the teacher corrected the letters grammatically and sent them back to Mrs. PAINE. This Russian teacher was allegedly an instructor in English in Russia. Mrs. GRAVITIS reviewed letters that had been sent to Russia and returned to Mrs. PAINE by the Russian teacher and recalled that the letters discussed domestic matters that might have been of mutual interest to two women, but contained no political discussion.

As a result of her acquaintanceship with Mrs. PAINE, Mrs. GRAVITIS had her first conversation with MARINA OSWALD in about May or June, 1963, by telephone at a time when the PAINEs were out of town. MARINA OSWALD allegedly lived with the PAINE family at that time. Mrs. GRAVITIS had a fairly long conversation with MARINA OSWALD on the first occasion and by way of conversation asked MARINA various questions which as best she can now recall included a question as to where MARINA was from and upon being told that she was from Russia Mrs. GRAVITIS asked her where she lived in Russia. MARINA replied that she had lived in Leningrad and had also been in Minsk. Asked why MARINA came to the United States, MARINA replied she came with her husband. When asked if MARINA knew anybody locally, MARINA said she had met some people of Russian descent, apparently in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and that they had helped her a lot. When asked how MARINA and her husband entered the United States so easily, MARINA replied that they had luck. MARINA said she did not want to have further contact with the people who helped her in Dallas and Fort Worth because her husband did not agree with them personality-wise. MARINA described her husband as an idealist. Although MARINA did not refer to her husband as a Communist, Mrs. GRAVITIS interpreted that MARINA's husband was a Communist because she was aware that when someone in Russia says a person is an idealist it means that they support the Communist movement.

When asked where her husband worked, MARINA stated that he was out of work. Mrs. GRAVITIS told MARINA that anybody can get work in this locality; that there is plenty of construction work going on. MARINA replied that construction work was beneath the dignity of her husband. MARINA indicated, however, that she herself would take any kind of employment except for the fact that she had a small child to care for. Mrs. GRAVITIS, thinking that because young men who had gone to Russia from Latvia in years past had returned as photographers, asked MARINA if perhaps MARINA's husband wanted to be a photographer. MARINA replied that he did. When asked if it was difficult to leave her country MARINA replied that it was not difficult and that she had no parents and, therefore, it made it easy for her to leave. MARINA indicated to Mrs. GRAVITIS that her husband had moved about very freely when he was in Russia; that as an American OSWALD was able to have a separate room in which to reside, this room being in effect the same as an apartment. MARINA indicated that had her husband not been an American they may have had to share a room or apartment with others. This was considered a luxury for MARINA and her husband to have been able to reside in a separate room. When they wanted to discuss a matter without being overheard they would take a walk and carry on their discussion while walking. Mrs. GRAVITIS received no information from MARINA that OSWALD had been able to possess a gun while in Russia or that he had been able to go hunting while there.

MARINA told Mrs. GRAVITIS that she liked the United States and was very impressed with how freely everything occurred in the United States; she made favorable comments regarding the United States. MARINA told Mrs. GRAVITIS that she baptized her child at St. Serafim Church, an Eastern Orthodox church in Dallas.

After the initial conversation with MARINA OSWALD, Mrs. GRAVITIS had approximately two other conversations over the telephone with MARINA OSWALD, in addition to other conversations with Mrs. PAINE. Mrs. GRAVITIS never met Mrs. OSWALD in person. Mrs. PAINE asked Mrs. GRAVITIS why Mrs. GRAVITIS and her family did not want MARINA OSWALD's husband to come to their house. Mrs. GRAVITIS told Mrs. PAINE that she herself felt that OSWALD was a traitor to the United States inasmuch as he had gone to Russia and then had come back to the United States. Mrs. GRAVITIS made comments to Mrs. PAINE to the effect that Mrs. OSWALD was likely in the underground in the United States as a Communist, and Mrs. PAINE did not reply, therefore, Mrs. GRAVITIS presumed this to be true. Mrs. PAINE never committed herself politically. Mrs. GRAVITIS considers Mrs. PAINE to be a loyal American.

On December 6, 1963, Lieutenant E. L. MUNDAY of the Burglary and Theft Bureau, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, advised of having received information that a ROBERT L. VANN, an employee of the Burden Bros., Inc., 2020 North Beckley, attended school with JOHN PIC, who had a brother named ROBERT OSWALD, JR., at the Crockett Grade School. MUNDAY pointed out that VANN very possibly was also acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, noting that the latter is known to have a brother by the name of ROBERT.

ROBERT L. VANN, 4931 Gaston Avenue, was interviewed at his residence, at which time he furnished the following information:

He recalls having a classmate by the name of JOHN PIC for slightly more than one year, during which time they were both attending the Crockett Grade School in Dallas. VANN expressed his opinion that he knew JOHN PIC, either in 1946 or 1947, when they were in the seventh grade together, just before leaving elementary school to go to junior high school. VANN recalled that PIC had two half-brothers by the name of OSWALD. VANN had become acquainted with the older of the two OSWALD brothers, who, at that time, was approximately seven or eight years of age. VANN was unable to recall whether that would have been a ROBERT OSWALD or a LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but he mentioned that the OSWALD boy was some six years younger than he and JOHN PIC, and for that reason, VANN had very little to do with the OSWALD youngster.

According to VANN's recollection, JOHN PIC and the OSWALD boy were residing, at that time, at about 4600 Victor Street, at the Prairie Street intersection, in a two-story house.

The only other detail VANN was able to recall was that he understood JOHN PIC had come to Dallas from New Orleans, Louisiana, and he recalls that JOHN PIC mentioned having been in some sort of boarding school or other type of institution away from home for a time when he was in Louisiana.

While a Reporter for the Fort Worth Press, he was given an assignment in the latter part of 1959 to write an article on LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The original basis for this article for the newspaper was information received by the Fort Worth Press by their Associated Press Wire Service that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had given up his American citizenship in favor of residing in Russia. As a result, BIFFLE stated he wrote an article entitled, "Turncoat Hangs Up On Mother".

In obtaining additional background information for this article, he did meet OSWALD'S mother, MARGUERITE OSWALD.

After he wrote this first article, he recalls two additional articles for the Fort Worth Press in January, and June, 1960, but did not recall the exact titles given these articles, but they did concern LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

The information obtained for these articles was obtained through Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD. He advised she always provided him with the information, but always gave an appearance of a mysterious air. He further clarified this statement by saying Mrs. OSWALD would telephonically contact the Fort Worth Press asking for Mr. BIFFLE, but if he was not in the newspaper office when she placed the call, she would never leave her telephone number; but always stated she could call later with some confidential information.

BIFFLE concluded by saying through this background information he did obtain regarding OSWALD, he did not actually obtain the names of any friends or associates, and only met

RE: TELEPHONE CALL TO FRANKLIN HOKE, BETHESDA, MARYLAND, FROM PHONE OF MICHAEL R. PAINE, IRVING, TEXAS

The current telephone directory for the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan area, covering Bethesda, Maryland, as checked on December 7, 1963, by SA WILLIAM J. CAMPBELL, reflected that JOHN L. HOKE, 5421 Waneta Road, Bethesda, Maryland, is the subscriber to telephone OL 6-1990. This phone was called on June 20, 1963, from the telephone of MICHAEL R. PAINE, Irving, Texas, and a FRANKLIN HOKE was the recipient of the call.

No prior information received by the Baltimore Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation could be identified with FRANKLIN HOKE or JOHN L. HOKE.

On December 7, 1963, SA JOHN R. ALE, Washington Field Office, determined from the Washington, D.C. Credit Bureau that JOHN L. HOKE, a white, male, age 37, is employed by the Atlantic Records Corporation. He was formerly employed by International Development and has resided, since March, 1962, at 5421 Waneta Road, Bethesda, Maryland. His wife is named SYLVIA. He formerly lived in Silver Spring, Maryland, Washington, D.C. and Falls Church, Virginia.

Lieutenant EARL MC CULLOUGH, Montgomery County Police Department, covering Bethesda, Maryland, advised SA CAMPBELL on December 7, 1963, that he could locate no record for a FRANKLIN HOKE or a JOHN L. HOKE.

Mrs. SYLVIA HOKE, 5421 Waneta Road, advised that she is the wife of JOHN L. HOKE of 5421 Waneta Road, Bethesda, Maryland. Mrs. HOKE also stated that she is the sister of RUTH PAINE, Irving, Texas. She said that the telephone call from the PAINE residence to her telephone, Bethesda, Maryland, exchange OL 6-1990, June 20, 1963, would have been a call from Mrs. PAINE to her ten year old son, FRANKLIN HOKE, to congratulate him on his birthday on that date.

Mrs. HOKE said that she does not know, and has never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She also advised that she has had prior contact with Bureau Agents from the Washington Field Office concerning this case.

Dr. FRANK C. COUNCIL, 801 West Randall Mill Road, advised that he has treated Mrs. MICHAEL PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, and delivered her of two babies, one in 1959 and one in 1961. Dr. COUNCIL stated that he did not recall ever seeing MICHAEL PAINE but may have talked to him on the telephone. Dr. COUNCIL stated that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his wife, MARINA. He stated that about August, 1963, Mrs. PAINE called him and asked if he could take a patient, name not recalled, but whom Dr. COUNCIL now believes was Mrs. OSWALD, and this person would be a charity patient. Dr. COUNCIL said he told Mrs. PAINE that the Arlington Memorial Hospital with which he is associated did not take charity patients and referred Mrs. PAINE to Parkland Memorial Hospital. Dr. COUNCIL stated that through doctor-patient relationship is the only acquaintanceship he has with Mrs. MICHAEL PAINE.

On November 27, 1963, at 1:50 PM, a Mrs. GLADYS PETERSON, 3507 Cragmont, Dallas, telephonically advised that an unidentified individual advised her on November 26, 1963, that he had overheard a conversation with a person called HUTCH, another unidentified party, at Hutch's Grocery Store, 2433 West Shady Grove, indicating that LEE HARVEY OSWALD frequented Hutch's Grocery Store, and that on one recent occasion attempted to cash a $180.00 personal check. The request was denied by HUTCH.

LEONARD EDWIN HUTCHINSON, Scandia Apartments, Apartment 505 (RL 4-5193), 601 West Sixth Street, owner and manager of Hutch's Super Market, (RL 3-3544), 2333 West Shady Grove, Irving, Texas, advised of the following concerning the report that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had attempted to cash a check in the amount of $189.00 at the store; that he frequented this store.

Since the assassination of President KENNEDY, Mr. HUTCHINSON stated that he had learned that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had resided for a time less than a mile from his grocery at 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas. He said he had identified him as a frequent customer through the appearances of OSWALD on television.

The first time Mr. HUTCHINSON could recall OSWALD's coming into the store was on a Friday afternoon between 5:30 and 6 p.m. three weeks ago. Mr. HUTCHINSON placed the date as November 8, 1963. OSWALD, he said, came to the window at the small office enclosure at the front of the store, stating "I would like to get this check cashed" and presenting the check. Mr. HUTCHINSON said he noted that the check was a two-party check in the amount of $189.00; that it was payable to "HARVEY OSWALD" written in ink and drawn on a counter check form. He did not recall the maker of the check, the bank on which it was drawn or anything by which the source of the counter check could be established. He saidhe did remember OSWALD's name because he considered it odd and in that having been in the grocery business forty-one years he had become accustomed to remembering the names of those tendering large checks.

HUTCHINSON said he promptly refused to cash the check for OSWALD informing him that he did not cash two-party checks. OSWALD walked out.

Thereafter, OSWALD came into the store once or twice a week until the assassination, always he came alone apparently on foot as no car was observed, usually about 7:15 to 7:20 a.m. The store opens at 7 a.m.

There is little store traffic at 7 a.m., and usually Mr. HUTCHINSON and OSWALD were alone in this store at this time. For this reason, Mr. HUTCHINSON watched OSWALD closely and said he had attempted to make conversation with OSWALD without success. OSWALD was very tight-lipped. Mr. HUTCHINSON does not recall OSWALD's having said a word. He was not responsive even to "good day".

Mr. HUTCHINSON said he did not recall whether OSWALD had come to the store on weekends or during the course of the week.

Purchases by OSWALD always were the same--a small loaf of bread, brand not recalled, at 21¢; a package of "Mrs. BARD's Cinnamon Rolls," eight in a package at 39¢--never did he take other than cinnamon rolls; a one gallon carton of Oak Farm milk at 79¢. The total in the amount of $1.39 always was paid in cash and nearly always in change--no bills of large denomination; no checks.

On one occasion only OSWALD came to the store in the company of a woman whom Mr. HUTCHINSON presumed to have been OSWALD's wife. This was on Wednesday evening, November 13, 1963, between 6:30 and 7 p.m. Mr. HUTCHINSON said he recalled the date as he had worked that evening stocking shelves. He first noticed the two when he heard them in an adjacent aisle conversing in a foreign tongue which he could not identify. Later he took occasion to observe them, though they were checked through the register by one of two checkers - HELEN MEASE or KAREN HOBSON - neither of whom have any recollection of this.

Mr. HUTCHISON supplied the following physical descriptions of OSWALD and of the woman whom HUTCHISON presumed to have been his wife:

Name	HARVEY OSWALD
Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	24 to 30
Height	5'10"
Weight	155 to 160
Hair	Dark, shabby, unkempt; always in need of a haircut
Eyes	Dark
Complexion	Dark
Dress	Dress very poorly; khaki trousers; colored sports shirt, usually brown, no hat; character of shoes not noted

Name	Mrs. HARVEY OSWALD
Race	White
Sex	Female
Age	20 to 21 (very young in (appearance)
Height	5'3"
Build	Medium
Hair	Light, combed back
Dress	Cotton house dress, pattern and color not noted

Mr. HUTCHISON said he could supply no other pertinent information.

D 12/3/63

Mr. CLIFFORD M. SHASTEEN, 2214 Fairfax, (BL 3-6181), Irving, Texas, operator of Clifford's Barber Shop, 1321 South Story, Irving, Texas, advised that since the assassination and the appearance of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television, he had identified OSWALD as an individual who had been appearing at his barber shop for purposes of obtaining a haircut for the past two or three months, usually on a Friday evening or on Staurday morning early.

His first recollection of OSWALD was when he appeared at the shop on a Saturday two or three months ago at 6:30 AM, when he had just opened. He remembers him particularly because at this time he was wearing house shoes which SHASTEEN considered out of the ordinary. He had commented to OSWALD concerning the house shoes and suggested that they must be quite expensive. OSWALD said, "No, not where I bought them". Then, he stated he had purchased the shoes in Old Mexico for only $1.50.

SHASTEEN described the house shoes worn by OSWALD as being of a light or brilliant yellow leather embossed with a design which he could not further describe and as having one metal fastener which SHASTEEN described as being of the type used on the slickers (raincoats) in the years past.

Mr. SHASTEEN said that OSWALD usually wore a fatigue-type clothing or Army or khaki trousers with pockets which he described as being "straight down in the front".

In all, SHASTEEN said that OSWALD had obtained seven or eight haircuts at that shop and that he never had liked any of them. He described OSWALD as a hypercritical and disgruntled person. He said he never had had a customer before whom he would have preferred not patronize his business.

The only time OSWALD had ever conversed in any way with SHASTEEN was when they had discussed the shoes. Initial attempts by SHASTEEN to start a conversation with OSWALD by asking him where he worked received the response only of "downtown". It was evident from this, Mr. SHASTEEN said, that OSWALD preferred not to talk at all.

SHASTEEN stated that at times OSWALD came to the shop apparently on foot. Occasionally, however, he would drive to the shop, driving a car which SHASTEEN had identified as belonging to Mrs. PAINE, a station wagon which he had seen parked in the PAINE's driveway.

On occasions, upon leaving the barber shop, SHASTEEN said that he had seen OSWALD cross the street to enter Hutch's Grocery Store.

On several occasions, SHASTEEN said that OSWALD came to the shop in the company of a fourteen-year-old boy, whom he described as a white male, short hair, not a flat top, dark brown in color. He described him as a little bit freckled with brown eyes and stated he usually wore blue jeans. On one occasion when this boy came into the shop for a haircut alone, not accompanied by OSWALD, he had made some statements which had astounded SHASTEEN, and it was for this reason that he had asked him his age and he was told that the boy was fourteen. SHASTEEN stated that the topic in the shop at the time was foreign aid and that most in the shop had agreed that the United States could not buy friends. The boy, who up to that time had had nothing to say, volunteered something to the effect that, "We will only be free when everyone has the same, when everyone is equal". The boy continued in this vein, SHASTEEN said, espousing what he considered to be Communist doctrine. He said he had never been able to establish the identity of the boy and only knows that he had been associated with OSWALD.

The following investigation was conducted by SA BARDWELL D. ODUM at Irving, Texas, on December 16, 1963, in an effort to identify a fourteen year old boy reportedly present with OSWALD on one occasion at Clifford's Barber Shop, Irving, Texas.

CLIFFORD M. SHASTEEN, 1321 South Story Road, operator of Clifford's Barber Shop at that address, advised that he has not been able to identify the fourteen year old boy who was in his shop on one occasion about two months ago with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that as he recalls this boy and OSWALD were in the shop on a Wednesday or Thursday at which time OSWALD had his hair cut by BERT GLOVER. GLOVER on a later date, possibly the next Monday or Tuesday, cut the hair of the fourteen year old boy, and at this time OSWALD was not in the shop but someone else had brought this boy to the shop and waited outside in a car.

On this occasion, SHASTEEN recalls that someone was complaining about high taxes, and the unidentified boy said that there would be no peace until all people had the same amount of possessions and that most of our trouble now was caused because the poor people had so little and the rich so much. This boy indicated that "peace" would come when all people had the same amount of wealth.

SHASTEEN stated that he has not seen this boy since this time and has not been able to determine who he is.

BERT GLOVER, barber in Clifford's Barber Shop, advised that he recalls cutting this boy's hair but has not been able to identify him in the neighborhood and does not know where he lives at this time. He stated that if he determines the identity of this boy he will immediately notify the Dallas Office of the FBI.

Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West Fifth, Irving, Texas, advised that she has no child even as old as school age and knows of no boy of about fourteen with whom OSWALD was ever associated in the neighborhood. She further repeated that she had never allowed OSWALD to take her car by himself anywhere.

BONNIE MALONE, 831 North Crawford, Dallas, Texas, advised that following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, she had observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD's picture on television and in the press, and she had remarked to her husband that she believes she has observed OSWALD in the past. She stated that she has been unable to determine where she saw OSWALD, and, in fact, she is not sure that it was OSWALD that she had seen in the past. She stated that if she had seen OSWALD in the past, it was possibly at the washeteria located at the intersection of Beckley and Zang Boulevard, in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas, in the close vicinity of the MALONE residence.

Mrs. MALONE stated she could furnish no further information regarding her having possibly seen OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY, and she could not estimate when she may have seen him.

BROCK formerly did a lot of work among high school boys in training them for the Golden Gloves boxing tournament which is held each year in Fort Worth. He recalls that about 1955 he had a young boy by the name of OSWALD, and he believed that he was a student at Arlington Heights High School. BROCK trained a number of boys that year and helped them in preparing themselves to box in this tournament. He stated that OSWALD attended only a few classes, and as well as he can recall, OSWALD dropped out and never boxed in any of the Golden Gloves Tournaments. BROCK advised that he never closely associated with OSWALD and was unable to furnish any information as to his activities or associates.

Mrs. C. L. CONNELL, 6949 Lake Shore Drive, Dallas, Texas, advised she has been a voluntary assistant to the Catholic Cuban Relief Committee of Dallas, Texas, for approximately the past year. She stated one of her Cuban refugee acquaintances, SYLVIA ODIO, 1816 A West Davis Street, Dallas, advised her telephonically on November 28, 1963, that she knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and that he had made some talks to small groups of Cuban refugees in Dallas in the past. ODIO stated she personally considered OSWALD brilliant and clever, and that he had captivated the groups to whom he spoke. ODIO further reported to CONNELL during this conversation that a call had been made in recent months by a Cuban associate of hers to an unknown source in New Orleans, Louisiana, requesting information on LEE HARVEY OSWALD. ODIO volunteered that information was in turn received from the New Orleans source to the effect that OSWALD was considered by that source in New Orleans to be a "double agent". The source stated OSWALD was probably trying to infiltrate the Dallas Cuban refugee group, and that he should not be trusted.

CONNELL knew of no connection between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

CONNELL voiced the opinion that General EDWIN A. WALKER and Colonel (FNU) CASTER, a close acquaintance of WALKER, have been trying to arouse the feelings of the Cuban refugees, in Dallas, against the KENNEDY administration. She based this statement upon information furnished her by various Cubans to the effect that WALKER and CASTER made speeches before Cuban groups in recent months in the Dallas area in opposition to the KENNEDY administration policies.

CONNELL further advised she met a man some months ago through SYLVIA ODIO, who was introducted as Mr. (FNU) MARTIN from Uruguay and whom ODIO stated had tried to obtain guns for the Cuban people in their contemplated overthrow of CASTRO sometime ago. CONNELL stated she was suspicious of MARTIN since he claimed to be an airplane engineer, while at the same time ODIO stated he operated a washateria in Dallas. CONNELL further stated MARTIN apparently traveled out of the United States a great deal and was referred to by his Latin associates always as "Mr. Martin". CONNELL stated she has not seen or heard anything of MARTIN in recent months from her contacts with Cuban refugees.

Miss SYLVIA ODIO, 1816 W. Davis Street, Dallas, Texas, advised she is a Cuban refugee and a member of the organization known as Junta Revolucionaria or JURE.

Miss ODIO stated that in late September or early October, 1963, two Cuban men came to her house and stated they were from JURE. They were accompanied by an individual whom they introduced as LEON OSWALD. Miss ODIO stated that based upon photographs she has seen of LEE HARVEY OSWALD she is certain that LEON OSWALD is identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Miss ODIO stated she is not certain if she misunderstood the first name of LEON or if the two Cuban men who introduced OSWALD as LEON misunderstood him. Miss ODIO stated the purpose of their visit was to ask her to write some letters to various businesses in Dallas and request funds for JURE.

Miss ODIO stated that both of her parents are presently in prison in Cuba and for this reason she declined for fear her parents would be possibly harmed. These two individuals together with OSWALD then left. A few days later one of the two Cuban individuals contacted her by telephone and stated they were leaving town presumably to return to either Miami, Florida, or Puerto Rico, the headquarters for JURE. The individual who called Miss ODIO who only gave his name as LEOPOLDO stated he was not going to have anything further to do with LEON OSWALD since he considered him to be "loco." This individual known only as LEOPOLDO stated OSWALD did not appear sincere. He told them he was an ex-marine and could help them in the underground however he appeared to be very cynical and seemed to think that all Cubans hated all Americans. According to LEOPOLDO, OSWALD stated "I'll bet you Cubans could kill KENNEDY for what he did to you at the Bay of Pigs." According to Miss ODIO, LEOPOLDO told them that the Cuban people bore no malice toward President KENNEDY because of the Bay of Pigs episode.

Mrs. VIRGINIA F. POE, Assistant Principal Clerk, Local Draft Boards 26-31, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

VIRGINIA F.

With regard to a Selective Service card bearing the number 42-224-39-5321, issued to ALEK JAMES HIDELL, the number 42 designated the State of Utah, and the number 224 designated the number of the local board; however, Utah has only 39 local boards, therefore, the number is false. The number 39 designates the registrant was born in 1939. The number 5321 means the number of registrants born in 1939 registered with that local board. She doubted that 5,321 registrants born in 1939 were registered with any local board. It was her conclusion that a card bearing such numbers was either fictitious or had been tampered with.

Mrs. POE advised further there is no local board number 400 in Texas since the entire state has only 137 local boards.

The records of the Western Union Telegraph Company, 1416 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, failed to contain any information concerning contacts made with Western Union by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, O. H. LEE, H. O. LEE or ALEK JAMES HIDELL, or any logical variation of the aforementioned names. The above includes records of the Main Branch of Western Union Telegraph Company, located at 2034 Main Street, as well as all Western Union Branch Offices, located in Dallas County, Texas; and the pertinent period in question is September 1, 1963, through November 22, 1963.

It is to be noted that all of the aforementioned records failed to contain any information indicative of the receipt of any Western Union money order in the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or in the name of the aforementioned aliases. This includes all money orders paid by Western Union through the Main Branch and Dallas Branch Offices.

Western Union records also failed to contain any information in the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or the above aliases pertaining to cash messages sent from Dallas during the period of September 1, 1963, through November 22, 1963, and more particularly, cash messages from Dallas, Texas, to Washington, D. C., between October 1, 1963, and November 22, 1963.

The records of the Dallas Main Office, as well as Branch Offices of Western Union Telegraph Company, failed to contain any information pertaining to outgoing telegrams in the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or the aforementioned aliases.

No record is maintained in the Dallas Main Office or Branch Offices on incoming telegrams directed to a person. The only copy of an incoming telegram is retained at the office of origin or the office from which the message was sent.

The above records are confidential, and information pertaining thereto can be furnished only upon the proper issuance of a subpoena duces tecum directed to [Mr. W. W. SEMINGSEN, Vice President,] Gulf Division, Western Union Telegraph Company, 1416 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas.

Mr. BARRY M. COHEN appeared voluntarily at the Dallas Office of the FBI and advised his telephone number was EM 1-7570. COHEN is a member of the American Civil Liberty Union (ACLU) and is presently attending the University of Texas working on his Master's Degree in Russian history. COHEN who is very active in the ACLU advised he had been discussing with Mr. GREG OLDS, home phone AD 1-0841, office phone AD 5-3353, about LEE HARVEY OSWALD joining the ACLU. OSWALD picked up a blank membership and mailed the membership with a $2.00 fee to the National Headquarters of ACLU in New York.

Approximately one month prior to the President's assassination, OSWALD attended a meeting of the ACLU, but COHEN was not at this meeting. COHEN started an investigation to determine why OSWALD attended this meeting and found that a Mrs. PAINE with whom OSWALD's wife was residing, invited OSWALD as her guest to this meeting.

On December 4, 1963, Mr. GUS FALK, Area Director, Southwest Regional Office of the American Jewish Committee, 1809 Tower Petroleum Building, Dallas, Texas, advised that he determined from REUBIN GINSBERG, a member of the Board of the Dallas Civil Liberties Union, an affiliate of the American Civil Liberties Union, that LEE HARVEY OSWALD attended a meeting of the Dallas Civil Liberties Union at Selectman Hall, Southern Methodist University, University Park, Texas, on October 25, 1963. He was brought to this meeting by MICHAEL R. PAINE of Irving, Texas, who is a member of this organization.

Mr. FALK then made available the letter recently sent to all members of the Dallas Civil Liberties Union by GREG OLDS, President, explaining their connections with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD's connection with their organization. This letter reads as follows:

"DALLAS CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION

"Dear DCLU Member:

"This is to advise you of the activities of your board's activities during the past few sad days.

"Friday night, in response to press reports that Lee Oswald was being denied legal counsel, as he alleged, three DCLU attorneys and I conferred among ourselves and decided to telephone either Police Chief Curry or Capt. Will Fritz about the matter.

"Chief Curry was unavailable. Captain Fritz assured us that Mr. Oswald had been advised that afternoon he was entitled to counsel whenever he decided he wanted it. Captain Fritz reported that Oswald had not asked for counsel to that time (about 10:30 p.m.), offered the partial explanation that Mr. Oswald had been pretty busy with paraffin tests, questioning, and the like.

"To assure ourselves that Oswald had not requested counsel and been denied it, a DCLU committee consisting ot the president and the three lawyers visited the police station, arriving there about 11:30 p.m. As we were shown into the office of a police captain who'd been assisting the investigation, we heard him on the phone saying Mr. Oswald had just been charged with the President's murder, in addition to the earlier charge of killing Officer Tippit.'

"We told the captain what we wanted, he too assured us Mr. Oswald had been told he was entitled to legal counsel on request. For further verification one of our attorneys accompanied a lawyer friend who had been on the scene all that afternoon downstairs to the basement, where they talked to Justice of the Peace David Johnston, before whom Oswald had been arraigned about 7 p.m. Mr. Johnston said he had advised Oswald of his rights to an attorney's services.

"Chief of Police Curry, too, had advised Oswald at some point during Friday that the services of an attorney were available to him when he so requested. When the chief told Mr. Oswald this, I'm not sure; it would have been sometime between 2 p.m. when Oswald was arrested in Oak Cliff and 11:30 p.m. I'm not sure whether Chief Curry told the DCLU lawyer this, or whether this came from someone else, perhaps Mr. Johnston.

"Satisfied, the committee broke up and went home.

"Saturday afternoon Dallas Bar Assn. president H. Louis Nichols appeared on TV after conferring with Mr. Oswald regarding acquiring legal counsel. Mr. Nichols said on TV that Oswald wanted John Abt of New York City to represent him, or, if he couldn't, then he wanted an ACLU lawyer. Mr. Nichols said Oswald had said he was an ACLU member. Still at this time, over 24 hours later, Oswald had no attorney. Reportedly, his family was trying to contact Mr. Abt.

"I called the ACLU's New York office Saturday night to inquire whether Mr. Oswald was a member and to determine what our policy would be in answer to any request to provide legal counsel.

"I discussed the matter with Alan Reitman, associate director in charge of public relations, at his home in New Jersey. He said he would call someone nearer the ACLU office in New York City to check the membership records.

"Concerning any request for providing Mr. Oswald counsel, we agreed that this would be likely only concerning any violations of the suspect's civil liberties in his arrest and questioning. Mr. Reitman pointed out that we deal with civil cases, not criminal ones. Too, ACLU entry into a law suit usually occurs when there is a significant Constitutional question involved. The Dallas Bar Assn. would be able to provide competent counsel for a criminal case.

"Later Saturday night Mr. Reitman called again to say a thorough check of the ACLU records shows no member named Lee H. Oswald from either Dallas, Fort Worth, or New Orleans. The ACLU also found no membership under the name Hiddel, which Mr. Oswald used when ordering the rifle from a Chicago mail order house and when renting a Dallas post office box.

"The New York office worked over the weekend on a statement for publication concerning these aspects of the case as they relate to the ACLU. The Dallas News carried part of the release Tuesday morning.

"Tuesday afternoon I was called by Mr. Reitman. In checking additions to the membership rolls received recently in New York, it was found Mr. Oswald had indeed joined the ACLU on Nov. 4. This was discovered processing some 350 checks received and deposited Nov. 4 in the bank, checking the deposit for new names. Mr. Reitman said this new information has been given the US Justice Dept. and a second statement released to the press.

"Wednesday morning, I received a call from the Times Herald inquiring about Mr. Oswald's membership. The reporter told me that Mr. Oswald had, when filling out a card to rent his Dallas post office box, listed under 'organizations' the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and the ACLU. The reporter wanted to know if that was the local ACLU box. I assured him, whatever number Mr. Oswald's box was, it wasn't ours, telling him our box number is 2251.

"Wednesday afternoon I talked to New York again, asking if memberships are refused or donations refunded, considering the statement that appears on donation envelopes and membership applications: 'The ACLU needs and welcomes the support of all those -- and only those -- whose devotion to civil liberties is not qualified by adherence to Communist, Fascist, KKK, or other totalitarian doctrine.'

"I was advised that limitations are placed only on holding membership on an affiliate's or the national office's board of directors or staff. Exclusion of other members for totalitarian advocacies is, however, not a part of our organization's constitution.

"This brings you up to date on the current situation, except to say the DCLU is now compiling all available information on the handling of the Oswald (and perhaps the Rose, too) case. We do this at the request of our national office, which wants to make sure no civil liberties violations were committed.

"May I, in closing, say this. There is danger in the future, as a result of the tragedy of last Friday, that civil liberties will be under increased stress. Free speech, due process, equal protection of the law -- all these precious aspects of our country's society will be under further strain from those who, in their fear of threats to our national security, will forget the seriousness of violating these more subtle values.

"May I urge you to do what you can to improve the emotional and psychological atmosphere by reminding others when necessary of the importance of not forgetting such 'niceties' as the Bill of Rights and the Constitution in the understandable, universal tension over survival.

"If we sacrifice or lose sight of these finer points of freedom in the name of 'preventing subversion' -- or whatever -- we will have lost the moral battle. The physical affirmation of that defeat would inevitably follow, denying us even the survival we had sacrificed liberty for.

"As our late President observed: 'Our historic task in this embattled age is not merely to defend freedom. It is to extend its writ and strengthen its covenant.' And: 'If we should ever abandon these basic American traditions in the name of fighting Communism, what would it profit us to win the whole world when we would have lost our own soul?' And finally: 'Let us not seek the Republican answer or the Democratic answer but the right answer.'

"Sincerely,

Greg Olds

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date December 3, 1963

On December 3, 1963, Inspector TOM KELLEY of the United States Secret Service turned over a letter written in the Russian language together with two Russian books.

Inspector KELLEY advised that the two Russian language books and the letter in the Russian language were turned over to Captain PAUL BARGER of the Irving, Texas, Police Department by Mrs. RUTH PAINE on November 23, 1963, as part of the personal effects of Mrs. MARINA OSWALD. These two books in the Russian language and letter were turned over to the United States Secret Service for delivery to MARINA OSWALD on December 2, 1963.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date 12/6/63

RUTH PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, furnished the following information:

On November 30, 1963, at about 4:30 PM, she went to the Irving, Texas, Police Department with two books and left them with an officer she believes is a Captain for delivery to MARINA OSWALD. She stated that one of these was a white cover book and is a book in the Russian language giving advice concerning the raising of children. The other is a larger blue-bound book which contains in the Russian language advice on several matters, including cooking and sewing.

She stated that she recalled that MARINA OSWALD often referred to these books and therefore thought that she might want them, and this motivated her taking these books to the station. The books were not in the same place in her home, and she believes that the white book was on top of the secretary in the southwest corner of the kitchen. She believes that the blue book was on the top of the chest of drawers in the southeast bedroom, which previously was occupied by MARINA OSWALD.

She thought that MARINA might have use for these books since MARINA does not read English.

On December 2, 1963, about 7:30 PM, two Secret Service Agents came to see Mrs. PAINE and asked her about a message written in Russian that she allegedly had sent to MARINA OSWALD. She told them that she did not send any message, and they then showed her a piece of paper on which Russian words were written. She stated to them that she had never seen the paper before and knew nothing about it. The Agents then mentioned that it was found in a book, and Mrs. PAINE then stated that she had sent MARINA OSWALD two books, but she did not know that there was any paper such as the one exhibited to her in either of the books.

Mrs. PAINE advised that she is sure she had never seen this piece of paper before, and that while the Secret Service Agent held it up she read the first line or two but did not get to complete it. She recalls reading something to the effect that "here is the key to the post office". She was not able to read any further since the Secret Service Agent took the paper down from where he was holding it in her line of vision.

Mrs. PAINE made available the following items which were still in her home that belonged to MARINA OSWALD:

(1) A cook book in Russian located inside the secretary in the southwest corner of the kitchen.

Found in this book between pages 138 and 139 was a slip of paper which has two numbers, W.A. 6-3741 and P.E. 7-5402.

A prescription on a form of Baylor University, College of Dentistry, Dallas, Texas, dated October 10, 1962, signed A. F. Staples, DDS, was found between pages 190 and 191. This prescription reflects the patient as MARINA OSWALD, 6628 Druckner, Chart No. 3148, narcotic registration number 6047, and reads: "Empirin compound number 3, Disp. tabs No. VI label: take tablet ---- 3-4 hours p.r.n. for pain.

(2) An envelope addressed to New Orleans Public Library, New Orleans, Louisiana, inside of which was a printed card reading:

"New Orleans Public Library

"The Directors wish to acknowledge with appreciation your gift to the New Orleans Public Library.

"All gifts are accepted with the understanding that they will be utilized to the best interest of the Library in the judgment of the staff.

"We hope you will remind others that we are always interested in acquiring materials which will be of value in extending the Library's program."

Also inside this envelope was a letter reading as follows:

"New Orleans
Public Library

"Dear Sirs:

"Through a clearical errow of yours, you claim some books which I borrowed and returned serveral weeks ago are still out.

"The books may have been returned without a card, since my young daughter sometimes got a hold of the books and played with them, but the point is the books have been positively and absolutly returnd! I repeat returned!

"I'm sure you shall resolve this question by uncovering your mistake in handleing the returned books.

Yours Truly"

The above letter was not signed, and the envelope had no stamp on it. Apparently it was never mailed. It was found by RUTH PAINE in the second drawer of a chest of drawers which sits on the west wall of the southeast bedroom.

(3) A folded card entitled "Rules for Betting" published by Hipodromo De Las Americas, S. A., Mexico, D. F. This was found in the same drawer by RUTH PAINE as above.

(4) A paper edition of the University of Chicago Spanish-English, English-Spanish Dictionary, Book No. 6188, Pocket Books Inc. An examination of this book shows the following:

a. On the fly leaf appear the figures 5.80, apparently reflecting the price in Mexican pesos.

b. At the top of page 5 appear jottings in pencil showing addition of 450 and 440, the total of 10. Also close to this is a penciled notation, which is what appears to be an arrow or triangle followed by two zeros.

c. At the top of page 9 is penciled writing of the number 3, followed by what appears to be 5 8/40.

d. On page 91, a small triangle appears opposite the word "estadio" (stadium).

e. On page 174, a small triangle appears just above the word "pupila" (pupil, of the eye).

f. On page 175, at the top of the page appears "Que", which has been scratched through.

g. On page 210 appears to be a mark similar to a star by the word "topar" (one meaning is to gamble).

On the same page appears a small mark following "tontera" (foolishness, stupidity).

h. In the back of the book on a blank sheet is written what appears to be a list reading as follows:

"phone embassy
"get bus tickets
"eat

"watch Jai-lai game
"buy silver braclet
" " record"

Below this appears an illegible notation, one word of which appears to be "sopa" (soup).

Also found in this book were six picture post cards, on which nothing had been written and on which no stamps had been placed. These are as follows:

Latin Tower, Mexico, D. F.
Bull Fight in Mexico (four scenes)
Revolution Monument, Mexico, D. F.
Panoramic view of Mexico, D. F.
Bull Fight in Mexico (one scene)
Monument of the Revolution (aerial view)

The above cards are produced by Editorial Mexico, S. A. and are styled greeting cards created by Fischgrund.

(5) Paper back copy of The Merriam-Webster Pocket Dictionary (English). An examination of this book shows the following notations:

a. On page 21 appears a bracket around the word "ashamed".

b. On page 65 appears an arrow at the top of the page in green ink.

On the same page appears a large arrow drawn in blue ink opposite the word "clearance".

c. On page 66 appears an arrow by the word "clog".

d. On page 68 appears a dagger drawn at the bottom of the page.

e. On page 169 appears a line drawn beside the word "imaginable".

f. On page 195 appears the writing in the top margin "lature".

g. On page 283 appears writing at the top of the page "oneconce".

h. On page 341 appears writing in green ink at the top of the page "stoliz".

Also on this page appears writing in green ink across the definition for "straightforward", and this word appears to read "seild".

(6) Also found was a small silver bracelet with an expandable band and the name MARINA written in a crude fashion on the top name plate part of the bracelet.

(7) Also found were two envelopes, one plain and the other being an air mail envelope, which possibly have indented writing on them.

All of the above items were found in the second drawer from the top of the chest of drawers in the bedroom in the southeast corner of Mrs. RUTH PAINE's house, and she stated that all of these items belonged to Mr. and Mrs. LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On December 9, 1963, SA ARTHUR E. CARTER examined the patient records of the Baylor University College of Dentistry and determined that Mrs. MARINA OSWALD, address 6628 Dickins and 6628 Dickens, telephone EM 3-1365, was treated at the hospital on three dates, October 8, 10, and 15, 1962.

A search of the telephone directories and Criss-Cross Directories of the Dallas Division by SA ARTHUR E. CARTER determined that 6628 Dickens and telephone number EM 3-1365 are listed to "G. DE MOHRENSCHILDT."

Dr. HARVEY WALDO ALLEN, DDS, graduate student of oral surgery, Baylor University College of Dentistry, 800 Hall Street, advised he recalled treating MARINA OSWALD, who first came to his attention on October 8, 1962, when she appeared with a lady whom he could not identify except that she acted as an interpreter for Mrs. OSWALD. Examination disclosed that Mrs. OSWALD's teeth were in very poor condition. He recalled he examined her together with Dr. A. F. STAPLES, Head of the Department of Oral Surgery, and they recommended on the first visit that she have her teeth cleaned and a full mouth x-ray survey.

He said she re-appeared on October 10, 1962, and three extractions were performed. He said he believed Dr. STAPLES gave her a prescription for a mild sedative to prevent her from having any pain after the extraction. He said the patient returned on October 15, 1962, and two more extractions were performed. He said he seemed to recall that the lady who accompanied her acted as an interpreter because Mrs. OSWALD did not speak English. He said there was no significant personal history in her historical background statement which was taken at the time of her first admission for treatment and observation. He said he seemed to recall that the lady, or man and lady, who accompanied the patient paid the bills, but a search of the hospital records could not determine whether they were paid by cash or check.

The hospital records failed to reflect any information on LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He said he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and did not know JACK RUBY.

MARY E. GRAVES, Assistant Cashier, Baylor University College of Dentistry, advised her register of patients reflected a record dated October 8, 1962, which indicated Mrs. MARINA OSWALD, 6628 Dickins (also spelled Dickens), telephone EM 3-1365, reported as a patient to Student HARVEY ALLEN on October 8, 1962. She had her teeth cleaned and a full mouth x-ray. She paid $11.00 for these services.

On October 10, 1962, this patient returned and had three extractions for which she paid a fee of $6.00. On October 15, 1962, she had two extractions and paid a fee of $4.00.

Mrs. GRAVES stated that Dr. STAPLES, an instructor, and HARVEY ALLEN, a student dentist, are still available and might be interviewed at the school.

She said there was no record on LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she noted that MARINA OSWALD's past record indicated she spoke very little English. She said she seemed to recall Mrs. OSWALD was accompanied by a lady who acted as an interpreter for her, and on one occasion may have been accompanied by a man and a lady.

She said she had no knowledge of OSWALD, his wife, or JACK RUBY and was not acquainted with anyone who knew them personally.

Dr. ALBERT FRANKLIN STAPLES, DDS and DMD, Associate Professor of Oral Surgery, Baylor University College of Dentistry, 800 Hall Street, Dallas, Texas, advised he had reviewed the medical history and patient record of MARINA OSWALD, 6628 Dickins, telephone EM 3-1365, and there was little personal background concerning this patient in her medical history statement. He said he recalled her teeth were in very poor condition. She had many cavities and needed much dental attention. He said that he had no personal recollection of giving her a prescription, but he felt sure that he would have given her a prescription on October 10, 1962, when she had three extractions. He said in such cases it is the usual practice for him to give a prescription for codeine or combination of codeine and aspirin to keep the patient comfortable after such work.

Dr. STAPLES said he had no personal knowledge of JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and he did not have any friends or acquaintances to his knowledge who had ever associated with them.

He said he seemed to recall that MARINA was accompanied by a lady on two occasions and possibly a man and a lady on one occasion during the three trips she made to the College of Dentistry for dental attention.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 10, 1963

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street. She was questioned as to why the Soviets had permitted her to leave Russia. She said that when she first applied for permission from the Russian Government to leave Russia, that she did not have high hopes of being able to depart. She said that she had not heard of any specific difficulties that had to be overcome by a Russian citizen requesting permission to go abroad to live, but that she thought generally she would have a hard time obtaining the permission.

She said she knows that the ZIEGER family which had originally emigrated from Argentina and had lived in the Soviet Union for 20-25 years had decided to go back to Argentina. Mr. ZIEGER, who was an engineer, was advised that he had to fulfill the terms of his contract of three years with the firm with which he was employed at Minsk. The ZIEGERs had taken out Soviet citizenship. U.S.S.R.

She said she had received a standard letter from Russian authorities in answer to her initial request for an exit permit from Russia. She said after she received her exit permit that her friends would not believe she had actually received it. She recalled an occasion when just prior to her departure when she was being examined by a medical doctor, that the doctor asked her why she was taking the physical examination. The doctor asked her if she were going to Germany. When MARINA replied she was going to America, the woman doctor said, "Stop joking. I'm too old for this kind of joke," implying that she too did not believe that MARINA had been granted permission to go to the United States.

MARINA said again that she had met OSWALD in March and they had been married on April 30, 1961. At the time she met him and at the time she married him, she was of the impression that OSWALD did not want to return to the United States. She said OSWALD had prior to their marriage told her that he thought he could not return to the United States. He had told her he had written the American Embassy letters about returning to the United States, and they had not answered the letters. She said OSWALD was therefore of the impression that he could not return. MARINA said that if she had known of any desire on the part of OSWALD to return to the United States at the time of their marriage, she probably would not have married him.

With regard to the date that she had first applied for exit documentation from Russia, MARINA said she knows her application was made not before May, 1961, and probably later than that. She reiterated she did not know of OSWALD's desire to return to the United States until about three months after their marriage. Following her application for exit permit, she received about New Year's, 1962, a communication from the Russian Government that permission would be granted to her to depart for the United States. In this communication, she was requested to submit photographs and other necessary documents on which to base her exit permit. She said in May, 1962, she received the actual exit document.

MARINA was asked if she knew what the normal procedure was concerning the handling of foreign persons who had come to Russia to live. She advised she did not know what procedure was followed. She said that tourists and foreigners were generally treated in a very nice way in Russia and, in fact, many times were treated better than the citizens. She said the best hotels were reserved for foreigners and foreigners did not have to stand in line for many things as did citizens. She said the Russians have always been known for their hospitality. She said OSWALD had arrived in Russia on a tourist's visa, and she believes that while he was in Moscow at the beginning of his Russian visit, he informed Russian authorities of his desire to stay in Russia. She said she does not know how long OSWALD was in Moscow but presumes that he stayed there until shortly before the time he began employment at the Belorussian Radio and Television Factory in Minsk, which was about mid-January, 1960, she believes.

She said OSWALD had stayed at the Hotel Metropole and later the Hotel Berlin in Moscow. He spent eight hours a day studying Russian and also walked around quite a bit visiting museums and other places of interest. She said he did not have much money upon his arrival in Moscow, and after a few weeks ran out of money. After he ran out of money, he charged his room and meals at the Hotel Berlin and ran up quite a sizable bill. She said later the Russian Government paid off this bill and then sent him to Minsk to work. She also advised that various Russian people in Moscow had helped him out financially, but she does not know to what extent.

In connection with his residence at the Hotel Berlin, MARINA told of an occasion when she and OSWALD were in Moscow prior to their departure for the United States. The occasion of their visit was at the same time of the film festival and rooms were at a premium in Moscow. OSWALD, who was well known at the Hotel Berlin, immediately got them a room without trouble.

She said OSWALD had no choice as to where he would be sent. She advised he probably was sent to Minsk because workers were needed there, particularly in the factory he was assigned to work in. She said that Moscow and Leningrad were over-populated, whereas Minsk, which had been almost destroyed during the war, was in a period of rebuilding and needed people and workers.

MARINA does not believe OSWALD had any trouble obtaining official Russian documentation to leave Russia. She said generally speaking, foreigners who reside in Russia do not have such difficulty. She feels sure there was no deal between OSWALD and the Russians for OSWALD to furnish information to them in return for being permitted to leave Russia. She said OSWALD had been given certain preferential treatment while in Russia which most foreigners are allowed. For example, he was permitted to live in an apartment rather than a dormitory in Minsk, when probably it would have been better that he be required to live in a dormitory so he would actually know what Russian life was like.

He never mentioned to her that he was questioned by Russian authorities in Moscow. She does not believe there was any such questioning of OSWALD by Russian authorities. She believes he was observed and perhaps his neighbors and associates were questioned concerning his beliefs and his activities. She said there is a possibility that there will be speculators and espionage agents among tourists and immigrants in Russia. She said for this reason that tourists and immigrants are investigated to a degree in Russia. She advised the Russian authorities were undoubtedly upset because of OSWALD's decision to return to the United States. She said OSWALD had been received hospitably, given certain preferential treatment, had been furnished work, and yet had made a decision to return to the United States. This indicated that he was dissatisfied with the Russian way of life. She said, however, she did not believe the Russian authorities had made any attempt to dissuade OSWALD from his decision to return to the United States.

MARINA was questioned concerning post office procedures in Russia. She said normally mail is delivered very promptly. She stated that inasmuch as OSWALD was a foreigner that his mail would undoubtedly have been checked. She said undoubtedly letters mailed by OSWALD to the American Embassy were checked and that probably these letters took a lengthy time to arrive at their destination.

After OSWALD and MARINA made the decision to apply for permission to go to the United States, OSWALD decided to go to Moscow to see the American authorities as his letters had not been answered. He went to Moscow alone in July, 1961. He telephoned her in Minsk later the same day he arrived in Moscow and told her to take the next day's plane to Moscow. She did and arrived in Moscow the next day. It was then that she was interviewed by the American official at the American Embassy concerning her request for American visa.

She said none of their friends or even her relatives had been told of their desire to go to America. She said she had not even told her aunt. When they returned from Moscow in July, 1961, OSWALD told no one of his efforts to return to the United States. MARINA, who had taken three days off from work, told her aunt and certain of her friends that she had made application of American authorities to go to the United States. She said she had been criticized in pharmaceutical union meetings for her action. She said certain strong Communist friends had tried to convince her to remain in Russia. She said some of these people threatened to expose her to the newspaper. She said she wanted to experience life in another country and was adamant in her decision to go to America. She told the people who threatened her that she did not care. She said jokingly that when asked who her husband was, she would reply that he was an espionage agent. She said certain adult acquaintances of hers were actually afraid they would be officially criticized by the government for MARINA's action in attempting to leave Russia. She stated there were some of her girl friends who were jealous of her because they would like to travel too and they were particularly fond of the American clothes.

After they had obtained permission to leave Russia and were in Moscow making the final preparations, she had changed what rubles they had saved into U. S. dollars. She said this was necessary because dollars being international currency could be used on their trip from Russia through Poland and Europe to Amsterdam. She said they could not have used rubles on this trip.

MARINA advised of an occasion on their trip when they were in Poland and gave a Pole a U. S. dollar, and he in turn gave them enough Polish money to purchase food for a long while. She said the American dollar was much valued in eastern Europe.

She said OSWALD had told her on one occasion after their marriage that he had been offered Russian citizenship, but he had refused it. She said OSWALD did not tell her why he had refused it, but she believes he had refused because everything in Russia had not turned out as he had expected it. OSWALD never told her who had made this offer of citizenship to him or when or where it had been offered him.

She said OSWALD had received an official permit to purchase a rifle in Russia, and he had done so. She recalls only one occasion when he went hunting. On this occasion several people at the plant where he worked took a bus to a forest nearby for a hunting trip. He went on this trip but was unsuccessful in bagging any game.

OSWALD did not to her knowledge attend any specialized school for training in radio or photography. She said he was very inept in basic electronics and could not even fix a broken iron. He did not have any secret writing equipment nor microscopes.

MARINA said she had made no deals with Russian authorities to perform assignments in the United States, and she said OSWALD had made no deals with Russian authorities to her knowledge to perform such assignments in the United States.

MARINA said PAVEL GOLOVACHOV had been a fellow worker of OSWALD's at the television and radio factory. She did not like him at first but later he became quite a friend of the family. GOLOVACHOV at the present time is attending the Technical Institute in Minsk, where he is studying electronics. He is a very able student. GOLOVACHOV's father is a Russian Air Force General and has been twice decorated for bravery.

MARINA stated she had taken a vacation with an aunt who lived in Kharkov, Russia, after she was married. This aunt, who lives in Kharkov, is named POLINA VASILIEVNA MIKHAILOVA. She said this aunt's son (her cousin) might have been in love with her.

In view of the apparent farewell note OSWALD left for MARINA on the occasion of his confessed attempt to assassinate General WALKER, MARINA was asked if she knew whether OSWALD had left any such note for her on November 21 or 22, 1963. She said that if any such note had been left by OSWALD that she did not know about it. She said she had been shocked when she discovered the police had found her husband's wedding ring when they searched the PAINE residence on November 22, 1963.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

She advised she recalls an occasion during that period of time when the OSWALDS were living at 424 Neeley Street in Dallas that Mrs. GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT visited her. She recalls that on this particular visit she showed Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT a rifle which OSWALD had bought. This rifle was standing in a corner or on a shelf in the house on Neeley. She said she had mentioned casually to Mrs. DE MOHRENSCHILDT that OSWALD had purchased this rifle, and she cannot recall any further conversation they had about the rifle at this time. MARINA stated this is the same rifle OSWALD later kept in the garage at the PAINE residence in Dallas.

MARINA said OSWALD had belonged to a hunting club composed of workers at the Belorussian radio and television factory in Minsk, Russia. There were many members of this hunting club. By virtue of his membership in this club, he had received a permit to own a weapon. OSWALD had purchased a weapon by use of this permit and kept the weapon at their apartment in Minsk.

MARINA said she did not know much about firearms. She said she could not explain the difference between a shotgun and a rifle. She said she could not tell the difference between a shotgun and a rifle by merely looking at it. She said she had always referred to the weapon which OSWALD had in Russia as a rifle. MARINA was questioned as to what Russian word OSWALD had used in referring to the weapon he had in Russia. She said she could not recall he used any particular word and probably used some word which would be a general term meaning a firearm. She said this because OSWALD's Russian was not adequate enough to classify a weapon in an accurate manner in referring to it in conversation.

The hunting club to which OSWALD belonged engaged in the hunting of rabbits, squirrels, and birds as there is no large game such as deer and bear around Minsk. MARINA stated the hunting trip on which OSWALD had gone with his hunting club and to which she has previously referred was a hunting trip near Minsk and was for the purpose of hunting squirrels.

MARINA was shown a Remington 12 gauge, short barreled pump shotgun and a small caliber bolt action rifle with scope. She said the rifle with scope was of the type and, in fact, looked very much like the rifle OSWALD had at the house on Neeley Street and the PAINE house. She could not definitely state either the shotgun or the rifle shown her closely resembled the weapon OSWALD had owned in Russia. She was shown the difference in the bore of the weapons and in the mechanism generally, but she could still not say whether the weapon OSWALD owned in Russia was a rifle or a shotgun. She said she thought the weapon OSWALD had in Russia looked more like the rifle shown her if the rifle had no scope attached to it. MARINA was very indefinite in her statements concerning the weapon OSWALD had in Russia, and it is apparent that she cannot recall accurately the weapon OSWALD had in Russia.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

MARINA was again questioned concerning the events surrounding the attempted assassination of General WALKER by OSWALD. She said OSWALD had confessed to her on the night of the attempted assassination that he had attempted to kill General WALKER by shooting at him with a rifle. On the following evening after the attempted assassination, they again discussed that event. OSWALD told her he had originally gone to the WALKER house three days or more prior to the night of the assassination attempt. He had gone on that prior evening to the WALKER house to shoot General WALKER but had changed his mind. While he was in the vicinity of the WALKER home or while on a bus en route there, or in some manner, OSWALD had heard there was to be a gathering at a nearby church to the WALKER house and he had postponed his assassination attempt until this evening of the gathering at the church because he wanted more people around when he attempted the assassination. It was for this reason he chose the night that he did.

OSWALD did not say what he had done with the rifle on his first trip to the WALKER home to commit the assassination. She said that she did not see OSWALD with his rifle or any other weapon either before or after that first trip. She repeated OSWALD had not had a rifle or any other weapon with him when he left the house on the night that he fired the shot at General WALKER.

MARINA said she had asked OSWALD when he returned home on the night of the attempted assassination what he had done with the rifle because she was worried lest he had left it somewhere where it would be found. OSWALD said he had buried the rifle in the ground far from the actual spot of the shooting. He then mentioned a field and the fact that the field was near a railroad track. She said

OSWALD had remarked there had been a number of people around on the evening of the shooting. OSWALD did not say and she did not ask him what he had done with the rifle after the first evening when he went to shoot at WALKER but had changed his mind.

She recalls OSWALD returned to the NEELEY Street home with the rifle wrapped in a raincoat on the Sunday following the night of the assassination attempt.

MARINA said that a few days after the assassination attempt, GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT was in their home at Neeley Street and made a joking remark to OSWALD to the effect, "How is it that you missed General WALKER?" (He referred to the rifle shot which had been fired at General WALKER but had missed him.) When GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT asked OSWALD this, the latter visibly paled and looked at MARINA as if she might have told DE MOHRENSCHILDT about his confession that he had tried to kill WALKER. The OSWALDs changed the subject of conversation immediately, and nothing more was said about the WALKER incident to her recollection. MARINA said she did not know if OSWALD had spoken to GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT of his dislike for General WALKER. She does not know why DE MOHRENSCHILDT made this remark other than that he had said it for a joke.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

A photograph of the sling which was attached to the rifle found on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building on November 22, 1963, was exhibited to MARINA, and she advised she did not recognize this sling.

With regard to the rifle which OSWALD had at the NEELEY address and at the PAINE garage, MARINA advised she did not recall when OSWALD had purchased the rifle, nor did she know where he purchased it until she found this out from the publicity resulting from the assassination of the President.

She recalls OSWALD's rifle was kept at the NEELEY house in the room where OSWALD had some personal effects. She does not recall how it was transported from Dallas to New Orleans when the OSWALDs moved to the latter city. She said OSWALD had left Dallas for New Orleans about two weeks before she had. Before he left for New Orleans, OSWALD packed some of the effects of the OSWALDs. On the day before he left by bus for New Orleans, several boxes of these effects were taken to the bus station by OSWALD and shipped by bus on his ticket. The rest of the effects consisting of mostly MARINA's personal things and the baby clothes and equipment were left with MARINA. MARINA stayed at the PAINE residence until she was taken by Mrs. PAINE to New Orleans to join OSWALD. She does not recall whether the rifle was taken by OSWALD by bus to New Orleans or if it remained in a box already packed at the PAINE house and was subsequently transported in the PAINE station wagon to New Orleans.

She recalls seeing the rifle again after they were settled in New Orleans. OSWALD had a small room in the house on Magazine Street in New Orleans where he kept his correspondence, papers, and other effects. In this room he also kept the rifle. This was the same room in which he kept the "Hands Off Cuba" throw-aways when they arrived by mail.

MARINA did not see OSWALD either take the rifle with him from the house in New Orleans or bring it back with him to the house on any occasion. She never saw him clean it, nor did he ever hold it in her presence as best she can recall.

She cannot recall that he ever practiced firing the rifle either in New Orleans or in Dallas. She does not think he did practice in New Orleans because as a rule he stayed home when he was not working. When he did go out, she did not see him take the rifle.

OSWALD did not have any ammunition for the rifle to her knowledge in either Dallas or New Orleans, and he did not speak of buying ammunition.

MARINA also advised she does not know how the rifle was transported back to Dallas from New Orleans. She opines that the rifle was probably wrapped up in a blanket and was packed by OSWALD when he was packing other effects in New Orleans. She stated that it could have been packed and transported in the PAINE station wagon from New Orleans to Dallas and placed with the other effects in the PAINE garage, but she does not recall that to be the case. She said on the other hand OSWALD may have brought it back. She does not recall that he brought the rifle with him when he returned to Dallas from New Orleans.

After leaving New Orleans, she recalls the next time she saw the rifle was on one occasion when she was in the PAINE garage looking for some steel legs which fitted on her baby JUNE's bed. She noticed the blanket with something wrapped up in it, and she opened one corner to see what it was. She then noticed the stock of the rifle.

She said, as she has related before, on the day of the assassination of the President after Mrs. PAINE told her that the President had been shot and the shots had supposedly come from a window of the Texas School Book Depository, she immediately thought of her husband's rifle and went to the garage to see if the rifle was still wrapped up in the blanket. It appeared to her that the blanket had its usual shape and that the rifle would therefore still be in it. She was much surprised when the police later on that day searched the garage and failed to find the rifle in the blanket.

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

MARINA recalled other particulars relating to the evening during which she found what she considered to be a farewell note from OSWALD, following which OSWALD had entered the house and made a confession that he had tried to assassinate General WALKER. She said that on the evening in question, OSWALD had departed from the house on Neeley Street ostensibly to attend his typewriting class. He usually returned about nine o'clock from these classes. On this evening when he had not returned by ten o'clock, she became worried. She said intuition led her to the room where OSWALD kept certain personal effects and in this room on a small end table she found the farewell note and on the same table was a key to the mailbox. She stated when she read this note, "her hair stood on end." She could not understand what OSWALD meant by his reference to being taken prisoner. In her mind there was a definite connection between the note and OSWALD's tardiness in returning home. She did not know what to do or to whom to go as she did not speak English. She walked around the apartment, bathed her daughter JUNE, and waited. She does not now recall exactly what she did with the note on the evening of the attempted WALKER assassination but recalls that sometime later she put the note in her cook book, and it stayed there until later found by investigators. There is no doubt in her mind that the author of the note is OSWALD.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

MARINA said she had insisted on several occasions that OSWALD purchase an automobile, but OSWALD had said they did not have enough money to buy an automobile and furthermore the automobile would require repairs. MARINA does not recall any occasion when OSWALD talked to anyone about buying a car. He never mentioned to her that he had seen anyone about the purchase of a car. He did not mention to her that he intended seeing any person about the purchase of an automobile. She does not recall that he talked to anyone about the purchase of liability insurance on an automobile.

MARINA stated OSWALD spoke Russian well and read it well, but his writing of the Russian language was very poor. She said OSWALD could not speak or understand any other language except English. He could not speak nor understand Spanish. She recalls she had purchased a self-study book on the Spanish language while in Russia, and on occasion OSWALD would try to pronounce Spanish words, but his pronunciation was very bad, and she laughed at his attempts to speak the language. In this connection she said OSWALD had difficulty pronouncing the Spanish "R." She said OSWALD did not speak French nor German, nor did he understand either of these languages by ear or by sight.

MARINA stated that her knowledge of the Russian language is excellent, but she neither understands nor speaks any other language.

MARINA recalled OSWALD rarely spoke about his military service. In his brief recollections to her of his military service, he left the impression with her that he had enjoyed that service. She recalls he mentioned on several occasions the pretty Japanese girls he had met while serving in Japan with the Marine Corps.

MARINA furnished other particulars concerning her vacation trip to Kharkov, Russia, in 1961. This was a trip allowed her by the government as an annual vacation. The trip was of three weeks duration and was during the period including October 18, 1961. She recalls this date because it was OSWALD's birthday. She returned to Minsk from the trip about five days after October 18, which would be October 23, 1961. Her transportation from Minsk to Kharkov and return was paid by her aunt with whom she visited in Kharkov. This aunt's name is POLINA VASILIEVANA MIKHAILOVA, and her husband's name is YURI MIKHAILOV. (She does not recall her uncle's middle name.) During this vacation trip, she was pregnant and as a result engaged in very little activity. She recalls that she ate and slept and generally rested. During the first week of her trip, her aunt and uncle were visiting in the Caucasus, and some distant relatives hired by her aunt and uncle had done the cooking and cleaning in the uncle's apartment.

Her uncle, YURI MIKHAILOV, holds a very responsible position as an engineer in the building trades program in Kharkov. She believes he is a member of the Communist Party. The aunt and uncle have a large three room apartment. The aunt and uncle's son, to whom she has previously referred as having an amorous interest in her, is named VALENTINE YURIEVICH MIKHAILOV.

USSR

MARINA advised OSWALD had never consulted her concerning the material he was writing. He kept his writing a secret and frequently would close himself in a room while he wrote. She said she thought OSWALD was writing a book or was compiling notes on which to base a book. She did not consider OSWALD's writings a diary because she did not gain the impression that he wrote daily or by date. She said OSWALD's writings were in English, and she could therefore not read them. She said OSWALD was the type person who allowed his imagination to run riot. She said that although she could not read OSWALD's writings, she would imagine that certain of his descriptions concerning his life in Russia and in the United States would not be completely true because he very rarely missed an opportunity to glorify himself. She said OSWALD had an obsession to get his name in history and that everything he did was toward that end. She said that as an example of this, OSWALD had stated he was a Marxist. She believed he was not a Marxist, but he made this statement only to draw attention to himself.

MARINA denied that she had ever been talked to by Soviet Intelligence. She said that if OSWALD in his writings claimed that she was talked to by Soviet Intelligence, that he was either mistaken or was intentionally telling an untruth because she had not been interviewed by Soviet Intelligence.

MARINA stated that the sexual relationship between herself and OSWALD had been completely normal. She said there had been a published report that OSWALD was a homosexual but that was completely false.

She laughed at many of OSWALD's ideas and expressions of political philosophy and often made him mad when she taunted him. As a result, they had frequent quarrels, and on occasion OSWALD would physically mistreat her. She said that she would laugh at his political ideas in front of other people, and this, of course, made OSWALD very mad. She said she had wanted a divorce from OSWALD, and the principal reason for wanting this divorce was because of the crazy ideas and political opinions that OSWALD held. She said she never quarreled with OSWALD about his failure to provide an adequate living for the family. She said that although the average American man was making much more than OSWALD was, she would have been perfectly willing to live on the approximately $200.00 a month that OSWALD made when he worked.

MARINA was questioned as to whether OSWALD had had any association with a young teen-age boy. She said OSWALD to her knowledge had not associated at all with any teen-age boy in Dallas and, in fact, did not seem to care for children other than his own. She did not even know of any teen-age boy whom OSWALD knew.

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

She advised that in the late fall of 1962 when she and OSWALD were living at the Elsbeth Street address in Dallas, they had a quarrel. MARINA decided to move away from OSWALD. She contacted GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, who came out to the Elsbeth Street address in his convertible and took MARINA, her daughter JUNE, and a few baby things to the [redacted] MELLER house at 5930½ La Vista. OSWALD was supposed to come to the MELLER house where they could talk over their domestic problems, but he did not. Later the same day, GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT took MARINA back to the Elsbeth Street address, where she packed up some belongings. GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT then took her back to the [redacted] MELLER house. She stayed there about six days with [redacted] MELLER, and then stayed for a while with KATHY FORD, the wife of DECLAN FORD, who lives at 14057 Brookcrest.

MARINA was questioned concerning information which had been received indicating she had visited with OSWALD and her two children a furniture store in Irving, Texas, in early November, 1963. MARINA said she had never visited a furniture store with OSWALD at Irving. She said the only time she can remember that she and OSWALD and her two babies had visited a store together was once in Irving, Mrs. PAINE had taken them all to a general store. There MARINA bought a pacifier for the baby. While they were in the store, they lost OSWALD. Later they found OSWALD and her daughter JUNE at the cafeteria counter eating.

MARINA stated she could not recall any occasion when OSWALD told a sales lady the date of her daughter, RACHEL's, birth.

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at 11611 Farrar Street.

She advised that she and her husband had been fairly good friends of GEORGE and JEANNE DE MOHRENSCHILDT. She said she also considered GEORGE BOUHE as a friend because he had befriended her. LEE HARVEY OSWALD liked GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT because he would discuss political affairs with OSWALD and would listen to what OSWALD had to say. Also, OSWALD would listen to DE MOHRENSCHILDT's ideas. MARINA pointed out that OSWALD would not generally listen particularly to what others had to say about political things if the others did not agree with him. She said OSWALD was somewhat afraid of DE MOHRENSCHILDT, who was big in stature and talked loudly.

MARINA described GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT as a good humanitarian who was interested in other people. She said he was very fond of women and was also very fond of dogs. She said GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT said he was often accused of being a Communist because he viewed things objectively. MARINA said DE MOHRENSCHILDT was not a Communist and would laugh at people who called him such. She said he was the type of man who if he did not like someone would immediately cut off association with that person.

MARINA said she did not believe DE MOHRENSCHILDT would ever influence LEE OSWALD to do anything bad. She said she did not know how much influence DE MOHRENSCHILDT had over OSWALD but did know that OSWALD listened to him and was a little afraid of him.

MARINA stated OSWALD had appeared on a radio program in Moscow shortly after his arrival in Russia. She said OSWALD had told her of his appearance on the program but did not tell her of what he spoke. MARINA said she presumed OSWALD had denounced the United States and praised Russia else he would not have been permitted to speak. She recalled that OSWALD had compared the two governments of the United States and Russia with a somewhat objective view. He would point out that each government had bad things about it and each government would have good things about it. She said she does not remember that OSWALD was particularly critical of the United States Government or the United States people.

MARINA advised OSWALD had told her after their arrival in the United States from Russia that he had received a monthly stipend from the Russian government while he had been in Russia. He did not say the money came from the Red Cross. He said the money came from the Russian government. MARINA did not think this unusual inasmuch as all foreign students in Russia receive government aid and in many cases those persons of foreign nationality who have come to reside in Russia have also received aid from the government until they can get their feet on the ground.

MARINA recalls the name Col. NICOLAI AKSIONOV, who she believes was a high official in the Ministry of Interior at Minsk. She is not sure but believes AKSIONOV is the person with whom she was granted an interview. MARINA had requested this interview in an effort to expedite the granting of an exit permit for her to leave Russia. She said OSWALD had also made an attempt to see Col. AKSIONOV but had been unsuccessful. He was not granted an interview. U.S.S.R.

When questioned as to whether her relationship to her uncle, who was also an official in the Ministry of Interior, may have aided her in seeing the official of the Department of Interior, she agreed that this family relationship may have aided her. She said, however, her uncle was not the type to presume on his official position for personal favors. MARINA said she could recall that her uncle would not even get extra firewood, which he could do by presuming on his position. MARINA's aunt often tried to get special favors because of her husband's position, but her actions were not condoned by the uncle.

MARINA stated the friend of OSWALD's who had introduced her to OSWALD at the dance at the Palace of Culture was YURI MEREZHINSKY. It was the mother of YURI MEREZHINSKY who had traveled to the United States and who on the evening she met OSWALD had given a speech at the Palace of Culture on her impressions of the United States. MARINA said she does not know the name of YURI MEREZHINKSY's mother and said the mother may have used her maiden name in her traveling and speech-making activities. MARINA believes this woman might have been a medical professor in the University at Minsk.

MARINA stated one of her best girl friends in Russia had been one GALINA KHONTULEVA, who had been a fellow student at the pharmaceutical school. She believes KHONTULEVA is now practicing her profession as a pharmacist somewhere in Leningrad.

MARINA advised a friend of OSWALD's in Russia and later a friend of hers had been ERIC TITOVETS. This person had worked in the same factory with OSWALD.

Certain names and addresses appearing in MARINA's address book which was turned over the Dallas FBI Office by the Dallas Police Department were discussed with her. She advised concerning certain of these names as follows:

1. NONNA RACHITSKAYA, Moika #10, Apt. 39, Leningrad. NONNA is former school mate of MARINA's when they were in Middle School together. After their attendance at Middle School, NONNA lived in the Caucasus Mountain area. At a later date, MARINA met NONNA at a drug store in Leningrad.

2. ROBERT ROBERTOVICH GRIGORIEV NAIMAN, Moika #25, Apt. 3, School 215, Leningrad. This person was the principal in a Middle School in which MARINA had worked in the cafeteria to make money while she was attending pharmacy school.

3. VANDA KUZNETSOVA, M 159, Kurskaya Street #5, Apt. 38, Leningrad. Telephone G2-0481, Extension 359. VANDA is a nurse in Leningrad. MARINA met her when she visited the rest home near Leningrad. U.S.S.R.

4. VLADIMIR (nickname VOLODIA) MAKAROV, A-00036, Tversky Street #20, Apt. 26, Leningrad. MARINA met MAKAROV at a social function in Leningrad. U.S.S.R.

5. GALINA (GALIA) PRINTSEVA, D-2-09-10, Grazhdansky Street #7, Apt. 49, Leningrad. MARINA shared a room with PRINTSEVA at the rest home near Leningrad.

6. LEV PRIZENTSEV, Kondratisvky #7, Apt. 63 or #63, Apt. 7, Prospect, Leningrad. MARINA met PRIZENTSEV at the rest home near Leningrad. This person had an amorous interest in IRINA VOLKOVA, below listed, who was also at the rest home near Leningrad. Unfortunately VOLKOVA was already married. U.S.S.R.

7. ROBERT ALEXANDROVICH IVANOV, Podbelsky Street #7, Apt. 2, Leningrad. MARINA believed she met this person also at the rest home at Leningrad. IVANOV was a chauffeur although a graduate of law school. U.S.S.R.

8. IRINA VOLKOVA, Ligovsky Lane #131, Apt. 9, Leningrad. VOLKOVA was also at the rest home. (See No. 6 above.) U.S.S.R.

9. ANTONINA VLADIMIROVNA KOBELNITSKAYA, aka ANTONINA VLADIMIROVNA GOLIBINA, Prospect #10, Apt. 7, Stalin Lane #122 - office (bookkeeping), telephone K8-0915. (Or Chernishevsky Sq. #12, Apt. 3.) All addresses in Leningrad. U.S.S.R. MARINA met ANTONINA at the rest home near Leningrad.

10. SERGEI (LNU), a pianist. Was one of MARINA's friends.

11. OLEG PAVLOVICH TARUSIN, Kirovsky Oblast; Shabolinsky Section; Ukazinsky SSR. U.S.S.R.

12. TAMARA NIKOLAEVNA TADEUSH, Belomorskaya # 174 "A", Apt. 2, Leningrad. MARINA described TAMARA as a friend who worked with her in the same hospital. TAMARA worked as a gynecologist. U.S.S.R.

13. Mrs. ANNA MELLER, 5930½ La Vista Drive, Dallas, Texas, telephone TA 3-2219. MELLER is a Russian woman married to an American, and the OSWALDs became acquainted with them through their other Russian acquaintances in Dallas.

Date December 12, 1963

HARVEY M. CAMPBELL, SR., 4933 Gaston, Apartment G, was advised of the identity of the interviewers as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Mr. CAMPBELL furnished the following information:

In the fall of 1963, Mr. CAMPBELL in company with the sister of Mr. CAMPBELL's son's wife, ERNESTINE WHITE HANDS of Fort Worth, Texas, and JODEAN HANDS, also of Fort Worth, took a trip by automobile to Monterrey, Mexico. They entered Mexico via automobile, a 1956 Cadillac, at Laredo, Texas, and subsequently stayed at the Rio Motel, Monterrey, Mexico, for a period of two or three days.

On the return trip they entered the United States through Roma, Texas, and subsequently re-entered Mexico at Laredo, Texas, staying at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, at one of the better motels in Nuevo Laredo. They subsequently re-entered the United States on a Sunday at Laredo, Texas, where their luggage was searched by Customs Agents. Customs Agents had also checked their luggage the day before at Roma, Texas.

Mr. CAMPBELL stated that during his entire trip he did not observe anyone whom he recalls resembling LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mr. CAMPBELL furnished the address of ERNESTINE WHITE HANDS as Plantation Road, Fort Worth, Texas. He stated that he did not know the address of JODEAN HANDS, however, she resides in Fort Worth, Texas, and her address is known to ERNESTINE WHITE HANDS. Mr. CAMPBELL stated that JODEAN HANDS may be identical with BRANS J. HANS, however, he was not sure of this.

Mr. CAMPBELL stated that he has been acquainted with GEORGE SENATOR, former roommate of JACK RUBY, since the summer of 1963 when Mr. CAMPBELL met SENATOR at the Smuggler Bar, 4844 Gaston, Dallas, Texas. Mr. CAMPBELL subsequently associated with SENATOR from time to time having invited SENATOR during the latter part of the summer of 1963 to a patio party at Mr. CAMPBELL's apartment house.

Mr. CAMPBELL stated that the barber at Chet's Barber Shop, located next door to the Smuggler Bar, is also an acquaintance of GEORGE SENATOR.

Mr. CAMPBELL met JACK RUBY on one occasion at the Carousel, a night spot owned by JACK RUBY, at which time RUBY gave Mr. CAMPBELL a pass for the Las Vegas Club, a night spot which is also owned by JACK RUBY. This meeting took place approximately three or four months ago, shortly after CAMPBELL met GEORGE SENATOR. SENATOR, however, did not introduce CAMPBELL to RUBY, but RUBY introduced himself when he came to the table at which CAMPBELL was sitting. On this occasion, CAMPBELL had spent approximately $100 on champagne for the girls at the Carousel who had joined SENATOR and CAMPBELL at their table.

CAMPBELL stated that GEORGE SENATOR worked on Friday and Saturday nights for JACK RUBY at the Carousel taking in tickets at the door.

CAMPBELL subsequently went to the Carousel in the company of CHESTER, the barber, at which time GEORGE SENATOR was on the door and refused to allow CAMPBELL and CHESTER to come in without paying. On this occasion two striptease dancers sat at their table. CAMPBELL recalled that on this occasion the two girls were making remarks regarding how hard it was to work for JACK RUBY and how mean and hateful he was.

On another occasion, Mr. CAMPBELL went to the Carousel with DON LEASURE, who is presently the owner of The After Glow Bar, located at 3212 Knox, Dallas, Texas. CAMPBELL had become acquainted with LEASURE through having met him at the Smuggler Bar where LEASURE's girlfriend was working behind the bar. LEASURE subsequently married this girl.

CAMPBELL stated that through his having gone to the Carousel, he became acquainted with one of the girls who worked there as a striptease dancer named ALICE. ALICE furnished Mr. CAMPBELL with her telephone number and Mr. CAMPBELL subsequently gave ALICE's telephone number to DON LEASURE; however, LEASURE later denied to CAMPBELL that CAMPBELL had given him the telephone number. Mr. CAMPBELL stated that DON LEASURE and GEORGE SENATOR hung out at the Smuggler Bar. The last time CAMPBELL saw GEORGE SENATOR was approximately a week before the assassination of President JOHN KENNEDY when CAMPBELL saw GEORGE SENATOR at The After Glow, owned by DON LEASURE. This was on the same night that DON LEASURE got married to his present wife.

Mr. CAMPBELL stated he never at any time observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to his knowledge. He stated he never at any time observed OSWALD at JACK RUBY's Carousel Club, or in RUBY's, SENATOR's or LEASURE's company.

Mr. CAMPBELL advised that he was born January 13, 1892, at Dallas, Texas, and is a retired Linotype Operator of the Dallas News, having worked at the Dallas News for 50 years.

Mrs. ERNESTINE HANDS, nee White, 3809 Plantation Drive, advised as follows regarding a trip that she made to Mexico in the latter part of September, 1963.

Left Ft. Worth Texas

Mrs. HANDS could not recall the exact date that this trip was made, but stated she had left Fort Worth, Texas, on a Wednesday with her sister, JODENE HANDS, and JODENE's father-in-law, HARVEY CAMPBELL, to go to Mexico. She stated that on Thursday morning they had gone to the Custom's Office at Laredo, Texas, and continued on to Monterrey, Mexico. She stated that they had left Monterrey, Mexico, on Saturday morning and drove back across the border at Roma. She stated that on Saturday night they had gone back across the border at Laredo, Texas, and spent the night on the Mexico side of the border. She stated they returned to Fort Worth on Sunday.

Mrs. HANDS stated that this trip was a short vacation and mostly to get away from her children for a few days.

Mrs. HANDS could not recall having observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, or anyone that resembled OSWALD, during her trip to Monterrey, Mexico.

A. Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date November 27, 1963

ROBERT LAWRENCE HELLER, 4703 Freret Street, advised he resides in the upstairs apartment at this address and has a telephone number 899-8631. He advised that at this time he is employed part time with television station WYES and also Motion Picture Advertising, 1032 Carondelet Street. HELLER stated that he is not personally acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD as he has never met this individual, however, some time during the month of August, 1963, he was at the location on Canal and Carondelet Streets when he observed OSWALD handing out leaflets for Fair Play for Cuba. At this time he observed that OSWALD was being "pushed around" by several male individuals he identified as Cubans and that these individuals were actually taking the leaflets from OSWALD and destroying same and causing a considerable disturbance. As a result of this disturbance, OSWALD was arrested by the New Orleans Police Department and he believes was taken to jail. HELLER advised that he is unable to give the specific date of OSWALD's arrest at this time but believes this can be checked with the New Orleans Police Department. He is of the opinion that this was some time during the month of August, 1963.

As a result of this arrest he contacted attorney JACK NELSON and advised him of OSWALD's predicament because he felt OSWALD would probably be needing an attorney in this instance. He advised that he is not aware of what action, if any, NELSON may have taken in connection with OSWALD. HELLER advised that this was the only occasion he has ever seen OSWALD and has no further information as far as OSWALD is concerned.

HELLER advised that he is not acquainted with any of the following individuals:

JACK RUBY
O. H. LEE
A. J. HIDELL

Mrs. J. F. MORTON, Alumni Association Office, 6319 Willow Street, Tulane University, revealed the following information from her records regarding ROBERT LAWRENCE HELLER.

ROBERT LAWRENCE HELLER attended Tulane University during the period September, 1959, through May, 1963, at which time he was requested to leave because of academic deficiencies. HELLER's parents were identified as A. D. HELLER, Marlborough Court, Rockville Centre, New York. Records disclosed last known address on HELLER to be 8141 Maple Street.

Mrs. LINDA KRAMPEN, 8141 Maple Street, upstairs apartment, advised that BOB HELLER previously resided at this address in the downstairs apartment and is presently residing at 4703 Freret Street, upstairs apartment. She advised that she is not acquainted with any of the friends or associates of BOB HELLER.

The "Miami Herald," Miami, Florida, in the edition of September 9, 1963, on Page 1, carried an article by Herald Wire Services, datelined Havana, and captioned, "FIDEL Says Cuba Will Fight Back." This article states:

> "Prime Minister FIDEL CASTRO said Sunday 'U. S. leaders' would be in danger if they helped in any attempt to do away with leaders of Cuba.
> "Bitterly denouncing what he called recent U. S. promised raids on Cuban territory, CASTRO said: 'We are prepared to fight them and answer in kind. U. S. leaders should think that if they are aiding terrorist plans to eliminate Cuban leaders, they themselves will not be safe.'
> "The bitterest CASTRO attack yet on President KENNEDY was made early Sunday morning in a rambling, informal post-midnight dissertation following a reception at the Brazilian Embassy."

On November 27, 1963, [JOSE ANTONIO GONZALEZ LANUSA] stated that he is receiving all his information concerning LEE OSWALD's attempted infiltration of the DRE from CARLOS BRINGUIER, the DRE delegate at New Orleans, Louisiana. He stated this attempted infiltration by OSWALD occurred in New Orleans, and not in Miami.

LANUSA stated that he had telephoned Dr. GUILLERMO BELT, former Cuban Ambassador to the United States now residing in Washington, D. C., on November 25, 1963, to discuss the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He said he explained to

According to the letter of BRINGUIER, OSWALD distributed such handbills on Canal Street, New Orleans, on August 9, 1963. Also, according to the letter of BRINGUIER, OSWALD had distributed such handbills in the name of A. J. HIDELL. In addition, according to the letter of BRINGUIER, OSWALD had distributed pamphlets entitled, "The Crime Against Cuba," by CORLISS LAMONT, printed by "Basic Pamphlets," Box 42, Cathedral Station, New York City.

Also, in his letter to LANUSA, BRINGUIER had enclosed an Autostat of a blank application for membership in the FPCC, New Orleans. According to LANUSA, a DRE member at New Orleans, not identical with BRINGUIER, had obtained the application from OSWALD preparatory to an attempt by the DRE to infiltrate the FPCC.

Text of the FPCC leaflet which BRINGUIER had sent to LANUSA by letter dated November 25, 1963, is as follows:

"HANDS OFF CUBA!

"Join the Fair Play for Cuba Committee

"New Orleans Charter Member Branch

"Free Literature, Lectures

"Location:

"L. H. OSWALD
4907 Magazine
New Orleans, La.

"EVERYONE WELCOME!"

Text of an Autostat copy of the FPCC membership application which BRINGUIER had mailed to LANUSA at Miami, the original of which was reportedly obtained from OSWALD by a DRE member, is as follows:

"To: The Fair Play for Cuba Committee
New Orleans, La.

"☐ I wish to join the Committee. Enclosed is my Initiation Fee of $1.00 and dues are $1.00 a month.

☐ I cannot participate as an active member of the Committee, but wish to become a subscriber to mailings. Enclosed find $5.00 for one year.

THEODORE REINHART, producer of the Red Benson Show, Radio Station WPEN, 2212 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa., made available a four cent postcard of the type issued by the Post Office Department, which was addressed to WPEN and signed with the initials "JHC." The card bears no date and no cancellation mark on the franked side of the card. The card is partially printed and partially written in longhand and contains errors in punctuation and spelling.

An exact quotation of the franked side of the card is as follows:

"W. P. E. N.

Mr. Fr. Ford.
City."

A verbatim quotation of the message side of the card is as follows:

"Why, has no one checked out this.

"Lee Oswald (underscored by writer) was at our meeting this summer here at Rittenhouse Sq.

"Check this by Fairmont guards who know about out F. P. T. C. meeting. They saw Lee.

"J.H.C."

Mr. REINHART stated that a review of his correspondence file, including a review of the file on frequent and/or possible psychotic correspondents, failed to identify anyone with the initials "JHC."

Mr. REINHART stated that he is not aware of anyone connected with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee or the Quebec-Washington-Guantanamo Walk for Peace having been on the Red Benson Show during the past summer. He advised that the Red Benson Show is an interview-type program carried over radio station WPEN from 11:30 p.m., to approximately 2 a.m. He advised that people expressing viewpoints from the ultra-right to the ultra-left are permitted to expound their views on the program and an endeavor is made to give everyone a chance to air his ideas. He stated at times panel discussions and debates are held between persons holding opposing viewpoints. He added that there have been one or more representatives of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) on the program at times past but that because of unpleasant past experiences, these persons have been avoided for the last year or more. He further advised that he knows of no reference having been made on the Red Benson Show to the FPCC or the Walk for Peace during the past summer.

Mr. REINHART advised he had discussed the matter with RED BENSON and the writer of the card with the initials "JHC" was likewise unknown to BENSON. He added that BENSON also could not recall any reference to the FPCC or the Walk for Peace having been aired on the show during the past summer.

Inspector PHILIP CELLA, Fairmount Park Guard, Philadelphia, Pa., advised that a review of Park Guard records reflects that the only affair held in Rittenhouse Square during the summer of 1963 which could in any way pertain to Cuba, the Cuban situation, or the Fair Play For Cuba Committee, was a demonstration on August 15, 1963, put on by the Quebec-Washington-Guantanamo Walk for Peace. He noted that this Walk for Peace was sponsored by the Committee for Non-Violent Action (CNVA) with headquarters in New York City. The demonstration was led by one ROSS ANDERSON, a white male, 63 years of age, from Albany, Ga., and a member of the CNVA. PA. BORN 1900

According to the Park Guard records, other members of the CNVA participated, plus DENNIS JAMIESON of the Friends Peace Committee, 1500 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Detective FRANK MORRIS, Intelligence Unit, Philadelphia Police Department, 7th and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., made available his file on the Quebec-Washington-Guantanamo Walk for Peace. The peace walkers came through Philadelphia en route to Cuba and spent August 13 through 16, 1963, in Philadelphia, departing early August 17, 1963, for Wilmington, Del.

The peace walkers were sponsored by the Committee for Non-Violent Action, with headquarters in New York City, and their stated goals were universal peace and non-violent solutions to the Cuban conflict and opposition to all military power, including nuclear weapons and all other forms of mass destruction.

The Police Department file on the peace walkers and numerous photographs taken by the Police Department of the peace walkers at several rallies held in Philadelphia, plus pictures taken as they marched into the city, were reviewed on December 3 and 4, 1963. Numerous individuals, including BRADFORD LITTLE, who claimed to be the leader of the group, were interviewed and/or identified by the police department. A careful review of the photographs taken failed to identify LEE OSWALD as being a member, participant, or on-looker at the demonstrations put on by the peace walkers. Further, the review of the file failed to mention anyone identifiable with LEE OSWALD and likewise failed to identify anyone with the initials "JHC."

A number of confidential informants of the Philadelphia Office who are familiar with some phases of pro-CASTRO Cuban activities and related matters in the Philadelphia area, have advised on various occasions that there have been no meetings, rallies or other activities of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) in the Philadelphia area since early spring 1963. They have further noted that the FPCC has fallen into complete inactivity and that all efforts of the only two motivating persons in Philadelphia to reinstill interest in the Philadelphia Chapter of the FPCC have met with negative results.

The only activity in which the FPCC participated during the summer of 1963 was the maintenance of a booth at the Sixth Annual Bucks County World Peace Fair, August 24, 1963, at Newtown Square, Pa., as reported by confidential informants and established sources.

These informants have further advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD is unknown to them and to the best of their knowledge, has not been in Philadelphia nor participated in local FPCC affairs, the Sixth Annual Bucks County World Peace Fair, or the Quebec-Washington-Guantanamo Walk for Peace.

These informants have further advised that they are not acquainted with anyone formerly associated with the FPCC, the July 26th Revolutionary Movement (7/26 RM), the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), or the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), with the initials "JHC."

XI. APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby, influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 30, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by VINCENT "Ted" LEE, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed LEE has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, LEE has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. LEE feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APPENDIX

JULY 26th MOVEMENT

The July 26th Movement is a revolutionary organization founded and led by FIDEL CASTRO, the present Prime Minister of Cuba. It was dissolved during late 1962, when it was absorbed into the integrated revolutionary organization in Cuba, along with the Communist Party of Cuba, and the other principal political parties.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Synopsis:

Unidentified male, on or about 11/1/63, made remarks to employee at Parrot Jungle, a tourist attraction at Miami, Fla., which remarks, in retrospect, led the employee to believe the unknown male was acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. This unidentified male made reference to President KENNEDY and "shooting between the eyes"; he remarked that he had a friend, who was American and Marxist, who served in the Armed Forces, was a sharpshooter, and could speak several languages, including Russian. The unidentified male in one instance referred to this friend by the name "LEE" and remarked that his friend was either in Texas or Mexico at that time. The same unidentified male returned to the Parrot Jungle about 12/10/63, but is not known to have conversed with any employee there, and no identifying data concerning him was obtained. The unidentified male is described as about 25 - 35 years of age, possibly Cuban, speaking English with an accent; he displayed ability to write person's name with both hands simultaneously. He drove older model car, believed Chevrolet, with Florida license, white or light colored top, and light green or blue bottom. Associate in Cuban exile organization JURE, Miami, has no knowledge of JURE representatives' soliciting funds in Dallas, Texas, as of September-October, 1963, as reported by Cuban refugee at Dallas, who believed said

Members of Student Direct[illegible] (DRE), Miami, Fla., furnished list of English-speaking [illegible] who attended meetings held by DRE at Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas, on 10/13 and 20/63; name of OSWALD does not appear on list. EDGAR A. BUTTLE, attorney, formerly in New York City, has vague recollection of contact to DRE with officer of Domestic Relations Court, New York City, concerning case of youth whose mother had sought counsel. BUTTLE has no recollection of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as the youth involved. 111.

JJO/neb

On December 13, 1963, Miss BETTY STONE, employed in the office of Dr. KENNETH BOSTHOLM, a dentist with office located at 7450 Red Road, South Miami, Florida, telephonically contacted the Miami Office and advised that Dr. BOSTHOLM's wife has a personal friend who is employed in a store where an unknown Cuban had made comments to the effect he was going to shoot President KENNEDY.

On December 17, 1963, Dr. KENNETH BOSTHOLM advised that his wife's friend is Mrs. LILLIAN SPINGLER, who is employed in the gift shop at the Parrot Jungle, located in the Southwest section of Miami. Mrs. SPINGLER had related to the wife of Dr. BOSTHOLM that a Cuban who visited the Parrot Jungle had made some remarks which appeared to connect him with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On December 17, 1963, Mrs. LILLIAN SPINGLER, 6350 S. W. 102nd Street, Miami, Florida, was telephonically contacted, at which time she stated that she did not wish to be contacted at the Parrot Jungle, where she was employed, or at her home in the evenings, for the reason that she felt her employer and also her husband did not want her to become involved in the investigation relating to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She stated that she would have a day off on December 19, 1963, at which time she might be contacted.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1.

Mrs. LILLIAN SPINGLER, 6350 S. W. 102nd Street, Miami, stated that she is employed as a clerk in the gift shop at the Parrot Jungle, a tourist attraction, located in the Southwest section of Miami.

Mrs. SPINGLER stated it was approximately the first week of November and very probably on November 1, 1963, on a Friday afternoon about 2:30 p.m., that a male individual, whom she assumed was probably a Cuban approached her at her counter in the gift shop at the Parrot Jungle, and asked her for a piece of paper. She said he wrote some note for himself, which he kept, and she remarked to him that he wrote with his left hand. He then told her that he wrote equally well with either hand, and with both hands at the same time. He asked for her name, and he proceeded to write the name "LILIAN," spelling it with two L's instead of the usual 3, with both hands, and in good penmanship. He then claimed to her that he could write different things at the same time with both hands, and said that it took great concentration. He further remarked to her that he obtains much more knowledge from reading the newspapers than the average person because he reads every line and in between the lines.

Mrs. SPINGLER said that at that point, she felt that this individual was seeking attention, and although the store was empty at the time, she did not wish to give him any more time because he was a bit loud in his speech, and the manager of the gift shop does not want the clerks to engage in too much conversation with the visitors. She said that he continued to talk, however, although she did not pay too close attention, until he remarked that he did not like the way the Government of the United States was operating, and after making some mention of the President and Washington, D. C., possibly a statement to the effect he intended to go to Washington, D. C., he stated something to the effect of "shooting between the eyes." She then realized that he must have been referring to shooting President KENNEDY, and she paid closer attention to him. He continued that he had a friend who was smarter than himself who could speak more languages than himself, including Russian. He said this friend was a Marxist and an American citizen, who had served in the armed forces. At this point, he mentioned that LEE (using the given name for the first and only time, in place of his previous references to his friend), is a sharpshooter, and that he has a very good eye. He further remarked that his friend was brilliant, but that he did not know where his friend was at that time, although he believed he was either in Texas or Mexico.

Mrs. SPINGLER stated that she is certain that the unknown male whom she believed to be Cuban had used the name LEE in speaking of his friend, because at the time, her thought reflected upon General ROBERT E. LEE, and she thought that the unknown Cuban might be a person with a mental problem, and that he was, in fact, referring to General LEE.

Mrs. SPINGLER said that in all she probably spoke less than five minutes with this unknown individual, and she did not know if he came alone to the Parrot Jungle, although he was unaccompanied in the gift shop.

She said that on that occasion, Mrs. J. R. TRIGG, another clerk at the gift shop, observed the unknown Cuban.

She said that the gift shop manager, Mr. BILL VANDER WYDEN, may also have observed the unknown Cuban at that time, because he came into the gift shop, and the Cuban left very shortly thereafter. She said she mentioned the remarks of the Cuban to Mr. VANDER WYDEN, and the latter stated that the Cuban probably had too much to drink.

Mrs. SPINGLER related that on November 22, 1963, the date of the assassination of President KENNEDY, she was visiting in Key West, Florida, when she received news of the assassination. She said that on the return trip to Miami on November 22, 1963, the statements of the unknown Cuban came to her mind, and on arriving home, she mentioned to her husband she thought she knew who had killed the President. She recalled to her husband the fact that she had previously told him about "the nut" who said he was going to shoot the President between the eyes. Mrs. SPINGLER said that the unknown Cuban, when at the gift shop on or about November 1, 1963, had made some gesture to his forehead when he was talking about shooting, although at that point in the conversation, Mrs. SPINGLER had withdrawn her attention from the Cuban and, therefore, was not certain of the exact context of his statement with regard to shooting, and whether he said "between the eyes."

Mrs. SPINGLER continued that subsequently, the news was announced that OSWALD had been arrested as the assassin of the President, and at that time, she did not immediately associate the given name "LEE" with OSWALD, but rather thought it was HARVEY OSWALD. She said that while she was concerned about the incident involving the unknown Cuban at the gift shop, the fact that OSWALD had been arrested as the assassin gave her cause to dismiss the need to report the incident to authorities.

Mrs. SPINGLER said that on Tuesday, December 10, 1963, about 4:00 or 4:30 p.m., while she was in the back room of the Parrot Jungle Gift Shop working on receipts, Mrs. TRIGG, who had also observed the unknown Cuban when he was at the shop on or about November 1, 1963, called to Mrs. SPINGLER to say she believed the unknown Cuban was outside the gift shop at that time. Mrs. SPINGLER said she went to the door leading from the back room to the gift shop proper, at which time the unknown Cuban was inside the shop, and she recognized him as being the same individual who had spoken about shooting the President as of November 1, 1963. She said she did not believe that he observed her at this time, December 10, 1963. Then, according to Mrs. SPINGLER, about 5:00 p.m. on December 10, 1963, one of the clerks at the gift shop then remarked to Mrs. SPINGLER, "There's your man," whereupon Mrs. SPINGLER observed the unknown Cuban walking rapidly from the exit of the Parrot Jungle toward the parking area with both hands in his pockets. She said he seemed to have a disturbed look on his face, in that his brow seemed wrinkled, and his face somewhat older looking than when she originally observed him on or about November 1, 1963. She said she proceeded out to the parking lot and observed the unknown Cuban walk toward a tourist bus which people were boarding, but he then went around the bus to another section of the parking area, where he went to a parked car and appeared to be looking back toward the office area of the Parrot Jungle over the rear of the car. He then sat in the car, and Mrs. SPINGLER returned to the gift shop, as Mr. BILL VANDER WYDEN, the gift shop manager, had come out to take down the American flag for the day. He asked her why she was out of the store, whereupon she asked him what make car was the one parked three cars down from where they were then standing, in which she had seen the unknown Cuban sit. She said Mr. VANDER WYDEN said it was a Chevrolet. She said he did not mention what model Chevrolet, but she was certain it was an older model, as the fenders were rounded rather than square. She observed that the car had a white or light-colored top, and a light green or light blue bottom. She said that neither she nor Mr. VANDER WYDEN made an observation of the license plate on the car.

Mrs. SPINGLER said she thinks that possibly the unknown Cuban may have come back to the Parrot Jungle to see if Mrs. SPINGLER would recognize him, but she does not believe that he saw her.

Mrs. SPINGLER reviewed several thousand photographs of Cuban refugees who have arrived in the United States since December, 1962, but was unable to select any photograph as being that of the unknown Cuban involved in the incident described above.

Mrs. SPINGLER described the unknown individual as follows:

Age:	When observed about 11/1/63, she thought he was in his early 20's. When she observed him on December 10, 1963, she said he appeared older; that is, in his late 20's or early 30's.

Height:	Around 5' 8"
Weight:	Medium
Complexion:	Dark
Hair:	Dark, believed full, and straight
Eyes:	May be hazel or light in color, and possibly has long eyelashes; his eyes seem to hold one's attention, and might be described as "wild"
Speaking Ability:	Could express himself well in English, but had definite accent, which Mrs. SPINGLER regarded as Latin
Dress:	Not particularly well dressed. Believed to have worn a green sweater and baggy trousers on first occasion , 11/1/63, and believed to have worn jacket and baggy trousers on second occasion, 12/10/63.

Mrs. SPINGLER added that she was not certain that the unknown individual was a Cuban, but she believed by his manner, speech, and appearance, that he probably was. She said that she did not observe him drive off in the two-tone colored car, described as an older model Chevrolet, into which she had observed him enter.

Mrs. SPINGLER said she did not know if the unknown individual might have been waiting for anyone while in the gift shop, although this was a possibility, since one of the shows was then taking place at the Parrot Jungle, and it was not a normal time for any visitors to be in the gift shop. She said, however, that neither she nor any of the other employees to whom she has talked concerning this matter observed anyone in the company of subject on either occasion that he appeared at the Parrot Jungle.

She said that she was on vacation during the period November 16 - December 3, 1963, but Mrs. TRIGG, who also observed the unknown individual on the occasion of November 1, 1963, or approximately that date, had not mentioned seeing the unknown individual thereafter until December 10, 1963.

Mrs. SPINGLER was requested, in the event the unknown individual should again return to the Parrot Jungle, to make an effort to obtain the license number or further identifying data concerning the individual, without taking any step which might endanger herself.

Mrs. SPINGLER stated the unknown individual had written her name with both hands simultaneously. She said she did not keep the paper on which he had written.

Mrs. J. R. TRIGG, 13130 Old Cutler Road, Miami, a clerk in the gift shop at the Parrot Jungle, Southwest section of Miami, stated that she had observed an unknown individual, whom she believes to be a Cuban, who had displayed his ability to write with both hands to Mrs. LILLIAN SPINGLER, another employee of the gift shop. She said she did not listen to much of the conversation that went on between this individual and Mrs. SPINGLER on the occasion of the individual's visit to the Parrot Jungle on or about November 1, 1963. She said she heard no mention of the President, but did hear the individual make some remark concerning "good shooting."

She said she had the general impression that he must have brought some tourist to the Parrot Jungle, because he appeared to be waiting, and she believed a show was taking place in the Parrot Jungle at the time he was in the gift shop.

Mrs. TRIGG said that this same individual returned to the gift shop on December 10 or December 11, 1963, at which time she observed him, but did not speak with him. She said she brought his presence at the Parrot Jungle to the attention of Mrs. SPINGLER, because Mrs. SPINGLER had previously expressed considerable concern over remarks which the unknown individual had made.

Mrs. TRIGG stated she had no information which might lead to the identification of this unknown person.

She furnished the following description for the unknown individual:

Age:	28 - 30

Mrs. MARY TYSON, ticket office, Parrot Jungle, Miami, stated that to her knowledge, she has never observed the unknown individual concerning whom Mrs. LILLIAN SPINGLER and Mrs. J. R. TRIGG have mentioned to her as a person who made threats concerning the President of the United States.

Mrs. TYSON stated she maintains a register of all individuals who enter the Parrot Jungle on a pass. She said passes are granted to residents of the area after they pay entrance fee for their first visit, and, thereafter, bring other visitors to the Parrot Jungle.

She made available the register which such passholders sign, and a review of this register for the period of October 20 through December 15, 1963, reflected the name of only one male individual with a Spanish name. This was noted to be ANTONIO GIL, JR., who entered the Parrot Jungle on a pass on November 10, 1963.

Mrs. LOUISE ROSHER, 8133 S. W. 45th Street, Miami, an employee of the gift shop at the Parrot Jungle, Southwest section, Miami, stated she recalled the occasion in approximately the beginning of November, 1963, when an unknown individual, whom she believed to be Cuban or Latin, was the only customer in the gift shop at the time and engaged Mrs. LILLIAN SPINGLER in conversation. Mrs. ROSHER recalled this individual may have been waiting for someone at the time, and he displayed his ability to Mrs. SPINGLER to write her name with either hand. Mrs. ROSHER said she walked away from the section of the gift shop where this individual was standing because he was rather loud in his talk, and she did not want the manager of the gift shop, Mr. WILLIAM VANDER WYDEN, to find her involved with this individual. Further, she stated it was obvious to her this individual wanted an audience, and acted in a very cocky manner.

She said he spoke with accented English, and had remarked that he could speak several languages. She said that she did not hear his entire conversation with Mrs. SPINGLER, but after the individual left the gift shop, Mrs. SPINGLER told her he spoke in a dangerous manner concerning his dislike for this country, and the fact that he could shoot a gun well.

Mrs. ROSHER stated that she had seen the individual on only the one occasion, that is, about the beginning of November, 1963. She described him as about 25 - 35 years of age, with dark hair and complexion, not very tall, very probably of Latin origin.

Mr. WILLIAM VANDER WYDEN, Manager of the Gift Shop at the Parrot Jungle, 11000 S.W. 57th Avenue, Miami, Florida, stated he recalled that on or about December 10, 1963, at approximately 5 o'clock in the afternoon, he had begun to lower the American flag in front of the Parrot Jungle entrance, when Mrs. LILLIAN SPINGLER, a clerk in the Parrot Jungle Gift Shop, approached him. He stated Mrs. SPINGLER asked him what kind of a car was parked a few cars down from the area of the flag pole, where he was then standing.

He said he told Mrs. SPINGLER the car in question was a Chevrolet. He said he recalled it to be about a 1955 to 1957 model Chevrolet with a light faded blue top and a dark, possibly blue, bottom. He stated he did not observe any one in the car at the time, and in fact, he did not have a full view of the car because of the other cars parked there. He recalled that the car in which Mrs. SPINGLER was interested carried a Dade County, Florida, license plate, that is one with a #1 prefix.

Mr. VANDER WYDEN stated he subsequently ascertained Mrs. SPINGLER was concerned over the fact the driver of the car in question, or at least the man she saw enter that car, might have had something to do with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. VANDER WYDEN continued that through inquiry made by him at the time, he learned that a Spanish speaking man and woman had been visitors to the Parrot Jungle on that day and may have been brought to the Parrot Jungle by the individual about whom Mrs. SPINGLER was concerned. He said it is quite possible the unknown individual was acting illegally as a tourist guide, in view of the fact that local ordinances require a permit for taxiing and guiding of tourists. Mr. VANDER WYDEN stated he checked the register maintained at the Parrot Jungle for those tourist guides or drivers who are given free admission to the Parrot Jungle because they bring tourists, and on the day in question, that is believed to be December 10, 1963, no tourist guide had signed the register.

Mr. VANDER WYDEN stated it is possible the unknown individual whom he believes escorted the Spanish couple who visited the Parrot Jungle that day may have acted in a guilty or furtive manner at the Parrot Jungle because of the realization he was subject to police arrest for failing to possess a permit. Mr. VANDER WYDEN stated he will be on the alert in the future to any return to the Parrot Jungle of the car he had observed, and he would record the license number of the car if he saw it.

On December 20, 1963 Mr. JOE CERMENO, a tourist guide for the West Indies Travel Service, 190 S.E. 3rd Avenue, Miami, Florida, was interviewed at the Parrot Jungle, Miami, Florida. He stated that from the description of the unknown individual and his car, he could not suggest the identity of the person whom Mrs. LILLIAN SPINGLER has reported as having made statements indicative of association with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. CERMENO, who is of Spanish extraction and speaks Spanish fluently, advised that the Spanish spelling of the name "LILLIAN," is "LILIAN," it being noted that the unknown individual in question had written the name "LILIAN."

On December 20, 1963, inquiry was conducted at the Hollywood Beach Hotel, Hollywood Beach, Florida, pursuant to information that one JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY had made a job application at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas, on October 31, 1963, together with another individual believed identical with subject OSWALD, and MURPHY's application indicated previous employment at the Hollywood Beach Hotel.

Miss MARY ANN LASKOVICH, Personnel Director, Hollywood Beach Hotel, made available record reflecting that JAMES FREDERICK MURPHY, born June 16, 1936 at Kosciusko, Mississippi, had been employed as a bellman from November 14 to December 2, 1961. It was indicated his employment was terminated for reason of reduction in force. Other descriptive data contained in the record was as follows:

Height	5'10"
Weight	140
Hair	Blond
Eyes	Gray
Marital status	Single
Northern address	N. Pine Street, Natchez, Mississippi
Local address	1947 Buchanan St., Hollywood, Florida

On December 21, 1963 interview was conducted at Miami, Florida in connection with information that had been received from SYLVIA ODIO, a Cuban refugee at Dallas, Texas, who advised that in September or October, 1963, she had been contacted by two members of the anti-FIDEL CASTRO organization Junta Revolucionaria (JURE), in connection with a funds drive they were conducting. ODIO stated they were accompanied by an individual whom they introduced as LEON OSWALD, whom Miss ODIO stated to be identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Miss ODIO said that one of the two members of the JURE contacting her was named LEOPOLDO.

On December 21, 1963, Mrs. ROGELIO CISNEROS, 347 N.E. 36th Street, Miami, Florida, stated that her husband is a member of the Executive Board of JURE at Miami, and that he was then in Central America. She said in approximately June, 1963 her husband had traveled alone from Miami to Dallas, Texas, to set up a delegation of JURE in that city, and to her knowledge no other JURE member had gone to Dallas from Miami since that time. She said she could think of no JURE member named LEOPOLDO.

She advised that the JURE delegate in Dallas is JORGE RODRIGUEZ VALDA, 1919 Llewellyn, Apartment A, Dallas. She said Mr. RODRIGUEZ would have knowledge of any JURE members visiting that city.

Interviews at Miami, Florida, were also conducted pursuant to information that ERWIN L. STUIG of Garland, Texas, had advised that an individual believed identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD had attended a meeting

Miss ANA SILVEIRA, age 18, 1309 Brickell Avenue, Miami, Florida, a member of the Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil (DRE - Student's Revolutionary Directorate or Student's Directorate of Cuba), advised that she had gone to Dallas, Texas, from Miami, Florida, for an open meeting of the DRE in that city, held on October 13, 1963. She stated that on October 13, 1963 a meeting for Spanish speaking persons was held at about 1 PM in the Dreyfus Club, Dallas, and she estimated about 70 persons attended this meeting.

She said a second meeting was held at 8 PM, October 13, 1963 in a conference room over a bank in a shopping center at Dallas, and this meeting was for English speaking persons, and she estimated about 30 attended. She stated that these meetings had previously been advertised at Dallas in order to give the interested public an opportunity to hear discussion by DRE members of the Cuban situation.

Miss SILVEIRA stated at the meeting on the evening of October 13, 1963 a sheet of paper was passed among those in attendance and those who were interested in receiving the bi-weekly English language publication THE CUBAN REPORT, which is composed by the DRE in Miami, were requested to furnish their name and address. She stated she also made note of the names of those individuals present who made contributions to the DRE at the meeting.

Miss SILVEIRA stated she had the list at the office of the DRE in Miami, and she was relatively certain that the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was not included in the list. She further stated she has seen many

JOAQUIN MARTINEZ DE PINILLOS, age 22, stated he is in charge of publishing THE CUBAN REPORT for the DRE, 1705 S.W. 3rd Avenue, Miami, Florida. He stated that ANA SILVEIRA, MANUEL SALVAT, the latter an officer of the DRE, and himself, traveled from Miami to Dallas, Texas, in October, 1963 for the purpose of holding public meetings to inform those interested of the work the DRE has done and hopes to do with respect to the CASTRO regime in Cuba. Mr. PINILLOS stated that DEAN PERKINS, 11022 Gannetta Drive, Dallas, Texas, assisted the DRE in organizing the meetings and arranging the publicity attached to the meetings.

He said this publicity included an appearance on a television station at Dallas, and also contact with the DALLAS MORNING STAR, a daily newspaper published in Dallas, TEXAS

Mr. PINILLOS stated Miss SILVEIRA and himself addressed the English speaking audiences which attended the DRE meetings. He said that in addition to the meeting on the evening of October 13, 1963, in Dallas, two meetings were held at the University of Dallas, one at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, and one at some High School in Dallas. He estimated that at the meetings held in Dallas on October 13, 1963, approximately 50 to 60 persons attended the afternoon session, which was addressed by MANUEL SALVAT, and approximately 25 to 30 attended the evening session. He stated at neither of these meetings did any one in the audience attempt to bring up any debate or agitation. He said that he did not give any close observation to any of the English speaking persons present on the evening of October 13, 1963, and therefore could not state whether LEE HARVEY OSWALD may have been present.

On December 28, 1963, Mr. EDGAR A. BUTTLE, visiting at the Croydon Arms Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida, was interviewed relative to a letter written by him as of December 14, 1953 to Mr. MELVIN ROMAN, Domestic Relations Court, New York City. The letter was on stationery of the Finch and Schaefler Bar Building, 36 W. 44th Street, New York City. The letter stated as follows:

"Dear Mr. ROMAN:

"Mrs. OSWALD informed me that she had just received a notice to the effect that she was to appear with her son before you on December 9, 1953 in connection with possible treatment of her son.

"I indicated to her that I would get in touch with you for the purpose of arranging another appointment. Unfortunately, I became tied up with other matters and did not contact you. However, I want you to know that failure to contact you was not the fault of Mrs. OSWALD. It is my thought that some serious consideration should be given to having the boy receive private clinical treatment if it is really necessary. It has been my impression that the boy has the feeling he is being kept under surveillance so extensively that he is beginning to feel abnormal. While I am highly in favor of psychiatric treatment and its accomplishments I feel in this case there is a possibility it is being overdone. In any 'event I shall be very glad to discuss the matter with you so that I may know more about the facts.

"Thanking you for giving this matter your kind attention, I remain, Sincerely yours,

'EDGAR A. BUTTLE"

Date 12/30/63

Mr. EDGAR A. BUTTLE, visiting at the Croydon Arms Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida, stated his permanent residence is 3636 16th Street N.W., Washington, D.C. He stated he is a Hearing Commissioner for the Federal Trade Commission. He related that during the period 1952 to 1956 he was associated with the law firm of Finch and Schaefler at 36 W. 44th Street, New York City.

Upon recollection Mr. BUTTLE said he vaguely recalled having made some contact with a member of the Domestic Relations Court, New York City, possibly a Mr. ROMAN, during the period in which Mr. BUTTLE was associated with the firm of Finch and Schaefler.

It was Mr. BUTTLE's recollection that the matter pertained to a truancy problem of a boy whom Mr. ROMAN apparently considered too closely tied to the mother's apron strings. Mr. BUTTLE said he may have remarked to Mr. ROMAN that it was conceivable that the problem of the boy in question could be the result of too close supervision of the boy by the court or school officers, resulting in a psychiatric condition being forced upon the youth.

Mr. BUTTLE said he had no recollection of the name OSWALD, and following the assassination of President KENNEDY and the publicity given to OSWALD, he, BUTTLE, had no realization that he had in the past any connection with the individual [redacted] HARVEY OSWALD. He said he could not recall how the matter may have been referred to him, but indicated that Judge EDWARD R. FINCH, or the latter's secretary may have asked him to handle the matter. He said he doubted that the case was anything more than a "total gratuity" and did not know if there might be any record with the firm of Finch and Schaefler.

ADMINISTRATIVE CONT'D.

The above-mentioned NYairtel of 12/27/63 reflected that on 12/26/63 [redacted] (protect), [redacted] NYC, advised SAS ROGER H. LEE and VINCENT J. WARGER that the luncheon mentioned in NYtel of 12/16/63, was held at the apartment of Mrs. HELEN PUTNAM, 301 East 62nd Street, NYC. [redacted] stated that Mrs. PUTNAM is an employee of NY University [redacted] is a close acquaintance of Mrs. ROGER YOUNG, mother of RUTH HYDE PAINE, and she identified this individual as Mrs. ARTHUR PAULL of Philadelphia, exact address unknown. She stated that Mrs. PAULL is also a close acquaintance of RUTH HYDE PAINE and MICHAEL RALPH PAINE. She commented that Mrs. PAULL is the sister-in-law of Mrs. GUSTAVE RAGLER, also mentioned in NYtel of 12/16/63 as being present at this luncheon. [redacted] advised that Mrs. PAULL's husband is employed by the Government of Afghanistan in an unknown capacity. According to [redacted] Mrs. PAULL is the person who spoke to RUTH PAINE's mother after the assassination and the individual who made the statement that RUTH PAINE's father-in-law, LYMAN PAINE, is a registered Communist.

[redacted] stated that [redacted] at the luncheon was a Mrs. DOROTHY PLUMMER of Mexico City, Mexico. She stated that Mrs. PLUMMER is listed in the Mexico City Telephone Directory under the name of RICHARD PLUMMER.

[redacted] stated that the only person present at the luncheon who appeared to know RUTH HYDE PAINE and MICHAEL RALPH RAINE was Mrs. ARTHUR PAULL. [redacted] remarked that although she did not know Mrs. PAULL's exact address she felt that Mrs. PAULL could be located through the Philadelphia Social Register.

ADMINISTRATIVE CONT'D.

The above information is not being set forth in the details of this report inasmuch as the original source of the information re LYMAN PAINE is [redacted] and results of her interview will be submitted by the Philadelphia Office in form suitable for dissemination.

Information set forth herein reflects contact at the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC), NYC, by SAS ROGER H. LEE and DONALD E. HALTER on 12/24/63.

In connection with this contact, on 12/24/63 [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on the evening of 12/24/63, and subsequent to SAS contact at PYOC, MARVIN MARKMAN, Vice-Chairman of the PYOC and Advance, was contacted by MICHAEL ZAGAREL, the individual who was present at the PYOC office and contacted by SAS re OSWALD. Source stated that ZAGAREL advised MARKMAN that the FBI had made an inquiry today as to any correspondence in the PYOC file re OSWALD. After being assured by ZAGAREL that the Agents were not afforded the opportunity to review PYOC files, MARKMAN stated that he would contact ALVA BUXENBAUM, Chairlady of the PYOC, and inform her of the FBI visit.

Source advised that MARKMAN then contacted BUXENBAUM and MARKMAN suggested that they check their files, although he is positive they don't have anything, and then write a letter to the Presidential Commission advising them formally that there is no correspondence re OSWALD. BUXENBAUM remarked that she doesn't know what is in the PYOC files but agreed that they probably do not have anything re OSWALD. BUXENBAUM then commented that she would look through the PYOC files and that if there is something she would forward it to the Commission, remarking that she would not contact the FBI.

DETAILS:

The following investigation was conducted in an effort to determine present whereabouts of JOHN HOWARD BOWEN in order that this individual may be interviewed regarding subject:

On December 23, 1963, SIDNEY A. DAVIS, Assistant Chief, Records Administration and Information Section, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), 20 West Broadway, New York City, advised SA WILLIAM F. MARTIN that a review of airline and steamship records located at INS failed to disclose any identifiable information regarding one JOHN HOWARD BOWEN and his alleged departure from New York on November 13, 1963. DAVIS stated, however, that INS files did reveal that on November 13, 1963, one GEORGE F. BOWEN, Passport Number [redacted]

Date 1/2/64

On December 24, 1963, Mike Zagarel was one of several individuals present at the headquarters of the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC), 80 Clinton Street, New York City. Zagarel was advised by interviewing Agents that they were interested in determining if the files of the PYOC contained any information which would assist them in the investigation regarding Lee Harvey Oswald and the assassination of President Kennedy.

Zagarel stated that representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) were not welcomed at their organization and that the PYOC did not have to and would not cooperate with the FBI in any investigation. He stated that he was an officer of the PYOC but would not state in what capacity. He stated that he would not answer any additional questions and the interview was terminated.

Arnold Petersen, National Secretary and Treasurer, Socialist Labor Party (SLP) and New York Labor News Company, 61 Cliff Street, New York 38, New York, advised that he has been the National Secretary and Treasurer of the SLP since 1914.

He explained that approximately two weeks ago he received a letter from Horace Twiford, Houston, Texas, who is a National Committee Man at Large in the State of Texas for the SLP. Twiford advised, in his letter, that he had been contacted by a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in Texas who was inquiring about Lee Harvey Oswald. Petersen did not have a copy of this correspondence but stated that Twiford had indicated that Oswald had evidently received literature from the SLP. Petersen said that he had never heard of Oswald until the assassination of President Kennedy. After the receipt of Twiford's letter, he immediately had all records reviewed but no record was located pertaining to Oswald.

He added that Oswald could have written to their organization requesting literature and a regular form letter would have been sent to Oswald with any literature he requested. Petersen stated that the SLP has no organization in the State of Texas and that any literature forwarded to Oswald in Texas would have been initially sent to Twiford and he in turn would have forwarded same to Oswald. Petersen stated that usually these inquiries for literature are destroyed and he reiterated that his organization has no record regarding Oswald.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY OF THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book "This Time The World," copyrighted in 1961, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia, newspaper, reported that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that ROCKWELL'S party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 19, 1963, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by ADOLF HITLER. He added that ROCKWELL is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the American Nazi Party, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first, "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and the truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and, fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

PROGRESSIVE YOUTH
ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

On February 9, 1961, a source advised that the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC) was established at a national socialist-oriented youth conference held in Chicago, Illinois, December 30, 1960, through January 1, 1961. This conference was the result of a mandate issued by the National Executive Committee, Communist Party, USA, calling for a youth conference to establish an organizing committee whose objective would be to set up a national socialist-oriented youth organization. The conference scheduled a convention to be held within a year to found a new national socialist-oriented youth organization.

On June 18, 1962, a second source advised it was reported at the meeting of the National Council of the PYOC held New York, New York, June 16 and 17, 1962, that although it had been planned to form a Marxist-oriented youth organization by the Fall of 1962, it would not be possible to form such an organization for the next few years.

On May 7, 1963, a third source advised the PYOC has its headquarters at 80 Clinton Street, New York, New York.

Bufile 105-82555

While discussing other matters with J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission today, it was mentioned that newspapers had carried a story to the effect that Marina Oswald would be interviewed by members of the Commission in Dallas in the near future. Mr. Rankin advised that the Commission definitely intended to interview Mrs. Oswald sometime in the near future. Mr. Rankin was asked whether or not the Commission intended to provide its own Russian interpreter or whether they desired the Bureau's Russian interpreter to be present on such an interview.

Mr. Rankin was extremely appreciative of the offer of the Bureau's interpreter but stated consideration was being given to using a U. S. State Department interpreter. He commented that Mr. James Martin, the individual at whose home Marina Oswald is presently living, and her business agent, as well as her attorney, Mr. Thorne, had indicated when they talked to the Commission that there was a feeling of animosity on the part of Mrs. Oswald toward Bureau Agents in that she felt Bureau Agents were responsible for her husband losing his job wherever he when to work.

The attention of Mr. Rankin was called to the employment checks where Oswald had been employed and before the full facts could be discussed with him, Mr. Rankin commented that from what he had been told of the investigation conducted it was clearly set forth that Oswald was not much of an employee and he could readily understand Oswald wanting to blame someone for his loss of employment and apparently had seized upon the FBI rather than admit his own shortcomings as an employee.

Memo to Mr. Belmont from A. Rosen
re: President's Commission

Mr. Rankin stated some consideration was being given to asking the interpreter who handled the interviews for the FBI with Mrs. Oswald, as well as the interpreter of the Secret Service who had been interviewing her to be present at the interview to be conducted by the President's Commission so that any discrepancies could be straightened out during the time of the interview. Mr. Rankin advised that no definite arrangements had been made but he would advise the Bureau in the event it was decided to have the Bureau's Russian interpreter present during the interview.

Mr. Rankin indicated that when he talked with Messrs. Martin and Thorne, Mrs. Oswald's business agent and attorney, he requested they endeavor to have her prepare a statement in her own handwriting which would cover every detail that she could remember of her association with Lee Harvey Oswald, to include all actions, statements, and any details of conversations she could recall, beginning with the first time she met Oswald in Russia and continuing up to the time of his death on 11/24/63. Mr. Rankin commented he did not know how successful the results of this request would be but he hoped it might serve as the basis for a rather short interview with Mrs. Oswald rather than a long, drawn out interview with her.

Mr. Rankin advised on a confidential basis that there was a possibility the interview with Mrs. Oswald would now be handled in Washington, D. C., rather than in Dallas, Texas, as has been quoted in the newspapers and that there was also a strong possibility that Chief Justice Earl Warren would be in on the interview.

Rereps of SA James A. Marley, Jr., dated 12/13/63 and 12/16/63 at Newark.

Bureau does not desire to disseminate rereps. Note that subject's wife maintains he was unable to speak the Spanish language and none of subject's Marine Corps associates at Santa Ana, California, have furnished any information concerning his Spanish language ability except Nelson Delgado whose interviews are reported in rereps. Note that Jacksonville 12/27/63 teletype reports David Christie Murray, Jr., former Marine associate of subject and Delgado, has no knowledge of Oswald's Spanish language ability and denied that he, himself, received any Spanish language instruction from Delgado as claimed by the latter. In view of this, and in light of Delgado's admitted inability to write proficiently in Spanish, it appears to Bureau that he may be exaggerating his ability to teach the language. Rereps record that according to Delgado subject in 3-to-4-month period became highly proficient in speaking Spanish under Delgado's instruction. While Delgado denies writing ability in the language, he is reported as having maintained that portion of his training of Oswald involved exchange of written notes in Spanish while they were employed in "silent" area.

Reinterview Delgado and pin him down as to exact nature of Spanish instruction afforded Oswald and as to degree of proficiency allegedly reached in language by subject. In former regard, resolve discrepancy concerning Delgado's lack of proficiency in writing language and his statements concerning written instruction. In latter regard, determine exactly what Delgado means concerning the high degree of proficiency in the language reached by subject. Endeavor to ascertain if Delgado has been exaggerating his statements concerning his ability as instructor and Oswald's proficiency in the language. Question him concerning others at Marine base who he may have instructed in language and point out that Murray has denied receiving any instruction from him.

Conduct inquiry at Delgado's point of assignment to determine his general reputation and specifically his reputation for veracity. Ascertain if he has been affording Spanish language instruction to anyone at present base. Note that Delgado, according to one associate, was considered immature [redacted] Question him concerning latter point and endeavor to ascertain if there is any untruthfulness or exaggeration in his remarks concerning Oswald's trip with him and 2 Negro Marines to Tijuana.

Bureau has noted the opinion of SA James A. Marley, Jr., on administrative page 12/16/63 reported that Delgado is telling the truth to the best of his knowledge and recollection. Bureau considers it possible that Delgado has exaggerated and since Delgado's information is not consistent with other information concerning subject's language ability we should make certain information attributed to Delgado is accurately and clearly reported and we should endeavor to avoid the possibility that Delgado may later change his story concerning his information about Oswald.

Carefully review rereps before conducting reinterview. Conduct reinterview promptly. Consider having Spanish-speaking Agent participate in interview to evaluate Delgado's fluency in Spanish.

NOTE:

In view of subject's trip to Mexico in September and October, 1963; his interest in Castro; and his possession of an English-Spanish dictionary, we are interested in his ability, if any, to speak Spanish. His wife denies this and the only source who has reported Oswald can speak Spanish is Delgado who claims to have taught him the language for 3-month period in early 1959 when Delgado, himself, was but 19 years of age. We feel to point of near certainty that Delgado is braggart and has exaggerated. Certainly, his claims as reported in rerep appear inconsistent and believed advisable to reinterview him to pin him down.

On 11/26/63 Mr. Edward Scannell Butler, 620 Gravier, New Orleans, Louisiana, Staff Director, The Information Council of the Americas, an organization which distributes communist educational material to Latin American countries, furnished Assistant Director W. C. Sullivan two reels of tape containing interviews of Lee Harvey Oswald. Butler indicated first tape was made on 8/17/63; the second 8/21/63; that Bill Stuckey of New Orleans was moderator; and the tapes were made in connection with programs of Station WDSU. Copies of the reels have been made for addition to Bufiles.

REVIEW OF REEL #1:

In this reel an unidentified narrator described program as first of series known as Latin listening post interviews dealing with conflict of U. S. and Cuba. Lee Oswald was identified as secretary of New Orleans Chapter, Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), who had been arrested for distributing pro-Castro literature. He was interviewed by moderator in question and answer form. Oswald claimed he was secretary of FPCC in New Orleans and that he did not belong to any other organization. In answer to question as to whether Oswald was communist he reiterated he did not belong to any other organization. General discussion was had concerning FPCC literature and Oswald's interpretation of FPCC's policies and beliefs were generally discussed. Oswald stressed fact FPCC was only concerned with Cuban problem. Oswald indicated only Latin American country he had visited was Mexico. Oswald indicated FPCC did not support Castro but supports the idea of an independent revolution in the Western Hemisphere; that while Castro has indicated Cuba is Marxist country, it cannot be said that Castro is communist. Oswald very briefly touched on conditions in Cuba and other countries. He furnished the following background data concerning himself:

He stated he was born in New Orleans; lived for a short time during his childhood in Texas and New York; and attended Beauregard Junior High School for two years (place unidentified) and Warren Eastern High School (place unidentified) for more than one year. He stated that he and his family then moved to Texas where they had many relatives and where he continued his schooling. In 1956 he enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps and spend three years in that service beginning as a Private and rising to rank of "Buck Sergeant." Oswald stated he served honorably in the Marine Corps and then returned to Texas to work. He stated he had recently arrived in New Orleans with his family, which consisted of his wife and child. Oswald indicated he had become interested in the FPCC in 1960. Oswald felt Cubans were being pushed to the Soviet Bloc by U. S. policy and stated he still felt that way. There was no direct reference to the late President Kennedy during this interview.

REVIEW OF REEL # 2:

This reel sets forth an interview conducted by Radio Station WDSU, New Orleans, 8/21/63, during the program entitled "Conversation Cart Blanche." Present during this interview were Bill Slatter (phonetic) and Bill Stuckey, acting as moderators; Lee Oswald, identified as the secretary, New Orleans Chapter, FPCC; Ed Butler, identified as the Executive Director of The Information Council of the Americas, New Orleans; Carlos Bringuier, identified as a Cuban refugee and the New Orleans delegate of the Revolutionary Student Directorate, an anti-Castro organization.

At the outset Moderator Stuckey described Oswald as the only member of the FPCC, New Orleans, who has revealed himself publicly. Stuckey, thereafter, gave a resume of an interview he had with Oswald the previous Saturday. (This interview described above.)

During this program, Oswald admitted residing in Russia for three years.

When asked how many FPCC members there were in New Orleans, Oswald said he could not reveal this information and indicated that the FPCC "is not a secret society." He observed that the FPCC, since it is a political minority, must safeguard the names of its members.

Oswald made the observation that a Senate Subcommittee had found the FPCC not to be a communist-dominated organization and he also noted that the FPCC is "not on the Attorney General's list."

He claimed no knowledge as to the identity of the Honorary Chairman of the FPCC but identified V. T. Lee as the FPCC National Director. In answer to a direct question, Oswald refused to discuss his alleged renounciation of U. S. citizenship.

When asked if he was a Marxist, he replied " I am a Marxist."

Further effort was made to inquire into Oswald's activities in Russia and in reply Oswald did state that he worked in Russia but at all times was considered an American citizen. He further stated "at no time did I renounce my citizenship or attempt to renounce my citizenship. The obvious answer (to news stories that he renounced his citizenship) is that I am back in the U. S."

Oswald, thereafter, set forth the principles of the FPCC as primarily being directed toward the restoration of diplomatic, trade, and tourist relations with Cuba. He described the FPCC as an independent organization whose aims and ideals are clear and in keeping with the best tradition of American democracy.

At this point, guest Carlos Bringuier questioned Oswald as to whether or not he agreed with the speech of Fidel Castro on July 26 of this year in which Castro described John Fitzgerald Kennedy as " a ruffian and a thief."

In reply to this query Oswald stated as follows: "I would not agree with that particular wording. However, I and the FPCC does think that the U. S. Government through certain agencies, namely the State Department and CIA, has made monumental mistakes in its relations with Cuba. Mistakes which are pushing Cuba to the sphere of activity of, let's say, a very dogmatic communist country as China is."

Memorandum to W. C. Sullivan
Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Oswald also commented that the arms which we (the U. S.) stopped from going to Batista should have been dropped to Castro in the Sierra Maestra where Fidel Castro could have used them.

The pertinent portion of the interview ended at this time as the program had run its course.

KENNEDY'S ASSASSINATION: A SYSTEM IN CRISIS

SPECIAL SUPPLEMENT - Nov. 27, 1963

The assassination of President Kennedy, by a still unknown assailant, not only reflects the existence of serious political contradictions for the U.S. ruling class, but raises these contradictions to new heights. Evidences of oncoming crisis and of a growing instability and ruthlessness within the small circle of the U.S. ruling class include:

INSTABILITY

The apparently well-planned execution of the late President, revealing more than the work of some deranged individual;

The complete break-down of the bourgeois democratic process in dealing with the alleged assassin, Lee H. Oswald;

The obvious complicity of the local police and the national security forces in establishing the frame-up of Oswald, and their failure to adequately protect the President;

The subsequent contradictions between the local officials and the national officials in the ever-growing crudeness in attempting to turn the slaying of the President into a red-baiting circus;

The U.S. ruling class has made an arduous effort to portray itself to the world, and especially to its allies, as a symbol of stability and "freedom." The assassination and all subsequent events tend to undermine this thesis.

RUTHLESSNESS

The vicious attempt by many forces within the ruling class to use the assassination, in whipping up an anti-communist hysteria, to incite further acts of agression against the Cuban people;

The mounting pressure on the working people of this country, in order to halt their demands for progress in this period of crisis;

The campaign of violence and terror against the Negro people, especially in the South, to quell the rising demands for jobs and freedom;

The resort to open counter-revolution, with no attempt to cover up, in Cuba and south Viet Nam;

The attempt to use this "lull" to prevent the working people from renewing their struggle in the future;

The conversion of the assassination of the late President into some kind of third-rate spectacle by the ruling class, indicates their fundamental cynicism and their utter contempt on the American people.

OSWALD CASE -- HISTORY'S BIGGEST FRAME-UP?

"This is lynch law which mocks civil rights and frustrates solution of the murder of a President." Editorial in New York World Telegram and Sun, Nov. 25, 1963, on the murder of Oswald.

"La Monde's New York correspondent, Phillipe Ben, wrote that certain characteristics of American life were in question. He cited 'the animosity between the races, the tolerence of violence, the enormous publicity given to the most fantastic accusation devoid of any foundation.'"(N. Y. Post, Nov. 26, 1963).

"I've sent men to the electric chair on less evidence than we have against Lee Harvey Oswald." (Dallas District Attorney Henry Wade, quoted in the N. Y. Journal American, Nov. 25, 1963).

A STAGGERING AMOUNT of evidence--within four days of the President's assassination--already points to the possibility that the most colossal fraud and frame-up in history is being perpetrated on the American people.

Not one single detail of the so-called case against Lee Harvey Oswald has been described without serious conflicts in the "official" accounts. Not one of the multiple "witnesses" who ostensibly placed Oswald at the scene of the crimes has been identified by Dallas police.

The murder of Oswald--who denied to the end not only any connection with the assassination or the death of Officer Trippett, but that he was even in the building from where the assassin fired--was carried out with the obvious complicity of the Dallas police.

As the Pandora's Box of this case opens, angry grows with doubt. Whatever the final outcome, one thing is clear: the load of lies and distortions dumped on the public by the authorities and eagerly delivered by the press--sometimes printed directly contradictory reports in two different editions of the same day's paper!--shows the contempt which the police, politicians, press and TV have for the American public.

Just a limited sampling of the press in the N. Y. area

Embarrassments If it had not been for a recent quirk of events, the new face in Mr. Johnson suite might have belonged to Bobby G. Baker, the go-getter quick Secretary to the Senate Majority whose station under a cobweb-of-interest cloud set off a far-reaching inquiry in recent weeks. Mr. Johnson leaned heavily on Baker in the Senate and in the 1960 campaign.

Though there will be new faces, in other respects the new Administration is expected to continue on the general course both domestically and in foreign

While it is essential that revolutionaries evaluate all of the political aspects of the assassination, it is also necessary for revolutionaries to reject assassination as a conceivable form of political struggle. The killing of one man cannot alter the course of history. Only efforts by millions to change the particular political and economic system can be decisive. Mass efforts by the people to establish their own political institutions can only be accomplished over relatively long periods of time. No single flash of a bullet is powerful enough to free the workers from oppression, and win them political and economic security. Finally, assassination only tends to confuse the real issues that face the workers. It encourages the ruling class to step up the oppression of the people.

Assassination and individual violence, however, is part and parcel of the Capitalist system. All forms of its "culture" are used to inculcate the people to accept and expect violence from the ruling class as a way of life. Little children, from the moment of their first intellectual comprehension, are spoon-fed on violence. TV, comics, movies -- the children's "culture" in this sick society -- reek of violence and hatred. Our entire political structure is built on racism and chauvinism among people. This is the "accepted" way of life in modern America. To be sure, large amounts of hypocritical posturing are mouthed in attempting to disassociate from this culture. But the greater the amount of hypocracy, the more our children and our people are filled with the poison of racial hatred and social brutality.

The past Administration of the late President was one which intensified violence against the people at home and the People of the world. It was within this context, of stepped-up repression and terror, that Kennedy himself was murdered.

Here at home, terror against the Negro people was intensified, culminating in the unpunished murder of four Negro children in the Birmingham church. It followed on the heels of the murder of Medgar Evars in Mississippi. One could list endless examples of violence against the forces of freedom, including the killing of two people in the events surrounding the entrance of James Meredith into the University of Mississippi. Richard Moore, murdered white Postman, was another victim of oppression. His killer was acquitted. This martyr's assassination went unpunished. The past Administration took no action to punish the murderers. Terror has always been the by-product of racism against the Negro people. The Negro people of our country have always had to contend with the ruling class' version of "Law and order".

The Kennedy Administration never acted against the racists, and thereby encouraged more terror. Southern racists could only draw one conclusion from the present indictments of militant integrationists by Robert Kennedy in Albany, Georgia: that the Administration, which had yet to indict a single racist, was out to destroy the forces of racism. Under these circumstances, the racists were emboldened to act with impunity against Negroes.

In the Northern cities, police brutality against the Negro and Puerto Rican people increased, as Southern racists went scot free. Fighters for integration were mercilessly attacked by police horses and clubs. In New York City two young Puerto Ricans were wantonly assassinated by police in their patrol car. The police were exonerated by Mayor Wagner, and his police commissioner, although all evidence clearly points to a brutal assassination. When the Puerto Rican people protested these murders, they, too, were met with riot squads and clubs.

Recently, white and Negro peace workers, members of the Quebec-To-Cuba Peace Walk, were brutally tortured by police in Griffin, Georgia. One white "walker" Ray Robinson Jr., a 29 year old Negro from Washington, was stretched full length on the floor while police burned his legs, arms and spine. They shifted the electric prod into his genitals and held it firmly in place. (National Guardian, Nov. 21). Robert Kennedy's "Justice" Department has yet to act against the terrorism of such forces.

Abroad, the Kennedy Administration's policies have become more ferocious. The brutal war of genocide against the people of South Viet-Nam could only further encourage more openly fascist forces in this country. Similarly, the Administration's support of Nazis in Germany, and fascists in Spain, Portugal, South Africa, Iraq, the Dominican Republic and the Congo made this ideology the order of the day at home.

The Administration's constant effort to destroy the Cuban government was, and is, a consistent campaign of brutality and terror against the Cuban people. It has included invasion, bringing death to thousands. It includes an embargo, producing hardship and is attempting to create starvation. It consists of bombings and raids, killing scores, and compelling the entire Cuban population to live under combat readiness. More dangerous is the fact that Kennedy's policies on Cuba almost brought the world to nuclear war. Only days before his death, the late President called upon the Cuban people to overthrow their government, which would necessarily include the assassination of their revolutionary leaders.

All of the policies of the Administration concerning the peoples of the world were fraught with oppression, even those policies cloaked with liberal connotations. The "Alliance for Progress", which was hailed as a boon to the people of Latin America, actually further depressed the already impoverished conditions of the people.

And finally, on several occasions our government has engineered or supported actual organized assassinations with great relish. The assassination of Patrice Lumumba was warmly welcomed by the Kennedy Administration. Furthermore, assassination has also been a way of eliminating friends who have outlived their usefulness to the Administration. Only weeks before the Kennedy assassination, the Administration (and many who now cry hypocritical tears for Kennedy) were laughing up their sleeves over the U.S. - inspired assassination of Diem and his brother in South Viet-Nam.

Thousands of young Americans have been trained in "advanced" techniques of political assassination, guerrilla warfare, wars of terror behind the "enemy" lines, and extreme forms of brutality against oppressed peoples. Kennedy hailed these "special forces". These trained killers symbolically held special prominence at his funeral. The military mentality more and more has permeated our country. The ultimate terror of nuclear blackmail has impelled a fantastic over-kill atomic stockpile, produced through an arms budget which increased by more than ten billion dollars during the first year of the Kennedy Administration.

It is within this very soil of the Administration's own policies that the forces were nourished to snuff out the President's life. President Johnson now pledges faithfully to carry out these very same policies. Johnson calls on the people to "unite" around this program -- a program that is not only rife with terror and violence, but with continued economic oppression of the American people. It would mean uniting for more unemployment, uniting for lower wages, uniting to allow automation to snuff out 40,000 jobs each week -- already the editorialists are warning the railroad workers to accept the Administrations' slash of 80,000 operating craft jobs, in the name of "unity". It would also mean uniting to oppose the shorter work day and uniting to smash any militants in the labor movement, such as Hoffa.

In short, this is "unity" to oppose progress for U.S. workers. No wonder, with Kennedy barely in his grave, Tuesday's papers report the stock market "soaring"; Johnson promises to carry out his predecessor's policies with a vengeance.

The immediate reaction to the assassination of Kennedy was that it was the work of open facist forces in Dallas. This was based on the well known strength of these people in the area, and the recent attack on Adlai Stevenson when he spoke in Dallas. Along wiht this reaction came the notion that "extremes of all forms" in the U.S., had to be eliminated.

In this manner, the groundwork was being laid for the equation of the Left and the militant sections of the Negro Movement with the facist Right. Thus, even if it is positively proven that a Rightest killed Kennedy, Negro and Puerto Rican street demonstrations will become labeled "extreme" that sow the seeds of hate, rather than the direct challenge that they are to the racists and oppressive ruling class. Under any circumstance, the militants among the people would be victimized. However, the Oswald frame-up provides the perfect foil: Obscure the role of the Right. Wipe out the Left. Resurrect the anti-Cuban hysteria. Use this mood to smash every progressive development in the country.

The well-developed crusade of anti-communism (which has been one of the strongest elements in the "streak of violence" developed in the U.S. in the past eighteen years) was used to convict Oswald on TV and in the Press. He was convicted without ever having a chance to establish his own defense. So virulent was the anti-communist onslaught that it compelled the new Johnson Administration to rebuke the Dallas District Attorney for wanting to claim in the indictment that Oswald was part of a communist international conspiracy to kill Kennedy.(For this would conflict with those policy of softening up the Soviet Union, and [illegible] the social world.

Many contradictory factors arose to temporarily blunt this anti-communist crusade. Firstly, Oswald stood firm and denied his guilt. Secondly, there was little tangible, and totally conflicting "evidence". Thirdly, the predominant section of the ruling class was chagrined by the loss of its most able spokesman and leaders. It may be unwilling to allow the Dallas police and Texas politicos to determine the immediate course of the ruling class. Kennedy had the unique ability to carry much of the working class (and so-called Marxist) along with his reactionary program.

If the open fascists refuse to follow the leadership of the dominant section of the ruling class it could lead to a sharper internal struggle within the ruling class.

Fourthly, the people all over the world have reacted with shock in regard to the assassination but with scepticism and disbelief to all subsequent events. This feeling of disbelief, undermining U.S. prestige abroad, was summed up in reports from Europe in the New York World Telegram Nov. 26th:

French Voice Doubts About Oswald Case

Paris, Nov 26 (Reuters) - A conservative Paris newspaper last night asked if the arrest of Lee Harvey Oswald as the assassin of President Kennedy was a frame-up.

Paris Presse headlined its front page "A Tragic Doubt" and asked, "Was Oswald the real guilty one? Was it not a frame up? Did they not want him to keep quiet?".

The independent newspaper Le Monde said:

"Even before the suspect [Oswald] was killed, certain observers had pointed out the contradictions and inadequate reports of the Dallas police, several of whom were quick to say the affair was 'in the bag' and Oswald promised the electric chair."

Le Monde added that the killing of Oswald reinforced these views and supported those "who see in it not an act of civic loyalty but the elimination of a man who knew too much."

Le Monde's New York correspondent, Phillipe Ben, wrote that certain characteristics of American life were in question.

He cited "the [illegible] between the races, the [illegible] violence, the enormous [illegible] given to the most fantastic [illegible] nation devoid of any [illegible] tion."

NEW YORK POST, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1963

Europeans See Plot In Killings

By E. H. SHACKFORD
Scripps-Howard Newspapers

PARIS, Nov. 26.—Ugly suspicions spread like wildfire in Western Europe today that attempts have been made in Dallas to hide or blur the real story behind President Kennedy's assassination.

"It will take a lot of doing for the United States to persuade its friends abroad that behind the Kennedy murder are not right wing extremists of the type who spat on Adlai Stevenson in Dallas a few weeks ago; the kind who bombed a Negro Sunday school in Birmingham, and who assassinated Negro leader Medgar Evers in Mississippi.

This has helped to compel the ruling class to begin to challenge, at least, the Dallas version of the murder.

Finally, the murder of Oswald, engineered by the Dallas police, publicly established their complicity in the assassination of the President. The Oswald murder was a sharp blow to millions of Americans who did feel affection, did genuinely believe in Kennedy, and were sorrowful over the murder of the President. Instead, they were told that they were naive suckers, that the assassination was a matter for ruthless politicians. [illegible] lining up their forces for the immediate period and the 1964 campaign. A ruthless, partly-open political struggle was sharpening up at the very moment many ordinary people were expressing genuine grief.

If the present Administration feels compelled, out of its own self interest, to expose the role of the ope[illegible] in the assassination, we would welcome it. However, this could be used as a diversion, simply to draw people's attention from the continuing anti-labor, anti-Negro, pro-war policies of the entire working class.

In the face of this continued ruthlessness and terror, the people and especially those who consider themselves fighters for socialism, should not be caught up in the whirl-wind of ruling class contradictions. The people should utilize every moment for pressing their demands. They should not wait for the Johnson Administration to resume the offensive as it will against the peoples' fight for a better life. Johnson's record is part and parcel of the oppression of the ruling class -- with a dash of Southern seasoning added for good measure.

The People are still faced with racism, unemployment, poor housing and schooling, high rents and high (or no) medical services. The People, if they are really to unite, should unite around programs dealing with these problems.

In many areas, particularly the Negro areas, the people are more able to draw positive conclusions from the assassination. They are able to relate it to their own experiences. It will not hold them back. In Harlem a typical reaction was "If they had has many cops in Dallas as they did up here on 116th Street this summer, would'n't have been shot". Another said "perhaps now white America knows what went through Negroes when Evers was killed and those four little girls were blown up in Birmingham". (New York Post, Nov. 24, 1963).

To the extent the people organize around program geared to their needs, to that extent will it lay the basis for the defeat of repression from all quarters.

1. Oswald's Whereabouts:

WAITING AT THE WINDOW?

"The killer was stationed at a fifth floor window of a warehouse overlooking the area--police later found traces of a fried chicken he apparently munched while waiting". (N.Y. Post Nov. 22).

AT WORK ON HIS JOB?

"The events preceding Oswald's arrest was sketched by a Dallas detective, Ed Hicks. He said Oswald was at work at his job on the fifth floor from which the fatal shots were fired. Shortly before the Presidential motorcade was to pass by the warehouse, a co-worker said, 'Oswald, let's go see the President.'

"Oswald answered, 'no, you go down and send the elevator back up.'" (N.Y. Post Nov. 24)

ON THE TOP FLOOR?

"An elevator operator, the chief said, recalled having taken Oswald to the top floor before the motorcade passed by." (N.Y. Times, Nov. 24)

.....

STOPPED OUTSIDE THE BUILDING?

"Oswald emerged from the building after the shooting. He was then stopped by a Dallas officer, who was apparently unaware that the shots had come from the warehouse. Oswald told him, Hicks related, that he worked in the depository and was going out to see what was happening."-- (N.Y. Post, Nov. 24).

IN A CORNER OF THE BUILDING?

"A police officer immediately after the assassination, ran in the building and saw this man in a corner and tried to arrest him; but the manager of the building said he was an employee and it was all right. Every other employee was located but this defendant ...A description and name of him went out by police to look for him". (New York Times, Nov. 26).

IN THE LUNCHROOM?

"The first officer to reach the six-story building, Lieut. Curry said, found Oswald among other persons in a lunchroom. He said the building manager identified Oswald as an employee of the book-distribution concern that used the building. Oswald was not questioned then. (New York Times, Nov. 24).

OR WHERE?....

"There were small conflicts in times and details as federal and state officials pieced together the tragic story. Mrs. H. C. Roberts, who works at the rooming house where Oswald lives, said he dashed in soon after 12:45 P.M. Police said the suspect was seen in the Texas Schoolbook Depository Building, from which the sniper fired, 12 blocks from his rooming house at 12:45." (N.Y. World Telegram, Nov. 23).

POLICE SAID.....

"After about five hours of questioning Oswald acknowledged that he was in the schoolbook ware-house at the time a bullet, fired from a Mauser rifle equipped with a sharpshooter's telescopic sight,..." (N.Y. Journal American, Nov. 23).

...AND POLICE SAID:

"Police said Oswald was in the building when the motorcade went past. Oswald denied it. He said he was at the movies in the Texas Theatre in Oak Cliff." (New York World Telegram, [illegible] 23).

2. The Gun:

GERMAN MAUSER"

"The rifle which killed the President was a 7.65 mm. Mauser, the military weapon made in Germany long before world war II, first produced in 1891, and made obsolete by other Mauser models adopted in 1895 and 1909.

"Pictures of the murder weapon show it to be well preserved and fitted with a high-mounted telescopic sight of moderate cost....

"The Mauser rifle is not automatic: it requires the shooter to operate a bolt to fire each round. (N.Y. World Telegram, Nov. 23).

AN ITALIAN RIFLE? OSBCURE ORIGIN"

"Captain Fritz said it was of obscure foreign origin, possibly Italian, of about 1940 vintage, and of an unusual, determined caliber." (N.Y. Times, Nov. 23).

"He said Oswald bought the Italian-made assassination rifle last March from a Chicago mail order firm, at a cost of slightly more than $12.00." (N.Y. Journal American, Nov. 24).

5.4?

"The assassination rifle was an Italian 5.4mm. Carcano bolt action weapon with a 4-power telescopic sight." (N.Y. World Telegram, Nov. 25).

6.5? LATE MILITARY ISSUE?

(Description of rifle shown in a photo of a mail order catalogue.): "6.5 ITALIAN CARBINE. Late military issue. Only 40" overall. Weighs 7 lbs...turned down bolt." (N.Y. Herald Tribune, Nov. 25).
(Other reports indicated the rifle was Argentinian or Australian).

....OR NONE OF THESE?

CBS Television news reported on the afternoon of November 25th that a movie made of the assassination showed that three shots hit President Kennedy and Governor Connelly in a period of "five seconds". If a bolt action rifle was used by the assassin--whether Mauser, Carcano or any other make--this means the assassin would have had to take aim, fire, pull the bolt to eject the shell, take aim again, fire twice, etc., and take aim and fire a third time, all within five seconds. He would have had to do all this without reducing the accuracy of his shots--at a target moving 25 miles per hour!

A rifle like the one that killed President Kennedy might be able to fire three shots in two seconds, a gun expert indicated after tests.

The elapsed time from the moment Mr. Kennedy was first struck until the car disappeared in an underpass was about five seconds.

(FROM DALLAS)

N.Y. TIMES 11/27/63

The Italian newspaper, Corriere Lombardo of Milan, said yesterday that if the Model 38 were used and that if more than one shot were fired, there must have been a second attacker.

In Vienna, the Daily Express said that a second rifle could not have been used to fire two bullets into President Kennedy in one minute, John H. Glenn, Jr. of Texas.

In Vienna, the Olympic shooting champion shot, Hubert Hammerer, said that the initial shot could have been made under the conditions in Dallas when Mr. Kennedy was killed, but he considered it unlikely that one man could have fired three shots within five seconds with the weapon used, according to [illegible]

(FROM NEW YORK)

WHERE WAS THE GUN?

"The Dallas Sheriff's Department said a rifle had been found in a staircase on the fifth floor of the building near the scene of the assassination. (N.Y. World Telegram, Nov. 22).

"The rifle was found near a sixth-floor window Times, Nov. 24).

"Under the fifth-floor staircase was the murder weapon--a 7.65 Mauser with a telescopic sight." (N. Y. Post, Nov 22).

"The 7.65 (roughly 30-caliber) bolt action Mauser German army rifle with four-power telescope was found tucked among books on that floor." (N. Y. World Telegram, Nov. 23).

"The gun was hidden on this same floor behind some boxes and bookcases." (N. Y. Times, Nov. 26).

Marksmanship:

"Oswald, an expert marksman in the Marine Corps . . ." (New York Herald Tribune, Nov. 25).

"As Marines go, Lee Harvey Oswald was not highly regarded as a rifleman." (N. Y. Times, Nov. 23).

3. Patrolman Tippet:

SHOT TWICE?

"Patrolling in Oak Cliff was Officer J. D. Tippet, 38. . . He was about five blocks from the Texas Theater. . .

"Tippet fell to the street, shot twice. How he accosted his slayer is not known."
(N. Y. World Telegram & Sun, Nov. 23).

SHOT THREE TIMES? WHILE WALKING?

". . . three witnesses saw a police officer. . . Officer Tippet motioned to him or said something to him. He walked up to the car. Officer Tippet stepped out of the car and started around it. He shot him three times and killed him." (N. Y. Times, Nov. 26).

OR IN THE THEATER?

"Oswald was chased into a movie theater by a patrolman who was shot to death, the police said, by the suspect. Another policeman subdued Oswald, who was 24 years old.

"Within moments (of the search of the building) the police received a tip that a man in a brown shirt had just dashed into a movie theater a short distance from the building where the rifle was found, the Texas School Book Depository.

"Patrolman J. D. Tippet and M. N. MacDonald ran into the rear of the theater in close pursuit. When they spotted the man, Patrolman Tippet fired a shot. It was returned by the suspect, identified as Oswald.

"The Patrolman was hit by the return fire and died instantly. Patrolman MacDonald rushed Oswald and grappled with him in the seats. (N. Y. Times, Nov. 23, City Edition).

OR WAS IT LIKE THIS. . . ?

Within hours of this last report, the N. Y. Times published a totally different report of events in the theater, with no mention of the first report:

"Then another call came to police headquarters from Julie Postal, cashier of the Texas Theater at 231 West Jefferson Boulevard, 6 blocks from the scene of the policeman's slaying.

"She said an usher had told her that a man had just entered the theater and was acting peculiarly.

"The investigating police officers were dispatched to the theater. They began checking patrons, starting at the front of the house.

"One of the officers, Sgt. Jerry Hill, said that when they came to Oswald, sitting in the rear, four seats in from the aisle, the suspect jumped up and exclaimed: 'This is it!'" (N. Y. Times, Nov. 23, Late City Edition).

4. Fingerprints:

NO PRINTS. . . .

"Police also found the imported rifle with the telescopic sight which fired the fatal bullet into Kennedy's brain. They said there were no fingerprints on it." (N. Y. World Telegram, Nov. 23)

NO COMMENT . . . .

"Wade would not say whether any fingerprints had been found on the high-power rifle, a 7.65 Mauser. " (N. Y. Post, Nov. 24).

. . . . . NO DOUBT

"Fingerprints of Oswald, Wade added, also were found on the foreign-made rifle. . ." (N. Y. Post, Nov. 25).

"Mr. Wade said that the Dallas police had obtained a palm print from the rifle that matched Oswald's hand." (N. Y. Times, Nov. 26).

"The evidence produced by the FBI, the local police and the Secret Service, included finger and palm prints showing that Oswald was near the window where the assassin's bullet was fired. (N. Y. Times, Nov. 25).

"The palm print was identical with the right palm print of Oswald, said Mr. Shanklin." (Dallas FBI Director) --- (N. Y. Times, Nov. 25).

FBI Disputes DA On Rifle Palm Print

Scripps-Howard Newspapers

DALLAS, Nov. 25 – There is a behind-the-scenes rift today between the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Dallas District Attorney Henry Wade after Wade last night gave reporters and TV viewers across the nation "unconfirmed information" that appeared to clinch the fact that Lee Harvey Oswald was President Kennedy's killer.

Wade said Oswald's palm print was found on the metal of the rifle which killed the President. Federal authorities have confided that no readable print was found on the murder weapon when it was flown to Washington for laboratory study. Dallas police authorities closeted with Wade for more than an hour before he made his national TV appearance, urged him not to disclose evidence compiled against Oswald at C

Dallas Det Fritz, who has ... extensive investigation into the President's murder, wanted to keep compiling all material evidence and present it in mid January, during the trial of Jack Ruby, who yesterday shot and killed Oswald in the Dallas police station basement.

Wade ticked off a long list of "hard" evidence against Oswald, but his statement that Oswald's palm print had been found on the foreign-made murder rifle was the most conclusion piece of evidence he presented.

'Hard' Evidence

Wade said he was making the evidence public because he had been getting "phone calls all day long" from all parts of the world seeking proof that Oswald was President Kennedy's assassin, after Oswald, the only suspect, was murdered.

N. Y. WORLD TELEGRAM AND SUN 11/25/63

Even those who believe(d) or would like to believe that Oswald is guilty cannot defend the treatment he was given. The noted trial lawyer Emile Zola Berman, quoted in the New York Journal American of November 26th, first pointed out that none of the so-called evidence against Oswald was conclusive, and then declared:

> "All that I am saying is that under the law he was presumed to be innocent and entitled to a fair trial. This is no longer possible and we are left only with the unilateral statement of the district attorney that he was the guilty man."

Editorials in every daily newspaper and papers all over the country were sharply critical of what the N.Y. World Telegram & Sun called, "An Outrageous Miscarriage of Justice."

Whoever is guilty of pulling the trigger in the assassination of Kennedy, the police force of Dallas and the FBI stand exposed as incompetent security guards at best. At worst, there is evidence pointing to an official assassination plot.

Some of the questions which remain unanswered are:

1) Why didn't the Secret Service, the FBI or the Dallas police keep an eye on all suspicious elements in the community, who were possible assassins? Why didn't they have Oswald under surveillance if he was such an obvious suspect? And why didn't they have the open right-wing fascists elements in Dallas -- who had given out leaflets attacking Kennedy on the morning of his assassination -- under surveillance?

2) Why wasn't Oswald apprehended in the building from which the assassin fired -- if indeed, he was in the building? And if he wasn't in the building - why wasn't the man who really fired the fatal shot apprehended?

3) Why was Ruby allowed to kill Oswald? Or why was he set up to kill Oswald?

4) Did the FBI question Oswald, as reported, about a week before the assassination, and if so, why?

N.Y. TIMES NOVEMBER25, 1963

Valachi Guard Recalled

There was disgust, too, with all the quality of protection given to Oswald. A postal employee, Anthony Jacona, asked, "How the hell come they can protect a guy as big as Joe Valachi but they let the whole world know where this Oswald was going?"

The events in Dallas evoked one woman on East [illegible] street of the city

N.Y. TIMES NOVEMBER 26, 1963

Called a Police 'Stiff'

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 25 (UPI)—A former business associate of Jack Ruby said last night he believed Ruby had killed Lee H. Oswald to avenge the slaying of a Dallas policeman rather than President Kennedy.

"Patriotic he wasn't a police stiff he was," said Herbert C. D. Kelly, once part owner of the Carousel Club in Dallas.

"Ruby wasn't very interested in politics, I doubt that he ever voted."

5) Why was the route of the Presidential motorcade changed to bring the President's car down Elm Street directly passed the sniper's window?

> "In view of possible hostility on the part of right-wing extremists, one group proposed that the Presidential motorcade proceed from the Dallas airport at a fast clip directly to the building where Kennedy was to address a luncheon.
> "Instead, the motorcade made a roundabout 10-mile tour of downtown Dallas and the neighborhood where the sniper lurked."

N.Y. DAILY NEWS NOV. 24

Who made the decision to change the route, and who knew about it? The most direct route for the motorcade would have been straight down Main Street, yet the cars "turned right to head directly toward the book depository, then turned left under the sniper's window." (N.Y. Herald Tribune, Nov. 24).

These questions and others like them will not evaporate. If suspicions of a fascist plot can arise simply from a careful reading of the published newspaper reports, those in high places in Washington undoubtedly know the truth. Whether or not they will do anything about it is another question, but there is every likelihood that we will see a sharp power struggle developed in the coming period.

Johnson has already ordered a full investigation by the FBI, which may indicate something about where the new President stands in this intrigue. Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr has ordered a state probe into the mess. The New York Times is calling for an impartial federal investigation. It seems that who controls the fact-finders in this case may also control the facts.

One thing is clear: the Johnson Administration will need something to cover up its policies of wage-freeze, appeasement of the dixiecrats, tax write-offs for big business and continued genocide in Vietnam.

If the administration makes no move against the open fascist forces in Dallas and the rest of the country it will be encouraging them to more terror and assassinations.

Kennedy's assassination and the criminal behavior of the lawmen have shaken the U.S. [illegible] of the lawmen have shaken the U.S. ruling structure to its roots. In the power struggle ahead, the American people may well be exposed to still more shocks shattering the phony front of the "Free World." When thieves fall out, honest men can learn alot.

SECURITY—what a word for it! Ruby had been hanging around the scene of the interrogation since Friday, and the police knew him and knew who he was and everyone knew he habitually carried a gun, but they didn't even frisk him before they let him in to watch the excitement.

What's the answer to that one, Tex? The police check the credentials of the reporters and the guys pushing the television cameras around, but give Uncle Jack such a buddy-buddy look just blends in with the scenery and they plumb forget to ask him to check his gun at the door.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

At 12:15 a.m., 12/7/63 one John Martin (phonetic), 327 Clifford Street; Alexandria, Va., Temple 6-6173, obviously intoxicated and quite incoherent, requested that Bureau Agent be sent to talk to him as he had important information. When pressed for the nature of this information he said that Oswald was not the man who assassinated President Kennedy; that we had the wrong man; that he knew Oswald casually 13 - 14 years ago in South Carolina and they used to drink beer together; that he was with Oswald 2 or 3 times, 13 years ago, and he wasn't the kind of man who would "do a thing like that." Martin's recollection of knowing Oswald years ago in South Carolina came to mind when he saw Oswald's picture on television. Martin was asked how old Oswald was when Martin knew him in South Carolina (13 - 14 years ago) and he said about 30 years old. Since Oswald was 24 years old at time of death, it appears that Martin is mistaken or is fabricating a story.

ACTION:

None. No listing for Martin in local telephone directory. Apparent falseness of Martin's information precludes further inquiry.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY, 11/22/63,
DALLAS, TEXAS

Mrs. JOHN EDWARD (MARGARET) PIC, also known as MARGE was interviewed at her residence 7306 Westville, San Antonio, Texas, in the presence of her husband, Staff Sergeant JOHN EDWARD PIC Air Force Serial Number AF11313239. Sergeant PIC insisted on being present, stating that Mrs. PIC is quite nervous, did not desire to be interviewed alone and would not in all probability disclose information if interviewed out of his presence.

Mrs. PIC stated she first met her husband's mother, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD and her son LEE HARVEY OSWALD in about October, 1952 when they came to visit the PICs who were then temporarily living in Mrs. PIC's mother's apartment at 325 East 92nd Street, New York, New York.

Mrs. PIC stated that Mrs. OSWALD privately advised her that it was her desire that she and LEE HARVEY OSWALD should live permanently with the PICs. Mrs. PIC stated that she privately but politely advised Mrs. OSWALD that such an arrangement would be entirely unsatisfactory and that it was her, Mrs. PIC's, intention that she and Sergeant PIC would acquire a place of their own and would live in it alone. Mrs. PIC stated that this discussion with Mrs. OSWALD occurred very soon after Mrs. OSWALD arrived in about August, 1952 at the apartment where she and Sergeant PIC were living and that her positive unfavorable reaction to Mrs. OSWALD's suggestion irritated Mrs. OSWALD and from that moment on Mrs. OSWALD did everything she could to turn everyone against Mrs. PIC and particularly to turn Sergeant PIC and LEE HARVEY OSWALD against her.

7 COPIES DESTROYED
21 FEB 07 1973

She said Mrs. OSWALD consistently started arguments over minor household matters, details of which are not now recalled by Mrs. PIC. Mrs. PIC said she did remember though, that the day after Mrs. OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD arrived in New York City, Mrs. OSWALD came out of her room crying and said LEE HARVEY OSWALD had slapped her because she had asked him to look out of the window to see if their car was all right.

Mrs. PIC said that during one argument, now believed to have developed because Mrs. PIC objected to LEE HARVEY OSWALD playing a television set owned by Mrs. OSWALD, LEE HARVEY OSWALD did pull out a small pocket knife with a blade opened and moved toward Mrs. PIC in Mrs. OSWALD's presence. Mrs. PIC said this scared her, that she backed away and LEE HARVEY OSWALD did nothing more. Mrs. PIC said she reported this threat to Sergeant PIC when he returned from work but Mrs. OSWALD denied that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had threatened her with a knife. Mrs. PIC said Sergeant PIC was probably confused as to what the truth to the matter was and she felt at the time that Sergeant PIC did not believe her.

Mrs. PIC stated that after the incident wherein LEE HARVEY OSWALD threatened her with the knife, she told Mrs. OSWALD to either get out of the apartment or she would have her brothers come and have her thrown out and this precipitated further immediate bitterness during which Mrs. OSWALD threatened to jump out of a window.

Mrs. PIC stated that several days after the above incident, Mrs. OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD did move away and some weeks thereafter Sergeant and Mrs. PIC went to visit them in their new place in the New York City area. address now unrecalled, and at this time LEE HARVEY OSWALD remained secluded in his room during their entire visit.

Mrs. PIC recalled on one occasion while Mrs. OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD were staying with her and Sergeant PIC that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was damaging a $20 bookcase owned by the PICs by placing beverage glasses thereon and that she protested to Mrs. OSWALD, which protest was ignored by Mrs. OSWALD. Mrs. PIC said she could not recall any other damages inflicted to table cloths or any other furnishings in the apartment by Mrs. OSWALD or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. PIC said she had never described LEE HARVEY OSWALD to anyone as an "extrememly coddled child" and she never so regarded him, her impression being that Mrs. OSWALD actually had no feeling for any of her sons except for what she could get out of them.

Mrs. PIC remarked that when the OSWALDs first came to stay with them for a time in August 1952 it appeared evident to her that LEE HARVEY OSWALD liked Sergeant PIC very much but in her opinion Mrs. OSWALD ruined this and antagonized LEE HARVEY OSWALD by "setting him against us."

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

December 10, 1963

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY, 11/22/63,
DALLAS, TEXAS

Staff Sergeant JOHN EDWARD PIC, Air Force Serial Number AF 11313239, Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge of the Clinical Microscopic Branch, Medical Squadron, Wilford Hall, U. S. Air Force Hospital, Lackland Air Force Base, principally in connection with reports that in the early 1950's Sergeant PIC's wife, then living with Sergeant PIC in an apartment at 325 East 92nd Street, New York, New York, had claimed that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had threatened her with a knife.

Sergeant PIC said that in about August, 1952, he and his wife, Mrs. MARGARET PIC, also known as "Marge" were living in an apartment at 325 East 92nd Street, New York, New York, at which time Sergeant PIC was a member of the U. S. Coast Guard stationed at the Coast Guard Port Security Unit, Ellis Island, New York. The apartment at 325 East 92nd Street was actually rented by Mrs. PIC's mother, Mrs. MARY FUHRMAN and Sergeant and Mrs. PIC were only occupying the apartment temporarily while Mrs. FUHRMAN was away visiting.

Sergeant PIC said that to his best recollection it was sometime in August 1952 that his mother, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD and her son LEE HARVEY OSWALD (a half-brother of Sergeant PIC) came to New York City to visit the PICs. Sergeant PIC remarked that in reality he believed his mother intended to stay permanently with the PICs although she had indicated she was merely there on a visit. At this time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was twelve years old and would become thirteen years old in October, 1952. This was the first time Mrs. OSWALD had ever met Mrs. PIC and Sergeant PIC said that his wife and his mother could not get along at all. He said that in his opinion his mother could not get along with anyone. He also said Mrs. PIC still believes Mrs. OSWALD was trying at that time to destroy the PIC marriage.

As to any incident in which Mrs. PIC reported to him that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had threatened Mrs. PIC with a knife, resulting in Mrs. OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD being forced to leave the PIC residence, Sergeant PIC said he had no recollection of that but believed such a report was probably an exaggerated account of an incident which he related as follows:

One evening when Sergeant PIC returned home from work, probably sometime in August, 1952, Mrs. PIC informed she was having problems with Mrs. OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD because of the way LEE HARVEY OSWALD was treating Mrs. OSWALD. Sergeant PIC said all he could remember of this was that it merely involved disrepectful conduct on LEE HARVEY's part towards his mother. Sergeant PIC said Mrs. PIC may have mentioned at the time that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had a knife but he said he had no recollection of her having alleged that he had threatened her or anyone with the knife. Sergeant PIC said he did talk to LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the time about his reported conduct toward his mother. He said LEE HARVEY OSWALD listened to this talk with outward respect but appeared to be unimpressed, by his subsequent repetition of such conduct, and Sergeant PIC expressed the belief that this talk marked the point when "he lost" LEE HARVEY OSWALD insofar as ever again enjoying friendly brother relationship with him.

Sergeant PIC said he did not order Mrs. OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD to move out of the apartment nor did he ever directly request them to do so. He said he did want them to move out because of the absolute inability of Mrs. PIC and Mrs. OSWALD to get along with each other and he and Mrs. PIC had hinted to Mrs. OSWALD that Mrs. PIC's mother would be returning soon to the apartment and there would not then be enough room for all of them. The Sergeant said he and Mrs. PIC had hoped Mrs. OSWALD would take the hint and leave on her own initiative which in fact she did about a week or two after the above mentioned talk between Sergeant PIC and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The Sergeant said he had not known in advance that Mrs. OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD would move out and returned from work one day to find that they had left. He said they moved to some place in the Bronx in New York.

Sergeant PIC said he and Mrs. PIC never blamed LEE HARVEY OSWALD for the above mentioned disrepectful conduct, both of them being of the opinion his conduct was the fault of Mrs. OSWALD who "kept dragging him around the country from one place to the other." Also Sergeant PIC said he knew Mrs. OSWALD had put LEE HARVEY OSWALD in a school on East 88th, 89th or 90th Street between 2nd and 3rd Avenue in New York City and LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not like theschool because Negroes attended along with white children.

Sergeant PIC said he and Mrs. PIC had even agreed that they would be willing to take LEE HARVEY OSWALD into their home and keep him provided Mrs. OSWALD would move away, however, he said he knew his mother would have interpreted this merely as an insult, would not have agreed, and for that reason no such proposition was ever advanced to her.

Sergeant PIC stated that sometime after Mrs. OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD moved out, as above mentioned, he learned from Mrs. OSWALD that LEE HARVEY OSWALD would not attend school and some sort of truancy hearing was held at which time it was recommended to Mrs. OSWALD that LEE HARVEY OSWALD should receive psychiatric treatment, however, Sergeant PIC understood from Mrs. OSWALD at that time, this apparently being sometime in the Fall of 1952, that LEE HARVEY OSWALD refused to submit to psychiatric treatment and therefore nothing was done about it.

Sergeant PIC said that in September, 1948 when he was living with his mother, LEE HARVEY OSWALD and PIC's other half-brother, ROBERT OSWALD in Benbrook near Fort Worth, Texas, Mrs. OSWALD told him (PIC) to quit school and get a job to help support the family. PIC did this, obtaining employment at Everybody's Department Store in Fort Worth, Texas, although he felt very intensely that he should complete high school for his own good. Shortly thereafter Mrs. OSWALD bought a house believed to be at 7408 Ewing, Fort Worth, Texas, so he and Mrs. OSWALD could be closer to their places of employment, Mrs. OSWALD at that time being employed at Leonard's Department Store or possibly one of the other big department stores in Fort Worth.

PIC related that in order to get into the U. S. Marine Corps Reserves for the purpose of bringing in a little more money to help support the family, Mrs. OSWALD signed a sworn statement before a notary public that he (PIC) was 18 years old when in fact he was only 17 and he did then enter the U. S. Marine Corps Reserves in October, 1948 at Fort Worth, Texas.

PIC stated that against Mrs. OSWALD's wishes he re-entered Arlington Heights High School, Fort Worth, Texas, in January, 1949, and continued to work part time at Everybody's Department Store but this store was opposed to part-time employment and accordingly released him in February, 1949. He then obtained part-time employment in Burt's Shoe Store in Fort Worth and continued his schooling in Paschal High School in Fort Worth. He stated Mrs. OSWALD continued her disapproving of his going to school, took no interest in his school work at all, with the result that he signed his own report card as well as excuses from school when he had to work and finally PIC stated he could do nothing more about his mother's lack of interest in his own future and decided he desired nothing more than to leave home. Accordingly in January, 1950 he joined the U. S. Coast Guard, being sworn in in Dallas, Texas, about January 25, 1950. He remained in the Coast Guard until January 31, 1956, and since February 1, 1956, has been in the U. S. Air Force.

PIC said both of his half-brothers, ROBERT and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, entered the U. S. Marines as soon as they were old enough to do so and he expressed the belief that each of them did this in order to get away from Mrs. OSWALD. He mentioned that neither they nor he did this with any idea of abandoning her as he stated all three of them in fact "sent the woman money" while in the military service.

Sergeant PIC said he had no recollection of Mrs. OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD having damaged table cloths or furniture while living with the PIC in New York in August, 1952 as previously mentioned.

Sergeant PIC observed that from the time he entered the U. S. Coast Guard in January, 1950 (when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was only about ten years old) he previously visited his home in Fort Worth, Texas, once, in about October, 1950, and did not again see Mrs. OSWALD or LEE HARVEY OSWALD until August, 1952, in New York City as detailed above. Then, from August, 1952 he did not see or communicate with LEE HARVEY OSWALD until Thanksgiving 1962 for only a few hours on that occasion, (PIC noting that he had explained that contact in a previous interview with agents of the FBI) and has never seen or had any correspondence with him since Thanksgiving, 1962.

Following the interview with Sergeant PIC'S wife on December 10, 1963, Sergeant PIC advised that after hearing her account at that time of LEE HARVEY OSWALD threatening her with a knife, he did recall Mrs. PIC having told him of that matter but stated he had forgotten all about it as he had not known what to believe at the time and had not regarded it seriously in any event because LEE HARVEY OSWALD was only twelve years of age at the time.

Synopsis: Mrs. ALICE KAYE, wife of ROBERT KAYE, was located at North Las Vegas, Nevada, and interviewed as to her husband. ROBERT KAYE's true name is ROMAN SOKOLOWSKI and has used last name KLONOWSKI. He left Denver, Colorado, 9/25/63, and Mrs. KAYE has not seen him since. She does not know husband's friends or associates, has no knowledge of organizations in which he might hold membership, nor does she know subject or have knowledge her husband ever associated with subject. On 12/9 and 21/63, she received telephone calls from husband in Tucson, Arizona. Her husband was staying at YMCA, Room 12, 516 North Fifth Avenue, Tucson, Arizona. Registration cards, Tucson YMCA, reveals ROBERT KAYE checked out morning of 12/23/63, and left no forwarding address. Mrs. KAYE reinterviewed 12/26/63. She had no knowledge of her husband's present whereabouts, nor did he contact her over the holiday. Her husband told her he was employed at small machine shop in Tucson, Arizona. He claimed to be moving to a trailer court in Tucson, but advised Mrs. KAYE she could write him at the YMCA address in Tucson. She described her husband as a liar and she cannot believe what he tells her. She will notify FBI in event she learns of her husband's whereabouts.

DETAILS:

AT NORTH LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

On December 24, 1963, Mrs. SUE KLUKAS, 3815 Nellis Boulevard, advised she does not know Mrs. ALICE KAYE's address; however, she furnished Las Vegas telephone number 642-9763 where Mrs. KAYE could be reached.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mrs. KAYE was contacted at the above Las Vegas telephone number and an appointment was made to interview her.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date December 30, 1963

Mrs. ALICE KAYE, 2411 Crawford Street, North Las Vegas, Nevada, advised as follows:

Her husband's true name is ROMAN SOKOLOWSKI and he has in the past used the last name of KLOKOWSKI. He is presently using the name of ROBERT KAYE.

B 12-25-1437

Her husband left Denver, Colorado, on September 25, 1963, at 10:00 AM, and she has not seen him since that time. On September 27, 1963, she received a letter from him which letter was addressed to himself at their Denver, Colorado, address, and this letter was postmarked El Paso, Texas, and bore no return address.

She subsequently learned from her husband that on September 30, 1963, he was in jail in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and that he has had an accident. She knows no details concerning this accident, but he claims he is going to get a settlement from the All State Insurance Company.

She does not know any of her husband's friends or associates, nor does she know of any organizations in which her husband has held or presently holds a membership.

She does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor does she have any knowledge that her husband has ever associated with OSWALD.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Her husband's friend, guardian, and sponsor, is EDWARD KLONOWSKI, 4621 Grace, Chicago, Illinois. She further advised that to her knowledge, her husband has not taken out his United States Citizenship papers.

On December 9 and 21, 1963, her husband telephonically contacted her in Las Vegas, Nevada, and on the latter date he stated that his address was in care of the YMCA, 516 North Fifth Avenue, Room 12, Tucson, Arizona. He further told her that after December 25, 1963, he would move to a trailer court in the Tucson, Arizona, area, and if she wanted to send him a letter she should address it to the YMCA address.

She described her husband as an "emphatic liar."

AT TUCSON, ARIZONA

The Phoenix Office advised on December 24, 1963, that efforts to locate ROBERT KAYE through the YMCA were made with negative results.

The registration cards at the YMCA reflected that ROBERT KAYE, born December 25, 1934, address listed as 13396 East Colfax, Denver, Colorado, was registered at the Tucson YMCA from December 12, 1963, until the morning of December 23, 1963.

Clerk DANIEL L. POTTER, YMCA, Tucson, Arizona, advised on December 24, 1963, that the day before ROBERT KAYE checked out of the YMCA he called his wife or ex-wife in Las Vegas, Nevada. KAYE had originally tried to telephone his wife in Denver, Colorado; however, this call was completed to KAYE's wife in Las Vegas, Nevada.

ROBERT KAYE, when departing the YMCA, left no forwarding address, nor was it noted whether he was traveling by car.

Date December 30, 1963

Mrs. ALICE KAYE, 2411 Crawford Street, North Las Vegas, Nevada, advised as follows:

Her husband, ROBERT KAYE, has not contacted her since December 21, 1963, nor does she know her husband's present whereabouts.

Her recollections, at this time, are that during a telephone conversation with her husband on December 21, 1963, he mentioned he was working at a small machine shop in Tucson, Arizona, as a Brown and Sharp Operator, and that he was to get paid on Monday, December 23, 1963. He also told her he was staying at the YMCA in Tucson; however, he was moving to a trailer court but she could write to him at the YMCA address in Tucson, Arizona.

He also told her that Mr. WARD of Superior Finisher's in Chicago, Illinois, was the owner of the machine shop in Tucson where he was presently employed. Her husband has in the past actually worked for Superior Finisher's in Chicago.

Her husband is a liar and she cannot believe anything he tells her. He does not know how to read or write, and when he talks over the telephone he mumbles; so therefore, she does not actually know if his employer's name is Mr. WARD or just something similar to this name.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

During the telephone conversation, her husband stated that he did not have a car and that he was walking on crutches at the present time. He had also told her that he had been in an automobile accident and was expecting a settlement from an insurance company.

The letter her husband sent to their Denver address from El Paso, Texas, contained five fifty dollar bills and a hand written note which told her to save the money.

Her husband had previously departed Denver, Colorado, to see BESSIE MOYEN of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Her husband did in fact obtain a loan from BESSIE MOYEN and this money was obtained so her husband could invest in the Colorado Lending Company, Denver, Colorado.

Her husband's present whereabouts are unknown to her; however, in the event she should learn of his whereabouts, she will notify the local office of the FBI.

Date December 24, 1963

OSCAR FERRINO, owner of the St. Anthony Hotel, Laredo, Texas, advised that JOHN HOWARD BOWEN has been staying at the St. Anthony Hotel in Laredo for many many years as he travels to and from Mexico. FERRINO stated that BOWEN is a Baptist missionary who teaches the Baptist religion in Puebla, Mexico, and at present is operating a school for approximately 25 to 30 boys. FERRINO advised that he has no records for BOWEN at the hotel for the past two or three months inasmuch as a typewriter belonging to BOWEN was stolen at the hotel and that he gave BOWEN free rent at the rate of $8.00 per week for room 108 which is the room BOWEN always occupies until typewriter is paid for and therefore did not enter his appearance at the hotel in the registery book. FERRINO stated that BOWEN is approximately 80 years old but appears to be around 60 or 70 years, is heavyset, bald headed, and is approximately 5'9" tall.

FERRINO stated that he forwards BOWEN his mail each Friday to the address of "JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, Emilio Carranza 4-A Texmelucan, Puebla, Mexico." Texas

II. BACKGROUND

SA 105-2309

The following investigation was conducted by SA HAROLD LEO FABRIZ:

AT SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

On December 23, 1963, Mr. MILTON FINK, General Manager, and Mr. FRED HOEY, Manager, Instrument Department, C. Bruno Company, 1100 Broadway, advised that their firm deals in musical instruments and related accessories. They advised that the photograph of a leather strap which was used by OSWALD as a rifle sling was apparently a guitar strap but was unlike any that they had ever handled or seen. They advised that the snaps on the widest portion of the strap were unusual and they could not advise concerning the apparent purpose of such snaps. They also advised that the straps which they handle are manufactured by the Vogel Leather Goods Company at San Antonio and are available in about ten different colors.

Mr. ADOLF VOGEL, 117 Military Plaza, Owner, Adolf Vogel Belt Manufacturing Company, advised on December 23, 1963, that upon examining the photographs of the leather sling used by OSWALD for his rifle, he could not identify the origin or source of such a sling which he opined was a guitar strap. He added that the metal snaps on the widest part of the strap were unusual and were dissimilar to anything produced by his firm. He added that the products produced by his firm are available strictly on a wholesale basis and are not available to retail customers.

Mr. GENE McKINNEY, Vice President, Maxwell Meyers, Inc., 830 East Houston, advised on December 23, 1963, that his firm is engaged in the wholesale distribution of musical instruments and accessories. He observed photographs of the rifle sling used by OSWALD and opined that it was a guitar strap. He added that his firm has never handled any item identical with the sling used by OSWALD and added that he was not able to advise concerning the probable purpose of the metal snaps on the widest part of the strap. He was not able to advise concerning the probable source or origin of the strap.

None of the above individuals were advised of the purpose for which the strap was used.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 23, 1963

Mrs. ANITA RODRIGUEZ DE LOSANO, 102 Felton, advised that she is a Civil Service Employee, employed as a secretary to Colonel WALTER W. MELVIN, Building 206, Kelly Air Force Base, and remained on duty in her office all day, November 21, 1963, when President JOHN F. KENNEDY was in downtown San Antonio, Brooks Air Force Base and departed from Kelly Air Force Base.

She stated that she did not at any time on November 21, 1963, go to downtown San Antonio, and did not observe any fat lady standing on Houston Street in front of Carl's Store or in the vicinity of the Gunter Hotel.

The following day, November 22, 1963, she states, she watched television off and on and recalls seeing and hearing an interview of the manager of the guest house where LEE HARVEY OSWALD had resided. She stated that she did not recall seeing any fat woman in the foreground or background in connection with this interview.

Mrs. DE LOSANO stated that sometime on Sunday, November 24, 1963, after the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBY, she observed a fat woman being interviewed on television. This woman was identified during the interview as a sister of JACK RUBY. She said this was the first time that she had seen this woman on television and had never seen her in person.

On the afternoon of Sunday, November 24, 1963, she and her husband, RAYMUNDO DE LOSANO, and her parents, FELIPE RODRIGUEZ and ANITA GARCIA DE RODRIGUEZ of 3114 West Commerce Street, San Antonio, met their friends, Attorney ARTURO ALCOCER RUIZ, Mrs. DELORES AHEDO DE ALCOCER and Mrs. ALCOCER's friend, Mrs. MARIA LUISA LEON, all of Mexico City at the Gunter Hotel, San Antonio, and proceeded to Mammy's Cafeteria, Donaldson and Fredricksburg [illegible] San Antonio, where they had dinner. While at dinner Mr. [illegible] Mrs. ALCOCER related seeing a fat woman several [illegible] in person on Houston Street in San Antonio on Thursday, November 21, 1963, seeing her on television on November 22, 1963, following the assassination of President KENNEDY while the manager of the guest house where OSWALD had resided in Dallas, Texas, was being interviewed, and last saw this same woman on television on Sunday, November 24, 1963, following the murder of OSWALD by JACK RUBY, when she was identified as a sister of JACK RUBY. Mrs. DE LOSANO stated that Mr. and Mrs. ALCOCER indicated they were almost positive in their identification of the fat woman being identical with the sister of JACK RUBY.

Mrs. DE LOSANO stated that insofar as she knows, Mr. and Mrs. ALCOCER and Mrs. MARIA LUISA LEON were by themselves shopping in downtown San Antonio on November 21, 1963, and were not accompanied by any San Antonio residents at the time they observed the fat woman on Houston Street.

Synopsis: Ammunition dealers located at South Houston, Texas, and Victoria, Texas, who have handled 6.5 mm western ammunition but none familiar with OSWALD and none could recall selling ammunition to person meeting subject's description.

- P -

DETAILS:

On December 27, 1963, records of Sloan's Sporting Goods Company, 88 Chambers Street, New York, New York, were checked and disclosed a shipment of 6.5 mm western ammunition was made to the following consignees in the general area of Houston, Texas:

In October, 1963, 1,000 rounds of ammunition were shipped to Kenlee's, 706 Winkler, South Houston, Texas, under invoice number 4938.

In October, 1963, 1,000 rounds of this ammunition were shipped to Victoria Army Sales, 401 East Rio Grande, Victoria, Texas, under invoice number 112630.

The following investigation was conducted by SA TERENCE D. DINAN at South Houston, Texas, on January 3, 1964:

KENNETH YOUNG, Kenlee's Gun Shop, 706 Winkler, verified the fact that in October, 1963, he received 1,000 rounds of 6.5 western ammunition from Sloan's Sporting Goods of New York, New York. He stated, however, that he cannot recall ever having sold such ammunition to LEE HARVEY OSWALD or anyone resembling him. He further advised that all of his business is strictly over the counter, and that he does absolutely no mail order business. He stated he does not keep any records reflecting the names of those persons purchasing ammunition from him.

The following investigation was conducted by SA HOLLIS Q. BOONE at Victoria, Texas, on January 2, 1964:

Mr. EDDIE PEARL, owner of Victoria Army Sales, 401 East Rio Grande Street, furnished the following information:

Mr. PEARL advised that he handled foreign ammunition and after searching his files located invoice number 112630 concerning ammunition purchased from the Sloan's Sporting Goods Company, New York, New York. Mr. PEARL advised that this consisted of two cases of 303 British, one case of 6.5 mm Italian, and one case of 7.65 Argentina mauser ammunition.

Mr. PEARL stated after observing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD that he had never seen him or anyone who resembled him, to his knowledge, in his store at Victoria. He exhibited the photograph to other employees who also denied that they had ever seen OSWALD or had ever heard of him until the recent incident in Dallas on November 22, 1963.

On 1/3/64, Supervisor R. D. Cotter, forwarded to the Laboratory the evidence listed below, together with a letter dated 12/26/63, from the editor of "El Diario - La Prensa," New York, New York.

Qc352 - Xerox copy of an envelope postmarked "Habana Cuba DIC 3 6-PM 1963" addressed to "Sr. Editor Diario De New York Daily of New York (Newspaper) New York, N. Y. (U. S. A.)"

Qc353 - Xerox copy of a letter dated La Habana 27 de Noviembre 1963 bearing salutation "Senor Director" and ending with the typewritten signature "Miguel Galban Lopez."

It was concluded that the typewriting on Qc352 and Qc353 was prepared on the typewriter used to prepare specimens Q232 through Q235, Q350 and Q351.

It was noted that the envelope, Qc352, is similar to the three previous envelopes in this case. It was further noted that the typed signature on Qc353 is the same as the signature on Q351; the date and the postmark of Qc352 and Qc353 are the same as those on Q350 and Q351.

There is no handwritten signature on Qc353 for comparison with the previous signatures in this case.

Q232 through Q235, Q350 and Q351 were three letters previously submitted, all bearing Cuban postmarks.

The submitted evidence is attached hereto. Translations from the Spanish of Qc353 are also attached.

RECOMMENDATION: That this memorandum and attachments be forwarded to the Domestic Intelligence Division.

To the Director of the "Diario de New York"
New York
United States of America

Dear Sir:

It is my pleasure to write this letter to inform you that the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was paid for by Mr. Pedro Charles, Fidel Castro's agent in Mexico. This man became a close friend of former Marine and expert shooter Lee H. Oswald in Mexico. They were seen together frequenting various night clubs. The above-mentioned Mr. Pedro Charles had to deliver to Oswald $7000 as a down payment for the preparations. Later he was to deliver $10,000 upon completion of the work. In other words, the crime was agreed upon for $17,000.

Mr. Pedro Charles, who uses other fictitious names and a diplomatic passport to enter and leave Mexico and the United States, is at present in the residence of the Cuban Ambassador in Mexico, according to the latest information in my possession. I want you to know before anybody else the truth about the Dallas assassination of President Kennedy.

NOTE:

Franklin, an inmate, Texas Department of Corrections, Huntsville, Texas, alleged that he met Oswald in October, 1962, while drinking with Oswald in Dallas bars and was introduced by Oswald to Jack Ruby. Houston's interview of Franklin contained SUFFICIENT specific information concerning Franklin's alleged association with Oswald to enable Dallas to either confirm or disprove Franklin's allegations, and on basis of information developed to date, Franklin's allegations are undoubtedly false.

On 12/18/63 Mr. DALE E. BASYE, 1311 Whispering Trail, Dallas, Texas, furnished copies of a letter which he had sent to Mr. MILTON H. ERICKSON, M.D., Phoenix, Arizona. He also furnished copies of the return letter that Doctor ERICKSON had sent to BASYE dated 12/13/63. BASYE's letter suggests the possibility that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was hypnotized by the Russians to cause him to assassinate President KENNEDY. Doctor ERICKSON's letter completely disagrees with the theory which BASYE had set forth in his letter.

BASYE pointed out that Doctor ERICKSON is supposed to be one of the most capable psychiatrists in the United States but wanted to emphasize that in his opinion the Russian people may have made considerably more progress in hypnosis than have the experts in this country.

Mr. Dale E. Pasye
1311 Whispering Trail
Dallas, Texas 75241

Dear Mr. Pasye:

I have perused your analysis of the Oswald case with care. In my opinion, based on 40 years experience in hypnosis at a professional level, the reading of practically every book and article on the possibilities of the use of hypnosis to instigate anti-social compulsions which are at a scientific level of approach, and many years' experience in connection with correctional institutions and psychological and psychiatric examination and treatment of criminals, I must express a complete disagreement with your theory from beginning to end.

To begin with, the book and the movie, "The Manchurian Candidate," are complete, utter, and pernicious nonsense from beginning to end. If there is a single idea in it which reveals a grasp of the nature of hypnosis or of the psychopathic or sociopathic type of personality, I have not found it.

In answer to your suggested questions the answers are completely in the negative. You have outlined a plot which by the nature of the inter-personal relationship known as hypnosis is impossible.

In a protected laboratory situation, hypnotic subjects will perform acts that have the semblance of being anti-social. In experiments where wrongful acts are actually to be committed against others, the evidence is very much against such anti-social acts being induced by hypnosis.

Cases which are cited as examples of anti-social behavior overlook the all-important factors of the demands of an experimental situation, the implicit agreement of a subject to carry out an experimental procedure, and the prestige and responsibility of the experimenter, all of which are as fully operative in experiments which hypnosis has no place, as in those in which it is utilized.

Reiter's book Antisocial Or Criminal Acts And Hypnosis, (Munksgaard-Copenhagen) has often been cited as proof that an actual crime could be performed by one person hypnotizing another and instructing the hypnotized person to perform the crime. In this particular instance two criminals, each separately guilty of major crimes, met in prison, became friends and upon release one robbed a bank and gave as an alibi the statement that he had been hypnotized into doing it, the other claiming innocence because he had committed no crime. The relationship between the two men was a peculiar and pathological mixture of dominance, homosexuality, esoteric interests, and criminality.

Later both men recanted their stories explaining that they had dreamed up the "perfect crime and perfect alibi." Also, there was no proof that one of the men had been hypnotized by the other. In other words, I know of no genuine instance in which hypnosis has been used for anti-social purposes except newspapers of questionable merit.

As any well experienced hypnotist knows, any subject, regardless of whether the trance is light, deep, or medium, can bring back to memory all trance events as well regardless of posthypnotic suggestions.

One reference which you might find of value in the evaluation of the experimentation into so-called instigation of anti-social behavior is the chapter by Martin T. Orne, M.D. in the book "Hypnosis: Current Problems," edited by George Estabrooks (Harper & Row).

In the very detailed analysis of Oswald's behavior as a result of a supposed plot, rather than as the egotistical and deliberate act of a disturbed psychopathic personality, one tends to lose sight of a simple fact. This is a consideration which a more naive view point can sometimes set clear with a straight forward, simple, wondering comment.
